SENATOR BALL SPEAKS HERE

Addressed Meeting at Manass High School last Thursday

Following are extracts from Mr.

Ball's remarks: "I consider it the sacred duty of every candidate for any office representing the people of the State of Virginia, to declare his views on the important questions and issues of the race. "I believe this is even more important in this campaign for the Congressional nomination when so many vital issues are before the peo-We are at a decisive time in the history of the Eighth District when we are about to select a representative to succeed the Hon. R. Walton Moore, who has ably represented us, and our choice must be governed by these principles which ve, as Virginians, live by. How can ect a candidate in accordance with those principles unless we know exactly how he stands and what he proposes to do if he is elected?

In my own case I have made a frank and clear statement of my position on every vital question of the day. I have done so inevery candidate and I mean to continue doing so, so long as I am in the poli-tical field. aign in which I have been a

THREE ESSENTIAL CONSIDERA-TIONS IN THE CHOICE OF A CONGRESSMAN

Perhaps never in the history of the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia have the voters needed to give such careful consideration to the selection of its representative in Congress than at present. Not only are there grave issues at stake that may seriously affect their present prosperity, but the future developfamiliar with the financial and busiment of Northern Virginia will be determined within the next two or three years. The passage of the Cramton Bill means the expenditure of many millions of dollars in developing the sections of Virginia of its small town bankers and mer contiguous to the District and every chants. OLD RESIDENTS HERE

Mr. Peyton Croson, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, was a visitor in the JOURNAL office last week. He had with him his daughter and son-inlaw and their family. Mr. Croson was born on the old place now occu-pied by Mr. C. B. Fansler, at Bull Run. He recollects the use of the dining hall on Red Hill as a hospital room, and states that the blood on the white poplar board was still quite plain fourteen years later. Mr. Croson married a Miss Wells, also of Bull Run, and moved to Illinois years ago. The party have spent the week

LEGAL NOTICES

At a Circuit Court for the County of Prince William, held at the the Court House thereof, on Monday, June 2, 1930.

Present: Hon. W. T. McCarthy, Judge

Peoples National Bank of Manassas, Moffett, Order.

It appearing to the Court that the attachment issued against the estate of the defendant has been returned executed by the sheriff of this county on certain real estate of the said defendant and it further appearing that the said defendant is not a resident of this county it is ordered that an order of publication be made and had against her as follows: Peoples National Bank of Manassas;

Virginia, a corporation, Plaintiff vs. Hattie M. Moffett, Defendant, Attachment.

The object of this suit is to attach the estate, real and personal, of the said defendant within the county of Prince William and to subject the same to the payment of the plaintiff's claim, to wit, for the sum of $273.03. with interest thereon from the 23th day of November, 1927, until paid, and 10 per cent attorney's fees for cost of collection and the cost of this proceeding. And an affidavit having been filed in this cause that the said Hattie M. Moffett is not a resident of this state and that her last known post office address was Bristow, Virginia.

It is therefore ordered that the said Hattie M. Moffett do appear within ten days after the due publication of this order and do what may be necessary to protect her interests. And it is further ordered that a copy of the order be published for four successive weeks in the Manassas Journal, . a newspaper published at Manassas, Prince William County; that a copy be posted by the clerk of this court at the front door of the courthouse as the law directs, and that a copy be mailed by the said clerk to the said Hattie M. THE MANASSAS JOURNAL, MANASSAS, VIRGINIA.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP (Occoouan and Woodbridge)

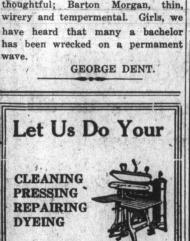

We want to thank the good folks of Twin City for responding so promptly and freely with news. Why we never knew that so much real newsy existed outside of the walls of New York City. A runner reports that Old Man Billy Lynn has corns on his little toes. (Note the little) I bet they are just like our little toes about the size of turtles' heads. We hear that Merchant Wayland refuses to get up and cook breakfast, claims his rib should rise and cook. Jeeminy Crickets, Store keeper Wayland, wake up! Don't you know that woman has been emancipated? Just a thought before we forget a piece of news that is worth remembering. The Twin City apple knockers are on the air, listen in on WJSV. Just turn the dial in the evening until you hear something like June apples falling in a tin pan or June bugs trying to get out of the way of a red-headed woodpecker and you will know that Twin City apple knockers are trying to please their air audience with good old time tunes. Felix Mahogany? Is Professor of this lively bunch of string music. Mrs. Willyum Smith, a dear old soul of uncertain avoirdupois, continues to toddle around and spread sunshine over the blue spots. Woe be unto the black cat that gets in her way! The Silk Stocking Salesman visited Twin City the other day. Very little doing. Mrs. Wyllyum wave. Smith, Mrs. Jake Clarke, Mrs. Wyllyum Terrell and a host of other ladies turned the old codger down flat. Why they just poopooed about wearing silk stockings in the good old summer time. We don't know, but all the ribs must be wearing whoopees, Dear me, have you heard the latest? Well, where have you been? It is not a secret now for we have 'heard the Gossip. Miss Nellie Alling has started to have her teeth plucked. Just a few at a time. It is much and mellons food for Miss Nellie for some time. Boys take notice. Parson Double H. Hoyt had a stop watch used on him the other Sunday while preaching in one of his Twin City churches. The young folks want him to slice his sermons in half. An hour causes their minds to wander. Reminds us when we were young, very little mind to wander, but our big toes had a habit of snoozing thro the ordeal of a ser mon two hours long. Parsons in general, make your sermons short and snappy. This is an age of speed. To hold the young folks, (and that takes in grandpop and grandmom) it is necessary to be brief and interesting. We enjoy a good sermon that keeps pace with knowledge we have great faith in our young folks, so let the old folks that fail to get young get the right slant. We had a young man o visit us the other day. Gordon Leary, fresh from the University of Virginia. Down where the very atmosphere breathes a note of the historic past, where the spirit of Jefferson communes with the youths of our twentieth century.

Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

near future. The President, is a wid awake hustler and believes in getting a death hold on old man opportunity. The company has installed a sliding broth. Judge Smith is keeping quiet and looking wise. Col. Mackey, is talking and back patting the wets. Bro. Keith, a last minute man is for a mint julep during the Congressional spell. Bre'r DeJarnette is so wet that he wears gum boots, and a southwesterner. Quite a damp crowd for a dry season. Old friend Pill, I mean Ball (we always did get round things mixed) states unequivocally, religiously, honestly, manufully and surprising glibly that he is dry. So dry that his wife is afraid to let him wear red flannel. She does not want a potential congressman fricassed tho the medium of spontaneous combustion. By the way, little Jimmie Sheppard says, he doubts if the tariff will have any effect on his living expenses. Jimmie needs a rest. Don't forget about Old Man Billie Lynn's ice plant that his son, Freddy built. Father and son have decided to freeze their way thro life. They have a fine plant. Their customers can get pure Bull Run ice cold and clean. We have in our city a good many young bachelors. We simply mention this so you girls wouldn't forget. Now let us see, there is Guy Fling, fat, fair and Rosey Ellis Davis, serious and thoughtful; Barton Morgan, thin, wirery and tempermental. Girls, we

The boy is quite an improvement when it comes to look upon his poor old dad. Dad is just a sawed off hammered don, flat-footed easy going old scout. His mother, undoubtedly like millions of other mothers dream dreams, and the dreams are mater lizing. The young folks are not going straight to the devil. For, as it has been said: "There is so much bad in the best of us, and so much good in the worst of us, that it does not behoove any of us to talk of the rest of us. And that is a fact. As time flies towards Christmas we are going to tell you readers about the many, many fine boys and girls in Twin City. Jumping Jupiter, we came near forgetting about an important piece of news. The Hornswoggle Construction Co., Inc., offices Twin City, President, Justice Tommy Sheppard. We understand from good authority that the Hornswoggle Const., Co., Inc., of America contemplates large developments in the ruler for the President's use, and is now ready to go into the properlition. We're not going to suggest to you what to take along, or have sent, because you probably have a pretty good idea of that alpineapple syrup, one cup prune juice and three cups cold water. Serve very cold in punch glasses. This will make 12 to 15 glasses. ready. It's a useful hint, how-ever, to remember to leave your correct address with your grocer ever, to remember to leave your correct address with your grocer so that you can be sure of a dependable supply of canned and dried foods if the local dealers don't happen to carry your brands. For, if there are certain brands of foods which you have tested, tried and found true, it's a mighty good thing to stick to them. Not all hands are alike, and the aphorism "old friends, old wines, old books are best" ap-plies equally well to processed foods which have proved them-selves. As canned foods are her-metically sealed, they are as good the day they come out of the can as they were the day they were sealed in. Simple Summer Eeverages Your family should not eat Your family should not eat much heavy meat in summer, so chicken is a good dish to serve. Here are a couple of chicken dishes with all the fuss and feathers of fussing with the feathers left out. Jellied Chicken: Dissolve one package of lemon jello in two cups bolling water, and set aside to cool. Drain a can of aaparagus wines, old books are best" ap plus equally well to processed toods which have proved them serves. As canned foods are her metically sealed, they are as good the day they come out of the can as they were the day they were sealed in. Simple Summer Beverages Summer is the great season for refreshing drinks, and new sup-welcome. Here are two which are simple to make, and good for both grown-ups and children.

Tomato and Cucumber Cordial: | over the rest of the jello, filling Slice one medium cucumber thin with the peeling left on. Sim-three cups strained tomato juice, onnaise garnish. This dish may also be made in one large fancy mold. It serves six.

Southern Creamed Chicken and Corn: Slice the mushrooms from a 4-ounce can, and cook them and one-half cup chopped, blanched almonds in three tablespoons butter for five minutes, being carcful not to brown. Add three tablespoons flour and stir smooth Add the liquor from the can of mushrooms and two cups milk, stirring constantly until smooth and creamy. Add one chicken bouillon cube, salt and paprika to taste, one cup canned corn, the cut-up contents of a 6-ounce can chicken and the slightly beaten egg yolk, and serve this mixture very hot. Serves eight.

Fresh and Canned

Fresh and Canned A good way to vary your salads of fresh truits and vegetables and also to make them go further is to combine them with canned foods. Here's a salad, for in-stance, of ripe tomatoes and canned pears which will serve eight people: Pear and Tomato Salad: Slice chilled ripe tomatoes, and lay one slice in each of eight individual nests of lettuce. Place half a pear from a No. 2 can on top of each, nests of lettuce. Place hair a pear from a No. 2 can on top of each, cut side up. Mix one cream cheese with three tablespoons chill sauce, and pile in the pear cavities. Garnish with strips of canned pimiento, and serve with either mayonnaise or French dressing.*
