KIWANIS PAID REAL TRIBUTE

Poetic Inspiration from C. & P. Idealist

A worthy tribute was paid the Kiwanis Club of Manassas for its excellent work on behalf of underprivileged children in Prince William County by Robert Davidson of Washington at Friday evening in a poem, "Manassas Kiwanis," the verses, written for and dedicated to the Manassas Kiwanis Club, were read by Mr. Davidson at the meeting as were a number of his other poems. He is assistant editor of The Transmitter, employees magazine of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies.

MISS MARY FRANCES GLENN

Miss Mary Frances Glenn, also connected with the telephone company in Washington, sang several vocal selections. Mr. Davidson and Miss Glenn were presented by Edwin F. Hill, vice president of the Washington Kiwanis club and formerly lieutenant governor of the First Division, Capital Kiwanis District. Mrs. Davidson was also a guest of the Club.

The poem dedicated to Manassas Kiwanis, reads:

Oh, you hear a lot of the good men do
Who have both the time and the money, too;
For the headlines glory in glowing praise
Of the rich man's gifts in his sunset days.
But the kindly word and the helping hand
And the lift that's just an everyday brand
Too often are lost in our view of things
Nor burden the song that the poet sings.
Just take for instance this happy crowd,
That revels in joking and laughter loud—
Who would think that under your guise of fun
A steady course of good deeds is run?
But I've found you out, you Manassas men,
Who number barely a score and ten,
And I know a few of the hidden facts
Concerning your kind and unselfish acts.
I have been informed that in one short year
You have banished many a hopeless tear,
By picking up hundreds of needy kids
Who were doomed for the physical defect skids.
And bringing them swiftly to medical aid,
For which you dug down in your means and paid.
What is more, when last Christmas Day rolled around
There were many poor youngsters your bright gifts found!
Oh, josh all you want in your care-free style,
But your deeds won't stay hidden behind a smile,
For your unselfish efforts remain unsung
As long as this songster can wiggle a lung.
Though you may not be angels or saint-elect,
I talk of my hat in the deepest respect
To the bunch of good fellows one's elbows rub
When he meets the Manassas Kiwanis Club!
Mr. Davidson talking on "Community Service" said that in preparing for this address he had tried to select some of his poems that would be of

HEALTH PROBLEM

Calls for Special Council Meeting

A called meeting of the Town Council was held on the evening of Monday June 1 to consider the report of the Town Health Officer, Dr. Stewart McBryde, relative to the appearance in the immediate vicinity of Manassas of a case of Undulant or Malta Fever. This rather unfamiliar disease is transmitted to human beings from arm stock or dairy cattle which are infected with "Bangs Abortion Disease". The most prolific means of transmission is through milk and dairy products from infected animals. Dr. McBryde stated that the disease in human beings takes the form of a slow fever, sometimes lasting for several years, which is often confused with malaria, typhoid or inflammatory rheumatism, incapacitating the patient for work and leaving him, or her, in a more or less permanently impaired state of health.

The presence of the disease can be accurately determined in either human beings or animals by blood tests.

In order to check the spread of the disease the Council enacted a very stringent ordinance requiring that no milk or dairy products shall be sold in Manassas except from cows which have been tested by a veterinary surgeon and found free from Bangs Abortion Disease and further providing that only tested cows shall be pastured or kept within the city limits.

THE DREAM OF THE OLD CONFEDERATE

"Come my friends and I will tell
Of a wondrous dream I had,
Upon an awful stormy night,
Yes, it was a storm, begad!
The lightnings flash reminded me,
As did the thunders roar,
Of those old days of Sixty-one,
When the old gray suit I wore
Spurred like the roar of guns,
The flash at the cannons mouth,
Were brought back to me so vividly,
I dropped to sleep, and forsooth
I traveled again the dusty roads,
Camped beneath the stars,
And once again I saw that flag,
The dear old Stars and Bars.

