He served for a time as Educational Director of the American Army in France and Germany.

Col. Moudy has been on the lecture platform for a number of years, and his educational lectures have met with continuous praise from the press, public and pulpit. He has delivered more than 2,000 addresses before high schools, colleges, churches and civic organizations. Criticisms from the press are, "that no true American can afford to miss this educational lecture."

The public is invited to hear the speaker.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Mrs. George Delaney, County chairman for Prince William, has appointed sub-chairmen in each community and all citizens are urged to join.

U. D. C. MEETS WITH
MRS. NEWMAN

A most interesting meeting of the Manassas Chapter U. D. C. was held Wednesday, November 5, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Newman on Battle Street.

The president, Mrs. C. A. Sinclair, Sr., presided in her usual charming manner for the evening. The members responded to her call for service with a spirit of hearty co-operation and various new committees were appointed to carry on the work. With pride this chapter has always responded to the causes sponsored by the Daughters of the Confederacy, and the following delegates and alternates were elected to represent us at the General Convention to be held in Asheville, N. C., beginning November 19: First delegate, Mrs. C. A. Sinclair; second delegate, Mrs. E. L. Byrd; third delegate, Mrs. Albert Speiden; fourth delegate, Mrs. R. S. Hynson; first alternate, Mrs. W. A. Newman; second alternate, Mrs. R. S. Orey; third alternate, Mrs. A. O. Weedon; fourth alternate, Miss Nollie Nelson.

The Chapter was called on to give up two faithful members last month, Mrs. Barbour, and Mrs. Cockrell. We will ever feel the loss of these two Southern Patriots, always loyal to the cause of right. The president urged that each member try to bring in three new ones by June 1. The present roll is 83.

ANNUAL MEET

Excellent Attendance from All Over County.

OCOQUAN WINS BANNER

The Four-H club boys and girls ruled Manassas Saturday last. At an early hour trucks operating on a pre-arranged schedule began arriving in town, with banners waving and crowds of smiling and happy youngsters crowding them to capacity.

Rev. J. R. Cooke opened the exercises which were held at the local high school. Miss Helen Lloyd, county president, presided at the roll call. Outstanding club members who spoke were Miss Mary Glenn, of Ocoquan, Mr. Tom Tyler, of Haymarket, Miss Geraldine Shepherd, of Nokesville and Miss Janet Russell, of Ocoquan.

Hon. C. A. Montgomery, who has charge of the activities of the boys and girls over the entire state, awarded prizes for the best vegetable garden. Minnieville made a high record, placing John Koovach first and Edward Russell, third. Second place went to Gale Bowman, of Aden.

Miss Geraldine Shepherd received the prize offered by the Prince William Homemakers Association for the highest score in the room improvement contest. Second prize went to Miss Mary Glenn, who won the prize offered by the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers Club. Honorable mention in this contest went to Miss Dorothy McMichael, Miss Janet Russell, who recently won a trip to Massachusetts as one of the leading 4-H Club workers of Virginia, and Miss Mary Cooke. Mr. Philip scored first in raising calves and Mr. William Dogan, in poultry production.

Other special prizes were won by Misses Katherine Boley, Aurelia Dennis and Lorraine Heflin.

One of the leading events of the day was the presentation of the prize banner to Miss Mary Glenn, president of the Ocoquan Club.

Meeting of County Agricultural Council and County Drought Relief Committee at Manassas Town Hall, Tuesday, Nov 11

A meeting of farmers, members of the county drought relief committee and members of the county agricultural advisory council has been called for Tuesday, November 11, at one o'clock in the afternoon. There will be a general discussion of what can be done to relieve the drought problem in Prince William County and suggestions will be in order as to what can and should be done.

Because of the fact that all communities of the county were not represented at the meeting of the members of the agricultural advisory council who were to have met to-day, the setting up of an agricultural program of extension work was postponed until Tuesday afternoon in order that all sections of county could have representatives present to decide on what work should be pushed by the community agricultural committees and the county agent, assisted by specialists from the State Extension Division. A report of the past year's extension work will be given by F. D. Cox at this meeting.

