MANY FLOATS ENTERED IN THE PARADE

Gorgeous in conception and spectacular in its execution will be the first annual Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival, which will be held in Manassas on Saturday.

The day will begin with a concert by the Marine Band from the Quantico Marine Base, at 10:30 a. m., on the lawn of "Annaburg," the attractive Portner Estate. This will be followed at 11 o'clock by the coronation ceremony when William Tyler Page, clerk of the United States House of Representatives, will deliver the impressive coronation address and crown Miss Mary Elizabeth Nelson, Regina I, Queen of the Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival. Serving in the Queen's Court will be the Misses Anna Bruce Whitmore and Lucy Clewes Arrington, as maids of honor, and the following princesses designated by their respective counties: Princess Arlington, Miss Charlotte Hagan; Princess Loudoun, Mary Alice Turman; Princess Fauquier, Miss Mildred Smith; Princess Culpeper, Miss Virginia Frey; Princess Fairfax, Miss Eleanor Rust; Princess Rappahannock, Miss Elizabeth Meneff; Princess Orange, Miss Nancy Boxley; Princess Stafford, Miss Elizabeth Cline; Princess Spotsylvania, Miss Betty Billingsley. Master Philip Gray, of Nokesville, will serve as crown bearer, little Misses Nancy Leachman and Mary Mason Davis, of Manassas, train bearers, and Miss Catherine Beale Smith, of the Bennett School faculty, will act as herald.

Richmond Blues Here.

A detail of the Richmond Blues, historical Virginia Regiment, will act as guard of honor to the Queen and Her Court, during the coronation ceremonial and will proudly flank the Royal Float, during the procession in the afternoon.

The Pageant, "Milk Through The Ages," written and arranged by Miss Bessie Clark, rural school supervisor, will follow the coronation beginning approximately at 11:30. This feature will be given in six episodes and will tell the story of milk and dairy products from the Central Asia period of 4000 years ago, through the early days of the Colony up to the present time in Piedmont Virginia.

Milky Way Parade.

At the hands of the clock mark 2 p. m., Parade Marshals C. Melvin Hazen and E. R. Conner, will signal the start and headed by the Marine band from Quantico the magnificent and colorful parade will get under way. The Royal Float, carrying the Queen and her Court, surrounded by the detail of Richmond Blues, in their gaudy full-dress uniforms, floats from each of the Piedmont counties, and numerous special floats will be in the line of march.

One of the outstanding sections of the parade will be that of the school participation group with more than 1800 high school pupils from Prince William, Arlington, Fairfax, Loudoun, Fauquier, Stafford, Orange, Madison and Rappahannock counties, marching in units, all headed by the 100-piece band of the Washington and Lee High School cadets. Another spectacular section will be that of the 4-H Clubs and First Farmers of Virginia, while still another will be a section of commercial floats, all of which must come up to a set standard of excellence in order to enter the exclusive "Milky Way."

COUNTY TO AID IN MARKING SECOND COURTHOUSE SITE

At the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors the sum of twenty-five dollars was appropriated for the purpose of assisting in the placing of a marker on the site of the second Prince William County Courthouse.

Other matters of interest approved by the Board included the following: The Virginia Gas Transmission Company was given the right to cross county roads near the properties of Ella Anderson, N. D. Peel and John Barr.

R. L. Vetter was authorized to lay a concrete floor at the county garage.

Certain improvements were authorized on the following roads in Coles District: Sam Lowe's to Hoadly, Smithfield Road, Minnieville Road, Brentsville Road, Harrison's Ford Road to County Line.

ANNUAL MEETING OF MILK MAKERS

Prominent Visitors Are Present.

At the annual meeting of the Prince William Dairy Herd Improvement Association at which C. F. M. Lewis presided, an excellent report of the results of the work of the year was given by A. P. Johns, Tester. Mr. Johns reported that the average butter fat production per cow for the twenty-six herds on test was 314.44 pounds, which was very good considering the many handicaps under which the dairymen have operated during the past year. The average milk production per cow was reported as 298.5 pounds.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: C. F. M. Lewis, president; F. M. Swartz, vice-president, and Elmer P. Hurst, secretary-treasurer, and directors: W. M. Johnson, S. C. Harley and C. C. Lynn.

