COLORFUL SCENE AT ADIEU DINNER

Prof. and Mrs. Walter Receive Many Honors at Swavely School Social Affair.

Professor and Mrs. Robert Stanley Walter, who endeared themselves to the hearts of Manassas folks within the last few years, during which time they took great interest in both educational and religious work here, vied with each other in receiving gifts at the farewell dinner given in their honor last Friday evening at the Swavely School, which they are leaving in order that he may engage in business, announcement having been made that he will become identified with one of the leading life insurance companies of New York.

Guests and students, instructors and their families, as well as servants, assembled near the spacious dining hall to await the call made by Bugler "Bill" Arnold, of Washington, who was among those who received prizes last Saturday at commencement exercises, when a number of prospective future admirals and boys who may become commanding officers of army divisions were awarded honors.

Fashionable Assemblage.

Professor Eli Swavely, headmaster of the school, presided at the feast. He greeted one of the most fashionable assemblages ever seen at the institution. The hall was most attractively decorated for the occasion, candles lending a shaded glow amid a scene of splendor.

Handsomely gowned members of the fair sex, girls in dance costumes, men in evening dress and others in less conventional attire resembled a crowd in a big ballroom rather than guests at a sumptuous repast.

Numerous toasts and brimstone, wails and raves, belated and belated, were wont to describe such a scene in the days of yore, but here, especially happy at the dance which followed in the gymnasium.

Entire School Praised.

After uttering his salutatory, in which he used the words, "friends, patrons of the school, boys and girls," Professor Swavely prefaced his preliminary remarks by making complimentary reference to the cordial relations existing among members of both the student body and the faculty.

The headmaster was so felicitous and pleased that he seemingly felt constrained to glowingly describe the student body as "chaps" with high aims in life. He also referred to the fitting recognition accorded Mr. Walter.

"We have gathered together with our friends to show some of the good will and some of the esteem in which we hold him," Professor Swavely continued.

Sunday School Worker.

Mr. Walter has made a very definite and permanent place in the heart of Manassas. I shall call upon Dr. C. C. Johnson to speak for the citizens of Manassas on this occasion. Dr. Johnson, highly praised Professor Walter's worth to the community.

In the first place, the speaker asserted, "it is a pleasure to me to tell something about Mr. Walter. 'Bob,' as many of us know him, came among us four years ago. Among other things, Mr. Walter picked up a few boys, and started with them toward Sunday School. I then thought he must have something in him.

"We are more than sorry to part with him. We wish both Mr. and Mrs. Walter the best of luck and god-speed in their new efforts."

Professor Swavely said the work done by Mr. Walter at Trinity church was well worth while. He then called Mr. O. D. Waters to read a set of resolutions adopted by the vestry of the church. Mr. Walter was described as being an inspiration to young men in moulding lives and character.

Student Body's Gift.

"Bill" Lyons, who was nominated by the boys' committee to act as its spokesman, was the next speaker. He said he felt it necessary to look in the dictionary for the real definition of the word farewell. "I have learned that regret is the strongest element linked with the parting of friends," Mr. Lyons asserted. "I know all too keenly the loss of his services at the school. We are giving him this send-off with the hope of buoying up his spirits."

SOCIAL AFFAIR AT SWAVELEY TOMORROW

Kiwanis Club's Ladies' Night Festivities are Expected to Attract Large Crowd.

What promises to be the chief social event of the week here will be the Kiwanis Club's Ladies' Night festivities tomorrow evening at the Swavely School. It is expected that a large number of members of the fair sex will be present.

President Hynson today urged all members of the club to be prompt in arrival at the school.

A large number of members of the club were guests at the farewell dinner given at the school last Friday evening in honor of Professor and Mrs. Walter.

MUST FILE TAX RETURNS SOON

Commissioner Gives Warning to Those Who Would Avoid Penalty This Year.