REPUBLICANS DEFEATED
IN MANY STATESDEMOCRATS GAIN CONTROL OF CONGRESS

The predicted reaction against Hooverism came to pass on Tuesday when the electorate of the county registered a mighty protest against the policies of the Republican Party and elected Democratic candidates. With many precincts to be heard from the returns indicate sufficient gains for the Democratic Party to destroy Republican control and to justify confidence in the success of the national Democratic campaign two years hence.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Governor of New York has a lead of half a million votes. Coolidge, the Democratic nominee for Senator in Massachusetts has won. In Illinois the picturesque J. Ham Lewis, Democrat, has defeated Mrs. Ruth McCormick by an overwhelming majority. In Alabama the regular Democrat, John H. Bankhead, has defeated Heflin, and in Maryland, Gov. Ritchie has pooled an enormous lead over his opponent.

The Virginia Vote

In Virginia Manalocus Lankford, Republican Congressman from Norfolk has defeated his Democratic opponent, Joseph T. Deal. In other Virginia Districts the Democratic majorities have been very decisive. In the Eighth District, where the Republicans had concentrated their efforts to hold Fairfax and Arlington, the sweeping victory by Judge Howard Smith surprised even the most optimistic Democrat, and attested the personal popularity of the Judge. Arlington County, sometimes Republican at least in national elections, gave Judge Smith a vote of 2281 to 632 for Dr. Brooks. Alexandria City gave Smith 2021 to 222 for Brooks. In Fairfax, where the Republicans expected and where they secured their largest vote, Judge Smith polled 1769 votes to 872 for Dr. Brooks, with one small precinct unreported. United States Senator Carter Glass has received a huge majority. In Prince William County Judge Smith received 951 and Dr. Brooks 121.

In Arlington County the manager form of local government was adopted and at Fairfax Courthouse the bond issue for water was carried.

COURT AGAIN
IN SESSION

Several Minor Cases Settled

Court has been in special session yesterday and to-day. Several condemnation orders were entered in prohibition cases.

In the matter of Slade vs. Zimmerman, a jury with J. H. Burke, foreman, decided that the defendant recover his costs of the plaintiff.

The case of Lucy Barnes vs. G. C. Russell and M. A. Lynch was dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff.

J. H. Burke was awarded a judgment of $904.06 against W. E. Goode.

A jury with J. B. Johnson, foreman, decided that W. E. Sherry, on trial for prohibition offense, pay a fine of 50 and be given a suspended sentence of thirty days. His counsel (Walter Oliver) moved for a new trial, and Judge McCarthy will rule on this tomorrow morning.

A number of confessed judgments were entered in the records.

FINDS OLD RELIC

Mr. C. N. Crabill called at the Journal Office Tuesday and presented us with an interesting relic of the days of 1861. In the heart of a white oak log 17 1/2 inches thick he had found a camp fork, with wire handle, of the type used in military camps. Rust had made considerable inroad, but Mr. Crabill's count of 62 growth rings confirmed the fact that the fork had been used in a sapling at least that many years ago. The relic was found on the Ben Lomond farm.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP
(OCOQUAN AND WOODBRIDGE)

I have gotten myself in a mischief of a fix. Had to take off my shoes more than a dozen times in the past two days. Have worn out six pairs of shoe strings and a perfectly good disposition. That "He-Herr, or "Herr he" stuff is still a moot question. Friend Allen admits that he is unable to say, for sure whether, Herr is he or he is Herr. I have turned the question over to a noted anthropologist (B. W. Brunt and he says, "Nemarough."

A well known mammalogist (Jugs Embrey) says, "Probably mammalia."

While on the other hand C. S. Pierce a well known entomologist says, "He believes 'Herr' to be sub-genera, insects of the three segment type-head, thorax and abdomen."

As a last resort I have turned the question over to a paleontologist by the name of Doc Malcolm and he gives a very lucid explanation, coughed in plain English:

"Herr is not her,
For, if he was Herr
Then, she would be he,
And if he was she
He could not be Herr."

