This 'n That

Nature is most lavish with its gifts at this time of year. The foliage should be at its very best, the coming week as a result of recent heavy frosts in this section.

Rain which fell here Sunday has helped to break the extended drought, proving a boon to farmers who have suffered great losses from the prolonged dry spell.

The Democrats are holding a rally at Centreville school building Wednesday night, October 17, for party nominees for the House Delegates, State Senate and County Officers. Franklin Gooding will preside as chairman of the rally.

Young Billy Bennett was having a hectic time in the office of the Journal. He was caught in the cuff of his jeans when he was riding. To get the bike free, it was necessary to cut one of the links with a screwdriver.

Worth Peters is making smart and dapper in his Commonwealth's Attorney's Office. After a week's illness, he is back to work. He is wearing a one-way ticket to Washington, and is wondering how he'd get home. Sheriff Kerlin is viewing the World Series game. Most of the candidates for the county election are out for the county men's meeting at Nokesville last night. Young Phil Green asking for a job.

No heat! No school! Students at Osborn High were let out of school this morning because the heating system has broken down.

Congratulations to Jones and Son's Frank Television Service which opens officially Monday, October 15. The boys have set up shop in Caton's Esso Servicenter on Center street and are now accepting business.

John Hymon was mighty tickled to see the new post office building on U. S. Route 1. The 240 sq. ft. interior includes a minute lobby as well as the mail room. The real rush, not shown above, is in the morning, post office employees said, when mail bags cover the floor making it impossible to move around.

Frank J. Parrish is presiding over the Virginia Frozen Food Locker Plant Association convention at Virginia Beach Wednesday and Thursday. Parrish is president of the state association.

Locker plant management problems will be discussed on the first day while the second day will be largely devoted to a business session of the members. Some of the topics to be discussed include "OPS regulations and their effect on meat sales," processed foods, and sales promotion and advertising.

U. S. Prices Unfair, Burke Owners Say

Six Burke, Va., property owners charged yesterday that the Government has not offered them "fair and just compensation" for land where the new airport will be built.

Their charges were in answer to the Government's first "declaration of taking," which condemned 1046 acres of land about a fourth of the land for proposed airport.

The Government deposited $818,050, estimated value of the property, in Federal Court at Alexandria when it filed the declaration Tuesday.

The "declaration of taking" lists 111 property owners and 63 tracts. The largest amount offered was $32,000 for 1250 acres.

William P. Woods, Jr., assistant United States Attorney, said the persons named in the declaration were owners of the smallest parcels. Also listed were those who claimed "hardship" and asked money to buy new homes before the Government takes control of the land about May 1, he said.

Woods said he hoped the six claims—and others that will be filed—could be settled out of court. If a price cannot be settled, the cases will go before a jury.

He stressed that the Government's prices on the property are only estimates and that when the land is finally appraised, offer may be changed.

School Group To Meet Here Monday Night

The first of a series of Citizens' Committee meetings will be held Monday night at 7:30 p. m. at Osborn High School, Manassas, Superintendent of County Schools J. M. Garber said yesterday.

At this time, representatives from various community and civic clubs will meet for organized planning. In all, the committee will be 34 strong when organization is completed. The purpose of the committee is "to make a survey of school needs and help to lay plans to meet these needs with major emphasis on the building program," Garber explained.

The following county organizations have been asked to name and send to the meeting delegates: Nokesville — PTA, Ruritan Club, Fire Department; Haymarket — PTA, Women's Club, Fire Department; Dumfries — PTA, Lions Club, H. D. C., Fire Department; Manassas — PTA, Lion's, Women's Clubs, Chamber of Commerce, Kiwanis and Fire Department; Occoquan — PTA, Kiwanis, Fire Department; Bethel — Women's Club; Woodbine — PTA, Independent Hill Fire Department.

Tourist Group From Florida To Visit Here

More than thirty heads of Florida attractions and chambers operating major information services in the major Florida cities will be guests of Virginia and Manassas Battlefields Saturday afternoon here.

The Florida group will motor to Manassas from Alexandria and Mount Vernon around 3 p. m. and immediately visit the battlefield and museum. They will leave Manassas at 4:43 p. m. the same day, catching the Birmingham Special at the Manassas Depot for visits to Southwest Virginia.

The group is sponsored by the Virginia Travel Council and the State Commission on Conservation and Development. While in Manassas, the Lion's Club and the Stonewall Jackson Hotel will be stops for the travelers, serving a snack at the Battlefield.

Banks, ABC Stores Will Close Friday

All Prince William County banks will be closed Friday, October 12, in observance of Columbus Day. The county's Alcoholic Beverage Control stores will also take a holiday. Most stores and business will remain open, however.

State Commends Judge Compton On Court's Annual Statement

Trial Justice Lacey Compton has recently been commended by J. Gordon Bennett, state auditor of public accounts, for the excellent manner in which his records have been prepared.

The letter of commendation is included in the report on audit of the Trial Justice Court of Prince William County for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1951.

A big increase in the cases handled by Trial Justice Compton is revealed in a three-year tabulation as follows:

Type of Cases	1948	1950	1951
Civil	407	642	845
Criminal	1,706	1,720	10,855
Juvenile and Domestic Relations	17	11	17
Lunacy hearings			6

Total receipts for the year amounted to $539,446.81, and disbursements $539,203.38, leaving a balance on hand of $243.43 at the close of the fiscal year June 30, 1950.

Assisting Trial Justice Compton in the efficient conduct of the court and its records are H. Selwyn Smith, substitute trial justice; Mrs. Susie J. Lawson, clerk; Mrs. Anna M. Gray, deputy clerk.

Making Plans For Community Halloween

Plans are shaping up for the annual community Halloween party, which is sponsored by the Manassas Kiwanis Club as a gala treat for the youngsters of this area.

The event scheduled for Halloween night, October 31, will include many attractions, starting with a huge street parade at 7:30 p. m. and a program at Swavelly Field where there will be the coronation of the king and queen and awarding of prizes for the best costumes.

Refreshments of doughnuts and cider will be served at the field.

William Saylor, who has served as chairman of the affair for the past several years, has seen it grow in size and interest each year and anticipates that this Halloween will prove no exception. Last year a crowd of at least 1,500 turned out for the celebration.

The Manassas Volunteer Fire Department will assist with the parade and the serving of refreshments. Many children will ride on fire trucks in the parade and others will be provided transportation by private cars. Local merchants as usual will donate an array of attractive prizes for the event.

Business firms are invited to enter floats in the parade, which it is expected will be headed by the Osborn High School band.

$117,121,401 Spent In State Public Schools

The State and localities spent $117,121,401.81 on public education during the year ending last June 30, a 20 per cent increase over the previous year, the State Department of Education said yesterday.

