FESTIVAL DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Bazaar Extravaganza Declared the Best Ever

Beyond question and without a dissenting voice, the decorations and general arrangement of the booths at the Spring Carnival was the prettiest ever seen at a public function around Manassas. To describe it would be to detract from a proper appreciation of how pretty it really was.

Although the day was rather chilly a large crowd attended and well over $250 was realized by the Woman's Club for its charity work.

Promptly at 3 p. m. the three trumpeters Marshall Johnson, Howard Cooksey and Warren Bauserman sounded a flourish and Francis Compton, the Post Herald, announced the approach of the Queen of the May and her court.

The Musketeers (Douglas Morris, Samuel Hottle and Robert Whetzel) led the parade. They were followed by:

Butterflies—Josephine Gillum, Molly Leachman, Althea Hooff, Virginia Pullen, Carol Illingworth, Cora Lee Cockrell; May Pole Dancers—Betty Beane, Lucy Morris, Lucy Johnson, Harriet Lewis, Mildred Akers, June Pickeral, William Knox, William Miller, Garland Boatwright, Lee Roy Shifflet, Frank Browning, Jr., Harry Parrish; Fairies—Mary White, Nancy Leachman, Lelia Montague Dowell, Marie Bauserman.

Others in parade were: Rosa La Feyer, Vilas Albrite, Betty Hatcher, Margaret Blakemore, Shirley Hynson, June Hatcher, Lucille Herndon, Jessie Mae Ritter, Evelyn Crabill, Thelma Moore, Annie Lee Brown, Dicky Haydon, Frank Parrish, Pearl Corum, Elizabeth Davies, Jessie Mae Conner, Janet Newman, Sara M. Harley, Pete Charles Lynn, Billie Jamison, Virginia Boley, Louise Wallace, Evelyn Payne, Emily Lynch, Edith LaFever, Elizabeth Miller, Frances Miller, Frances Hatcher, Emma L. Alexander, Mildred Merchant, Thelma Robinson, Joe Lyon, Caton Merchant, Robert Wilt, Virginia McCuen, Buddie Corum and Catherine Fincham.

John Broadbush, Jr., and Marion Gillum, the policemen brought up the rear and kept excellent order.

The Queen attendants were Misses Ann Bradford, Barbara Onell, Margaret Hottle, Mary Elizabeth Lewis, Francis Bushong and Christine Meetze.

Following the coronation the May Pole Dancers executed their figures very prettily and the procession marched out. Miss Virginia Spelden, director of music in the local schools, officiated at the piano.

In part a contribution from "The Scribe" tells what he thought of the whole outfit.

"The crowd was stilled and tensed in the M. H. S. Gym Saturday afternoon about three o'clock. Suddenly there was a flourish of trumpets, the ringing voice of the Poet delivering the welcome address of the day, and the parade of the courtiers. Last but not least by any means, the beautiful queen and her attendants. The Annual Spring Festival of the Woman's Club of Manassas was on!

After the coronation, in which Thomas Kite played the role of the dashing Robin Hood, (and very handsome he was, too), the side shows opened up. Of these, the Wild Man, played ably by Stewart McBryde, Jr., and the free Photo Gallery, operated by Lacey Compton, received the most attention. In fact, the Photo Gallery was quite a shock to some.

Promptly at seven o'clock, the floor shows started. The first on the program was Miss Spelden's Radio Act. This was rendered very well and received much applause. The artists on the program were: Clem Fisher Jr., Charles Bauserman, Miss Eleanor May Cline, Miss Margaret Hottle, and Miss Helen Lloyd. The announcer was lousy and was properly given the raspberry. Incidentally, the announcer in this act was the barker for the side show, and how he got his job, I can't see.

At eight o'clock, "Auto Trouble" was rendered. This was carried off with great success by Clem Fisher, Nelson Lynn, Mary Faunterloy Cooke, Mary Cannon, and Billy Ramey.

When the latter concluded, dancing

MANASSAS' BIENNIAL REPORT

The first published report of the governmental activities of the Town of Manassas is off the press and ready for distribution.

This report is for the biennial (two year period) beginning September 1, 1928 and ending August 31, 1930. In reading it, it must be remembered that some months have elapsed since the closing date, August 31, 1930, and that some of the recommendations made by the Manager have since then been put into effect.

