E. R. CONNER ADVISES FARMERS COUNTY FAIRS SHOULD NOT BE HELD THIS YEAR

I acquiesce with Governor Pollard about not holding County Fairs this year in the State. With our drought stricken area throughout the Counties in Virginia, I see no reason why we should hold County Fairs. We have no vegetables or fruits, have no grain with the exception of wheat. Our live stock is in no condition to show, unless they have been kept in barns and feed just the same as they are fed in winter. So why should we make a mess of trying to have County Fairs, when we can not have good ones.

I think we should abandon County Fairs and figure out ways and means to winter what live stock the farmers have on hand, so they will not have to sell them at a sacrifice. The people of the State do not realize the serious condition the farmers are facing this winter. I would advise every farmer to save all the feed he can and not sell any live stock, if he can possibly winter them. I do not mean to be a pessimist, but conditions are right here and we must face them.

OLD COURT HOUSE IS DEDICATED

Brentsville Community Acts as Hosts at County Picnic

With several hundred farmers and their families present the annual "Farmers' Annual Picnic of Prince William County was held yesterday at the old Court House at Brentsville.

The historic old building, which has stood since 1822, has been painted without and redecorated within and a part of the morning program was set aside for dedication of the building and grounds as a community centre. Hon. C. A. Sinclair made the dedication speech in which he traced the history of the town of Brentsville and recited many of the things which took place under the roof of the old court house.

The morning program was presided over by Mrs. C. F. M. Lewis, and consisted of short talks by Miss Sarah Pitts, county home demonstration agent, F. D. Cox, county farm agent, a delightful skit by the Nokesville Home Demonstration Club, a rendition of "In the Sticks" by the ladies of the Bethel Demonstration Club, a recitation by Miss Marjorie Middleton, and songs by Miss Celeste Ludwig.

One of the most entertaining features of the day was the Husband-Calling contest which developed a wide variety of calls and methods of summoning the men of the house to dinner. Mrs. M. M. Washington, of Greenwich, captured first place in this event. Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Greenwich, second, and Mrs. Frank Egan, of Brentsville, was third. The judges were D. E. Earhart, C. F. M. Lewis, and R. C. Linton.

The address of the day was delivered by J. H. Quisenberry, district agent of the Eastern District of Virginia for the V. P. I. Extension Department. Mr. Quisenberry lauded the efforts of the farmers and dairy men to meet the problems brought about by the severe drought and urged upon them the necessity for complete cooperation of all units within the county in endeavors for betterment of conditions.

Mrs. John Seymour and her committee chairman functioned well and very comfort was provided for the host of guests, while a diversified program of entertainment planned for the grown-ups as well as for the young folks, was carried forward throughout the day.

MANY EXHIBITS AT MARSHALL

In spite of the dry and hard times, exhibits have been pouring into the Marshall Fair Office at a very encouraging rate, according to J. R. Graham, Secretary. Several groups are exceptionally well filled; notably the hog classes and baby beef classes being much better filled than during the previous four or five years. Entries closed Saturday.

Excellent Beef Classes

The beef classes are unusually well filled with an exceptionally good class of animals. There are 19 Baby Beef Club members. Most of these are exceptionally well fitted and to be shown by 4-H standing calves and give promise of bringing back many fat prizes from the State Fair.

The Green Brothers of Markham are showing six; Roger Gibson, three; B. A. Rucker, two; Lelia Rucker, two; John Rucker, one; and Jack Butler, showing in the open classes as well as two in the 4-H Club. All these are Tulloss Teele and Mr. Singleton Lut-a number to fat cattle shown by Mr. trell. B. A. Rucker, Jr., is showing his herd of pure bred Angus.

Hog Classes Filled

For the first time in many years the hog classes are filled. Many breeders have entered hogs in the five breeds from Kearneysville, West Virginia. Some of them are Herbert W. Everhart, Glen Rock Farm, T. O. Everhart, Mrs. S. W. Landis, and Paul Miller.