(By Carter W. Wormeley)

Richmond, Va., June 21.—State Tax Commissioner Carlisle H. Morrisett today stated that July 2 is the last day on which State tax returns of intangible personal property and individual income may be filed without penalty.

The tax forms have been in the hands of the local commissioners of the revenue since the first of the year and any person liable to file these returns who has not received a form should apply to the local commissioner of the revenue for the same.

After July 2 no officer is authorized to receive a State tax return without extending the penalty imposed by the law.

Persons who have an income tax return, after having been received by the commissioners of the revenue, must be by that officer forwarded to the Department of Taxation in Richmond for examination and audit. The Department also checks these returns against the information lists which it requires, which lists contain the names of persons who should file returns. All delinquents are then called upon to file returns in order that the tax burden may be equalized. Delinquents are assessed with the penalties prescribed by law.

Mr. Morrisett stated that it is not the desire of the Department to penalize any taxpayer, but on the other hand, he stated that it is only fair that the expense of tracing delinquents should be borne by those who have neglected to file returns and not by those who have complied with the law.

The Department of Taxation has in its files the record of salaries paid by corporations, associations, partnerships, and individuals and also a record of all persons who have filed Federal returns. This information is used to trace delinquents.

The state tax commissioner again called attention to the fact that the test of the liability of a taxpayer for the filing of a State income tax return is gross income and not net income. The fact that the taxpayer does not have an income tax to pay does not relieve him of the liability of filing a return, provided his or her gross income exceeds $1000 in the case of a single person and $2,000 in the case of a married person living with husband or wife.

MUCH LIQUOR UNFIT FOR USE VANISHES

Court Orders Sheriff to Pour Out Ardent Spirits Seized in Numerous Raids.

Sheriff J. P. Kerlin has just emptied into gutters and drain pipes large quantities of ardent spirits seized in raids in Prince William county. He thus complied with an edict issued at the June term of court here. Much of the liquor was described as being unfit for use.

The sheriff is to offer for sale certain equipment seized at stills.

Two receptacles containing liquor bore the name of Marshall Beavers, who was convicted of violating the prohibition law.

A son, Archie Lee Muddiman, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Muddiman, June 12.

FIRE IS CAUSED BY SEVERE GALE

Lightning Strikes Building Near Clifton Station—Damage is Done in Manassas.

A severe storm, accompanied by thunder, lightning and rain, last Tuesday afternoon did damage here and caused the destruction of a large frame structure in Fairfax county.

Lightning caused the destruction of a barn belonging to "Babe" Wells, a prosperous farmer who lives near Clifton Station. A colt, three calves and a pig were killed. The barn was quickly enveloped in flames and burned to the ground before efforts could be made to save any of its contents.

Winfield Scott Athey, who was standing near the new Methodist church building, lost his hat in the gale which was raging. The hat was wafted to the top of the National Bank of Manassas building. Mr. Athey finally succeeded in recovering his hat.

Walter F. Hibbs is among those who suffered losses as a result of the storm. A large cherry tree in his yard was damaged.

Two trees were blown down in front of the home of Mr. W. F. Dowell.

AMENDMENTS ARE APPROVED

Short Ballot Defeated in Manassas and at Several Precincts in County.

According to information received here today, the constitutional amendments were approved in the special election in Virginia Tuesday by a majority ranging from 12,000 to 15,000.

Despite the fact that Manassas approved the tax segregation plan and rejected all other proposals, the amendments were ratified by the voters of Prince William county by a majority of about 400. Tax segregation triumphed here by a majority of 28, while the first proposal known as the omnibus collection of amendments and three proposals known as the short ballot were defeated by a small majority in Manassas.

A singular situation arose at Horton's precinct. Three judges of election were present, but not a single vote was cast at the precinct. The judges themselves even refrained from casting their own ballots.

Hoadly precinct returns, which were delayed, were not received here until today. Hoadly, Brentsville and Occoquan voted against the amendments.

Former Miss Addie Wheeler is Laid to Rest—Cousins are Pallbearers.

