CENSUS WORK BEGINS HERE

Supervisor William E. Trusler Opens Offices.

On Monday morning of this week, Mr. William E. Trusler, supervisor of the second enumeration district of Virginia (which is the same as the Eighth Congressional District with the exception of Orange and Louisa, which were put in another group), opened permanent headquarters in the town hall at Manassas.

Associated with him in the office work are Miss Emma Ellen Ledman, and Messrs. Frank P. Curtis and J. L. Moser. Mr. Curtis is from Burke Station in Fairfax County.

The first work which was started last week and which will be finished this month is the assembling of all data dealing with manufacturing and merchandising business of all sorts. The following have this work in their respective counties: Arlington County and Alexandria City, Roger L. Daniels and James E. Spaulding; Fairfax County, Rozin A. Farr; Culpeper County, Mrs. Josephine R. Marshall and Mr. Pembroke T. Fitzhugh; Fauquier County, Daniel Shumate; Prince William County, John M. Taylor and Charles M. Dodson; King George County, Charles H. Harris; Loudoun County, Shirley T. Piggott; Stafford County, John M. Decker.

The work of the fifteenth census which deals with population and farm statistics will begin on April 1. Most of the applicants for this work have already been examined and appointments will be announced by Supervisor Trusler next week.

BRETHREN MISSION DEFICIT IS PAID

The Church of the Brethren (Dunkers) has just completed successfully a campaign to pay the mission deficit of $1,000.00. Rev. Charles D. Beckwith, General Secretary of the General Mission Board, released news that the mission deficit is completely paid and there is a surplus to carry into the new year.

Since 1923 the Church of the Brethren (Dunker) has carried a deficit in its foreign and home mission program. At one time in 1929 the deficit amounted to nearly $1.00 per member. The church membership is 133,000. During 1929 two laymen, J. J. Oller, of the Landis Tool Co., Waynesboro, Penna., and J. K. Miller, of the Martin Dry Goods Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, challenged the church to pay the deficit. Other laymen joined these men in paying half the amount needed.

The dead line for the congregations to complete their half was February 28. By that date the deficit was raised with a balance of $25,000. The last three days of the year brought $44,000. The membership is 70 per cent rural. On the days when wheat was touching its lowest price for 16 years the largest missionary response was given. The Church of the Brethren has more than 100 missionaries on its fields in India, China, and Africa.

WILLIAM T. BYWATERS.

William T. Bywaters, youngest son of T. R. and the late Annie B. Bywaters, died suddenly at his home on Lee avenue early Tuesday morning.

Born in Culpeper County thirty years ago, Mr. Bywaters was the descendant of some of the county's most distinguished families. He was the great-grand son of Daniel Colvin and Elizabeth Magdalene Hansbrough, daughter of James Hansbrough, of Marlboro, on the Potomac in Stafford County, a descendant of Prussian nobility. He was also related to the Roberts, Bywaters and other names prominent in the history of Culpeper county.

Funeral services were held at the family residence here Thursday morning, Rev. H. D. Anderson, the Baptist minister, officiating. The remains were taken to Culpeper where interment followed at Fairview Cemetery, with Rev. E. W. Winfrey, Baptist minister of that town, officiating.

Relatives from a distance attending the services in Manassas were: Mrs. C. D. Burley, of Harrisburg, Pa.; Messrs. Shirley and Winfrey Bywaters, and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, Mr. C. E. Sims, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bywaters, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Bywaters.

MANASSAS GIRL RETURNS FROM EUROPEAN TRIP

Completed Art Course While Abroad, Studying in Many Countries.

Miss Madeline McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCoy, returned to her home in Manassas on Thursday last after a stay of over a year in Europe where she studied art.

On arriving in Paris early in February, she enrolled in the New York School of Fine and Applied Art at that place. Her work included a three months' sketching trip through Italy last summer where she stopped at Villa D'Este, on Lake Como, Venice, Lido and Ostia, near Rome.

Her itinerary also included an extended tour through the Battlefields of France, points of interest in England, the Island of Majorca, off Spain, San Moritz, in Switzerland, where she enjoyed the famous winter sports of that place, and many other historic places in France.

Finally, an honor graduate of the school mentioned above, she sailed from Europe during the latter part of February, stopping over in New York to visit friends.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGN

(EDITORIAL)

In August the Democrats of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia will nominate a candidate for Congress. Owing to the rather complete restoration of harmony within the Party this nomination will be equivalent to election. This is a friendly affair within the Democratic Party and all Democrats are warned that attempts will be made to inject issues into the campaign which have as their inspiration the destruction or weakening of the Democracy of Virginia rather than the selection of a nominee.