Ed, darn it all, ask your wife, my feet are tired, tee hee.

A peep into the past and I see things that have passed into the limbo of forgetfulness.

What has become of the old Duck saw and Uncle Mose. A tea made from wild cherry bark. A small piece of alum was highly recommended for sore throat. A piece of red flannel soaked in kerosene and turpentine, then rubbed with mutton tallow, covered the chest of all delicate children. Snow and hog's lard boiled together to form a thick paste was a sure cure for chilblains. The leaves of the Jimson weed masher and bound to the heel where a stone bruise was giving you fits was said, by those not suffering with a stone bruise to be instant relief. We never see the old bandanna handkerchief filled with eggs coming to the country store now adays. Green Coffee, 9 cents per lb. the old coffee and pepper mills are relics of the past. The old spinning wheel can be found at the antique shops. And those full length woolen socks grandmother used to knit. A woman with three petticoats on now is hard to find. Genuine old country tobacco mixed with a little blackstrap molasses and apple brandy, made into a twist, placed in a dugout white oak log, there to age and ripen for future chawing, was classed not only as a necessity, but a luxury as well. Pickling, soaking and smoking the Potomac herring seems to be a lost art. And that barbarous practice of boring holes in a cow's horns and splitting her tail, has been displaced by intelligence. In Tidewater Virginia hogs were never killed when the tide was ebbing, at this stage the meat would draw up when cooked.

And do you remember that old Sunday School teacher, that used to tell us about woman being made from the rib of a man, and man having one rib less than woman! Along about this time life ever lasting was smoked, on a sly, by the youngsters. Every Saturday evening was a holiday, bath and clean clothes. Home made apple pies and ginger bread. Mass production of pies and cakes, can openers and salted peanuts were unknown. Poke berry juice for Rumatiz, and blue mass for a sluggish liver. Mosquitoes were a pest to be tolerated, flies a plague and bed bugs could not be gotten rid of. Science was a fake and old man Darwin was in league with the devil.

Camp meeting was a gala season, plenty to eat, including watermelons and pretty girls.

Who stuck that pin on me!
Have I been dreaming; wonder what I have said!

O well, we live in the twentieth century, but do we think?

By the way folks, you know Louis Edward Strother, often referred to as the "Land Baron of Cow Pasture Run."

SSHHH! This is for the girls only! Louis Edward has remodeled his house; chippendals. Hipplewhite and green Anne predominate on the innards with beautiful old new England hooked rugs of mellow colors—in fact taste and charm is lavishly displayed; even a persian pray rug reflects, "Our Home."

Now, here are the facts in the case: Louis Edward Strother needs a help mate. The Garden of Eden days are over; woman is no longer made from the rib of lowly man. L. E. S. desires, requires and must have a companion. Girls under 74 kindly get a permanent, (wig if needed) and have that loose tooth replaced, iron out the wrinkles and take a few asafetida pills from your rumatiz, and if that wart is still on the end of your nose consult a dermatologist. Enter thou into the joys of affectionate companionship, for, to be an old man's darling in these days of drought and depression should be the aim of those who have missed the spirit of youth. Louis Edward, how about a commission providing, she does not suffer from hay fever. That's a go!

Jakey Clarke, our lovable postmaster, says, "Flounders are the fish for a man to eat that has past the tender age of sixty." Well, Jakey knows for he has the speed of a diamond back.

That was an awful thing that happened to my old friend Tou Pee Davis the other day. Tou Pee was dashing out to the filling station to wait on a customer when Oswald, his pet woodpecker, proceeded to rap on his cranium. "You see," explains Tou Pee, "I had my hat off."

To the followers of Izaak Walton I commend Ocoquan river. Harry Burdette, the other day landed 14 large black bass and Wade Hammill dittoed with 15.

Just a few more words anent the drought:

Candidates are announcing themselves

Political aspirants are surging in the breast of our Prince William Citizens;

Persimmon trees are full of fruit Acorns are plentiful.

