CONTEST CLOSING

Old Time Whirlwind Finish Marks Contest for Congressman.

Next Tuesday is election day when a candidate for congress will be voted for in the general election in November will be chosen by the voters of the Eight district. There was a tendency at the beginning of the contest upon the part of the followers of Congressman Carlin to minimize the efforts of Col. E. B. White who is asking for the nomination in opposition to Mr. Carlin, but the past few weeks have brought about decided changes in the order of things, and Mr. Carlin's regular forces have been thrown into action along with available reserves. As is usual in contests of this sort the campaign managers for both candidates are claiming an assured victory. Mr. White has made tremendous inroads into the Carlin material lately and reports from some sections of the district indicate that he has routed the enemy and captured all the positions. On the other hand friends of Mr. Carlin are predicting a heavy vote for their candidate, especially in Alexandria city, the home of Mr. Carlin. They are also making strong claims for Fairfax county. Present indications are that this county will give Mr. White a majority, a large number of farmers in the county having declared for him in the last two weeks.

The third candidate, Mr. H. Earlton Hanes is not talked much of in this county, and it is not thought that his vote here will be of much consequence. However, he is sanguinely confident that he will poll a large vote not only in this county, but all over the district.

In discussing the outlook in Culpeper county a few weeks ago Mr. Hanes declared that Mr. Carlin would concede it to Mr. White by reason of his own strength there. He did not make an open claim to the county for himself, but was very positive that Mr. Carlin would be unable to carry it.

Loudoun county is conceded to Mr. White by some who claim to be in very close touch with the voters there.

As the matter stands now, it would appear that for Mr. Carlin to win he must come out of Alexandria city with a substantial majority, more than the friends of Mr. White are willing to concede.

KILLED BY TRAIN

L. D. Mendenhall Killed at Burks Station While Watching Troop Train.

Mr. L. D. Mendenhall, Jr., of Greensboro, N. C., aged 20 years, who for the past few months has been employed as assistant main Burks Station, was instantly killed Wednesday morning about 9:30 near Cameron Run, while standing on the tracks waving at a passing troop train. Mr. Mendenhall had been reading the meter at that place and stood waving at the troop train and did not notice another train backing in on the switch which struck him and crushed his skull.

The remains were taken to Alexandria and prepared for burial and later in the day were shipped to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Mendenhall, Sr. at Greensboro.

TWO POUNDS SUGAR RATION AUGUST 1

Households Put on Voluntary Cut Per Person by Food Administration—Necessary for Military Forces.

To assure equitable distribution of and to care for the immediate demands of the allies and American military forces, the American public is asked by the United States food administration to go on a sugar ration of two pounds a month for each person in a household, beginning August 1. Under a request issued by the food administration a month ago, the American public at present is on a three-pound per capita ration monthly. Household rationing will for the present be voluntary, but the public eating places will be required to observe new regulations effective August 1, permitting the use of two pounds of sugar for every ninety meals served instead of three pounds, as allowed under present regulations.

Unless the consumption of sugar is reduced both by householders and the public generally, the food administration warns in an appeal, supplies for Belgium, the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, Salvation Army and other organizations working for the welfare of American military forces in Europe cannot be maintained.

To insure equitable distribution of the sugar the American public is to be allowed, the food administration has worked out a scheme of allocation to the states based on population and the needs of sugar-using industries in the states. Each state food administration will have charge of distribution in its state.

THIRTY COLORED MEN GO TO CAMP TODAY

Camp Wadsworth, S. C., Destination of Large Contingent of Drafted Colored Men.

Thirty-three more of Uncle Sam's prospective fighting men left this morning for Camp Wadsworth, S. C., where they will go into military training and will later be transported overseas to join our forces who are making life unbearable for the Hun. The list today is one of the largest of colored men yet to leave Prince William county, and they go with a determination to help plant Old Glory on the Berlin palace of the Kaiser.

They were assembled at a court house this morning at eight o'clock where County Clerk Geo. G. Tyler gave them final instructions prior to entrainment, from which place they were accompanied to the station by a large number of their relatives and friends and given a rousing send-off.

The following is a list of those entrained:

Ervin Redd, Jake Fisher, Neabisco, Albert Kemp, Washington, D. C.; Geo. C. Horton, Manassas, Archey Crawford, Neabisco, William Green, Nokesville, Jno. Clarence Chapman, Manassas, Elton Saites Sheppard, Hildred C. Crawford, Neabisco, Chas. Edw. Harris, Gainesville, Frank Elmer Saunders, Manassas, James Cloe Pennington, Marshall, Willie L. Meredith, Manassas, Roy Hogan, Haymarket, Winston King, Lee Massey Scott, Haymarket, Cecil W. Wilkerson, Manassas, Edw. H. Corum, Waterfall, Lewis Saunders, Dumfries, Ollie Davis, Quantico, Walter M. Alexander, Bristow, Robt. N. Washington, Bristow, Percy Granville Brooks, Manassas, Thos. Geo. Berry, Gainesville, Randolph Nickens, Thoroughfare, Bard Smith, Dumfries, Edw. D. Hamilton, Manassas, Eugene W. Williams, Manassas, Russell Green, Nokesville, Geo. W. Tapscoff, Bristow.

Occoquan Potatoes of 2 Pounds.

Several potatoes of record-breaking size were placed on exhibition yesterday in the office of District Commissioner Gardiner at Washington. Some of them weigh well up to two pounds each. They were grown on the farm at the District workhouse at Occoquan.

SAYS RECORDS ARE CLEAR EVIDENCE

J. F. Kirkpatrick Insists That Mr. Carlin Deliberately Killed the Borland Resolution in Committee Report.

Mr. Thomas Frank, Editor, Fauquier Democrat, Warrenton, Ore.

Dear Sir: You affect an injured air because I did not give you an opportunity to publish my letter which appeared in the Warrenton Times, and other papers in the district. I am sorry, but frankly, are you sincere? I wish to assure you that I meant no injustice. But having read your paper constantly, and seeing that nothing except praise for Mr. Carlin had appeared in its columns and being reliably informed by friends of Mr. White that you had positively declined to publish any articles in his favor, even as a "paid advertisement," I felt warranted in assuming that you would decline to publish my letter. Is it not true that you have declined to publish any argument or article unfavorable to Mr. Carlin?

