

ARTHUR CARTER IS HIGH MAN

Only 20 Points Behind State Winner.

BLACKSBURG, June 18.—More than 700 vocational agricultural high school students attended the Future Farmer of America rally held at Virginia Polytechnic Institute, June 15 to 18. While attending the sixth annual rally, teams representing nearly 150 high schools took part in judging livestock and crops, and in an athletic meet. Seven individuals took part in the finals of a public speaking contest. For the first time this year a school for chapter officers was held.

The judging teams under Professor Pullen scored high at Blacksburg last week. Of the 108 agricultural high schools, Nokesville ran the 7th and Manassas 8th in the dairy contest. The highest team made 1942 points. Nokesville made 1791 points, just 8 more than Manassas. The individual high score in the state was 647. Carter ran 7th with 627 points.

The poultry judging team from Herndon under Professor W. R. Crabill won the state contest.

Both Professor Pullen and Professor Crabill deserve especial credit for the high quality of the teams they produced.

The team from Manassas was composed of Arthur Carter, John Pattie and Clarence Varner; from Nokesville, Herman Swank, Bendill Wood and Harold Neff.

At the banquet which closed the rally cups for victorious teams and medals for individual winners were awarded. Ernest Goodrich, Surry, will represent Virginia in the public speaking contest to be held in Atlanta this fall. Charles Wampler placed second in the contest here. Whaleyville won the chapter contest, with Wicomico second, and Disputanta third.

The athletic meet was won by Fishersville, with Mica and Varina tied for second and Winchester third. Herndon was fourth and Mt. Jackson was fifth.

Gladespring won the livestock judging contest. C. Rosenbaum, Gladespring; R. T. Craig, Liberty Hall, and W. Lancaster, Cannadaw, won individual scoring honors and were awarded gold, silver and bronze medals. They will make up a team to represent Virginia at Kansas City this fall. The other nine teams in order were Middlebrook, Temple, Liberty Hall, Willis, Elk Creek, Bethel, Amherst, Weyers Cave and Independence.

Honaker won the dairy contest. W. Fuller, Burks Garden; C. Gibson, Honaker, and F. Barnett, Honaker, were the individual high scorers. The other nine high teams in order were Varina, Dinwiddie, Mt. Jackson, Calverton, Broadway, Nokesville, Manassas, Lincoln, and Appomattox.

Herndon won the poultry contest. C. Clore, Madison; W. Savage, Whaleyville, and E. Eastridge, Sugar Grove, won the medals for being high scorers. The other nine high teams announced were Woodstock (A), Temperanceville, Whaleyville, Madison, Sugar Grove, Copel, Ivy Depot, Clintwood and Woodstock (B).

Windsor won the contest in crops. C. Yeatts, Climax; A. Spivey, Windsor, and E. Jones, Holland, won individual honors. The other nine teams in this contest follow: Newsoms, Holland, Chase City, Capron, Climax, Carrsville, Atlee, and Surry.

Leslie Fry, freshman at the University of Missouri and national president of Future Farmers of America, brought greetings of the national organization. W. A. Ross, Washington, D. C., executive secretary, spoke about the growth of the organization which in less than three years has expanded into 46 states, with more than 60,000 members in 2,500 chapters. Virginia, as the mother chapter, holds state charter number one. Dr. James Speed, editor of Southern Agriculturalist, spoke at two sessions.

Blaine Blackburn, Grassy Creek, N. C., was elected president of the state organization for next year. Orrin Stickley, Woodstock, was elected vice-president; Ashly Brumback, Middlebrook; secretary; Elbert Womble, Whaleyville, treasurer; Fred Duntling, Temperanceville, reporter; W. S. Newman, Richmond, executive secretary-treasurer; Prof. H. C. Grose, close, state adviser; Joe Henry Gardner, Holland; Jake Priode, Clintwood, and Harold Bridgewater, executive committee.

Election to the degree of state farmer, highest honor of the organization, was won by 30 who had obtained unusually high grades in class work, successfully completed voca-

PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY HORSE SHOW

The premium list for the Prince William County Horse Show at Nokesville is being sent out this week by Secretary J. R. McCuen. The date for this popular event is July 29 and 30. Extensive plans have been made and the hearty responses indicate that this will be the most successful event that the Association has ever conducted.

WALLER SUCCEEDS SALE AS ADJUTANT-GENERAL

Accepting the resignation of Adjutant-General W. W. Sale, which was tendered last Thursday, Governor Pollard later announced the appointment to this post of Brigadier-General Samuel Waller, of Front Royal.

SOUTH GREENWICH TRIMS CATHARPIN

On Saturday Catharpin journeyed to Greenwich with hopes of taking a game of ball from the Greenwich boys, with their hopes failed when they returned home with the short end of a 21-17 score. The game was long and exciting with many extra base hits. Taylor and Swart were the leading hitters for the day. N. Hopkins, relieving Grim after the second inning, retired three men with three pitched balls in the third inning.

JUDGE WHEATLEY JOHNSON

The recent appointment of Mr. Wheatley Johnson as Judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court of Prince William County meets with general approbation. Judge Johnson resides at Clover Hill Farm, near Manassas, where his people have lived for more than a hundred and fifty years. He is a graduate of the Manassas Institute and High School, Washington and Lee, and Vanderbilt Universities. His academic studies included law.

Judge Johnson is a veteran of the World War, belonging to the 80th Division, and did his share of service at the front. In 1918 he married Miss Dorothy Hayden. They have five children.

Naturally fond of children and being deeply interested in education, he is admirably fitted for his new position. His good humor and pleasing personality, as well as his readiness to serve his community in every possible way have made him generally popular.

HUNT CLUB ORGANIZED

Kelly Named First Master

PINK AND PURPLE ARE OFFICIAL COLORS

On Monday night, an enthusiastic crowd of two score sportsmen of Prince William gathered at the hospitable home of W. H. Robertson near Haymarket to discuss the future of this section for a Hunt Club.