Fur bearing animals are heavy furred;

Five sure signs of a hard winter.

Soon I hope to give you a list of our potential candidates, who aspire to the seats of the mighty in Prince William County, with comments.

GEORGE DENT.

TALKING HONEY
(No. 4)

By Arthur Brady

Before honey production became the extensive industry that it is today, the beekeeper kept his bees all in one place, often in the garden or the back yard. The extracting and other work of preparing the honey for market was done in a shed or in the family kitchen.

As the industry grew, and especially since the automobile makes travel swift and easy, an extensive beekeeper may have his bees in "out-yards" or farms, each containing many hives, and many miles apart. It then becomes a problem to harvest the honey. The common way is to have a portable extracting outfit and travel from yard to yard, extracting the honey in the bee-yard, sometimes in a tent or shed.

While many beekeepers still extract their honey that way, many also have a central extracting plant at some convenient location, in a tight building. Usually it is equipped with electric power, a steam boiler and running water, with sewer to carry off the waste. The honey is loaded on trucks at the outyards, carefully covered with a tarpaulin to keep out dust and dirt on the way, and hauled to the central plant. Here the unloading is done inside the building, and the honeycombs put through the extractor. The liquid honey is now run into big receiving tanks, being strained through two thicknesses of cheesecloth or wire strainers on its way. It is then ready to be drawn off, into cans and pails, and packed for market. At the close of the day's run the extractors and floors are thoroughly washed down with steam or hot water, so that everything about the place may be kept sweet and clean. Such methods produce a high grade of honey, well worth the extra trouble involved.

LITTLE GIRL 10, EATS SO MUCH MOTHER AMAZED

Vinol supplies the body important whittled liver peptone. This is just mineral elements of iron, calcium what thin, nervous children or adults need, and the QUICK results are surprising. The very FIRST bottle brings sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Vinol tastes delicious!

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents sell their children, remember a Bible education each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

HUMILITY AND EXALTATION—Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.—1 Peter 5:6,7.

PRAYER:

"Glory, laud and honor, Unto Christ the King."

Congressman-Elect Smith

The election of Howard Smith gives general satisfaction. The puerile tactics of his opponents and his consistent attitude of dignity and party loyalty gave an emphasis to his campaign that impressed very favorably even those who opposed him.

His friends are keenly gratified and the gentlemanly element of the opposition openly expresses admiration.

The Journal congratulates the Eighth District and wishes the young congressman-elect all possible success.

TOWN GRAVE-DIGGERS

In nearly every community may be found quite a number of persons who consider themselves leading citizens, but who in truth are helping to dig a grave for their town.

They do it through their failure to support the institutions which make the town what it is. They do it by sending away for merchandise which might be bought with equal advantage at home. They do it frequently through thoughtlessness, but often through sheer disregard for the welfare of the community of which they are a part.

The doctrine of buying at home is not advanced solely in the interest of individual merchants. It is advocated because every citizen of a town is to a certain extent dependent upon any other citizen for his own prosperity. Business men are sometimes as greatly at fault as any one else in the matter of out-of-town trading.

If the shoe dealer sends away for his automobile tires, and the automobile man sends away for his furniture, and the furniture man sends away for his clothing, and so on, how can they expect to build local prosperity?

All the fine talk about civic pride that we may indulge in will never make a town, so long as the life blood of the community—the cold cash—is spent elsewhere.

A man may make boosting speeches until he is black in the face, but unless he spends his money where he makes it he is a home-town grave-digger.—The Journal—Virginian, Abingdon, Va.

RELIEF FROM CURSE

OF CONSTIPATION

A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement, without forming a habit of ever-increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

"Join Red Cross." Urges Vice President Curtis

America's prominent citizens join in urging all men and women to become members of the Red Cross during the period of the annual roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

The Honorable Charles Curtis, Vice President of the United States, says: "The American Red Cross is in a position to and does more to relieve those stricken by misfortune than any other organization in the world. Its splendid work has done much to bring a friendly feeling in all parts of the world for the people of our country because they sustain the American Red Cross. This wonderful organization is entitled to the liberal support of our people."