If you really feel aggrieved at my not giving you an opportunity to furnish the public with both sides of the argument, I will now make amends by requesting you to publish this, my rejoinder to your reply, which is, I submit, a very ingenious argument but weak defense of Mr. Carlin's attitude toward the Borland resolution.

You seem to stress the point that I paid for the insertion of this letter in the Warrenton Times. How does the fact that I paid for what I got—publication of the facts for the information of the public—detract from the substance of my argument and absence of any design to deceive the public?

You positively state that the Federal Trade Commission has made no report. I say that this is another misstatement in your letter and assert that this commission has made a report, and that this report (a copy of which I have before me) is dated June 28, 1918, addressed to the "President of the U. S. Senate," and begins as follows: "The Federal Trade Commission submits the following report in response to the direction of Senate Resolution 255 that it furnish the Senate with any and all facts, etc." relative to "profiteering," etc.

I again report from this report verbatim: "The outstanding fact in industrial surveys which the Commission has recently made is the heavy profit made by the meat packers and those allied with them, etc."

You prate about fairness and charge me with falsity and "play up" a letter of L. L. Bracken, secretary of the Federal Trade Commission. To be honest, aren't you adopting the methods of the shyster and the politician? Mr. Bracken, secretary of the Commission does not state that there has been no report of the commission. He does state, however, that the report of the Commission does not mention the name of the Hon. C. C. Carlin, and I again assert that there has been a report of the Commission, but this big letter would naturally lead the reading public to infer that there had been no report.

Who is deceiving the public now? When I spoke of the report in my previous letter, being a farmer, I did not mean to be technically accurate, but I assumed that the evidence taken by the Commission would be a part of the report; but if you want to draw this fine distinction between report and record, I now say that the record shows that Mr. Carlin was a friend of the packers. The evidence shows that he was practically a bosom friend of Livingstone, the high priced lobbyist of the packers; that he conferred and schemed with McManus, the paid attorney and lobbyist, of the packers to defeat the Borland resolution; and that the evidence in the record proves that the course of conduct of Mr. Carlin in dealing with this resolution—of so much interest to the people of this district and the country at large—was in keeping with the plan outlined in the communication of Mr. McManus to his superiors.

Like a lawyer, you make another fine point that I said that this sub-committee was composed of four members instead of seven. All right, what I meant to say and what I now contend was that the quorum of the sub-committee which acted was only four in number and that is a matter of record that has never been denied by either you or Mr. Carlin.

The stenographic report of the evidence from which I am quoting states that the first motion in this sub-committee (and even an ordinary farmer knows that the real work is done in the committee)—the quorum of four being present—was to report the Borland resolution adversely—on which motion Mr. Carlin voted for the packers.

This evidence shows that on the second proposition to report the resolution favorably, Mr. Carlin voted for the packers and against the people.

As I understand, this sub-committee must report back every bill or resolution that comes before it, and it reported it with no recommendation, and when it got back to the full committee—in keeping with the understanding had as per his communication with McManus attorney and lobbyist for the packers, Mr. Carlin offered the motion designed to kill it to load it down with $400,000 appropriation, nearly three times the necessary amount for the investigation.

I now insist that if Mr. Carlin was in sympathy with the producers and consumers of food products, and professes to be in sympathy with their economic interests that he "fell down on the job" that the original Borland resolution No. 148 never passed the House.

It is true that after the publication of the report of the committee action could be gotten from Congress they appealed to the President, and when the limelight of publicity began to center on the question and the persistent efforts of Mr. Borland brought the matter to a focus, Mr. Carlin did write the report, reporting favorably the Borland Amendment—not the original resolution as you and Mr. Carlin would have the public believe—to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill.

You state that the Congressional Record publish February 28, 1917, shows pages 5082 and 5083 that the House adopted the Borland Amendment to the Sundry Civil Appropriation Law authorizing the Federal Trade Commission to spend $400,000 and claim that Mr. Carlin is entitled to the credit. Is it not a fact that this huge appropriation of $400,000 (which is 2 1-2 times the amount recommended by the Federal Trade Commission) and which was cut down by the Senate to $250,000; absolutely in accordance with the agreed plan of Mr. Carlin and Mr. McManus, attorney and agent for the meat packers, as shown by his (McManus') report to his superior—to defeat the purpose of the Borland resolution?

Mr. Frank, to boil this thing down, I submit that both your and Mr. Carlin's defense is weak and pitiable. You resort to the suggestion that Mr. McManus adopted the "reverse code" and charged that McManus is a fraud and an imposter. I submit that is unreasonable and improbable for the following good and substantial reasons:

First: These big corporations only employ lawyers of ability, dependability and professional standing.

Second: This investigation by the Federal Trade Commission was public and above board. If Mr. McManus is a disreputable character, could not Mr. Carlin have easily appeared before this Commission and proved that he was an imposter and a fraud?

Third: Did not Mr. Carlin have every opportunity to appear before this Commission to testify on oath and denounce McManus and his methods?

Fourth: Are we not warranted in concluding that the fact that he did not appear before this body and contradict this severe imputation upon his integrity when he had opportunity to do so, is because of the fact that he did

TOWN COUNCIL HAD VERY BUSY SESSION

Raise in Light and Water Rates Was Decided Upon—Petition Granted to Extend Sewer Service.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Town Council Monday night, over which Mayor W. C. Wagener presided, there were present the following members of the council: D. J. Arrington, E. R. Conner, C. R. C. Johnson, C. E. Nash, Albert Speiden and H. D. Wennich.

The people of the community petitioned the council to extend the sewer service not less than 300 feet, from Prescott avenue, east on Quarry Road with flush tank at end. As one side of the street is occupied by unimproved property, the Town Council approved the extension and appropriated $200 from the town treasury to be used in building the sewer. All work will be under the supervision of the town superintendent, and all other cost to be paid by abutting property owners, said $200 to be paid only when said superintendent reports sewer complete.

Owing to increase in salaries, freight rates and cost of coal, it was deemed necessary to raise the water and light rates, beginning August 1, 1918. The water rates will be increased to 40 cents per 1,000 gallons, with a minimum of $2.50 per quarter, and the electric rate to 15 cents per kilowatt, with a minimum of $1.50 per month.

The resignation of C. C. Leachman, town treasurer, was presented and accepted, and Mr. Harry P. Davis was elected to fill the vacancy, with a salary of $25 per month.

The salary of G. I. Rosenbloom was increased to $200 per month, beginning August 1. Mayor Wagener reported fines amounting to $169.20 during July.

