URGED TO SPECIFY HOME COUNTY

Government Employees from Prince William Asked to Designate Contributions for Home Use.

Federal Government employees in Washington have been asked by President Hoover to contribute three days' pay this winter to the relief of unemployed. This fund will be placed in the Washington Community Chest, but it has been decided that whenever so directed, the donation may be used for relief in the home county of government clerks who live in nearby Virginia and Maryland, and spent under direction of the local welfare organization.

In Prince William county the local organization recognized in this matter is the Civilian Home Service Committee, which handled the Red Cross Drought Aid last year. Every magisterial district is represented in this organization and the various clubs, local organizations, ministerial association each have a representative on this committee.

There is much relief work to be done in Prince William county, and very little money at hand for such relief. So Federal employees are being requested to specify in their donations to the Washington Community Chest, that their contribution be forwarded to Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson, chairman, Civilian Home Service Committee, Manassas, Va.

As Real Charity begins at home, it is hoped that our folks, who are kind enough to respond to President's Hoover's suggestion, will specify that their donation be applied in Prince William county, where it is truly needed.

FORD TO LOCATE AT ALEXANDRIA

New Plant Will Replace Washington Service Branch.

Mr. Edsel B. Ford announced Friday that a new site at Alexandria, Va., had been acquired by the Ford Motor Company upon which it was intended to erect a new building to replace the company's present service branch in Washington, O. C., located at Pennsylvania Ave., and John Marshall Place, which was purchased some time ago by the United States Government.

The new site fronts 424 feet on the Potomac river, at the foot of Franklin Street, and will receive shipments both by water and rail. The site embraces approximately six acres, being bounded by Union Street, the property of the Standard Oil Company and by the old Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation plant now owned by the Government.

A one-story unit will be erected, which will be in modern style with a floor area of 80,000 square feet. The building will front 280 feet on the river and will have a depth of 400 feet with a 260 foot concrete dock along the pierhead line. Offices and a garage will occupy the front of the building facing Union Street, while the balance of the building will provide space for enameling department, service stock and car distribution. An unloading platform will be served by a spur of the Southern Railway.

"GUILTY HANDS" SETS NEW MARK FOR SCREEN THRILLS

If you are the screaming type, be prepared for cold thrills when you see "Guilty Hands" at the Dixie Theatre.

Here is the last word in mystery thrillers, written for the screen by Bayard Veiller, master dramatist. In it he has injected the weirdest plot he ever conceived. It is grand entertainment, baffling and startling from start to finish.

Lionel Barrymore, who recently contributed a splendid performance to "A Free Soul," has the central role. He scores an even greater personal triumph in this new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer offering. We are certain Barrymore's fans will not allow him to go back to directing after witnessing his stirring characterization in Veiller's thriller which W. S. Dyke directed.

The picture concerns a veteran prosecutor and criminal attorney. He had sent men to the electric chair and saved others from it. He finds himself obliged to kill a wealthy client to spare his own daughter an ugly disgrace. His astuteness enables him to make the crime appear a suicide.

KILLED ON VISIT

Mr. Edward Trockenbrot who was killed just west of Willow Spring, at Centerville, Sunday morning was on his way to his daughter's (Mrs. Lipscomb) home near Bristol, where he was going to hunt.

The accident is the first fatality on this section of the Lee Highway for a number of months.

The machine was making a high rate of speed, and is said to have gone off the right side, then across to the left and back again to the right when a tire blew out causing the spill.

COMMUNITY BODY MEETS SATURDAY

New Officers and Committees Are Summoned.

The newly-elected officers and committees of the Brentsville District Community Association are requested by M. J. Shepherd, chairman, to meet at the District High School auditorium on Saturday evening, November 28, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of planning the association activities for 1932 and setting up goals by the committees.

B. L. Hummel, Rural Organization Specialist, V. P. I., will be present. The officers and committees as elected at the last monthly meeting of the association are as follows:

M. J. Shepherd, president; A. Armstrong, vice-president; and Randall Foster, secretary and treasurer.

Agricultural Committee: L. J. Bowman, chairman, G. A. Wood, C. B. Fitzwater, G. W. Spinks and Chas. B. Fitzwater.

Homemaking Committee: Mrs. Mary J. Hale, chairman, Mrs. A. Armstrong, Mrs. C. C. Herring, Mrs. H. C. Wood, Mrs. John Harpine, and Mrs. Kate M. Bradshaw.

Social Committee: Mrs. E. C. Spiller, chairman, Mrs. John Seymour, Miss Evelyn Kerlin, Miss Geraldine Shepherd, Mrs. T. B. Flickinger, Mrs. E. E. Hale and Mr. Lester Huff.

Civic Committee: P. LePoint Trevis, chairman, J. W. Harpine, A. O. McLearn, D. S. Diehl, E. S. Owen, Mahlon Seese, and S. G. Whetzel.

Educational Committee: Davis Nolley, chairman, G. W. Beahm, W. R. Free, Miss Minnie Smith, Mrs. Edmund Hooker, W. B. Kerlin and Mrs. L. J. Bowman.

REGULATION OF BILLBOARDS

The support of Garden and Women's Clubs throughout Virginia is claimed for a bill to be introduced at the General Assembly early next year regulating outdoor advertising.

An organization to work actively in support of the measure has been organized—Council for the Protection of Roadside Beauty—and is committed to each of the bill's eight provisions.

Mrs. Janet Stuart Durham, of Richmond, is chairman of the council. Vice-chairmen are: Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Richmond; Mrs. Ashton Dovell, Williamsburg; Mrs. Franklin Johnson, Richmond, and Mrs. Edward Mack, Orange. Miss Mary Roper, of Petersburg, is treasurer.

NEARLY BECAME SERIOUS

John Ashford, of Woodyards, who was in Manassas yesterday, had the misfortune to have his team become unfettered while in the back of the Manassas Mill; and the animals became frightened and ran up Main street, colliding with the buggy of Rev. Westwood Hutchison, just in front of the Prince William Hotel.

Fortunately the only damage done was a broken wheel on Mr. Hutchison's buggy.

BAGGED BIG GAME

Elmer Metz came home Tuesday evening with a nice assortment of birds and rabbits. Accompanying him were Messrs. Brooks and Wood, of the Dodge Motor Company of Detroit. Mr. R. O. Bibb entertained the group. Walter Johnson, manager of the Washington baseball team, was to have accompanied them, but a wave of dog poisoning at Bethesda, Md., his home, had taken off all dogs but one, and Walter was so grieved that he did not feel like hunting but sent his last and only dog for the others to use.

POHICK VESTRY HOUSE

Last Friday the corner stone of a vestry house planned in 1772 was laid with appropriate ceremonies.

Thanksgiving Day

Ah! On Thanksgiving day, when from east and from west,
From north and from south, come the pilgrim and guest,
When the gray-haired New Englander sees round his board
The old broken links of affection restored,
When the care-worn man sees his mother once more,
And the worn matron smiles where the girl smiled before. . .

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF CHEVROLET MOTOR CO.

Twenty years ago this past month an infant company destined for a hardy growth entered the family of automotive manufacturers, with the incorporation, on Nov. 3, 1911, of the Chevrolet Motor Company of Michigan.

That span of two decades covers probably the most remarkable growth in this most remarkable of all industries. During the twenty years following the completion of the Chevrolet, nearly 8,000,000 units had been built—a record unequalled by any other automotive manufacturer in the world.