On Bull Run's field its stars were bright,
Its blue was like the sky,
its red field, true as the blood
Of the soldiers standing by,
Yes, it was new, no powder smoke
Had grimed, nor shot had torn,
The flag of the Confederate States
Now so proudly borne.

The gun had fired o'er the Stone
Bridge,
First of a conflict drear,
But not a foot of ground we gave,
With Stonewall standing near.
But before the sun was set
-And o'er that field shone the stars,
Torn by shot and drenched with blood,
Was the dear old Stars and Bars.

Chancellorsville, sad the day,
To mine eyes it brought a tear,
'Twas there I saw Jackson's flag,
Thrown tenderly o'er his bier.
And not my eyes alone were dimmed,
With tears, and sobs as well,
But all the dear Southland was stunned,

When that brave hero fell,
O'er the river we saw him go,
The battle raged next day,
But we missed that great, bold leader,
To guide us in the fray.
Yes, we had lost a leader,
And a loving friend as well,
The feelings we had when he was gone,
No tongue can ever tell.

At Gettysburg, Pickett's charge,
The flag went with that brigade,
Across the field I saw it,
By many a brave arm stayed,
Down it went, but 'twas up again,
Then lost behind the pines,
Then I beheld that glorious flag
Inside the Yankee lines.

It almost seems yesterday,
Again I heard them cheered,
As the boys in Gray rushed forward,
The old stone fence was cleared!
A brave man died that day,
Was buried in that field,
The awful rain of shot and shell,
Could never make them yield.

Then the fights of the Wilderness,
And Fredericksburg as well,
We were in so many battles
My old brain cannot tell.
My dream took me in them all,
I fought each o'er again,
Just as I did in days of old,
Through all that long campaign.

Appomattox, I clearly saw,
'Twas all brought back to me,
On his old horse Traveller,
Sat that matchless leader Lee.
A troubled look was on his face,
He felt the end was near,
He gave the "Farewell Order",
To fold that flag so dear.

Then to our stricken homes,
We carried our flags, one and all,
Took mine, a hallowed thing,
And I hung it on the wall,
So that when I o'ped my eyes,
The first thing to greet my sight,
Was that old battle flag
Just as it came from the fight.

I awoke from my dream and saw
That dear flag on the wall,
Yes, and I was quite sure I heard,
A far off bugle call,
Gazed on that flag, frayed and torn,
With all its battle scars,
Giving the old time "Rebel Yell",
I cheered the Stars and Bars."

MANASSAS U. D. C. HONORS DAVIS

A beautiful and impressive Memorial Service was held Wednesday, June 3, in the High School Auditorium, honoring Jefferson Davis, one of the South's beloved heroes. Rev. Westwood Hutchison presided over the meeting.

The program was opened with the Assembly Bugle by the Swavely Bagged followed by "How Firm a Foundation" sung by the audience.

Rev. W. A. Hall offered the invocation.

The Ritual of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was read with Rev. A. S. Gibson, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church, leading.

The assembly was favored with a duet by Mrs. F. N. Larkin and Miss Jane S. Herrell and also a solo by Mrs. Larkin.

Mrs. C. M. Larkin read a tribute to the daughters who have answered the final roll call during the past year.

Mrs. L. L. Lomas read a poem by Mr. Albert Speiden which is published in full in this paper.

Rev. W. A. Hall, the speaker for the occasion, was introduced by the Chairman of ceremonies and rendered an able address on the Rights for which the South fought so bravely to uphold. He pictured Jefferson Davis as one of the true specimens of the old South's honor and glory.

He is quoted as saying that history has truly vindicated the stand of the South and that he had learned to love his northern neighbors because of their acknowledgment of wrong.

Miss Hodge played "Dixie" and Prof. Haydon awarded the prizes of offered school children.