In the main, the increase of $19,639,863 came from almost $12,000,000 more spent for new buildings and not quite $6,000,000 more for teachers salaries.

From all sources, school subdivisions actually had $144,191,424.66 to spend. They got rid of all but $27,000,000, which is still tied up in building funds.

Brought Up to Date During the last school year, a total of $33,177,261.25 was spent on capital outlay, of which $6,937,033.20 came from State school grants under the Battle fund.

Bringing Battle fund figures up to date, the department said about $12,000,000 had been released to localities and a total of $22,000,000, including the above figure, had been finally approved since the legislation became effective early in 1950.

The total available under the bill during the biennium ending next June 30 was $45,000,000.

Of the total spent for school operation, $80,194,839.11, the State put up 44.25 per cent and localities 55.75 per cent.

Of total funds for all purposes, the State supplied 36.22 per cent, including Federal funds, and the localities 63.78 per cent. The division for teacher salaries was 51.39 per cent State and 48.61 per cent local out of a $56,087,527.66 instructional cost.

YORKSHIRE PICNIC

The Yorkshire Civic Group picnic will be held Sunday, October 14, at 5 p. m. on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Helms. All residents of Yorkshire community are cordially invited to attend.

Lions Club receives 50 percent of the proceeds on all advance circus ticket sales, but only 10 percent if sold at gate. Buy your tickets before October 17th.—Adv.

Osborn High Makes Gala Plans For "Home-Coming"

Osborn High School annual homecoming on Friday, October 19, promises to be a gala event according to plans now being formulated.

On Wednesday the Student Cooperative Association elected five young ladies who will rule as the royal court. They are Anne Smith, center; Patsy Hope, junior; Catherine Dennis Baker, sophomore; Shirley Barron, freshman, and Ann Cox, 8th grade. Speculation is rife as to which one of this group will be elected queen when the student body votes again on Friday.

Train-Car Wreck Kills One

Mrs. Sadie R. Frye of Lucketts was instantly killed Saturday morning when the car in which she was a passenger was struck by a Southern freight train at a crossing on Rt. 15 near Haymarket. Mrs. Frye was traffic fatality No. 13 for Prince William County in 1951. The accident was apparently caused when the driver, Paul D. Frye, Mrs. Frye's son, accidentally released the clutch and jumped in front of the train after he had come to a stop. Mrs. Frye's husband and grandson were treated at Physician's Hospital in Warrenton following the accident.

Firemen Temporarily Bar Lake Jackson Department

Prince William County Firemen's Association decided last night to postpone action on admitting the newly-organized Lake Jackson Fire Department into the Association.

Nokesville fireman Bob Nelson motioned to accept Lake Jackson but then withdrew his action after discussion pointed out that the embryo company could not meet all requirements for admission.

The Association requires specific amounts of hose and equipment as well as corporation proceedings in behalf of the departments. Occoquan volunteered to lend Lake Jackson the necessary hose they were lacking. The new department plans to confer with Commonwealth's Attorney Stanley Owens about forming a corporation and chances are good that Lake Jackson will be admitted at the next regular meeting of the Association.

Fires increased in the county 37 percent in September over August with all departments reporting 22 fires over 14 in August. Most of the increase can be attributed to the prolonged dry spell in this area which has caused a sharp increase in brush fires.

Dr. George Coker, Association president, announced that a first aid course for instructors will begin Monday at 7 p. m. in the Osborn library and he urged that each company send at least one representative. The course will last five nights.

U. S. Crop Forecast Harvested; Still High

The Government yesterday shaved its estimates of this year's crops slightly but still held out the prospect of production about equal to last year, the second largest on record.

A month ago, the outlook was for a slightly larger output than in 1949.

The Agriculture Department, in a harvest time report, said September declines in cotton and corn production and harvesting losses on late small grains were largely responsible for the reduced estimates.

Plans were made for entertaining the delegation of Floridians at the Manassas Battlefield Park on Saturday afternoon.

Arrangements were also completed for setting up a booth at Coker's Pharmacy on Saturday to promote the advance sale circus tickets.

Series Aimed At Church Support

Beginning with this issue, The Journal is carrying the first in a series of advertisements aimed at stimulating church support and attendance.

The message is sponsored by over twenty-five business firms in the Manassas area, and will be carried as a regular weekly feature.

All sponsors of the series were unanimous in their belief that that support of the church is one of the most important means of maintaining a stronger community.

Each of the weekly features will be attractively illustrated, and will contain messages aimed at encouraging interest and action in the church.

Trailways Bus Wreck Kills 5 And Hurts 22

Five persons were killed and 22 injured Sunday night a Gainesville Trailways bus bound for Washington skidded and smashed broadside into an oak tree. The injured were hospitalized at Physician's Hospital in Warrenton, and at Front Royal and Arlington Hospitals.

The accident occurred on a wet highway 300ft. from the Gainesville Methodist Church which was saving services at the time of the tragedy.

According to the driver, approaching headlights blinded him and he veered toward a side road. Realizing his error, the driver swung back towards the highway but skidded and hit the tree. The bus was demolished, wrapping itself around the tree completely. (See photo Page 4) 23-year-old Alvin Shepherd, driver, reported he was 20 minutes late at the time of the accident but said he was traveling at 40 miles per hour.

Rescuers were called from Manassas, Warrenton and other surrounding communities to help direct traffic, remove victims from the bus and keep the milling crowd from gathering away from rescue work.

Mrs. Etta Washington, Waterfall, was the only county person on the bus at the time of the accident. She suffered only minor injuries. Police are investigating the accident at present.

Local Bankers At Meeting In Warrenton

The bankers will hear two top-notch speakers in R. F. Burke Steele, president of Petersburg Savings and American Trust Company, Petersburg, and Dr. Frank G. Sayres, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Petersburg.

Steele is currently president of the Virginia Bankers' Association and has served the association in various capacities before becoming president in June. Dr. Sayres was named "Petersburg's Man of the Year" in 1948.

Mr. Steele will deliver the main address at the meeting Friday morning, speaking on "The Course Ahead." Dr. Sayres will speak in the afternoon on "More Taffy and Less Epitaphy." All sessions will be held at Warrenton High School.

Loan Rate On Va. Corn Crop Increased 3c

An official base loan rate on the 1951 corn crop in Virginia of $1.73 per bushel was announced yesterday by the Production and Marketing Administration through C. D. Jordan, State PMA Chairman.

The rate is computed on the basis of 90 percent of parity on October 1 which is considered the beginning of the corn marketing year. A considerable amount of corn has already been harvested in Eastern Virginia, Jordan noted, and PMA has been making loans on the basis of an interim rate of $1.70 announced earlier. That rate is replaced by the official rate of $1.73 and loan holders will receive an adjustment of the difference upon the loans maturing.