STATE HEALTH OFFICER MAKES MANASSAS VISIT

Engineer Holway, of State Board of Health Inspects Water and Sewer Systems.

State Engineer Holway, of the State Board of Health was in Manassas Tuesday on an inspection trip, and gave our water and sewer systems a thorough going over. He came here from Alexandria, where he has been assisting in the clean-up of that town for the past few weeks, and reports that the work there, under the supervision of the state, is progressing rapidly. Over 400 property owners have been compelled to connect with the sewer system of that city, and sections of the city where sewer service is not obtainable are receiving the attention of the state board and being put in a sanitary condition. He estimates that the state is spending money at the rate of $1,000 a day, and the end is hardly in sight.

Just what Mr. Holway thinks of the situation here will not be known until he makes his official report which will be received in a short time.

In the meantime if there are any piles of old rubbish, unsanitary outbuildings or other obnoxious, or dangerous places about your premises, get busy and clean them up. Do it now before there is need for a doctor or possibly the undertaker.

Funeral of Mrs. Armstrong.

The funeral services of Mrs. A. Armstrong, who died at her home at Nokesville Thursday July 25, were conducted at the grave in the cemetery at Catlett, where burial was made Friday, July 26.

not dare face the music—Francis J. Heney, the skilled cross-examiner, attorney for the government?

Why are both you and Mr. Carlin so strangely silent upon the important role played by Carlin—H. Livingstone, the bosom friend of Mr. Carlin, and high priced lobbyist of the beef packers as shown by Mr. Livingstone's own testimony in this record?

Very truly,
J. F. KIRKPATRICK.

RAINBOW DIVISION SMASHED GERMANS

Men of Famous United States Fighting Force on the Marne Came From all States of the Union.

Every section of the Union shares in the glory that American soldiers have won in the desperate fighting on the Marne. For the first time state troops of the national guard have received their baptism of fire in one of the major offensives of the war, and they come from every part of the land. The national guard troops that were given their big chance last week, and that made good against the best shock troops of the army of the German crown prince, are the Forty-second, or "Rainbow" division, made up of soldiers from every state and commanded by Maj. Gen. Menoher, and the Twenty-sixth New England division, commanded by Maj. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards.

The magnificent manner in which these volunteer troops conducted themselves in one of the great battles of the war, stopping for the first time since 1914, a German offensive on the first day, and counter attacking immediately, will send a wave of patriotism over the nation. The citizen soldiery of the republic have proved their mettle.

Both of these national guard divisions were taken from the Lorraine sectors shortly before the offensive began. The French general staff had exact and definite advance information of the German plans, and took extraordinary measures to meet the attack. American troop movements were quietly and quickly conducted, and the boche came down confidently to the Marne to meet the unexpected resistance of the Yankee troops, where no Americans were supposed to be. This in part accounts for the stinging defeat administered to the Huns in their fifth, and most unsuccessful major offensive.

The "Rainbow" division came under the enemy fire almost immediately after reporting on the front, having come from its former position in the Lorraine sector east of Nancy over the American lines of communication. It was subjected to a heavy bombardment.

The enemy was unable to make any advance, and the Americans lost no prisoners, although they captured some, and also a number of machine guns.

The Germans suffered so heavily from the splendid resistance of the national guard troops that they did not repeat the attack in force until hours later, when the enemy was again repulsed.

With these two national guard divisions, the American troops taking part in the titanic struggle for Paris which may well prove to mark the turn of the tide of the war, are the second regulars, commanded by Maj. Gen. Omar Bundy, and including Brig. Gen. James G. Harbord's brigade of marines, the third regulars, commanded by Gen. Joseph E. Dickman, and the Fifteenth New York infantry, the Empire State's negro troops, who are brigaded with the French. The first regular division, commanded by Gen. Robert L. Bullard, is also in an active sector.

Thus five complete divisions, four of which, comprising the combat divisions of the first army corps under Maj. Gen. Hunter J. Liggett, have been in France since last winter; and one, the third, which recently went to France, and is attached to the third army corps, are now taking part in this mighty struggle in which the Hun has met a severe setback.

VACATION TIME IS HERE.

Schools have closed for the summer, and now the small boy can pursue, without restraint, his quest for pleasures. But it is not he alone who has been eagerly awaiting the summer season, for we grownups are also planning on relaxing from our every day labors.

The summer vacation should also provide a change from the every day scenes, and already thousands of vacationists have wended their way to the Great Lakes and, particularly to Lake Erie where there are to be found the finest and largest steamers plying the inland waters of the world.

The largest and most magnificent of these steamers, the great ship "Sealand," is now running daily between Cleveland and Buffalo, and her immense popularity is attested by the large volume of passenger traffic carried. This trip not only appeals to the vacationist but also to the weary commercial traveler, who, by boarding the steamer at Cleveland or Buffalo at 8:00 p. m., may break the monotony of his all rail journey, enjoy a refreshing night's sleep and reach destination at 7:30 the following morning, in plenty of time and with the inclination to start the day's struggles early.

Trustee Sale of Valuable Real Estate

Under and by virtue of two certain deeds of trust, the first dated October 16th, 1917, and recorded in D. B. 59, at f. 17, the second dated November 22, 1911, both being recorded in the county clerk's office to Prince William county, Virginia, which said liens aggregate $3,610.00, with accrued interest thereon to date of last payment, and default having been made in the two debts thereby secured, and at the request of the holder of the said debts thereby secured, I will offer for sale, by way of public auction, in front of The Peoples National Bank, in the town of Manassas, at about noon, two valuable lots or parcels of land, located within and just without the town of Haymarket, in Gainesville Magisterial District, Prince William county, Virginia.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 1918,

The first tract containing six acres, two roads 18.7 poles, on which is located a very large and commodious dwelling, with barn, orchard, good garden, pasture, and out-buildings, and being that formerly occupied by Dr. W. R. Tulloss;

Second, tract containing 86 acres, and 29 perches, being located on the Carolina road, just without the town of Haymarket, on the macadam portion thereof, and on which is located a comfortable dwelling, out buildings, all of which are practically new. This farm is a beautiful state neighborhood, in northern Virginia, and will make a pleasant and ideal home.

TERMS OF SALE: Cash unless otherwise directed by the one holding equitable interest in said properties; shall otherwise direct, in which event sufficient cash, to pay the cost of executing the trust, and conveying said real estate, and the payment of the two debts aggregating the amount hereinbefore set forth, with the accrued interest thereon, and as to the residue, upon such terms as the one holding equitable title thereto may direct.

