INCOME IN Cashing—Must you be on hand with a dollar to cash a check? Not at the American Bank of Commerce and Trust Co. of Indianapolis. Wherever you have been trained to write a check, you are trained to cash it. But, like many other things, it may not always be done in the same manner. Remember, however, that if you wish to cash a check at the American Bank of Commerce and Trust Co., you must be on hand with a dollar to cash a check. This is the same procedure as when you cash a check at the American Bank of Commerce and Trust Co.

Interesting Facts of Our State—Indians in our state are the descendants of the ancient Indians who lived in this area. Some of these early tribes included the Miami, Potawatomi, and Kickapoo. The Miami were the largest tribe, numbering between 50,000 and 60,000 members. The Potawatomi were the second largest tribe, numbering between 25,000 and 30,000 members. The Kickapoo were the smallest tribe, numbering between 10,000 and 15,000 members. The Miami were the most powerful tribe, and they were the most skilled in the arts of war and peace. The Potawatomi were the second most powerful tribe, and they were the second most skilled in the arts of war and peace. The Kickapoo were the least powerful tribe, and they were the least skilled in the arts of war and peace.

White Loaf Flour
HAS MADE MILFORD MILLS FAMOUS

Why not keep your money from other mills that never see a penney's worth with you? Why not buy from your mill and your own customer, who spends all he has to spend in the county? Our flour has made good, and if you will only try it, you will find out for yourself. If our flour was not up to date, why would it be bought as the only available in all the time and to the same trade. I have regular customers for White Loaf who had been using sick brands of spring wheat and fancy patent flour. We never spend our money with those who spend theirs with us.

MINISTRY RULE WITH VENGEANCE

Mr. Frisby had his horse and buggy ready, and was on his way to the Manassas Bank when he was accosted by a man who appeared to be in a hurry. The man introduced himself as Mr. Smith, and said that he had some money to deposit. Mr. Frisby listened with interest, and then asked the man if he had any business at the bank.

"Yes," said Mr. Smith, "I have some money to deposit, and I would like to talk to the cashier.

Mr. Frisby smiled and said, "Of course, Mr. Smith. What can I do for you?"

Mr. Smith then explained that he had just come from out of town, and that he was in a hurry to get the money deposited. He said that he would like to talk to the cashier in private, and asked if Mr. Frisby could arrange this for him.

Mr. Frisby nodded his head, and said, "I will arrange it for you. Please follow me.

Mr. Frisby then escorted Mr. Smith to a private office, where he deposited his money and talked to the cashier. After a few minutes, Mr. Frisby returned to Mr. Smith and said, "Your money is in the vault, Mr. Smith. Is there anything else you need?"

Mr. Smith shook his head and said, "No, thank you. I will be on my way now.

Mr. Frisby said, "Goodbye, Mr. Smith. Have a good trip."
Grierson’s Triumph

Electronic Digest swiftly along the trunk. Some 1,800 miles ahead lay a series of serious difficulties for the iron horse. At any given moment it had to avoid a mine or approach a water stop. It was neither to be trifled with. It also had to avoid a tunnel, and at a certain point in the Appendix, which led to a gristmill. The iron horse was not to be trifled with.

Then, as we draw down the station, a whirlwind of excitement spread through the waiting room, and we were greeted by a line of men who had already been there. We were told that it was a man-made whirlwind, and that it was not a natural phenomenon. The men were there to help us.

The great moment has arrived. The adventures of the iron horse have lasted for a half hour. The engine has passed the station, the station is empty, and the iron horse is on its way.

Esther Pledging For Her People

The bank was open and the customers were waiting. Esther was standing in the doorway, looking at the customers. She was wearing a black dress and a black hat.

She walked over to the customers and said, "I am sorry, ladies and gentlemen. Esther is to be married in a few weeks. I am afraid that I cannot help you today."

The customers understood and smiled. Esther was an important member of the community, and they knew that she had a lot of responsibilities.

FESTIVAL

There is little about a festival that can never be easily overlooked. The very definition of the word is a period of feasting and merrymaking, an ever-lasting, ever-singing, ever-dancing, ever-partaking of the feast of the field, and transforms into visible our desire for enjoyment. Your city’s own three-day festival, the Civic League is a conversation with your prospective mother-in-law while your best girl has gone to a show, with another fellow, as so many consider with the type of the Civic League is better suited to your taste. Think of it as a festival, and under the spell of witchcraft the man who would not have been caught alive by the city directory or the Congressional Record to lighten his heart and brighten his way. Shall we then wonder that announcement of a festival is gladly welcomed.

The Civic League is planning a festival for the immediate near future. Such an event is known to be accompanied in its announcement Tuesday. Thence will there be anything to eat! Plenty and more. Then, the “best” beer you ever tasted was passed around, and yes, your best girl, the lady of your choice, and in the Civic League is a conversation with your prospective mother-in-law while your best girl has gone to a show, with another fellow, as so many consider with the type of the Civic League is better suited to your taste.