An expression of appreciation was given by the members of the association to Elmer Hurst for his efficient work as secretary-treasurer during the past year.

An appropriation was voted to be used toward the construction of a D. H. I. A. float to be entered in the parade Saturday.

Dr. J. C. McDowell of the Dairy Division of the U. S. D. A. was present and in his talk to the members praised them for the progress that was being made in the county along the line of herd improvement. He gave a brief resume of the progress of herd improvement work of the U. S. Canada, and other countries and stated that in this country the scope of testing was greater than in any country in which the testing associations were not subsidized by the State and Federal governments.

High Carnival Spirit.

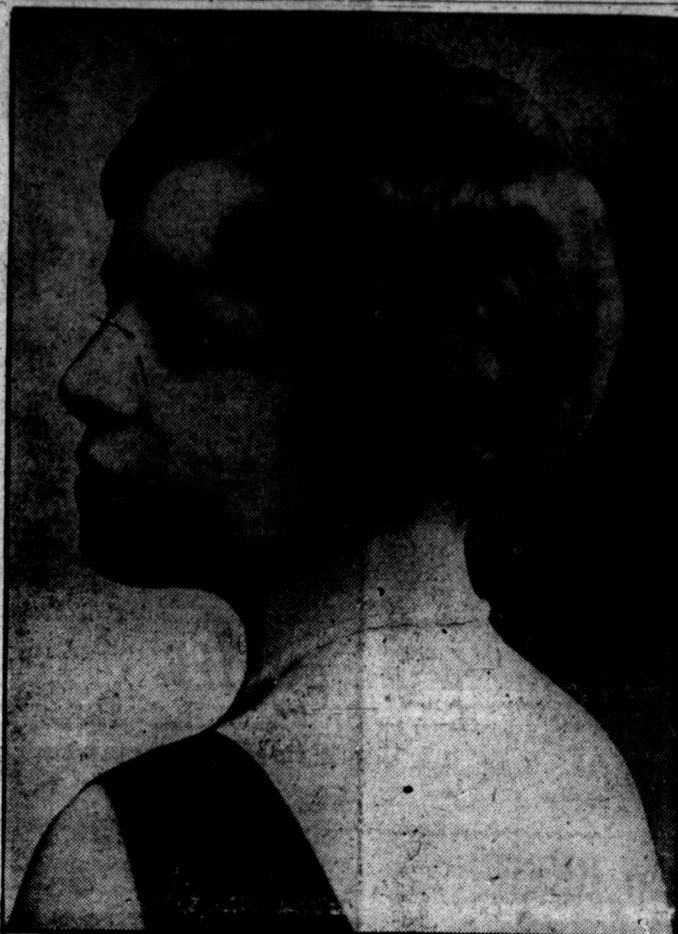

The parade out of the way, the afternoon will be given over to enjoyment of the exhibition and to the carnival which the Manassas Fire Department will have charge of. The carnival will be held on Battle street, in the block between Center and Church streets, and here everything in the way of fun and frolic may be seen and enjoyed.

The feature of the night will be the Coronation Ball, which will be held in the school gymnasium, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Nelson, Queen of the Festival, Her Court, and the Richmond Blue guard of honor will head the list of notables present.

For those who do not attend the ball various entertainments will be held throughout the town, while the Firemen's Carnival will continue to offer untold attractions in the way of amusement and a vast variety of foods and ices for those who desire to stand by and watch the carnival.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The regular meeting of the Brentsville District Community League which was to have been held on Tuesday night, November 3, has been postponed on account of the election. It will be held the second Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, at 8 p. m., at the Brentsville District High School.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Manassas Journal

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a blessing forever to them in after years.

But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are consecrated unto the Lord: they shall come into the treasury of the Lord. Joshua, vi, 19.