Twenty years ago the cradle of the infant company was a small workshop on Grand River Avenue, Detroit, where Louis Chevrolet built experimental cars, not more than four or five that first year. Today the production organization numbers twenty domestic plants which produced a four-year average of more than a million cars a year.

Although operations were started in Detroit, the small shop where the first car was built soon yielded to a larger plant, also in the Motor City. Here the company remained until 1913, and then transferred operations to Flint, Mich., although New York City and Tarrytown, N. Y., also occupied prominent places in the early years.

As long ago as 1915 the company entered the volume field with the introduction of the once-famous "490" model, named for its price. This was the lowest price at which a Chevrolet was ever sold until the base price on the 1931 series was reduced, upon the introduction of this line last fall, to $475.

Production of "490's" the first year was 70,000 cars, many times that of any previous year's output. The company was thus definitely launched in the volume field, in which it later was to assume leadership.

Since that early time the history of the company reads like a Horatio Alger romance of industry. The story is one of almost constant growth and expansion. One of the dates most prominent in the development of that story is May 2, 1918, when General Motors took over the company. Extensive changes in personnel and methods followed in the succeeding years.

Under the stimulus of new blood and new policies, production in 1925 went over the half-million mark for the first time. Two years later it exceeded a million cars.

Up to this time the output of the company for many years was exclusively four cylinder cars. On Nov. 18, 1928, the company announced its abandonment of the four-cylinder field, where it had won pre-eminence, and brought out a six. In the very first year the new type exceeded all previous records of the smaller four, and today the company is leading the industry in sales.

The present executive personnel comprises W. S. Knudsen, president and general manager; H. J. Klingler, vice-president and general sales manager; M. E. Coyle, vice-president and general auditor; C. E. Wetherald, General Manufacturing manager, and J. M. Crawford, chief engineer.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

The evangelistic meeting will begin at the Presbyterian Church next Friday night, to continue ten days. Rev. J. E. Cook of Hopewell will assist Rev. W. A. Hall in these services, coming Monday night. All the ministers and people of the town and community are cordially invited to come and assist in the meeting.

MANASSAS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

At a meeting of the Junior League of the Manassas high school on Friday, November 20, the following officers were elected:

President, Anne Bradford; vice-president, Margaret Hottle; secretary, Margaret Carter, and treasurer, Robert Leith.

Senior Class Officers: president, Charlotte Tiffany; vice presidents, Hattie Mae Partlow and Margaret Carter; secretary, Marion Lynn, and treasurer, Lenore Alpaugh.

Mr. Hyslip, State Director of Vocational Guidance Education, spoke at the auditorium on Wednesday night before a meeting of the High School Patrons League. He said that vocational guidance was comparatively a new phase of high school instruction, for it was not until recently that parents and teachers have begun to realize the importance of helping students find themselves in the pursuit of vocations best suited to their individual ability and preference.

Mr. Hyslip spoke of the vital necessity of this side of high school training if boys and girls are to avoid being misfits in their life work.

He urged against trying to force children into vocations of the parents unless they were fitted for and preferred such work.

He made a plea for cooperation on the part of parents and teachers in seeing that every boy and girl, before graduating from the high school, be given courses in Vocational guidance.

Other features of the program were:

Music — Glee Club
"What the Schools Are Helping America to Achieve thru Higher Levels of Intellectual Life"

Eleanor Gibson
"What the Schools Are Helping America to Achieve in Citizenship and Loyalty to Law" Burton Lyons

"What the Schools Are Helping America to Achieve thru High Ideals of Character and Home Life" Harrietta Pattie

Closing Prayer — Rev. Gibson

All who attended the meeting expressed appreciation of the splendid program, the increased attendance, and the help derived from Mr. Hyslip's address.

The Thanksgiving program on Wednesday afternoon was held under the auspices of the Junior League with Ann Bradford presiding. The following program was given:

America — School Reading, "The Meaning of Thanksgiving" — Hattie Mae Partlow

Recitation, "The Frost is on the Pumpkin" — Mary Cooke

Thanksgiving Song — School The First Proclamation for Thanksgiving — Lenore Alpaugh

Recitation, "Thanksgiving Day" — Hazel Gochenour

Address to School — Rev. Gochenour

Thanksgiving Song — School Schools closed on Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving holidays, to reopen Monday, November 30. Several of the teachers are attending the meetings of the Virginia Education Association in Richmond.

A DEMOCRATIC THANKSGIVING

The Texas election on Tuesday very definitely killed all Republican hopes of controlling the next Congress.

Capturing the only Republican seat in Texas, the Democratic party now has 218 members in Congress, a clear majority of the 435 total. It is expected also that the Democrats will carry the 5th District in New Jersey next Tuesday, when an election will be held to fill the vacancy created by the death of Hon. Ernest R. Ackerman, Republican.

NOVEMBER MEETING BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

A. C. Fletcher admitted to District Home upon application.

$29,500 ordered transferred from general county fund to county school fund.

Certain allowances were given to indigent persons.

Stoves were ordered purchased for clerk's office and treasurer's office. $2,553.85 received for October gas tax.

An application from the Loudoun Board to co-operate in construction of a bridge at Putnam's Ford was tabled.

HALL SHOWS SCHOOL NEEDS

State Superintendent Wants Large State Appropriations.

Supporting the contention of the state board of education, that the state public school system requires $2,000,000 additional from the state to maintain present standards of instruction, Dr. Sidney B. Hall, state superintendent of public instruction, reported to the governor details of a survey among the county schools showing that half of the 100 counties contemplate reduced teaching staffs, 43 per cent expect shortened terms, and 30 per cent are reducing teachers' salaries.

If the 1930-31 program is to be maintained in 1931-32 there will be a deficit in the school funds of approximately $1,224,000, he estimated on the basis of his survey. He said that the counties require at least $1,250,000 and the cities $750,000.

He reported that 49 counties have reduced assessments, and twenty-four have reduced levies. Only six in 1931-32 assessments and only four have increased levies.

"The economies and changes contemplated by the counties, with the exception of decreased salaries, may be desirable of properly handled and safeguarded," Dr. Hall stated. "However, if the counties are forced to carry on as formerly and simply cut off teachers, reduce salaries and shorten terms to save money, we can expect a 10 to 20 per cent reduction in the value of the educational program for 1931-32 and a great increase in the overhead costs of maintaining school plants idle for a longer period than usual."

Dr. Hall said that this loss may be compensated by state appropriations, 1, to maintain teachers' salaries; 2, to increase the number of days the average child attends school, and 3, to provide professional supervision for classroom teaching.

Unofficial reports from six Virginian cities made no mention of possible salary cuts among city teaching staffs.

WILL AND FIFI SPARKLE IN "YOUNG AS YOU FEEL"

Picture Will Rogers in a nattily-tailored suit, a gardenia in his button-hole and his famous bangs slicked back immaculately with pomade. Impossible, you say?

Not at all. Believe it or not, that is exactly what he wears in his latest Fox starring comedy, "Young As You Feel," which opens Monday, Nov. 30, at the Dixie Theatre. And what's more, this is but one of the five different fashionable costumes he wears.

The picture is as ultra-modern as tomorrow's news, and is in many ways the best thing the famous wit and philosopher has ever done for the screen. He appears perfectly at ease as a well-dressed man and brings his wonderful perception of human nature to his characterization of a modern big business man out to show his sons how to have a gay time.

