Some Reminders For Tuesday

By CLARENCE W. WAGENER

There are certain things that the Manassas voter should keep in mind Tuesday when he or she goes to the polls.

1. That it may prove detrimental to the town's interests to vote for any one whom the voter does not positively know will serve if elected.

Every candidate put forward by the public mass meeting, held in the town hall on the evening of May 15th, has signed a statement to the effect that he will serve if elected—no "ifs" or "ands" or "buts" attached to these statements. These statements were duly filed with the county clerk and bind the candidates to serve, regardless of how many or how few of their fellow candidates may be elected. Have any other "candidates" signed similar unequivocal statements?

2. That it is the duty of every voter to get all facts straight—and not be misled by loose talk.

During the past few weeks some of the statements that have been made have not been justified by cold facts. There has been decidedly too much partisanship shown—and at a time when partisanship should have been completely suppressed.

3. That Manassas will go backward or forward, according to the progressiveness of the administration that will assume office September 1.

If the mayor and councilmen who will be elected Tuesday, do not take the citizens of Manassas into their confidence and conduct the affairs of the town in a cooperative spirit, the progress of the town will be seriously impeded, perhaps entirely stifled.

4. That Manassas, by no means, has passed through her crisis and that all this talk about the town being in so much better financial condition than a year or two ago, is misleading, to say the least.

Only half of the recently "unheard" facts which C. J. Meetze sets forth in an article found elsewhere in this issue of the NEWS are taken seriously, the voter needs no further proof that Manassas is not so far removed from financial illness as some would lead us to believe.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE V. CONNECTICUT

CONNECTICUT stands today as probably the first state which was created in the world by a written constitution.

It was really an offshoot from Massachusetts in 1636 there was dissatisfaction over the form of government among the Puritans in Cambridge, Watertown and Dorchester, the three towns surrounding Boston.

Large part of these three towns, therefore, decided to journey to the Connecticut valley, as they had heard that the valley was a fertile excellent farm land, and the Dutch from New Netherlands had been forced out the previous year by the British.

They first landed at Saybrook at the mouth of the river. The Cambridge people, under the leadership of their pastor, the Rev. John Davenport, founded Hartford, the Dorchester people settled Windsor, and those from Watertown established West Hartford.

For a few years they lived as a part of Massachusetts, but early in 1639 the people of these three towns met and drew up a written constitution for their government.

Meanwhile, in 1636, a large company of colonists under the leadership of John Davenport arrived from England and settled the town of New Haven, later spreading to Milford and Stamford. These two distinct colonies were later united and took the name of Connecticut from its principal river. This is an Algonquian Indian name meaning "long river."

It became the fifth state to join the Union when it adopted the Constitution on January 9, 1788. It is some 35 miles long and 20 miles wide. Its population, however, entitles it to seven electoral votes for president.

CLIFTON.

Rep. Ketcham Speaks.

On Friday evening of last week Representative John C. Ketcham, of Michigan, spoke in Clifton in behalf of the grange to a large audience. His main theme was the urgent need of cooperation among the farmers of this country. It is hoped that his address will be the means of stirring up much enthusiasm among the people in this community, and hasten the complete organization of the grange at this place, which was started last winter. It is understood that Representative Ketcham is a national character in the grange, being national lecturer and holding other high offices from time to time in the organization.

Clifton Schools Close.

The marriage of Mr. Richard Bywaters, of Manassas, and Mrs. Laura Poindexter, of Clifton, took place Friday, June 3, at the parsonage of Rev. Thatcher at Fairfax Court House. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wittgenstein, of Washington.

After the ceremony, the wedding party went by auto to Washington where a train was taken for Atlantic City and various points North.

The patrons of Clifton high school were delightfully entertained in the school auditorium Monday evening by the primary and grammar grades. The stage was very prettily arranged and decorated, showing much hard labor among the very worthy teachers and pupils. Everyone was glad to see the wonderful improvement in the school this past year.

A very good play, which displayed the careful study and excellent talent of the participants, was presented by the high school students on Tuesday evening. The cast of characters in "Jumbo Jim" was as follows: Misses Helen Quigg and Effie Brown, Messrs. Lynwood Willis, Paul Quigg, Bauvooya Grimes, Walter Quigg, Mammel Hunsberger and Floyd Johnson.

