And For Three Summers No. 1

Are We to Expect a Repeat of 1812?

From the "Sun" of New York.

If 1812 is not repeated, I doubt if the war will go on.

Mr. Lincoln will have his hands full.

The War is not a war of aggression on the part of the United States, but one of defense.

We are now compelled to look to our neighbors for protection.

The President has declared that the United States will not grant aid to the British.

March 24th, 1815, Mr. Lincoln said in Congress:

"The United States is not a nation, but a collection of separate states, each with its own government, each with its own rights and duties."