She was a daughter of the late William M. and Nannie Lynn Wheeler. She is survived by her husband, two sons, M. Keen and Maury Lewis Wells, and one daughter, Marion E. Wells, three brothers and a sister.

Mrs. Wells will long be remembered by all who knew her for her bright disposition and noble character.

MARION SCOTT INDICTED

A special grand jury composed of Rolfe Robertson, foreman; C. L. Reeder, A. H. Jenkins, J. L. Hinton, Van Herndon and C. T. Herndon a few days ago indicted Marion Scott on a felony charge. Scott is accused of breaking into a store in the county. His case has been continued until the next term of court.

MAMIE J. DAVIS ELUDES POLICE

Hoadly Woman, Convicted of Violating Dry Law, Reported to Be Fugitive.

Mrs. Mamie J. Davis, of Hoadly, who was convicted in the Circuit Court of Prince William county following her arrest a few months ago on the charge of violating the prohibition law and who was fined $250 and given three months in jail, is now a fugitive from justice, it was learned today.

The woman was arrested on the charge of having ardent spirits in her possession. She was not only fined and given a prison term, but was placed under bond of $1,000 not to violate the prohibition law within a period of twelve months. She pleaded guilty.

It became necessary for the woman to undergo medical treatment. Sheriff Kerlin was directed to permit her to go to the Alexandria Hospital.

Judge Howard W. Smith, who presided in court here last week, directed Clerk George G. Tyler to issue a capias for the woman. County officers have not as yet succeeded in taking her into custody again.

DOVE OF PEACE HELPS COUNCIL

Troublesome Situation as to Center Street Paving Overcome at Meeting.

Almost turbulent scenes at previous sessions, which were marked by threats of lawsuits and open defiance to encroachments upon property rights, gave way to a most amicable meeting of the Council last night, when all obstacles in the way of proposed improvements, including the paving and gutting of Center street eastward, were overcome.

A resolution in favor of accepting the bids of William Hottle, of Manassas, and Rhoades & Walters, of Culpeper, as to the proposed work was adopted.

Mayor C. A. Sinclair presided at the meeting. D. J. Arrington, Edgar G. Parrish, M. Bruce Whitmore and Harry P. Davis, who are credited with having co-operated with the mayor in an effort to adjust the grievances of certain property owners, took part in the meeting.

Judge J. C. Parrish, of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, was present to explain the better feeling which has developed as to the proposed work and to state that the property owners have agreed to bear their proportionate share of the cost of the improvements.

Council Gets Thanks.

Roy H. Blakemore was present to present a letter signed by certain property owners. Among the signatures attached to the communication were those of Otis O. Holler, G. G. Allen, B. F. Knox, L. B. Williams, D. B. Davis, R. J. Prescott, Angie L. Runaldue, C. B. Compton, Leonard L. Lomas. The letter, which was addressed, "To His Honor, the Mayor and Worthy Members of the Council, Town of Manassas," was as follows: "We the citizens residing on Quarry road and Prescott avenue, whose names are appended hereto, wish to thank you and your honorable body for the great interest you have taken and the valuable time given in bringing about what seems an amicable settlement of the trouble that beset and menaced our prospects of the paving of Prescott avenue."

DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT

Messrs. Paul C. Kincheloe, O. D. Waters and E. R. Conner, who comprise the committee in charge of the dance to be given tomorrow evening in Conner's Hall by the Little Pep Club of Manassas, announced today that the dancing will begin at 8 and continue until 12 o'clock. Music will be furnished by Charmie Sinclair and his Virginians. Mrs. H. T. Davies, Mrs. M. H. Kincheloe, Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, Mrs. G. R. Ratcliffe, Mrs. O. D. Waters and Mrs. A. In the absence of Mr. Anderson, the pulpit of the Baptist Church will be occupied next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by the Rev. Timothy A. Hall, founder and former pastor of the church. No evening service will be held. The B. Y. P. U. meeting will be held at 7 p. m.