Farm Crops Scarce

The farm crops classes are not so well filled because of the continued drought. Not many samples of small grain are entered because the dry weather helped rather than injured such crops.

Races Added

The race schedule should be extremely interesting this year. Five races per day will be run Wednesday and Thursday and four on Friday. Several features are the mule steeplechase with lady riders and the gentlemen's steeplechase. The latter is to be run only if filled, a $100.00 cup being the winner's prize. This should be particularly attractive to everybody and many are expected to enter it.

Horse Show Classes

The horse show classes are well filled with breeders from several states and the District of Columbia showing. Included in the list of exhibitors are: Miss Mae Fernyough, Henry Fernyough, E. W. Winnill, T. K. Butler, D. B. Smith, Miss Elizabeth Hawkins, and Robert H. R. Slickle, Jr., of Warrenton; Frost Brothers, Mrs. D. E. Lee, Mrs. D. C. Sande, Miss Ann Conway Fied, Misses Charlotte and Kitty Smith, E. L. Redmon, and C. Oliver Iselin, Jr., of Middle-

Mr. and Mrs. Henry KuKip and son, William were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. Smith.

Polo Match Games

Another feature of the fair of special interest, will be the polo match game between the Marshall and For-Myer teams. They will play Wednesday afternoon and Friday afternoon 4:15 o'clock. Both of these teams have been playing good polo all the year and should offer a close, well-played pair of games. Those, probably starting for Marshall will be Captain Kirkpatrick, Denny Skinner, John Rawlings, and John F. Walker.

CHICHESTER IS MADE HEAD

Byrd Designates Chairman of Relief Work in Stafford

Hon. Dan M. Chichester of Falmouth has been named by former Governor Harry F. Byrd to head the Drought Relief Work in Stafford County.

Mr. Chichester is the member of the House of Delegates from Prince William and Stafford counties. He is one of the largest farmers and live stock breeders in Stafford, and is also the first vice-president of The People's Bank of Stafford.

JOHN P. THORNHILL

John Robert Thornhill, aged thirty-two years, of Waterfall, died August 6th at the University of Virginia Hospital at Charlottesville after an illness of several years duration.

Mr. Thornhill was a World War veteran, being severely wounded in action, and spent several months in foreign hospitals. He was born and reared in Culpeper County. After his return from overseas he lived in Washington until ill health compelled him to give up his business. During the last three years of his invalidism he made his home at Waterfall, where his kindly manner and genial disposition won him many friends. He was indeed a true gentleman.

Mr. Thornhill was twice married. His first wife, Miss Beulah Barbee, of Front Royal, died in 1923 leaving one son, John Robert Thornhill Jr. In 1925 he married Miss Pauline Josson of Waterfall, who survives with one son, Philip Moore Thornhill. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Wade Yowell, four sisters, Mrs. William Coppage, Mrs. Robert Gaines, Mrs. Terrell Weakley, and Mrs. George Nethers, and one brother, Samuel Yowell.

The funeral was held at Etlan Methodist Church. Services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. V. H. Council, assisted by the pastor of the church. The last rites were performed by members of the Culpeper Post of the American Legion. A salute to the dead was fired, and taps were sounded as their comrade was lowered to his last resting place in the family lot in Etlan Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Everett, Ocie and Cecil Coppage, George P. Fish, Robert Wayland, and Casper Tanner.

BOARD HOLDS QUIET SESSION

Urges Teachers To Practice Economy

The county school board held its August meeting this week. The September meeting will be held on the afternoon on September 8, the Board having decided to attend the Teachers' Institute in the morning of that day.

The annual financial statement of the Board and the audit of the same were duly approved.

A committee from Bennett School composed of Mrs. V. V. Gilman, chairman, Mrs. Emma Jamison and Dr. Stewart Melby, have appeared before the Board and requested certain repairs on the school. The Board appointed a committee with authority to make such repairs as funds will permit.

