W. C. T. U. OBSERVES STATE RED LETTER DAY

"State Red Letter Day" was observed by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union by a public meeting in the Methodist Church, Oct. 29.

Rev. Mr. Miller made the opening prayer, setting forth the need of patience rather than discouragement in the slow fulfillment of every truly great movement. God has eternity to work out His plans. Romans 13 was read by Mrs. Embrey, president. The secretary called the roll of 54 members of our local union. Mrs. Round and Mrs. Gorrell gave some important two features, not previously reported, of the great convention at Hampton, Va. The keynote of the convention was "God still leads on." He led in the past history of the W. C. T. U., is leading and will lead on to victory! Mrs. Bell gave a reading, "Prosperity and Jim." And Mrs. Harrell told the story of a woman's titling in a most pleasing and interesting manner. Rev. Mr. Hall made the closing prayer and Rev. Mr. Halpenny pronounced the benediction.

SPENCER-LOVE

A charming autumn wedding took place, Oct. 30, at Rockville, Md., when Miss Alice Mae Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Love of Quantico, Va., was married to Floyd G. Spencer of Kentucky. The ceremony was at 3:40 o'clock by the Rev. Frank A. Tyle.

Miss Mildred A. Love, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mr. Nelson B. Rawlings was best man. Mrs. N. B. Rawlings also attended the wedding.

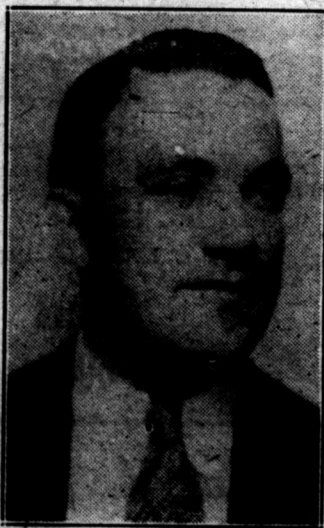

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer left for a wedding trip and upon their return will make their home at Quantico.

PRINCE WILLIAM 4-H CLUB COUNCIL MEETS

Clubs Meet at Manassas H. S. Auditorium for Achievement Day Program.

With the true spirit of 4-H club work a large representation of the 4-H boys and girls of the county met at 9:30 in the high school auditorium for the 4-H council meeting and achievement day program.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Janet Russell, and opened by the singing of the Rally Song led by Wilda Bourne. The group then bowed in reverend prayer led by Rev. O. L. Gochenour of Manassas.

Janet Russell gave a short address of welcome which was followed by the minutes of the last council meeting by Wilda Bourne, secretary of the council.

The roll call by clubs responded with reports of clubs by presidents revealed the good work that is being done throughout the county.

Geraldine Shepherd, reporter of the council, gave a county summary report which showed there are 17 councils, 374 boys and girls enrolled. There are 99 associate members who have done club work but are under club age.

Doris Bubb gave a report of the state short course and Leslie Bourne gave a report of the Jamestown camp.

At this time the club leaders were recognized. Miss Pitts called the roll and the leaders came to the front of the hall where they stood in line while the members gave them a hearty applause.

An "Earn-Your-Own-Dress" contest was staged in the county this year and at this time a 4-H style dress revue was held. While Miss Draper played a beautiful march the girls filed across the auditorium wearing the dresses they had made. Miss Sarah Thomas, Fairfax County Home Demonstration agent, acted as judge and announced the winners as follows: first, Goldie Knicey. She wore a print dress costing 62 cents and won the $5.00 prize offered by the Virginia Homemakers Association. Geraldine Shepherd wearing a pique sport dress, that cost 94 cents, won second place and the $2.50 prize offered by the Bethlehem Club. Both girls are from the Nokesville club.

Mrs. Egbert Thompson awarded the above prizes and also the following:

Best demonstration garden, Gayle Bowman of Aden club, first place and $2.50 prize. Second prize and $1.00 went to May Morgan of Cherryhill club.

Best garden project was won by Marie and Thesa Capen of Hayfield club. They were awarded a $2.50 prize. Irene Payne of Woodlawn club won second prize of $1.00.

The Bethel Home Demonstration Club offered special prizes for project work in Ocoquan and Bethel clubs.

The prizes were won by Janet Russell for the most outstanding club work; Eddie Russell, best calf project; Leslie Bourne, best garden project; Isabel Hensley, best clothing project. Each was awarded $1.00.

The group was led in the club pledge by Geraldine Shepherd and the meeting adjourned to Annaburg lawn for the pageant "Milk Through The Ages."

The girls of the group had a short meeting to decide on a program of work for the coming year.

Major projects will be second-year clothing work, with any productive projects as minors.

The county banner was awarded to Hayfield Club for most outstanding work.

The clubs assembled at 1:00 o'clock for the 4-H parade. We marched through the town preceded by the 4-H council float.

Spectacular Event A Great Success.

The first Queen of the Piedmont Dairy Festival came into her own last Saturday morning when Rev. A. S. Gibson administered the rites which established her in that office, using an ancient Saxon ritual, and a second later Hon. William Tyler Page, clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, placed the crown upon her brow, and gave the coronation address to the assembled multitude.