ADEN TRIUMPH CAUSE OF FEAST

Victorious Members of Order Fraternal Americans are Honored by G. D. Baker.

George Dennis Baker, who declined reappointment to the position of district deputy of the Grand Council of Virginia, Order Fraternal Americans, was reluctant in giving up the place, according to a statement made by him today.

Urgent duties at home caused him to refrain from holding the position another year, despite the fact that James R. Mansfield, state secretary, communicated with him and tried to prevail upon him to continue the effective work he had been doing. W. B. Kerlin, of Aden, has been chosen to succeed Mr. Baker as district deputy.

Aden Council, No. 30, was promised a feast of ice cream and strawberries in the event that it succeeded in increasing its membership. The promise was made by Mr. Baker. The council's membership was about doubled. Mr. Baker made good his promise by giving the feast to the victorious members. In an interview here today Mr. Baker said:

"About a year ago, when I took the job as district deputy, Aden Council was in pretty good shape, but the others lacked membership and enthusiasm. They have all improved to such extent that they are in good shape now, and the work of the order is progressing most satisfactorily in No. 5 district.

"I guess Catharpin has about doubled itself. Greenwich is forging ahead. A feast was given about two weeks ago in honor of the members there. About 100 guests were present. At least 250 persons attended the feast at Aden."

PORTNERS IN LAND CASE HEARING HERE

Robert A. Hutchison is to Appear as Counsel in Road Project Proceedings.

Robert A. Hutchison has just been appointed temporary guardian for Sylvia C. Meredith, Mary D. Portner, Robert J. Portner, John A. D. Portner and Edward Portner, who are described as infants in the eyes of the law and incapable of taking care of their interests in the case of Henry G. Shirley, Chairman of the State Highway Commission, vs. Alvin O. Portner, Alma M. Portner, Hilda P. Derby, Elsa P. Hume, Anna P. Flood, Etta P. Meredith and others in the matter of land condemnation proceedings in Manassas magisterial district. The case is to be heard by commissioners June 26.

GETS TERM ON ROADS

Marshall Beavers, who was arrested in a raid last month, when a copper still was seized by Sheriff Kerlin and two of his men, was convicted here June 13 of violating the prohibition law. He was fined $50 and given three months in jail. He is to be delivered to C. R. Earhart, supervisor, to work on the roads in Coles district.

GETS ON VOTING LIST

A court order has been issued here to have the name of S. E. Lovell, whose name was inadvertently omitted, added to the 1925-6-27 list of voters of Dumfries district, it is learned.

MANASSAS BOY GETS BIG HONOR

Odale D. Waters, Jr., is Among Those Who Receive Awards at Swavely School.

Odale Dabney Waters, Jr., of Manassas, received a large silver loving cup at the finals of the Swavely School last Saturday. He made the highest scholastic average for the year and was highly praised for being the best all-round student at the institution.

After the singing of the song, "America," and an invocation by the Rev. H. Jerome Leinbach, the salutatory was delivered by Alexander Brown Blair, of Washington. The oration was delivered by Odale D. Waters, Jr.

Harvey J. Kline, Jr., physical director, extended congratulations to the students for the splendid showing they made in athletic events within the session. He presented athletic prizes and certificates.

Award of Certificates.

Professor Robert S. Illingworth, who succeeds Professor R. S. Walter as assistant headmaster, was present and presented to Sebastian Aman, of Washington, the Lafayette College cup for being the best all-round athlete for 1927-28.

Following is a list of names of those who received athletic certificates: John Sebastian Aman, William Potter Arnold, John Martin Barringer, Jr., Carl Samuel Bassett, Jr., Alexander Browne Blair, James Stewart Boyce, John Grant Burroughs, John Hubbard Cheatham, Jr., William Forrest Chiswell, Edward K. Cook, John Renfrew Criswell, Robert Livingston Denig, Jr., Hugo Eugent Grieshaber, Benjamin W. Guy, Colin Reed Hitchman, Paul Mason Howard, Neil Malcolm Lochrie, William Beauveau Borie Lyons, Howard Foster Myers, John Moore, John L. Ritchey, Rodolfo Sandoval, Jr., Oscar Skinner, John Martin Strong, Charles C. Tarbuton, Samuel C. Wagner, III, Odale Dabney Waters, Jr., Prescott Lawrence Wetherill and George Clark.

