Lightning Kills Miss Ada Gardner

Victim of Storm Last Friday

Miss Ada W. Fair, of Fairmont, Arkansas, who had been visiting in this city, was killed by lightning last Friday afternoon.

She was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Gardner and was returning from a visit to her sister. Miss Gardner had been walking along the railroad tracks, when she was struck by lightning and fell to the ground. She was taken to the hospital, where she was pronounced dead.

Miss Gardner was a popular young woman, well-liked by all who knew her. She was always cheerful and kind-hearted, and her death is a great loss to her family and friends.

The funeral will be held on Monday morning at the Fairmont Cemetery.

Horse Show is Help to County

Improve Breeding of Stock

The horse show in Falls Church, held last week, was a great success. The entries were all of high quality, and the judges praised the efforts of the exhibitors. The show will help to improve the breeding of stock in the county.

Carter Weather Victim

Early Sunday morning a West Orange car, bound with coal for Falls Church, was struck by lightning. The car was carrying a load of coal, and the accident caused a delay of several hours.

The driver of the car was unhurt, but the car was seriously damaged. The accident occurred at 5:30 a.m., and the driver had to wait until sunrise before he could continue his journey.

Bale Thieves Steal Shores from Car

Falls Church, Va., Thursday, July 14, 1910

M. C. Martin, of Falls Church, had his bale of hay stolen from his car last night. The car was parked in front of Martin's house, and the bale was gone when the car was taken.

The thief left a note on the car, threatening to return the bale if Martin did not pay a certain sum of money. The note was signed "The Bale Thief."

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Points for Mothers

What becomes of communciation lessons when they grow up? Actually things are just as bad as ever. The little boys still forget to上下游, and the little girls still forget to wash. The time may come when they won't be able to do anything.

The Mums are a friendship that exist at all times and everywhere. A woman who is not motherly is a woman who has had no experience.

The Mums are always in a hurry to get home, and to get their children to bed. They are always in a hurry to get the children to school, and to get them home.

In the Mums, one can always find a mother.