To those who take enough interest in the Town to discuss its problems with their neighbors, this pamphlet will be of special interest and it will furnish authentic information on many points of discussion.

The official records of the Treasurer Clerk, from which this report is compiled are open to the public business hours of the business day. However, very few citizens are willing or able to take the time from their own affairs to delve into these records for themselves.

Special attention is called to Tables III, V, VII and VIII which refer to Streets, Water and Finance.

This report was printed by the Manassas Journal and we feel that the town can send it out to other municipalities without fear that their home publishing house will suffer in the comparison of this piece of work with others of like nature from State or municipal source.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING

Pursuant to call of the Secretary of the Democratic County Executive Committee, a meeting was held at the Court House at Manassas, Virginia, April 28, 1931.

All Districts being represented by the following members:

D. E. Earhart, J. A. Hooker, J. M. Keys, J. P. Kerlin, C. R. Earhart, T. M. Russell, C. A. Barbee, H. Ewing Wall, E. P. Davis, J. L. Dawson, M. G. White, E. N. Pattie, A. A. Hooff, D. J. Arrington, A. S. Robertson and Thos. H. Lion.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman, D. E. Earhart.

Upon motion John Leary was elected a member of the Committee from Occoquan District in the room and stead of S. T. Cornwell, deceased.

It was further ordered that all candidates announcing their candidacy for several officers for which nominations are to be made at the August primary, 1931, be required to pay to the County Treasurer, on or before June 3, 1931, as follows:

County Treasurer	$100.00
Commissioner of Revenue	75.00
Attorney for the Commonwealth	35.00
Sheriff	30.00
Supervisor	1.00
Justice of the Peace	1.00
Constable	1.00
Overseer of the Poor	1.00

It was further resolved that in the event there should be only one candidate for any office no rebate of above assessments would be made to the candidate announced, or declared the nominee, for that office, and the sums so paid shall be retained and applied toward expenses of the Primary Election.

Ordered that candidates for Supervisors, Justices of the Peace, Constables and Overseers of the Poor be not required to file a petition of electors, as shall be done by all other candidates, but each candidate, county or district, shall file his declaration of candidacy as required by law.

The Secretary of the Committee was directed to file with the Electoral Committee the names of each member of this Committee for re-election in order that their names may be printed on the official primary ballot for their respective districts.

Upon motion it was ordered that the Chairman and Secretary of this Committee, be and they were authorized and directed, when only one declaration of intention was filed for an office to be filled, to declare such person the party nominee for that particular office, and his name shall not be certified to the Electoral Committee to be printed on the official primary ballot.

D. E. EARHART, Chairman.
D. J. ARRINGTON, Secretary

started, music being furnished by the Swavely Orchestra, or, as we know them better, "The Swavely Cavaliers" With the numerous booths, such as the fortune teller, candy counter, "Tony's cart", cafeteria counter, and fish pond, the Festival was a great success, the proceeds amounting to well over two hundred and fifty dollars. I, for one, vote that the Woman's Club make this event an annual happening, and if they will be as good as this one, make it semi-annually."

IMPORTANT

The citizens of Prince William County who desire to participate in the Democratic Primary in August are advised that the Virginia election laws require payment of poll taxes ninety days before the Primary May 3 is the actual deadline, but to avoid any last minute complications, all voters are urged to attend to this important detail by May 2.

Most of the county elective offices will be voted upon in the Democratic Primary in August 4. In addition, selection of State Senator will also be made. Nomination in the Democratic Primary this year is widely believed to be equivalent to election as in former days.

Famous War Correspondent on the Air This Week and Next Week

Vivid pictures of the great Smyrna conflagration; of the ugliness and sordidness of erstwhile romantic Near East cities, and of flies in countless myriads will be painted by Frazier Hunt, noted world traveler and war correspondent, during the weekly "Chevrolet Chronicles" hour over WMAL on Saturday, May 2, at 7:30 p. m.

Hunt is recognized as the dean of America's war correspondents. For 20 years he has gone up and down the earth and around it searching for matters of historic moment would occur. He has lived a life of glamor single career more thrills than ordinary adventure and packed into a dinar come to a half dozen men.

"Up to Angora" is the thrilling personal experience Hunt will relate in his next appearance before the microphone. It is a graphic story of Greek and Turkish warfare, of reeking Eastern villages upon which "reastness had been suddenly thrust; Mustapha Kemal, the great Turkish patriot, and overing all—war, villages alike—in dense layers, unbelievable numbers of flies that stripped the last vestiges of romance from the East of tale and fable.