The base support rate of $1.73 is for corn grading at least No. 3 or No. 4 on the factor of test weight only. There are slight premiums for higher grades and certain discounts applicable for other factors.

Corn placed under Commodity Credit Corporation loans, offered through PMA, may be stored in CCC approved warehouses or in farm bins that meet the requirements of CCC for safe storage.

The Tidewater Regional Market, in Princess Ann County near Norfolk, is the only CCC approved grain storage which is accepting corn under loan at this time. However, there are other CCC approved storages now filled with other grain which may take corn under loan at a later date. The Tidewater Regional Market will also accept soybeans under price support loans.

Dry weather has reduced corn crop prospects in Virginia somewhat. The latest crop estimate of 50,760,000 bushels this year, although about 4,000,000 bushels smaller than 1950, is much above the 1940-49 average of 39,743,000 bushels.

In addition to the international array of talent, Mills Bros. this season is featuring 40 tons of performing elephants led by the famous television elephant, Big Burma. There'll be clowns, aerialists, acrobats, contortionists, slack wire jugglers, an all girl aerial ballet. Sir Robert Mills' concert band, trampolinists, high perch performers, three rings of matched walking horses and all the spectacles that make circus a word with magic. Tickets, reserved and general admission, are now on sale at the Prince William Sundries or may be purchased from Lions members.

Hog Bulletin Now Available

Hogs are adaptable to any type of farm in Virginia, says George Herring, animal husbandman at V. P. I.

He reports that they are now raised on around 100,000 farms, on which well over 1,000,000 head are produced each year. About 45 percent of the hogs grown are for farm slaughter, and the rest for market. They account for between 9 and 10 percent of the gross agricultural income of the state.

Herring says hogs are rarely the main source of income on Virginia farms. They are used to market surplus grain and to eat farm products that might otherwise be wasted.

His tips for succeeding with hogs: Adjust hog numbers to amount of feed grown on your farm. Consider hog raising as a way to sell grain, pasture, and feed that might otherwise be wasted. Know good methods of growing them. "Stick with hogs" through the lean years so you will have some to sell when profits are good. At times, corn sold through hogs will return twice as much as if sold as grain. At other times, there may be little or no margin of profit. Know how many hogs your farm will carry best, and change little from year to year.

Herring's detailed suggestions on breeding, feeding, management, marketing, and parasite and disease control are included in a new Extension Service bulletin. Write the Agricultural Extension Service at VPI, Blacksburg, or see your county agent, for a free copy of "Succeed With Hogs," Bulletin 192.

Fire Prevention and Civil Defense Go Hand in Hand

Fire prevention is an important part of civil defense. If an enemy attacks this country, his bombs, whether they be atomic, high explosive, or incendiary, will cause more damage by fire than they will by blast. Hence, anything done to make it hard for fires to start is a step towards preparing your community to protect itself if war comes.

The majority of all fires start in trashpiles, rubbish, or stored odds and ends that accumulate around the house. Closets, attics, and cellars are the main source of home fires, and plain ordinary good housekeeping is a strong line of defense against them.

Clean out your storage places. You will be surprised at how many burnable odds and ends are really useless to you. Don't let them make your home a fire hazard. Get rid of them. If local welfare agencies can't use them, call the junk man.

Don't stop when you've cleared out the inside of your house. Go after rubbish in your back yard, in alleys and in vacant lots near your home. Collect the rubbish and burn it. Don't leave it around to burn if an enemy bombs your city. Be sure to burn rubbish in metal containers.

Take a look at your electrical system. Buy new plugs and cords if yours are worn. Get advice from an electrician if your fuses blow frequently. They may be dangerously overloaded. His advice may prevent a bad fire.

Every winter costly fires are started by faulty furnaces, stoves, and other heating plants. Some result from too much soot in chimneys. Others are caused by rusted or cracked pipes and fittings. Look over your heating system now. If your chimney needs it, clean it out. If the furnace pipes and connections are cracked and rusted, replace them.

Teach your family how to put magazines, papers, or clothing on radiators or near open flames. Don't hang flimsy curtains near your kitchen stove. Don't allow lamp shades to come in contact with light bulbs. Remember that such things don't have to touch flame to burn. They will catch fire simply because they are too close to the heat for too long.

Gasoline, benzine, naphtha, and similar fluids should never be used indoors. When mixed with air, their vapors can be ignited by the spark of a light switch or an electric fan, or the tiny flame of a pilot light. Keep such fluids in tightly closed metal containers outside your home.

And remember: oil-soaked rags, especially rags that have been used to spread quick-drying liquids such as turpentine, paint thinners, and some furniture polishes, can catch fire by themselves. Oily rags should be stored in air-tight metal containers. It is best to keep them outside the house.

Our Responsibility

This is Fire Prevention Week . . . a week set aside to bring to the nation's attention the need for greater fire prevention and to arouse in all of us our responsibility in the prevention of fires.

Our firemen should not be expected to bear the responsibility alone. Their main duty is to fight fires. It is our duty to remove the hazards that cause fires.

Here's a few ways we can help to promote fire safety in our home and community:

1. Check the roof, roofing that is old and warped can catch sparks and flying brands.
2. Loose chimney bricks, open joints or cracks may allow hot flue gases to set fire to woodwork.
3. Dry grass, leaves, papers and branches in the yard are fire hazards to buildings.
4. Sheds and garages should be kept free of trash.
5. Oil and kerosene containers should be substantial. No gasoline, benzine or naphtha should be kept in a dwelling.
6. Waste paper and discarded furniture are unnecessary hazards. Oily rags are especially hazardous because of spontaneous combustion.
7. Paper and rags mixed with coal may start spontaneous heat. Firewood should be neatly piled and kept separate from paper and rags.
8. Furnaces, stoves and heaters should be kept away from combustible ceilings or partitions. Charring point is a danger signal.
9. Poorly supported and corroded stovepipes are hazards.
10. Corroded gas pipes and rubber tubing may result in gas leaks. Automatic gas devices without thermostats to cut the supply when pilot flame fails may cause an explosion.
11. Oil burners should be installed in accordance with underwriter's standards.
12. Unused chimney openings should be ceiled with masonry or tight metal stops.
13. Soot and ashes should be regularly removed from chimney base clean-out door.
14. Work rooms and work benches should be kept free of shavings with paint, oils, varnish and turpentine safely stored.
15. Emergency exits from upper floors are important.
16. Bottoms of all walls and partitions should be tightly fire-stopped.

How's Business?