OUR DAIRY FESTIVAL

The Piedmont Dairy Festival, to be held in Manassas next Saturday, October 31, promises to be one of the outstanding events of the year in Virginia. Response has been so generous from all of the surrounding counties as well as in Prince William that the Festival now becomes a fixed institution, and will grow each year and will be fruitful in many ways, particularly in promoting the prosperity of Piedmont Virginia through development of a better appreciation of its leading industry, and in nurturing a wider-spread feeling of good fellowship between the counties of our great Piedmont Virginia.

Those who have given so unselfishly of their time and means to insure the success of this initial celebration deserve the thanks of all. Weather permitting, such happy throngs as have never before been gathered together in Manassas will do honor to this historic community and to the great industry of this section of Virginia next Saturday.

THE LAW

(This brief but powerful advice was given recently by Rev. S. A. Wallis, in the Alexandria Gazette.)

This period through which the world is struggling is more than an economic crisis. It involves more than a study of strategic plans to ambuscade the dollars which fled.

Humanity itself is on trial. The civilization which we have evolved is undergoing the supreme test.

BE WISE

Hallowe'en is a time for spooks and goblins, but every-day has its uncanny visions for those who do not develop thrifty habits of systematic saving.

Don't wait until hard times have caught you, but begin right now to deposit regularly a certain amount for future use in times of emergency or special opportunity.

Your Calls On Us Are Always Appreciated

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas

If there is such a thing as brotherhood among men, now is the time to show it.

Drunk with wealth, we have strayed a long way from the fundamental and eternal truth. We have been living in a house stuck upon golden stilts. And it has crashed.

In our agony and suffering we have discovered that Jesus Christ meant what he said. The Golden Rule was not a pleasant homily intended for reward-of-merit cards with silk fringe on the edges and diamond dust shining on the snow scenes. It was a simple statement of the eternal law, the same law that keeps the stars in the skies and the world turning on its axis.

We speak of breaking the law and commandments. You can break them; but they break you. "Love one another" was more than an admonition to light the path of virtue. It was the statement of eternal principle upon which all law, all philosophy, all business, all ethics, all civilization rests. Like all the doctrines left by the Christ, this was the sublimity of common sense—the finality of practicality—the only sure foundation upon which civilization can rest.

During these money-glutted years we have tried each to go our own way alone. Years of greed and money lust have ended with this terrible lesson: That wealth evaporates and leaves them stark and with naked hearts.

It is for us to see that this terrible rebuke has not been in vain. For us to see that we rebuild the fallen structure on the rock of brotherhood.

This winter will be a period that calls for all men to have fortitude, strength and sympathy. It is, for once, clear to the dullest mind that we can only help ourselves by helping others.

Out of this period of readjustment we can regain our souls. It can be a better world because of this period of hunger and sorrow; a stronger America and a sounder civilization if it brings to us a realization we are given the privilege of being our brother's keeper.

The remedy for our financial crisis lies not in laws, federal commissions, in panacea or financial errors.

The sound and practical answer was told two thousand years ago in a sermon spoken on a mountain in Palestine.

SWAVELY NOTES

The members of the faculty and their wives, a number of the boys and several other supporters of the football team drove to Alexandria on Saturday to see the game with the Episcopal High School team. Swavely were unfortunate enough to lose, but the game was a close and very interesting one.

Sunday visitors to the school included Commander and Mrs. Crenshaw and Mrs. Earle, all of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Mowry of Royersford, Pa., and Mrs. Anderson of Accotink.

In the absence of Mr. Swavely, the address at Vespers on Sunday was delivered by Mr. Gill.

On account of the Dairy Festival on Saturday, the school Hallowe'en party will be held on Friday evening. A feature of the party will be a one-act play, "If Men Played Cards like Women."

The football team will travel to Winchester on Saturday to play the Shenandoah Valley Academy team.

Mr. Sigman will leave on Friday for Baltimore as a delegate to the District Convention of Kiwanis Clubs.