Hunt will speak again on the evening of May 9, no conditions in Russia after the revolution.

BANKERS FORM TRI-COUNTY ASSOCIATION

Welcome United Daughters of the Confederacy

No body of women ever labored as faithfully to preserve the memories of their heroes and perpetuate valor as the women of the South. Through their untiring efforts Southern history has been taught to the youth of our land truthfully and clearly. The justice and glory of the Southern Cause has been heralded to the world largely by their splendid work.

The South owes her greatness to the men and women of the Confederacy. Too much cannot be said in their praise. Too much appreciation cannot be offered them. But the South also owes a great debt to the Daughters of the Confederacy for educating Southern youth and immortalizing the true history of the South from Sixty-one to the close of that infamous period known as the Reconstruction.

C & P EDITOR ADDRESSES CLUB

Given Kiwanians Interesting Facts on Growth of Means of Communication

Invention of the telephone was probably the greatest single event that has ever taken place in the history of communication, James Oliver Martin, Washington, D. C., editor of The Transmitter, employee's magazine of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies, told the Manassas Kiwanis Club, Friday, April 10 in talking on the subject, "Ancient and Modern Message Bearers."

While people have always found some way to communicate with one another even in the most unfavorable circumstances, the speaker stated, it was not until within the past fifty-five years—within the memory of many people yet living—that there was any method for direct voice to voice communication over greater distances than the unaided human voice could carry.

"Indeed," Mr. Martin said, "it is well within the bounds of truth to say that within the past 100 years greater advances have been made in the art of communication than in all the thousands of years that have previously passed into eternity since the beginning of time."

In leading up to his subject, the speaker briefly traced back to the very beginning of human affairs of which there is record, the methods of communication—period by period and century by century. Messages in the days of the Pharaohs were inscribed on papyrus and only important people, like kings and queens received written communications. Usually whole delegations accompanied such a message.

Then messages were written on bricks and stones. Next, rays of light came into use as signals. As early as the Battle of the Marathon, highly polished shields were used to reflect rays of light as signals. Trained runners, who covered many miles during the day were used by the Greeks. Fast couriers on horseback were used by the Romans as a favorite method of communication.

In the Middle Ages, although messages and beacons were still in use, the carrier pigeon was introduced and soon became a popular method of communication.

If there was time, the speaker said, it would be interesting to consider in detail some of these ancient methods of communication, but since he was expected to stay within the confines of his subject, which had to do with communication in Virginia, it was necessary to treat only of such methods as were used by the Indians and the Americans who came after them.

White people came to Virginia as early as 1607. Mr. Martin said, and by that time several systems of messenger service as well as visual and audible signals had been developed in the civilized world, but there is no means of knowing how many of these systems were used by the colonists in their communication.

Tench Tilghman, a Marylander, he stated, was an early horseback courier. This man rode horseback in carrying from Yorktown to Philadelphia the message that Cornwallis had been defeated.

Still another method of communication used by Virginians in both the Army and the Navy in the Revolution and the War of 1812, was flag signaling. This method of communication came into use in Europe soon after the invention of the telescope in 1608. King James the Second of England is said to have devised the first complete flag code, according to Mr. Martin.

Napoleon created in France what is now the international flag code.

C. E. Tiffany, of Warrenton Elected President; G. Raymond McIntosh, Manassas, Secretary-Treasurer

Representatives from thirteen out of the sixteen banks in Fauquier, Loudoun, and Prince William Counties met in Leesburg, Tuesday, April 28, 1931, at 7:30 p. m. and organized a Tri-County Association of Banks under the leadership of V. Nelson, Vaughn, chairman of Committee on County Organization of The Virginia Bankers Association.

The following officers were elected. C. E. Tiffany, president of the Fauquier National Bank, Warrenton, president; P. W. Anderson, cashier of The Marshall National Bank & Trust Co., Marshall, vice president; Bruce McIntosh, president of the Peoples National Bank, Leesburg, vice-president, (Loudoun); H. Ewing Wall, cashier of The First National Bank, Quantico, vice-president, (Prince William); G. Raymond Ratcliffe, vice-president and cashier of The Peoples National Bank, Manassas, Secretary and Treasurer.