Neil M. Lochrie was awarded the championship tennis cup. The faculty prize, a tennis racket, was won by Alexander Blair, and "Ned" Cook won the prize of one dozen tennis balls given by Dr. C. R. C. Johnson.

The decathlon medal was won by John Sebastian Aman. The high point award for intra-mural track meet was won by John Criswell, and the medal for the runner-up point score was won by John Barringer, who established a new shot-put record for the school—42ft. 10 1-2 in.

Winners of certificates were announced as follows by Professor Walter: Odale Dabney Waters, Jr., Manassas, physics, trigonometry; John Grant Burroughs, Easton, Pa., English, algebra, physics, French 1; John Martin Barringer, Jr., Flint, Mich., physics, ancient history; Ed Almon Williams, Washington, D. C., plane geometry, Spanish 11.

List of Graduates.

Professor Eli Swavely, headmaster of the school, announced the list of winners of diplomas. Following is a list of names of the graduates: Alexander Browne Blair, Washington, D. C.; James Stewart Boyce, Washington, D. C.; Howard Bertollet Gimber, Philadelphia, Pa.; Benjamin W. Guy, Washington, D. C.; William Thomson Mitchell, Watertown, N. Y.; Mom Chow Smargon, Bangkok, Siam; John Martin Strong, Gloversville, N. Y.; William H. Vesper, Jacksonville, Fla.

"I have always felt it my privilege to watch boys at the beginning of the school year," said Professor Walter in presenting various certificates. "We get to know each other quite well. As to the highest distinction of the school, we call it morality, which is about the greatest thing with which we have to deal."

Refers to New Freedom.

Professor Walter said that, while the name of O. D. Waters should be placed upon the board, he thought No. 2 and No. 3 men often deserve special mention.

A warning against the new freedom of youth of today was sounded by Professor Swavely in his farewell to the graduates. He said the graduates will go forth and encounter a new freedom they did not find here.

"I wish you godspeed and hope the Good Lord will make your lives happy. God bless you," said the headmaster in concluding his remarks.

Hoover will run on a platform which is neither dry nor wet. "It's a straddle," according to Carter Glass, Virginia's shrewd United States senator.

Let us hope that Jesse Jones' crowd at Houston will not use two kinds of bait to get the support of such men as Cole Blease characterizes most ludicrously: "They vote dry, but drink wet."

Wonder whether the Houston dose of political physic will be sugar-coated or as stringent enough to please the patients of both allopaths and homeopaths?

Both prognosis and diagnosis may be necessary to determine the ailment of the G. O. P. elephant when the great national marathon is ended in November.

"I am a Democrat" may be the slogan of the reticent Virginian after next Tuesday. There will, however, be many unidentified members of both parties then.

"Birds of a feather flock together," an adage as old as Republican unredeemed pledges, will be more forcibly exemplified by voters this year than ever before as a result of the political transformation and reformation this country seems to be undergoing.

"Republicans Give Pledge of Farm Relief," says headline. How about a pledge to redeem the promises made in connection with G. O. P. administrations within the last eight years? We should like to see some sort of relief forthcoming.

Roanoke is getting a lot of free publicity today. The State Democratic convention began lively sessions there this morning.

Rosewell Page, who lost his job as second auditor of Virginia when the Byrd departmental reorganization went into effect in offices, is being boosted by many farmers as gubernatorial timber. He himself is a tiller of the soil.

Dr. Ennion G. Williams, the efficient and highly esteemed health commissioner of Virginia, is sending out warnings as to the possibility of the prevalence of typhoid fever at bathing resorts now that excursionists are flocking to such places. Persons with symptoms of fever should not fail to consult a physician at once.

