THAT DAWSON, GA., OUTRAGE

BECAUSE she refused to swear that she would not again permit her lover to call upon her, Essie Carter, of Dawson, Gair was conveyed at night in an automobile, by a lot of fiends in human form, meetings in Virginia has been enough to convince him and his folto a nearby grove and horsewhipped almost unto death. The in-lowers that the Republicane have used the negroes for their own human scoundrels charged by the victim and her sister as having ends, and that the Democrats have been their real friends. committed the revolting outrage are: W. S. Dozier, clerk of the Superior Court, Clyde Dozier, his son, and a dozen other prominent men of Dawson.

The young girl's body was so swollen that she was in constant him to Congress or to some office of public preferment." agony, and with a high fever and symptoms of blood poisoning her physicians were almost hopeless for her recovery.

The young girl says: "I loved Voygt Dozier, and he loved me. please his father, the latter and his friends whipped me almost to death. They carried me off in an automobile to a lonely grove near Dawson and when they got me there they stripped me to the skin

It is alleged that when the chastising had been completed the poor girl's back was a mass of bruises and she was screaming through pain.

Two Macon attorneys have been engaged to prosecute Dozier ple, it is estimated that there were 40,000,000 bunches of bananas and his son, Civile, and it is to be noped that the principal and imported into the United States, last year. ## "UNCLE SAM" AT MANASSAS

Directions from among the clouds at an early hour. Monday norming. Uncle Sam' alighted upon the historic battlefields whi and the first great stangale of the civil war. Perhans his mis sion, following so closely in the wake of the Baltimore convention that a new era would soon dawn upon them under the administration of Woodrow Wilson, and that they would again be welcomed into the fold of the nation "without money and without price." When he landed and looked over the vast territory which over half a century ago, was bathed in blood, his eyes, no doubt, dimmed with tears and recollections of the days that tried men's souls caused him to pause with reverence and look down through the ages of time to the period when Virginia, the mother of states and of states wender then that he should come from a city in the far west bring to his downtrodden people the assurance that hereafter h would know no North, no South, no East, no West in dealing out the good things which he has garnered and in the appointment of those who should rule over them.

FREE TRADE LIVELY ISSUE

Some of Woodrow Wilson's carefully prepared papers make i clear as to what may be expected from a government under his ad ministration.

He is true to the theories of his fellow Democrats, as may be seen from the following extract from an address he delivered not a great while ago and before the mentle of leadership of the Demo eratic party had fallen upon his shoulders: Free-Trade has been a slumbering question, but it will in the no distant future, become one of the leading and wide a wake questions in all nolitical discussions, because the people will insist upon having the fruits of peace and not the burdens of war enter into the costs of living. When farmer discovers that he can buy a jackknife of English manufacture for fifty-cents less than one of the same style and quality of American manufacture, together with numerous other articles bearing the same propotional cost all because of the protective tariff to swell the profits of the American manufacturer, he at once begins to feel a lively interest in the question

FORT MCHENRY ABANDONED

BAPTIZED IN NEW FAITH

GILES B. JACKSON a prominent negro politician, of Richmond is a leader of the movement which he hopes is destined to swin the colored voters of the country into the Democratic party. He is sociates to take charge of the national headquarters, although he has not yet decided to do so.

According to Giles Jackson, the negroes who are promoting the move to sever their allegience from the Republican party forever, are representative citizens of their race. They are business and professional men who see no advantage accruing to their race, either individually or collectively, in remaining in a party where their only period of recognition is on election day, when their services are needed as a cat's paw for political purposes.

In the furtherance of the object in view a conference has been called to be held in Richmond next Tuesday, at which time, in al probability, it will be decided to establish national headquarters either in Richmond or in Washington. The past experience of Jack son with the "lily-white" Republican conventions and district

"Whenever I needed money or the granting of some special favor requiring money," says Jackson, "I could more surely depend on ome good Democrat helping me out, than to request like favors from a Republican, though I had shouted myself hoarse to elect

HIDDEN MONEY

Ctatistics show that the percentage of money to outside of banks is greater than that lost the bank failures by over 240 per cent. And yet new will store their money away in stockings burn drawers, mattresses, carpets, etc, waiting for thieves and flames. The stories of serious and net iable losses of this kind published during the na year would fill a volume. They show that murders have been caused by hidden money some cases for ridiculously small amounts. CHARLES BLAKE CLARKE
