BENNETT SCHOOL LEAGUE SPONSORS UNIQUE EVENT

Under auspices of the Bennett School League of Manassas a George Washington Ball will be held on Friday, February 5, 1932, as a contribution to Prince William's celebration of the Washington Bi-centennial. The schools of Prince William county will be asked to participate in the old-fashioned dances and the colorful revival of the colonial ball will be a charming spectacle, the prospect of which is already arousing a great deal of enthusiasm. The committees in charge are already at work on the project and the event promises to be one of the most unique of the various events which are being planned for 1932 in celebration of the Washington Bi-centennial.

CHRISTMAS PAY FOR TEACHERS

Entire Payroll Available on December 23.

The County School Board acted the part of Santa Claus yesterday and voted to make available December pay for all employees of the county school system. This announcement was expected but the certainty will add to the general atmosphere of Christmas geniality that is growing every hour.

The Board appointed a committee to make a thorough study of the insurance on all school buildings in the county. The committee is composed of Mrs. Annie G. Cline, Mr. W. L. Lloyd and Professor R. C. Haydon.

The delegates to the various functions of the educational conference at Richmond last week reported to the Board. This committee was composed of Professor Haydon, Chairman Arrington and Messrs. Lloyd and Barnes.

Bond number two ($1,000) for Brentsville District was ordered paid. Resignation of Miss Lulu Hammond (Bethel school) was accepted, and Professor Haydon authorized to appoint a new teacher to take her place on January 4.

The financial audit of the Board was ordered published and the same will appear in The Journal next week.

SWAVELY NOTES

A large number of spectators attended the football game on Thanksgiving Day and saw Swavely team close its season with another victory, over Alexandria High School, by 47-0.

The Thanksgiving dinner and dance were an unqualified success. The menu was good and the tables prettily lighted and decorated. The decorations of the gym was very effective, the orchestra "peppy" and there were many out-of-town girls present as well as those from Manassas.

Mrs. Swavely had, as guests for the dance, Mrs. Strong, Miss Strong, and "Rip" Strong of Groversville, N. Y., and Miss Crenshaw of Washington.

Cal. Swingle and Sid. Harrison came down from Washington for the dance.

Mr. I. Zerbe of Washington was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Swavely for Thanksgiving Day.

A very enjoyable entertainment was given in the gymnasium on Friday evening, when the Swavely players presented a one-act play, "The Other Side," and the Glee Club furnished musical selections.

Mrs. Prosser, Mrs. Bounds and Miss Prosser of Johnstown, Pa., were in town over the week end, visiting Charles Prosser at the school.

Miss P. Dotterer of Quakerstown, Pa., was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Swavely.

Mrs. Walker of Philadelphia and Mrs. C. Duval of Baltimore were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gendell Reeves.

Mrs. Swavely entertained the new members of the "S" Club at tea on Sunday evening.

Among the Sunday visitors to the school were Commander and Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Earle, all of Washington.

MANASSAS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Father and Son Dinner

On Tuesday night, December 1, the annual Father and Son Dinner was given by the Agricultural Department. The speakers on this occasion were Dr. J. Hyslip, Supervisor of Vocational Guidance, State Board of Education, and Mr. Howard, Supervisor of Agriculture of Northern Virginia. Guests present were Superintendent R. C. Haydon, Miss Sarah Pitts, Miss Beatrice Clarke, Miss Sabina Neel and Mr. Frank Cox. The high school faculty and fathers of the boys of the Agriculture Club were present also.