Miss Mary Herring, author of "The Ugly Duckling Becomes a Swan," a love story which was concluded in The Manassas Journal last week, is receiving much praise for her literary effort, it was learned today. She numbers among her close friends several classmates who attended the Manassas High School during the 1927-28 session.

"Alma Mater, we thank you for the bright vision we have for the future," editorially commented Miss Anna Bruce Whitmore, editor-in-chief of The Yellow Jacket, the Manassas High School publication, which is to have a new editorial staff during the 1928-29 session. The most recent issue of the school publication contained a number of addresses delivered at commencement exercises.

They are off! Hoover and his running mate have a good start on the presidential racetrack. They may yet be outdistanced by the Democratic nominees.

Next Tuesday will be another great day in national politics. It will be Jesse Jones' Day in Houston. He is expected to be the cynosure of all eyes at the Democratic convention there.

Now that it is known that Coolidge's policies were given the unqualified support of G. O. P. show in Kansas City, the people are yet to let it be known what they think of the present Republican administration. Think of the deplorable conditions existing when Grover Cleveland was elected president for the first time, and you will not wonder why there is so much talk now about corruption in Washington.

WATERFALL

Miss Jean Howdeshell, of Washington, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. R. R. Smith.

The many friends of Mrs. R. J. Wayland surprised her with a "miscellaneous shower" during her recent visit at "Mt. Atlas." She received many lovely and useful gifts. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Robert Smith, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Warrenton Hospital, is convalescing at his home here.

Miss Audrey Bell and Master Howard Bell are visiting their sister, Mrs. Granville Thomas, of Fairfax Courthouse.

The regular spring meeting of Group 5, W. M. U. of Potomac Association, which met at Antioch Church, on Friday last week was presided over by Mrs. Rogers, of Round Hill, the association superintendent. The meeting was a most interesting one and was attended by many delegates and visitors from the churches which compose the group. A special feature was the demonstration given by the Y. W. ESSO also steps up other types of motors. It not only makes driving more luxurious, but it usually gives enough extra miles to offset the slightly higher price per gallon.

ESSO is on sale through the silver-colored ESSO pumps. Test it yourself on the hills and over tough roads. It turns carbon into power!

JOKES THE ELDER

This story came to us from a railway conductor who is a Methodist. A steward wrote the chief dispatcher to please see that a certain passenger train that passed his church at twelve-fifteen cease blowing at the crossing near that church. When asked for his reason, the steward said their preacher was in the habit of stopping his sermon when the train blew at the crossing and for the last three Sundays the train was an hour late.

NASH presents a New and Finer Motor Car

New Twin Ignition Motor New Salon Bodies

Three new Nash Series, which have introduced everywhere, achieve the ambition of my racing career.

present an entirely new motor car, priced moderately, offering you all the beauty and performance heretofore exclusive to very expensive cars.

For such a car we had to introduce an entirely new type of motor, and invest over $2,500,000 in machinery alone.

The Salon bodies and the compression motors which use new models exemplify radically modern advanced body craftsmanship and engineering.

Every space precludes the full list of features but I do want to draw your attention to a number of outstanding attractions:

Ignition, high compression, aluminum alloy pistons with Invar-struts, 7-bearing crankshaft with hollowed crankpins, Bijur centralized chassis lubrication, Houdaille and Lovejoy shock absorbers, Biflex-Nash bumpers and bumperettes, chrome plating over nickel for all exterior metal ware, double-drop frame, one-piece Salon fenders and longer wheelbase lengths.

"This new-type engineering of the '400' motors makes them by far the best performing cars I have ever built.

"I don't think anyone will ever want to use all the speed and power they deliver.

"Equipment is absolutely complete at the factory list price and you need buy no extras except a spare tire.

"If my judgment is worth anything you will find it well worth while today to examine this new automobile development with the greatest care."

