It is still up to Senator Martin to explain, as his Richmond speech by its evasion and absence of proof rendered his argument portrays him as an enemy of this lawless tobacco monster; but not constitute a fact. Facts are proved truths.

To attempt to divert attention from the issue involved it is evident. This letter was produced for Senator Martin to explain before the people

Senator Martin denies all knowledge of the letter dated Novem ber 23, 1911, although he quotes Thompson's statement:

"Both Martin and I were thoroughly impressed with the fa manner he (Ellyson) dealt with us. and I do not want him disappointed in this matter, and unless Major Myers comes up with the additional $500 we will certainly have to provide it."

In the light of Senator Martin's own testimony does it not appear that a corruption fund was raised and distributed?

Senator Martin's replies to the charges made by Mr. Jones may be sufficient for himself and his adherents, but they are neither satisfactory nor convincing to the people.

All doubt as to the identity of "US" mentioned in the letters was removed when Senator Martin confessed: 'The question THOUGH A FOOL KNOWS THE WORD 'US' REFERRED TO THE RAILROAD COMPANIES.

Senator Martin will discover to his regret before the campaign is over that he is dealing not with feels, but with intelligent voters. AND IT DOES NOT REQUIRE GREAT VISION TO SEE THAT SENATOR MARTIN IS CONVICTING HIMSELF BY HIS OWN TESTEMONY

That Senstor Martin deminates the Virginia judiciary is one the most severe criticisms directed against his efficial career. H denies it as is expeted, but there are many who believe with M Jones, in referring to machine politicians, that

There is not a single office in the State of Virginia, the salary he? of which is large enough to tempt the enpidity of these people. that they do not have to go to Washington and get O. K'd by the head of the ring in the State of Virginia."

The issues in this Senatorial campaign are cleary drawn. They are summaried in a struggle of political justice to overthrow the