To the South of us and near the Potomac are newspapers that in the past have stabbed savagely at the heart of Democracy. No cartoon was too libelous of her good name; no paragraph too untempered. Apparently they were inspired by the ancient Greek proverb.

"A lie has often, I have known before, More weight than truth, and people trust it more."

To all appearances a campaign of vilification is about to begin in these publications. It has been the hope of all good Democrats that the approaching contest could be kept on a high plane. Both Judge Smith and Senator Ball are men of unquestioned integrity. The voice of slander will make no impression upon the hundreds who have known these gentlemen throughout the years and have seen them come and go and viewed their activities as neighbors and friends. It is upon the credence of the thousands who have not had this personal contact that the slanderers play. They must know that such methods always react upon the traducers of fair reputations, but they count upon that inevitable reaction not coming in time to save the intended victim from massacre at the polls.

All informed voters in this area know that the reaction against vilification was swift and certain in the case of Harry Flood Byrd, administering a public rebuke to his slanderers. Fair play is demanded by the electorate as never before. A man who has lived an honorable and useful life does not become a crook by virtue of honorable aspirations to public office.

Let us continue to hope, therefore, that a cantankerous campaign will not develop, but if such tactics are employed, let all loyal Democrats carefully consider the source and if that source is the same which has previously vilified the Democracy of Virginia, let us consign such reading matter to oblivion and settle our Party difficulties within the home circle and in a friendly and unbiased manner.

He leaves HIS business to attend to YOURS.

He takes RISKS without chance of recompense.

He serves you Night and Day with NO PAY.

He serves for the Love of SERVICE.

WHEN YOU ARE IN NEED:

You hallow for the Fireman.

You are Glad to see him.

Miss Shaner will also speak at the High School auditorium Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

M. H. S. WINS SOCCER GAME

On Saturday, March 8th, a soccer team composed of players who played on this year's High School team, traveled to Staunton, Va., and defeated the strong team from Staunton Military Academy. The score was 2 to 1. The Staunton team had only two days practice before the game but they showed that they had not lost the form that carried them along so successfully earlier in the season.

This seems to prove that M. H. S. has the strongest team in Prince William County and deserves the title of champions of the county. Occoquan disputed their claim but when challenged by the Staunton team would not accept. M. H. S. was challenged, accepted and conquered.

Negotiations are being made with a strong Newport News Independent Team for a game to be played there.

SENIOR BAZAAR IS A TERPSICHOREAN FEAST

Meeting Mail-Order Prices.

The Merchants of Manassas do not have the fear of mail-order competition that some business men feel, because of their own low prices and high values; but it is of particular interest to note an announcement in this issue that directly challenges mail-order tire prices. Why not see what your local dealers can do before you send your money away to enrich the big centers of population.

WOMAN'S CLUB SUPPORT PROJECT

Bennet School Lawn to Be Improved Following Standard Specifications.

The Woman's Club of Manassas, met Wednesday afternoon in regular session at the high school. After the regular business was disposed of preliminary plans were discussed relative to a Charity Ball to be held on Easter Monday (April 21st). Details will be announced later.

Mrs. Robert H. Smith gave an interesting talk on plans for landscaping the grounds of Bennett School, using the specifications of the Garden Clubs of America as the basis of her talk. These plans have been sent through the kindness of Mrs. Mary McBryde, State landscape architect. The club voted to support this project.

Mrs. John S. Hynson rendered a delightful solo, "Trees", the theme being quite apropos.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED.

Last night, while Mr. Slusher was in Mr. A. S. Leachman's restaurant, he noticed his car start off. Thinking it was his brother, he gave no chase. A few minutes later, however, he found his brother on Centre street, and quickly realized that everything wasn't just right.

A hurry call sent Sergeant J. A. Herring in pursuit up the Warrenton Pike, where he discovered that the thief had collided with Deputy Sheriff W. A. Partlow, near Crummett's Store. Mr. Partlow's car had upset, and the miscreant made his getaway.

As this goes to press, no arrest have been made, but Sergeant Herring says that he will have his man shortly.

NOTICE.

The Patrons' League of Manassas High School will hold the regular monthly meeting of the league at the High School on Thursday, March 20, at 9 p. m. Members and patrons are earnestly requested to attend.

MRS. W. L. LLOYD, President.

CHURCH SUPPER.

