C. A. SINCLAIR APPOINTED COUNTY TREASURER

COUNTY FINANCE OFFICER IS NAMED

C. A. Sinclair, Manassas Attorney, Appointed By Judge Smith.

TO FILL UNEXPIRED TERM OF J. P. LEACHMAN

Death of Former Treasurer Makes Recess Appointment Necessary.

C. Armistead Sinclair, prominent attorney of this county, and for many years a representative of this section in the State Legislature, was on last Thursday afternoon named as Treasurer of Prince William County, to fill the unexpired term of the late John Pendleton Leachman.

The appointment, which was made by Judge Howard W. Smith, of the Sixteenth Judicial District, was a popular one throughout the County, as few of its citizens are held in higher esteem than is C. A. Sinclair.

Mr. Sinclair is a native of Prince William County, having been born and raised at Brentsville, the old county seat, and has been active in public and civic affairs of the community and in ability and personality is splendidly equipped to administer the arduous duties which devolve upon the incumbent of the office of Treasurer of the County.

Mr. C. C. Leachman, deputy treasurer, who has had a wide experience in County finance, and has been deputy for many years, will continue in that office, under the new treasurer.

PROMINENT CITIZEN DIES

This change will give Manassas people the same service that they enjoyed when through busses were toured through here. Local station continues at Coker's Pharmacy.

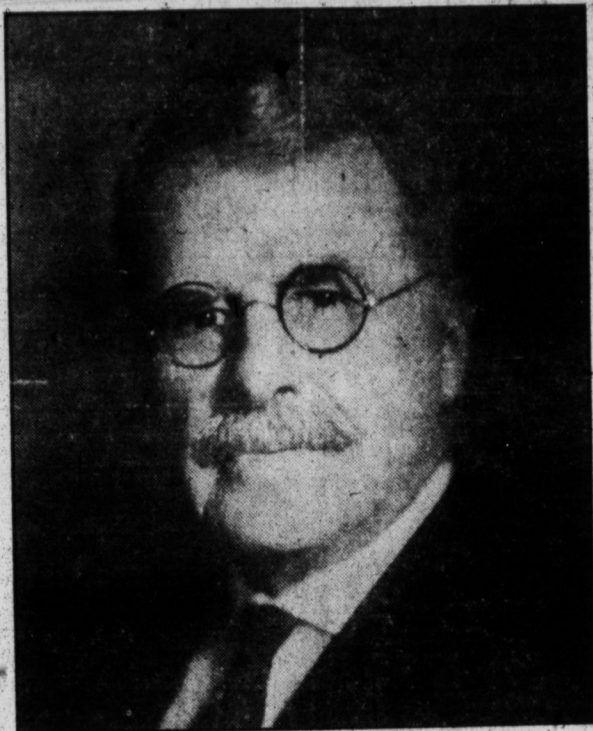

ENGAGEMENT MADE KNOWN AT PARTY

Mrs. Mary Pope Host At Delightful Party Announcing Engagement of Miss Pope.

More than thirty guests from Washington, Alexandria and Manassas were entertained at a Bridge Party at the home of Mrs. Mary Pope on Saturday evening.

Vases of pink roses and blue delphinium decorated the living room. Later in the evening the guests adjourned to the dining room. Here the color scheme was yellow and white, masses of marigolds being used. A huge yellow crepe paper cake topped by a miniature bride and groom mounting a golden ladder, formed the center piece. Streamers of yellow and white satin ribbon extended from the cake to the place cards which were also brides and grooms.

Realizing that this was more than an ordinary bridge party the guests began asking questions and were invited to pull the ribbons. This brought forth a shower of favors, one of which announced the engagement of Miss Mary Elizabeth Pope to Mr. William Dewey Taylor, of Standardville, Va. Miss Pope is one of the popular members of the younger set. Mr. Taylor is associated with the State engineers now at Monterey. The wedding will take place in December.

JOHN PENDLETON LEACHMAN, prominent citizen and County Treasurer, whose death occurred in Providence Hospital, Washington, on October 16. He was buried in the family lot at Cedar Grove, this county.