Minnyek Wood was employed to drive the county bus for the Green-wood-Cannon Branch route. It is noted that this year the children at Cannon Branch will be brought in on the bus trip.

A resolution was passed by the Board requesting all teachers to conserve school supplies, books, etc., and to make use of second hand books wherever practicable.

Outstanding features of the drought situation in Virginia for the week all the general gratification over the appointment of former Governor Harry Flood Byrd as Chairman of the Drought Relief Commission of Virginia and the realization of the fact that in many sections a situation has been reached where no amount of rain at this late time can greatly ameliorate conditions.

Federal Road Aid

State officials are studying the recent announcement of the Federal government in reference to increase of road funds in the drought areas as a means of relieving unemployment. Chairman Byrd and State Highway Commission Shirley have been conferring on this matter and it is stated that a conference with Secretary Hyde, of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is being arranged.

The mere announcement of Federal allocation of $2,000,000.00 to Virginia is not thought to constitute immediate assistance to the farmer, since the money would not be released in time to aid in the present emergency and at best would only constitute an indirect means of assistance.

C. and O. Railroad Helps

Farmers in the area served by the C. and O. are very appreciative of the cooperation volunteered by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad in offering reduced freight rates on hay, feed and water into Virginia drought areas and on shipments of live stock into areas where feed is available.

County Plans Maturing

With many months of relief work in prospect, the work of effecting an efficient local relief organizations is rapidly taking shape. In its last analysis, each state will be obliged to work out its own salvation with such aid and technical advice as can be supplied by the Federal Government. Virginia, under the guiding hand of Harry Flood Byrd, a recognized genius for efficient organization, will, it is widely believed, find new paths to drought relief. Other states, it is certain, are watching the Old Dominion in the hopes that methods, immediate and beneficial, will mature, which may be applied to relief of their own distress.

GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC
TEA SALES IN JULY

The Great Atlantic Pacific Tea Company reports greater sales for July, 1930, than for any other July in the history of the company; the increase in dollar sales being 3.26 per cent over sales for the corresponding period a year ago, and the increase in physical volume being 14.33 per cent.

Dollar sales for the five weeks in July, 1930, were $96,723,670, compared with $93,671,398 for the five weeks in July 1929, an increase of $3,052,272. Tonnage sales, showing actual amount of goods sold, were 488,682 tons, in July of this year compared with 427,481 tons in the same period last year, an increase of 61.251.

The percentage of increase in tonnage sales is greater than the percentage of increase in dollar sales because of the decline in food prices since a year ago, and is a reflection of the higher purchasing power of the retail food dollar.

"Retail prices may parallel as nearly as possible the decline of prices in primary markets, and the present high level of wages should be maintained if business is soon to recover from the depression of the last few months," the Company said in a statement issued today. "Lower prices raise the purchasing power of wages, and stimulate trade by bringing more commodities within buying reach of a larger number of consumers."

Average weekly sales for the five weeks period in 1930 were $19,344,734, compared with $18,734,280 in 1929, an increase of $610,454. Average weekly tonnage for the 1930 period was 97,736, and 85,486 for the corresponding period of 1929, an increase of 12.250.

AMERICA GOES ENDURANCE
CRAZY

America has gone endurance-mad. Pedaling bicycles on lengthy non-stop rides, tree and flagpole sitting, dance marathoning, "talk-till-they-sleep," roller skating and airplane contests—these and other forms of endurance stunts that have never before been attempted are the order of the day in pursuing this new fad. An article in the Magazine of The Washington Star next Sunday describes these Nationwide contests on which reports are pouring in like the returns from a presidential election. The craze has become an epidemic.

