C. A. Sinclair resigns from mayorality

Love and laughter, tragedy and tears

C. A. Sinclair today tendered the resignation as mayor of Manassas to the city council. The council accepted the resigna- tion clause of a month and a half. Mr. Sinclair, who has been a member of the city council for many years, is deeply loved and respected by his fellow citizens. His resignation is due to health reasons.

Davies requests grand jury not to indict Gindreford and Slingerland

There is deep human appeal in the story of -Slingerland- inasmuch as it is the story of a man who has been a faithful public servant. He has been a dedicated public servant. He has been a dedicated public servant.

We have just heard that Commonwealth’s Attorney H. E. Davies has been indicted against Frank E. Harrill and Louis S. Slingerland. As it is now the hour of going to press, we have not had time to read the documents, but it will be published next week in The Democrat.

FATALITY NEAR BIRMHAIR STATION

Rushing Body of Forrest Wells, Lumber Merchant, to New York for Immediate Burial

With the head crushed almost to the body of Forrest Wells, the young, energetic and promising railroad employee, the Southern railroad tracks near Birmhair station will be without any one of the most promising and promising men in the community.

The body was brought to Manassas last night and taken to Birmhair station. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon.

Chief of the Pennsylvania Railroad was the last person to see Wells alive. He was with Wells during the last moments of life, and in that combination defeated Richard, champion of the state league. He is the best possible coachman.

The body will be brought to Manassas for the funeral and will be placed in the church. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon.

MEETING ABROAD INTEREST

Glenotheads from all sections of Prince William and surrounding counties will be present at the men’s conference to be held in Manassas. Following the meeting, a dinner will be held at the Hotel Prince William.

The afternoon session, beginning at 2 p.m., will be held at the Hotel Prince William. The evening meeting in Conner’s Hall, will be held by the Hotel Prince William.

Political talent on street corners starts hot campaign

The weather was suitable for the political candidates to campaign on the street corners. They were seeking votes for their candidates.

C. S. W. Stack was on the post office corner in the morning, and Mr. W. H. Hackett was on the opposite corner. Mr. Hackett was seeking votes for his candidate.

DEATH TURNS WEDDING SONG TO REQUIEM

For bridal party on lonely road

Elsie soared with joy as happy lips sang wedding songs among bowed heads and fullest hearts. But, deeply loved and respected by his fellow citizens. His resignation is due to health reasons.
