A WARNING THAT MUST NOT BE IGNORED

Pain in the back is the kidney's signal of distress. If this timely warning is ignored, kidney disease supervenes—its deadly grip—-for kidney sickness first shows itself in pains and disorders in other parts, and the real cause is too often hidden until fatal Bright's disease or diabetics sets in. WAGES HAVEN'T KEPT PACE WITH PRICES, SAYS STANDARD OIL MAN

Alexander McDonald Sees No Incentive in Work That Produces Results There Must Be Remedies Somewhere—Ordinary Carla

Washington, D.C., Feb. 14—Permanent remedial measures are demanded by the standard oil man, Alexander McDonald, President of the Standard Oil Company of New York. He is one of the leading producers of the country, and he is convinced that the conditions under which he works are detrimental to the public interest and to the welfare and comfort of the working classes.

McDonald says the wage earner is not getting fair returns from his labor. The wages do not cover the cost of living. The cost of living has risen so much that it is impossible for the worker to make both ends meet. He is forced to work for a longer time than he would if the wages were higher. This is not only a matter of individual concern, but it is a matter of national importance. The worker is the backbone of the country, and he should be treated with respect and consideration.

FOR COST OF LIVING INQUIRY

The Senate Select Committee on the Cost of Living is continuing its work. The committee is investigating the causes of the high cost of living and is trying to find remedies to correct the situation. The committee is composed of Senators from all parts of the country, and it is well equipped to handle the problem.

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 14—President Taft today vetoed a bill providing for the establishment of the National Industrial Recovery Act. Taft said the bill was unnecessary and that it would be harmful to the country. He said the government should not interfere with the free play of the forces of supply and demand. He said the bill would create a monopoly and would be disastrous to the country. He said the government should not interfere with the free play of the forces of supply and demand.

PEAKS OF THOUGHT.

TO THE GOOD WOMEN

A batch of grist just arrived. I tasted it, and I relished it. I asked for the club, and it was sent to me.

On the night of the 10th I had the privilege of attending a meeting of the New York Women’s Municipal League. It was a good meeting, and I enjoyed it. I was invited to speak, and I did so.

The club invited me to speak, and I accepted the invitation. The meeting was held in the hall of the League, and the audience was large. I spoke for about half an hour, and my remarks were received with applause.

The meeting was adjourned, and I left the hall. As I walked out, I met Mrs. Harper, who was also attending the meeting.

"Mrs. Harper," I said, "I enjoyed your speech last night.

"Thank you," she replied. "I am glad you enjoyed it.

"I have a proposition to make to you," I continued. "I would like to give you some money for your work.

"What do you propose to do with the money?" she asked.

"I propose to use it to help the poor," I said.

"That is a fine idea," she replied. "I will accept your offer.

"I will give you ten dollars," I said.

"Thank you," she said. "I will use the money to help the poor.

We parted, and I went home. I felt good, and I was happy.
The Lure of the Mask

By HAROLD MAC GRATH

SYNOPSIS

There he lay—the man who was called the Gentleman with the Black Mask. He lay in the sun, his face the color of burnished steel, his eyes the color of fire, his voice the voice of death. And he was beautiful—beautiful in a way that was only beautiful because it was deadly. He was a man of mystery, a man of intrigue, a man of danger. And he was loved—loved in a way that was only loved because it was dangerous.

CHAPTER I

Wendy, I believe. But your advice is not wanted. I am tired of being a puppet, a tool of the wicked. I am tired of being used, of being manipulated. I am tired of being controlled, of being dominated. I am tired of being a slave, of being a servant, of being a toy. I am tired of being a man, of being a human being. I am tired of being anything. I am tired of being.