By Roger W. Babson

THE INCIDENCE OF TAXATION

When an investor sells a stock on which he has a profit, he does not speak of the gross profit, but the net profit, after taxes. There are investors who dislike to sell their stocks because of the tax they must pay. Even though an investor has a substantial profit on a stock, which he has held over the six-month period, he still complains about the tax. From the letters I receive many investors refuse to take their profits because of the tax. Usually this is a mistake. You had better take the profit and pay the tax.

The wageworker is beginning to reason the same way. He is beginning to figure his wage that is left after he has paid his tax. There are numerous hidden taxes on the things that he buys that he cannot take into consideration because he does not know how much the tax is. Taxes reduce the amount of accumulated capital which in turn reduces employment as capital is the employer of labor. The businessman should consider his net profit after taxes as that will determine how much he can plow back into machinery and how much labor he can employ. There is hardly an economic activity that is not seriously affected by taxation.

The Government which decides what our taxes are to be is, of itself, affected by these taxes. It must pay higher wages and more for war materials. As taxes are increased, inflation is also increased—the very thing that the Administration says it is trying to hold in check! Printing paper money pours gasoline on the inflationary fire. One way we can retard this vicious circle of increased taxes, higher wages, higher prices, depreciated dollar and increased cost of living is to reduce the cost of Government. Other ways are to produce more for a day's wage and to cut out liquor, tobacco and other wasteful habits.

Feed Delivery By Bulk Way Advantageous

The delivery of animal feeds to the farm in bulk rather than in bagged form is fast becoming popular in certain sections of the country, says Paul R. Abbey of the Virginia Division of Markets.

Through this method, feed is delivered directly from the dealer in a large tanklike truck. On arrival at the farm, is transferred to storage feeders by means of a nozzle-type blower. Bulk feed bodies or trucks are now being made by several manufacturers.

According to Abbey, the biggest problem encountered in the delivery of feed through this method is the shortage of sufficient storage space on the average farm for holding feed delivered in this way. Those familiar with this method of delivery say the cost of feeding may be measurably decreased.

4-H NEWS AND VIEWS

By Mrs. Bettie A. Dotterer

The week of November 4-10 is National 4-H Week. Keeping in stride with this we have tentatively set our 4-H Achievement Day as Saturday, November 3. Please watch this column for definite information regarding this eventful day. There is one big item you can take care of now, and not leave until the last minute. Complete Your Record Books, and get them to this office.

If you are lacking a certain phase of your record, contact Mrs. Leona Barlow, Manassas 237, for the needed sheets or information regarding your past project. You actually haven't "achieved" anything until it is a completed project. For your own good and credit it will be to your advantage to make every effort to bring this to a successful close. Let us hear from you in the very near future.

Basketball Awakens
Are you interested in recreation in your community. The Catharpin 4-H girls want to play basketball. At their meeting on October 6th committees were appointed to plan for time, meeting place, and transportation. If this venture is successful perhaps other 4-H clubs will want to challenge this group to a friendly game.

There is only one 4-H Club meeting scheduled this week. It is the Bethel group, boys and girls, and they will meet in the home of Mrs. Annie Summerville, Hoadly, at 7 p. m. The boys have selected the project "Rural Electrification" and we have just received a complete supply of bulletins, manuals and suggestions for this important subject. The girls chose "Meal Planning, Preparation and Service" to study this year and we have many interesting hints, rules and formulas for them. Be sure that each one of you is on hand for this meeting and bring a friend who may be interested in these subjects.

HOME DEMONSTRATION
Friday, Oct. 12—The Catharpin Home Demonstration Club will meet in the recreation center of the church at 9:30 a. m. They will emphasize "Fabric Painting" this month. Mrs. Pattie and Mrs. Alvey will be hostesses.

Monday, Oct. 15—The Cannon Branch Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Walter Sudd at 7 p. m. Their subject is "stretching the Family Food and Clothing Dollar." Wednesday, Oct. 17—The Dum-

October Calf Sales Planned

Six county Hereford cattle associations are sponsoring purebred calf sales this fall.

In addition, two calf sales are planned by the Virginia Purebred Angus Association . . . Fredericksburg on October 27, and at Staunton on November 1.

Curtis Mast, associate animal husbandman at V. P. I., says the sales offer farmers the opportunity to get high quality cattle at a minimum cost.

The county events: Carroll-Grayson sale at Galax; October 13; Russell sale at Lebanon, October 19; Wythe sale at Wytheville, October 20; Bland-Giles sale at Bland, October 29; Tazewell sale at Tazewell, November 1, and Craig-Botetourt-Bedford-Roanoke sale at Roanoke, November 2.

Mast says there will be an unusually good lot of young bulls offered at the sales, and farmers who want bulls to use next spring will have a good opportunity to buy the young bulls and grow them out themselves. Most calves will range from 6 to 16 months of age.

Fries Home Demonstration Club will meet at the Firehall at 10:00 to call to order their all-day meeting. "Metallic Stenciling" is their project this meeting.

Thursday, Oct. 17—The Woodbridge Club will also study "Metallic Stenciling." They will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. W. M. Mays.

Modernization Can Be Fun
ROOM modernization can be a pleasure. With the right materials and sound planning, one can completely transform a room at a cost that is surprisingly low.

See how up-to-date and attractive the room is in the illustration. Its former plaster walls, badly cracked, were covered with rigid, tough panels of Masonite Preswood. This permanent dry wall material takes any desired finish. Available in panels four feet wide and in lengths to 12 feet, Preswood goes into place quickly with a minimum of fuss and bother.

Look at the neat, spacious wardrobe in the corner. There's another just like it at the other side of the room. Each was made of Preswood. Incidentally, this is a room for twins—with two of everything including even a two-seater desk.

A convenient sun-seat, the bed shelf for a small radio and books, the twin beds and the paneled ceiling are other features of this modernized room. It's really amazing what a transformation can be made with good materials, ordinary carpentry tools and some time, energy and ingenuity!

House Plan No. 3

You can obtain blueprints for this FARM AND RANCH House No. 4803 and a handy list of materials by which you can figure your construction cost accurately. Send $1 to Building Editor, FARM AND RANCH - SOUTHERN AGRICULTURIST, Dept. M-76, Nashville, Tenn. Order by number - Plan No. 4803. Blueprints are adequate for any farm carpenter or for any farmer handy with tools.

This FARM AND RANCH House No. 3 gives the large farm family as much living space as possible for the least cost.

It is designed so that you can include a basement in the plans, thus providing not only more space for storage and a wash room but an ample site also for a central heating system. The system can be installed along the inside wall of the basement, requiring very little duct work. Every room can be heated from the central wall, with the exception of the bedroom and bath on the first floor—and even then the leaders wouldn't have to be very long.

