Benefit of Park Association Parish Hall, Monday, April 16

Artistically, the most brilliant event of the season will be the Skovgaard violin recital which will be held at the Parish Hall on Monday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., for the benefit of the Battlefield Park Association.

Skovgaard is a perfect master of his instrument and his audience is involuntarily drawn into a state of harmony with him. Surely no one will willingly miss such a musical treat.

Mrs. Dulany was a member of St. Paul's Church and as a girl was much identified with the church, and social life of the community, but owing to frail health she had for some years led a very retired life.

SAVE YOUR DOG

Game Wardens Are Compelled Under the Law to Make Arrests.

It is now assumed that all owners of dogs are familiar with the dog law, requiring a license tag to be fastened to a substantial collar and worn by the dog at all times, except when being hunted and accompanied by the hunter.

Wardens are instructed to enforce this feature of the law strictly. May 1st is the date—the last day—after which all violators or delinquents of this law, for the year 1923, are subject to arrest and fine for the non-payment of the license tax.

If you care for that dog of yours, let this be a reminder, as wardens are compelled under the law and their bond to make arrests.

Wonderful progress is now being made in the Clifton Baptist Church, and all of the auxiliary societies.

Since the church has become self-supporting, a few months ago, new life and activity have been manifested.

The pastor, Rev. Chas. H. Fry, preaches every Sunday morning and night to large and interested crowds. The average of late at the Wednesday night prayer meetings has been over sixty.

The Hostler's Club is now getting ready for a dramatic entertainment. The Ladies' Aid Society has over $100 in the treasury, and the Sunday School is the largest in the district.

—Mr. Stanley K. Kidwell, of Greenwich, and Miss Audrey C. Edwards, of The Plains, were quietly married at The Plains on Wednesday last. The young couple will reside in Greenwich where Mr. Kidwell is employed in the store of Mr. Mayhugh.

"SPRING FOLLIES" GIVEN BY M. I. S.

Hon. C. J. Meetze and Prof. Holliday Make Addresses at Close of Play.

(Contributed)

During the past ten days many pleasing events have taken place at the Manassas Industrial School. On the evening of March 24th a group of students gave a rendition in aesthetic art entitled, "Spring Follies," which surpassed any of the plays given in recent years, and was witnessed by a large audience. Hon. C. J. Meetze and Prof. R. H. Holliday made brief addresses at the close of the program. Several teachers and students from Eastern College were present.

On Sunday afternoon, March 25th, the teachers and students and visiting friends were given a very interesting and instructive lecture by Mr. Folumbo DeWalt, a native of Liberia, West Africa, on the tribal habits, customs, products, government, religion, climate and resources of the little Black Republic. Mr. DeWalt is a student in the dental school of Howard University, at Washington, D. C.

Pursuant to a call issued by our congenial division superintendent of the public schools, Mr. Charles R. McDonald, the colored teachers of Prince William county met at 10:30 last Friday in Carnegie auditorium. Many phases of class room work were discussed, reports were made by the teachers, every section of the county was represented, and plans were outlined for further development of the negro rural schools.

Superintendent McDonald presided and gave some very wholesome counsel and admonition to the teachers for improvement of school and class room work on the part of the teacher. Miss Moran, the county industrial supervisor, made a fine impression on our teachers by her address on reading. Mr. Henry G. Ellis, state supervisor of secondary education of Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Van Doren, of New York City, were guests of the school and addressed the meeting. Mr. Van Doren is an instructor in Columbia University. Both he and Mr. Ellis spoke in highly commendable terms of the quality of the instruction, and thoroughness of training given the students of the school under the guidance of Principal Edw. D. Howe and his corps of teachers.

Easter Sunday was appropriately celebrated, beginning with a Y. M. C. A. program at 8:30, and Sunday School at 9:30, and preaching at 11:30 by Rev. A. Deane, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Warrenton, Va.; and at 7:00 o'clock p. m., a beautiful cantata, entitled, "From Death Unto Life," was rendered by a group of nine students under the direction of the musical directress.

At this meeting the devotions were conducted by the principal and the address delivered by Miss Dorothy Graffe, the financial secretary, with office in New York City, but who has been spending a few days at the school during the past week.