Fifi Dorsay is his chosen companion for the hilarious escapades in which he proves to his sons that a man is never too old to enjoy himself and that age is merely a matter of how one feels. Lucien Littlefield, popular character actor, is also featured in the cast which also includes Donald Dillaway, Terrance Ray, Rosalie Roy, Lucile Browne, Brandon Hurst, C. Henry Gordon, to name but a few of the players.

Frank Borzage who directed Rogers and Miss Dorsay in their first talking screen triumph, "They Had To See Paris," also directed "Young As You Feel," which was adapted from George Ade's stage play, "Father and The Boys."

BULL RUN BANKERS MEET AT MARSHALL

Adopt Recommendations of American Bankers Association.

The Bull Run Bankers Association met at Marshall, Va., on Tuesday, Nov. 24, and adopted a series of resolutions which when put into effect by the member banks will place the various banking procedures upon a more equitable basis, particularly in the matter of handling trade acceptances, drafts, cashiers checks, small checking accounts, etc.

Mr. C. L. Robey, of the Purcellville National Bank, reported as chairman of the committee on service charges and after discussion the measures, as recommended by the American Bankers Association, were adopted.

Under this plan incoming drafts, trade acceptances, notes, etc., an exchange fee of one tenth of one per cent on amounts under $2000.00 is recommended. On amounts over this, one twentieth of one per cent, with a minimum fee of 25 cents. Outgoing drafts, notes and trade acceptances, to have a charge of 15 cents per item. Traveller's Checks to be sold at the standard rate of three fourths of one per cent, with minimum of 75 cents.

In the matter of small checking accounts the recommendation is that a charge of fifty cents per month be made when the account maintains an average under $50, with an allowance of five checks regardless of balance. For return of checks on account of insufficient funds the drawer should pay a service charge of 25 cents.

A number of technical items, chiefly of interest to the management and administration of the banks was also acted upon, and as the meeting was especially well attended, the action taken is regarded as having a splendid reflex upon business generally.

Another matter discussed was the address by Mr. C. E. Tiffany, of the Fauquier National Bank on "How Taxes Can Be Cut." The opinion was expressed generally that the mounting costs of local government everywhere a great financial problem requiring early solution, if general prosperity among the masses is to be assured. Economies in public administration, it was stated, are necessary.

Among those who participated in the meeting were Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe and Mr. Harry Davis, representing the Peoples National Bank and the National Bank of Manassas.

SUPPORT URGED FOR RED CROSS

Leading Workers Feel that Need Will Be Rather Acute.

On Friday night last, Mr. Ready, of the National Red Cross headquarters, gave the Kiwanis Club a most interesting set of facts and figures which might ordinarily have been tiresome in detail.

Mr. Ready was so earnest in his subject that he kept the attention of the body for a full twenty minutes. One of the most notable features of his address was the data he gave to show the economical basis of operations and the spirit of community building and co-operation which the general work of the association made possible. By virtue of expert advice given to stricken areas, vast sums of money are kept from waste and the money needed for the work itself is released in that area so far as possible.

Dr. Marsteller in introducing Mr. Ready urged the Kiwanis to throw their strength behind the work in Prince William, stating that the Roll Call was at that time falling behind the record of last year.

Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, president of the Prince William chapter, was present and received a cordial welcome from everyone.

Mr. Frank Sigman, delegate to the Baltimore Convention of the Kiwanis Clubs, reported briefly, calling attention to Governor Hutchison's excellent remarks made before that body which were to some extent repeated before the interclub met the week before.

Important Dairy Points

Maintaining satisfactory prices for farm products is certainly to be included as an important function in the economics of dairy farm management. What is a satisfactory price to one farmer may not be a satisfactory price to another farmer. Quality of product and convenience to the consumer in his distribution are important factors in persuading him to pay a satisfactory price. Farmers cannot force consumers to take a given quantity of a given product at a given time and at a given price unless that price also suits consumers.

And so it is important (1) that we strive to reduce the costs of producing feed crops; (2) that we strive to do more work better with less labor costs; (3) that we conserve our capital investments; and (4) that we do the best we can at supplying consumers with that quantity of our products for which they are willing to pay satisfactory prices. — Exchange.

It's hard to tell whether the turkey is showing fright, or whether that funny look is an attempted emulation of the broad smile his capturer is wearing. But if it is a smile it won't last long—Thanksgiving day is at hand.

Day's True Spirit

Not Ourselves Alone, Is Thanksgiving Motto.

Grow fat along with me
The best is yet to be,
The last of life for which the first was made;

The ax is in his hand,
Assassination's planned.
Stand pat, get fat, nor be afraid!

Poor vaunt of life, indeed,
Were Turk but made to feed
On corn alone; to seek, to find and feast,

When feasting ends, to howl
Is this the end of fowl?
Irk care the crop-full bird? No doubt
We'll soon be fleeced.

Rejoice we are allowed
To grow and yet be proud
To grace the festal board, be stuffed to burst,
Be turned upon the spit
Till we have browned a bit,
Then eaten up with one fell swoop,
That's worst.

So take and eat thy Turk,
Save carcass that may lurk
Amid the gravy's lure; pick clean the bones.

Next day, pray eat us cold,
Then hush us in a mold.
Soup comes at last, thanks'be, to hush
Our moans!

With Many Apologies to Browning

Like the turkey and the epicureans,
We are prone to eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may die. We must have a particular day appointed in which to give thanks, lest we forget. We take so much for granted, accept all the good things of life without stopping to count our many blessings, or to name them one by one, as we were admonished in Sunday school so long ago.

We enjoy years and years of health, forgetting what a wonderful gift it is until illness lays us low. We accept our friends who strew our path with roses and cheer our way with kindness until one is gone, and we realize how much more we might have been a him. We think we love our children, but when they have all left the nest, how gladly would we have them back that we might show them how much more we could prove our love.

The editor of the Outlook, some years ago, expressed the true spirit of Thanksgiving so effectively—that I quote him verbatim: "If the end of society is to produce the largest number of free human spirits, of generous human hearts, of strong human hands, of pure human homes, of noble human lives; if the liberation of serfs, the setting free of those in bondage, the care and reverence for the man as a man, the open door to the boy and girl whose feet are eager to climb, the breathing of the breath of life through a stagnant world, means progress toward the ultimate goal, then let us reverently thank God that we were born in an age and in a country in which it is our supreme good fortune not to be ministered unto but to minister."

"If we are to return thanks," he goes on to say, "not for ourselves alone but for all men; not for work done, but for noble chances to work; not for civilized civilization, but for the better civilization that may be developed; not for a few choice spirits, but for the opportunity for all men to throw themselves into the light; not for things which make for our own comfort but for the things which make for the healing of the world; not for the life that has been lived, but for the boundless life that is to be, then let us thank God that he has given us, not things but chance of growth; not comfort but opportunity of service; not ease of spirit but the tools of the peaceful life." — Indianapolis News.

Made Day National

Persistent Woman Editor
United the Nation in Giving Thanks.

The impression seems to prevail in some quarters that the women of the United States never accomplished anything worth while before they were given the right to vote. Talk of that character is a million miles from the truth. The women of America have always been doing fine, big, worthwhile things. H. O. Bishop writes in the National Republic.

At this particular season of the year it is appropriate to tell about the woman who, after twenty years of patient effort, succeeded in having an annual Thanksgiving celebration in this country observed on the same day by all of the people.