THOS. H. LION, Trustee.

George Purvis vs. Hugh McIsaac and Genevieve McIsaac.

To Hugh McIsaac and Genevieve McIsaac, defendants, and George Purvis, plaintiff:

TAKE NOTICE

that I have set the 29th day of July at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time and the office of Benj. Purvis in the town of Quantico, as the place at which to take, state and settle the account pursuant to a decree entered in the above styled cause, at the June term of said court, whereby the undersigned commissioner was directed to report as follows:

1. Whether all proper persons are parties to this suit;
2. All taxes and other liens against the real estate in this suit involved;

3. Whether or not the plaintiff in this suit is entitled, under the contract filed with the bill, to a conveyance of said real estate, and upon what conditions;

4. How much, if anything, is due the defendants from the plaintiff, under said contract.

5. Any other matter deemed pertinent by the said commissioner. If the said report be commenced, and be not continued on the day above named I shall continue the same from time to time and from place to place until the same is complete.

Given under my hand this 29th day of June, 1918.

BRYAN GORDON, Commissioner in Chancery.

Sow Wood's Seed Cow Peas

After Harvesting Grain Crops Farmers should make every preparation to sow all the COW PEAS possible after harvesting grain crops this year, so as to increase the fertility and productivity of their lands for crops to follow.

The Sowing of Cow Peas at the Last Working of Corn is also to be strongly recommended. Farmers who have practiced this claim that the sowing of Cow Peas in corn increases the yield of corn, and at the same time it makes a most desirable soil-improving or forage crop.

Write for "WOOD'S CROP SPECIAL" giving prices and information about all Seasonable Seeds.

T. W. Wood & Sons, SEEDSMEN, Richmond, Va.

To Richard A. Annis, his personal representative, or to whomsoever it may concern:

Take notice that I shall on the 7th day of October, 1918, move the Circuit Court of the county of Prince William, Virginia, to have marked, released and discharged a certain deed of trust from Joel P. Bradford to R. W. Wheat, trustee, dated August 6th, 1869, and recorded in the clerk's office of said court, in Deed Book 27, at folio 193, the said deed of trust having been given to secure the payment of $575.00, with interest thereon from August 6th, 1869, one year after date. This notice is given under section 2498 of the Code of Virginia, of 1887, and acts amendatory thereto, the undersigned being owner of the real estate affected by the existence of said deed of trust. The said real estate being 175 acres, more or less, and located at, or near Powell's Run, adjoining the lands of Richard Stonell, William Braunor, and others in Dumfries Magisterial District, Prince William county, Virginia.

Standard Drilling Rigs Now Ready to Pound Their Way Into the Oil Sands

WARM SPRINGS — WYOMING.

Already one of the big producing fields of Wyoming. Eight wells have been completed and fortunate stockholders are drawing big dividends every month in the year. This is a "shallow" field and the drilling cost is at a premium. Through a peculiar turn of fortune the Van Duzan Co was able to secure a valuable lease on this structure. At least a dozen companies are now drilling toward the oil producing sands in the Warm Springs dome and we do not expect to lose much time in starting our operations there. Remember this is a producing field.

SUNDANCE-UPTON FIELDS — WYOMING

We were in this field just before the boom started and have 6,080 acres under lease on the very apex of the structure. This dome bids fair to be one of the best fields in Wyoming and our large acreage will always make the big company of this big field. We have one rig spotted in this field.

SALT CREEK—WYOMING

This is the most consistent oil producing field in all the world, and although the field is but five years old, it has made more wealthy people than any of the big fields of Wyoming. The wide-awake men who are at the head of this company have secured 320 acres of land less than a half mile from one of the largest gushers in the field. One 500-barrel well in this field at $1.00 per barrel would mean more than 20 per cent per annum on the total capitalization of the Van Duzan Oil Co. We have room for 64 wells on this property.

THE CRAZY WOMAN'S POCKET—MONTANA

This dome has been recognized by many geologists to be the most perfect structure for an oil reservoir in all of America. Two other companies have wells in the process of completion on this dome, and it is reported that one of them has already encountered an oil producing sand. The Van Duzan Oil Co. has secured 560 acres of deeded land lying midway between the two wells now drilling. Our derrick is now in the course of construction. When this field is proven it will be the first producing field in Montana. Boom prices will prevail and our stock sure to go sky high.

POWDER RIVER JUNCTION—WYOMING

We have a one-third locator's interest in three one-quarter sections lying within a quarter of a mile from a well now being drilled by the famous Ohio Oil Co. This dome is looked upon as being one of the coming fields of the state. Shallow drilling and its proximity to rail transportation will make this field a dividend payer.

GERMANY IS TOO LATE.

Attention is called to the fact that when England, France, Russia and Italy were urging negotiation instead of war in 1914, Germany and Austria would not listen. Confident of their ability to lick everything and everybody, Germany and Austria would listen to no suggested method of negotiating and would make no suggestion themselves.

GOING! GOING! GONE!

This is the story of many of our old friends of peace time commerce. One by one they become scarce and disappear. As sensational as any has been the story of the plebian burlap sack.

HAVE YOU BEEN SICK?

You realize the utter weakness of ambition, destroys appetite, makes work a burden. To regain your strength nothing has been so compared with Scott's Emulsion; its blood-enriching properties give energy to the body while its value sharpens the appetite in a natural, permanent way.

Bulgaria and Turkey, those scoundrelly governments are not fighting each other, being unable to remain faithful to any alliance, whether good or bad.

Germany cannot get lead from Russia, as the Czech-Slovaks hold all strategic railheads and have shut off traffic on the Volga.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught. Mendocville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak... I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon righted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

MORE GRAFT UNVEILED.

Revelations that overcoats, uniforms, blankets and almost every commodity furnished the United States army for use in the field have been in many cases cheap products, like the raincoats which General Pershing has reported "fall to pieces as soon as they get wet," will arouse a strong public sentiment for adequate punishment of the scores of men, manufacturers and army officers, who were a part of the plot to bilk the

RED CROSS FETE WAS BIG SUCCESS

One Hundred and Thirty Dollars Cleared at Lawn Fete at Nokesville.