A VERY CLOSE CALL

R. J. Wilson and Grandson, of Remington, Have Narrow Escape at Battle Street Crossing Friday.

What might have proved to be a fatal accident occurred at the Battle street crossing of the Southern Railway Friday evening about seven o'clock when shifting cars damaged a Ford automobile driven by R. J. Wilson, of Catlett, shaking up both Mr. Wilson and his grandson, Harry J. Wilson, who suffered a few scratches also.

In a hurry to get started home, Mr. Wilson first got out of his car when held up by a train at the Battle street crossing and looked around to see when he could get across. The train he was watching soon pulled out and not seeing or hearing another he quickly cranked the engine of his Ford and started to cross the track. Just then another train, which fortunately was moving slowly, bore down upon him, hitting the car sidewise, breaking two wheels and the windshield, bending the fenders of one side and denting the body. No watchman was on hand, since the local crossing watchmen go off duty at six o'clock every evening.

Hon. C. J. Meetze loaned Mr. Wilson his car to get home in that evening. The damaged car of Mr. Wilson's was partly repaired at the Manassas Motor Garage, and called for Saturday morning.

Friday evening's accident followed six days after that of the evening of June 18th, when an automobile owned by R. B. Sprinkel and driven by his son, Robbie, accompanied by Harry Rexrode, was demolished at the Catholic church crossing as it collided with Southern train No. 46.

CANNON BRANCH CLUB MEETING.

Twenty-Two of Twenty-Four Members Present at Friday Meeting.

(Leslie Kline, Reporter.)

The Cannon branch of the Manassas Rifle Club met at 8:30 o'clock Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock. We would have met earlier but were prevented by the harvest work. Twenty-two of the 24 members of the club were present.

We had a new member to join Friday evening, also we had two visitors. It has been planned to take up a collection at every club meeting. Friday evening was the first time we took up collection, which amounted to 25 cents. Altogether, we have $1.15 in the treasury. We meet the last Friday in every month.

U. D. C. LAWN PARTY TONIGHT.

According to last week's NEWS the U. D. C. lawn party was to have been held last Thursday. This was an error on the part of the NEWS. The correct date for this lawn party, which is being held for the benefit of the battlefield park fund, is this evening beginning at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Herrell. Ice cream and cake will be sold. A musical program will be rendered. All are invited to come.

MRS. T. J. BROADDUS ENTERTAINS

The Bethlehem Good Housekeepers' Club was entertained by Mrs. T. J. Broaddus and Mrs. Wissler at the home of the former last Saturday afternoon. Although but few members were present, all reported an enjoyable afternoon. This club is one of the most progressive in the county, having several fine pieces of work to its credit, as school lunches served during the past session and the care of an Armenian orphan for two years. Action was taken Saturday regarding the addition each year of books to the reference library of the high school.

LOCAL FAIR CATALOG OUT.

The catalog for the 1921 exhibition of the Prince William Fair Association has just been received from the hands of the publishers, and a copy may be had upon application of the secretary, H. W. Sanders. You are asked to get your copy now and begin at once your preparations for the big exhibit.

BOY SCOUTS MEET TONIGHT.

Friday evening, the local troop of Boy Scouts held a very interesting meeting, when the troop was divided into two patrols—the Eagle and the Beaver. Hornbaker Ledman is leader of the Eagle patrol, with Robert Hottle as assistant. The leader of the Beaver patrol is Paul Arrington, and the assistant, James Wissler. This evening, starting at six o'clock, the two patrols will hike to the battlefield, returning to town Friday afternoon.

MERRILL—FAIRBANKS

Earl D. Merrill, of Buffalo, Claims Miss Elsie Fairbanks as Bride.

Although strenuous efforts were made to keep the affair a secret, it leaked out soon after Earl D. Merrill, of Buffalo, N. Y., a former county boy, reached home this week, that his mission was other than a pleasant little visit with the home folks. Of course, Earl was pleased at the prospect of spending a few days again in the Independent Hill neighborhood. But there was a greater attraction causing him to smile so broadly when in Manassas Monday.

Sometime yesterday Earl D. Merrill and Miss Elsie A. Fairbanks, of Agnewville, were married by the Rev. R. T. Hayes. Repeated efforts on the part of the NEWS have failed to get the details of the ceremony for this week's issue. At one place no one would be at home; at another information of no sort would be given.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Merrill, of Independent Hill, a graduate of Manassas high school and Cornell University and now assistant manager of the Erie County (N. Y.) Farm Bureau Association, with headquarters in Buffalo. Mr. Merrill was born at Fon-du-Lac, Wis., but spent the larger part of his boyhood in Virginia.