The Honorable Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, says: "No one can predict when or where disaster may occur or acute emergency arise. The American Red Cross represents our community insurance against such misfortunes. The organization stands ready at all times to render speedy relief to any stricken area in the relief of disaster in foreign countries. The Red Cross is the agency which carries on when emergency has disrupted customary modes and means of life in a community."

Motor Injuries Treated By Red Cross First Aid

In line with its work for the preservation of life and prevention of accidental death, the American Red Cross has adopted a new program of emergency first aid stations on the highways of the nation, where victims of automobile injuries will be helped.

In the last year 31,000 persons were killed as the result of automobile accidents and more than 1,000,000 were injured. As its contribution to the nation wide safety campaigns of other organizations, the Red Cross will aid through the emergency stations. A number already are in operation by Chapters on such important traffic arteries as the Westchester County, N. Y., park system, the Valley Forge and Gettysburg highways in Pennsylvania and the White Horse Pike in New Jersey, connecting with Atlantic City.

MUSIC! MUSIC!

Manassas ought to have a good band and there are plenty of people especially boys and girls of school age that should be playing some instrument. A home or Sunday School orchestra is possible.

Prof. West, a noted band master is locating here. A pupil of New England best teachers over 40 years experience in teaching young and old bands, all instruments and a soloist violin, clarinet, saxophones, flutes, horns, drums, corsets, trombones, baritone, bass, etc. Now is the time to buy while times are hard. High grade best makes can be bought for about 1/2 actual cost. My terms are very reasonable as I am also teaching in other towns. Let me explain how all this can be done. What would be nicer than a series of concerts by Manassas own band the coming summer? Experience unnecessary. Call anytime.

Respectfully yours,
HENRY WEST,

Senger says his ointment cures "The Piles." Even has the check to say try it on the "No Cure No Pay" plan. And with all that check, he says he thinks a man would show a terrible check to cure the piles with his ointment and not be willing to pay the price of the ointment. Well, possibly he would providing he does not wear whiskers. 25-2

Monthly Report of Home Demonstration Agent, for October

No. of Girls Groups met, 28; no. of women's groups met, 5; no. of other meetings attended, 9; no. of homes visited, none; no. of miles travelled, 99; no. of letters written, 182.

Beside the regular 4-H Club and Women's Group meetings attended nine schools were visited for the purpose of beginning a nutrition project. Groups were organized in eight of the schools and work has been started. The object of this piece of work is to teach the children what foods they need them and to get them to realize the importance of eating properly. This need is of course aggravated by the general scarcity of vegetables.

Girls of the Room Improvement Group of the Nokesville 4-H Club gave a series of demonstrations at the Brentsville District Fair. Prizes for the demonstration teams and for the Girls Department of the Fair were supplied by the Nokesville Home Demonstration Club. That club also sponsored the Women's Department of the Fair and held a Flower and Bulb Exchange in connection with the Fair.

Bethel and Occoquan 4-H Clubs held an Achievement program on October 4, at which about one hundred club folks, parents, and teachers were present. The club folks aimed to acquaint their parents and teachers with the work they are doing and at the same time give them an opportunity to know each other better.

The club folks ended their year's work with the Achievement program on November 1. The women are having their Achievement program in connection with the Advisory Board meeting on Nov. 6.

NEEDS FOR RED CROSS SERVICE ON INCREASE, SAYS CHAIRMAN PAYNE

Disaster Relief and Service to War Veterans Make Heavy Demands—First Aid on Highways New Plan.

Demands upon the public services that the American Red Cross is organized to give are increasingly heavy, and will continue to be so in the future, John Barton Payne, chairman, has announced.

The two major services of the society—service to war veterans and their dependents, and relief in disasters—show each year a greater number of persons helped by the Red Cross.

Pension legislation passed recently for World War Veterans, and increased allotments to all Spanish-American War Veterans, have given to Chapters and the national society many thousands of additional cases to handle, Judge Payne said.