EDITOR'S TRIBUTE TO R. WALTON MOORE

Virginia Congressman, Former State Senator, is Highly Commended.

In the Virginia Senate of 1887 there were several young lawyers of conspicuous abilities and oratorical powers, the most prominent of whom was Robert Walton Moore, of Fairfax. Mr. Moore had but recently graduated in law from the University of Virginia, but he had already attained to distinction in the profession and later on he was elected president of the Virginia Bar Association. He returned to the Virginia Senate in 1889 and gained additional distinction in that body, having been made chairman of the Committee for Courts of Justice, one of the most important committees of the General Assembly. Even then, Mr. Moore was noted for his scholarly attainments, his sound judgment, his high character and his patriotic zeal.

In 1892 he was one of the Democratic electors for Virginia, and had the pleasure of joining with the other electors in casting the vote of Virginia for Grover Cleveland.

It may not be out of place to state that the editor of The Daily Press was clerk of Mr. Moore's committee in the Senate and in 1892 was chosen by the Virginia electors as special messenger to carry the Virginia vote to Washington. Because of that early association with Mr. Moore, the editor of The Daily Press, naturally, has followed the public career of that eminent Virginian with friendly interest—as member of the Virginia Constitutional Convention in 1901-2, as member of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia and of the College of William and Mary, as member of Congress since 1919 and as member of the Virginia Council of Defense during the world war.

In every position which he has occupied, Mr. Moore has given not merely an intellectual service, but a devoted service of the heart. He has served well because he has loved much and his service has never been tainted with selfish lust. Walton Moore has been exemplar in good citizenship and public service, and no member of Congress is more highly respected and regarded for his ability, his knowledge of public affairs, his familiarity with the history of his country in its broadest scope, his personal and political integrity and his statesmanship.

That is high praise, but it is not exaggerated praise. It is a fact: Mr. Moore is representative from the Eighth Congressional district, but he is also the representative of Virginia at large, and he is a valuable asset to the Commonwealth.

Virginia has started on a new career within the past few years and is in a fair way to regain the position of leadership in the sisterhood of States which she held for so many years. She needs men like Walton Moore to represent her in the Congress of the United States, and The Daily Press hopes that Mr. Moore may receive such a majority in the August primary as will be a testimonial to the Nation of the confidence and esteem in which he is held in the Old Dominion.—Newport News Daily Press.

Notice to the Public!

The 1927 taxes not having been paid on the following tracts of land, and being required so to do by section 2439 of the Code of Virginia, I will, in front of the Courthouse, at 10 o'clock, on the 30th day of June, 1928, offer for sale, rent or lease, or I will sell any wood or timber that may be growing thereon, the same to satisfy the said taxes.

PARTY CLASHES AT CONVENTION

Virginia Democrats Begin Big Show in Roanoke Preparatory to Houston Rally.

(Special Correspondence)
Roanoke, Va., June 21.—All political eyes in Virginia were turned toward Roanoke today, when the State Democratic convention met here to adopt a platform and to decide whether or not to send an instructed delegation to the big party show to be staged in Houston, Tex., next Tuesday.

Preliminary skirmishes as to the convention were begun yesterday, when a joint meeting of the executive committee and the central committee of the Democratic party in Virginia was held here to consider matters to come before various committees this morning. State Chairman J. Murray Hooker and Secretary Martin Ashton Hutchinson were present.

Peery Keynote Speaker.
Representative George C. Peery, of the ninth congressional district, who routed Republicans from control of the former C. Bascom Slomp stronghold, came here to act as keynote speaker.

Thomas W. Ozlin, speaker of the House of Delegates of Virginia, is expected to preside at the session this afternoon.

Despite the fact that several delegations are opposed to the nomination of Smith for the presidency, indications are that vigorous efforts will be made to send an uninstructed Virginia quota to the Houston convention.

Several county districts in the state are represented here by two sets of delegates, one set being Smith supporters and the other one unalterably opposed to the nomination of the Empire State governor for the presidency.

