

THE GAZETTE

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING

MANASSAS, Va.

AT ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM.

All communications should be addressed to

"Editor Gazette."

H. B. VARNES, Proprietor.

Some Wash Built in a Day.

The boy did his work and sleep.

Will never a great man be?

In the woe of life or single life.

That makes the sea the sea.

The mountain was not at its birth.

A mountain, so to speak;

A little stems of sand and earth.

Not all at once, but creeping streams.

The gold above the gray;

Tis a thousand little snow globes;

That make the day the day.

Not from the earth, but from the sky.

Spring's whole bright splendor it takes,

To make her golden robes.

Upon the orchard rain must fall,

And wash the wheat broad;

Then cradle, thresh and go to mill.

Before the bread is baked.

With bread may the early shout,

But, spite of all the day.

It is the patient bough off.

That makes the winter win.

Makes your mate, then, so start.

"Till help to smooth the way,

And steady up both hand and heart.

"Bones won't built in a day!"

LOUIS BALLOON.

I was sitting quietly in my room, when a note from my old friend, Lou Livermore, was brought in. He had been here, as, indeed, all her friends are; though still young, she is now a woman.

"The note unrolled:

"On her ancestral rose,

"On her ancestral rose,

"She lives far up in the country, but occasionally comes to Boston on visits. Her

note was as follows:

"Dear Haver.—Here I am at the Hub at the west end of it, in the hubbub part, I am here to see you again on Saturday. I meant to go to-day, but I had all the time in the world, so I went to see Aunt Rose, to say 'What has done?' No, I am not ill, but I have a cold, and will just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet, considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

"I suppose so," said Hester, "but what is huge and hideous—a coat or something? For example: only they things there's never

hour I listened to the voice of the tannery and put myself into the hands of a city dress-

"She very stylish," quoth the sempstress.

"Little I know in my ignorance what that means; but I went to her room in sweet,

considerate simplicity, and she was in a looking dress pattern under my arm.

"I had three persons of whom I could not be sure; but with Cuttis, almost impossible.

"I went all mad up—'clean tickered out,' as Aunt Rose used to say. What has done?"

"I am not hump-backed; I went in with a dollar, and I came out with a dollar, and just enough to pay my fare home on the streetcar—the collar having been taken off, and another to be fastened over it, so that it will fit well with a coat which I am in serious doubt, as to whether it will be more sensible than any other woman," said Hester dryly. "A re-

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

A large supply of goods suitable for the season, consisting of Fine Black Dress Suits, Sack, Frost, and Wing Overcoats, Boys' and Youth's Suits, Beaver and Cashmere Suits &c.

Perfectly fitting Shirts, one of the largest assortments in the country, Tailoring department on second floor. Everything complete and first class. No charge for fitting shirts.

GRANT & BROWN,
110½ St.,
Washington, D. C.

A Long Needed Want Supplied.

The St. James Hotel, corner Sixth st. and Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C., opposite the Bellinger and Postage stamp deposit, has been opened on the European plan by Messrs. Lee Woodbury and John A. Duran.

The house has been entirely remodeled, redecorated, repapered, the furniture made and especially for the house, and located in elegant style of my house.

The rooms are truly designed to be par for the Bellinger style of dining.

In the Capital, where righting business is perfect, proprietors will meet here, the advantages of the European plan, which gives, for only for the meals and sandwiches, their orders is obvious to all.

In addition to these elegant and gentlemanly facilities dining rooms, there is a gentleman's dining room, and refectory room, too. This institution certainly promotes economy with elegance.

Scenes Now.
Mrs. M. H. Bodine, who resides here this place, pulled from her garden this week a root of the sugar cane variety, which measured twenty-three and a half inches in circumference and weighed nine and a quarter pounds! What can beat this root?

LIVE STOCK Farm and Firewood Journal.
This newspaper for November has reached us. It is a model of compact arrangements of matter, and is comprehensive in its range of subjects that every class of stock is treated in every number. It is edited with great care and practical knowledge. The present number gives a clear description of a simple method of feeding cattle in winter, how to manage them economically, how to keep the dependencies of the dairy, horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, bees, flocks, the turf and farm. It has over eighty different articles. The proprietors are best satisfied with all this, but have added, in the present number, and will continue, a Firewood Department, filled with good things for the farmer's wife and children. We do not know any farmer who takes it, can ever give it up. Price only $1 per year. CHARLES STONE & CO., Buffalo, N. Y. Publishers.

THE HORSE.
The horse, made in悲哀 in Rockbridge County. The stage line from Staunton up the parkland have been discontinued. The Goshen and Bobrick's lines are still running.

It is said that Mr. J. Ambler Smith is expected to make the James river and Kanawha canal project his especial hobby in Congress.

It snowed in Richmond in a moderate way on Saturday evening.

THE WHEAT CROP OF VIRGINIA.
The wheat crop of 1872, in Virginia is estimated at 2,555,689 bushels for the year. In 1860 it produced 6,323,560 bushels of wheat, corn, buckwheat, and more than 45 bushels of inhabitants.

THE BALTIMORE WEEKLY AMERICAN.
THE PAPERS OF THE PEOPLE.

The Weekly American is especially adapted to the wants of the people in the villages and the rural districts. It contains all the news of the political world in Daily American, except those news from the South, in column; Foreign News, City and State news, and the like. It is well worth reading. Its Agricultural Department is provided over 100 pages of the year's experience whose contributions and advice are given to the reader. The paper is also devoted to the news of the South, and the South and the South. Reports are always given and forwarded. The paper is well printed and bound. It is a good paper.