HARRY G. KIMBALL NAMED GOVERNOR

Chosen Governor of Capital District, In Which Manassas Is Included, Last Week

Harry G. Kimball, of Washington, was elected Governor of the Capital Kiwanis District by the delegates in convention at Richmond last Saturday. The Capital District includes forty-eight clubs with a membership of more than 3,000 in the District of Columbia, Virginia, Maryland and Delaware and many members from Manassas Kiwanis were present.

Mr. Kimball, a lawyer by profession, is a native of the District of Columbia. He is a graduate of Washington High School, Amherst College and Columbian University Law School. He was admitted to the bar in 1896. The Kimball family is of English descent, their ancestor, Richard Kimball, settling in this country in 1634.

As former Lieutenant-Governor of the first division, Capital Kiwanis District, and as District Chairman of the inter-club relations committee, Mr. Kimball has a wide acquaintance throughout these states. It is said that probably he knows more about the history of Kiwanis in this section than any other man in the district. He is the author of the Capital Kiwanis District history, the first volume covering the period of 1917 to 1923 being published several years ago. The second volume is now in the hands of the printer.

Mr. Kimball's affiliation with Kiwanis began in Washington in 1919. For two and a half years he was district secretary. He was president of the Washington club in 1924. He is especially interested in orthopedic and inter-club activities. He has written a history on the orthopedic work of the Washington club. On being asked if the Betterment of the Underprivileged Child has been an inspiration to the Washington Club, he said it undoubtedly had, and that he, personally, was vitally interested in this work.

It is a family tradition of the Kimballs to be musical, and Mr. Kimball is no exception to the rule. He is an accomplished organist, and frequently plays at Kiwanis club meetings. He has been organist in several Washington churches and plays for various Masonic bodies. He is also a member of the Almas Temple Shrine Band and the Tall Cedar Band. Mr. Kimball is a member of the various branches of masonry and is Past Master, Past High Priest and Senior Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of the District of Columbia.

COUNTY OFFICERS MAKE BIG RAID

Huge Still With Whiskey And Mash Seized Near Independent Hill.

Crawling through thick underbrush to the edge of a small open space and there lying in waiting for hours officers succeeded on Monday night in surprising the operators of one of the largest stills found in the county for many months.

The still was located in the heavy woods and thick underbrush in back of Independent Hill.

Rushing out on the men who were engaged in the operation of the apparatus, the men dashed on in an effort to escape, but were captured, according to reports, after a brief struggle. The men taken into custody and lodged in the County jail, there to await the next term of Court, were Walter Cornwell and Shirley Jones. Twenty gallons of alleged ardent spirits and 200 gallons of mash were seized by the officers while the still was demolished and parts of it brought in to be used as evidence.

Reports of the operation of a large still in the vicinity of Independent Hill had been in possession of the police for some time, and a constant watch has been kept for several weeks, culminating in the successful raid of Monday night.

Officers conducting the raid were Sheriff J. P. Kerlin, W. C. Partlow, deputy; M. A. Lynch, constable, and Lawrence L. Tombs, special officer.

WATERFALL

Mrs. H. S. Bell entertained delightfully on Saturday evening in honor of her son, Stanley's twenty-fourth birthday. The occasion was also in the nature of a farewell party, being on the eve of Stanley Bell's departure for Southern California. About 40 guests were present including friends and relatives from a distance.

Miss Jean Smith is visiting relatives in Washington. Miss Mary Sinclair, youngest daughter of T. H. Sinclair, was operated on for appendicitis Saturday in the Warrenton Hospital.

Mrs. E. E. Pickett, of Seat Pleasant, Md., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaines and Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Thomas and son, of Fairfax, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sinclair and Mrs. T. H. Sinclair spent Sunday in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Fish, of Washington, were guests of relatives here Sunday.

Much sympathy is expressed here in the untimely death last week of Hanson H. Wilson, eldest son of Mr. Parke Wilson, of Hickory Grove.

SWAVELY AND R. M. A. PLAY TO A DEADLOCK

Football Teams of Both Institutions Play Desperately To No Avail.

Saturday, last, Swavely traveled to Front Royal where they battled Randolph-Macon Military Academy to a scoreless tie. The game was listless, with the exception of the last minute of play when R. M. A. gained possession of the pigskin three yards from a touchdown, though one of the numerous Swavely fumbles. Two line smashes failed to take it across, the whistle ending further attempts.

