JUST ONE Sucrene MADE GOOD

Many Already Know to Others we Submit Proof

We wish to call your attention to the Ninth Annual Report of the State Food Commission of Illinois showing the analysis of eleven brands of molasses feeds as follows:

The fact that if any one of these foods EXCEPT "SUCRENE," makes good in protein, it falls below its guaranteed in fat and if it makes good in fat it falls below in protein You may be feeding one of them.

SUCRENE Is In A Class By Itself

To use a cheap dairy feed is a costly experiment. Call or write us in regard to feeds. We will give you some facts that will put you wise.

Did you ever use a Spring Wheat Flour? Ask your good Bred-maker and she will tell you that Spring Wheat Flour makes the best bread, and the BEST CAN BE MADE ONLY FROM SPRING WHEAT. TRY A BASK OF "MARVELOUS" and you will come back for a barrel. We keep constantly on hand, at lowest prices, many of the best grades of Virginia Flour including, among the numerous brands, "PURITY".

Which is unexcelled in the Winter Wheat Class.

Try us for Bran, middlings and Grain of all sorts. Best Timothy Hay—the only kind a horse should have—and Salt. Special prices on feed and grain in large quantities. Best Corn Meal in the state.

FORTY-EIGHT REPORTED DEAD
AND NINETY-TWO INJURED

The flood of the St. John River in Canada has caused the death of 48 people and seriously injured 92 others. The river has overflowed its banks and flooded large areas of land, causing widespread damage. The Canadian government has declared a state of emergency and has called for assistance from other countries. The United States has offered to send relief supplies and has dispatched a team of experts to assess the situation. The government of Canada has also activated its disaster response team to coordinate efforts with local authorities. The situation is expected to worsen in the coming days as the river continues to rise.
Great excitement prevailed at the arena on Saturday night when it was learned that a crowd of some thousands of people were in the arena. The main attraction was a dog show, with a grand display of hounds and terriers. The dogs were on parade, and the crowd cheered them on. The show lasted for three hours, and everyone enjoyed it.

The event was sponsored by the Manassas Kennel Club, and the proceeds went to charity. It was a successful event, and the organizers are already planning for next year's show. They hope to make it even bigger and better.

The crowd consisted of people of all ages, from children to adults. Many of them brought their dogs to the show, and there were several dog competitions. The judges were strict, and the dogs had to be well-groomed and well-behaved to win.

At the end of the show, there were treats and prizes for the winners. Everyone was happy and excited, and they all promised to come back next year.

If it is necessary that the people in the vicinity of this particular proposition should understand the stock of this company, we call on attention a fact that is of very little to have been such at the time of its first issue. A very small number of the stock was held by a number of profitable developments, but every man to take hold of any such thing, when present reliable observations are made. The company has taken the lead in the development of oil and gas fields. The stock is in the hands of the stockholders to be sold at any time, and is the best assurance of future developments. The company's charter was granted by the government to the corporation. The charter shall be first in the hands of the stockholders to be sold at any time, and is the best assurance of future developments. The charter shall be used by the corporation.

READ CAREFULLY

Compare the holdings of the Penn-Vir Oil and Gas Company (holding 23,000 acres), with the holdings of the above companies mentioned and you will readily see what the great possibilities of the Penn-Vir Oil and Gas Company will be.

You may think that you can do better by waiting and buying stock after oil is struck. Study the table of California companies that decide how many shares you could buy after developments, by your good companies, and compare it with what you could have bought before development, and remember they were all "wild" and "uncertain" when you bought them.

The following table shows anew the stock of various California Oil Companies has advanced:

Recent geological investigations made by the Penn-Vir Oil and Gas Company, whose buildings are located at Prince William and Prince George, Virginia, led them to believe that the near vicinity contains oil at much shall be said of Oil Production in Virginia as is now related of Oil Production, and many, because the oil is high, and cheap to the operators, consider it to be a prospecting project. The operators have increased the capital stock of the company to $500,000, and have increased the capital stock of the company to $1,000,000.

In the present position of the market, the Penn-Vir Oil and Gas Company has been a very great advantage over all others.

The Oil of Virginia is of a Grade Bringing $1.53 Per Barrel—the Product Indicated in Our Field is of Same Quality

Does not the Penn-Vir Oil and Gas Company offer an unusual opportunity for investment?—We claim we do—Then, why not invest it now?—Not tomorrow, for its stock will go rapidly, and only a limited amount of stock will be sold to develop paying values. When the expected increases the stock-buyers will be appeased.

Washington, D. C.—As selected for the opening session of the annual conference of the National Federation of State Women's Clubs on this continent, the announcement was made that the state of Oregon is not profiting by the high cost of living for its citizens.

Governor William R. Miller, who is a delegate to the meeting, said that the state's economy is amply covered by the prices charged for its products, and that the recent slump in the price of wheat is being offset by the increased demand for other products.

"The governor was an honored guest," Governor Miller said, "and the state's economy is amply covered by the prices charged for its products, and that the recent slump in the price of wheat is being offset by the increased demand for other products.

BOYCOTT ON MEAT FORCES PRICES DOWN.

Chairman Robert G. McCall, of the church committee, urged the congregation to support the boycott on meat as a means of reducing the high cost of living.

"The price of meat is exorbitant," McCall said, "and it is the duty of the people to stand together and refuse to buy it.

He added that the boycott on meat is being carried out by the people of the town, and that it is having a beneficial effect on the price of meat, and that the people are now able to purchase it for a fair price.

"We are determined," McCall said, "to keep the price of meat down, and to prevent the manufacturers from taking advantage of the people.

The boycott has been very successful, and the people are now able to purchase meat for a fair price.

The question is often asked, "Why not have a national boycott on meat?"

"That is a good idea," McCall said, "and I think it is the duty of the government to take steps to prevent the manufacturers from taking advantage of the people.