The Advisory Committee is composed of representatives from each of the three counties, namely:

D. Turner Day, cashier of The Peoples National Bank, Warrenton, (Fauquier); C. L. Robey, president of The Purcellville National Bank, Purcellville, (Loudoun); Harry P. Davis, cashier of The National Bank, Manassas, (Prince William).

The meeting adjourned to meet at Warrenton, Tuesday, May 5, 1931, to complete the organization.

Interesting and instructive addresses were made by R. G. Williams, president of The Shenandoah National Bank, Winchester; E. E. Garrett, president of The Loudoun National Bank, Leesburg, and Harry P. Davis, chairman of Group III, Virginia Bankers Association.

SPIRITED RACE IN GAINESVILLE

Third Announcement Comes this Week

With the announcement of Supervisor Robertson that he will be a candidate for re-election Gainesville now has three aspirants for the position.

Mr. Jett Pattie, of Catharpin, was the first to break the ice. He was followed closely by C. B. Roland, a business man of Haymarket. Both men refrain from any attack on Mr. Robertson in their campaign, and personal popularity will largely solve the problem of the voters.

Mr. Robertson made the following statement while attending the regular meeting of the Board on Tuesday.

"I have always had the best interests of Prince William County as a whole and Gainesville District in particularly at heart. I have done all in my power to further projects presented for county and civic betterment. I hope that my services have been satisfactory, and I wish to thank the voters for loyalty and support throughout the past eight years, and to assure them of mine should they see fit to re-elect me."

GOOD WORK

One of the improvements made possible by the efforts of the Garden Club last week was to have the larger corner lot at Lee and Grant Avenue cleaned off rubbish and briars and put in a more sightly condition. We hope this will be an incentive to the folks nearby to help keep this lot as well as the many others vacant lots free from waste and rubbish.

NEW CANDIDATE

Mr. Walter H. Ellicott is announcing his candidacy as member of Board of Supervisors for Coles District.

He is a farmer of the Goldridge neighborhood and has lived there most of his life. He is, therefore, well known in his District which he now aspires to represent.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the Bible selection each week, it will prove a blessing to them in after years.

GOD WILL GUIDE THEE

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go.—Psalms 32:9, 8.

Prayer: "Guide me, O Thou Great Jehovah, Pilgrim through this barren land."

CONGRATULATIONS

The town of Manassas is to be congratulated on the success achieved by the Town Manager during the past two years. His biennial report is before the public and we believe that much of the future of Manassas lies in backing Mr. Cocke to the best of our ability in his progressive work.

ADVERTISING STIMULATES SALES

Remark that instances are not rare in the business history of the United States in which executives have been sagacious enough to realize that the natural tendency toward decreased sales in times of depression can be overcome by increased advertising. The Washington Post points out that it was a business rule of H. J. Heinz, who established the great provision business that still carries his name, to double his advertising in hard times.

"A striking illustration of what can be done under adverse conditions such as those of last year is given in the annual report, Co., just issued," says the report of the William Wrigley, Post. "Increased advertising and lower raw material costs enabled the company to show the greatest earnings in its history. A record advertising expenditure last year of $6,000,000 resulted in an increase in sales over 1929, with a net profit of $12,296,258, or $6.14 a share on 2,000,000 shares of capital stock. The Wrigley company is one of the heaviest advertisers in America. It increases its advertising slack, and thus maintains profits."

What has proved to be a sound rule for Heinz and Wrigley ought to be equally sound for other large business executives who have a product to sell to the American people. Increased advertising resulted in increased sales for Heinz's "57 varieties" and for Wrigley's chewing gum. The same policy would spell success in other manufacturing lines, undoubtedly.—Roanoke Times.

Notice: To Candidates for State Senate in the Democratic Primary.

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the 30th Senatorial District of Virginia, held at the law offices of Carlin and Carlin in Alexandria City, Thursday, April 23, 1931, C. C. Carlin, Jr., was elected chairman and W. L. Bragg, secretary.

On motion duly seconded and carried, it was decided that a Primary be held on August 4, 1931 in accordance with the general Primary Law of the State for the selection of the Democratic nominee and that the assessment for each candidate be fifteen ($15.00) dollars payable to the Treasurer of Alexandria City and $3.75 each to the counties of Arlington, Fairfax, and Prince William.