The Swavely defense functioned well, but their offense again was deplorably weak. Fumbles played a large part in halting any consistent gains. Wilson attempted a field goal in the first period only to have it go wide. Due to his individual brilliance Swavely gained more ground than R. M. A., but only threatened to score once. The first half R. M. A. managed to avert defeat by the magnificent punting of Bowles, while his kicks during the second half kept the local boys constantly on the defensive.

The game was cleanly played. Chiswell, however, will be lost for at least two weeks, suffering a broken nose.

This Saturday the Swavely team will meet Episcopal High School at Alexandria for the first time in the history of the school. While Swavely is considered the underdog in this game, they are out to break into the win column.

The line-up:
R. M. A. Position. Swavely.

AUTUMN.

Autumn is the most beautiful season of the year.

The flowers, the leaves, and the dainty colors rare.

The oak, the elm, and dogwood have doffed their green.

To assume the golden robes of Autumn that we have seen.

The forest is scented with musty odor from fallen leaves.

The green among the red and orange to the branches cleave.

The wind-crisped days of Indian summer now lie ahead.

Then all the beauty of the summer flowers are dead.

Trees will thrust gaunt branches to cold and rainy skies.

But the beauty then of the winter flowers never dies.

The pumpkin, the squash, lie in the field of yellow corn.

Now the moon is new, shortly it will only shine in the morn.

The skies hue that matches the golden sunset in the west.

Smiles at trees that shed their leaves, then lie down to rest.

Nature brings a kind of sadness with the coming of inactive days.

It's time now to store your harvest in her many, many ways.

JOHN PENDLETON LEACHMAN.

No man in Prince William County was better known than the late John Pendleton Leachman, who, for the seventeen years preceding his death, was the County Treasurer. He lived a long and useful life. His many years of public service brought him into constant touch with all the people of this community. As a result he was universally loved and respected.

An outstanding characteristic of his life was his absolute honesty. For more than two and a quarter centuries the Leachman family has been prominent in this part of the Old Dominion. True to its traditions John Pendleton Leachman carried on.

It is refreshing, in this day of corruption in high office, to have had among us and as an officer handling all the money of Prince William for many years, a man who was the soul of honor and the very essence of integrity.

America continues to be money mad and success is measured almost solely by the accumulation of wealth, but here was a man who lived in a higher plane. By the energy which marked his every act up to the time of his last illness, combined with his good judgement and careful personal management of his affairs, he built up the farm, Cedar Grove, on which he lived, and which has long been the dwelling place of his ancestors, into a modern and profitable farm. He loved his home as few men do. At no time was he happier than, with pipe in hand, and seated before the huge old fireplace, he had his kith and kin or friends about him. Unselfish and generous to a fault, his daily life was an exemplification of the rule of service before self.

A HUMAN BEING.

How any man—or woman—can sit down and calmly and dispassionately size up the two candidates for President and then vote for Herbert Hoover as against Al Smith passes understanding.

Here on the one hand we have a human being—an honest, enormously capable man, who knows what the average fellow is thinking about, and why.

A man who speaks the language of the people, who understands what the people want and why they want it, and who withal has thorough knowledge of world questions. That's Al Smith, the Democratic candidate for President.

On the other hand we have a man whose ability in certain fields of endeavor is admitted, whose honesty of purpose is unimpeachable, yet who seems to have no impulse or sentiment in tune with the plain people. It isn't a man's fault that he lacks that peculiar understanding. Rearing and environment often are responsible. But in the case of a candidate for the people's favor, it is something of a misfortune.

Herbert Hoover is a good man. No one disputes that. A great executive under certain conditions. But not even his warmest admirer will contend that Herbert Hoover has Al Smith's sympathy and understanding. Though the two men might be dead-even in the matter of ability, Al Smith would still stand out head and shoulders above his opponent on the strength of his understanding of the people.

It seems to be a God-given gift: this understanding. George Washington had it. Jefferson had it. Abraham Lincoln had it. He was of the people, the same as Al Smith.