Mr. McCarthy, master of Fox Hounds of the Cobble Hunt, has just returned from Boston with the information that the Master Fox Hounds Association is agreeable to recognizing the local outfit if it proves seaworthy. Mr. McCarthy has been very generous with his time and efforts in the behalf of Prince William riders.

The prime mover in this enterprise has been J. A. Kelly, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Haymarket, Va. The group recognized this by selecting him as their first president and also as master of hounds.

Other officers named are: vice presidents, W. Holmes Robertson, M. M. Washington, and B. C. Smith; secretary-treasurer, W. R. Gosson; huntsman, Henry Lynn; whip, Geo. W. Gosson; directors, E. E. Hale, J. Carl Kincheoloe, B. C. Smith, W. H. Robertson, H. W. Herring, J. A. Kelly, Mitchell Cooke, Robert George, Harry Polen, Johnson Russell, T. C. Pierce, H. F. Lynn, S. M. McCarthy and W. M. Jordan.

The season selected will run from October 1 to March 15, Wednesdays and Saturdays. The coats will be pink with collars purple. The lettering on buttons will be P. W. H. The official name "Prince William County Hunt Club."

SUMMER SEEDING VERSUS SPRING SEEDING OF CLOVER AND GRASS

The most common practice in Virginia is to sow the grass seed with the small grain in the fall and the clover on top of the small grain in the spring. On fertile land containing sufficient moisture this is an excellent method, but on thin soil there is seldom sufficient available plant food or moisture to produce a crop of grain and a crop of grass at the same time. Consequently the young grass and clover plants being weaker either starve or perish.

During a ten-year experiment conducted at Blacksburg there were three complete failures where the clover and grass were seeded in the spring, while there was only one failure due to seeding in August without a nurse crop. The ten-year average yield of the spring seeding was 1.85 tons per acre, while that of the summer seeding was 2 tons per acre. The summer seeded grass was also of better quality, being free from weeds and briars.

Where profitable stands of good quality hay are being secured from spring seeding it is not advocated that a change be made to summer seeding. However, summer seeding is advocated when the other method has not been satisfactory.

Hon. G. A. Sinclair was taken ill on Tuesday and is still indisposed.

MANASSAS MAN RANKS HIGH

High School Alumnus Goes Into Educational Field

Mr. Sydney T. Lawler graduated with distinction from the University of Maryland with the degree of Bachelor of Science and with an award of a diploma as high school teacher of agricultural education at the recent commencement.

Mr. Lawler is a graduate of Manassas High School and entered the University of Maryland in 1927. In the second year he was elected to membership in the Alpha Zeta fraternity, an honorary organization, membership in which is based entirely on scholastic standing. He maintained this scholastic honor throughout the remainder of his college life and was graduated as an honor man. Although Mr. Lawler matriculated in the College of Education he specialized in agricultural science and at this time is considering an appointment as instructor in agriculture in the high school at Millville, New Jersey.

138 VETERANS MEET AT CHARLOTTESVILLE

Handful of Lee's Grey Army Assemble In State Reunion; Joint Meeting With Sons

The forty-fourth annual reunion of Confederate veterans of Virginia opened at Charlottesville Tuesday with 138 veterans registering. Meeting with the survivors of the battles fought from 1861 to '65 are the Sons of Confederate Veterans, who are holding their thirty-sixth gathering. The sessions of the gathering are being held in the armory of the Monticello Guard.

Mrs. A. J. Montague told members of the grand camp that the Home for Confederate Women, Richmond, costing $271,000 would be completed by October. There are now 43 women at the home.

The meeting in Charlottesville is the first held in that city in seven years.

Strong pleas were made by Commanders Bishop and Evans for the camps to hold together, so that Virginia might have as many votes as any other Southern States at the Richmond reunion next year. This State had only 64 votes, at the Montgomery reunion, as against 140 for Texas. R. E. Lee Camp, Richmond, has only 22 members living out of 1,700. The Roanoke camp has 25 members.

Of the 138 veterans who registered one, J. T. Grady, Harrisonburg, will be 100 in September.

675-FOOT TUNNEL WILL BE BUILT ON SKYLAND TRAIL

Bids To Be Opened June 25 For Building New Highway Contracts Will Call For Completion In 300 Days

Engineers have completed the survey of the proposed "Skyland Trail" along the crest of the Blue Ridge mountains from Panorama on the Lee Highway to Swift Run Gap on the Spottswood Trail, and bids for the construction of this mountain highway have been asked by United States Bureau of Public Roads at Washington to be opened on June 25.

The Trail, which will be the nucleus to the most important highway to pierce the proposed Shenandoah National Park, will be unique in that one of the ridges, jutting out from Mary's Rock must be tunneled. This tunnel, which will be the most costly piece of the construction of the trail, will be 675 feet long.

To Be Ready Next Summer Ferdinand Zirkle, of Luray, who obtained the rights of way for the construction of the highway in behalf of the state, while in Harrisonburg yesterday, declared the Federal engineers hope to have the highway built for use next summer by tourists. The construction contracts, Mr. Zirkle said, called for the completion of the 46-mile mountain crest road within 300 days.

INSTITUTE ON RURAL AFFAIRS JULY 28-31

(Prepared by Extension Division, V. P. I.)

"Some Needed Adjustments in Southern Agriculture" will be the general theme of the Institute of Rural Affairs to be held at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blacksburg, July 28-31. This topic should be of particular interest this year when agriculture is changing so rapidly in order to meet economic conditions. The usual arrangements will be made to accommodate visitors to the Institute in the college dormitories and meals will be served at the college dining hall at reasonable prices. Printed copies of the program of the Institute of Rural Affairs and State Farmers' Institute, which will be held at the same time, are now ready for distribution and may be had by addressing the Director of Extension Division, Blacksburg, Va.