The name of this woman was Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale. Few women, either before or since, have accomplished more big things for the betterment of men and women. Probably few persons of the present generation have ever heard of this gifted woman. She was born at Newport, N. H., October 24, 1788, and died in Philadelphia, April 30, 1879. She was not a college woman, but was taught by her mother. In 1813, at the age of twenty-five, she married a lawyer, David Hale, a brother of Salmon Hale, historian and at one time a member of congress from New Hampshire. Nine years later she was left a widow with five children. She was a genuine, old-fashioned American woman, and did not clamor for governmental or individual aid. She was quite content to go to work. In 1828 she became editor of the Ladies' Magazine, which had recently been started in Boston. She successfully edited this publication until 1837, when it was merged with Godfrey's Ladies' Book. She continued with the latter publication until 1877.

Much Work Well Done.

Editing a magazine is usually considered a pretty big job in itself. Mrs. Hale, however, seemed to find time for many other things. She organized the Seaman's Aid society in Boston, which is the parent of similar organizations now existing in most ports. The completion of the Bunker Hill monument was also partly due to the efforts of this little woman. She persuaded the women of New England to raise $50,000 for that purpose.

The plan of educating women for medical and missionary service in foreign lands was inaugurated by Mrs. Hale. She devoted a number of years to this effort, finally succeeding through the organization of the Ladies' Medical Missionary society of Philadelphia, and the Woman's Union Missionary Society for Heathen Lands, in New York.

Throughout her editorial work Mrs. Hale urged the practical advancement of women, advocating their employment as teachers and the establishment of seminaries for their higher education.

Thanksgiving in 1777.

It was in the early forties that Mrs. Hale began her campaign for making Thanksgiving a national holiday and its celebration on the same day all over the country. It was then the custom for different localities to observe the occasion on whatever day happened to strike their fancy.

Following the surrender of Burgoyne at Saratoga in 1777, the Continental congress had appointed a committee to recommend joint thanksgiving for "the signal success lately obtained over the enemies of the United States."

In 1778 Thanksgiving was set for December 30, most of the states concurring in a uniform date, but there were other Thanksgivings in May, June and December as the various states saw fit to order them.

It was not until January, 1790, that Washington was authorized by congress to proclaim a national Thanksgiving, which he did for February 19.

For twenty years Mrs. Hale wrote editorials in her magazine, and personal letters to governors and Presidents, in behalf of a national Thanksgiving day. Her efforts and patience were rewarded in 1863, when Abraham Lincoln saw the wisdom of her suggestions and decided to adopt the plan. From that day to this Thanksgiving has been celebrated by the entire nation the last Thursday of November. After the 1795 day of Thanksgiving in February, the festival was skipped for twenty years. In 1815, when peace with Great Britain followed the War of 1812, congress resolved that "a joint committee of both houses wait upon the President of the United States and request that he recommend a day of Thanksgiving to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity and the offering of devout acknowledgments to God for his mercies and in prayer to him for the continuance of his blessings."

Long Lapse After 1815.

The day fixed for observance was April 13, 1815, but thereafter Thanksgiving as a national celebration fell by the wayside, not to be revived until Mrs. Hale's campaign moved President Lincoln to act in 1863.

Mrs. Hale's persistent efforts had won favor for the idea in most states by the time the Civil war had arrived. Some states already had begun the observance of a fall Thanksgiving day nearly ten years before the national day in November was set aside. New York was one of these, and her representatives in congress tried repeatedly to induce that body to name a day. In 1863 there were actually two Thanksgivings days, the northern states having observed one in August for the victory at Gettysburg.

Following the assassination of Lincoln, Mrs. Hale feared the holiday might be allowed to drop. She urged the necessity of keeping the national fall festival as a "Thanks day for all good things given us by the Heavenly

Mrs. Sarah Josepha Hale.

Father." Mrs. Hale wrote to ministers all over the country, urging them to help.

The First Congregational church of Washington responded to Mrs. Hale's plea, and sent a delegation to President Andrew Johnson requesting him to issue a Thanksgiving proclamation. He accepted and the Presidents since have followed his example without being petitioned, the states issuing separate proclamations in keeping with the national edict.

Mrs. Hale wrote many books and poems. The most famous of her poems were "Mary's Lamb," "The Light of Home" and "It Snows." Perhaps the best known of her works is "Woman's Record, or Sketches of All Distinguished Women From the Creation to the Present Day," first published in 1853, and enlarged in 1869. She went on writing verses and jingles for children, articles and novels for grown persons and editing her magazine until shortly before her death in 1879, at which time she was ninety-one years old.

THANKS is one of the things we forget. We take our blessings as a matter of course. We seldom say a word about them—although we kick like steers when things don't go right. So let's stop complaining long enough to say "Thank You."—Grit.

Thanksgiving

Let us pause a moment in our daily deliberations and give thanks for the many blessings we have received. Thankful for our health, our good friends, the rewards for honest toil, and the community and nation whose prosperity is our ever-present concern. Let us be thankful of the right to be alive, no matter how hard the road of life may be; and it will help us to know that the sunshine always comes after the storm and the rainbow of prosperity is just ahead.—Bm. Smith.

GIVE THANKS FOR "GOODLY TURKEY"

HOW well I remember that old Thanksgiving dinner! Father at one end and mother at the other end, the children between and wondering if father ever will get done carrying the turkey.

The day before at school, we had learned that Greece was south of Turkey, but on the table we found that Turkey was bounded by grease. The brown surface waited for the fork to plunge astride the breastbone, and with knife sharpened on the jamba of the fireplace, lay bare the folds of white meat.

Give to the disposed to be sentimental, the heart. Give to the one disposed to music the drumstick. Give to the one disposed to theological discussion the "parson's nose."

Then the pies! For the most part a lost art. What mince pies! In which you had all confidence, fashioned from all rich ingredients, instead of miscellaneous leavings which are only short of glorified hash! Not mince pies with profound mysteries of origin! But mother made them, and laid the lower crust and the upper crust, with here and there a puncture by the fork to let you look through the light and flaky surface into the substance beneath.

Positive Proof of FORD ECONOMY

City of Detroit purchases 137 new Ford cars
Hundreds now in use prove low cost of operation

THESE 137 new Ford cars represent one of the largest deliveries ever made to a municipality at one time.

21 radio-equipped Ford scout cars were traded in on this purchase. They had been operated day and night for two years in heavy traffic and all kinds of weather.

Their individual records ranged from 73,434 miles to 143,723 miles with a grand total of 2,223,097 miles. The operating cost of the 21 cars was 2.24 cents a mile—less than 2 1/3 cents. This cost included all fuel, oil, tires, repairs and every other item except depreciation and insurance.

Of 577 Ford cars in Detroit City service, the 300 in the Police Department traveled a total of 6,591,937 miles during the past fiscal year, at an average cost of 2.9 cents a mile.

Many claims have been made on operating costs, but here in the carefully kept motor car records of the City of Detroit is positive proof of Ford economy.

In the paragraphs above, it is seen that 21 Ford scout cars averaged less than 2 1/3 cents a mile and 300 Ford cars in all branches of Detroit police work averaged 2.9 cents a mile!

Day and night, twenty-four hours a day, these Ford cars are in operation. Few branches of transportation demand such grueling service. The records show that low fuel and oil consumption is but one of the Ford's many economies. Ford materials, simplicity of design and accuracy in manufacturing provide unusual strength, stamina and freedom from replacements and repairs.

The individual car buyer as well as the purchasing department of a city or a business cannot afford to ignore the proved economy of the Ford car.