The holiday spirit pervaded the campus Monday with the students and teachers alike, despite the chill winds, the usual egg-rolling fete was held, also a contested game of baseball was matched between the high school and grade teams. The laurels were won by the grades in a score of 10 to 8, thus ending an interesting chapter in the record of the school year.

NARROW ESCAPE OF AVIATORS

Lieutenant Lyman Patterson and Companion Escape Death.

Lieut. Sylvan Gursdoff and Lieut. Lyman Patterson, of the National Guard Air Unit at Logan Field, and a son of Mrs. Ballantyne Patterson, of Manassas, narrowly escaped death on Saturday while flying about twenty-five miles outside of Baltimore. They were at an altitude of about 2000 feet when they were forced by engine trouble to descend, and before they reached the ground the motor stopped completely.

It appeared at one time that the plane was going to crash into a clump of trees, but the pilot by skillful manipulation lifted one of the wings just when death seemed certain.

Fortunately the landing was made in a plowed field, for after reaching the ground the plane ran into a fence, completely wrecking one wing and throwing Lieut. Patterson a distance of fifteen feet. Lieut. Patterson was loud in his praise of the pilot's skill in avoiding a serious crash.

¶ In the city of Bagdad lived Hakum, the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel, which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return.

¶ There came to him a young man, who had spent much but got little,
and said: "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for what I spend?"

¶ Hakum answered: "A thing that is bought or sold, has no value

Look for the priceless ingredient."

BRING BACK THE FACE GOD GAVE YOU

(There is a legend that when Adam was expelled from the Garden of Eden, he asked the Angel what gift should he bring to God if he returned, and the Angel replied, "Bring back the face God gave you and I'll open the gates to you.")

A cry was heard outside the gates,
A cry so full of woe,
An Angel listening heard the plea—
"Oh! let me in once more."

And leaning o'er the closed gates,
She saw with pitying eye,
A form prostrate with grief and woe
Bowed down in agony.
Again the words—"Oh! let me in."
The wretched creature cried,
"I come at last to worship Him,
Whose law I once defied."

"I'm sick of all the world can give,
Peace, Peace my soul demands,
All worldly lusts like dead sea fruit,
Are ashes in my hand."

I've tried so oft to be a man,
As through the world I've trod,
And be again where all is peace,
And walk and talk with God.

And to his plea, the Angel said,
To you your maker gave,
A form of beauty, but to sin,
You've been a willing slave.

Your face, once beautiful and fair,
Sin's leprosy has marred;
Your tongue, once clean, now stained
With sin,
'Gainst such these gates are barred.

Again the piteous plea she heard,
"How can I enter in?
Oh! lead me, guide me where I can,
Be cleansed of all my sin."

In tender tones the Angel said,
This only can you do:
Bring back the face God gave you,
And I'll open the gates to you.

—Now that the first warm days of spring are at hand and one's impulse is to throw open the windows and doors, let us, before obeying this impulse, first see that our doors and windows are well screened. The entrance of only a very few flies will mean that within a few weeks there will be three or four generations of these pests, so rapidly do they multiply. Let us all, this summer co-operate in making our town freer from flies than ever before. It has long been an established fact that the house fly is one of the most potential disease carriers existing, therefore it behooves each and every one of us to make an early start and join the war on flies.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
More and more business men realize the necessity for true audits, for efficient recording systems and for real knowledge concerning profitable and unprofitable departments of their enterprises.

From the smallest retail business to the billion dollar manufacturing corporation, comes the demand for proper accounting.

During the past few years changes in business have taken place and extend to every quarter of the civilized world.

The very rules of business have changed and we are face to face with conditions we never dreamed of before.

If a business enterprise would survive and prosper under the new order it must know the details of its business, not only through the medium of annual or semi-annual audits, but in many cases, week by week, and day by day.

I will be glad to have any work along this line, which will be honestly and loyally done.

THOS. H. COBB,
Public Accountant.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Mary Pearson, eighty-five years of age, died at 6:40 o'clock Wednesday morning from cancer of the liver and jaundice, at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Daniel Breeden, near Brentsville. She was born in Stafford County, Va., July 5, 1838.