The Virginia Homemakers' Association will hold its annual meeting at V. P. I. the same week and information about this meeting may be had by addressing the state home demonstration agent, Miss Maude Wallace, Blacksburg, Va. The first session of the Homemakers' Association will be held on Tuesday morning, July 28 at 9 o'clock by the president, Mrs. W. R. Turner. Joint meetings of the three organizations will be held Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the gymnasium of the War Memorial Hall when men and women of national reputation will speak and there will be special musical programs.

Exercises in honor of Cyrus H. McCormick, inventor of the reaper, will be held in the afternoon and evening of Wednesday, July 29. A pageant will be staged under professional direction and there will be an old-fashioned barbecue free to all.

At the first joint meeting Tuesday night Dr. J. A. Burruss will present certificates of merit to two outstanding leaders in agriculture or home-making and Dr. U. B. Phillips, Yale University, will speak on "The Antecedents of the Present Southern Rural Civilization." During the week those attending the Institute will hear such well known speakers as Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute; Dr. W. J. Spillman, National Bureau of Agricultural Economics; Dr. G. W. Forester, N. C. State College; Hon. Walter Harrison, chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the Georgia Bankers' Association; Dr. G. F. Warren, Cornell University; Dr. C. E. Ladd, New York Conservation Commission; Dr. Carl C. Taylor and Dr. E. C. Branson, of North Carolina; Dr. R. H. Tucker, of Washington and Lee University; Dr. C. E. Allred, of Tennessee University; Dr. Caroline Hedges, of Chicago, and Dr. S. B. Hall, of the State Department of Education. Dr. Hedges, Dr. Warren and Dr. Ladd, three of the best known speakers in the country, are on the program Friday morning, the last day of the Institute, and all those who come to Blacksburg for the meetings will miss a great deal if they do not remain at least until noon Friday.

The standards of living section, which always attracts a great deal of attention during the meetings of the Institute, will again be in charge of Dr. Carl C. Taylor, of North Carolina. Farmers and farm women who have attended these meetings during recent years have been greatly benefited and received much valuable information of value to them in solving problems of farming and homekeeping. Everyone connected with the State Agricultural College and the Virginia extension division is working to make the meetings this year even better than those held in the past. Nothing will be left undone to add to the physical comfort of the visitors to the college during the week no matter how many come. Those who expect to stay in barracks should bring their own bedding and toilet articles. Full information as to the meetings may be had from county farm and home demonstration agents and Smith-Hughes teachers or by writing to the Extension Division, V. P. I., Blacksburg, Va.

BYRD TO SPEAK AT MARSHALL

Under auspices of the Woman's Democratic Club, Hon. Harry Floor Byrd will make an address on "State Government," on Saturday evening, June 27, in the auditorium of the high school at Marshall, Va.

Excellent Attendance Is a Feature of Meeting

More than fifty bank directors and officials of the Bull Run Association met at the high school auditorium on Tuesday with C. E. Tiffany in the chair. G. R. Ratcliffe, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting which were accepted as read.

A report of a committee on fees and charges was voted on, in sections to be referred to the several Boards of Directors.

Much of the discussion centered around a charge on small accounts and the proposal to pay four per cent on savings accounts.

C. A. Stewart, of Falls Church, National Bank Examiner, recommended the practice. A drastic attack was made on the proposal by E. E. Garrett, president of the Loudoun National Bank.

Others who spoke on various subjects were Mr. Anderson, of Marshall, Mr. E. R. Conner, of Manassas, Mr. S. C. Brittle, of Warrenton and Mr. Reed, of Round Hill. The last named gave a very interesting exposition of some of the practical details of service charges as adopted by his institution.

The association will meet on July 28 at Leesburg.

LAKE JACKSON AUCTION SALE

BEAUTIFUL LAKE NEAR MANASSAS ATTRACTS STATE WIDE ATTENTION

Lake Jackson, near Manassas, will be opened for sale of desirable lots on Saturday, June 27. Mr. Charles W. Alpaugh has been working energetically on this project for several years. The beautiful artificial lake, eight miles long, created as a power reservoir by the Virginia Public Service Company, affords a means of healthy recreation not found elsewhere in this section of Virginia. The sale is being conducted by Broadwater and Fort. Owing to increasing pollution of the Potomac River, this fresh water resort is already becoming very popular and the opportunity to purchase water front and adjoining lots at the purchaser's own valuation is attracting wide attention.

TURKEY RAISERS PLAN MEETING

A meeting of unusual interest to poultrymen of Northern Virginia who are raising turkeys will be held at Lucky Hitt Turkey Farm owned by Mrs. P. A. Guinn on Tuesday, June 30 at 1:00 o'clock P. M. Mrs. Guinn lives halfway between Culpeper and Inlet on the Brandy Road. The meeting will be given over entirely to the discussion of turkey raising and it will be a splendid opportunity for all turkey raisers to get the latest information on care and management of turkeys.

Among the speakers who will be present at the meeting are Lyman Peck, who is a specialist on parasites and blackhead in turkeys, Prof. H. D. Munroe, formerly of Penn State College and an authority on turkey diseases, feeding, and management and Nelson A. Loucke of the Division of Markets of the State of Virginia. Some of the best known turkey raisers in the state will be present including Mrs. G. Luther Miller, Keesleton; Mrs. C. W. Green, Novum; Murray Leach, Greenwich; Mrs. A. C. Ellett, Rixeyville and Mrs. Guinn, and those practical turkey raisers will take part in the meeting.

Every turkey raiser in this locality is cordially invited to bring any question he might have on the raising of turkeys to this meeting. It is strictly educational and will be extremely helpful to everyone engaged in this business. The raising of turkeys from the time of hatching to the marketing will be discussed and the speakers are well qualified to give sound practical advice and information. Special attention will be given to treating young poult for blackhead.

The meeting is being sponsored by J. C. Eller, Culpeper County Agent; Prof. R. R. Tolbert, Vocational Teaching Supply Co., Culpeper. Free refreshments will be served at the meeting, Culpeper County and the Culpeper and several nice prizes will be given away. A large crowd is expected.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE FIRST AND THE LAST:—I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God. — Is there a God besides me? yea, there is no God: I know not any.—Isa. 44: 6, 8.