Mrs. Robert Hutchison presented a prize of $2.50 to Reba Crawford for the best essay on "Lee, The Defender of the Constitution." Mrs. Hutchison gave this prize thru the Manassas Chapter U. D. C. in memory of her mother, Mrs. Belle J. Holden. It was in reward for the able efforts to win the state prize. A great deal of interest was taken in this work and Miss Marjorie-Lacy, Manassas High School history teacher, is commended for her untiring efforts.

Others receiving honorable mention are Hattie Mae Partlow, Charlotte Tiffany, Keith Lyons, and Charles Robertson.

ALUMNI AMUSE MANASSAS YOUTH

Staid Grads of the "Nineties" and "Naughty Naughts" Perform

The largest gathering ever witnessed at an Alumni Banquet gathered in the basement of the new Methodist Church on Saturday evening. Mrs. R. C. Haydon president, called a brief business meeting prior to the banquet at which Miss Willette Myers was elected president for the coming year; other officers: vice president, James Davies, Jr., secretary, Miss Gladys Ball and treasurer, Mrs. Dudley Martin.

The hall was schemed with care and decorations were quite elaborate. Some little speculation was rife as to the stage setting in the west end which furnished a pleasant series of surprises later in the evening.

Wheatley Johnson and Rev. J. F. Gulick had a little separate reunion in one corner for Naughty-Five.

Mrs. Norma Davies, of class of '96 and a teacher for some years, was present and graciously consented to act as toastmistress.

Her opening remarks were as follows:

"I appreciate, more than I can possible express, the very gracious words of your president and hope that in some way I may deserve them. I want to thank her for the honor of being allowed to preside here tonight.

I feel like I might be termed a grandmother of the association, as I was a member of the first graduating class 35 years ago back in the 'gay nineties'."

"As I look around it is a joy to me to see many familiar faces that have graduated from our Alma Mater since that time. A few very few that date back almost as far, as I know there is our preacher, Joe G.

"There is B. Conway Taylor, who wrote the 'Blue and Gold' our school song which is the next thing on our program. Mrs. Hooff, Mrs. Wade Dalton who graduated as Nina Haydon and mother of Edward Dalton, one of this year's graduates, and others whom we are all so glad to see."

Mrs. Davies then called on Mr. Mitchell to give a toast.

"Next we have a welcome to the class of 1931. This welcome will be given by the president of the class of 1930, a boy of whom we are very proud and of whom we will hear more in the future I am sure as I have just learned that he has successfully passed the entrance examinations to West Point being 9th over the whole United States." Mr. Mitchell gave a toast in his typical Cavalier fashion, the first toast of the evening. Miss Frances Bushong, president of '31 responded, modestly citing the work done at the school during the life of the present class.

Wheatley Johnson, 65, gave a very interesting review of the history of old Manassas Institute which later became Manassas High School. He particularly dwelt on the formation of the Alumni Association. B. Conway Taylor, who took a leading part in the evening also responded with a hearty greeting and gave some reminiscences.

Mrs. John Hynson sang a pretty solo extolling the principal, Miss Eugenia Osbourne.

The next and very interesting feature was a review of an old standby in bygone graduation days. Mr. Conway Taylor read with real feeling Pennysson's, "Dream of Fair Women" while Miss Speiden played very softly.

Some of those who took part in the old time affairs put on "long flowing robes" and came forth to answer the touching lines read by Mr. Taylor, but it was also necessary to use several substitutes.

The "bachelor who lived by himself" (Carroll Rice) had a time ignoring fair dames. (Mrs. C. W. Dalton, Miss Lora Bell, Mrs. Raymond Wren, Mrs. R. L. Lewis, Mrs. Percival Smith (Please turn to page .)

Montgomery Stresses Importance of Home Surroundings

The leading thought which pervaded the graduation exercises of one of Manassas High's most interesting classes was an intensely practical one. Colloquially it might have been termed "It pays to advertise"—but in fact it was a most charming exposition of what our boys and girls are being taught.

In the program it was termed a "Review" and Miss Bushong, class president, introduced the following who spoke a few words about their respective departments.