The convention platform, which urges more rigid enforcement of prohibition laws, is reported to have been drafted by Senator Carter Glass.

GO TO FRONT ROYAL

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. B. L. Williams, who departed this life at her home near Hoadly, Friday, June 15, 1928, age 75 years, two months and six days. She leaves to mourn her loss an invalid husband and one daughter, Viola Williams; one sister, Julia Webster, and one brother, James Webster, all of Hoadly. She was laid to rest in the Manassas cemetery.

Home is sad, O God how lonesome!
Lonesome! lonesome! every spot
Listening for your voice till weary,
Weary for I hear it not.

Dearest mother thou hast left me,
Left me for the other shore,
Yet again I hope to meet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Her Devoted Daughter,
VIOLA WILLIAMS

BEAVERS GOES TO COUNTY AGAIN

Alleged Bootlegger Furnishes Bond Following Arrest at Home of Relatives.

Sam Beavers, 48, alleged bootlegger, who resorted to a ruse to escape arrest two weeks ago at his home in Prince William county, when he asked to be permitted to go into his house to change his clothes, and who later outwitted officers of the law while he was leading his horse to a grazing field, was arrested in Washington last Friday and brought back to Manassas. Sheriff John P. Kerin informed The Manassas Journal reporter last Thursday that Beavers was being trailed and would be arrested within a short while. Beavers was captured at the home of relatives in Washington. He was released under $1,000 bond soon after his arrival here following his arrest.

COLORFUL SCENE AT ADIEU DANCE

Spokesman Lyons then presented to Mr. Walter a set of golf sticks as a gift from the student body.

Professor Frank G. Sigman presented a silver service to Mr. and Mrs. Walter as a gift from the faculty. In praising Mr. Walter, the speaker said: "I taught him in the present century." (Laughter.)

Get Two Scholarships.

"I call it a rather happy experience to have had such a man associated with me. He has devoted some of the best years of his life to the school," said Professor Swavely. The headmaster then announced that it had been decided as a mark of appreciation to present two Swavely scholarships, good for four years each, to the two sons of the retiring headmaster. The scholarships were issued in the names of Robert S. Walter, Jr., and George Randall Walter.

"When I heard all the nice things said about me I began to pinch myself for fear this affair might be a funeral," said the retiring educator who had heard the words eulogy, tribute and esteem used by orators of the occasion.

"I want to say I had some little reason to believe that a fair share of those with whom I have been associated here would take some little notice of my leaving. I shall treasure the friendship we have made. I appreciate what 'Bill' Lyons has said about me. I have liked working with the boys. By the way, I am glad that Frank Sigman said he taught me in the present century. (Laughter.)

"I am going to feel quite empty, a bit forlorn, next September. I will feel a very definite void that I have seen fit to give up educational work.

"The job that I have had at the school has been a difficult one. I haven't been able to feel quite satisfied that I would continue to go forward with my work. I often wondered whether I would be able to retain the affection and good will I now prize so highly. It was that one thought that urged me continuously to change. It has been a wrench which has turned me toward another line of work.

"There has been a regular bombardment of compliments here this evening. Mrs. Walter most graciously acknowledged the receipt of the silver service and also extended thanks for the scholarships her two sons received. She said:

"I wish I could find words to express our appreciation of the honors we have received. I thank you for the gift to the children. It means a great deal to us."

Professor Robert S. Illingworth, formerly professor of English Speech and Dramatic at Lafayette College, of Easton, Pa., who has been chosen to succeed Professor Walter, was the next speaker.

"Those who are connected with the school will have plenty of time next year to hear me, so I shall speak briefly tonight," said Professor Illingworth.

"We had a farewell at Easton this year. At that time I wished that the Swavely School had never existed. I know that Mrs. Illingworth and I have chosen a very difficult position."

The new assistant headmaster was cordially greeted by a large number of citizens after the feast. He took part in the conclusion of commencement exercises Saturday.