It was further resolved that the Secretary, in accordance with Section 224 of the Code of Virginia make application to the respective Electoral Boards of the aforesaid cities and counties for the appointment of Judges to hold a Primary election on August 4, 1931 for the selection of the aforesaid nominee.

On motion duly seconded and carried, it was resolved that the candidates should file their respective declaration of candidacy together with the petitions and receipts as provided by the state Primary Law, with C. C. Carlin, Jr., Chairman, not later than twelve o'clock noon on June 4, 1931.

LAD DIES AT NOKESVILLE

Glenn Neff, 15 years old, 7th Grade at Nokesville, died at his home Monday evening. His mother (Mrs. Charley Neff) and brother, Harold, had gone to Manassas and left Glenn alone at home. When they returned about 8 p. m., he was out of the house. When Harold went to milk he found Glenn dead behind the barn. The funeral was held this morning at Valley View Church.

WILL YOU SUPPORT THIS MUTUAL BENEFIT CAMPAIGN?

If for one year everybody in the Manassas territory would do as much of his buying as possible in Manassas, there would be a notable increase in local prosperity—a notable speeding up of local progress. And we'd all benefit thereby!

Let's see what we can accomplish by ALL joining in a mutual benefit campaign of Buying and Banking at Home.

TWO BIG FRAMES BEAT HAYMARKET

Herrell Lays out Sixteen Victims but Fails to Win

Haymarket High came out on the short end of a 9-8 score on Friday last, when they were defeated by Manassas team in a close and thrilling game.

Conner, the winning pitcher allowed no hits while he was on the mound. Herrell, the loser, had 16 strike outs to his credit and with better fielding would probably have won.

The Haymarket team will play Nokesville on their home diamond on Friday, May 1.

Summary—two bas hits—Taylor, Conner, T. Kite; three base hits—Garrett. Left on base: Haymarket 5; Manassas 4. Base on balls by Taylor 1, by Herrell 1. Hit by pitched ball by Taylor; Ashby. Struck out: by Taylor, 11, by Conner 2, by Herrell, 16. Hits off: Taylor, 9 in 8 innings; off Conner, 0 in 2 innings. Winning pitcher Conner. Umpires: Robertson and Roland.

MANASSAS LOSES A SLOW GAME

Clifton won a heavy hitting, loose fielding game over Manassas on Tuesday by a score of 8-0.

The game was sewed up in the 2nd inning when 5 runs went over the pan. Conner deserved a better fate as the lad pulled himself out of several bad holes by coolness and accuracy. Mohler, the Clifton pitcher, was hit freely but kept the hits from bunching. His support was a trifle better than that of Manassas.

OCCOQUAN TAKES THIRD GAME

Due to ragged playing in the field and having left their batting eye home. Occoquan played in hard luck up to the eighth inning when Dame Fortune smiled on them. Occoquan showed none of this old peppy and the game was slow and uninteresting. Fountain of Nokesville made 3 hits in a row.

Next Friday Occoquan tackles Manassas High School and will do their best to make it a clean and interesting game.

HAYMARKET

Rev. W. F. Carpenter attended the semi-annual meeting of the Piedmont Convocation in session at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Remington this week.

Mrs. Carvel Hall and Miss Anne Williamson were called to Maryland last week by the illness and death of Mrs. Hall's little grandson, Mr. Edward Marshall Hall aged 14 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williamson Hall, of Bristol, Md. The funeral took place at Christ Church, Owensville, Md., on Thursday morning with interment in the church yard.

Mrs. Nellie Clarkson Reading and Miss Eleanor Lee Reading of Washington were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gilliss.

This section has been much refreshed by a splendid rainfall coming just as conditions were again very much in need of moisture. The rains were followed by a high wind, which blew down some telephone wires, and played havoc with some of the tregs in the Rectory yard.

Mrs. Foley from Maryland assumed her duties as central operator for Haymarket on Monday.

A moving picture given at the Parish Hall on Wednesday evening for the benefit of the school and was well attended.

GAINESVILLE

Mr. Andrew Breen and Mr. Tommy Arrington of Woodbridge were the guest of former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Ellis.

Mrs. Atkins and son attended the Woman's Missionary Council at Fredericksburg on Wednesday.

Mrs. V. M. Ellis was a delegate to the Woman's Missionary Council at Fredericksburg last week.