Vocational Agriculture, "Mazyck Wood; Commercial Department Miss Mary Harrover and Miss Christine Meetze; Home Economics, Miss Helen Lloyd; Music Appreciation, Miss Rena Beavans; Athletics, Lacey Compton; "The Yellow Jacket", Chester Harley, Miss Eleanor Gibson; The Junior League, League President Miss Barbara Neill.

Mr. J. H. Montgomery, of the Co-operative Education Association, spoke in a way which was a most fitting sequel to what had gone before on the program.

He emphasized the status of the home as being the real background of the school and urged in sound, searching language the responsibility of the parent in preparing a product for the public school system.

The list of prizes and awards given out are as follows:

POOLED WOOL TO BE LOADED AT MARKHAM JUNE 7

Wool to be marketed through the United Wool Growers Association will be received at Markham on June 17. The plan for handling wool through the association is the same as that for 1930. Bags are being furnished, freight prepaid, upon application. Advances to be made at loading point have not been determined at this writing. However, according to Field Representative K. A. Keithly, the advance will be all that good business will justify and will compare favorably with the price that regular wool dealers will pay for sizeable lots.

DAIRY FESTIVAL DINNER

Dairy Festival Dinner will be held at hotel at 12:30 p. m. Wednesday. Judging from response in nearby counties, the proposition should go over strong and be a good piece of advertising for Northern Virginia. Persons desiring to attend should let Mr. J. J. Conner know at once as reservations cannot be made at last minute.

The Word of God

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

WAIT PATIENTLY: Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.—Psalms 27:14.

DAVIS' LAST DAY IN COURT

The difference between $100,000 and $7,882 is a great deal more than $52,118. It is the difference between gross negligence and a petty though provoking wastage in the handling of public funds. It is the difference between public service and public mischief-making on the part of the Virginia Bureau of Research.

Now that a check of every voucher for the past three years has shown that lost discounts amounted to less than 8 per cent of the amount alleged, the Virginia Bureau of Research has three courses open to it:

1. If the bureau is convinced that its figures were wrong, it should frankly say so, and should explain how the mistake came about. Any man may make mistake—even of 92 per cent in his estimates.

2. If it suspects that the state's accounts have been tampered with, or that there has been any "cover up"—which nobody else believes, assuredly—the bureau should at once offer to place in the hands of some disinterested, impartial agency a list showing the dates and the amounts of vouchers on which it claims the state has lost the $92,000 that the auditors did not find.

3. If, finally, the bureau has not the detailed evidence and unwilling to admit its error, it can lapse into the silence of discredit.

It is in this light. The News-Leader believes, that Virginia people will view the episode. Strange as has been Governor Davis' conduct in this curious affair, and reticent though he has been when everyone expected him to speak with candor, he is entitled to a final day in court, either to present his evidence or to make his apology. It is hardly conceivable that he will not do one or the other of these things, with the governor's stamp of falsity on his charges.

—Richmond News-Leader.

special interest to Kiwanis, which was a simple matter, since he had found from experience that Kiwanians are interested in home and children and work—and even in love. In fact, he said, "they seem to be interested in anything worthwhile in life."

"You men", the speaker said, "are doing a great work. 'We Build' is your motto. And, believe me, you do build. Not with stones and bricks and mortar, but with the most precious materials of life. Honesty, integrity, fairness, faith—these are some of your materials. And you are building a universal business character such as the world has never before seen."

"One night some months ago, Mr. Hill and I were talking about this very thing. He recalled an ancient Latin phrase 'Caveat Emptor!'—'Let the buyer beware!' It set me to thinking rhyme, with the result that I wrote the following verses entitled 'Caveat Emptor!'"

In ancient days the marts of trade Were fertile fields for knavery, And he who honest bargains made Showed unaccustomed bravery. The buyer scarcely had a chance To purchase goods of quality, For traders thrived on ignorance And general rascality.