Mrs. Merrill is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fairbanks, of Agnewville, and while a native of Whitebago county, Minnesota, has lived in Prince William for several years.

The NEWS joins the hosts of friends of this happy couple in wishing each every joy on the marital voyage now embarked upon.

DEATH OF MRS. M. W. BUTLER.

Mrs. Mary W. Butler, widow of the late Robert Butler, of the Catholic Institute neighborhood, died Saturday. Funeral services and burial were at Cucumber Monday. Mrs. Butler, who was 68 years old, was born at Orange, but had been a Prince William resident for many years.

MRS. JESSE DULIN SUCCUMBS.

Mrs. Jesse Dulin, widow, of near Greenwich, died at 4 o'clock this morning. Funeral services will be held Saturday at The Plains, with Rev. Barnett Grimmsley, of Manassas, officiating. Mrs. Dulin leaves one daughter, Miss Grace Dulin.

FULL OF ERRORS

Saturday's Game Lost to Pleasant Valley Through Poor Playing of Local Boys—Score 12 to 8.

Resplendent with errors, Saturday's game between the Manassas White Rose baseball team and the team of Pleasant Valley, Loudoun county, went to the visitors by a score of 12 to 8. This, the second defeat for the local boys, is no indication whatever that Manassas team is not holding its own or not really gaining in strength. About half of the players for Manassas suffered an "off day" Saturday, and even in the big leagues off days do come most unwelcome.

Pleasant Valley did not play such fine ball. Rather it was that Manassas played such poor ball. It must be admitted, however, that the pitcher for the visitors had "something on the ball," even though he was quite wild at times, hitting several local batters.

One bright bit of excitement flared up in the seventh inning when Saunders for the Manassas White Roses made a line drive over the center fielder's head, which netted the local team its first home run of the season.

The game in detail:

Spoke in Manassas Tuesday

Senator E. Lee Trinkle, of Wytheville

Tuesday evening a small audience of town and nearby citizens heard State Senator E. Lee Trinkle, a Democratic candidate for governor, of Virginia, speak in Conner's hall. Senator Trinkle was introduced by Hon. H. T. Davies, who referred to him as a former resident of Manassas, having once practiced law here with A. O. Portner.

In his address he touched on three subjects: taxation, schools and roads. He discussed the subject of roads, showing how the taxes in Virginia have grown in the past ten years until today the citizens of the commonwealth pay into the state treasury $18,500,000. This amount is spent in support of schools, hospitals, roads and other objects of public enterprise. Virginia has become a vast business industry, needing the same judgment and efficiency applied to the transacting of her affairs as is necessary in any business.

Senator Trinkle said that there is too little interest shown by the majority of Virginia's citizens in the manner in which the wealth of the state is distributed. No community or state will be a success without the interest of its citizens to support its measures and their determination to have only men of sound business judgment and sterling principles in public office.

THE FOURTH AT BUCKHALL.

The Fourth of July will be celebrated at Buckhall this year. There will be two games of baseball, one in the morning between the married and single men and one in the afternoon between the single men and the Independent Hill team. An address at 7 p. m. by Hon. C. A. Sinclair of Manassas, "What the Fourth of July Really Means to Us," and singing of patriotic songs, will be the evening's entertainment. There will be a fish-pond and a stand, where cake, pie, ice cream, and lemonade will be sold by the Methodist people. The proceeds will go toward the new Sunday room. Everybody cordially invited.

BOO DAY AT ADEN.

Sunday was a big day at Aden. The all-day services of the U. B. church opened with the Sunday school session at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m., Rev. G. W. Stover preached a fine sermon. The choir, led by Prof. J. H. Rusbush, of Dayton, rendered several fine selections. At the afternoon service, addresses were made by the pastor, Rev. S. D. Skelton, Rev. D. P. Bell, Rev. Benjamin Kerlin, Rev. G. W. Stover and Prof. J. H. Rusbush, all of which were greatly enjoyed.

COMPRESSOR MOTOR SHIPPED.

Everything is in readiness at the town power plant, according to Supt. Frank Gue, jr., to hook up the additional air compressor received last Thursday for pumping water from the town well, as soon as the motor required for this compressor, and which was shipped Tuesday from Philadelphia, is received.

school age in Virginia, 350,000 of whom are in school. There is a crying need for more schools, and for teachers better equipped for their work. To provide for Virginia's greatest asset, her children, he estimated $15,000,000 annually would be required, an amount to be raised either by greater taxation or greater business efficiency in the management of public money.