In the past year help was given in 108 disasters. Ninety of these were in the United States, twelve in foreign possessions and six were in foreign countries.

Health activities of the Red Cross also are being extended, especially in the rural communities where all health authorities agree the greatest need exists. Red Cross, with 704 nurses in its employ, is the greatest employer of public health nurses in rural areas in the United States.

In its campaign against accidental deaths, begun twenty years ago with its life saving and first aid programs, the Red Cross now has adopted an additional program—that of combating the huge toll of life from automobile accidents on the highways.

Expenditures of the Red Cross in the past year were $4,254,798.34, of which $1,208,151.99 was spent in disaster relief, the chairman pointed out.

"The Red Cross depends upon the public for its support, through their memberships enrolled once each year in the period from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day," Judge Payne said.

"We do not receive any support from the Government, or through other taxation, although as the President of the United States is president of the society, and one-third of its governing members are representatives of U. S. Departments, it ranks as a semi-governmental agency."

"By joining as a member, in the local Red Cross Chapter, once each year, during the annual Roll Call, every citizen will have a part in carrying on this great humanitarian task."

EPISCOPAL CAMPAIGN NOW UNDER WAY

Rev. C. J. Gibson Makes Announcement

Rev. Churchill J. Gibson, D. D., chairman of the field board for the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, announces that the current issue of The Virginia Churchman, the diocesan organ just off the press, gives full information regarding the purposes of the annual educational and financial campaign, now under way. Dr. Gibson states further that this will be the only printed matter distributed to the 20,000 Episcopalians in this diocese in connection with the campaign, for in its brief statements are made concerning almost every activity of the church, and the magazine is liberally illustrated.

The paper contains a special message from the Rt. Rev. H. St. George Tucker, D. D., bishop of Virginia, in which he states that the church seeks to meet every human need; spiritual, moral, intellectual or physical, while the other pages point out how this is being done. The campaign will culminate on November 28, when the Every Member Canvass is taken in every parish and in each congregation in order that the $184,800 required for the 1931 budget may be pledged. The Virginia Churchman is distributed free to every church family and the cost of publication, $3,000, is one of the minor items in the budget. Rev. R. Cary Montague, D. D., chairman of the board of Christian Social Service and city missionary for Richmond is editor and manager of the magazine, with Mrs. Montague as associate editor and Bishop Tucker as contributing editor. Every feature of the church's work is reported by various members of the editorial staff, who are as follows:

Miss Louisa T. Davis, Leesburg, Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. Robert T. Barton, Winchester, Junior Auxiliary; Rev. Arthur P. Gray, West Point, Tidewater correspondent; Miss Lucy Gibson, Richmond, Girls' Friendly Society; Mrs. E. E. Osgood, Richmond, educational work; Rev. J. L. Taylor, D. D., Richmond, colored work; Rev. G. MacLaren Brydon, D. D., diocesan finances; Miss Byrd Warwick, Richmond, social service; Mrs. L. L. Green, Church Periodical Club, and Miss Elizabeth Winegar, Charlottesville, mountain work.

Women On the Job

is a home problem*

Housewives know what to do with left-over food. They encourage their families to eat it up. That's plain common sense. But you couldn't expect men to think of anything so simple as that.

Take the wheat surplus, for instance. All the trouble men are making such a fuss over amounts to this: There's too much wheat in the country. More than enough to go around. Farmers can't sell all their wheat. Yet many of them depend on it for a living.

Any woman can tell you that the way to get rid of too much wheat is to encourage the people to eat it up. An extra slice of bread for all each meal would soon do it. If your families won't eat an extra slice—just cut it a little thicker. Or try macaroni or noodles—anything full of wheat. Whether you buy wheat products from A&P or not, feed your families lots of wheat. It's good for them.

What this country needs is a good housekeeper.

