SUPERVISORS DENY FAIR COMPETITION

COUNCIL ACTS ON CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

FAIR competition was crushed. Apetement was upheld and an act to maintain the rights was rendered powerless. When the board of supervisors last Monday voted down a petition of The Virginia Publishing Company for the right to print the county newspaper the December election under the same conditions. A more moderate and just upon the county printing committee, by which an appeal was made to the people and presented to the county printing committee, the petition was denied. EXPLOIT MANASSAS AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL

This is a matter of time, but is the chief of opportunity. Don't let one or even a dozen men do all the work. Put your own shoulders where they belong. The grade is not provided to help themselves. The man or the town which opens can never be brought by the police itself. The city must do it and do it fast and find out the result before an unprincipled town. "It might have been."

The Lure of the Mask

BY HAROLD M. GRAY

CHAPTER XVI—Continued.

In the letter you read

"The plans to build our home in Kirtley has been changed and we are going to build in Sanford, Florida."

So the story goes.

But what about the mystery of the letter? Why was it sent? Why did the sender go to all the trouble of sending it from Kirtley to Sanford? What was the real reason for the change of plans? Was it because of the desire to be near the ocean? Or was it because of a personal connection to the town? Or was it simply a change of heart on the part of the sender? Only time will tell. But for now, the mystery remains.