LAKE JACKSON

No development in recent year is attracting more attention and is deserving of more support than the opening for sale of lots of Lake Jackson, three miles south of Manassas.

Created as a power reservoir, hundreds of thousands of dollars have been expended to develop this charming body of water eight miles long. Without question the Lake Jackson is one of the most attractive recreation spots east of the Blue Ridge.

The name itself is a happy selection, for it perpetuates the memory of that intrepid leader, Stonewall Jackson, who earned his immortal title in Prince William County.

Pollution of the Potomac River has caused seekers for water sports to seek the cooler and purer waters of artificial lakes and inland streams and there are none so delightfully situated in this section of Virginia that compares with Lake Jackson.

Mr. Charles W. Alpaugh, of Manassas, who has developed this recreation project is to be congratulated upon the successful culmination of many years of constructive thought and effort. The opening of this lake to the public will be a forward movement and all who are fortunate enough as to become owners of the moderate priced subdivisions of the property will have no occasion to regret the purchase.

HOOVER MOVES

The President of the United States has proposed a year's vacation in the matter of settlement of the World War obligations. Secretary of Treasury Mellon has been ordered to Paris to overcome the French resistance to his proposal. Other nations, especially Germany, are welcoming the idea. The stock market has responded favorably to the suggestion and the press comment throughout the world indicates that the proposed moratorium is widely regarded as something that will greatly alleviate hard times.

Made on the eve of a presidential campaign, when bad economic conditions threaten the Republican control of government, the proposition will be widely regarded in this country as the opening gun of Hoover's campaign. And if he is successful, it will be recognized as an astute political move. If France succeeds in blocking the moratorium, the Republican party will be plunged deeper into the abyss into which it has been plunged.

For generations the Party of Federal Power sold the idea to the electorate that prosperity was an ear-mark of their party. They levied huge contributions from the great manufacturing interests on the grounds that they were insuring themselves against the certain hard times which they have always claimed were bound to follow Democratic control.

The sad thing about our deplorable economic situation has been the persistent and utter disregard of the welfare of the masses by the Republican party, until too late to remedy the harm that has been done. Over a long period, far past the danger line, the national legislation continued to favor the classes at expenses of the masses. The "army" was largely made the "goat."

If the Republican party had reckoned for a moment with the possibility of nation-wide crop failure, it would have pulled its leeches off until the patient had vitality to stand the drain, but they pushed ever onward with their old time policies until their victim, caught between Republicanism and the Drought, almost gave up the ghost.

However, since this is the only outstanding gesture that President Hoover has made toward repairing the damage that his party has done, he should have a free hand, so far as America is concerned, to put his big idea across.

JUDGE JAMES HAY

Judge James Hay died at his home in Madison County, Virginia, on June 12. In his death the State and Nation has lost a faithful servant. For more than forty years he served with distinction in various public offices. Beginning his career as Commonwealth's Attorney, he passed on to Delegate in the General Assembly, State Senator, Congressman from the Seventh District, and finally as Judge of the United States Court of Claims.

His public services will long be remembered but the man himself will be longer recalled. He loved his community and made it famous throughout the world. He knew the charm of Madison County long before it was recognized as the ideal summer home for a President of the United States. Throughout his public life he never failed to emphasize his status as a citizen of Madison County, Va. He loved the folks at home and they honored him with the highest offices in their gift.

STATUS OF FEDERAL FARM LOANS

The Rural New Yorker, in its June 13 issue, answers an inquiry concerning the status of Federal Farm Certificates which is of interest to farmers of this section. A farmer had paid up his mortgage with the exception of the amount of his Federal Farm Loan Association stock which was offered to the Federal Land Bank to complete the payment. The Bank declined to honor the certificates and proceeded to foreclose, holding that the certificates were, under the law, an obligation of the local association. The popular impression seems to have been that the United States Government stood behind these certificates, guaranteeing their par value. Such does not appear to be the case. The Association and the Federal Land Bank are two separate corporations and it is a fact that the redemption of the stock is an obligation of the local association and not of the Government.

"It would seem," comments the publication referred to, "that the Association should turn back the face value of the stock to help close the last payment on the mortgage. But under the strict language of the law it seems that the borrower is required to pay his installments to the Bank and then look to the association to redeem the stock he holds in it."

The law certainly requires that "said capital stock shall be paid off at par and retired upon full payment of said loan." But in case the local group will not, or cannot redeem the certificates, the borrower may just as well regard his stock as a loan expense, which, added to the regular rate of interest, makes the whole proposition a rather high priced form of farm aid in the outcome.

THE CHALLENGE OF YOUTH

Oh, youth is the springtime of life and love,

The promise of great things to be, The time when we build for the Master above,

A life that will please Him to see.

And what shall we put in this life that we build

And plan for the Master in Youth? Oh, let us put faith in this life that we make

And patience and virtue and truth. Let us yield all our will to the Master divine

And earnestly strive every day

To make of our lives what our Jesus would wish

And follow His steps all the way. Let us ever look upward and strive for the right,

And try someone's burden to share; Let us walk with the Master each day of our life,

That beautiful pathway of prayer.

And then in our lives will be beauty indeed
And joy and God's peace rich and deep,
As we travel the way of our youth's sunny day
And sow what we later shall reap.
For youth is the springtime of life and love;
The promise of great things to be; Then choose what you'll build for the Master above,
His smile of approval to see.
—Mary L. O'Hara,
in Christian Advocate.