PUBLIC SERVICE
ENDS CAMPAIGNVery Successful Selling Drive
Closed on October 17

A combined merchandise and preferred stock campaign, wider in scope and greater in results than any similar activity in the history of the organization, was completed on October 17 by the Virginia Public Service Company, a subsidiary of the National Electric Power Company and a part of the Middle West Utilities System. Known as the "Seven 7's Campaign," the project marked the first the Company had ever carried on throughout all of its five divisions at once.

The plan of the Campaign was as follows: Starting August 7 the Company set out to sell 700 electric ranges, 700 electric refrigerators, 700 electric water heaters, and 7,000 shares of its 6 per cent preferred stock in the 70 days ending October 17. The final results were 114 per cent of the aggregate quota, 111 per cent of the merchandise quota, and 122.9 per cent of the Preferred Stock quota, the total sales being 1,421 ranges, 701 refrigerators, 209 water heaters, and 8,605 shares of Preferred Stock. The 114 per cent of the aggregate quota was arrived at by grouping the Preferred Stock quota and sales into units of 10 shares each in order to bring them into balance with the merchandise items. The low standing in water heater sales is attributable mainly to the fact that the electric water heater is a new appliance in this company's territory. Prior to the opening of the campaign the water heater has been on the company's list of appliances for so short a time that sufficient preliminary educational work on this appliance could not be done. It was natural, therefore, that sales during the campaign should follow the popular appeal of the known appliances, the range and refrigerator. Officials of the company stated, however, that their experience with the electric water heater during the campaign indicated strongly that the company's territory is a fertile field for this appliance. Plans are now being perfected to push its sale more strongly in the future.

One of the primary motives for the campaign was the recovery, insofar as possible, of a loss in gross income brought about by a general reduction in the company's rates effected during August and amounting to about $500,000 per year. Another was the increase of the company's field of service, the education of its customers to knowledge of the fact that increased usage of electricity brings lower rates—so that the policy of rate reduction can be continued in the future as rapidly as is consistent with the safety of the company's interests and those of its customers. Another motive was the increase in kilowatt hour consumption throughout its territory by means of the wider distribution and sale of these major appliances.

An indication of the success of this campaign effort, particularly in view of the conditions of depression, prevailing throughout the company's territory, is given by the sales effected during the first seven months of the year and these during the seventy days of the campaign. During the former period 6611 ranges were sold, as compared with 1,421 during the campaign; 473 refrigerators, as compared with 701; 181 water heaters, as compared with 209; and 8,418 shares of Preferred Stock, as compared with 8,605. Another interesting fact regarding this type of campaign is that it was conducted as a joint effort between the Merchandise and Investment Departments. This sort of joint effort has been called impossible by many utility executives.

"This is one of the best sales jobs that has ever been done within my knowledge," said A. W. Higgins, President of the Virginia Public Service Company, in commenting on the successful outcome of the campaign. "Particularly I think it an outstanding accomplishment in view of the drought of the past summer and the widespread belief that a serious business depression is threatening the economic foundations of the country. We knew our job was a big one at the start, and we knew the adverse things we were facing. But we convinced ourselves that what business needs is more actual selling and less 'hessing' or worrying about conditions and we set out to do the job. Our results speak for themselves."

Probably the most unique stunt of the campaign was the "Flying Squadron," a group of executives and employees of the company comprising an orchestra and speakers, who made two flying trips over the property in one of the company's large motor buses. Pep programs interspersed with musical numbers were given in many of the larger divisional towns, while in the smaller center musical numbers and brief sales talks were given at prominent street corners. The bus was appropriately decorated with large signs telling of the appliances and stock on sale. On the second trip an airplane was used to precede the bus, flying over the towns for periods sufficient to gain the attention of the townspeople. The plans also were decorated with the company's slogan and numerous "7's" painted on the wings and fuselage.

Cash prizes totaling more than $1,000 were distributed among the merchandise managers, district managers, salesmen and employees by the Merchandise Department. Other awards consisted of desk sets, electrical appliances, and numerous badges of honor. Another feature of the campaign was the "Take Your Own Medicine" section. This occurred during the first ten days of the drive and employees were canvassed for purchases of the various major appliances involved in the campaign. The results were more than 100 sales of these major appliances to employees.