Miss Nelson was certainly a lovely figure in her stately robes, and her court of northern Virginia maidens enhanced the beauty of the scene. The personnel of the court was as follows:

Miss Anna Bruce Whitmore and Miss Lucy Arrington, maids of honor; Master Macduff Green, crown bearer; Misses Nancy Leachman and Mary Mason Davis, train bearers, and the following princesses: Miss Mildred Smith, Fauquier; Miss Virginia Frey, Culpeper; Miss Eleanor Rust, Fairfax; Miss Elizabeth Menefee, Rappahannock; Miss Nancy Boxley, Orange; Miss Charlotte Hagan, Arlington; Miss Evelyn Cline, Stafford; Miss Mary Alice Turman, Loudoun, and Miss Betty Billingsly, Spotsylvania.

A company of the famous Richmond Blues, under Captain Buford Rose, acted as a guard of honor during the entire exercises.

The pageant was preceded by a spectacular dance by pretty Miss Ellen Bisson, of Manassas High. Strangers expressed great surprise to learn that she came as a professional dancer.

Little butterflies (Phyllis Hopkins and Marie Bauserman) flitted about before each episode was announced through the "mike" by Miss Kitty Smith, of the Bennett faculty.

A dairy court (pictured hereon) named over the pageant. Miss Mary Nelson, with Raymond attendants.

Lynch was queen, Bowers and Ashby Lewis, her maids of honor. The heralds with silver trumpets welcomed Misses Margaret Frey and Anna May Ellis. They sounded as each group of the pageant approached.

The scenes depicted in Miss Beatrice's composition began in the plains of ancient Asia and continued through the Jewish and Egyptian eras, medieval, colonial and up to the modern times.

Under Mrs. Hite's direction, the following youngsters took part:

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

THE WAY TO FREEDOM:
Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
John 8: 32.

RETROSPECT

When County Agent Cox, Town Manager Cocke, and Fred Hynson, Esq., promoted the idea of a dairy festival last spring there were some who probably felt that they were premature. Later Fred admitted himself that the scope of the proposition far exceeded what he himself had originally envisioned.

Matters simmered along for months. Dick Hynson was called in, and with Al Hooff and E. H. Hibbs, undertook to raise necessary finances.

In the meantime Fred took much of his own time out and worked up ideas and ideals that were placed before the farmers, and Mr. Cox brought in the agents from adjoining counties. Of these H. B. Derr, of Fairfax, took an outstanding part, and by his example interested other counties.

In the past month the spirit of the originators became infectious, and toward the close most everybody was trying to help in some way.

History has been made, and favorable history for Manassas as well as the whole Piedmont area. It was an ardent desire to promote our dairy industry, and we believe that an established institution of this kind will repeat much better next year, and gradually take its place with the wonderful exposition which Winchester has given Virginia in recent years.

DISARMAMENT

The Ministerial Association of Manassas has sponsored a movement which has attracted the cooperation of other organizations and individuals in the matter of promoting the ideals of reduction of armaments.

November 11 is Armistice Day and all people will be thinking in terms of world peace, and reflecting upon the gratitude which filled the hearts of all men in the year 1918 when the "War to End War" came to an end.

Disarmament is not pacifism. It is a practical project to end the awful tax burden occasioned by military expenditures, and any practical movement calculated to relieve the burden of taxation is most worthy.

The local message appears on page 8 of this issue of the Journal.

BRIDE IS ENTERTAINED

One of the most delightful social activities of the season was held at Glasva School on Tuesday evening, October 20. For this happy occasion the faculty of the school gave a dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Lawler.

Flowers and autumn leaves made the dining room a bower of beauty. Covers were laid for nine and the table made attractive by a color scheme of green and white. The cake was appropriately decorated by a miniature bride and groom in gold dress.

The cutting of the cake and opening of gifts presented to the bride were an enjoyable part of the ceremonies.

After a most delicious dinner games and cards afforded entertainment for the rest of the evening.

Among those present (were): Mr. J. M. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Lawler, Misses Adelaide Gray, Alma G. Elberth, Agnes Hayden, Lenora Gardner, Helena Middleton and Mrs. Alice Bolton.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of my dear father and mother, C. T. Galahan, Dumfries, Va., father, passed away three years ago today, October 26, and mother, Oct. 12, just two weeks from today.

I cannot say and will not say that they are dead. They have just gone away.

With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand

They wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming how very far it need much be since they lingered there.

And you, oh, you who the wildest yearn for the old time steps and the glad return.

Think of them faring on as dear in the love of there as the love of here

Think of them still as the same I say

They are not dead, just gone away. The golden gates flew open

A gentle voice said, come And with farewell word unspoken they calmly entered home.

Loving daughter,
Mary E. Wise.

The Parade.
The parade in the afternoon in the afternoon was headed by E. R. Conner and M. C. Hazen, with Messrs. Carl Kincheloe, A. H. Roseberry and Ernest Hale as division aides. They were followed by the Marine Band, then the cars of distinguished guests, preceding the Queen's escort and the Queen and her court.