To the Democratic Voters of Manassas District:

Since first announcing my candidacy for supervisor of Manassas district, I have talked with a great many people in the district and find many more people who favor a reduction of taxes than I first thought there would be. They realize as I do that everything else except taxes has come down considerably since the World War. As every big enterprise in the whole country has cut down expenses by a reduction of wages and a discontinuance of its full number of employees in keeping with the economic situation it is entirely proper for the county government to do likewise. A great big majority of the taxpayers of Prince William county are farmers, who have not yet recovered from the effects of the terrible drought of 1930. They are now a harvest with no bright future of a fair market for their grain.

With the Federal Farm Board holding 275,000,000 bushels of surplus wheat from the 1930 crop and a fair prospect of the surplus from the 1931 crop exceeding these figures the chances are that the 1931 surplus will be close to 600,000,000 bushels of wheat, and with Russia's 5-year industrial plan in force, producing wheat with peasant labor and dumping it on every European market cheaper than we can produce it in the United States the American farmer is facing the prospect of a market for his wheat at less than fifty cents a bushel.

Wheat is not the only thing effected. Livestock, poultry, butter and eggs are sold at a shamefully low price and yet the same man who sells these products of the farm is assessed with the same rate of taxation as he was ten years ago. The farmer is usually a man who can stand a lot of punishment; he is in a business that he cannot shut down. If he loses down one year he is ruined unless he can sell his farm, and they are not selling very fast just now. He starts up again he has got to replenish his stock from outside capital and wait from one to two years or his returns, so he is just compelled to keep on, and unless we want to force the names of some of our best farmers on the delinquent tax list, we should come to their rescue now.

I am not unmindful of the fact that we cannot reduce taxes until we have curtailed the demands for which it is levied, but vast sums are appropriated in the county for purposes, which at this time may well be classified as a luxury, and certainly we can do without luxuries when the whole world is passing through a period of economic upheaval. You can take the published copy of your county budget and point out many items where the pruning knife could be applied to advantage without working any hardship on anyone effected.

Manassas district is exceptionally fortunate in matters pertaining to the public roads. The state highway commission has taken over four main roads, leading from the county seat in four different directions, thus relieving the district of the expenses of maintaining them. Under the able supervision of the late chairman of the board, Mr. Jas. R. Larkin, the district has surface-treated with sand other material nearly every other road leading out from the county seat. The only unfinished main roads after this year and which were completed by Mr. Larkin are the uncompleted section of the Manassas-Davis Ford road by way of Buckhall and the road leading by Colored Horse Show grounds by Wellington and on to Lee Highway. Under our present system of distribution of gas tax funds Manassas district is in line of rotation for this money in 1932 and favor the application of this money to these two projects provided enough interest is aroused in each section through which they pass.

The Manassas-Gainesville road by way of Wellington is an important route to the county seat and cuts off considerable mileage over any other route from Gainesville district to Manassas.

Next in importance is proper work and maintenance of the many communicating roads that interlace the district and connect up with the improved roads so that in the end each and every taxpayer living on a county road shall have an opportunity to get out from his place without being forced to realize that his home is located in the wrong section of this county.

There is a fund of approximately $40,000.00 available annually for the work done on the entire county road system, and with a little better coordination of plans and a little more cooperation of all the district, we can ultimately organize the county road system into a unit plan system which will tend to eliminate a lot of duplication of authority and make the sum go even farther than it does now.

We have in this district to my own knowledge five different characters of good material for road surfacing and whenever a road is put in proper shape according to the three fundamental principles of building a dirt road, i.e., first, proper drainage both side ditches and outlets from culverts so that all water will not only leave the road-bed but leave the right-of-way within twelve hours after a heavy rain. Second, the correct formation of a road-bed with heavy and light graders working together with due regard for the per cent of crown in proportion to the degree of grade and third, the maintenance and surface treatment of a road after it is put in proper shape thereby eliminating for a number of years the use of heavy road machinery on its surface.

I know from actual experience that there are wonderful possibilities for improvement of the dirt roads notwithstanding the marked improvements which have been made in the last ten years in Manassas district and I promise and pledge myself to give this feature my personal attention if favored with your nomination and election.

Thanking you in advance for your oyal patronage and the many voluntary offers of support which I have received since entering this campaign, I beg to remain

Faithfully and sincerely,
Your obedient servant,
MARTIN D. LYNCH.

TOO MUCH DOG FOR HUNT

War Correspondent Tells of Amusing Incident

Frazier Hunt, Chevrolet's famous war correspondent and adventurer extraordinary, once feigned illness to a tribal witch-doctor in the hills of Luzon. He will tell the story of his fate as a patient when he talks during the "Chevrolet Chronicles" hour over WMAL on Saturday, June 27, at 7:30 p.m.

Hunt was traveling across the mountains of Luzon with an army sergeant. Coming upon a native village, he decided to test the skill of the tribal priest and witch doctor and pretended he was ill. The medicine man ordered a chicken killed and from the entrails of the dead rooster he read a diagnosis of Hunt's feigned illness.

To gain the friendship of the old pagan, Hunt immediately recovered and congratulated the witch-doctor on his medical ability. The semi-barbaric medicine man, not to be outdone in courtesy, invited Hunt to a feast of roast dog. When Hunt discovered what he was eating, he had a relapse and gave his portion of the feast to the army sergeant with the remark: "Dog eat dog."

A special musical program, arranged and directed by Frank Black, has been woven into this entertaining hour which is sponsored by your local Chevrolet dealer.

TENT REVIVAL

AT GREENWICH

Beginning June 18, continuing every night, except Saturday until June 28 and longer if the Lord leads. Services begin at 8 P. M. and every Sunday at 1:30 P. M.

Services are conducted by Rev. David Wilson, evangelist, and party, including Evangelist Guilia Wilson, 16 years old, will preach. She will help in these services. Miss Wilson has been in the service of King Jesus for the past three years and is a very remarkable young evangelist. She has held large services in the southern and eastern states, and has held away over large congregations. Don't fail to hear this young girl in these services.

The evangelist, Bro. Wilson, is a preacher of the old time faith and believes in the old time religion that is able to save a man from his sin, heal him from all his diseases and baptise him with the Holy Spirit and Fire. It will keep him sweetly saved until Jesus calls him.

