STRENGTH—Financial Strength

When George Smith, of Prince William County, secured the position of Manager of the First National Bank of Nokesville, it was immediately evident that the new bank was to be a success. Smith, a man of character and ability, is a native of the county, and has been actively connected with banking in various parts of Virginia. He is well known for his integrity and fidelity, and his success at the First National Bank is a good omen for its future.

President of the First National Bank is John M. D. L. T. McFadden, president; John D. P. P. J. B. McFadden, vice-president; James E. M. T. McFadden, cashier; and James E. M. T. McFadden, assistant cashier.

The First National Bank has a capital of $100,000, and a surplus of $50,000. Its assets include a large amount of personal property, real estate, and other investments, which are well secured.

The bank is open every day from 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., and is under the management of John M. D. L. T. McFadden.

Letters to Santa Claus

Dear Santa Claus,

I am 9 years old and live at 123 Main St. in Manassas, VA. I am writing to ask for a new bicycle for Christmas. I have been good all year and have saved my allowance to buy a new bike. It would be the best Christmas gift ever.

Sincerely,

[Child's Name]