The next football game on the home ground will be on Friday of next week against Gonzaga High School of Washington.

SAY the word and I will call with my wall-paper samples and make you an estimate.

Prices reasonable and all work guaranteed.

CLARA BOW GIVES GREAT "KICK" TO "KICK IN" DRAMA

Clara Bow, herself, is the big kick in "Kick In," the Willard Mack drama on the talking screen, which comes to the Dixie Theatre Thursday next for two days. At last the red-headed "It" star steps out of her customary character and flashes on the screen a glimpse of the fiery Bow emotions.

"Kick In," Clara's first dramatic vehicle for the talkies, is a mighty punchful story of love versus the law. It deals with the struggles of an ex-convict, Regis Toomey, to "go straight," in spite of the hounding of a vicious detective, the pleadings of his underworld friends, and the temptations of the "easy" road. Clara is the motivating force in the story, as the sweetheart who opposes her charms to the forces that try to drag the man he loves back to a life of crime.

Toomey, in the leading male role, has, in "Kick In," a role that offers him many more opportunities for distinction than did his most famous part in "Alibi," in which he won coast-to-coast acclaim. He is a fine dramatic actor, with an air of believability about him. The drama of "Kick In" is shared between him and Clara. Its success is chiefly theirs.

But an excellent supporting cast and a splendid directorial mind contribute added effectiveness to "Kick In's" drama. Wynne Gibson, Juliette Compton and Leslie Fenton head a brilliant array of supporting players. The direction was in the hands of Richard Wallace, whose uncanny ability for heightening dramatic effects, observed in his recent drama with Ruth Chatterton, "The Right to Love," has here full display.

"Kick In," long a favorite as a stage play, is even more effective on the talking screen where the dramatic changes of scene, and the fleeting moods of its characters are more directly and swiftly projected. It is swift, tense, emotional drama, a splendid background for the new Bow charms.

RED CROSS RELIEF IN 79 DISASTERS IN YEAR

Forest Fires, Plagues, Storms, Earthquakes, as Well as Drought, Call for Help.

The forest fires which have raged in Idaho and other western sections this year have presented a serious disaster—one of a number, in addition to the enormous drought relief problem, which have been met by the American Red Cross relief forces.

Suffering, faith and courage are contained in a story coming from the Priest River section in Idaho, told by a volunteer Red Cross worker as follows:

"Picture a happy little homestead near the banks of Priest river in northern Idaho. While father, with a little son tagging at his heels, is out tending crops and adding to the clearing, mother is at home making preparations for another arrival. Then comes the fire demon, sweeping in its path. While father fights to protect his little home, the stark announces its arrival.

BRISTOW

The farmers around here are busy getting their fall work done.

The league meets here Thursday night. With a Halloween party quite a few attended.

Mr. Mark Long and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Strickler and Robert, Jr., of Midland were Sunday guests of her sister, Mrs. W. M. Walls at Millford.

Prince William ranked second among the Virginia counties for the year ending Oct. 1 in the number of bull replacements with Culpeper county leading in the number of grades replaced by purebreds.

CATHARPIN

The Rev. Mr. Swecker preached his initial sermon to a large and appreciative congregation at Sudley last Sunday morning. Dr. Swecker comes highly recommended and his people are glad to welcome both pastor and family to their new home and work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson were Alexandria and Washington visitors last Monday.

As usual the topic for discussion just now is the very successful Bazaar and supper held last week at Sudley. It was a success financially, socially and we were almost on the point of saying spiritually because everyone seemed in such fine spirits. The Missionary ladies and all concerned have great reason to be proud of it. During the afternoon an innovation was experienced which may set in motion a very popular idea. Mrs. E. May Dogan who is always original and full of ideas gave a dinner in honor of the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lake to which were invited interested friends. The table was handsomely decorated and set aside for their exclusive use and the Missionary ladies furnished the repast and did the serving. It was pronounced a great success because so easily done. The ladies hope for the privilege of furnishing many more "specials" of this kind at future suppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley of Washington were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Moss of near Sudley on Sunday. Mrs. Stanley, formerly Miss Evelyn Moss, is always welcomed back home by her many friends and associates.