There will be an oyster supper at Belle Haven Church on the 22nd of March, at 6 p. m. There will be music and other refreshments. Judge Howard W. Smith has been invited to attend and address the gathering, and is expected to speak about 7:30 o'clock. Everybody come and hear him.

Smith Meeting At Alexandria.

At a meeting held at the George Mason in Alexandria on Friday, Hon. Gardner L. Bothe was elected chairman of the Smith campaign committee for Alexandria City. Some fifty of the leading Democrats of old Belle Haven were present and much enthusiasm prevailed.

TACKY PARTY.

The Junior League of Woodlawn School is giving a tacky party at the school Friday night, March 14, at 8 o'clock. Prizes will be given for the best costumes. Refreshments will be served.

LEAGUE MEETING.

The Bennett School Patrons' League will hold a food sale at Dowell's Drug Store, on Saturday, March 15th.

Audience Repeatedly Encores Performers.

KIWANIS CLUB ATTENDS.

Lowering clouds and a cold, drizzly rain did not daunt the spirits of the friends of Manassas High who gathered at the school building last Friday evening to patronize the Senior Bazaar.

The female of the species was in the ascendency until the bathing beauty contest when mere man came into his own. That Manassas has plenty of beauty to sooth the Tired Business Man was evidenced by the ensemble of TBM's who stuck to the finish.

The supper was not the least of the pleasant surprise. A corp of pretty waitresses added to the zest of the diners' appetites. The local Kiwanis Club attended in a body, this being their regular meeting night. Chris Metzke, the same old Chris, now an International Optimist, gave some of his humor, aided by A. S. Boatwright, both bending their energies on Friend Conner, the Centre street magnate.

At the conclusion of the dinner, Miss Hale's well-trained chorus gave a real vaudeville exhibition, a rural setting, lighted with a glowing electric moon, which helped and enchanted to the view. Amos and Andy got in their licks by enlarging on the idiosyncrasies of the local business men, who appeared to enjoy the humor very much.

The Ziegfeld Follies were composed of Sara Lewis, Esther Warren Pattie, Rena Bevans, Frances Bushong, Eleanor Gibson and Marion Lynn (boys), and Hilda Moser, Eloise Compton, Janet Trusler, Ann Bradford and Walter Conner.

Their numbers were all well received and were as follows: "If I'm Dreaming", "I May Be Wrong", "Taint No Sin", "St. James Blues", and "Crying for the Carolines". Mrs. Leachman was the accompanist in all these numbers.

Eloise Compton and Hilda Moser furnished a stunt song, "Under the Old Umbrella", and another equally well presented by Walter Conner and Esther Warren Pattie—"I'm On A Diet of Love."

The Manassas Industrial Students furnished a quartette which rendered several entertaining numbers.

Perhaps no cuter exhibition was put on than the two numbers danced by little Nancy Leachman, who executed a series of difficult steps very gracefully. Miss Ellen Bisson, a high school student, and an experienced dancer, also delighted the audience with her work.

The side shows included something that sounded like H-1, a museum of wonders and the bathing beauties. Burton Lyons and his plug hat did some ballyhoo work to boost the gate receipts. Clepton Athey also helped on this.

The Yo-Yo contest was won after a spirited session by Bobby Waters, who exhibited unusual dexterity.

Mention must not be omitted of the bazaar part of the show, from which it received its name. There were several booths well stocked with pretty and serviceable goods.

The total net receipts of the show will be announced later. It is safe to say that Manassas will back any local institution any time, and we hope to sit in the bleachers next Spring and help root for our boys and girls who are growing up to be the backbone of the Manassas of tomorrow.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NEWS NOTICES AND ACTIVITIES

The local department gave a good accounting at the disastrous fire at Clifton on Sunday, details of which are noted elsewhere.

About midnight Monday, Mr. William Leachman was awakened by an explosion proved to be the new Ford of Mr. Roland Seeley. Mr. Leachman turned in an alarm which was promptly answered, although the car was too far gone when the company arrived. Mr. Seeley reports his losses partially covered by insurance.

The meeting held by the firemen earlier in the same evening took the form of a general clean-up due to the heavy duty to which the engine had been put on the day previous.

Notice.

Don't forget the business meeting on Monday night, March 17th.

CHARLESTON TO CELEBRATE.

Over 60 Countries
Now Treat Colds
Without "Dosing"

Modern Vaporizing Ointment Fast
Replacing Old-Time Internal Remedies

A generation ago, it was the custom to give large doses of internal medicines for colds and almost every human ailment. Then, a North Carolina pharmacist originated Vicks VapoRub, the modern method of treating colds without "dosing." Today, the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing."