HORSE SHOE IMBEDDED IN FORD WINDSHIELD

A horse shoe may be lucky for some people, but for Mrs. E. Holtman, of St. Louis, it might have been very unlucky had it not been for the shatterproof windshield in her Ford Sedan. Mrs. Holtman was driving along Clayton Road, a concrete highway, when suddenly the horse shoe struck the windshield and lodged snugly in the shatterproof glass. It was a lucky break for Mrs. Holtman and the two adults and three children who accompanied her, for not one of them was hurt. The car continued for 165 miles with the proverbial lucky shoe still in the windshield.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE SALVATION OF THE CHIEF—This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief—1 Tim. 1:15.

“The grace that sought and found me alone can keep me clean.”

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER

In spite of the fact that the metropolitan press now reaches into nearly every town and village in the country, the local newspaper in the United States is each year getting on a firmer foundation and becoming more and more useful to its home community.

It may be said that the day of the metropolitan newspaper is at hand. This is true, but it is equally true that the day of the local newspaper is here too.

The metropolitan daily with its world-wide news, its comic sheets and its magazine supplements, while of course essential in our modern civilization, cannot take the place of the home newspaper. The very fact that the big city daily must cover a broad field forbids its becoming local in any sense, and it is in the local field where the home newspaper dominates and where it finds its true usefulness.

For, after all, it is the home news which is most important to most of us. We have the greatest interest in the community in which we live, and in the people who are our neighbors and friends. And it is the local newspaper which records the happenings of the folks at home, and in addition fosters the civic pride and progressive spirit of the community.

We frequently hear it said that the old time independent spirit of the newspaper is gone, that its editorial policy is now subservient to the business office. Yet this is not true. There is more unselfish idealism in the average local newspaper than in any other business enterprise. It frequently speaks out in the way which it believes will be for the good of the nation and of the community, regardless of what the consequences may be from a business standpoint. This is more than the average business man will do or can do.

Of course the local newspaper is now on a firm business basis. This is why it is improving from year to year, why it is giving its readers a constantly better newspaper, and why it is increasing its influence for good in the community. But the local newspaper is still the principal booster for the community, and it does its boosting often without any hope of material reward.

Editor, Journal:

In 1871 Mr. and Mrs. Jones Greene in order to escape the Maine winters, came to Virginia with their five children. The following year, Mr. Greene passed away. Mrs. Greene remaining on the farm known as “Birmingham.” In a few years the son, William, (grown to manhood) graduated from Columbia University (Washington), practicing law in Manassas and vicinity, when tuberculosis ended his career in 1920. Mrs. Greene died while on a visit in Washington in 1900. Mrs. Isaac Baldwin (Wilmer Greene) died a few years later at the Battle Creek Mich. Sanitarium. She will be remembered by many in your county and town. On the 16th of July Charlena (Greene) Ketcham died at her home in Capitol Heights, Md. She had been in failing health for a number of years. Thirty years of her seventy-eight were spent largely in Manassas. Services were held in Washington and she was laid to rest beside father, mother, sister and brother in Alexandria. Surviving relatives are her husband, Theo. Ketcham; son, Walter, residing in California (who came on at her death) and a daughter, Mrs. Maude Porter; one grandchild; two sisters, Estelle Day and C. S. Thorp, Long Beach, Calif. For we who have lived to see the passing of nearly the entire family of nine (two are buried in Maine) it is pathetic. I do not wish to be the last leaf on the tree but I propose to keep interested in life—in current events, in youth, in everything worthwhile—and be cheerful to the end.

A little more laughter,
A few more tears
And we shall have told our increasing years.

The book is closed
And the prayers are said
And we are a part
Of the countless dead.
Thrice happy then
If someone can say
I lived because she has passed that way.

Estelle Greene Day.

TELEPHONE OPERATOR RECEIVES MEDAL

Mrs. Vera C. MacMillan, night chief operator at Winchester, receiving Vail medal from John A. Remon, general manager of the Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. of Virginia. In the picture left to right) are Harry Flood Byrd, former Governor of Virginia; C. W. Hollis, chief of police, and F. A. Shryock, mayor of Winchester, who attended the luncheon honoring Mrs. MacMillan, who was instrumental in helping to apprehend a burglar who was robbing the safe of a creamery in January, 1929.