The writer himself was saved from a life of sin and darkness, through the mercy of our Lord and Saviour who is Jesus Christ, after indulging in almost all the pleasures of the world, seeking peace but never finding it. But now I can say I have found Him and in accepting Him I have the peace and joy that all the world with all of her pleasures, money and honor offered me, could never give. Come to these meetings, hungry hearts, and you who have no friends, thinking the world has no more for you, and see what King Jesus can do for you.

The tent is located in a beautiful grove along the Manassas and Buckland hard surfaced road. We are expecting the Lord to give us the victory like He did in the service on the Warrenton-Midland road that just closed Sunday night. The altar was filled full to its capacity on several nights. In leaving this community with this tent, we feel as everybody else, that the devil and sin received a black eye from which he will not quickly recover.

We are praying that it will be the same at Greenwich and that the Lord will enable us to build a full gospel church in Warrenton this fall.

Don't forget the time and place and come, see what God can do for you. Good music and good singing.

World Good Will Creetings Exchanged Ove. Telephone

An exchange of greetings between high school students speaking from the capitals of the forty-eight States and from Washington with foreign countries on both sides of the Atlantic commemorated World Good Will day.

The initial call was made by Clare Ellis from Sacramento, Cal., to Kenneth MacLean at Carson City, Nev. A series of relayed calls made over a telephone circuit aggregating about 10,300 miles which zigzagged across the continent ended at Washington with a call from Helen Wieland, Hartford, Conn., to Dorcas Cole, Washington High School student, speaking from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee room with Senator Borah, chairman of the committee, presiding.

Nancy Burgwyn, John Marshall High School student, Richmond, relayed the good will message to Victor Ross, Charleston, senior high school student, who in turn talked to Charles B. De Buskey, Baltimore City College honor student, Annapolis.

Dorothy Burch, Washington, a Notre Dame Academy student, talked with Ernesto Moreno, Santiago, Chile;

Charles Otis Lord, Central High School, with Rafael del Paso y Reinert, Mexico City; Elinore Powers, MacFarland Junior High School with Robert Oliver, Ottawa, Canada, and Robert Hild, president of the senior class, Business High School, on behalf of the students of North and South America, talked by trans-Atlantic radio telephone with John Henry Bradley in London at the House of Parliament.

A series of telephone calls from eastern countries were made to London as a culmination of the Good Will exercises.

Good Will day has long been promoted in this country by the American School Citizenship League and is now being observed all over the world by the organizations affiliated with the World Federation of Education Associations. In this latest demonstration of World Good Will Dr. A. O. Thomas, president of the Federation, expressed the thought that it was a fine thing for the students to be able to talk together on special occasions like this.

STATE B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION

Dr. George W. Truett, pastor of First Baptist Church, Dallas, Texas, will address the Convention Tuesday evening, July 14. The First Baptist Church, of which Dr. Truett has been pastor for thirty-one years, has a membership of more than 6,000. Dr. Truett was president of the Southern Baptist Convention for three years, was active as an overseas chaplain during the World War, spent three months in South America during 1930, and is in great demand for holding evangelistic services and addressing assemblies and public meetings in the United States and Canada.

Dr. William Russell Owen, pastor of First Baptist Church, Asheville, N. C., pastor, lecturer, and author, possessing a sympathetic understanding of present day youth, will make several addresses and preach the Convention sermon.

Mrs. J. M. Dawson, Waco, Texas, a widely known speaker, popular in young people's assemblies and a wise counselor of young people, will address the Convention daily and lead conferences. Other out-of-state speakers and conference leaders are Rev. C. S. Green, Durham, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lambdin, Nashville, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Preston, Atlanta, Ga. Among those in the state to take part are Rev. H. W. Tiffany and Rev. P. Rowland Wagner of Norfolk; Rev. G. H. Payne, Portsmouth; Rev. H. W. Connelly, Newport News; Rev. H. J. Goodwin, Suffolk; Rev. E. H. Pruden, Petersburg; Rev. C. C. Thomas, Roanoke; Mr. W. B. Carter, Roanoke, president of the Convention; Dr. George T. Waite, Rev. E. J. Wright, Dr. J. W. Storer, Mr. Alwyn Howell, Rev. Wade H. Bryant, Miss Myrtle Zentmeyer and Mrs. Alice Huband Wilkinson of Richmond.

One thousand delegates and representatives from 1,350 B. Y. P. U. organizations are expected to attend the Convention. Many delegates have already made reservations and the State Secretary, Rev. E. J. Wright, predicts a large attendance. Each year delegates come from as far west as Bristol, with representatives from Bluefield, Roanoke, Staunton, Harrisonburg, Winchester, Alexandria, Fredericksburg, Lynchburg, Danville, Appomattox, South Boston, Farmville, Charlottesville, Petersburg, Emporia, Richmond and all points in the eastern portion of the state.

Facts and Figures on Your Telephone

By EDWIN F. HILL

Edwin F. Hill

Stock of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company is widely owned. No state in the Union has less than 300 stockholders and in all there are now about 515,000 holders of this stock. The average holding is 33 shares and, according to officials of the company, no single stockholder owns as much as one per cent of the outstanding stock.

A recent issue of this stock with a par value of $257,940,700 was offered the stockholders, the proceeds of which will be used to provide for new construction needed by the Bell System to care for additional business resulting from the constantly greater use of telephone service.

In all more than 282,000 subscriptions for new stock were received and 154,000 separate purchases or sales of rights were handled. In advance of final figures telephone officials estimate that the number of rights to purchase stock allowed to lapse did not exceed the figures for 1928 when the unsubscribed stock amounted to about one-third of one per cent.

Subscriptions made under the single payment plan were about 77 per cent as compared with 71.8 per cent in 1928 and the number under the installment plan, 23 per cent. Of the total shares subscribed about 41 per cent were under the single payment plan as compared with 33.8 per cent under the previous offer. The average number of shares per subscription this year was approximately 9.2 compared with 6.99 in 1928.