As more and more people adopted this modern external treatment, the fame of Vicks spread until today it is the standby for colds—adults as well as children's—in over 60 countries.

This ever-increasing demand is shown in the figures of the familiar Vicks slogan. Made famous when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Used Yearly," and later raised to "21 Million," these figures, too, have been outgrown, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly," in the United States alone.

you,

Hampton W. Kerlin and Amos C.

Smith, Jr.

We may all have our sorrow,

Some griefs quickly die away.

But the parting of you four dear boys

Grieves my heart from day to day.

And, oh, dear God, how lonely it is here without them,

-And sad all along the way.

For it is not the same to us,

Since you were called away.

Yet, again, we hope to meet thee,

When the day of life is fled.

And in heaven with joy to greet thee,

There no farewell tears are shed.

Sleep on, dear Frank and Grant,

In the land of peace and rest,

We pray to meet you, dear boys,

In the land of peace and rest.

Your loving mother,

43-11* MRS. S. G. WHETZEL.

CLIFTON STATION SAVED.*Destructive Fire Stopped By Quick Action.

Shortly after ten o'clock Sunday morning, smoke was seen coming from the store building of V. Y. Weaver, in Clifton Station. Opening of the doors brought out such a cloud that those seeking entrance were almost overcome. The owner rushed in to save some of his records and was forced to use heroic methods to fight his way out of the side of the building.

Mrs. Holbrook, at Fairfax, upon receiving the alarm, and realizing the imminent danger resulting from the high winds and location of the store, made calls to Herndon, Manassas, Falls Church, Ballston, Vienna and McLean, all of whom responded with the most commendable alacrity. Twenty-three minutes after the call came, the Fairfax engine was on the job, ready for action. R. R. Buckley had already prepared a place under the tracks for the hose, and in less than two minutes water was being played on the blaze.

Allen Williams, fire chief of the Fairfax unit, remained in charge throughout the entire fight, which covered well over an hour. Buckley's store was already on fire, and if this had gone the village could not have been saved. But the most intense action gave the fighters sufficient edge on this part of the fight so that the other companies were able to put most of their energies on stamping out the doomed buildings on the west side.

The Manassas company was second, with Herndon right on their heels. The more distant companies came in rapid succession.

Traffic was dense, several hundred cars having come with the engines. Sheriff Kirby and Deputies Wheeler and Magarity maintained perfect order, no injuries nor accidents of any kind being reported. Mr. Weaver was cut in escaping from the store and partly overcome by smoke. One fireman narrowly escaped death from a falling chimney.

Other structures partly damaged by fire and water were Mrs. Quigg's house, the Baptist Church and Mr. Mather's store.

The total loss is estimated at over $25,000. The $200 spent by the several companies in responding to the fire saved property worth around $200,000.

This fire came exactly four days after the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors allowed the fire fighting units a yearly allowance of $4,500.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God
BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

"If ye love the word, let your children know it. It will bring a precious heritage to them in after years."

THE CHRISTIAN'S HOME—For we are saved by hope; but hope that is seen is not hope; for what man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it. —Romans 8:24, 25.

PRAYER:

"I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name."

THE LATE CHIEF JUSTICE.

From all parts of the United States and from foreign lands come tributes of affection to the late Chief Justice Taft. The charm of his personality impressed itself upon millions here and abroad. His death reveals how widely he was known, and how universally he was esteemed. During the 40 years of his public service he came in contact with multitudes of men, rich and poor. The praise they now express will convey to future ages a good idea of the depth and richness of his character. He sought the good in men; he neither envied others' gifts nor nursed grievances when he was wronged. His nature was not only generous, but sweet. He loved home life, neighborliness, and a good laugh.

Through the currents of life, touching elbows with millions of his fellows, Mr. Taft gave good cheer; a smile, a word of sympathy, a helpful hint, a friendly greeting. He could be deeply moved, and when he struck at wrong it was with a heavy hand, but he punctured fallacies with ridicule, and was not stirred by trifles. He made allowances for error and ignorance, without swerving from his own sense of duty. His tolerance and patience were rewarded when men came to see that he was right.

The life and services of Chief Justice Taft leave grateful memories and will forever enrich the history of the United States.—Washington Post.

HAIL AND FAREWELL!

Big Bill Taft has gone. Uncomplaining, the cheerful smile which went with him through life did not leave him in death. Bill Taft was a Christian and a human being of the first water. Good fortune and ill fortune left equally unperturbed. Politician, but not a politician. He was the first Republican candidate for President who could go through the South and leave a trail of good will behind. He did not expect their votes, but as President, he wanted their respect and their affection.