The second section was headed by the Washington and Lee High School Cadet Band, the cadet corps, and Alexandria High School cadets, followed by high school pupils from Arlington, Fairfax, Loudon, Prince William, Fauquier, Stafford, Culpeper, Orange, Spotsylvania and Madison counties; a detail of the Quantico Band headed the next division which consisted of floats entered by the participating counties, and 4-H Clubs and First Farmers of Virginia organizations, while still another section with five and drum corps from Quantico leading, showed elaborately decorated commercial floats, and special features, exploiting the use of milk as a benefit to health, and a special exhibit of the Smith-Hughes department of schools, for herd improvement.

Fully eight thousand spectators thronged Manassas during the day, and our eating establishments were hard pressed. In the afternoon, the Fire Department conducted a street carnival, while J. J. Conner and others ran a dairy products booth next to the National Bank of Manassas.

At night the beauty of Manassas came into its glory at the coronation ball, and the evening closed with everyone tired, happy and satisfied.

CATHARPIN

Well the Piedmont Dairy Festival is now a matter of history and proud history it must be to all who had anything to do with it from the organizer down the line to the onlooker who enjoyed it from the street. The floats and all exhibits were comparable only to the best of their class no matter where produced or exhibited. After this experience one is forced to the conclusion that Manassas has both pep and brains sufficient to put on big projects. May her flag ever wave high.

The Catharpin school children gave an entertainment at the school Thursday night of last week celebrating Hallowe'en which was much enjoyed by both children and patrons. Games, refreshments and fun being the order of the night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Caldwell were dinner guests at Bell Farm Sunday. Mrs. Mary Pattie Briggs of Washington spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie, and attended the Dairy Festival with the Catharpin 4-H Club of which she is the leader.

Mrs. O. P. Bieber of Washington visited her sister, Mrs. W. S. Brower, last week.

Mr. J. W. Polen of the Income Tax Department is spending his vacation of five weeks among relatives and friends in the Catharpin neighborhood. Mr. Polen has never lost interest in his home folk and is always welcome.

Mr. J. W. Alvey has been confined to his room for several days with flu. A number of people seem to be similarly afflicted and it is hoped the disease may not become epidemic.

The Catharpin Good Housekeepers Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald last week for its regular monthly meeting. Refreshments, fun and contests were the features.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie were Washington visitors last Sunday calling upon their niece, Mrs. Carrie Fetzner Swift.

Many Catharpin people attended the Dairy Festival in Manassas and are loud in their praise of what they saw. Prince William needs just such an occasion as this each year to boost the spirits of the people. For many years the farmers and tradesmen of the county have been low spirited due to losses of crops and the depression which is not peculiar to Prince William county, but is general all over the world. It is time now to throw off that state of lethargy which has been holding us in check and face the situation with a smile and a determination to make the best of it. It will come and things like the Dairy Festival are calculated to hasten its arrival. There is no use to get drunk about it; no use to sit and pout over it; just brace up like men, face the music, do your part and all will be well.

Just another word to the people of Catharpin neighborhood: Mention was made in these columns a few weeks ago relative to funds necessary to introduce a Dairy Festival in Prince William county similar in character to the Apple Blossom Festival at Winchester which has been found one of the best advertising mediums ever staged. To this end certain of our patriotic citizens together with county officials projected and put on a project which is destined to become a regular annual feature in the life of the Piedmont Dairy section. To do this the necessary expenses had to be underwritten by some one who is now responsible. That the festival was a success in every way is undisputed; that its continuance will avail much to the dairy interests of the section can not be denied; that it will afford great pleasure as well as profit to all our people is proven by Winchester's experience; and that it is needed we are all agreed. Therefore we again state that Messrs. L. J. Pattie and Chas. R. McDonald,

You needn't tell me
the fresh cigarette!

FRESH

in nature's way

CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FRESHNESS and flavor in a cigarette trace right back to natural moisture.

If you overheat or process tobacco so harshly as to dry out all natural moisture you drive out freshness and flavor too.

Camel never parches or toasts the fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos it uses—they are naturally smooth, cool, mellow, with natural moisture retained.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack proves such a blessing to Camel smokers—it brings them a fine cigarette fresh to start with, and fresh to smoke.

If you don't realize what natural moisture means in genuine freshness and flavor, switch to Camels and see.

Try this mild, slow-burning, throat-friendly favorite for just one day—then leave it, if you can!

JENKINS & JENKINS

MANASSAS, VA.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR DISARMAMENT?

Armistice Day, November 11, brings the world face to face with the greatest problem which besets humanity. In fear of our neighbors, shall we expend our resources on huge armaments in time of peace?

Disarmament does not mean pacificism. Let us, however, lessen the load of taxation and the effects of depression by taking the burden of War Fear from America and from all Nations.

Locally, this movement is fostered and favored by the Ministerial Association, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and other organizations and individuals of Manassas.