There will be services at the church this Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Lewis Ellis and Mr. Lawrence Ellis were Hoady visitors Saturday evening.

We are glad Lawrence Ellis is well enough to return to school.

Miss Bessie Sinclair spent the week end with Miss Annie Mayhugh of Greenwich.

Mr. Willard Allison has been on the sick list.

Mr. Hanes Davis and Miss Louise Pearson were the guests of the former's mother.

MINNIEVILLE

Mrs. H. A. Pearson, daughter Isabel and son Buren of near Token, Miss Clara Pearson of Silver Spring, Md., Mr. Joseph Cheslock, jr., of Indian Head, Md., Mr. R. E. Russell and Mrs. M. V. Florence were visitors at the home of Mrs. William Posey Sunday.

Through the generosity of Admiral Cary T. Grayson, I am able to offer the services of LONGWORTH, Imported (Son-in-Law out of Loaf Sugar by John 'o Gaunt), Son-in-Law, Champion Sire in England, 1930—his progeny won $44,588 1/2—approximately $222,940.

Longworth is a magnificent individual, standing 16.3 hands high. He is superbly bred, as his tabulated pedigree will show. He was foaled in 1923 in England and sent to the United States as a foal. He won his first race in 1925 as a 2-year-old at Coney Island against 6 strong contenders a distance of 5 1/2 furlongs. He won third race on same track a few days later against five outstanding 2-year-olds.

Longworth's sire, Son-in-Law is by Dark Ronald, who is the sire of St. James, the winner of the Westchester Futurity in 1923 (approximately $64,000 to the winner), and he is the sire of Jamestown, the winner of the Westchester Futurity in 1930 (approximately $100,000 to the winner).

What this Country Needs is WISE BUYING

What this country needs is more intelligent buying, says a Government official. How can you become an intelligent buyer? One way, he says, is by reading labels to make sure quality and weight are right. He would organize the housewives of every community into leagues of intelligent buyers, meeting regularly for exchange of buying information.

He imagines a meeting of such a club in which it is reported that store after store is asking a high price for various-sized packages of food, while one store is selling a larger package for less. Since it compares favorably with the more expensive food, the buyers' club decides to buy that brand and so teach other food dealers a lesson.

It is just such intelligent buying that has won for A & P so many millions of regular customers. To them, "A & P" has become a hall mark of reliability. They know that foods in A & P stores are as sound as to quality, quantity, and low prices as is humanly possible to long experience and great resources.

The TOP of every FRIGIDAIRE is a porcelain-topped table

Food on its way into a Frigidaire and food on its way out need not be juggled, or tip-tilted, or inconveniently parked on the distant kitchen table... the flat expanse of showy porcelain atop the Frigidaire makes such a perfect serving shelf!

It is an ideal place to put piping-hot things that should be cooled off before they are exposed to low temperatures... a splendid permanent place to keep the few foods that need not be refrigerated.

And nothing—hot or cold, smooth or scratchy—can in any way scar or mar the lifelong lustre of its diamond-hard porcelain-on-steel finish.

A conveniently flat, unobstructed serving table top is one of the very real advantages of Frigidaire Advanced Refrigeration. There are many others. We invite you to come in and learn all about them.

You can pay a little less, or far more . . . but Pontiac is the happy medium in car quality and cost*

If you are like a lot of other motorists, what you really want is a car you can be proud of, at a reasonable cost. . . . That describes the new Pontiac.

Driving this car, you will feel a smooth, even power which speaks volumes for its new 60-h.p. engine. One reason for that smoothness is the engine's large size, which means it never has to "labor."

Seeking reasons for Pontiac's riding ease, you will find the chassis is rubber-cushioned at 43 points.

On hot days or cold days or rainy days you will appreciate the comfort of the Pontiac insulated body. Stopping in traffic or riding down a steep hill, a touch will prove that you can depend on Pontiac's brakes.

And if you care about other people's approval, you'll notice plenty of it as you drive your Pontiac! And you'll hear that approval as guests note the genuine mohair or whipcord upholstery, the rich appointments, the fine finish of every detail.

