CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God
They need to be kept in their hearts, and a light unto any path.—Proverbs 1:19

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THURSDAY, NOV. 12, 1931

GOD'S GOOD GIFTS:—The Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will be withheld from them that walk uprightly.—Psalm 84: 11.

THANKSGIVING

An instrument has been lately invented by Paul Humphrey MacNeil, an American, son of a Scottish artist, which makes it possible, in effect, to "see the sun" even when hidden by clouds of fog or snow. The new device has relief from uncertainty of dead reckoning when the sun is above the horizon though invisible to ordinary eyes. The "All-weather sextant" detects rays beyond the range of human sight—"recording rays from the clouds in approximately parallel lines to the original rays of the sun."

The President has had to employ such a mental sextant in making his Thanksgiving Day observation. The sun is still shining behind the clouds. Adversity has obscured its direct rays. But there are the secondary rays that parallel those which shine in prosperous unclouded rays. They have in them a potency to deepen our spiritual lives, quicken our sympathies and our spirit of sacrifice and strengthen our courage.

It will be difficult for some in distress to give hearty thanks for the "abundant harvests" that have still left them hungry, or for the "knowledge that has multiplied," or for the "education that has advanced," or for the general health that has improved. But what we can be throughout the land those who thankful for as a nation is that have are uniting in an unprecedented effort to see that those who are in need shall have full cause to participate "in this day of gratitude to the 'Almighty.'" The voluntary sharing, neighbor with neighbor, will not only hallow a tradition that was established in time of extreme hardship, but will strengthen the free institutions of our nation which goes forward with sober determination and a high heart. Whatever the current of winds, the cloud or fog, we need not have the anxiety of uncertainty. Our course is clear. There is good reason for general thanksgiving in the spirit that prevails throughout the land.—New York Times.

SWAVELY NOTES

The football game last Friday against the hitherto unbeaten team of Gonzaga High School resulted in a victory for Swavely by 13-0.

The junior game, scheduled for Friday, was played on Saturday and was a drawn game, 0-0.

Mr. Leinbach spent the week end at his home in Reading, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geyger of Cherrydale were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kline.

The football game against the Boys' Latin School, Baltimore, scheduled for next Saturday, has been cancelled. Mrs. Carr of Washington visited her son, Jimmy, at the school on Tuesday.

Yesterday in Washington the junior team played a football game with the team of the Friends School. The result was unknown at the time of going to press.

At the Armistice Day assembly yesterday the boys were addressed by the Rev. Emerson Hayer, assistant chaplain of the Naval Academy, Annapolis.

AGAIN VICTORIOUS. WIN SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP

The county soccer high school teams brought their season to a close on Friday, November 6, with Occoquan High again leading. Although there was more enthusiasm and competition shown among schools this season than that of last year, yet Occoquan played the same brand of ball that led her to victory last year. Occoquan has a record of having not lost a game of the twelve played in the last two years.

Much credit is due all the teams of the county for the interest and enthusiasm shown which has made the soccer season a success.

The players that are largely responsible for the success of the team are:

Forwards—W. Pearson, manager, H. Petellat, R. McCullum, L. Hinton, R. Balton, G. Pervis.

Half-backs—D. Riley, captain, R. Sheppard, W. Hall.

Full-backs—H. Allen, W. Taylor, G. Cooper, H. Dixon.

Goal-keeper—W. Bourne, H. Mauck.

"GRANDCHILDREN OF MASSACRE"

This is one of the strangest stories unearthed in many a day—a French colony, survivors of the 1804 rebellion in Haiti, found in the swamps of Carolina. Read it in the Magazine of The Washington Star for November 15, and order your copy of The Star from your newsdealer today.

QUANTICO

Attention! The latest news from Quantico are coming in. The little town is very busy these days raising money for some very much needed equipment in the school.

The ladies, headed by Mrs. Lena Lieberman, Mrs. Frank McInteer and Mrs. R. F. Persons, made an overwhelming success of the chicken and oyster supper on November 3. Slightly more than fifty dollars was cleared.

The next big event in the social calendar of Quantico will be the dance to be given at Aquia Tavern on November 13. You will be sure to meet all your friends at Aquia that night so you had better come. We are going to look for you.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP (OCOQUAN AND WOODBRIDGE)

The shades of election have passed—the Potomac still ebbs and flows—the sun rises and sets... The seasons come and go—rain, drought and pestilence—shadows and sunshine vie with the mellow pastels of autumn to keep man's brain alert and deepen the convolutions of thought.