Theodore Roosevelt had this gift. Though born an aristocrat, he got down close to the people, talked with them, understood them.

But sometimes even men of the people haven't this understanding of the people. They may spring from the people, live with the people, yet fail all the days of their lives to understand the people.

Many a splendid editor, many a fine statesman, many an excellent preacher and many a good business executive has fallen short of greatness because of lack of understanding of the people.

There hasn't been a real human being in the White House, a man who understood the people, and who talked and thought and lived and breathed like the people, since Roosevelt.

Al Smith will be the first president in many years to put the breath of human life in that cold, mausoleum-looking old White House in Washington, and make it pulsate with human emotion, because he is essentially a human being—the most complete human document in America today.

Press Comments

Don't Tell Willie.

Rutland Herald: You mustn't tell Willie, but not a single man has been elected President because of his knowledge of algebra.

Everybody Doing It.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: Nut-brown October arrives just at the right time when every one is getting nutty about the presidential campaign.

Signs Up When Down.

Macón Telegraph: Some of the notion stores, we read, are offering garters carrying pictures of Smith and Hoover and, as we understand it, the gals wearing 'em show how they stand politically when they sit down.

How Can It Be?

Washington Evening Star: A literary publication is periodically encouraged to engage in a voting poll calculated to make it as important in politics as in literature.

A Cautious Merchant.

Ohio State Journal: The most cautious merchant in this center of population yesterday put in a blank ballot in a secret straw vote in which he was asked to participate.

Some Relief, Anyway.

Boston Transcript: One advantage of a political campaign by radio is that it somewhat reduces the number of times the latest song hit can be broadcast.

Asks But Little.

Washington Evening Star: The world has honored Thomas A. Edison, who, as a good and faithful citizen, probably asks no more than that his inventions shall be managed with the same generous regard for the needs of humanity that characterized his sleepless hours of early toil.

It's Nothing New.

George Rothwell Brown, in The Washington Post: Doubtless it will be some consolation to Mr. Hoover

He Writes Well.

Water, according to a medical writer, is the only drink of which one never gets tired. This is corroborated by a Scotchman we know of, who has made a life-long practice of putting a drop or two of it in his whisky.

Wise Old Doc.

The young doctor sat with a friend at the window. A lady passed. "That is the lady I love," said the doctor. "Why not marry her?" asked the friend. "Not likely! She is my best patient."

Joyous Alibi.

"You should be more careful to pull your shades down at night. Last night I saw you kissing your wife." "Ha, ha, ha! The joke is on you. I wasn't at home last night."—The Office Cat.

"There was a young lady of Crew Who wanted to catch the 22; Said a porter don't hurry, Or worry or flurry, It's a minute or 2 2 2 2."—Everybody's Weekly (London).

Knew His Scriptures.

John is a small boy, youngest of a minister's family. As a punishment for some misdemeanor at the table it was decided that he must not eat with the family at the next meal. So his dinner was placed on a small table at the end of the dining room. When all were seated the minister said, "Now, John, you should ask a blessing before you eat." This was a new duty for John, but he bowed his head and said, reverently: "Our Father in Heaven; Thou has prepared a table for me in the presence of mine enemies. Amen."

He was a Crap Shooter.

A farmer received a crate containing some fowls. He wrote to the sender, informing him that the crate was so badly made that it had come to pieces, when he was taking the hens home with him, and they had escaped, and after much searching he had only succeeded in finding eleven of them. In due course he received the following reply:—"You were lucky to find eleven hens because I sent you only six."—Wright Engine Builder.

and to Mr. Smith to reflect that in the campaign of 1888 the slanderers did not hesitate to accuse Grover Cleveland of getting drunk and beating his beautiful young bride, causing her to flee from the White House at midnight to escape his inhuman treatment, and that these vicious stories were not only whispered in the back alleys but in the churches and the halls of Congress. Cleveland's philosophical answer, "If they can stand it I can," might well serve as a model for all official deniers.

Hurry The Election.

Milwaukee Journal: As Lincoln so well said, "One war at a time." Until the next President is elected we have vowed to refrain from jumping into the intense controversy over the correct pronunciation of "gladiolus."

Is Home Safe?