TERMS.
Weekly, a month, one year, $1.00
Daily American, six months, $1.00
The terms of subscription are placed at an annual rate, so that a subscriber may come from one office, no less than two months, and receive his paper at the same time. The paper is sent to two or three months, and the price is reduced. Send on the names as fast as received. Payment in advance, and a copy of the weekly newspaper.

JOSEPH E. FULLER, NEW YORK.
American Office, Boston, Mass.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.
AS SUBSTITUTED TRUSTEE IN

the deed of trust executed March 1, 1869, by John Baily to C. Baily, I shall offer the same on the premises above mentioned on the 24th December the tract being on which John Baily at present resides, lying in Prince William county, adjoining the town of Chantilly, 1½ miles from the village of Noborona Berkley, containing 220 acres. The improvements are good, and the tract is well watered, has an abundance of fine trees, and good fence, and a portion of it is well taken in pasture.

TERMS OF SALE.
Sufficient in cash to pay cost of sale and satisfy said trustee for the remainder term known on day of sale.

EDMUND BRADLEY,
Trustee.
Haymarket Dec 20 Inst.

MARRIED.

18th St. Paul's Church, Haymarket on the 23rd inst. Mr. R. T. Brown, son of Mr. Wm. of Fredericksburg, and Mrs. Anna C. daughter of the late Winslow Carter, of Prince William county.

On Thursday afternoon, 24th Oct., 1872, at the residence of the bride's father, by Elder Benjamin Bridges, Mr. Benson B. Kersh, of Loudoun county, to Miss Anna, daughter of James Jenkins, Esq., of Fauquier county.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.*ATTENTION! THE PUBLIC!

WE INFORM ALL PERSONS WISHING THEIR SUPPLY OF

FALL and Winter
GOODS,
that we are receiving a large and well-selected stock of DRY GOODS, con-taining

VIRGINIA LASSONED, LADIES' DRESS GOODS,
We have also an elegant assortment of BUKSKIN GAUNTLETS, and GLOVES OF LEATHER.

With Superior Article of Ladies' Shoes
VIRGINIA MANUFACTURE, AND WARRANTED, ALSO:

GROCERIES, HATS, CAPS, BOOTS SHOES,
and all articles specially kept in store, which we will very Cheap for Cash, or exchange for Crops,
Oats, Wheat, Butter, Eggs,
Poultry, Dried Fruit,
&c., &c.,

And for which we will pay the Highest Price in Goods and Cash desired.

Thankful for past favors, we solicit the continuance of the patronage of the public, who we trust will see our merit and honest. We will be advantageous to all to sell and see us before making their purchases elsewhere.

MERCHANT'S SON,
Nov. 20th.

A FULL SUPPLY

OF
FALL AND WINTER GOODS

JOHN BREWER,
18th St.,

RICHARD M. WEIR,
18th St.,

HAVING LIED IN ANOTHER IN-STALLMENT OF all and Winter Goods
we respond simply as follows:

—Produce of every kind, at exchange for Merchandise at the highest market rates.

—Produce of all kinds, honest and fair dealing with every one.

Nov. 20th.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

VILL. BE SOLD AT PUBLIC SALE
at the residence of the subscriber in following town, 24th of November, 1872.

Two hundred and forty acres of land, with one good House, two Cows, one Bull, one old Bull, two Horses, three sheep, Farming Utensils, two-horse Waggon, with one light, one Plow, Harrows, Double harrow, and other Farming Utensils. Single House, one of two stories, one room, a Saddle, one Side-saddle, nearly new, a Grindstone, lot of Tools, Axes, Saws, Augers, etc., one Hay, Corn-hopper, four barrels of salted Corn, one barrel of Vinegar, a lot of Household Goods, consisting of Bedding and Seeds, etc. Two pairs of Boots, a pair of Hunting Gloves, a pair of Hunting Glasses, Lantern, one Watch, two Boxes, one good cooking stove, with firewood, a Tong, Handiron, &c., a hand set of gilt China, consisting of fifty-eight pieces of China, Glass, and many other articles to be sold.

Conditions made known on the day of sale. — CHARLES FLANDERS.

The Farm is also for sale.

NOV. 20th.

JOHN BROWN,

late of the firm of Brown & Co.,

WITH

E. L. TOLSON,

WHOLESALE-GROCER,

AND

COMMISSION MERCHANT,

(Blacklock & Co.'s Old Stand),

Alexandria, Va.

—CASES OF WHISKY,

On Wheats, 2c. per bush. Oats and Oats, 2c. per bush. Flour, 25c. per bush. General Produce, 5 cent each. — Nov. 20th.

TERMS OF SALE.

Sufficient in cash to pay cost of sale and satisfy said trustee for the remainder term known on day of sale.

EDMUND BRADLEY,
Trustee.

Haymarket Dec 20 Inst.

THE "HERR WE REST."*COMBINED CORN AND COTTON*CULTIVATOR*HAS RECEIVED THE HIGHEST*RECOGNITION AS A CULTIVATOR FOR CORN,*COTTON, SUGAR, AND OTHER ROOT-CROPS,*PLANTATION WORK.*IT IS SO MADE THAT TWO*PEAS AND BEANS, OR ANY COMBINATION*OF TWO OR MORE OF THESE PLANTS CAN BE*PLANTED ON ANY ONE FIELD,*AND THE CROPS WILL GROW*TOGETHER.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*MAN CAN CULTIVATE*ONE FIELD.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED*BY ONE MAN.*IT IS SO MADE THAT ONE*FIELD CAN BE CULTIVATED

I S S U E (S)

M I S S I N G