The rooms in this house are not spacious, but are large enough to be comfortable. The doors and windows are placed to give you as much usable wall space as possible.

There are two porches, one in front and one in back. The back porch can be closed in as a good location for a home freezer or for a wash room—in case you decide not to build a basement right now.

Closets are distributed all through the house. And there is a pantry and a closet in the kitchen—one place in the house where you never seem to have enough room for

Here is a picture of Main Street, Typical town, U.S.A. It is a glimpse of any town—our town. Its busy thoroughfare lined with shops of all kinds signifies the free business life which American communities enjoy. To change this scene is unthinkable. And yet, this very picture is endangered by the many evils that haunt our land today. Atheism, communism, crime, and delinquency fill the air, and there are wars—and "rumors of wars."

To combat these enemies, we need love, fellowship, tolerance, and understanding—and the source of such weapons is to be found in the Church.

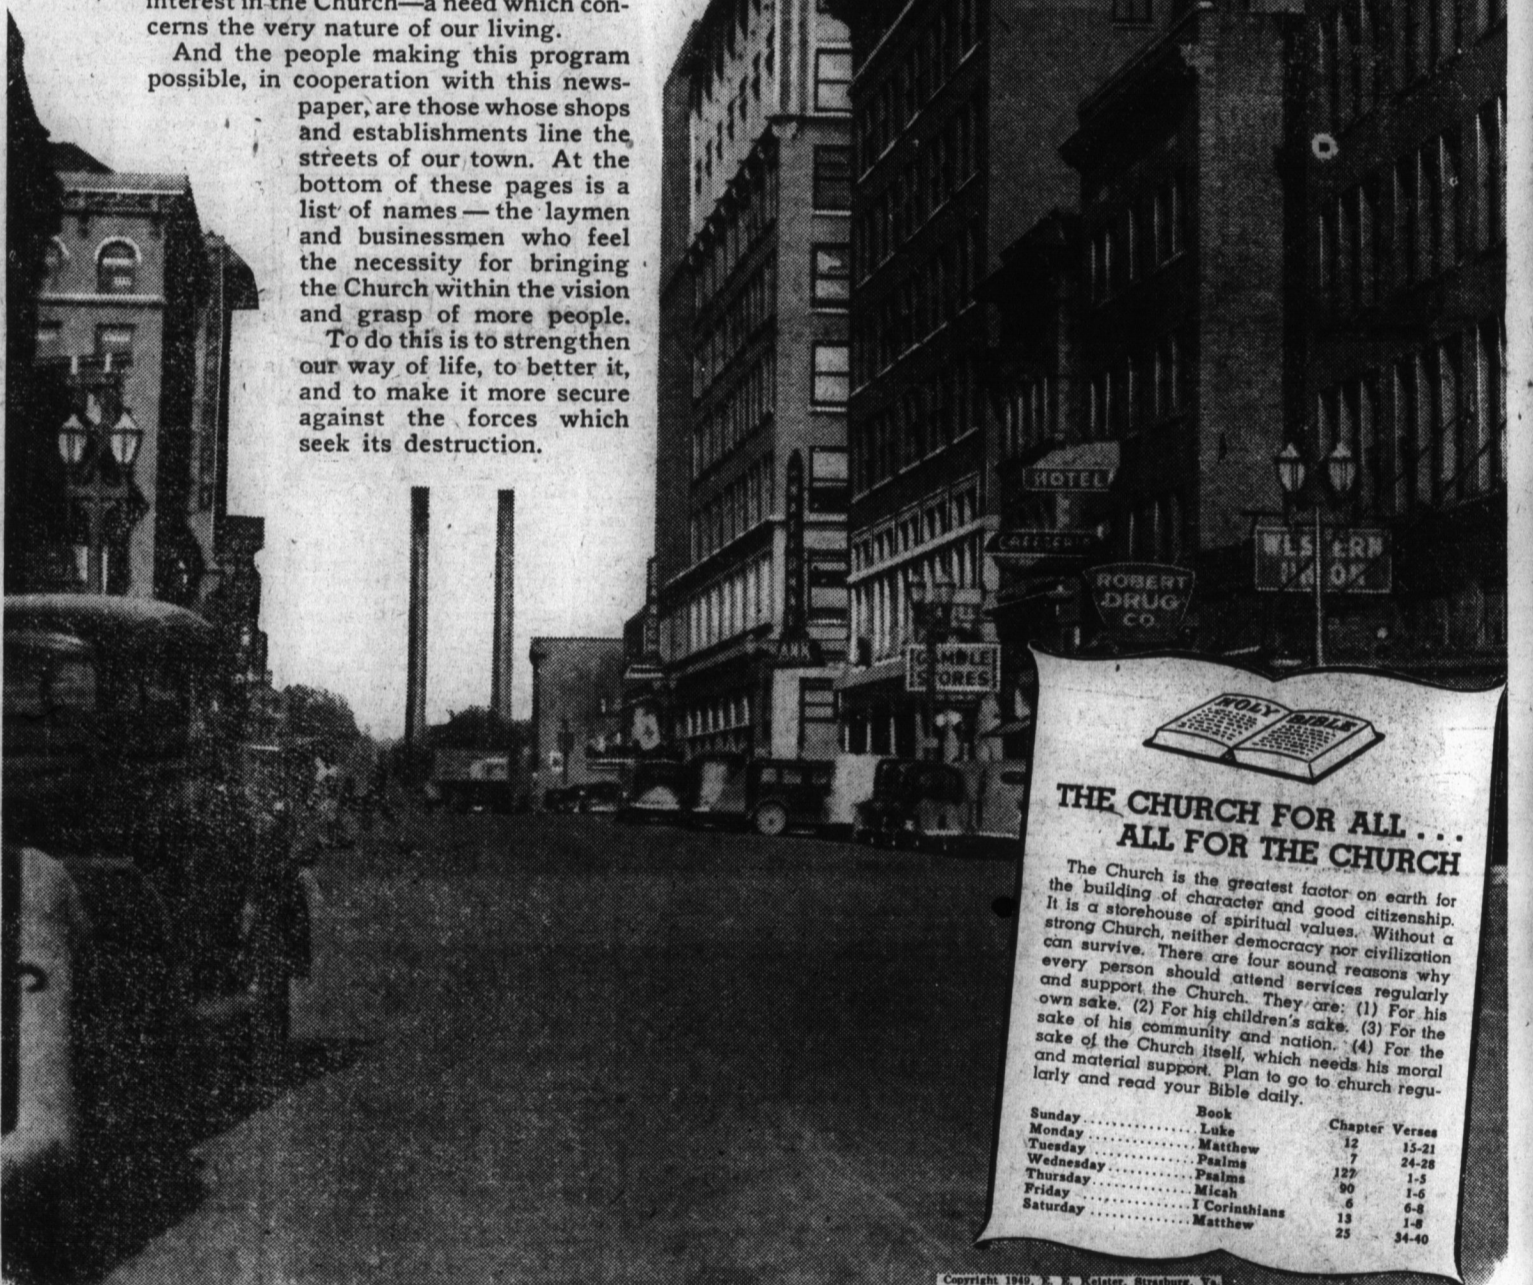

In order to equip more people with the banners of Christianity, in order to bring us all a fuller realization that the Church can save the things we hold dear, there will appear in this newspaper each week a series of religious pages. They will contain beautiful, human-interest pictures, and the brief, colorful stories will serve us all as reminders of our religious obligations.

