Suggestions for further research

A source of interest that was not included in this index is material from the City of Manassas, Department of Community and Economic Development. They have additional information on the historic sites within the city limits.

A source that was not included in this index because it does not list place names is the 1815 Directory of Virginia Landowners that lists only people's names. (RELIC 929.3755 War)

Beulah Baptist Church

Location: Occoquan
Site No.: Year Built: 1883 (burned ca.1960) Turner Cemetery No.:
Lat/Long:
Notes: One of three Smootite churches in Prince William County (Historic Occoquan Inc., Vol. 1, No. 10, April 2004, p.2)
1883 March 27 -- Samuel N. Janney and Elizabeth his wife of the City of Alexandria and Elizabeth Janney of Loudoun Co., sold the property to Orris Maxfield, J. W. Davis, and John Clark of PWC, trustees of the Occoquan Old School Baptist Church of the Town of Occoquan, for $60. DB 34, p153.
Late 1950s, early 1960s -- the church building that was in a deplorable state was burned down by OWL Fire Dept. for an exercise. The stones from the foundation wall of the Beulah Baptist Church were made into a small monument marking the original location of the church. The small monument had to be moved several yards to its present site when the Hollows townhouses were built. There is a plaque affixed reading, "Site of Former Beulah Baptist Church". Elder W.M. Smoot headed this Old School Baptist Church and he lived on Tanyard Hill Road. Historic Occoquan Inc. Newsletter Vol. 1, No. 10, April 2004, p.1+
1985 Sept. 26 -- Arthur L. Carter, trustee of the Occoquan Old School Predestinarian Baptist Church (also known as Beulah Baptist Church), sold the property to Donald C. Lynn and Stephen M. Farmer. PWC DB 1339, p758.
Cemetery parcel was described in 1983 as 202 Locust Street in Occoquan on tax map # 57-1-101 "cemetery and monument only," owned by "Beulah Baptist of Occoquan."

Kettle Run Primitive Baptist Church

Location: Manassas City

Site No.: 155-161-462 Year Built:

Turner Cemetery No.:

Lat/Long:

Notes: Also: Kettle Run Old School Church
 Also: Primitive Baptist Church of Manassas
 Also: www.primitivebaptistsermons.org/ministers list William G. Fletcher and James L. Compton as pastors for Kettle Run.

Timeline:

1895 -- Building completed and opened for worship (see information given for 1911).

1897 -- Obit for Mildred Ethel Akers (1933) says she "united with Kettle Run Primitive Baptist Church July 17, 1897.

1911 -- The Manassas Journal/May 19, 1911 Primitive Baptist Church picture, p.3 (wooden structure) and history. Located 9319 West street, built on a lot donated by the late Edwin Nelson, by private subscriptions of its members and by other churches of its association. It was completed and opened for worship in 1895. Elder W. S. Athey, of Fauquier County was the first pastor. He was succeeded, after a lengthy period by Elder A. J. Garland. After Mr. Garland retired, the pulpit was supplied occasionally by Elders C. H. Waters and J. A. Norton (of Washington) until the coming of Elder W. L. Bowis. The church at present has no regular pastor.

1924 -- Sanborn map for Manassas, Va., lists "Old School Baptist Church."

1933 -- Obit for Mildred Ethel Akers, funeral from Kettle Run Church, Manassas, pastor Elder R. H. Pittman. In looking through Church notices in the Manassas Journal/from 1933-1936, Elder Pittman was listed as the pastor of this church.

1965 -- Manassas City Directory has street address as 311 N. West St. (street numbers changed in 1971).

1967 -- PWC DB 416 p.588 lists trustees of Kettle Run Old School or Primitive Baptist Church (of Manassas): Cletus H. Brumback, Chas. B. Ellicott, Sr., Chas. B. Ellicott, Jr., Belvin W. Maddox, Elmo Owens.

1994 -- Downtown Historical District Survey, City of Manassas.

2012 -- City of Manassas Tax Map Number: 101/01 00/ 396/ / as Kettle Run Primitive Baptist, Account # 94016,