The rains, which lasted until 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon and made the roads almost impassable had little effect on the attendance at the lawn fete, given last night by the Nokesville Branch of the Manassas Chapter Red Cross, on the lawn of the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin C. Hazen, near Nokesville. By eight o'clock cars and vehicles were coming from every direction and a large merry gathering enjoyed the splendid entertainment provided for the evening.

Booths, decorated with the stars and stripes and Japanese lanterns, were placed under the trees on the lawn, from which ice cream, cakes, lemonade and fancy articles, all contributed by members and friends of the Red Cross were sold, and the sales from these, together with the privilege, to the highest bidder, to kiss the prettiest girl on the grounds, brought $130. The kiss was bought for $3.00 by Mr. C. K. Bodine, and his little daughter, Ruth, who voted the prettiest girl.

A splendid program, consisting of vocal music, recitations, and a patriotic address by Congressman C. C. Carlin, was rendered, with Mr. John Kerlin in charge. The host, Mr. Hazen, introduced Hon. Thos. H. Lion, who in turn, introduced the speaker. Two numbers were given by the Cross Roads Quartette, "The Battle Cry of Freedom" by a chorus of small girls, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Brewer, and recitations by Fern Marshall, Gladys and Lee Kerlin and Frances and Irene Wood. The last number, "Over the Rhine," sung by Master Alton Furlish, of Charles City, Ia., who is visiting his uncle, Mr. C. S. Smith, might be termed the "hit" of the evening.

Those who had charge of the booths and so ably assisted in making this event such a decided success, were Mrs. Melvin C. Hazen, Mrs. C. K. Bodine, Mrs. Darius, Mrs. Brown, and the Misses Lucile Marks, Lelia Green, Winifred Hinegardner, Bertha Herring, Florence Smith and Grace and Cora Daniel.

ATTEMPT TO BEFOG

To the Voters of the Eighth Congressional District:

Realizing the desperate situation and in order to prevent the inevitable landslide in favor of E. B. White, the Carlin newspapers in the closing days of the campaign are frantically presenting the inquiry to the voters of the 8th Congressional District: "Is Col. White disqualified?" This desperate situation is evidenced by the slender foundation for this inquiry. A mountain has groaned but a mouse has come forth. The Currupt Practices Act, governing primary elections, simply provides that any candidate wilfully failing to file an itemized statement of the expenditures by or on his behalf at least ten days before the primary, shall be fined upon conviction an amount not in excess of one thousand dollars or imprisoned as in said act set forth.

The following analysis of the act not only disposes of all questions as to the qualifications of Mr. White, but also of any actual violation of the section involved:

(1) The act in question will be searched in vain for any provision that either qualifies or disqualifies a candidate.

(2) A candidate failing to file such statement, whether through inadvertence or otherwise, remains as well qualified as the candidate technically complying with the law.

(3) Besides, no penalty of any sort may be imposed under this act, where the failure to file the statement is due to inadvertence and is without a wilful intent to violate the same.

(4) The voters of the Eighth Congressional District, therefore, may cast their ballots for Mr. White assured not only that their votes will be counted, but that on contest of any sort may be properly instituted in the event of his election, which now is conceded to be a foregone conclusion.

(5) If the writer of this article evidently inspired from Washington, had the slightest idea that this inadvertence on the part of Mr. White disqualified him as a candidate for Congress, it must be assumed that, instead of making the inquiry, the announcement of his disqualification would have been blazoned forth as an actual fact on the first page of every Carlin paper in the district. The eleventh hour attempt to confuse the voters will not only come to naught, but will be of vast benefit to Mr. White, for the reason that all fair minded voters will see in it a trick and a subterfuge—a dastardly attempt to divert their minds from the real issues in the campaign, namely, whether the professional element is to continue to exploit the voters to serve their own ends or whether the agricultural and laboring classes, the producers and the consumers, composing eighty per cent of the population of the district, shall send to Congress a man who will faithfully represent their interests.

Voters: Don't be deceived. Cast a patriotic and conscientious vote for WHITE.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The second quarterly meeting for Manassas charge, M. E. Church South, will be held at Buckhall Sunday and Monday, August 4 and 5. Rev. B. W. Bond, D. D., will preach at 3 p. m. Sunday, and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Quarterly conference will be held on Monday at 10 o'clock a. m.

Little Christine Meetze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Meetze, fell from a small wagon Saturday afternoon and broke both bones in her left arm below the elbow while playing with a number of children in the yard of Mr. Geo. D. Baker's residence. Dr. J. C. Meredith was immediately called who set the broken bones.

Town Sergt. C. H. Wine received twenty dollars Wednesday morning as a reward for capturing John Allen, colored, an escaped convict from the Warrenton camp. The reward will be shared with Constable Cornwell, who found the fugitive on the railway near Rixlew, about three weeks ago.

Mrs. Thomas S. Silcox, field representative of the Home Service Section of the National Red Cross, was in Manassas Tuesday and met with the home service committee of the Manassas chapter at the residence of the secretary, Miss Mary Larkin, and arranged for a big county meeting to be held some time in August, the exact date to be announced later.

At the meeting of the Manassas Agricultural High School, held at the home of Mrs. L. Sanders, was appointed normal training instructor in Manassas Agricultural High School, in place of Miss M. E. Grenels, who resigned in June. Mrs. Sanders is a graduate of George Washington University, Washington, D. C., and is now in Baltimore attending the summer session of the Johns Hopkins University for the purpose of taking certain professional courses needed in her work.

The band will give its regular weekly concert next Thursday evening, August 8, instead of on Monday evening. This change is made in the hope that more people will be enabled to attend the concerts. Future concerts will be held on that evening of the week. The young people will also sell ice cream on these evenings as usual for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross.

A very enjoyable party was given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Larkin, in honor of Mr. Claude Griggs, of Bedford City, Va., who was in Manassas for a short visit prior to his leaving for any training at the county school. His friends presented him with a radium dial wrist watch. Mr. Richard C. Hayden presented a speech. Mr. Griggs is a nephew of Rev. J. M. Burks, former rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, and spent the years in the Agricultural High School, in which he graduated in 1917. After his graduation, he was a member of the Episcopal school. He left for his home Tuesday morning.

On Tuesday evening, from five to seven, "Grape Arbor Hall" on Kalamona Heights presented a grand and festive social occasion being a War-time party in honor of Miss Virginia Speiden, the petite niece of Mrs. A. O. Weedon. The "Hall" was decorated with flags and the Red, White and Blue colors were evidenced in the table decorations and "Favors." Promptly at six o'clock the small guests who also displayed the colors in their costumes, marched, singing, "America," to the table where delicious refreshments were served. Later the young ladies made the "walkin' ring" with "The Star

EARLY PLOWING FOR WHEAT IS ADVISED

Farmers of Virginia Ask to Increase 1919 Wheat Crop 10 Per Cent Over That Harvested.