A love feast in Stafford covers the political scars of a hard-fought battle.

Spotsylvania (we have several native Spotsylvanians living with us) emerges from the thick sands of a political Armageddon after a mass attack, all is well... Your folks remember the very mild political battle that was fought on the chess board of OLD Prince William by our mutual friends, Herring and Boatwright?

Well, well, well, when my mind retrospects, I think of Boatwright's trip to Stafford and his political maneuvers in Spotsylvania... Boatwright claimed low water was the cause of his trip, he crossed the Rappahannock without seeing the Old ancient Indian stream...

Cock-a-doodle-doo, said Mr. Rooster, Cack-a-cack-cack, said Mrs. Hen.

A fresh egg:
Cluck-cluck-cluck, said Mother Hen, Silence afrown from father Rooster, Pip, pip, pip, the egg wide open, Cheap, cheap, cheap, said the little chick... And romance is exposed...

Our sister county, just to the north of us, that has the honor of bathing her feet in the sacred waters of Bull Run, closes her free-for-all election, with malice towards none, love, honor and respect for all...

My good friend, Edmund Herr Allen, carried every precinct in the county... Twenty-five polling places gave Ed. twenty-five little greater, and when added votes were recorded against him... He says, he believes Mrs. Allen reneged, for, he can account for only two...

I am hereby, and hereon, now and forever more, handing over to the Hon. Edmund Herr Allen, of Fairfax County, Virginia, the Ancient and Honorable title of "The Grand Old Man of Northern Virginia..." Edmund Herr Allen, May your future days be blest with health and peace and sweet content!

One cannot write, nor can one think, unless one that leads the mind to another and then on Ad Infinitum.

When I think of E. H. A., forty-seven and three-tenths per cent Scotchman, I think of Robert Burns, and when I think of Robert Burns, I think...

"When chill November's surly blast Made fields and forest bare..." All lovers of the great out-of-doors can now fill their cup to overflowing with autumn's home-spun gold...

Who, but, the Great Architect, of worlds upon worlds, could paint the colors in the rain bow and then transfer such vivid colors to the leaf of the dogwood and sumac, maple, beech, gum and oak...

Would there were some way to iron the wrinkles from the brow of the aged, to soften the horny hands of the sons of toil, to pluck from the heart of wisdom the seeds of worry, and plant therein the happiness of youth... Alas! if we should take a dip into the fountain of youth, I am afraid we would miss the most beautiful season of life—AUTUMN...

Chief Justice Sheppard and Associate Justices Reid and Tyrrell comprises the full quota of Twin City's High Court... Associate Justice Tyrrell is the youngest member of this ancient and honorable court...

Allow me to extend to you, Mrs. Tyrrell and the two little Tyrrells, congratulations from yours truly and the Metropolitan city of Twin City.

On the outskirts of Twin City we have several very fine farms: P. C. Wigglesworth's tobacco farm attracted more than local attention...

This farm lies on U. S. Route 1, and a ten-acre field was planted in export tobacco, to be sent overseas from Baltimore...

Tourist from nine northern states, the Dominion of Canada, and as far west as the Pacific Coast have stopped to admire and take snapshots of this tobacco field...

Just prior to cutting, Gov. Ritchie of Maryland was motoring thru this section of Virginia... P. C.'s tobacco field must have called in silence to the Virginia gentleman who is Governor of Maryland, his car stopped and Gov. Ritchie alighted and walked quite a distance into this field of green...

Truly a tobacco wilderness... P. C. W. was in the field at the time of the governor's visit and was delighted when the Gov. Ritchie said, "Mr. Wigglesworth, part of Maryland's fame lies in her wonderful tobacco soil, but the Old Dominion is unbeatable..."

This picture was taken by a Long Island tourist and appeared in northern papers as a "Tobacco field way down in Old Virginia..."

Don't forget Nov. 11 is Armistice Day When the roar of cannon was silenced,

The suitor with chisel and mallet Carved past heroes...

Jaksy Clarke, our genial Postmaster, is taking on avoidupois since fishing season started...