"Caveat Emptor" was the vogue When Rome began to rot away, And almost any wiley rogue Pulled shady deals and got away.

The shrewd shopkeeper plied his art Of cheating all society, And gouged his patrons to the heart With utmost sales propriety.

But times have changed since those dark days When tradesmen vied in hatefulness And competition's scheming ways Left little room for gratefulness.

The greasy game of "dog-eat dog" Has now become a rarity, And business men who play the hog Are shunned with regularity.

Across the friendly luncheon board Competitors now "talk-it-out,"

FREE CHEST EXAMINATION

Free Chest Examination by Dr. C. W. Scott, State Department of Health for White People: Thursday, June 18 at Red Cross Headquarters, 9:30 a. m. to 12. For colored people: Thursday June 18, Manassas Red Cross Headquarters: 2 p. m. to 4:30.

And any one whose plan has scored Is really glad to "walk-it-out." Kiwanians, you've proved your worth In building trade security And chasing shysters off the earth, Or into dim obscurity."

"Service", the speaker said, "is nothing new to Kiwanis for that is what Kiwanis clubs are—service clubs. There are many different kinds of service. One that I am particularly interested in is that of the company for whom I work. For service is really the only commodity it has to offer and every telephone man and woman is engaged in making it, the best possible service. As an example of what such service means to a community, I wrote some verses dedicated to the telephone operator. They are:

With finger tips swift and unerring, With ear tuned to laughter or tears With patience and fortitude bearing The burnt of the game—less the cheers—

he sits at her station of duty. Alert to the signal lights gleam, And fashions with magical beauty A pattern as strange as a dream. The threads that her fingers are weaving

Are strands of the world's busy life The hopes and the fears and the grieving—

The happiness mixed with the strife The fabric's a network of living, Entwining the sad and the gay, And knit with the taking and giving That crowd the short hours of the day.

Unmindful of self in her serving, She turns to her task with a will, And meets with a courage unswerving The trust that is hers to fulfill.

And so, the vast needs of a nation Speed out o'er the pulsating wires To gain, in their swift consummation, The service her ideal inspires!

"Another very different service that parents can render is by giving companionship to one's family," Mr. Davidson said. "A man can be a good fellow generally—a joiner—belong to all the lodges and clubs in his community and still be a total failure as a parent at home. The man who does that sort of thing, however, is missing a real opportunity. There is not anything finer in my judgment than the companionship of a small boy. A year or two ago I heard a father tell his small son that he had more important things to do than to play ball with him. This incident set me to wondering how many other fathers always have 'Something Else to Do' so I set my thoughts to rhyme and here it is: "Jimmie Johnson's Daddy is an awful lot of fun—

He's a peacherino pitcher and can hit a real home run. I know my Dad could play as well but when I ast him to,

He is always awful busy and not somethin' else to do.

Jimmie Johnson's Daddy knows a lot of dandy games—

And he plays 'em with us fellers and he don't call Jimmie "Jamies"—

I'll bet my Dad knows lots of things that's fun for fellers, too—

But he's always awful busy and got somethin' else to do.

Some kids' Dads seem glad to have a chance to play with boys—

And even if they're readin' they do not mind a little noise—

I'll bet my Dad would beat 'em all if he just only knew

How I miss him when he's busy and got somethin' else to do!

In closing, the speaker complimented the Kiwanis Club on the fine work it is doing in Manassas and Prince William County. He said that if a year or two ago he had been asked what the purpose of a Kiwanis club was, he would have said that it was a bunch of grown-up boys banded together to indulge in horse-play, but that he had his eyes opened by association with some enthusiastic Kiwanis booster. The organization should be heartily commended for its excellent work in caring for underprivileged children and in other worthwhile accomplishments which had made Kiwanis internationally known for its service to the communities of which the clubs are a part. (Editor's Note to Ed Hill: Why can't you bring Miss Glenn once a month instead of once a year.)