This series is part of a nation-wide campaign designed to stimulate and renew interest in the Church—a need which concerns the very nature of our living.

And the people making this program possible, in cooperation with this newspaper, are those whose shops and establishments line the streets of our town. At the bottom of these pages is a list of names—the laymen and businessmen who feel the necessity for bringing the Church within the vision and grasp of more people.

To do this is to strengthen our way of life, to better it, and to make it more secure against the forces which seek its destruction.

Fine Arts Group Plans Arts And Craft Show

The Fine Arts Section of the Manassas Club of Manassas is again sponsoring an Arts and Craft Show in observance of National Art Week. The show will be held November 8-9, in the basement of Grace Methodist Church, and will be open to the public both days from 1:30 p. m. and from 7 to 9 p. m. The committee is a requesting artists and exhibitors to enter only work, or work which has been previously exhibited here. Elaine H. Levine, artist, will exhibit on paintings. Types will be shown, including crayon, pastels and watercolor. Ceramics, textile and figurine painting; meal trays, both etched and painted; hooked rugs, wool rug and any type of handicraft, being sponsored by Miller & Rhoades.

As an incentive to keep rubbish off our streets, an attractive trash receptacle was purchased and placed on one of our busy corners. A gift of $10.00 was sent to CARE.

The Club had the privilege of hearing splendid addresses given by Judge Arthur W. Sinclair and Councilwoman Frances B. Saunders. Judge Sinclair spoke on the Court System in Virginia—Women on Jury Duty, and Kinds of Juries. He made a plea to the junior women to serve on the jury when called, and stressed its importance.

Mrs. Saunders told of the organization and duties of the Council, and gave a woman's viewpoint of various matters. She dwelt lightly on the subject of how it felt to be the only woman on the local council.

In the absence of the president of the Club, Mrs. Jane Service, the vice-president presided.

Mr. Fred Hynson is in Philadelphia on a business trip.

Women's Club Elects Mrs. Wilkins

A busy yet interesting meeting of the Junior Women's Club was held last Thursday night in the American Legion Building with a large attendance.

The chairman of the ways and means committee gave a full report of the Fashion Show, and asked for the further cooperation of the members for the forthcoming event, "Dancing Places." One of the regular projects of the Club is to collect stamps for wounded veterans, and this was reported upon in a favorable manner.

Mrs. June Wilkins was elected the Club's delegate to the District meeting to be held in Orange on October 11. Mrs. Helen Stair and Mrs. Wilkins will also represent the Club at the Women's Fair in Richmond, November 8, which is

UDC Assails Confederate Flag Misuse

The regular meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Amelia Brown McBryde, with Mrs. Hill Brown and her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Brown Williams as hostesses.

A historical program was presented by the historian, Mrs. W. A. Newman, and "The Silent March" was read.

Mrs. Berkeley Calfee, president of Culpeper Chapter, will represent this chapter by proxy at the State meeting which is being held at Natural Bridge this week.

Attention was brought to the chapter of misuse concerning the Confederate flag. It was reported that baskets of fruit and good cheer had been sent to the members who were ill.

The cross of Military Service has been awarded to Capt. Odell Dabney Waters, Jr., and the presentation will be made in the near future.

An invitation was read to the dedication of the James Ewell Brown Stuart memorial window on Sunday, October 14, at eleven o'clock in St. James Episcopal Church. This window has been given by Mrs. Fannie Ransdell Benoit in memory of her mother, Mrs. French Ransdell, who was a descendant of J. E. B. Stuart, and a charter member of this chapter.

Very tasty sandwiches and tea were served by the hostesses who were assisted by Mrs. William Hill Brown pouring.

The president, Miss Isabel Hutchinson presided at the meeting. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. G. G. Allen with Mrs. C. B. Compton as assistant hostess.

Flag Presentation Made At Osborn

Last Friday morning at Osborn High School, the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary presented to the school our American flag. Mrs. M. S. Burchard from the Auxiliary and Mrs. Roy Helms from the school had charge of arranging the program. The school band rendered special music and after playing the National Anthem the president of the Student Cooperative Association led the group in pledging allegiance to our flag.

Commander Selwyn Smith of the Legion gave a most inspiring address, his theme being highlighted by true Americanism. Mary Jane Breeden and Lou Galleher who were sent to Girls State gave their reports to the assembly.

The presentation of the flag was made by Mrs. M. S. Burchard, and it was accepted by Haynes Davis, president of the Student Cooperative Association.

Legion Auxiliary Night of Fun

There was a time, in days gone by when a group could have an evening of enjoyment by gathering around the family piano and sing the popular songs of the day, until you were hoarse. The Night of Fun held at the home of Mrs. A. O. Beane last Thursday was somewhat similar to those old days. In fact, almost a replica of that time.

The old songs—and new ones too, were sung, games played, and a lot of reminiscing enjoyed. It is the plan of the Auxiliary to have recreation and plenty of fun from time to time, and this meeting was only the beginning. Twenty members or more enjoyed the evenings entertainment with the Beane family on Prescott avenue.

Tea Honoring Former Residents

Mrs. Samuel Rodgers will give a tea at her home on Taylor street next Sunday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Erskine D. Williamson and Miss Kathryn Boorman, who are visiting among friends here. Mrs. Williamson will discuss her book "Cinderella's Slippers" at the Fine Art Section of the Woman's Club next Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Trusler of North Main street are spending a few days in Roanoke with relatives.

Mrs. Beulah Stauff, who is taking some educational work at Takoma Park, came home for the weekend.