Tou Pee Davis reports that he has combed the last hair from the crown of his ivory dome... Dr. Malcolm who eased Francis Barton Morgan's old mule in the slumberland land of mule heaven, advised Tou Pee to use a lime and sulphur mixture...

Double A Davis reports all's well on Ocoquan Bay... Alex don't forget to put on your socks not later than Nov. 15...

Uncle Nick reports tobacco best ever, nancy halls fine, the logs on the open fire ready for a cherry flame and a few old Nick Carters for an evening by the lamp light...

"You needn't tell me
 —I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!"

Never parched, never toasted

CAMELS are FRESH

in nature's own mild way!

EVERYONE knows now that Camels are the fresh cigarette.

If inquiry went deeper, it would reveal that Camels are the natural moisture cigarette.

That's important, because in handling fine tobaccos, when you process out natural moisture, you sacrifice freshness and flavor too.

Camel smokers needn't worry about that, because Camels are blended of fine Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that are never subjected to violent processing. They need no parching or toasting to make them smooth, palatable, cool.

That's why the Camel Humidor Pack is such a boon to Camel smokers—it preserves the freshness, flavor, natural moisture, fragrance that are in this fine cigarette to start with.

Camels are fresh in nature's own mild way, and if you want to see what that means in unalloyed smoke-enjoyment, switch to them for just one day — then leave them, if you can!

CAMELS

Made FRESH — Kept FRESH

Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked.

CATHARPIN

Rev. Mr. Swecker preached an excellent sermon to a large congregation at Sudley last Sunday morning. The Bible Class well attended and Sunday School moving nicely.

An occasion much enjoyed by all was the banquet tendered by the Bible Class last Wednesday night in honor of the new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Swecker, who has just been appointed to the Sudley Charge. The long tables in the dining room were filled with good things to eat and were surrounded by a happy host of friends and class members. The lecture room was beautifully decorated with evergreens and autumn leaves lending a profusion of color beautiful to behold. A "recognition" address was made recognizing visitors and introducing speakers, etc., much to the enjoyment of all present. A banquet is a splendid place to say nice things about those who are helping along the good causes in the church and neighborhood. It does one good to hear of some worthy thing they have done and then asked to stand and receive the glad hand; and "glad hands" seemed to be the order of night's festivity for certainly many received the applause. Mr. C. J. Meetze who is well known thruout the Sudley neighborhood graced the occasion by his presence and delivered a splendid address on Bible Class work. Rev. and Mrs. Swecker expressed delight with the reception accorded them and the banquet was over for another year.

Miss Katharine Pattie and Mr. Cook of Washington were week-end visitors at the Pattie home in Catharpin last week.

Mrs. Mary P. Briggs and little daughter of Clarendon and Miss Claudia Pattie of Washington were home visitors at Bell Farm last Sunday, all attending church and Sunday school at Sudley.

The Catharpin school children have a little scare on hands just now due to a case of scarlet fever in the home of Mr. C. H. Akers whose little boy has developed that disease. All precautions are being taken and it is hoped the trouble may be confined to the one family. On occasions of this kind people realize what a great benefit Health Training in the Schools is to any neighborhood. When children are taught how to take care of their physical beings, cleanliness, sanitation, etc., case like the present one can be checked from spreading so easily and effectually.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald and Miss Elizabeth J. McIntosh were Washington visitors last week.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Webb, in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn were Oakwood callers last week.

A visit to the thriving little town found the good people all agog and of Gainesville one evening last week full of excitement. Uncle Sam had to suspend the Post Office Department for a while because his genial P. M. had adjourned to the front pavement; the Southern Railway had whistled "down brakes" and every wheel stood motionless because its obliging agent had assembled himself along the main street with store keepers, clerks, cattle men, visitors and tourists, all in mass assembly watching the great huge form of the tar sprinkling tank spreading his black, glossy liquid upon the "Village Street" followed by the pebble-dasher broadcasting his stony deposit so evenly that all stood in amazement. The street was full of trucks, blowers, rollers, wagons and vehicles of all kinds rolling up and down this newly constructed portion of the John Marshall Highway which was starting at this point. The people were much elated and crowded along the zone of activity proclaiming the greatness of Gainesville. From the noise, excitement, interest, hustle and bustle one might well think that Gainesville was a suburb of Catharpin.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brower visited their mother, Mrs. C. F. Brower, who is still with her daughter, Marjorie, in Clarendon