VIRGINIA PUBLIC SERVICE CO. REPORTS INCREASE IN CUSTOMER STOCKHOLDERS

Local Investors Show Interest in Operations of Company.

"This year has witnessed the largest increase in the number of customer owners of its Preferred Stock of any year in the history of the Company," L. W. Van Bibber, secretary and treasurer of the Virginia Public Service Company, stated Tuesday in commenting on evidences of improved business conditions in Virginia.

Mr. Van Bibber's statement was issued in connection with a report from the Customer Ownership Committee of the National Electric Light Association which showed a growth in Customer Ownership movement in the country.

Mr. Van Bibber says that the Virginia Public Service Company has taken the lead in the customer ownership movement and that the number of stockholders of the company in Virginia has shown a phenomenal increase during the past four years.

At the present time there are 7,853 preferred stockholders in the Virginia of whom are residents of the 278 Public Service Company, nearly all communities served by the company. This number is rapidly being increased. At the close of 1929 there were 3,528 preferred stockholders.

This number increased to 4,306 at the close of 1929. There were 5,837 stockholders at the close of last year and to date this year this number has been increased to 7,853.

"Several times recently, customer stockholders have come to us—sometimes to tell about outstanding bits of service which have been performed by our employees; and sometimes to suggest ways in which we might increase the efficiency of our service. In many cases, these suggestions have helped us to increase operating efficiency and to improve service to our customers."

"Bulletins are sent to the stockholders every three months with quarterly dividend checks," Mr. Van Bibber said.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE EYE OF THE LORD:

Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy: To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.—Psalm 33: 18, 19.

A TOOL THE DEVIL WANTS TO KEEP

It was once announced that the Devil was going out of business, and would offer all of his tools for sale to anyone who would pay the price. On the night of the sale they were all attractively displayed, and a bad looking lot they were.

Malice, hatred, envy, jealousy, sensuality, deceit and all other implements of evil were attractively spread out, each one marked with its price. Apart from the rest lay a harmless looking wedge-shaped tool—much worn—and priced much higher than any of the others. Someone asked the Devil what it was.

"That's Discouragement," was the reply.

"Why have you priced it so high?"

"Because," replied the Devil, "it is more useful to me than any of the others. I can pry open and get inside a man's consciousness with that when I could not get near him with any of the others—and when once inside I can use him in whatever way suits me best. It is much worn because I've used it on nearly everyone and very few know it belongs to me."

It hardly need be added that the Devil's price for discouragement was so high it was never sold.

He still owns it—and is still using it. Is he using it in your business now that summer is over and most of us have our days? Let's forget this tool and get to work. The business is here if we work for it. Will you get yours or will you let the people of some other city get all the trade. If you are wise you will trade at home and you will prosper. Trade away from home and you will go down. When a business man shops out of town it makes people afraid of his merchandise. The first thing your customer will think of is that your merchandise is not what it should be or you would trade at home. When you show people you have confidence in your line, you can make other people interested. Trade at home if you want prosperity for your own town.—Journal, Hominy, Okla.

FAVORS CHANGE IN ELECTION LAWS

Changes in the election laws to require any candidate for a state office or for the United States Senate to post $500 and to present a petition bearing 1,000 names, in order to have his name printed on the ballot in a general election have been tentatively approved by Governor Pollard and his advisory commission on electoral reform in session at the capitol. The $500 would be returned to the candidate if he polled as much as 10 per cent of the total vote. Publicity for the ballot in advance of the election also was favored.

Not All Americans Look on Day of Thanksgiving With the Pessimistic Eyes of Will Carleton

Will Carleton in his verses on "Captain Young's Thanksgiving" says:

Thanksgiving day, I fear,
If one the solemn truth must touch,
Is celebrated, not so much
To thank the Lord for blessings o'er
As for the sake of getting more.

It is the "feastive" day on which Little Willie, on hearing the end of a beautiful meal, will sigh, "I've pretty near reached my bust measure." And dad will again wonder why Thanksgiving day doesn't follow Christmas so he can be thankful that both purse-bending days are over. It is also the season in which dogs and cats beat a tattoo on drumsticks with their teeth.

Truly, a man is old when he begins to fear mince pie. What this world needs is for some one to devise a plan whereby the bone of contention can be utilized like the Thanksgiving turkey for making hash and soup. But 'twas ever thus—these big Thanksgiving meals. Indeed, some 140 years ago the Thanksgiving menu of which George Washington partook at Mount Vernon consisted of:

Concise of Fresh Fruit

Oyster Soup

(Mrs. John Marshall's recipe—black eye peas and Virginia ham knuckles added.)

Roast turkey stuffed with wild rice, pulverized boiled chestnuts, artichokes, truffles, chicken livers and toasted bread crumbs, flavored with rosemary, sage and mother of thyme, larded with Virginia ham fat and basted with Madeira wine; served with bogberry sauce, fresh cauliflower and candied sweet potatoes.

Old Virginia mince pie, served to flames.

New Orleans old French market cookee.

Mmm! Those were the good old days! But, observes the Providence Bulletin:

The special blessings for the sake of which children and some adult persons celebrate Thanksgiving day are transitory at best. They center round the dinner table, "grooming with good things." But even if Will Carleton thinks that most of us regard such matters as these more seriously than the finer and nobler teachings of the day, surely many of us grace the occasion with the spirit of gratitude for our "blessings," and endeavor to spread this spirit by providing for the comfort and happiness of some less fortunate household than ours at this festive festival of the year.

It is a familiar law of nature that the more we give the more we have. This may not be true of material possessions, but it is certainly true of the things of the spirit. If we increase the sum total of others' happiness we increase our own.

Anyhow, here's hoping you get the long end of the wish bone!—Pathfinder Magazine.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP

(OCOQUAN AND WOODBRIDGE)

Way back yonder in 1664, Stafford County was formed and for more than two centuries she helped to mold the opinions of men in America. Her once large domain has been cut and whittled until at the present time she stands with one exception like Mother Hubbard's cupboard. This exception consists of an old time musical organization—organized for the sole purpose of keeping intact the old rhythmic airs of past days. The tunes as played by our forefathers years ago comes floating thru the air from Station "WJSV" every Saturday 8 p.m. Two of the STARS in the outfit are from Twin City, altho one, Jiggs Embrey, who plays first violin, was born and reared in Stafford, Twin City claims him as a citizen. The other Twin City Musical prodigy is Professor Felix Mahogany, the guitar VIRTUOSO. Then comes the real Staffordians:

Gus Shelton, second fiddle; Al Embrey, mandolin; Howard Flatford, banjo, and Warren March, guitar. And can these boys play!

Why old man Jno. English and Armstead Nelson lived in the musical strum of these instruments. The old Horn Pipes causes the rheumatism to be forgotten and a leg to shake to an asthmatic cadence. And as a Horn Pipe dies on the quivering air, the low sweet and soft strains of "When you and I were young Maggie" floats into ten thousand homes and brings to life past memories.

This coming Saturday boys I want you to knock off "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and I promise to check up on Geo. Herring, Ed. Allen, Tou Pee Davis, Jakey Clarke, Uncle Nick and Louis Edward Strother. If they fail to respond to the sweet strains of days gone by, then I will know that chivalry is dead and sentiment is eclipsed.