School Room Decorated At Baldwin Elementary
The patrons of our schools are manifesting renewed interest and enthusiasm in the welfare of their children and their teachers who guide them, for on last Saturday a group of ten or more patrons dressed in work clothes, and armed with paint brushes and paint, with grim determination written upon their faces, descended upon the first grade room, and redecorated the drab, unattractive furniture. Miss Lightner, the instructor, will be happier in the cheerful surroundings, and her tasks will, perhaps be easier handled. Her room is in the East Dormitory at Baldwin School. # Occoquan Host To Aldie Saturday While Manassas Seeks First Victory At Orange Occoquan's Indians, sporting a 2-1 season record, play host Saturday afternoon to their third straight league foe, Aldie, while Osbourn's Yellow Jackets will motor to Orange for a game under the lights Friday night. Osbourn will be shooting to break a three-game losing streak, but injuries will dim this illusion to a mere flicker.

Coach Jim Leo received word Tuesday evening that Dennis Ayres, Osbourn backfield mainstay, is lost to the Yellow Jackets for the rest of the season. Ayres suffered a punctured lung and will be out of school for several months. Coupled with Elna Tom Kelso's absence, Osbourn will again be the underdog against Orange.

With the sudden change in weather, Leo also lost the services of guard Sillex who was out with a cold. Sillex is expected to be ready for the Orange battle, however. Doctors still have not given Tom Kelso the green light to return to action although the lean six-footer reports he now feels fine.

Willie Weston continues to be the big question mark down at Occoquan. Weston has been sidelined since the opening GW game with a bad knee. Weston, an end on offense and defense, was sorely missed last week at Leesburg as the home team gained over half of its yardage on end runs.

Aldie No Pushover
Occoquan doesn't expect a pushover in Aldie despite what teams they may have had in the past. Aldie laced Lincoln High in Loudoun County two weeks ago 33-0. If Coach Sureq can guide his boys through this one, Occoquan will have two breathers in Mathews and Lincoln before tackling Herndon.

Herndon edged Leesburg 13-12 earlier this year and could stand in the way of Occoquan bringing home the District title it's striving for.

Besides Weston's injury, both Jackie Keys and Nell Williams suffered injuries last week in the Leesburg game. Williams is out for the rest of the season with a recurring knee injury coupled with a fractured foot. Keys hurt his head when he was viciously tackled by a Leesburg lineman in the second half.

Suren has one surprise in store for Aldie—he'll use Guard Jim Justice in the fullback slot to replace the injured Nell Williams. Justice, who tips the scales at 175 lbs., has the weight and speed to fill Williams shoes.

Occoquan 12, Leesburg 0

A sluggish Occoquan eleven banged across two touchdowns in the first half Friday night to coast to a 12-0 victory over Leesburg there. Key injuries and the hot weather combined to bog down the Occoquan offense.

After being halted eight yards from a score, the Indians roared back 74 yards for their first touchdown on the running of Jackie Keys, James Smith and Billy Bauckman.

After Bauckman moved from his own 26 to the 29 in two plays, Jackie Keys zipped up field to his own 45 before being hauled down from behind. Smith sliced off tackle and raced to the Leesburg 32 before Bauckman carried down to the Leesburg eight. Smith dashed through right guard and scored standing up.

Bauckman's extra-point try was wide of the goal posts and Occoquan led 6-0 to open the second quarter.

Leesburg's defense stiffened and Occoquan could not get started until late in the second period for another score.

Keys, Bauckman and Smith again handled the burden of the offense in the face of poor blocking. Bauckman brought the ball over the midfield strip before handing off to Smith two plays later on a reverse that carried the ball to the Leesburg 17.

Keys Scores
Bauckman drove to the six and Nell Williams moved the ball down to the four. Bauckman then inched to the one before Keys smashed over to score. Smith attempted to run the extra-point over but was stopped inches from the goal and Occoquan led 12-0 at halftime.

Leesburg, which failed to score, threatened several times on the spectacular running of halfback Bobby Carr and fullback Hummer. Both men repeatedly gained around Occoquan's ends.

Leesburg drove to Occoquan's 15 yard line in the second period before the Occoquan line stiffened and repelled the Loudouners. Leesburg paced by Carr reached Occoquan's nine as the first half ended.

Although they did not seriously threaten in the third period, Leesburg dominated the final frame as injuries riddled the Indians. Williams was hurt early in the first half and was used sparingly by Coach Suren. Leonard Slack showed tremendous improvement at William's fullback post.

Winchester 19, Osbourn 0
Despite an improved defense, Osbourn High School's Yellow Jackets fell victim to James Wood High School of Winchester 19-0 Friday night at Swavely Field.

James Wood pushed across one touchdown in the first quarter and added two more for insurance in the final period to hand Osbourn its third straight loss and its second shutout of the current season.

Osbourn, stopped on the ground, took to the air tossing eight passes, but this maneuver also fell flat. The home team completed one for 14 yards despite good passes. Receivers were not getting out fast enough and then dropped the passes when they did.

James Wood drove down to Osbourn's three-yard line just before the first quarter ended and scored when Allen Barley drove over. Bobby Payne and Joe Burer blocked the attempted extra-point conversion.

The game then seasawed back and forth through the second and third periods before the Colonials broke loose in the fourth. Manassas in the entire game never penetrated Winchester territory further than the 21-yard line.

Osbourn stopped a Colonial drive when Burer recovered a fumble on his own eight-yard line, but an Osbourn fumble two plays later on the 15 returned the ball to Winchester. Richard Dick, Winchester fullback, lunged his 190 pounds at the wilting Osbourn line and scored three plays later.

Osbourn took to the air only to have it short-lived when Billy Brannon intercepted a pass and dashed 36 yards untouched for Winchester's final tally.

Stars Of The Week

Jim Justice, Occoquan guard, gets this week's nod as the County's outstanding football player. Justice won the award on his fine defensive play in last Friday's game with Leesburg.

OCOCOQUAN'S JIM JUSTICE

The 175-pound sophomore has held down a first-string guard along with Cliff Carney since the first game with hGW earlier in the season. Justice made a number of fine low tackles, something conspicuously absent from Occoquan's playing Friday. It was Justice at guard who finally stopped Leesburg from running Occoquan's ends.

After a number of long gains, Justice began breaking through the Leesburg forward wall and grabbing the ball carrier before he got started. In addition, he is mainly responsible for routing the plays around the ends since Leesburg was stopped cold almost every time they tried to gain through the center of the Occoquan line.

Burer polled top honors at Osbourn with his stellar defensive playing. Burer paced the Osbourn

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh

Our Bank Says "Help Yourself"

People around here need lots of small change these days — what with candy, gum, cigarette and soft drink machines . . . pay phones . . . and those penny sales taxes.

Used to put a strain on our bank. Changing money took up a lot of time. Then the Chief Teller Happy Wilson, read about another bank using a "help yourself" change system. The directors decided to see if it would work here.