E. R. Hodgson, agronomist, Extension Division of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College and Polytechnical Institute, issues the following statement to the farmers of Virginia:

The Federal Government is already asking Virginia if it can increase the 1919 wheat crop 10 per cent over that of the year. This can be done and plowing land intended for wheat in July and early August will help to accomplish it.

Plowing at this time will often increase wheat yields 10 to 15 per cent, and sometimes as much as 10 to 15 bushels per acre. Early plowing conserves moisture, allows the seed bed time to settle, and increases available plant food. It is particularly desirable where wheat follows wheat, or for idle land infested with weeds.

In plowing under wheat stubble early the wheat shattered on the ground will have an opportunity to sprout early and be killed by disking before wheat seeding time. No volunteer wheat should be allowed to grow, as it may harbor Hessian fly, which may destroy the regular crop later on. The following table taken from actual experiments made will indicate the value of early plowing:

July 19, yield per acre, 31.3;
August 15, yield per acre, 23.5;
September 11, yield per acre, 15.3.

The above table shows clearly that it is very profitable to plow early, although the plowing comes at a time when the farmer is unusually busy, it is time and labor well spent.

It is very necessary, in order to get a good vigorous fall growth, to seed early in a seed bed well supplied with moisture, and one that has had time to settle. Early plowing means less work at seeding time, because the rains will have had a chance to settle and pulverize the seed bed.

Certain bacteria ever present in the soil work only in the presence of air. Their work is to attack organic matter which has been plowed under and break it down so that plant roots, with the aid of moisture, can get their food; therefore if early plowing is not practiced these bacteria will not start to work in time to be of much benefit to the crop this fall.

INSIGNIA WORN BY U. S. ARMY OFFICERS

The following excerpts from "Special Regulations No. 42," issued by the war department, shows the insignia which is authorized to be worn by officers of the United States Army.

"Insignia" is the term used to include all the badges, buttons, braids, hat cords, and other devices which indicate the rank of each officer or soldier, his branch of the service or his special duties, his personal experience or record.

Insignia on Shoulder Loop.
General, and General Chief of Staff—Four silver stars. Stars to be fifteen sixteenths inch in diameter.

Lieutenant General—One large silver star one and one-fourth inches in diameter and two small silver stars fifteen sixteenths inch in diameter.

Major General—Two silver stars fifteen sixteenths inch in diameter.

Brigadier General—One silver star fifteen sixteenths inch in diameter.

Colonel—A silver spread eagle three-fourths inch high and two inches between tips of wings.

Lieutenant Colonel—A silver leaf one inch high and one inch across.

Major—A gold leaf one inch high and one inch across.

Captain—Two silver bars, each one-fourth inch wide and one inch long. Bars to be one-fourth inch apart.

First Lieutenant—One silver bar one-fourth inch wide and one inch long.

Second Lieutenant—One gold bar one-fourth inch wide and one inch long.

Colors Denoting Branch of Service.
Every branch of the service has its special color which appears on the hat cords of enlisted men, on the chevrons of non-commissioned officers, and in many other places. These colors are:
Infantry, light blue.
Cavalry, yellow.

Man Welcome Mother's Friend

A Duty that Every Man Owe to Those who Perpetrate the Race.

It is just as important that men should know of proper methods in advance of motherhood. Suffering, pain and distress incident to childbirth can be avoided by having at hand a bottle of the time-honored preparation, Mother's Friend. This is a penetrating external application that relieves the tension upon the muscles and enables them to expand without painful strain upon the ligaments and nerves.

Thousands of women for ever half a century who have used Mother's Friend tell how they entirely avoided nervous spells and nausea and preserved a bright, happy disposition that rendered wonderfully upon the character and disposition of the little one soon to open its eyes in bewilderment at the joy of his arrival.

By regular use of Mother's Friend during the period the muscles are made and kept pliable and elastic. They expand easily when labor arrives, and pain and danger at the crisis is naturally less.

You can obtain Mother's Friend at any drug store. It is for external use only, is absolutely safe and wonderfully effective. Write to the Bradford Dispensary Co., Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable and instructive "Motherhood Book" of guidance for expectant mothers, and remember to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the druggist's today. It is the greatest line of help to nature in the glorious work to be performed.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, sometimes I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia, I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."—Mrs. PEARL MONTAHAN, Mitchell, Ind.

Good health during maternity is a most important factor to both mother and child, and many letters have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., telling of health restored during this trying period by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DANGER FROM TY- PHOID GROWS IN VA.

182 Cases Reported in June, an Increase of 80 Over May—
Health Board Warns
Public

Richmond, Va., July 25—With the typhoid records for June just completed, showing a total of reported cases of 182 the State Board of Health announced today that unless the people are careful and obey the rules of health, the record of previous years in July and August will be repeated this summer.

The cases are pretty generally distributed throughout the state. Last May there were 123 cases reported; in April 114, and in March only 65. July and August, however, are the months when typhoid takes its most deadly toll of human life. With proper attention to health regulations, the state board points out that this July and August could easily be made practically free of new cases in Virginia.

There were 610 cases reported in July 1917, and 957 cases in August last year. July, 1916, brought to light 699 cases, while August two years ago had the terrible record of 1,106 cases.

It is to prevent a repetition of such conditions that the health authorities are bending every effort, through publicity, teachers, ministers, parents and special investigations and the work of inspectors, to convince the people of this state that typhoid is a most easily preventable disease; that simple precautions in disposing of wastes from the body, so that they cannot contaminate food and drinking water, will go a long way nearly the whole way, in fact, to prevent the disease; and that when cases do appear, it is criminally negligent for persons not to follow instructions as to precautions that should be taken to protect members of the families and neighbors from becoming victims.

The health board also emphasizes the fact that it is unpatriotic not to do everything possible to keep down disease at this time. With thousands of young men going into the army and navy, it is the duty of every one to do everything possible to have them as healthy as possible. Figures show that hundreds of cases of typhoid developed soon after the men were called, and it is reasonable to suppose that if they had come from properly sanitized homes and communities, they would have been free from disease. This, in fact, has been proved. Another point emphasized is that with so many doctors and nurses away from the estate and going, people must keep well, for medical attention will not be available should they be taken ill.