I received an invitation from the Vestry of Truro Parish and the Chamber of Commerce of Fairfax County to attend a Masonic laying of the corner stone of the Vestry house of Truro Parish on the 20th. I was glad to accept the invitation and took advantage of the clear, warm November day to attend. The services were beautiful and interesting, and the hand shake of old friends was like wine to a fatigued body. Chas. Callahan, one of Virginia's noted historical writers, delivered an address covering the history of Truro parish. Bishop Goodwin gave a short address "Faith of our Fathers." About 500 were present, including Capt. Joyce of the Marines, stationed at Quantico, Francis Barton Morgan and French Fleming.

Several readers have asked me for a copy of the "Cycle" and I gladly give it thru The Manassas Journal.

A CYCLE (By Geo. Dent)

Morning:
From out of the misty East—
A golden ray
Signals all nature—
The break of day:
Silently the dewy morn—
Is swept away,
And each star
In its separate space

Is hidden completely
By the sun's bright face—
And time goes on—
A ceaseless race

Noon:
Far up in the heavens—
Overhead
Its effulgent rays—
Over the earth are spread,
Shimmering and dancing
On each flower bed:
With its magic paint pot—
Brush of comet's hair—
Painting a color—
Here and there
On the footstool of the Gods—
So fair . . .

Evening:
Slowly sinking—
The great orb of day
Lengthening the shadows
With its dimming ray
Warns all nature
Of a dying day . . .

Night:
The last ray
Of golden light
Wafted into the great unknown—
Now 'tis night
And the watchman calls,
"All's well—" far into the night . . .

HAS OLD VIOLIN

Mr. J. H. Senger of Manassas, Route 3, has a valuable old violin believed to be a genuine Antonius Stradivarius, 1732. It was purchased in Washington a number of years ago, and upon cleaning off the dust the name, Antonius Stradivarius, 1732, was found on the inside. These violins have at various times brought fabulous prices. This instrument is in splendid condition and its tone has been admired by many musicians.

Telephone Laboratories Develop Testing Device

James Lake, telephone engineer, takes revolution wire test reading.

Telephone equipment, neat in appearance, makes an appeal to the users of the service, that would not be obtained by battered, unsightly apparatus. Telephones, bell boxes, extension gongs, cords, and other equipment in the office or home should present a well-kept appearance. It is toward this end that the engineers of the Bell Telephone Laboratories are working in their efforts to develop the most efficient apparatus possible and still maintain a neat appearance.

Before telephone equipment is placed in service it must undergo many tests in the laboratories. It must operate perfectly in order that every call will go through; the equipment must be finished properly so that it will be considered an ornament, and must be maintained properly in the manner in which telephone equipment is finished is an important item of research on the part of the company's engineers.

Take the track Japan enamel on desk stands as an example. The metal surface of the telephone is of brass so corrosion under ordinary conditions is negligible, but the real criterion of the finish is its resistance to ordinary usage, which in the majority of cases consists mainly of mechanical rubbing or wearing, the engineers say.

To ascertain the wear resistance of Japan enamel on telephone equipment, the laboratories engineers have recently developed a practical device the basic feature of which is a motor driven disc enclosed in an airtight chamber partially filled with dry sand. A piece of apparatus with a certain type of finish is fastened to the disc, which is then revolved at a high rate of speed the sand beating against the equipment during this process. Comparisons from repeated inspections determine the finish which will best withstand wear and tear.

FARM POULTRY

KEEPING TAB ON AGES OF CHICKS

Good Reasons Why Matter Is Important.

The question may arise in the minds of some as to why it is necessary to be able to tell the differences in ages of pullets.

The answer is that when it is time to put the pullets in the laying house, there are some are not worth keeping. These should be sorted out, and it is well to keep all of the same age and development by themselves. The earliest maturing pullets are usually the best ones.

If pullets of all ages are allowed to run together on range, it will be impossible to tell the difference between the slow-developing ones of the earlier hatches and the fast-growing ones of the later hatches. Naturally, such birds are not all of the same value and should not be placed in the same pen.

Unless pedigree hatching and breeding are done and all chicks banded, such pullets cannot easily be told apart. They can easily be marked by toe punching or slitting the webs between the toes. By using different combinations it is a very simple matter to know definitely the ages of the various pullets.

Poultry House Litter Carrier Has Advantage

In some of the newer commercial poultry houses a litter carrier and track has been installed to great advantage. The track is supported from the rafters just in front of the dropping boards. The carrier when in position is just right to receive the droppings as they are scraped from the boards.

The track may be extended through the house if the doors between units are arranged properly. At the end, or at both ends the track can be extended to allow the carrier to be dumped into a manure spreader.

This system greatly reduces the labor of cleaning the house. One great advantage of the large flock is the fact that labor-saving equipment can be installed with profit, permitting one man to care for many birds with a minimum of labor.—Exchange.

Care of Ducks

When duck eggs are hatched in an incubator, the temperature should be 102 degrees during the first week. For the remainder of the hatch, it should be held as near as possible to 108 degrees. The thermometer bulb should be placed level with the top of the duck eggs.

During the last ten days of the hatch the eggs can be sprinkled daily with water which is close to machine temperature. The eggs will usually begin to pip the 26th day and the machine should be closed. But if moisture appears lacking and the ducklings are having trouble in emerging, it may be best to open the machine and add moisture. If possible, you should obtain the incubator instructions for hatching ducklings in the type of machine you are using. The best results can be obtained by following any special instructions advised by the manufacturer.

Poultry Hints

The fact that the poultry industry can expand or contract rapidly with conditions makes it a stable one.

Artificial light for poultry merely makes a normal condition during an abnormal time and is not a forcing process; if used with reasonable judgment.

The careful division of pullets into laying units makes their management and feeding in laying flocks during the pullet year easier, more economical, and more exact.

A poultry man who continuously selects his breeding hens from the late molting group in his flock, may expect a higher egg production during the late summer and early fall.

Thoroughly repair, clean, and disinfect all laying houses before the pullets are confined to winter quarters.

Many poultrymen find that night lighting of baby chicks increases the growth since the chicks eat and drink at night.

Do not scold your squabs before picking for market. Learn to dry-pick; they have a much better appearance two or three days later than birds that were scolded before picking.

Bacillary white diarrhea of chicks can be controlled by testing breeding hens and eliminating the germ carriers.

Culling should be a continuous process, starting at the time chicks are received from the hatchery and extending over the entire laying period.

Principal defects of eggs delivered to candling stations which materially affect their sales value are dirt, yellow yolks, murky whites, shrinkage, heat, looseness and poor shells.

Chief Justice Hughes In Tribute to Red Cross

One of the finest tributes ever paid the American Red Cross and its membership was that by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, of the United States Supreme Court, on the occasion of the fiftieth birthday anniversary of the organization on May 21 of this year. Mr. Hughes said:

"The American Red Cross represents the united voluntary effort of the American people in the ministry of mercy. It is the finest and most effective expression of the American heart. It knows no partisanship. In the perfection of its cooperation, there is no blemish of distinctions by reason of race or creed or political philosophy."

"However, we may differ in all things else, in the activities of the Red Cross we are a united people. None of our boasted industrial enterprises surpasses it in efficiency. It moves with the precision and the discipline of an army to achieve the noblest of human aims."

"The American Red Cross is not only first in war but first in peace. The American people rely upon its ministrations in every great catastrophe. It has given its aid in over one thousand disasters. When, as we hope, war will be no more, still the Red Cross, in the countless activities of relief and rehabilitation, will continue to function as the organized compassion of our country."

Thanksgiving Dinner in 1621 Hardly What Would Be Considered Much of a Special "Spread" Today

A modern, transplanted to Puritan New England, wouldn't give many thanks over Thanksgiving day dinner. He would find it pretty bad fare.

