The missing express package valued at $5,000 sent from one of the banks in Frederickburg to a bank in Baltimore contains about 500 small packages of gold bullion and the thieves have had the contents of the package in their possession for about four days. The thieves have grasped the idea that there is something of value in the affairs of the bank. On account of the great amount of bullion in the package, the bank has not been able to get the contents removed for several weeks.

The thieves have broken open a sewing machine that is several hundred years old and have made good use of the machinery in order to remove the contents of the package. The bank has not been able to get the contents removed for several weeks.

Cupid's Halfback

By Louise Moorhead

From the Chicago Daily Tribune.

Cupid, the god of love, has had a difficult time to maintain a steady speed this year. The recent heat wave has caused problems for him, as he has found it challenging to keep up with the modern pace of life.

This year, Cupid has faced another obstacle - the proliferation of online dating. Many people now prefer to stay in their comfort zones and connect with others through social media, making it difficult for Cupid to find love matches.

Despite the challenges, Cupid remains optimistic. He believes that true love is still possible, and he warns against the dangers of instant gratification and social media. His message is clear: love requires patience and effort, and those who are willing to put in the work will find happiness.

In the meantime, Cupid continues to spread love and happiness wherever he can. He encourages everyone to open their hearts to the possibilities of love, regardless of the obstacles.

Virginia faces a political crisis. The manipulators of the political machine are striving to perpetuate their power, by crushing the rights of the people and at the cost of arresting the progress of the State. United States Senator T. S. Martin is accused of working in the interests of the railroads and against the interests of the people. He is charged with gross misrepresentation of railroading interests, when he agreed to endorse several railroad projects which were in the interest of his constituents.

United States Senator Claude Swanson admits that he has invested a fortune in the tobacco trust. He makes neither satisfactory nor reasonable defense against Carter Glass, who indicts him as a friend and part of the tobacco trust. Congressman William J. Bonds and Congressman Carter Glass stand for political righteousness. Jones is a candidate to succeed Mr. Bonds. It is said that Bonds or Mr. Carter Glass will be elected as successor to Mr. Bonds. The evidence they present against the State railroad is given.

"WHO IS US?"

The Hon. William A. Jones Conclusively Answers Question—Sen. Martin's Railroad Connections Shown by the Thompson Letters.

A press release delivered by Congressman William A. Jones, of Virginia, last night, presented the charges alleged to have been prepared by him at Houlton, in New Hampshire, to be delivered by him to the Senate yesterday, Thursday, September 7. Read the evidence they present against the State railroad and against the misrepresentation of railroad interests.