The same precautions that apply to the prevention of typhoid in the main are applicable to the prevention of other summer diseases, and to infantile paralysis. Proper disposal of the wastes from the body and vaccination, it is pointed out, are the two great rules to follow.

PLAN HOUSING FOR 30,000 AT QUANTICO

Under the direction of Brig. Gen. C. A. Doyen, U. S. M. C., who has succeeded to the command of the post at Quantico, plans are under way for increasing the present accommodations for Marines from 10,000 to 30,000 under roof. With the passage by Congress of the bill authorizing the increase of the Marine Corps to 75,000 from 30,000, the Quantico cantonment will be enlarged so as to afford accommodations for the training of these crack fighting men of the American army.

In order to provide officers for the greatly increased enlisted personnel, it is planned to establish at once three or perhaps four officers' training schools at Quantico, where the initial enrollment of aspirants for commissions is expected to be approximately 1,800 candidates.

YOU ARE THE HOPE OF THE WORLD

(By Herman Hagedorn)

The following eloquent message to the youth of America, is one chapter of a little book by Herman Hagedorn, a young American poet and patriot. The tiny volume bears as a title the words placed at the head of this article. We are grateful for the privilege of printing this bit of pure, ardent sentiment so expressive of the appeal that the Junior Red Cross is making to the little citizens of our country.—The Editors, Red Cross Magazine.

Girls and boys of America, you are the hope of the world! That isn't an empty phrase. What remains of the youth of Europe after the war will be crippled and scarred in body or spirit; and those who are children today will have to give all their energies to the mere physical rebuilding of shattered cities and the more difficult and delicate reconstruction of shattered social systems. Schools will have to be thoroughly overhauled, histories will have to be rewritten. There will be no time for men to struggle long, patiently in art, or science, or literature. There will be too much common drudgery that will have to be done day by day. And the men of vision will be few.

Girls and boys of America, you are the hope of the world! We have not been touched by war. Not really touched by it. Not touched as Belgium and France and England have been touched, clutched, throated, flung down by it! You who are ten, twelve, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen or seventeen now will probably not be closely touched by it at all. Your brothers may go, to fight for freedom on the sea or in France, but you, Bill and Jack and George and Mary and Susan and Jane will stay home and do—what?

That's the great question. At bottom, it's the greatest question confronting this dear country of ours. At bottom, it's greater than any question of guns or money or potatoes or submarines, or party politics—the question, in the nation's crisis is: What are you girls and boys of America going to do?

You are the hope of the world! That isn't empty rhetoric. That is hard fact. But, you say, there are girls and boys in other countries scarcely touched by the war; in India, for instance, in Japan, in China, millions of them; there are girls and boys in Norway and Sweden and Spain and Holland and South America. Why, you say, are we the world's hope? Why must we carry that responsibility? We'd rather not, you say.

You can't evade it Young America. The stars have conspired against you. Destiny, which made your country rich and gave her great leaders in time of need, and helped her to build a magnificent republic out of many races and many creeds; Destiny that brought you to the light under the Eagle and the Stars and Stripes; Destiny, that chose America to be the greatest laboratory, the greatest testing-ground of democracy in the world; Destiny, Fortune, God, whatever you want to call it, laid on you the privilege and the responsibility of being the hope of a world in tears. You can carry this responsibility and be glorious. You can throw it off, and be damned; but you cannot ignore it.

You are the hope of the world! And are you, while your country strips for battle and your brothers prepare themselves to fight "for what America has always fought for—Liberty"—are you going on dancing and spinning on your ear and going to the movies and the music shows and loafing at street corners and reading the sporting page and dolling up your figure and your face? Or are you going to wake up suddenly to the emptiness and the ugliness of all this, and throw it aside crying, "By crickets, there are big things in this world, and, by all that's clean in me and true in me and brave in me and American in me, I'm going out to find them and give my heart and soul to them and make myself a part of them: so that, as far as I am concerned, the hope of the world shall be fulfilled!"

Young America, what are you going to do?—Red Cross Magazine.

About Rheumatism.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

Elimination of Side Issues and Getting Down to Plain Facts

COL. E. B. WHITE, of Leesburg, Va.

In the campaign for Congress in this district, which is now rapidly approaching a close, side-issues are being eliminated and the voters who are as reasonable and intelligent citizens as can be found in any district in the country are exercising their best judgment and are deciding accordingly.

They are reading and thinking over the straight-forward progressive platform of the farmer and the farmer's candidate, E. B. White. They know, feel and are enthusiastically saying that the farmers deserve more direct representation and that Mr. White is the logical representative since his practical knowledge of all phases of business and his years of experience as a successful farmer are significant facts that cannot be controverted.

Most of the big guns have been fired and their broadsides of illogical arguments, misrepresentations and distorted facts have failed to make an impression upon that large majority of the voters of this district who are standing squarely behind Loudoun's candidate.

The politicians always reserve one parting shot, to be fired at the last moment hoping to throw the voters off their mental balance. This may be reserved for the last week, when there is no opportunity to reply.

Mr. Voter, for the past three months you have had many objections given you of their way of conducting a campaign. Many charges absolutely untrue have been made, and many attempts to sidetrack the issues have been defeated.

Mr. White has conducted a clean campaign, as behooves a high-minded gentleman, has refrained from personalities and discussed the issues. For the position which he has maintained from the beginning of the campaign, he is receiving daily many letters from all over the district, praising him and pledging to him the hearty support of the writers. As he goes from county to county, the voters in person are telling him the same things.

Though to all of us, many times has "forbearance ceased to be a virtue," the wisdom of the course pursued is being proven.

The intelligent farmers, wage-earners and small business men of the Eighth District will not be fooled by any eleventh-hour propaganda. They have met Lige White. They know him as he is—a man who stands for the best interest of every wage-earner in the country—a man who has the unanimous endorsement of organized labor, which is asking the unorganized wage-earners to unite with it in electing a man whose record they have searched with the greatest care and know to be clean, a man whom the farmers are supporting because they know he is a practical farmer who INVITES AN INSPECTION OF HIS FARM BY OTHER PRACTICAL FARMERS; a man whom the small business men are supporting because they know that he is acquainted with their needs and will heartily cooperate with them. Knowing him as he is, they can no longer be deceived and any attempt to do so will not only be a failure so far as influencing any votes but a boomerang that will cause his already assured majority to increase to a "landslide."