Cranberries were available in 1621, wild turkey—if the head of the house was a good marksman. There were nut trees in the woods, and wild grapes. But the stock of perishable foodstuffs was meagre. Probably grain was to be had to supplement the small supply of Indian corn, but butter, milk and eggs were almost unheard of in Plymouth 310 years ago. Maybe they had potatoes in 1621, but if they did they came by ship.

A modern expert in nutrition, given a Puritan Thanksgiving dinner to analyze, would have several convictions. Dr. Walter H. Eddy points out in Good Housekeeping that he would find few green vegetables, no milk, a high preponderance of proteins and acid ash.

"Wild fruits may have helped to avert scurvy," says Doctor Eddy, "but this disease was always imminent in the winter, and probably much of the so-called winter rheumatisms were due to scorbutic joints."

Pneumonia and what was called consumption wiped out whole families in old New England, Doctor Eddy points out, because the food did not have the proper vitamin content.

"Palatability and quantity were in those days almost the sole guides to dietary adequacy," he says. "But families were large and, in spite of high mortality that would produce a scandal in health circles today, they managed to survive and gradually increase in numbers."

FROM time immemorial, the bringing in of the last sheaves of corn and the cutting of the last of the fruits of the land have been accompanied by feasting and all the outward expressions of joy and happiness. It is a time for reunion of families, for happy greetings, for the renewal of friendships and of general gaiety.

THANKSGIVING day is only our annual time for saying grace at the table of eternal goodness.—James M. Ladlow.

You Have Every Reason To Be THANKFUL

TRUE, times have been trying for many. Yet, all things considered, there's so much to be thankful for. You're living in a nation where living standards are far better than the rest of the world . . . where the needs of Life are far more abundant than elsewhere . . . and where Opportunity and Freedom give every man a chance to climb the heights of Success. Look ahead. Things are on the upgrade. Cheer up. Better Times are coming!

With that optimistic view, your Thanksgiving can't help but be a happy, happy event. Sincerely we hope it will be!

(c) Materials used in the construction work under this ordinance shall be of a quality recognized by the U. S. Bureau of Standards as adequate for the purposes indicated in this franchise, and all construction work shall be such as is used and done by like companies doing business in towns of substantially the same size as the Town of Quantico, Va. The location of all mains, conduits, pipes and other appurtenances in the streets and alleys in said Town under this ordinance shall be subject to the approval of the committee on streets of the Council of the Town of Quantico, Va., and in case the authorities of the Town of Quantico shall at any time during the life of the franchise elect to change the grade of any street, or alley, the purchaser, his, their or its successors or assigns, will, upon being directed by resolution of the Council so to do, relay its mains, or service pipes and the cost of relaying such mains and pipes shall be done by the purchaser, his, their or its successors or assigns. All work done under this ordinance shall be done in such a manner as to not needlessly interfere with or impede free and proper use of the streets and alleys by the public, or obstruct the travel thereof.

(d) The work to be done under this ordinance, the mains, pipes and conduits to be laid, and other appurtenances to be laid and installed, shall be laid and installed so as not to damage the water pipes, or sewerage pipes of the Town of Quantico, or interfere with or impede said Town, its servants, or employees, in approaching said water pipes, or sewerage pipes, or in any way unnecessarily interfere in the making of connection by the Town or the citizens thereof, with the water pipes, or sewerage pipes which may now, or hereafter be laid, or constructed in said Town.

(e) After constructing, laying, relaying, renewing, repairing, or replacing any of the mains, pipes, conduits, or other appurtenances under this ordinance, the said GRANTEE shall at its own cost promptly replace, relay, repair, and restore, in as near as possible to the original condition of the same, all streets, or sidewalks, or alleys disturbed or damaged in the construction, repairing, or replacement of the work authorized to be done under this franchise, and the said GRANTEE shall at its own cost, promptly relay, replace and restore any subsequent or latent defects in said streets, sidewalks or alleys, which defect was caused by the construction, repairing or replacement of the work authorized to be done under this franchise, and upon failing to do so after fifteen (15) days' notice in writing shall have been given by the Mayor or Council of said Town, the said Town may replace, relay or restore the portions of the streets, sidewalks or alleys that may have been so damaged or disturbed, and collect the costs and all expenses incurred from the GRANTEE.

(f) By the acceptance of this franchise the GRANTEE hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless the said Town of Quantico, from all loss, costs, damages and (or) expenses to which said Town may be subjected for any damage or destruction that may be done or suffered by anyone in person or property for which the Town of Quantico may be held liable, on account of any act or commission by the said purchaser, his, their or its successors or assigns, or the employees of any of them in and about the installing, repairing and maintenance of said gas works, mains and gas lines and all guarding trenches or excavations while the same are being installed, or subsequently at any time extended, or while repairs or alterations are being made thereto at any time in the future and (or) on account or by reason of any work done under this franchise, or in consequence of the operations of the GRANTEE.

(g) The GRANTEE shall within two (2) years after this franchise shall become effective, provide and maintain an adequate and efficient and safe service of gas for light, heat, power and fuel and other practical uses thereof at reasonable rates in the Town of Quantico to said Town and residents thereof, and shall maintain its properties, works and structures located in the said Town in good order throughout the term for which the franchise is granted, except when prevented from so doing by fires, freshets, strikes, or causes beyond its control which may temporarily prevent the maintenance of such service and such conditions of the property, that the GRANTEE shall stand ready at all times to make service connections for supplying gas for light, heat, power and fuel and other practical uses and purposes at any point within the corporate limits of the said Town, upon the proper applications therefor in accordance with the standard terms and conditions of the company, as approved by the State Corporation Commission and in effect at the time such application was made; provided that the GRANTEE shall not be required to make service connections, extensions across private property nor to extend its transmission or distribution mains, pipes or conduits a distance exceeding 100 feet per customer from any such mains, pipes or conduits.

(h) Said GRANTEE shall within two years from December 31, 1931, be prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the Town of Quantico, Virginia, and shall at the time it files its written acceptance of this franchise deposit with the Clerk of the Town Council of the Town of Quantico, Va., a satisfactory Bond in the sum of $1,000, payable to the Treasurer of the said Town, which said bond shall be returned to said GRANTEE or its order, provided the said GRANTEE shall within the said two years be prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the said Town; but in the event the said GRANTEE is not prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the said Town, prior to the expiration of the said two years, the said Bond shall be considered and the same has been ascertained to be in fact actual liquidated damages for such failure on the part of the said GRANTEE, and the Town shall collect the same and use the proceeds thereof as its Town Council shall direct.

(i) The adequacy and efficiency and safety of service under this franchise and the reasonableness of the rate of charge to the public therefor and the reasonableness of the rules and regulations affecting such service to the public are to be determined by the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, or by such other legally constituted regulatory body as may have jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Virginia to determine such matters and the GRANTEE in accepting this franchise expressly agrees that the said Commission or other body shall have jurisdiction to the full extent and in the manner now or hereafter during the life of this franchise provided by law to enforce the provisions of this franchise to the full extent provided by law.