Another feature of the drive was the advertising and publicity used as sales helps. Full page, half-page and smaller newspaper ads were carried every week, bill stuffers were used with the monthly bills, direct-mail pieces sent out by the thousands, billboards and window displays were employed all over the property. Many special editions of division house organs were issued every week.

In the Preferred Stock section of the campaign one of the features that was productive of extremely good results was the "Seven Letter Plan." In this each employee wrote seven letters to seven friends, relatives or acquaintances urging them to buy shares of the 6 per cent Preferred Stock and enclosing pamphlets and other data showing the investment features of the stock.

BRENTVILLE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The Halloween program given by B. D. H. S. boys and girls Friday evening, October 31, was a great success. It consisted of music and recitations rendered by a Colonial Group, the Hill Billie's Indian Warriors, and negroes from the old plantation. The program was brought to climax by a play, entitled, "The Great Chicken Stealing Case of Ebenezer." About $50.00 was cleared.

Friday, October 31, the B. D. H. S. boys, accompanied by boosters, motored to Haymarket to play the scheduled game of soccer. The day was very disagreeable but it made no difference to the Nokesville boys. They had plenty of pep and came home with the victory, 4-0.

MANASSAS, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1930

The Greatest Mother

The American Red Cross in Action

A class in Life-Saving at one of the 1930 Red Cross institutes. Here are learned all the rules of water safety—protection for self and others.

Wreckage at Frost, Texas, from a 1930-model tornado. Almost as soon as the twister had roared over the horizon the Red Cross was on the job with food, clothing, medicine and organized relief.

A recent Red Cross demonstration of artificial respiration. The prone pressure method has proved its efficacy in thousands of cases of drowning, electrocution, and suffocation.

What does the Red Cross do? What makes its call—in the words of President Hoover—so "mandatory upon the heart of the Nation?"

The Red Cross job is big. In a single year the expenditure, community, national and international, runs to nearly $10,000,000. Often it is higher. Every day the call upon the Red Cross grows more urgent.

What do the figures show—those mute, cold statistics that tell but half the story of Service? They show:

More than 450,000 First Aid certificates have been issued; more than 300,000 individuals instructed in Life Saving.

Aidance extended in a single year to the victims of 75 disasters in 40 states.

10,000 nurses on the roll of the Red Cross; 800 nurses in public health work, 88 in itinerant activities, 1500 teaching home hygiene and care of the sick.

120,000 children and adults taught nutrition each month.

Service of the kind that is beyond the scope of Government to 10,000 disabled World War veterans and the 245,000 men of the regular Army and Navy.

10,000 families being assisted by Civilian Home Service.

7,000,000 members of the Junior Red Cross corresponding with Juniors in foreign lands, thus furthering the cause of international understanding; cheering the sick, brightening school rooms, learning ideals of service for others.

Half a million volunteer workers—exemplifying the very heart and spirit of the Red Cross—making 3,000,000 surgical dressings, 210,000 garments, 190,000 Braille pages for the fingers of the blind in twelve months.

16,200 Chapters and Branches engaged in this service program made possible by the annually-tendered support of more than 4,000,000 adult members.

Look at the pictures on this page. Multiply the incidents according to the above figures. Watch each precious membership dollar as it stretches to meet the increasing demands. Then ask yourself, "What shall MY PART be?"

All happy at the most recent of the annual parties for disabled war veterans on the White House lawn in Washington! Veterans and enlisted men of Army and Navy, whether sound or otherwise, are grateful for Red Cross service.

These school girls enjoy the periodical checking of height, weight and teeth by the Red Cross public health nurse.

This little fellow is getting a running start in life, for the mother has been taught in a Red Cross class of Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick.

An Easter basket brings to a little patient in Children's Hospital, Detroit, courage to face an operation for mastoiditis. Smiles like these brighten the faces of 7,000,000 Juniors and untold thousands who are remembered by the children of the Red Cross.