They set out some big shallow bowls full of nickels, dimes and pennies with a sign saying "MAKE YOUR OWN CHANGE." Works fine, too. At the end of the day the totals are never more than a couple of cents under—or over—the right amount.

From where I sit, folks everywhere are pretty much alike, although they may seem different. Farmers and city folks, Republicans and Democrats, those who enjoy a glass of beer occasionally and those who prefer something else—we all usually try to live up to the trust others have in us.

Dry, delicate,
 and aromatic herbs

The selection and preservation of drugs are among the chief responsibilities of the pharmacist. For proper storage of pharmaceuticals in the sixteenth century, it was specified that moist drugs must be kept in silver, glass, or horn jugs and that eye unguents must be preserved in china, whereas marrow, lard, and crude matter of like character could be kept in zinc boxes. Twentieth-century medicines, many of which are extremely delicate in composition, require scientific processing and painstaking care for proper preservation and storage. Development of suitable methods for packaging and preserving drugs is one of pharmacy's many contributions to modern science, through which world-wide distribution of important pharmaceutical and biological products has been made possible.

Farm Prices To Level Off Then Gain

How long will the downward trend in farm prices continue?

Dr. J. L. Maxton, agricultural economist at V. P. I., sees a general leveling off this month and next, followed by "some strength in the winter and spring months."

The economist says the prices of whole milk, wool, wheat, oats, buckwheat, flaxseed and potatoes are due to go up in the near future. After the harvest is complete and the products stored, price advances are expected for apples, sweet potatoes, corn, vegetables, cotton, hay, and soybeans.

Advance in the prices of most of these products will result from decreasing supplies and increased demand. The apple crop in the west is below normal, so Dr. Maxton says Virginia apples out of storage should be in good demand.

On the other hand some prices are slated to weaken. Dr. Maxton says prices of slaughter cattle, calves, sheep and lambs likely will go down as a result of heavy supplies in October and November. Hog prices are expected to decline for the same reason and by a larger percentage until December.

Poultry prices will be influenced by meat animal prices and decline somewhat, while egg prices are not expected to reach last year's December price levels. Supplies of flue-cured and burley tobacco are larger than last year, and may temporarily exceed demand with some weakening of prices.

Dr. Maxton points out that farm costs are expected to rise, and that the farm parity ration average likely will be just slightly above 100.

IN-MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our dear sister, Cara Lee Wright, who passed away one year ago October 9th.

We think of you in silence
No one can see us weep
And silent tears are often shed
While others are asleep.
What would I give to hold her hand
Her dear face, just to see her smile
Her welcome voice that meant so much to me.
When evening shadows are falling
And I am sitting all alone
In my heart there comes a longing
If you were only home.
Her devoted sister, Ida Jane Martin. 25-1-c

COMFORT—CLEANLINESS—CONVENIENCE

Dairy Barn of Tomorrow Is Here Today

COMFORT, cleanliness and convenience mark the ultra-modern dairy barn recently built to house 48 cattle on the Noble-McKinney Spring Run Farm in Lake County, Indiana. The most modern materials and equipment are used throughout. Insulation and ventilation assure year-around comfort for cattle and workers, while automatic cleaning is accomplished through endless-chain conveyors in the gutters. Sidelalls and ceiling of the roomy stable interior are lined with insulating board sheathing, which serves as both a building material and an effective insulation. Aluminum paint on the insulating board acts as a vapor barrier. Power driven fans provide scientific ventilation. Stanchions on either side vary progressively in length to accommodate cattle of different sizes. Inset (lower left) shows the barn exterior, with sidewalls finished in hardboard. Laminated rafters follow the Gothic design of the roof right to the ridge, allowing maximum hay storage space.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR

This will introduce you to Brentsville's newest residents, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney M. Stair, formerly of Manassas, who purchased the Mike Tyler farm onto which they moved the early part of July. Mr. Stair is a pilot for Capital Air Lines in Washington, D. C. and when not on duty he is busy improving his farm—as witness, to date the Stairs have installed a bathroom and utility room as well as a heating system.

Mrs. Stair is busy introducing her two small Stairs—Sherry, age 5 and Miles, age 2, to the joys of country life, and she still keeps her membership in the Junior Women's Club of Manassas. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stair attended the University of Indiana in Bloomington and came East for the first time when Mr. Stair came to work for the Capital Air Lines.

Mrs. Rodney Stair is chairman of the Costume and Make-up Committee for the musical show, "Going Places," which is being sponsored by the Junior Women's Club of Manassas. The show is to be presented on October 12 and 13 in the Osbourn High Auditorium.

Parents interested in improving the textbook condition in the Brentsville District Schools will be happy to learn that the State of Virginia already possesses a plan for free textbooks which is available to cities and counties if they want it. So come to the next P. T. A. meeting when the plan will be explained and you can express your desires. Don't forget the date—October 25!

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Webster included J. P. Nicholson of Athens, Va. and Robert Nordbye of New York.

Gill Webster attended the State Fair at Richmond on Thursday.

Mrs. R. F. Phelps of Bradley Forest is a patient at the Georgetown Hospital.

Mrs. Alice Speakes of Washington, D. C., is a house guest this week at the J. J. Whetzel home.

Crop-Rotation System Urged In Forestry

Where there is a tendency on the part of a farmer who owns a small hardwood woodland to cut and market his own wood products, it would be wise for him to include several kinds of timber in each of the cutting cycles. This would require the harvesting of timber when it would yield the best financial return and it would also have a tendency to make harvesting continuous. This system, known as multiple-crop rotation, also makes maximum use of improvement cuttings and selection system cutting in the handling of all-aged hardwood timberland.

The idea is to give all trees a chance to make the most rapid growth according to individual growth characteristics of the particular species. For example, fast growing poplar could be allowed to attain veneer or saw timber size. Slower growing white and red oak could be harvested when they are large enough to be cut for ties, pallets, or other uses. At the same time defective, crooked, and other trees with no sales value could be utilized for fuelwood.

However, local markets should be checked to determine which wood products have a ready outlet. Knowledge of market conditions, timber volume, and growth rate give the small operator a basis for his small woodland for sustained starting a sound plan for managing yields.

Capitalists at play!

Capitalists?

Why, yes. Fishermen and fiddlers, bridge players and ball players—all kinds of Americans, in fact, are capitalists—because most Americans are owners of the electric light and power companies!

It's like this: several million people—from every walk of life—are direct owners of these companies' securities. And some 75,000,000 are indirect owners—through their life insurance and savings bank accounts! You see, when banks and insurance companies accept your money, they must invest it wisely. That's why so much of it goes into business-managed electric light and power companies.

It's fair and fitting, isn't it, that the companies that serve nearly everybody are owned by nearly everybody?