In discussing the subject of roads, he stated that the state had 23,000 miles of good roads planned on paper, but the commonwealth could only build in accordance with its ability to pay. He asserted that the next assembly would be the most powerful that Virginia has ever had, therefore, the men selected to represent the citizens of the state should have sound business judgment and be efficient. If the people wish to have their communities boomed for the purpose of building their highways, their representatives in the next legislature should be instructed accordingly.

He spoke of the power of the state highway commissioner, who has the handling of vast sums of money, guided by his own judgment.

If the people see fit to elect him, Senator Trinkle said he would call into conference citizens of ability to help him work out a proper system of road

MERRILL WRITES

Address Graduate of Manassas High Comments Upon Critical Need of Improved School Support.

[Editor's Note.—Readers of the NEWS will doubtless be much interested in the letter given below, just received from a former Prince William boy who is daily proving a credit to his Manassas high school training.]

I am in hearty accord with all that Alfred Prescott, in a recent letter to the Prince William News, stated with regard to the high standards of scholarship established and maintained at the Manassas high school and in reference to the importance of adequately supporting an institution that means so much to the whole of Prince William county.

Thus the consecrated, personal services of the present corps of splendid teachers and the best efforts of some who have gone has built up a high school that in quality of work given compares favorably with the best city schools, can not be denied.

The records of her graduates in some of the best universities of the country speak for that. But this is not all. The school has accomplished more than to offer a course of study that gives her graduates the best training for college entrance. The lives of those who have so devotedly entered into the building up of the institution have imbued Manassas high school with a spirit or atmosphere, the keynote of which is SERVICE.

A student can not spend four years at Manassas high school without coming to feel that education is not an end in itself; that one is obligated to give (Continued on page two.)

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

County Organization Had Annual Meeting at Maymarket Sunday.

(R. A. Rust, Cor. Sec'y.)

Many fine addresses featured the annual county Sunday school convention, held at Haymarket Sunday, in the Baptist church at that place. Splendidly prepared reports were made by President Powell M. Metz, of Manassas district; President W. Y. Ellicott for Coles district, and Vice-President R. C. Linton, for Occoquan and Dumfries districts. Individual reports were made by representatives from schools in Gainesville and Brentsville districts. The spirit of fellowship and cooperation needed to build up our Sunday schools was much in evidence.

Those taking part in the program were County President J. M. Bell, Vice-President R. C. Linton, Secretary R. A. Rust, State Secretary Thos. Diggs, Hon. C. J. Meetze, Mrs. J. A. Hooker, Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Jamison, Rev. H. Lawson and Master Keith Lyons.

Mr. Diggs spoke on "The Value of a Goat," urging all schools to work for some definite objective. Mr. Linton spoke on "Cooperation." Others on the program assisted ably in making the meeting a big success.

A real picnic dinner was served on the grounds and much enjoyed.

All of the county officers were re-elected by unanimous vote. It is hoped that the work will be so built up by another year that in the 1922 convention every school in the county will be represented.

ORDERED TO REMOVE DEBRIS.

County Supervisors Send Notice to Dumfries Telephone Company.

Those present at the June meeting of county board of supervisors, held Tuesday, were J. L. Dawson, chairman; Wm. Crow, McDuff Green, O. C. Hutchison and T. M. Russell.

After authorizing the payment of a number of bills, it was ordered that warrants be drawn in favor of the county officers for their half year's salary for 1921.

O. C. Hutchison was authorized to employ F. Norvell Larkin as engineer in charge of improvement of the Carolina road, in Gainesville district, this year under the direction of the state highway commissioner, at the sum of $125 per month.

It was ordered that $20 to each Carolina Pearson, T. A. Thomason and J. T. McDonald be paid out of the 1921 pension fund.

The board voted it unlawful for any person to hunt, range or fowl during the months of January to October, inclusive, of any year in Prince William county, except waterfowl and snipe, and as to them, only as and when provided by general law.

Warrants were ordered drawn upon the special road fund in favor of the school funds of Gainesville and Occoquan districts, in the sums of $500 and $2,500, respectively, said sums to be repaid to the special road fund as may be directed by the county board of supervisors.

It was resolved that it was the sense of the board that the fund available for the permanent improvement of the Haymarket-Wootsey or Carolina road, be used for re-erecting that portion heretofore improved, rather than extending said improvement for the year 1921.

The clerk of the board was ordered to notify the president and secretary of the Dumfries Telephone Company that the brush and poles they have thrown in the county roads along their line be removed at once, or else complaint will be made and the offenders prosecuted as provided by law.