The following Washingtonians were guests of the Bazaar and supper at Sudley Friday night: Mr. J. W. Polen, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Akers, Mr. and Mrs. Lane, Mr. and Mrs. Bitterly and others. A good thing will always attract.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald and Mr. F. H. Sanders represented the Sudley congregation at the District Steward's meeting in Alexandria last Tuesday.

Miss Ann Robertson of Lawn Vale was detained from school several days by reason of cold and sore throat.

Mr. J. W. Alvey, our genial merchant at Catharpin, has been stocking up his farm with cattle, hogs and sheep ready for a rise in the market. Mr. Alvey may show us all how to make a success of the much-depleted and unpopular farming profession as we are prone to think of it today. Let us not be discouraged; if the worst is yet to come, the best will arrive in due time. Things can not remain this way always.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brower visited Mr. Brower's mother in Lyon Park Sunday where she is now resting with her daughter, Marjorie, pending the time she may be able to come home. Her many friends eagerly inquire as to her comfort and shall welcome the time for her return.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn went to Washington last Monday to spend the week with her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Webb.

Catharpin has been attending closely to her own affairs during the past week; she has not been overt in anything; no scandal of any kind has arisen to mar her peace of mind; in other words, she has been busy. The only excitement experienced was the visit from the huckster to get the eggs, and the truck stopping by to take the cream can to Gainesville. The cool weather has played havoc with the Ice Man so we are deprived of hearing the rattle of his chains and tongs as he raises and lowers the end gate of his wagon. We have read the Post and Star and other papers, trying to keep up with Premier Laval and Mr. Hoover and wishing all the while for an opportunity of telling them just what ought to be done. We feel that they have missed so much by their failure to call us into conference with them; however, we are looking momentarily for the S O S by radio and if we go we shall send you all a picture Post card telling you all about it. So just be patient and keep busy.

BUCKLAND

We are sorry to report that Miss Josephine Deleplane was taken to Warrenton hospital on Saturday where she submitted to an operation. Her many friends here wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lee and daughter, Marion, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Maxey Sims of Fairfax were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham.

Mrs. P. H. Lee, with her small sons, Phillip and Bland, left last week to join her mother in Washington for the winter months.

The series of revival services which were being held by the Rev. Wilson at the church here closed on Sunday night with a large crowd in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham joined a party of friends in Washington on Sunday last, and accompanied them on a most enjoyable motor trip to Gettysburg, Pa.

ADEN

Mrs. Amos Corder who had the misfortune to fall and break her collarbone and receive other injuries is recovering.

Mrs. L. J. Bowman is also recovering after a few days of illness.

The teachers are planning a Halloween entertainment for Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Grace Hite of Manassas spent the week end visiting her many friends here.

Miss Jeanette Matthews attended the Northern District Educational meeting held at Culpeper last week.

Mr. L. L. Payne who has been suffering from sciatica for three months went to Washington on Friday to have X-ray pictures made, in order to locate the cause of his trouble.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON FORESTRY

Fire Protection Important in Lumber Production.

A program of illustrated lectures and moving pictures was given in Prince William and Fairfax counties last week in public schools and community buildings; at Manassas, October 13; Dumfries, October 14; Forestville, October 15 and Fairfax, October 16. The programs were sponsored by the Virginia Forest Service, a Division of the Commission on Conservation and Development and were in charge of J. P. Andrews, Assistant Forester, assisted by District Forester J. B. Pike and Chief Forest Warden James Russell of Prince William county and Joseph L. Money of Fairfax county.