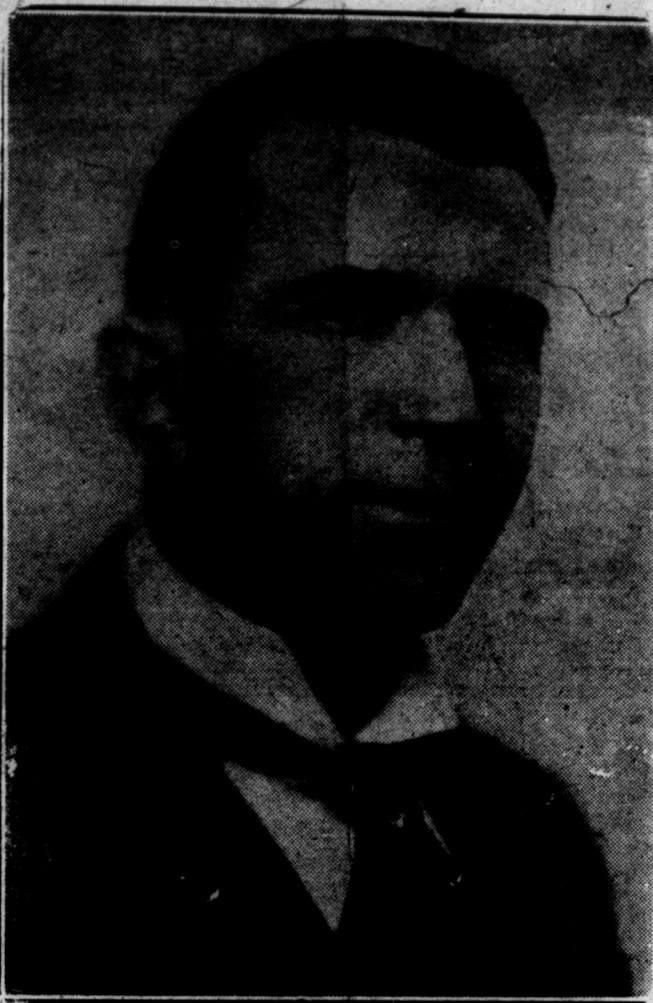

Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Beatrice Clarke, Miss Virginia and "The Carter Brothers."

Allan Ritter, president of the club, presided.

The invocation was offered by Rev. J. M. Cline. The F. F. A. emblem was explained by Arthur Carter and the objectives of the club by Woodson Brown.

The supper was prepared and served by the High School Home Economics Department under the able supervision of Miss Veta Draper. The menu consisted entirely of the products of the farm, which were furnished by the boys. The dining room was artistically decorated in yellow and green flowers and lighted by candles. Many expressions of appreciation were expressed by those present for a most interesting and enjoyable evening.

Mr. Hyslip defined Vocational Education as being the preparation for one's life work, and stressed the importance of leading girls and boys to realize that the problem of choosing a life work is an individual one. As aids to this choice or selection he said that it was important and necessary for each individual in making this selection, first to take an inventory of his ability and qualifications and make a thorough analysis of his interests, at the same time when making a study of the world of work. This said the speaker, is advisable, because the choice of one's vocation in these

SHOP EARLY

During the past ten days many of our merchants have gone to the old reliable mart of the southern seaboard, Baltimore, to buy stocks for the Christmas tide which is now upon us.

Judging from the generous supplies which they have laid in the depression must be over, and everyone that can possibly afford to do so should join hands to celebrate a real old-time holiday.

Incidentally, Manassas, which is the trading center of an area greater by far than Washington City proper, has more real bargains for the purchaser than one can find in many miles. Those who annually yield to the vision of possibly larger exhibits and still more remote bargains in great metropolitan centers are becoming fewer and fewer in number, and the resultant reaction has been better all around in Prince William county.

Days of "many vocations" is more complicated than in former days, since late records show between fifteen hundred and two thousand types of work which both men and women may pursue.

In closing, Mr. Hyslip urged that each student, after analyzing his own ability and making a study of the various fields and types of work, try to find in which his interest were strongest and in which type of work he would best fit.

These talks on Vocational Guidance are most helpful to both the boys and girls in their attempt to decide upon their life work and to teachers in keeping the importance of this side of the school instruction before those under their care. Mr. Howard gave a brief but interesting synopsis of the program for Vocational Agriculture. He also urged the importance of an analysis of one's ability before definitely deciding upon the type of work to be chosen as a life profession. He urged this especially upon those boys who were deciding to pursue some phase of agricultural work.

He said further that after a decision had been reached that success could be assured only by earnest and hard labor, by a sincere love of one's work and by doing the daily tasks accurately and to the best of one's ability.

Mr. Howard expressed his appreciation of the good work being done by Mr. Pullen and the boys of the agricultural department.

Mr. Haydon, Superintendent of Prince William County Schools, had earlier in the evening expressed this same appreciation of the agricultural work of the school.

Miss Eugenia Osbourne, principal of the high school, spoke of the opportunities of the high school teaching.