MEDAL PRESENTATION AT WINCHESTER

Mrs. Vera C. MacMillan, night chief operator of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia at Winchester has been presented with a Vail medal in recognition of her noteworthy public service in the apprehension of a burglar last year. The presentation was made by John A. Remon, Richmond, general manager of the telephone company at a luncheon at the George Washington Hotel at Winchester, August 7.

Those present in addition to Mrs. MacMillan and Mrs. Remon included: Former Governor of Virginia, Harry Flood Byrd; Thomas B. Byrd, Mayor of Winchester; C. W. Hollis, Chief of Police; J. T. Yates, manager of the telephone company; and Mrs. Catherine Forney, Mrs. MacMillan's mother; Miss Bernice Henshall, chief operator, E. A. Growl, wire chief, Winchester; L. M. Griffin, general traffic manager, Richmond; and W. E. Perdue, traffic superintendent, Alexandria.

Mr. Remon, who made the presentation of the medal was introduced by Manager Yates.

In complimenting Mrs. MacMillan on her achievement, Mr. Remon said: "This thought of service first is more than devotion to an organization. It comes in part from the intelligent recognition of the vital importance of telephone service in the lives of others, and to the safety and well being of the community."

"It is not a medal for heroism alone; it does not encourage unnecessary risks. It is given as a reward to those employees who display clear thinking and a willing spirit of service in an emergency to the end that the lives and property of the public or members of the telephone family are safeguarded."

"Vail medals are awarded in recognition of unusual acts or service, which conspicuously illustrate the high ideals that governed the policy of the late Theodore N. Vail as to public service."

"Mr. Vail, as is generally known, was, up to the time of his death, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. Vail medals which honor his memory are awarded to employees of the Bell System as a mark of special recognition of acts that strikingly illustrate devotion to the highest ideals of duty and obligation on the part of telephone employees—acts coming from a sense of individual responsibility in the public service."

The citation accompanying the medal reads:

"For the safeguarding of a community by prompt and intelligent action."

On January 20, 1929, at Winchester, Virginia, she (Mrs. MacMillan) answered a line signal, and, receiving no response, listened intently. She heard sounds as of a hammer on steel and notified the police, who effected the capture of a robber in the commission of a crime."

TOWN PROGRESS TALKS

When he considers the invasion of his field by foreign stores and mail order concerns, our home merchant sometimes feels like the man in the cartoon, who is unwillingly sharing his drink with a strange elephant. While the invaders may be formidable, yet they are vulnerable, and a weapon is at hand which will do the work if wielded with determination. A regular space in this newspaper filled each issue with news of your store, with what you have to sell and the prices, will give the hook to competition. If you wish, we will write your ads, and make them so intriguing that your customers will be half sold before they enter your store. Call on us—we know how and we can do it.

Favorite Recipes of a Famous Chef

As Told to Anne Baker
By FREDERIC FRANCOIS
GUILLOT
Chef, Hotel Astor, New York City

Mr. Guillot here presents two recipes for dishes which he considers especially delicious and appropriate for the family table.

Chef Guillot

Cucumber Aspic Salad—Peel one large cucumber and chop fine. Season with salt and pepper and let stand for one-half hour in four tablespoons warm vinegar. Add two table-spoons lemon juice and one-third cup sugar to one-fourth cup boiling water. Mix with liquid drained from cucumbers. Add two table-spoons gelatin that have been soaked for five minutes in one-half cup cold water. Add few drops green vegetable coloring. Cool and strain through cheesecloth over cucumber. Place in well-chilled mold. Keep in refrigerator until firm. Garnish with small balls of cream cheese. Serve on lettuce with French dressing.

Baked Tomatoes—Peel and cut in thick slices six firm, ripe tomatoes. Line bottom of casserole with layer of tomatoes. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Rub together four table-spoons butter, one teaspoon sugar, one cup bread crumbs. Spread the mixture thickly over tomatoes. Add second layer of tomatoes. Dot with butter, sprinkle with salt, pepper and dry bread crumbs, and bake for twenty minutes.