Editor, Manassas Journal:

On behalf of the citizens of Cherry Hill, I want to take this opportunity to thank our Supervisor, Mr. J. W. Merchant, and his manager, Mr. Peel, for the excellent work they are doing on the Cherry Hill road.

The road has been widened and is now being graveled and when this work has been completed, the citizens here will have an excellent outlet to the State Highway.

Going back to the close of the World War the citizens here found themselves confined to one outlet, namely, the R. F. & P. R. R. With the development of the Richmond-Washington State Highway it was very desirable that the people living here should have a road that would connect with this main highway.

Therefore immediately steps were taken to get in touch with the Supervisor. While the supervisor sympathized with us there was no money available at that time for such a large undertaking.

Sympathy never built or accomplished anything worth while so a meeting was called and $600.00 collected to start work May 6, 1919. Our next problem was to find someone who could build a road on little capital over mountains for a distance of 4 miles.

Our minds were soon relieved of this worry when it became known that we had the money to start work. So many road builders applied for the position that we were unable to avail ourselves of their splendid service that they were willing to give for a small compensation, so decided to get someone just outside of our immediate family of friends. This was accomplished by calling your present Superintendent of roads, Mr. H. L. Tubbs.

Mr. Tubbs at this time was in charge of roads in Coles District. Mr. Tubbs was advised that his services were desired here and called to see us and we stated, of course, just what we would like done and the amount of money available at that time.

The four-mile road over mountains and $600.00 available for this work was not an encouraging one for the most optimistic person, however, Mr. Tubbs agreed to do his best and what an achievement this was for such a difficult project.

Starting this work May 6, 1919, with what equipment what was available, and what could be borrowed, Mr. Tubbs and his men assisted by some 30 or 40 men after 4 p. m. in the evening who volunteered to help remove stumps, cut trees and cut down the high banks of dirt, found themselves at the end of three weeks at Cherry Hill at a cost of $590.00. Thanks to the citizens of this community who gave so freely of money and labor and also to the man who directed this great community work, Mr. H. L. Tubbs.

HARLEY—HOLLEN

Harrisonburg, Va., May 27, 1931.—An early morning wedding of much beauty and charm was that of Miss Elsie Vint Hollen and Samuel A. Harley, which was solemnized Sunday morning, May 24 at six o'clock in the College Street Church of the Brethren, of Bridgewater. The bride is the daughter of T. B. Hollen, of Bridgewater, and the groom is a son of S. C. Harley, of Manassas. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Bridgewater College.

The church was beautifully decorated with potted ferns and candles. Before the ceremony, a very impressive musicale was rendered. Miss Ruth E. Weybright, of Bridgewater College, was at the piano, and Nelson T. Huffman, also of Bridgewater College, sang two solos, 'Perfect Love' and 'Because.'

The bridal party moved to the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. 'O Perfect Love' was played softly during the wedding. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Grover L. Wine, pastor of the bride. The license bearer was Master Harold Hersch, of Geer, a nephew of the groom. Little Miss Janet Evers, the bride's cousin, strewed rose-petals in the pathway of the bride.

The maid of honor was Miss Carrie Hollen, a sister of the bride. She was dressed in orchid crepe and carried snapdragons. The bridesmaids were Misses Grace Wright and Norma Hollen, who wore yellow chiffon dresses and carried white carnations.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She was very beautiful in her white satin, crepe dress and sweeping bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

The best man was Chester I. Harley, of Manassas, and the ushers were Herbert Hollen, Lewis V. Miller, Leonard Hollen and Albert Wine of Washington.

The bridal party, the immediate families and a few friends were invited to breakfast with the bride and groom at the home of the bride's father. Just after the breakfast the bridal couple left for a camping trip of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley will be at home to their friends after the 18th of June at Brownsville, Md., where Mr. Harley is pastor of the Brownsville Church of the Brethren.

Mr. Chester Harley is a brother of the groom.

Those attending from Manassas were S. C. Harley and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kline, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Kline, and August Johns.