Cash subscriptions amounting to approximately $225,000,000 were received in connection with this stock offer.

FARM POULTRY

PROPER RATIONS FOR LAYING HENS

Large Amount of Wheat Is Favored by Expert.

Rations for the farm flock of laying hens and for the commercial flock are given by O. C. Ufford, extension poultryman at the Colorado Agricultural college.

A considerable amount of wheat is recommended in the ration for the farm flock, which is as follows:

Grain mixture—Cracked or whole corn, 40 pounds, and wheat, 60 pounds.

Mash mixture—20 pounds each of fine cornmeal, bran shorts and meat meal, and 20 pounds of either ground oats or barley. Ground wheat may be substituted for the bran and shorts.

For the commercial flock, the following ration is recommended when a green range is not used:

Grain mixture—Corn, 40 pounds, and wheat, 60 pounds.

Mash mixture—Cornmeal (yellow), 20 pounds; ground barley or ground oats, 15 pounds; wheat middlings, 15 pounds; wheat bran, 20 pounds; meat meal, 15 pounds; dried buttermilk, 5 pounds; alfalfa leaf meal, 5 pounds; steamed bone meal, 4 pounds; finely ground oyster shell, 2 pounds, and salt, 1 pound.

Due to the high price of corn, ground hog millet may be substituted entirely or in part for an equal amount of corn in the laying ration. Ufford suggests. Tests have shown that millet is equal to corn in feeding for hogs, and it is believed that its value is equally as great as a poultry feed.

Comfortable House Big Necessity for Winter

The first necessity in proper winter care of the flock is to make the poultry house comfortable. Well housed is more than half of being well kept for poultry during the winter time. That a good poultry house is a profitable investment because of the increased winter production which it makes possible, has been demonstrated time after time.

Unfortunately, it is not possible for every farmer to have just the kind of a chicken house he would like, but no farmer should attempt to keep chickens through the winter unless he has some building that can be used for poultry headquarters. Each flock owner should make the most of his opportunities to make the birds as comfortable as possible.

Winter Laying Flocks Value Cod Liver Oil

Good laying flocks need cod-liver oil during the dark winter months, according to W. M. Vernon, Iowa State college. The months in which fowls should have the oil are from December 1 to April 1.

The rate of feeding the oil should be one quart of the oil to 100 pounds of mash. The oil is first mixed with bran or the mineral mixture and then mixed in the large amount of feed.

If hens are kept in the house during the winter months this method of feeding is especially recommended and a noon mash meal, help to increase production.

Poultry Facts

Turkey eggs hatch in 28 days.

One had best avoid inbreeding at least until he has had considerable experience.

A practical satisfactory method for the person who does not wish to trapnest or pedigree is to buy cockerels preferably as chicks or eggs from a good breeder.

Before trying to raise turkeys, get all the information you can about them. Learn what diseases they are likely to have and be able to recognize them when they occur.

Eggs for hatching should be gathered frequently and held at a uniform temperature, about 50 degrees.

The egg producer can get away with many practices on his farm that the breeder cannot afford to countenance for a moment.

Eggs should be gathered several times a day in cold weather to prevent chilling. Produce as clean eggs as possible, but wipe any that are dirty with a cloth dipped in warm water.

The construction of expensive, elaborate poultry houses should be discouraged, but, on the other hand, no farmer should construct a poultry house that is not durable and comfortable.

Mash feed should be moistened and crumbly, not sloppy, with milk or buttermilk. To this you may add potato peelings, or grains that have been cooked. In case you do not have the milk or buttermilk, use water, but remember that the meat scraps should be used in this case.

Politics or Progress...Which?

Balcony Falls Hydro Station of V. P. S. Co.

YOU seldom find politics and progress going along hand-in-hand. Progress means reduced costs, elimination of waste, better service, more customers; that's the way a business grows. Politics usually means getting the votes and keeping them. Usually, mind you.

Today, Virginia Public Service Company serves over 68,000 customers from eight basic power plants. An interconnected transmission system carries unlimited, low-cost power to farms, cities and towns all over its territory. This great Virginia system replaces more than sixty privately and municipally owned plants with their large overhead, waste and duplication. No wonder the cost of electricity is constantly decreasing. No wonder more than 4,000 new customers used our services last year.

Communities with unlimited, low-cost power are growing industrially. They are growing in population, too, because people want to live where they can have modern, up-to-date home appliances at less than lighting alone formerly cost.

You can share in the rapid development of Virginia. Buy 6% Preferred Shares of the Virginia Public Service Company. The par value is $100 a share. It is fully paid and non-assessable. It is preferred both as the assets and dividends. The company is growing—it is preparing the way for a greater, wealthier Virginia.

NOW there is expert help for everybody in the selection of an electric refrigerator

STANDARD RATING SCALE

for Electric Refrigeration

- Is the refrigerator manufactured by a reliable company with proper experience in the electric refrigeration field?
- Has it plenty of food and shelf space?
- Is the cabinet itself well designed, sturdily built and properly insulated?
- Is there provision for the freezing of an adequate supply of ice cubes? (Quantity of ice rather than number of cubes, which may be of large or small size, should be taken into consideration.)
- Will the refrigerator constantly maintain a proper temperature for the preservation of foods?
- Can the freezing of ice cubes and desserts be speeded up when the need arises?
- Can this extra freezing speed for ice cubes be had without affecting the tem-

- perature on the food shelves?
(Too low a temperature on the shelves will, of course, injure food.)
- Is there a place to keep ice cream, meat, fish, game,
"quick frozen" foods or extra ice cubes indefinitely at a below freezing temperature?
- Are these various temperatures (a. extra fast
freezing; b. fast freezing;
c. below freezing for storage; and d. normal food preservation temperature) automatically maintained without any attention from the owner?
- Does the refrigerating unit operate often or infrequently? (The fewer
"stops" and "starts" the

- longer the unit will last and the less it costs to run.)
- How long will the cooling unit continue to cool the refrigerator even though the current is shut off? (Refrigeration should continue for 10 or 12 hours.)
- Can the back parts of all shelves, even the lowest, be reached without kneeling or sitting down?
- Has provision been made for keeping vegetables fresh and crisp?
- Can the refrigerator top
be used to "set things down for a moment" while the contents of the cabinet are being re-arranged?
- Will the refrigerator add to the attractiveness of the kitchen?
- Has the experience of users over a long period of years proved the refrigerator longlived and dependable?

