YEAR OF PROSPERITY

With the tariff lowered on a number of commodities and with forward with determination. The only dark cloud on the horizon is the railroad situation. The failures of the New Haven and Frisco systems, due to speculation, has destroyed confidence, and the values of stock of all kinds have declined. The country taised dur ing 1913 crops value at nine billism dollars and the manufactures were enormous. The money is still in the country, much of it is bank vaults. This money will come out of the dark recesses of the banks and move along in the currents of trade if confidence can be restored. Politicians have predicted all manner of dire calamities and not statesmanship. However, there are enough conscientious everyone unite in singing a song of confidence. Business League's "Booster" Meeting

Sixth Annual Smoker to be Held in Conner's Hall To-Morrow Night, Beginning at 8.30.

The Manassas Business League, composed of a great majority of our local business men and citizens will hold their Sixth Annual Smoker in Conner's Hall tomorrow evening January 16, commencing at 8:30 p. m.

The evening's program opens with the serving of an excellently prepared luncheon, followed by the "smokes." As this is to be a Booster's Meeting, 5-minute boosts on Freight Rates, New Improvements, New Industries, The Council, New Town Hall, Retailer's Side of Credits, Insurance Rates, Agriculture, Board of Health, Disposal Plant, The "Hammer," The "Horn," and others, will be made by members of the League. The program also consists of the following songs: America, Old Black Joe. Old Oaken Bucket and Carry Me Back to Old Virginia.

The committees appointed for this meeting are; Invitation, C. R. C. Johnson, O. D. Waters, L. Frank Pattie, Ira E. Cannon, B. C. Cornwell; Reception, E. A. Brand, R. S. Hynson, C. E. Nash, James E. Nelson, W. Hutchison; Entertainment, G. Raymond Ratcliffe, W. R. Myers, Wm. C. Wagener; Arrangements, R. W. Payne and E. R. Conner. It is expected that this affair will be largely attended, and prove a most enjoyable function.
