LEGISLATIVE REVIEW

BY LEWIS H. MACHEN

The Senate by a unamimous vote yesterday passed the Weaver bank deposit-tax measure which passed the house Tuesday, reduc- with themselves ing the tax on money from $1.75 to 20 cents on the $100 and collectable from the individual, segregating the tax to the State alone. pints and quarts, The measure becomes effective the first of February, after being signed by Governor Mann, which he will do before Saturday.

The big sweep of the enabling act through the House, with only a paltry 19 votes actually cast against it has thrown a gloom over the recently radiant liquor forces and makes the passage of the ought to be done measure by the Senate possible, though not certain. One speach in the Anti-Saloon League convention seemed to set the hair as the saying is—on some of the wet Senators who have been regarded as wobbly. Early action by the Senate is expected.

During the discussion of the liquor referendum. Delegate White. of Rockbridge, referred pointedly to his resolution for a constitutional amendment for a general initiative and referendum machinery. More will be heard of this hereafter. The idea received a fair vote in the House last session and appears to be more popular now than to remove the license tax from doctors. This measure has been up ing is ant to break into the spinister class repeatedly and was nearly trumphant in 1908. There is an increasing prejudice against all license taxes; but the watch-does of the treasury have been able to head it off.