See the new Pontiac—drive it—and you will find it the kind of car you like at the price you want to pay.

might be called the first nation-wide system of visual signals, which became known as the wooden telegraph. This was in 1793 when the young French republic was facing a life and death struggle for existence. The need for quick communication between Paris and the frontier was clearly recognized. As a result, high towers were built on hills six to twelve miles apart, each tower being equipped with a pole and crosspiece, by means of which short messages could be laboriously spelled out. On a clear day a word could be sent 150 miles in fifteen minutes. These military telegraphs, the speaker stated, were used by the French until 1842, at which time there were more than 3,000 miles of this communication system in operation.

Following closely on this system, it was stated, came the electric telegraph, which as is generally known, was invented by Samuel F. B. Morse of Washington, the first message, "What hath God wrought," being sent between Washington and Baltimore, May 24, 1844. The telegraph systems of today extend all over the countries of the world and carry millions of messages.

"The electric telegraph," Mr. Martin, said "revolutionized communication. Words could be spelled out by dots and dashes and sent distances in an incredibly short time. In fact, it was the discovery and development of electricity that brought about the tremendous improvements both in visual and audible communication that took place in America between 1840 and 1880. By reason of these improvements most of the old systems of communication were thrown into discard.

"Just as Morse utilized electricity in developing the telegraph so did Alexander Graham Bell in 1876 utilize electricity in the development of the telephone."

The story of the birth and babyhood of the telephone, the speaker stated, is as well known as that of the telegraph, so the details will be passed over at this time, but it should be pointed out that in the telephone was the seed of radio, which many people look upon as something entirely new. "As a matter of fact," he said, "Dr. Bell is the father of radio telephone as well as of wire telephone.

If radio broadcasting had been in use before the telephone, Mr. Martin said, the invention of the telephone would be considered the greater marvel. It is an awe-inspiring thing to be able to speak into a microphone and be heard by millions of people. Even more awe-inspiring is the ability to speak into a telephone and without any previous arrangements, to select one man out of all the millions of people in the world and talk directly to him and to him alone, regardless of whether he may be in Virginia, Texas, or California, or even in Canada, Mexico, England or South America.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP

Howdy folks! This is Station "TCG" broadcasting over the Manassas Journal network. And er-errr-I'm certainly glad to hear from so many of you good folks that are interested in these newspaper broadcasts. News comes from the state of Florida that Twin City is well known, and the Gossip is swallowed raw. From the Southern City that is built upon a mountain top (Atlanta Ga.). I am told that Gossip takes precedent over the Atlanta Constitution. Atlanta has adopted two of our young men, Brockett and Sheppard.

Folks far distant from Twin City keep boosting—

"And the night shall be filled with music,

And the cares, that infest the day,

shall fold their tents, like the Arabs,

and silently steal away."

By the way, did you ever sit down with a volume of James Whitcomb Riley's in your hand, and turn the pages over and over until you reached page number 76, and saw "An Old sweetheart of Mine." And to you folks passed 40—were you able—in the words of Elizabeth Akers Allen, "Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight—"I say, were you able to picture that "Old Sweetheart of Mine."

O childhood days enchanted! O magic of the spring!

With all the green boughs to blossom white and all the birds to sing!

If you have grown so old, if the material things of life have pushed sentiment entirely out of your vision if sentiment has hardened before your arteries. I fear you will be unable to enjoy these lines:

"So I turn the leaves of fancy till in shadowy design,

I find the smiling features of an old sweetheart of mine."

This is indeed of a material age as well as a machine age.

I use material here in the light that a young man looks upon material as being essential. As soon as a young man can do away with safety pins he thinks it is essential to own a struggle cart. He proceeds to pay ten dollars down and ties up the future for what he thinks to be a wonderful privilege. He never has time for a sentimental thought or a poetic mood.

VIRGINIA PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANYFISH PLACED IN LOCAL RUNS

Albert Fletcher, district supervisor of game wardens has allotted 100 gallons of fish (white perch) to Prince William County, and County Warden C. L. Reading distributed them on Thursday last.

Our streams were badly depleted last year by the drouth, and the State Department made arrangements with the Federal Government for hatching fish at Fort Humphreys to meet the emergency.

Mr. Reading names the following as the streams in which fish have been placed: Occoquan Run at Blands Ford, Occoquan Run at Sinclair's Mill, Broad Run near Brentsville, Kettle Run near Bristol, Slaty Run near Jett, Catharpin Run near Hickory Grove, Chestnut Lick near Woolsey, North Fork near Haymarket, Kettle Run near Nokesville, Goose Creek near Fayman, Cedar Run near Rocky Ford.