Houston Post Dispatch: When you are ordered to halt your auto at night you are in a quandary. If you halt you are apt to be in the hands of hijackers, and if you don't halt you are likely to be shot by prohibition agents. Better remain at home nights.

Books And Hot Dogs.

Baltimore Sun: Book wagons are often seen in rural neighborhoods when an alert public library, such as that at Hagerstown, decides that its books should be made available to farmers as well as to city folk. But the New York library taps a new field with its truck which makes daily trips through outlying sections of the Bronx and delivers books just as if they were necessities like milk or ice. Perhaps they are. At any rate, the circulating library which lives up to its name is doing a capacity business that leaves the hotdog and peanut stands simply nowhere.

NOTICE

Notice to the Consumers of Water and Electric Current in the Town of Manassas:

In accordance with an Ordinance passed by the Town Council all water and light bills are due on the 10th of the month following the meter readings, and if not paid by that date a penalty of fifty cents must be added to the bill.

If such bills are not paid on or before the 15th of the month following the meter readings service must be promptly discontinued.

For the reason that it is not desirable for the Town Treasurers to leave the office during the working hours he will discontinue his former practice of calling upon delinquent patrons in person.

In view of the fact that the above bills are due and payable at the same time each recurring month, it would not appear necessary for the Treasurer to mail out statements to patrons and this practice will also be discontinued.

We hope that the citizens of the Town will co-operate with the Town Office along the lines stated above, and thus help us to handle the Town business economically and efficiently.

W. F. COCKE,
Town Manager.
R. L. BYRD,
Town Treasurer.

VETERANS OF GRAY PRAISE TAMMANY

War Veterans of the Valley Pass Resolutions in Support of Organization Friendly to South.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 24—At a recent reunion of Confederate Veterans, attended by several men who followed Mosby, resolutions were adopted calling upon all descendants of Confederate soldiers to vote for Governor Alfred E. Smith. The resolutions declared that in the dark days of reconstruction Tammany Hall was the one friend of the South in the whole North. The reunion sat at Sperryville. The resolutions read as follows:

"Resolved, that we, Confederate veterans of the counties of Rappahannock, Warren, Madison, Fauquier and Culpeper, assembled this twenty-fifth day of August, 1928, as guests of Mr. W. G. Wood, at his home, 'Ivy Hill,' Rappahannock county, Va., do hereby reaffirm our belief in the doctrines of state rights and government according to the principles of democracy as laid down and taught by those great leaders—Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, Grover Cleveland, William J. Bryan and Woodrow Wilson. We believe that these principles are clearly set out in the Democratic platform, written recently at Houston, Tex., and in convention adopted. We believe that Alfred E. Smith, the nominee of that convention, is one of the ablest, most sincere, honest and courageous exponents of these principles; therefore, we do hereby endorse and pledge our support to him for President of the United States and by this action we feel that we are voicing the sentiment of all Confederate veterans who now believe in the principles they so valiantly supported on many bloody battlefields in the days between 1861-1865.

"We hereby call upon all descendants of Confederate soldiers to support by their ballots the principles their fathers supported in arms and for which so many died. And to now remind them that in the dark days after the War Between the States, the one faithful friend in which the South could rely was the Northern Democracy and especially the Tammany Hall organization, but for whose support the Force Bill and many other atrocious and oppressive bills aimed at the South would have become laws. Tammany helped us in the hour of need. How can we turn our backs on one of its members, who is now the candidate for President of the United States?

"Vote for Smith because he is a Democrat, vote for him to show that the South does not lack in gratitude for those who stood by her in her dark hour."

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of Rosie Belle McCuen, who died October 22, 1918:

There's a throb in our hearts
That can never be stilled,
There's a chair that is vacant
That can never be filled.

There's a thought in our memory
That is sacred and dear,
And we long for a voice
We shall never more hear.

To the graveyard we go
And place fresh flowers there,
And we are thankful to know
She is free from all care.

But we know she's not dead,
She is only asleep
In the arms of the Savior,
Who will careful watch keep.

And if we are true
To the Savior above,
We will soon meet our darling
And share in that love.

By her Mother, Mrs. Lacy McCuen.