His heart was as big as his frame. He was above no one, no detail was overlooked, and no hospitality treated churlishly. He was a good Indian, and as such may he enjoy his reward on the Happy Hunting Ground!

Dear Mr. Editor:

It occurs to me that with any reference in The Journal of Mr. Taft's death, you would like to mention his visit to Manassas while President—Presidents not being frequent visitors to Manassas.

The date of that visit was July 21, 1911. I recall that his automobile was rescued (by mules, I think), from the muddy banks of Bull Run, en route, putting a crimp in the schedule of the day, and that he humorously referred to Virginia hospitality "where even the waters cling to you".

Yours very truly,
MARY LARKIN MCKIBBIN,
St. Louis, Mo.

(The affair above referred to was one of the gala days of Manassas history. It was the 50th anniversary of the first battle of Bull Run, and ranked as one of the major events of the entire United States. Thousands from all states attended. There are a number of photographs showing Mr. Taft in the throng, and other views. It is history but mighty pleasant to recall.—Ed. note.)

76 PIANOS LOANED*FREE

We have 93 pianos (Grand, Players and Uprights, both new and used instruments) to place in homes of Washington and vicinity, and they may be used until we need them—which will be an indefinite time. We have discontinued a number of our Southern branches, from the stocks of which many of these instruments have been selected. We have also leased a portion of our store to the well-known firm of Witt & Hamill. As a consequence our floors are crowded to their capacity. Instead of storing these pianos to depreciate in value we have priced every instrument at greatly reduced figures and anyone contemplating the purchase of a piano in the next few months, cannot afford to miss the opportunity. All pianos not sold outright, we are anxious to place in the homes of families who are interested in owning a piano in the immediate future, and for the valuable advertising we will receive by having good families use them. We, of course, reserve the right to select homes in which the pianos are to be loaned.

POSITIVELY NO CHARGE FOR ANYTHING

We ask you no dollars or charge of any kind on pianos so loaned. You may call at the store to file your request. There are no strings to this offer, which comes but once in a lifetime.

LEGAL NOTICES

VIRGINIA:

AT A CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF PRINCE WILLIAM, CONTINUED AND HELD AT THE COURT HOUSE THEREOF, ON FEBRUARY 7, 1930.

PRESENT: HON. HOWARD W. SMITH, JUDGE.

Re: Petition of County School Board for a Special Election to take the sense of the qualified voters in Gainesville School District on the Question of Erecting an additional School Building, Furnishing and Equipping the same, and repairing another School Building, in said District.

The County School Board of Prince William County having presented to the court its petition and exhibits therewith filed, in pursuance of Chapter 34 of the Code of Virginia, setting forth that it had adopted a resolution duly spread upon its minutes, declaring that an additional school house for high school purposes is necessary in Gainesville School District, said County, and furnishing and equipping the same, and repairing the colored school house at or near Thoroughfare, in said District, for the school children of school age in said district, and it being shown to the court that the school funds of said district will not be sufficient to provide such additional facilities, which said resolution has been confirmed and approved by a resolution of the Board of Supervisors of said county; that said exhibits filed with said petition, show that the plans, specifications and probable cost of such additional facilities have been approved by the Division Superintendent of Schools, as well as the Superintendent of Public Instruction; that it is the desire of said board to take the sense of the qualified voters of Gainesville School District (which is the same as Gainesville Magisterial District), as to whether it shall issue bonds for that purpose in accordance with the prayer of said petition; that the location of said school house is to be in the town of Haymarket; said District: that the amount of the bonds to be issued for that purpose is to be $40,000.00, with interest not to exceed six percentum per annum, payable either annually or semi-annually, to be redeemable or payable at a period not exceeding thirty years from the date of said bonds at the option of the school board;

Therefore, the court doth order a Special Election to be held in Gainesville School District (being the same as Gainesville Magisterial District), at the regular voting precincts therein, on the 28th day of March, 1930, which election shall in all particulars be conducted and held as provided by law for general or special elections, at which election all qualified voters of said district shall pass upon the question whether such bonds shall be issued or not for the said $40,000.00. It is further ordered that the Clerk of this court shall give notice of such special election by publication thereof in the Manassas Journal, printed and circulating in said county, and the Sheriff of said county shall post notices of said election in at least ten conspicuous points in said School District, which notices shall state the amount of the bonds to be issued, the purpose of the proposed issue thereof, and whether the said bonds shall be a lien on all the property in said District or a part thereof.