A GIANT POOL OF HAY PURCHASES

State officials have requested the VSS to pool the hay purchases of Virginia farmers. In so far as is practical, hay purchased by the VSS will be distributed through the agencies now servicing VSS supplies.

Estimates from Distributors indicate a hay volume of from 3000 to 4000 cars. The necessary machinery to efficiently and economically purchase this hay and safeguard its quality is now being set up.

Worthwhile savings can unquestionably be accomplished by this method of pooling the state's purchases of hay.

DELAY BUYING

The emergency freight rate reductions are not yet available on shipments originating west of the Mississippi. This is where most of our hay must come from and we suggest delay in buying until the western carriers apply the reduced rates. Hay should then be lower. If immediate shipment is needed communicate with

Sensational Conley Acrobatic Trio at Virginia State Fair, Sept. 8th to 13th

Realizing that the public, above everything else, likes to be thrilled in its entertainment, Charles A. Somma, managing director of the Virginia State Fair, has engaged as one of its feature acts in front of the grand stand every afternoon and evening during Fair Week at Richmond, Va., September 8th to 13th, inclusive, the Conley Sensational Acrobatic Trio.

Performing on two slender threads of steel high in the air, the three Conleys are said to introduce an act entirely new in the way of aerial entertainment. "Fun in the Air" is the title of their act and the "iron jaw" feats of the trio, gymnastic manoeuvres on tapering poles while suspended in the air, and the death-defying feats are reputed to be nothing short of marvelous.

Managing Director Somma stated that the Conley Trio, in his opinion, represents one of the best aerial acrobatic acts ever to appear in Richmond and will add considerably to the entertainment features which will be presented in front of the grand stand during the entire Fair Week of September 8th to 13th, inclusive.

IT'S WISE TO  CHOOSE A SIX

Announcing a new production record

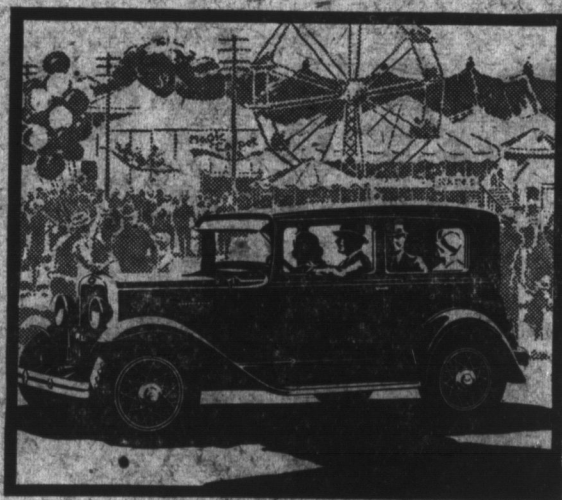

2,000,000 Chevrolet Sixes now on the road

Since January, 1929, Chevrolet has produced and sold over 2,000,000 six-cylinder automobiles—nearly five times as many as any other manufacturer has ever built in an equal length of time.

These 2,000,000 buyers have chosen Chevrolet because it offers many desirable qualities not obtainable in any other car so low in price—

—the smoothness, silence and flexibility of a modern six-cylinder valve-in-head engine—the greater comfort and roadability of a modern, full-length chassis—and the style, safety and distinction of bodies by Fisher.