A number of guests were present from Brownsville.

Other guests at the wedding were Mrs. E. E. Blough and daughter,

Mr. Robert Zerbe, of Washington, was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Swavely.

Mr. and Mrs. Kline spent the week end with Mrs. Kline's mother in Warrenton.

On Sunday afternoon the Glee Club under the leadership of Mrs. Illingworth and assisted by Mrs. W. Leachman and Miss G. Ball, broadcast.

The final examinations are now over, and the rest of the week will be devoted to Commencement Exercises and Festivities.

This afternoon the Track Meet took place and this evening the Baccalaureate Service will be held in Trinity Church.

On Saturday at 10 a. m. the Commencement Exercises will take place and at 12:30 the Alumni Luncheon.

A few boys will be staying for the College Entrance Examinations beginning June 15.

To the Democratic Voters of Manassas District:

After having duly considered the many requests of some of the most substantial citizens of the county, both within and outside the district, who have the best interests of the County as a whole at heart, which I have received in the past four to six weeks, I have finally decided to offer my services to the County, and hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Supervisor of Manassas Magisterial District subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 4, 1931.

I am fully cognizant of the seriousness of this great depression which is on us and the importance of a reduction of taxes to enable the people to live through this period and from time to time shall endeavor to point out through the columns of the Journal ways and means by which a retrenchment program may be worked out.

Thanking you in advance for your loyal support, I am,

Faithfully yours,
MARTIN D. LYNCH.

Matchless economy with six-cylinder smoothness

"Better than 20 miles to the gallon." "Its cost-per-mile is the lowest of any car." "Never have to add oil between crankcase changes." "Drove from Ohio to California on a repair expense of $1.05." "It just runs and runs and runs."

—typical comments from owners of the Chevrolet Six

Chevrolet's 152" frame supports the body throughout its entire length

Why is it that Chevrolet—a big, powerful,
smooth-running six—actually costs less to operate and maintain than any other car you can buy? The answer lies in five outstanding factors of Chevrolet economy:

1. Efficient Engine Design makes Chevrolet fuel consumption so low that 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline is nothing unusual for a Chevrolet owner.

2. Modern Chassis Design—as evidenced by Chevrolet's long heavy frame, four parallel-mounted springs, and smooth-running six-cylinder engine—increases the ability of the Chevrolet Six to run dependably, day after day.

3. Excellence of Manufacture also adds to Chevrolet dependability and long life.
Chevrolet pistons, for instance, are built so carefully, and held true to such close limits of precision, that many owners have gone

20,000 miles or more without having their motors opened for major servicing.

4. High-Quality
Materials are used throughout the Chevrolet car—costly nickel steel, chromevanadium steels, chrome-nickel steels—to assure trouble-free, low-cost service for tens of thousands of miles.

5. Economical Nationwide Service, with its low flat-rate charges on labor and genuine parts, is available at 10,000 dealers throughout the country, who also offer the protection of the most liberal owner's service policy ever to back a low-priced car.

Remember—in addition to all these basic economies—Chevrolet offers the extra dollars-and-cents advantage of one of the lowest delivered prices on the market.
And this cost may be spread over a period of many months by the liberal G.M.A.C. plan.

Chevrolet's Owner's Service
Policy is the most liberal ever offered in connection with a low-priced car

Every body thought young Taylor could play until Miss Dorothy Beachley came from behind the screen and showed up the "fake." Then she rewarded the audience with a violin solo.

After the "old-timers" had their display the youngsters under Miss Anna Bruce Whitmore, "capered around a little. The "gossip table" brought out roars of laughter as Miss Whitmore assisted by Elvire Conner, Frances McDonald and Lucretia Larkin poked fun at everybody.

Miss Virginia Conner got off a good snappy "dome".

Miss Frances Bushong looked into the future for '31 in a few brief words and promised lasting cooperation from the class.

Our race is run!

From its halls past its walls

We must speed!

Without fears, but with tears