The buildings were filled on each occasion by people who expressed themselves pleased with the entertainments. Mr. Andrews was liberal in his praise of the wardens of both counties and of their effective forest fire control organizations. The lectures which preceded the moving pictures, illustrated four important functions of the forests:

1. The economic value of the wood grown for local consumption as fuel, lumber, fence posts and telephone poles, and as raw material for use by the wood-using industries. The speaker laid particular emphasis on the pulp mills which are using hundreds of thousands of cords of pulp wood each year, thus giving employment to large numbers of workers both in the woods and in the mills. The speaker stated that 16,511,000 acres of the land area of the state was not needed for anything but to grow timber and that the owners of that vast territory had a right to expect it to be protected from fire.
2. The speaker said that game and fish were dependent upon the forest for shelter and food and for clear and even flowing streams. Forest fires occur more frequently and are more stubborn to handle in the spring of the year and this is the season when the song and game birds are nesting and suffer their greatest loss from these fires which destroy their nests and eggs and in many cases the young birds.

3. The speaker said the forests were our greatest guaranty of adequate water supply. They steady up the run-off of the rain water, thus helping to prevent floods. They keep the earth porous with their root system and the accumulated litter on the forest floor from their dropping leaves. The rain water is thus allowed to soak into the earth and feed the springs and wells. The shade of the forest cover prevents rapid evaporation and serves to protect us from the extremes of heat in summer and from cold in winter.

4. While our forests serve us in the various ways mentioned above, they furnish abundant opportunities for outdoor recreation. They lend their beauty and dignity to the scenic beauty of the state which gives us inspiration and encourages those from the outside to visit us and in many cases they come and make their homes among us.

The speaker closed with an earnest plea for the help of every good citizen in preventing the starting of forest fires, which he said did nobody any good but resulted in a loss to all of us, from the richest to the poorest.

COUNTY AGENTS' COLUMN

Dr. R. J. Haskell of the United States Department of Agr. in County to Study Stinking Smut Situation.

Wheat in Prince William county is showing rather heavy amounts of smut this year according to Dr. R. J. Haskell of the United States Department of Agriculture and Prof. James Godkin who spent Monday of this week in the county. This same is true for the State and other eastern states where conditions apparently have favored an outbreak of the disease this year.

Stinking smut can readily be prevented by treating the seed before it is sown in the fall. Prince William farmers should by all means take

COUNTY CREDIT IN PERIL

Elaborate Statement Issued by Ashby, Berry, Reamy and Others Fails to Disprove State Auditor's Charges.

On Saturday of last week State Auditor T. Coleman Andrews addressed a letter to the Supervisors of Stafford County which created a State-wide sensation and caused consternation and sullen anger among the officials responsible for the serious financial condition revealed by the Auditor's communication.

The full text of the letter was not published by the Daily Paper circulating in Stafford which seems to be aiding the officials under fire. On Monday that publication merely presented excerpts from the Auditor's report and devoted hundreds of lines to justifying and explaining the policies of the Stafford officials who have driven the county into such financial straits. The presentation was from the Ashby-Reamy viewpoint entirely.

Delegations of the Board, together with Clerk Ashby, Treasurer Reamy, Superintendent Gayle and Commonwealth's Attorney Curtis, immediately following preparation of the "white-washed" report published in this daily paper, hastened to Richmond to engage the Auditor in verbal recrimination, the Clerk having first called the State's Auditor on the phone and hurled insulting and sulphurous accusations.

When confronted by a demand for apology, Clerk Ashby, according to published statements, apologized to the Auditor and denied having made the statements over the telephone.

The irate delegation of Stafford officials which huddled in Auditor Andrews' office Tuesday morning took great exception to the fact that the Auditor's letter had been made public, ignoring the fact that all communications emanating from the governmental offices in Richmond are open to the public, as they should be in Stafford.

Reading a lengthy financial statement, the delegation demanded that the Auditor publicly correct his statements on the deficit in Stafford county.