Yet, despite these fine car advantages, the Chevrolet Six is unusually economical. Its gas, oil, tire and upkeep economy is unsurpassed. And any model can be bought for a small down payment and easy monthly terms! Come in today. Learn for yourself why two million buyers have agreed—"it's wise to choose a Six."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the large, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. TWIN CITY GOSSIP
Woodbridge and Occoquan

Twin City is a fine place to spend a vacation. Quiet and peaceful, interesting and thought provoking. Occoquan Creek, Occoquan Bay and the broad Potomac. Fishing and crabbing. Soft crabs have been plentiful this season. Here are acres of diamonds, life the crust simply an outer shell, probably rustic in appearance, but beneath, the wealth of a world at our feet. Thought spans the universe and builds great temples at very little cost. The diamonds of the Transvaal, the gold of the Klondike, all impotent to make us rich unless we have the power of thought. We were so impressed with the natural scenery, the garden of Eden surroundings, everything so real, yet so picturesque and perfect in its setting—O well, we just broke out in a typewriter to tell the whole story. While sitting upon the river bank, Where the vegetation grows thick and rank,
Watching the tides ebb and flow;
Drift wood come and go;
Great waves dash to foam upon the shore,
Receding, we read in the sands a history of ancient lore.

High upon the rugged hillside
The waters creep, the incoming tide
Fills the fissures of the rocks; hides the sand,
And covers the nearby lowland.
The sun crossing the meridian, hangs in the west;

A gentle zephyr swings the baby orioles in their nest,
All nature seems peaceful, as we watch the seagulls swiftly glide
Close to the surface of the incoming tide.
A water lily with head high,
Swims noiselessly and swiftly by.
Over on a lily pad, by an old sunken boat,
Sits a monstrous big bull-frog, wearing his pretty green coat.
A rustle in the thickets, a chip-munk peeps out,
As if to see what all this stillness is about.
High up in the branches of an old oak tree,
Whose roots are washed by the rising sea,
An acorn falls, a squirrel is heard to bark;
And over on the lea the low sweet notes of the meadow lark.

Close by we hear the cooing of the mourning dove;
The wooing and romance of bird love,
Far up in the azure blue sky
A lone eagle moves majestically by;
The king of all feathered tribes,
The emblem of power and majesty rides.
Out mid-way of the stream
A splash, a ripple, a silvery gleam;
A big black bass makes a playful leap
Into the air, from out of the deep.
The sun in the west sinking low,
Cast its dark ghostly shadows before.
We awake, as if from a trance, evening is drawing nigh;
The quiet peaceful scene we leave with a sigh.
As the tide in its ceaseless journey to and fro,
Ebbs and returns to the sea once more,
We homeward wend our way
For, in dreamland we spent the day.
By the way, most all you folks heard about the serious accident in Twin City the other day? Rumor that Doc Hornbaker's dome is as slick as a polished billiard ball, and on this improvised skating rink a fly slipped up and broke his neck. The fly's, of course).

Double A. Davis reports that the drought was caused by a combination of dry drizzles and hot air.
Eastman Keys, of Dumfries, headed a migration the other evening and set his compass due north. First and only stop Lyric Theatre, Twin City. Eastman and his followers were so well pleased with the show they decided to return at least once a week and tell their dear friend to follow.
We want to say to the good folks in Dumfries, that the doors of Twin City are standing ajar. By all means come, every one welcome. We have a lot of fine young men. Some of 'em are like Barkis, "Willing". Some of 'em needs a full moon with the rays of romance darting out from three hundred and sixty points. We have a lot of pretty girls. Some so pretty and dainty looking as to keep the old harvest moon winking and blinking, when they step out for a stroll after sundown. Dan Cupid is the spirit of romance, his arrows are sharp and pointed. A wound in the heart from Cupid's bow, will bring you a blessing we know.

Another one of our Twin City Boys who will answer 'here' when the honor roll is called. James Elke, a son of James Elke, Sr., from the Fatherland. Elke, Sr., can say, "Ich Dieh" just right. When he says it in English, we hear a guttural sound very much like apple butter sputtering over, "Me Surb." James is a fine boy. Graduated with honors and won a scholarship from Alexandria "Hi." He is now attending Georgetown University. You bet your happy life we will hear from Jimmy by and by.
"Full many a gem of purest ray serene,
The dark, unfathomed caves of ocean bear."
