NORMAL HIGH SCHOOL AT MANASSAS OFFERS

The leading High School in these parts, at Manassas, has opened its doors for the present term. The officers report in a letter that all the arrangements are complete and in a state of readiness for the arrival of the pupils. The school is conducted upon the most approved principles and in the best manner possible. All the pupils who enter will receive a first-class education, and every person will be able to acquire a knowledge of the various branches of knowledge necessary for a good citizen.

SCHOOL SHOW GERMAN IN THE FIELD

The school has been visited by a number of the citizens of the vicinity, and they were all pleased with what they saw. The pupils are well employed, and the instruction is given in a manner that is sure to produce good results.

MON. R. L. MARCH, IN THE FIELD

The school is conducted by Mr. March, who is a well-informed gentleman and a first-rate teacher. He has been in the school a number of years, and has been the principal for several years. His methods of instruction are well known, and his pupils are well pleased with his manner of teaching.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. J. H. HARROLD

At the age of seventy-three, Mr. J. H. Harrold, of this town, died suddenly last night at his residence. He was a man of excellent character and a valued citizen. He was a member of the Manassas Masonic Lodge, and a respected member of the community.

BEST MIXTURE FOR GROWING ALFALFA

Mr. W. R. Godfrey gives the best advice for growing alfalfa. He has been growing alfalfa for many years, and has a great deal of experience in the matter. His advice is always sought and followed, and he is always successful in his work.