The last big gun has already been loaded with the same kind of a worthless charge as the others and whether they fire it or not depends upon whether the commanders think the load will go out the front, hitting the target, or missing the mark will recoil, killing the gunners.

Profits and Prices

Profits may be considered
from two angles:

- 1st—Their effect on prices;
- 2nd—As a return to investors.

When profits are small as compared with sales, they have little effect on prices.

Swift & Company's profits are only a fraction of a cent per pound on all products sold, and if eliminated entirely would have practically no effect on prices.

Swift & Company paid 10 per cent dividends to over 20,000 stockholders out of its 1917 profits. It also had to build extensions and improvements out of profits; to finance large stocks of goods made necessary by unprecedented requirements of the United States and Allied Governments; and to provide protection against the day of declining markets.

Is it fair to call this profiteering?

NOTES FROM MANASSAS INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

The farm of the Industrial School is the chief interest of the school at the present time. Under the direction of G. G. Burlingame, a number of modern developments are being made. As a nucleus for a larger dairy herd, ten pure-bred Holstein cows are being purchased for the school by Mr. Burlingame. A registered Holstein bull will be bought before a great while.

The students and faculty of the Industrial School summer session gave a concert at the First Baptist church last week, for the benefit of the fund which is being raised to erect a new public school house in Manassas.

Principal F. M. Morton spoke at the Manly school, in Wellington last Friday at a meeting of the Patrons' League. Mr. Morton encouraged the patrons of the Manly school by telling them that he would lend his assistance toward the erection of a new school house by a recommendation that the Rosenwald Fund make an appropriation in behalf of this school. The present Manly school house is a dilapidated one-room building, which is quite inadequate for the needs of the school.

Since the caponizing demonstration held at the Industrial School by Mr. C. A. Montgomery, a number of young cockerels have been caponized at the school farm.

A large quantity of vegetables has been canned by the domestic science classes of the summer school. Beets, string beans, and other vegetables have been put up for winter use. Last year the Industrial School had its own canned vegetables for use all during the winter.

The fine young Guernsey bull which was presented to the Industrial School by one of its trustees, is being much used by the neighboring farmers, who appreciate this opportunity for registered service.

LETTER TO LIEUT. ROUND.

General Gilman Writes of Appreciation and Speaks of Visit to Manassas.

The following letter to Lieut. Round is from Gen. John E. Gilman, who in 1911 was the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and represented that organization in the opening of the exercises on the court house lawn at the National Jubilee of Peace. Subsequently in 1914 he was in Manassas at the dedication of the Fletcher or Webster boulder on the Hazel Plain farm, and, assisted by Col. Edward Berkeley, unveiled that interesting memorial.

The letter follows: Boston, June 4, 1917. Lieut. George Carr Round, Manassas, Va.

My Dear Comrade Round: I thank you very cordially for the photographs connected with my visit to Manassas, and I appreciate them very highly. They are valuable souvenirs of one of the most interesting and important events of my life, and of the life of our beloved land, for they mark the reunion of the blue and the gray under one flag, the glor-

Kann's Summer Sale of Furs

Now in Progress

IS AN AUTHENTIC DISPLAY OF STYLES ADOPTED FOR THE COMING FALL AND WINTER SEASONS AT DECIDED SAVINGS FROM PRICES THAT WILL PREVAIL LATER IN THE YEAR.

Prediction points to next fall and winter being the greatest season ever for furs of all kinds. Fashion leaders proclaim there will be more beauty and individuality in furs than any other type of outer garment. This beauty and individuality is reflected in our summer display which is the finest we ever made.

You will want furs for their distinctiveness.

If you wait until the season for wear comes you will in all probability pay more for similar qualities, that is if such qualities are to be had at all. Buy now and be sure not only of the fur you want, but of the saving that can be made. The workmanship on these garments is of an exceptionally high standard because we were able, when these garments were made up, to secure the services of expert furriers to fashion them.

Make Selections Early

Pay a fourth of the sale price and we will hold the article selected for future delivery—balance to be paid before November 15, 1918

The PERUNA Family

See three members you should know if you desire to enjoy life.

1. The popular liquid form of Peruna—the reliable tonic of the American household, with a long history of success in treating all catarrhal affections.
2. The tablet form, which is made after the same formula and is more convenient for many.
3. Mannin, the ideal laxative, by the regular use of which constipation may be overcome and natural action restored. Mannin has no habit-forming drug, but is an aid to nature. Your druggist has all three. So many thousands have received benefit from the use of one or both these remedies that they are a recognized part of the equipment of every careful household.

ious stars and stripes, under whose folds the sons of the blue and the sons of the gray are marching elbow to elbow in the service of our great re-united nation, and will stand shoulder to shoulder in line of battle, fighting bravely in defense of our country, and for the honor of our flag. You and I and the comparatively few of the remaining members of the two great armies are especially blessed in being permitted to live long enough to be witnesses of this wonderful spectacle of the sons and grandsons of men, who, in the past, fought for what they believed was the right, now reunited in a common cause, and that cause, God and country and humanity.

Fraternally yours, J. E. GILMAN.

Bethlehem Club Meeting.

The July meeting of the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers Club met at "Hillcrest," the hospitable home of Mrs. Covington last Saturday evening, the 27th, at 6:30. The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll was called and each one responded with self-chosen quotations. Minutes of the last meetings were read and approved. As so many of our members were prevented from attending, we decided to lay aside all business transactions until next meeting. The hostesses' daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Mary, served delicious ice cream and cake during the social hour. The guests present were Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Wheatle, Johnson, Mrs. Sharrett and Miss Elizabeth Johnson. Before bidding out hostess good-bye, the eldest daughter, Miss Elizabeth, favored us with a recitation which was much enjoyed, and the singing of one verse of "Auld Lang Syne" closed our July meeting.—Secretary.

The Missouri Valley Bridge and Iron Company of Quantico has been awarded contracts to build six wooded ships of 24,500 aggregate deadweight tonnage, according to announcement by the shipping board.

Ugly, Unsightly Pimples Are Signals of Bad Blood

Give Heed to the Warning. Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they forestall eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire. They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drugstore, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and get rid of those unsightly and disgusting pimples, and other skin irritations. And it will cleanse your blood thoroughly. If you wish special medical advice, you can obtain it without charge by writing to Medical Director, 29 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.