THE S.O.S. of bewildered buyers has been answered at last. The Standard Rating Scale has ended the perplexing questions of "What can I expect?" and "What should I look for?" in an electric refrigerator. Now, with the help of the Scale, you can think about everything, ask about everything and be sure that in the end you are getting all that electric refrigeration can give. Your own good judgment will tell you that any refrigerator meeting all the requirements of the Scale must be the one best choice. We welcome the application of the Scale to Kelvinator.

TRIANGLE, ALIAS PRINCE WM. BALL TEAM DEFEATS KING GEORGE AND FALMOUTH, SUNDAY EVENING

While attending a very interesting ball game Sunday afternoon at Dumfries ball park, the events of the evening brought a little poem in my mind as follows:

You may dream of ball games great and grand; but if you wasn't on Dumfries grandstand, you haven't seen a ball game with a D—
It's the fairest place today
For ball games we say.
Hail! to you Prince Wm. ball team
Hail! to you.
Your players kneel to you.
Their play you're due.
We love to see Alto Person's sweater and hat,
And love to see Howard Mtjoy up to bat.
Hail! to you Prince Wm. ball team.
Hail! to you.
Old Prince William's rich in different teams.
It includes Woodbridge and the Quantico Marines.
Capt. Mtjoy on the field said, "Bee" (ready)
He stood so straight and tall just like a stone wall.
Hail! to you Prince Wm. ball team.
Hail! to you.

POLLARD PARDONS REFORMED CONVICT

Gov. Pollard today said he will pardon Jesse Strawderman, who voluntarily returned to the Virginia Penitentiary Monday after living the life of a good citizen in Youngstown, Ohio, since he escaped from a prison camp in 1919.

The Governor said the pardon is assured, but the technicality of making it effective is a matter that must await the return of Maj. Rice M. Youell, prison superintendent, who today was out of the city. His announcement today followed a complete investigation into the Strawderman case through the State Department of Public Welfare and the recommendation by Welfare Commissioner Frank Bane that it was "not necessary to further confine this man either for the protection of the public or the benefit of the individual."

POT AND KETTLE CLUB HALL

The new club house on the Orange road, which is under construction and nearly complete, will be formally opened by the Pot and Kettle Club for the Horse Show dances on July 2, 3 and 4, when Ty Ziegler and his orchestra of eleven pieces who have just returned from an European tour, will furnish music for each evening.

The club house is located in a beautiful grove of tall oak trees on the B. P. Williams farm, about three miles from town, and will present a most pleasing appearance when complete. The main building or club house, which is 45x90 feet and has large airy windows and hardwood floor, is being erected at an approximate cost of $2,200, and will be controlled by the club committee. A lunch room and gas station will be located nearby.

At a business meeting of the Pot and Kettle Club on Thursday evening for the purpose of electing officers and making plans for the summer series of dances, the following were chosen: E. J. Eggborn, Jr., president; L. R. Waters, vice president; Edwin R. Gaines, secretary, and C. E. Reams, Jr., treasurer. Floor committee: Dick Griffith, L. P. Nelson, Jr., Earl Reaguer, Lewis Smith and B. P. Williams. Official chaperones who are sponsoring the dances are Mrs. C. M. Waite, Mrs. Turner Ratier, Mrs. R. C. Lewis, Mrs. Carter Hall and Mrs. Inez Williams Rixey.

The club house will again be the center of attraction on the evenings of July 10 and 11, with dances arranged for the Warrenton Pony Show, which will be held at the Culpeper Fair Grounds on those dates.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!* Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

When you visit your physician for your periodic health examination, one of the very first things he asks you to do is to open your mouth wide, and to say "Ah." He is examining the delicate lining of your throat. "Ah!" There is not a man or woman who could even make this simple sound, if in the throat there were no Adam's Apple. For your Adam's Apple is your larynx—the voice box containing your vocal chords. And what a delicate piece of Nature's handiwork the Adam's Apple is. A slight cold—even a tiny particle lodged in the throat—and our voice often grows husky. In acute cases, we may even lose our voice for several days. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants—Reach for a LUCKY instead—remember, LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette in America that through its exclusive "TOASTING" process expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

BIG MONEY

A PATHE FEATURE

The story deals with a Wall street messenger boy whose passion for crap shooting and cards involves him in considerable trouble. In the most dramatic moments in the picture, he jests and laughs and carries his audience with him to the finish which, happily, finds him in the arms of his charming bride. While in no sense a preachment, "Big Money" teaches valuable lessons on the folly of gambling. Quillan is excellent in his portrayal and Miss Seegar, his vis-a-vis, delightful.

ZANE GREY'S

FIGHTING CARAVANS

with

Gary Cooper, Lily Damita and Ernest Torrence

Into the spectacular drama of conquest is woven, with all the charm of Zane Grey's great talent, a beautiful love story, of a man and a girl who meet as the dangerous trek begins, carry their love through a series of palpitating adventures, and reach the promised land together.

Gary Cooper as the reckless young scout of the expedition gives one of the most convincing portrayals of his interesting career, with Lily Damita as the lovely heroine, a reincarnation of the pioneer womanhood whose courage will always be one of the wonders of history. Fred Kohler, the gigantic badman of a score of memorable pictures, and Ernest Torrence and Tully Marshall, as the two enjoyable old scouts, are thoroughly delightful.