At the conclusion of the interview, after requiring Ashby's apology for ungentlemanly statements, Auditor Andrews made the following concise statement:

THERE IS NOTHING IN YOUR STATEMENT THAT REFUTES ANYTHING IN MY REPORT WHICH SAYS THAT THE EXPENDITURES FOR ROADS AND SCHOOLS DURING THE YEAR EXCEEDED THE REVENUES PROVIDED FOR THOSE PURPOSES BY $1,478.86 AND $13,348.90, RESPECTIVELY, AND THAT THE EXPENDITURES FOR ALL PURPOSES EXCEEDS THE TOTAL REVENUE BY $10,429.38. THE RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF. WHEN A MAN SPENDS MORE THAN HE HAS HE IS BANKRUPT."

Offers Assistance.

In addressing the Stafford officials on the subject of the bankrupt condition of the County, the State Auditor expressed a willingness to work with the County in overcoming its present grave difficulties. These helpful suggestions were not published in the near-by daily which is seemingly aiding the present extravagant regime in Stafford, but is herewith reproduced from the Richmond News-Leader. The State Auditor said:

"Your county's situation is one which we believe requires immediate study and correction. In this connection we are able to advise that the writer and Dr. Sydney B. Hall, Superintendent of Public Instruction, are available for such purposes and will be glad to meet with you and the School Board of your county for a discussion of the situation and development of a plan that will enable you to overcome your difficulties. It is, of course, optional with you as to whether you desire to avail yourselves of these facilities, but we feel that we cannot too strongly urge upon you the seriousness of the situation and the necessity for action that will forestall loss of credit and other difficulties that will be inevitable if the present tendency is not checked."

Instead, however, of expressing appreciation of the offer of the Auditor to help the County unravel its puzzling problem, Clerk Ashby immediately called Richmond on the telephone and apparently in a very abusive manner demanded apology from the Auditor for his revelation of the serious condition of the County finances.

Ungentlemanly Procedure of Clerk Ashby.

When the Ashby delegation entered the Auditor's office Monday morning, Mr. Andrews is quoted to have said:

"I resent the statements you made to me on the phone last night. Unless you withdraw that statement I do not care to go any further in this matter. I don't intend to permit anybody to insult me. I don't propose to let you tell me that I wrote a report, in my official capacity, for political purposes. I don't know anything about the politics of your county."

When the local Board of Supervisors at its last budget meeting had before it the suggestion of a curtail of expenditures, Supervisor R. H. Estes, of Hartwood District, was the only member of the Board who tried to hold the budget down. Clerk Ashby in his typical arrogant fashion is described as having classed Estes as a man unfit to hold the position of Supervisor. Estes was in just the same position when he begged the Board to save money by using its own county paper for legal advertising instead of going into an expensive daily paper.

It is evident to everyone now that for many months past the finances of the county have been conducted on the "shoestring" policy. It is claimed that a number of "deferred warrants" are now in Fredericksburg banks drawing interest that the county will eventually have to pay. These warrants, if they exist, are probably entered as accounts crossed off the slate.

Somebody calls attention to the fact that on July 1 the sum of $6,135.78 was in the county road fund. The people of the county demand to know if there is a dollar of this money left.

If the county has borrowed some $15,000 from the State Literary fund to cover its shortage in the school funds does this mean that the county will be excused from paying this off at the rate of $1,000 per annum?

There will be money coming in after December 1, and it is coming in everyday during next month, but if it already is spent, what will the county do after 1932? The deficit can not possibly be wiped out by juggling figures, and no Board of Supervisors can avoid an increased tax levy next year to begin a liquidation of this deficit.

WOLFENDEN HELD FOR MURDER

Collected Insurance Under Suspicious Circumstances.

Walter Wolfenden has been committed to jail in Manassas and held without bail pending further investigation of the murder of Goodwin Miller, wife and infant child. A hearing will be held on November 5, when the following reported evidence will be sifted:

That he collected $749 on an insurance policy which provided double indemnity in case of violent death.

That he had previously made inquiries as to the effect of fire upon the human body.

That he had discussed with another a project of insuring the life of a person and then bringing about his death.

That he had forged his name as beneficiary on the insurance policy which he had collected.

None of the authorities are making any statements or predictions, but are determined to sift the matter to the bottom. If these reported facts are true, they will insist upon appropriate action.
