A PRETTY DAISY WEDDING

The marriage of Hazel Hughes Doak to Joseph Russell Kemper, Clifton Station, at high noon, Tuesday June 30, cemented forever, the warm friendship of the old presbyterian families of Kemper and Doak.

The beautiful green of cedar, relieved by the frame of white and gold of many daisies, formed a lovely veranda before which the marriage took place. Promptly at high noon, the bridegroom, attended by his brother Winston, and the bride accompanied by her sister Catherine, came the length of the pleasant "living room" through an aisle formed by the nearest relatives and a few close friends, and stood before the waiting clergyman.

The Rev. W. A. Hall, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Manassas performed the simple solemn ceremony which united Hazel Hughes Doak and Joseph Russell Kemper in the holy bonds of matrimony. The bride wore a graceful gown of white silk and carried a beautiful cluster of white roses. The bridesmaid in her gown of pale gold silk with a shower of daisies, carried out the color scheme. Many were the sincere congratulations and kind wishes that were expressed to the bride and groom.

After a delicious buffet luncheon, and later in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Russell Kemper motored to their cozy home near Winchester. This ended a very happy event in Woodburn, the hospitable home of the Doaks at Clifton Station, Va.

Action of Committee Illegal

At a meeting of the Democratic Committee of the Eighth Congressional District in Alexandria on Saturday, the recent action of the Stafford Democratic Committee calling off the Primary Election was declared illegal, null and void, and the primary ordered held as originally provided for. Attorney General John R. Saunders has also ruled that the Stafford Committee had no legal right to rescind the primary election.

Eighth District Committee Overrules County Committee

An appeal was taken from the decision of the local committee to the district committee by Dan M. Chichester, member of the House of Delegates from Stafford and Prince William, who is a candidate for Treasurer of Stafford County, G. K. Massie, Jr., candidate for Supervisor for Aquia District, and Clinton T. Heflin, candidate for Supervisor for Rock Hill District. C. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, represented the Stafford Committee and Albert Bryan, of Alexandria, represented Chichester, Massie and Heflin. After lengthy argument and the presentation of much evidence on both sides, the Eighth District Committee overruled the action of the Stafford Committee on the ground that it was contrary to law and against the interest of the Democratic Party.

Early in the year W. D. Reamy, eighty-year-old Treasurer of Stafford, who has held the office for the past 24 years, announced that he would not offer again for re-election. Dan M. Chichester and N. N. Berry immediately announced their candidacies for the Democratic nomination for the office. The Republican Party nominated H. W. Simpson as its candidate for Treasurer.

Berry Orders Primary.

The Stafford County Democratic Committee, apparently controlled by the faction that is trying to defeat Chichester, met in February and ordered the primary method of selecting the party nominees and fixed August 4 as the date for the primary election. N. N. Berry, who was then chairman of the committee, presided over the meeting. Numerous candidates paid the fees required of them by the committee, filed their petitions and entered the primary in good faith.

Calls Off Primary.

On June 13, a week after the time limit had expired, the committee was assembled and by a vote of 6 to 5 called off the primary, and threw all Democratic candidates into the November election.

Chichester Appeals

Chichester, Massie and Heflin in an effort to make their opposition live up to their agreement and nominate candidates in the primary, appealed to the Eighth District Committee, and the action of the county committee was overruled as being illegal and the primary was ordered to be held.

Berry May Withdraw.

It is widely rumored in Stafford that rather than run the risk of being defeated by Chichester in the primary, Berry will withdraw and run as an independent in the November election. It is also believed that W. F. Powers and W. A. Franklin, who are opposing Massie and Heflin respectively, may also withdraw.

Would Be Duty of Committee to Declare Chichester Nominee.

Should Berry, Powers and Franklin withdraw, Chichester, Massie and Heflin will be left in the primary without opposition and under the law it will become the duty of the Stafford Committee to declare them the Democratic nominees.

Politics in Muddle

Politics in Stafford are in a complete muddle and many voters are blaming the politicians who attempt to dominate the county committee for the condition they have brought about by their policy of rule or ruin. Some are indignant at their alleged unjust and high handed efforts to eliminate the primary. It is understood that the County Democratic Committee will appeal from the action of the District Committee in forcing them to hold the primary.

May Affect Legislative Contest.

It has been pointed out that should Berry, Powers and Franklin withdraw and bolt the Democratic party, there will be no contests in the primary for party nominations for county offices, and therefore probably only a small vote will be polled in Stafford. The effects on the legislative vote are, therefore, in the balance, and the next few weeks should prove quite interesting.