She is survived by three children—Mrs. Mary Jane Wright, near Aden; Mr. L. W. Pearson, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Amandy A. Breeden, near Brentsville. She also leaves one brother, Mr. D. W. Tolson; one sister, Mrs. Annje E. Brown; fifteen grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral was preached in Providence Church by Rev. Wells, and her remains were laid away in the family burying ground between her husband and son.

Our mother is sleeping so free from all pain,
O! wake her not, Sweet Spirit, to suffer again;
She sleeps on so soundly, oh! let her sleep on;
Her toils are ended, her sufferings all gone.

Oh! think how she suffered and moaned with pain,
Through the long hours of night we soothed her in vain;
Till God, in His mercy, sent down from above
An angel, who whispered a message of love.

She is gone but not forgotten.
BY HER CHILDREN.

—The April meeting of Manassas High School Community League will be held next Thursday at 3 o'clock. Dr. Mary E. Brydon of the State Board of Health will address the meeting. Patrons and friends of both the high and graded schools are cordially invited to attend.

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

Most of your neighbors drive motor cars. They can go where and when they choose. Their cars play a large part in their daily life, furnishing them with quick and convenient transportation for both business and pleasure.

Realizing what the automobile means to the average family in bringing them greater enjoyment of life, we have arranged to extend the facilities of our bank to those who desire to become owners of Ford cars through the new Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

Under this plan, you can begin with an initial deposit as low as $5.00. Then select the type of Ford car you want—Touring Car, Runabout, Coupe, Sedan, etc.—and arrange to make weekly deposits on which interest will be computed at their regular savings rate. Come in and let us further explain the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan to you.

Start today, and before you realize it you will be driving your own car.

FARMERS, PAY ATTENTION

The Farm Bureau is beginning to do some fine work and if the farmers will just keep on helping us, we will do a big business within the next year. We need more members; don't wait for me to ask you, but volunteer.

We are having six hundred bushels of mixed peas shipped into Manassas, all sold. Three hundred bushels more to Haymarket; over two hundred bushels sold. If you need any, let me know, as there are a few left; order right away.

Have sold a good many tons of fertilizer, besides lime and other farm necessities. Don't wait for me to call on you, for you can easily imagine how many men are in the county and how long it takes me to get around, so just call me up or write me if you need anything.

I hope to see nearly all the farmers in the county within thirty to sixty days, but don't feel slighted if I don't, because I don't know all of you and maybe will miss you unintentionally. I will have prices in a few days on most anything you can mention. Keep this in mind and see me before buying; maybe I can save you money.

Yours respectfully,

ROLFE ROBERTSON,
Field Agent for the Prince William County Farm Bureau.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

ANNOUNCEMENT

of Interest to

MILLIONS OF FAMILIES

"I will build a car for the multitude"

Said Henry Ford in 1903---Read how the fulfillment of that prophecy is now made possible through the

Ford Weekly Purchase Plan

For many years it has been Henry Ford's personal ambition to make the Ford the universal family car--to put it within the reach of the millions of people who have never been privileged to enjoy the benefits of motor car ownership.

During the past fifteen years over 7,500,000 Ford cars, have been placed in the hands of retail customers---more than a million and a half of them within the past twelve months---and yet there are still millions of families who are hopefully looking forward to the day when they can own a Ford.

And now the way is open.

Under the terms of this plan you can select your Ford Car, set aside a small amount each week and you will be surprised how soon you will own it. In the meantime your money will be safely deposited to your credit in The Peoples National Bank where it will draw interest.

Think it over. Five dollars will start an account. The whole family can participate in it---father, mother, brothers and sisters each doing a little.

Why not start today. Stop in and talk it over with your local Ford dealer. He will be glad to fully explain the details of the plan and help you get started toward the ownership of a Ford car.

Safe Investments

Rest assured of this: The greater your chances of gain on any investment, the greater your chances of losing all that you have invested.

This is a poor time to speculate. Good investments usually bear a low rate of interest. That's why the rate is low on farm loans, Liberty bonds, municipal bonds and other like securities. The safer your investment the lower the rate. It pays to be on the safe side, even if the income is low. Our Bank buys and sells bonds, mortgages and other reliable securities in which your surplus funds may be safely invested. Ask us about them.