The clerk of the county was directed to purchase on behalf of the county, such weights and measures as to him appears necessary.

It was ordered that the owners of the land throughout which the proposed change of location of county road from Mayfield Crossing to Yates' ford runs be summoned to appear at the next meeting of board to show cause if any, why said change should not be made.

Palmer Smith, superintendent of roads, was directed to purchase a set of pipe dies and an emory wheel for use of Prince William county.

The county clerk was ordered to purchase from Lucas Bros., Baltimore, for the sum of $725.00, necessary office furniture.

One car of coal was ordered to be purchased from L. G. Cagshaw Coal Company, at $6.80 per ton of 2,000 pounds, f. o. b. Manassas.

The next meeting of the board is scheduled for Wednesday, July 6th.

WANT PROTECTION

Councilmen Instruct Attorney to Write Railway About Watchmen from 8 A. M. to 12 M.

Perhaps the most important business transacted at the Monday night meeting of the town council when Mayor W. Hill Brown and Councilmen Arrington, Burke, Hibbs, Jenkins, Larkin, Moser and Newman were present, was the passing of a resolution ordering the corporation attorney, Hon. C. A. Sinclair, to write the Southern Railway company regarding the keeping of watchmen at the Battle street, Main street and Catholic church crossings from six o'clock in the morning until twelve o'clock at night.

Mayor Brown reported the collection of one fine; Supt. Frank Gue, jr., presented several charges against the treasurer's account, and a number of bills were ordered paid.

Building permits were granted as follows—To M. C. Doggett, to erect a shed 8 by 14 feet, with composition roof and to cost about $20. To O. O. Hodler, to erect an eleven-room dwelling on his Quarry road property, composition roof, to cost about $3,500.

Councilman Arrington reported that there was a balance due on the cemetery lot of $266.20.

It was ordered that the bill due the town by J. J. Conner be turned over to the sergeant for collection.

The street committee was empowered to place the horse rack now located on Grant avenue at a more suitable place, if such can be found.

A resolution was passed that a note be given to the following named parties, in the amounts listed opposite their names, dated July 1, 1921, and payable not later than three years from date, as reimbursement for money advanced by them for the purchase of the additional air compressor:

Brown & Hooff	$200
Hymon & Company	$200
Hibbs & Coddings	$100
V. V. Giffum	$100
L. F. Hough	$100
M. Lynch	$100
Larkin & Dorrell	$100
H. P. Davis	$100
E. R. Conner & Co.	$100
H. T. Davies	$100
B. Lynn Robertson	$100
G. B. Cocke	$100
F. R. Saunders	$100
C. E. Nash & Co.	$100

The water bill of W. E. Goode in dispute was referred back to Supt. Gue for final settlement.

Supt. Gue was instructed to have the fire engine put in good shape.

The employment of J. H. Corum, at a salary of $70 a month, as assistant to Supt. Gue, was passed and ordered.

OLD JIM PASSES ON

Horse That Served Millford Mills Thirty Years Dead.

Faithful old "Jim," one of the oldest horses in the county, maybe the oldest, died a quick death Saturday when he was mercifully relieved of further miseries attendant upon such an advanced equine age.

Thirty years ago, the late John R. Hornbaker bought Jim as a gray colt. Jim was considered by his former owner as nearly worthless as a colt could be and yet he lived. Mr. Hornbaker, however, fed Jim carefully and soon he began to pick up. In a few years Jim was an active assistant as one of horses that hauled flour to Manassas from the mill at Millford, then run by Mr. Hornbaker.

When Millford Mill was bought by E. D. Wissler several years ago and after Mr. Wissler sold the property to W. C. Ayler, Jim kept plugging away at his steady job of hauling flour. For several months past, however, Jim has been on the retired list and when he of late became too feeble to get up, it was deemed best to relieve his sufferings.

Strong Eyesight Is not always a proof of GOOD eyesight. In fact, strong vision is sometimes due to a form of eyestrain, which, if allowed to go unchecked, may develop into a serious case of poor vision. Eye strain comes on slowly and often exists long before it is markedly noticeable. Don't take chances with your eyes. You should be sure they are receiving the right service. The only wise course, if you are in doubt about your eyes, is to have them examined now. You may or may not need glasses, but surely the satisfaction of being absolutely certain about the matter is worth something to you. Your success or failure in later years may depend largely upon what care you take of your eyes now. Consult Dr. O. W. HINES Next visit to Manassas, Va., July 5 and 6, 1921. Save—and Later You'll Reap the Reward

To have something around you in middle and old age, means, in most cases, the setting aside of a certain portion of your income in your youth and young manhood or womanhood.

