Sudden Death of E. P. Poppe

E. P. Poppe was a well-known and popular figure in the community. He was the owner of the Poppleton, one of the oldest businesses in town. His death was a great shock to his family and friends.

Rutledge Business Transacted

A full board of supervisors presented the petition of Paul Allen for the Gambles Mills Road. A large crowd attended the meeting.

Interesting Speakers Come to Town

Two days after the sale of the Manassas, the Manassas Journal, the outlines of the new law were pointed out, and a discussion followed. The law was passed by a large majority.

Pay Bills

W. B. Whittaker, W. H. Lewis, and W. B. E. Brown are the new supervisors of the town.

A Warm Subject—Warmly Handled

The subject of the Manassas railroad is very hot. Many people are debating the pros and cons of the issue.

Some Results of Judy's Work

In his recent column, Judy has presented some interesting data on the state of the economy.

The Nebraska Method--Says Brown

Brown has written a new book on the Nebraska method of farming. It is highly recommended by many experts.
“Joy Among the Cooks”

We have just installed a new Purifier in our mill at a cost of $200.00, and given the mill a general overhauling, and have with us an expert miller, and our flour is giving entire satisfaction. We guarantee it to be as good as any of the Patent Flour shipped in the State. One bushel of flour gets you 1 barrel of flour, and 5 bushels of wheat gets you 1 barrel flour and 66 pounds of offal. Your patronage solicited.