(j) This ordinance and the rights and privileges herein granted and conveyed shall not become effective unless and until the GRANTEE shall in addition to the requirements hereinbefore mentioned, within 90 days from the time it receives actual notice that its bid has been accepted for said franchise, file with the Clerk of the Council of the Town of Quantico its written acceptance and shall enter into a bond in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars, with security satisfactory to the Council of the said Town, conditioned to the effect that the GRANTEE will maintain the works provided for and reasonably necessary for the exercise of the rights and privileges granted by this ordinance and will provide adequate and efficient and safe service at reasonable rates, and will maintain the same in good condition throughout the term of this grant as aforesaid, and will comply in all respects with the terms, conditions and provisions of the ordinance.

(k) This Ordinance shall be in force from its passage.

2. That upon the approval of this ordinance by the Mayor and Council of the Town of Quantico, it shall be the duty of the Mayor to cause to be advertised once a week for four successive weeks in The Manassas Journal, the draft of ordinance contained in the foregoing sections, and in addition he shall by such advertisement invite bids for the privileges and rights proposed to be granted by the said ordinance, which bids shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the Council of said Town in open session at its regular meeting, to be held at its regular meeting place on December 15, 1931, at 8 p.m., said bids shall then be presented to the Council by the presiding officer, to be dealt with and acted upon in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State of Virginia for franchise grants.

3. The Council of the Town of Quantico expressly reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

4. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check for $500, payable to the Treasurer of the Town of Quantico, Virginia, as a guarantee of good faith, and such checks as shall accompany bids which shall be rejected shall be returned within five days of the date upon which this ordinance shall take effect. The check of the successful bidder, if any, shall be returned to the said bidder, upon there being filed with the Clerk of the Council of the Town of Quantico the bidder's acceptance of the franchise, the bond for One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars as mentioned in paragraph (h) and the bond for One Thousand ($1,000) Dollars provided by paragraph (j), and upon the payment of the costs of the publication of this ordinance.

5. The cost of the advertising herein required shall be paid by the said Town and said Town shall be reimbursed by the GRANTEE the costs of advertising.

6. Whenever the terms "Grantee" or "Purchaser" are used in this ordinance they shall be interpreted to include "his, their or its successors and (or) assigns."

7. All persons, firms and corporations will hereby take notice that they are hereby invited to file bids in conformity with the foregoing ordinance, for the rights, privileges and franchise proposed in said ordinance.

8. This ordinance shall be in force from its passage.

IDEAL GIFT FOR THE BOY

What glorious adventures boys between the ages of ten and twenty have reading THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION! As if by magic, this well-known magazine carries boys to distant parts of the world, introduce them to strange people, lets them experience queer customs and revel in the adventures of foreign lands.

In a single issue, a boy will battle the frozen Northland with sled and dog team, cross Indian-haunted plains in a prairie schooner, zoom over war-torn lands in an army plane or on dangerous routes with a U. S. mail pilot, hunt wild animals in Africa atop the swaying back of an elephant, go cruising in a battleship, fight Arab raiders with the Foreign Legion and participate in many other thrilling experiences that come to readers in THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION.

It is such experience as these that sharpen a boy's wit, kindle his imagination, strengthen his character, develop his understanding of the world in which he lives and of the people that inhabit it. Here, indeed, is the ideal gift for that boy in whom you are interested—that son, nephew, cousin, neighbor, or, perhaps, the son of a business associate. An attractive gift card bearing your name will be sent to the boy if you request it with your order. Then every time the mailman brings the magazine to his door, the boy will think of you gratefully. Subscription prices are only $2.00 for one year and $3.00 for three years. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. Service on your subscription will start with which ever issue you specify.

ADVERTISE IN THIS NEWSPAPER

You needn't tell me
—I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!

FRESHNESS

— that's the thing!
CAMELS are never parched or toasted

HAVE you noticed the new trend in cigarettes?—freshness is the popular thing.

That's because a fresh cigarette, as demonstrated by Camels, is something smokers have discovered as better than anything they ever tried before.

Camels are fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack because they're made fresh to start with — blended of choice, delicately mild, sun-ripened tobaccos in which the natural moisture and fragrant flavors are vigilantly safeguarded.

The tobaccos in Camels are never parched or toasted — the Reynolds method of scientifically applying heat guarantees against that.

That's why we say with so much assurance that Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh — not parched or toasted — and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

Try Camels' freshness for a change. Switch over for just one day, then change back — if you can.

CAMELS
Made FRESH — Kept FRESH

Don't remove the moisture-proof wrapping from your package of Camels after you open it. The Camel Humidor Pack is protection against perfume and powder odors, dust and germs. In offices and homes, even in the dry atmosphere of artificial heat, the Camel Humidor Pack delivers fresh Camels and keeps them right until the last one has been smoked

CATHARPIN

Mrs. George Davis spent Sunday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Pattie of Catharpin.

Mr. Walter Polen and Mr. Charles Rissiter of Washington were hunting guests in the neighborhood last week and while not in pursuit of the elusive game visited with the former's sister, Mrs. Hill Akers of Rock Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn and children were Oakwood visitors Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Etta P. Lynn has returned to her home, Lynnhaven, after an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. A. L. Webb, in Washington.

Quite a number of our people attended the races at Upperville last week, among them Mr. L. J. McIntosh, Freeman Gaines and others.

Rev. Mr. Swecker preached a most excellent sermon on "What think ye of Christ" last Sunday morning at Sudley church to a large and interested congregation. Mr. Swecker is fast growing in popularity and favor with his congregation and much interest is shown in all departments.

The community is glad to note the continued improvement in the condition of Mrs. C. F. Brower who is now able to sit up part of the time and is gaining strength and prospects of full recovery increasing daily. Her many friends will be delighted to read this.

The scarlet fever scare has subsided; children back in school and things again normal. It is mighty pleasing to see how quickly and efficiently these epidemics or near epidemics can be handled. No sooner does danger of any kind appear which may impair the health of the community to the rescue and stamp it out. munity until the doctors and teachers. This is indeed a great service.

Mr. M. B. Howell, Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson and daughter, Mrs. Towers of Dunorvin and Mr. and Mrs. dinner guests at Six Acres, the home Chas. R. McDonald of Oakwood were of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Caldwell, on Tuesday evening of last week.

Mrs. W. S. Brower is suffering with a sprained ankle this week as a result of a fall a few days ago.

The first week of the hunting season seems to have taken upon itself the nature of Old Home Week, so far as the Catharpin neighborhood is concerned since many of her sons now residing in Washington and elsewhere love to return to the haunts of yore where they used to chase the fox, the possum and the polecat to their heart's content. This was when they were boys and the aromas of the hunt did not disturb their equilibrium to any appreciable extent, but in their later and more dignified years they are content to roam the Landscape O'er in daylight seeking bunny rabbit and the dignified quail and happy are they if they can return in the evening with some evidences of the chase stowed away in their hunting bags and to recount the day's adventures.

This year, however, has not been the most prolific since game is not so plentiful as in times past; but little does this matter to the Old Home Corner; all he wants is to take down the old musket from its pins on the wall, stroll out over the hills, valleys and plains of his youth and if perchance he draws a bead on some poor inoffensive bird and gets him, he goes home and brags how true the old eye still is. Well, hunting is a delight to those who love it but the old Catharpin hills are not what they used to be. Wood and brush are being replaced by open fields; growing crops and grazing herds have taken the place of the elusive game, however we are always glad for the "prodigals" return and if he will come a little later we shall be pleased to share with him backbones, spare ribs, sausage and buckwheat cakes if he can not find sufficient game to satisfy his epicurean needs.

The Memorial Association will meet next Thursday, Dec. 3, in the Directors' Room of the National Bank of Manassas at 3 p.m.