There are different ways of accumulating money, but no surer or steadier way can be named than the habit of regularly depositing in a good bank your savings above the actual living expenses necessary to your health and happiness.

Some people save to go into business later—when the opportunity presents itself. Others realize the truth of the old adage—"There's a rainy day ahead." And more than a few, seeing how old age without money is often anything but the happy period it should be, determine to lay aside what they can as a reserve fund for the time when earning power is no more.

It matters not how young or old you are, if you are earning money you should be saving a part of it. This institution is open six days a week, from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon and will be glad to have you open a checking or a savings account any day, if you are not already a customer. In the case of a savings account, we pay you three per cent interest, compounded semi-annually, for keeping your money intact for you.

And, don't forget, we are ready to advise on financial matters that may be troubling you. We will gladly talk with you at any time.

Use Ice WHEREVER YOU LIVE

Just because you may not live in Manassas you need not deny yourself and other members of the household the health protection and the convenience derived from the regular use of ice during the summer months.

While, of course, our delivery service does not extend beyond the limits of Manassas, we give special attention to orders to be shipped by express and to orders of the country trade where the ice is called for right at the plant.

One hundred pounds of ice, bought twice a week, will take care of this need of a good-sized family. Consider the wholesome manner in which ice, when used in a good refrigerator, keeps food, and the consequent saving in kitchen work for the housewife, where can a more profitable investment be made for the summer months than in the regular purchase of our ice?

The "Maniacs"

By HAROLD SINCLAIRE

(Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

The State insane asylum at Potomac was a model institution. It represented the best that the state had to offer in the way of mental care. In fact, when it celebrated its fifth anniversary by a garden party, the governor, the mayor and a host of distinguished guests, their wives and their friends, walked freely within its walls.

This happened on that day when two men met in one of the spacious corridors and, made friendly by the festive occasion and the dinner, at which visitors, guards and patients had sat down together, entered into conversation.

"This is a beautiful place," said the older, a dignified gentleman wearing a frock coat and carrying a silk hat in his hand. "Though I am not a resident here, I am astonished at the perfection of all the details."

"You were responsible, sir?" he asked.

"Yes," said the other. "I am Governor—"

"I'm very pleased to make your acquaintance, governor," said the other, grasping the speaker's hand warmly.

"I was late for the dinner or I should have met you before. I am the mayor of Potomac—"

XI.—NEW YORK

THE STORY of New York should rightly begin with 1524, eighty-five years before Henry Hudson's voyage in his little boat, the Half Moon, up the river which now bears his name.

At that early date an Italian navigator, Verrazano, exploring for France, sailed into New York bay. This first visit to New York made little stir and was soon forgotten, and it was Hudson's discovery which tempted the Dutch to send over colonists and obtain for the Dutch West India company a monopoly of the Dutch possessions in America.

The new colony which was started in 1623 called its territory New Netherlands, after its mother country, and their principal city New Amsterdam. It is interesting to reflect that Manhattan island, which is now New York city, was purchased from the Indians for 60¢ worth of beads and ribbons.

Even in its earliest days the settlement on Manhattan island was cosmopolitan. In 1614 it is reported that sixteen different languages were spoken there.

In 1664 the English captured New Netherlands, and King Charles II presented the colony to his brother, the duke of York, who was later King James II, and its name was then changed to New York.

New York played a leading part in the formation of the United States. It was the first capital of the new Union, where Washington was inaugurated the first president.

Ever since the British ships, New York is sometimes called, has held the deciding voice in presidential elections.

The Mayor of New York City, John W. Aldrich, is the largest number of any of the states.

XII. NORTH CAROLINA

THE STORY of North Carolina is very aptly described by the name of Raleigh, for it was Sir Walter Raleigh who was responsible while the North Carolina's first settlement. It was in 1585 that Raleigh obtained permission from Queen Elizabeth to plant an English colony in America, and the expedition which he established a little colony on Roanoke island. There it was born the first American child of English parents.

She was named Virginia Dare, after the virgin queen. The colony was abandoned in 1586, and a century later the permanent settlements were made. During the Revolutionary war, North Carolina was the scene of some of the most important events in the history of the new nation.

It was in 1776 that the Declaration of Independence was signed in the town of York, and it was in 1789 that the first constitution of the state was adopted. The state has since that time been a member of the Union, and has played a prominent part in its history.
