Scandal-Freedom. It is an Enemy to Success.

In business, as in all other things, the maxim, "No Scandal, Freedom" is a sound one. It is the infallible guide of the judge, the statesman, the legislator — in fact, of men of all grades and conditions of life; and I have never known a case where it was more true or more applicable. In the case of the man who is engaged in business, it is the surest path to success; and I have seen many instances of men who have been successful in business, but who have been ruined by scoundrels, or who have been ruined by their own imprudence.

It is the maxim of all successful men, that the only way to avoid the perils of business, is to be free from all scandal. In the fourth place, it is necessary to have a good deal of knowledge, and it is best to rear hogs in a place where there is a good deal of knowledge, and where the hogs can have a good deal of sunshine.