COMPTON-HARLEY

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized November 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Spitzer of Nokesville, when Miss Janet Harley became the bride of Mr. Alvin Benjamin Compton. Just at 4 p.m. the bride entered the parlor, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Lacey Compton. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Spitzer as matron of honor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Blough, pastor of the Brethren Church.

The bride was tastefully gowned in blue with corsage bouquet of bride's rosebuds and lilies of the valley. The lower rooms, beautifully decorated with ferns and potted plants, were filled with nearly one hundred guests. Mrs. Compton's travelling gown was dark brown crepe with accessories.

After the reception the young couple left for an extended auto trip.

Both bride and groom are well known in Prince William. Mr. Compton is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Compton and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan C. Harley.

The Journal wishes the newly-weds joy and prosperity for the years to come.

"SQUAW MAN" AT

DIXIE THEATRE

Cecil DeMille, always a director to paint on the screen in bold, strong strokes, has made an interesting evening's entertainment from Edwin Milton Royle's famous stage play, "The Squaw Man."

He divides equally, and contrasts with excellent dramatic insight, thrills in an English castle and on an English fox hunt, with thrills on an Arizona cattle ranch.

His scenic shots, done in a strikingly new way, are magnificent. We are told he searched Arizona for weeks to find the spot portrayed.

Great, however, as is "The Squaw Man," visually, its most enduring claim to fame is undoubtedly its remarkable cast of real stars, and what they have done with the parts assigned them.

Three great actors played on the stage and in silent pictures the role of "Jim Carston," namely William Faversham, Dustin Farnum and Elliott Dexter. None of these, in the writer's judgment, exceeded in strength and virility of performance the work of Warner Baxter.

The work of Natulich as the Indian girl, later Jim's wife, is splendid. It is a marvelous blend of inarticulate idolatry of a man, and extraordinary pathos. Contrasted dramatically with it is Eleanor Boardman's work as "Lady Diana," Jim's sweetheart.

It would take too much space to list individually, with adjectives, all the players of this highly entertaining picture. Honorable mention, however, deservedly belongs to Charles Bickford, Roland Young, Paul Cavanaugh, Raymond Hatton, Julia Faye, DeWitt Jennings, J. Farrell McDonald, Dickie Moore and Mitchell Lewis.

HISTORIC DATE IS REVEALED

Bi-Centennial Committee Fixes on One of Two Celebrations.

PRINCE WILLIAM COMMITTEE MEETS AT RIPPON LODGE

The Prince William Committee for the Celebration of the 200th anniversary of the birth of George Washington met at the home of Hon. Wade Ellis on Saturday afternoon.

Hon. Edmund H. Allen, chairman of publicity for the co-operating committees of northern Virginia, met with the group and gave detailed information on the extent of publicity already laid out by the co-operating committees.

One definite date was set for one of the two celebrations to be held, one in the spring and one in the fall. The date in the spring has not been definitely fixed, but it will be sufficiently ahead of the closing of school so as not to interfere with final examinations.

The other date, (November 13) marks the time that George Washington accepted command of the Prince William troops, a committee headed by Richard Blackburn tending the offer on the afternoon of that day.

Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, chairman of the housing committee, reported that this committee was prepared to function without financial assistance of any sort.

After the business session, the committee adjourned to the dining hall of the old lodge where Mrs. Ellis poured tea.

A meeting of the general committees will be held at the Madison school in Falls Church next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. This is the last meeting of the year, and those chairmen who failed to be present Saturday are especially urged to be present at this meeting.

U. D. C. MEETING

On Wednesday the December meeting of U. D. C. chapter was held at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hibbs with Mrs. Ayleene Guthrie and Mrs. J. B. Thornton, assistant hostesses.

The very pretty quilt, from which the chapter realized $155, was on exhibition. The committee, Mrs. W. A. Newman, Mrs. C. M. Larkin, Mrs. Speiden and Mrs. Marsteller, were anxious for some expression of members as to how it should be finished and disposed of.

Mrs. Speiden gave report on relief work. The Xmas boxes will be sent to the few remaining veterans and five dollars contributed to the Civilian relief fund.

An invitation was read from the Bennett Community League requesting the members to attend the George Washington Ball February 5, 1932, in costume of the sixties.

The historical hour was most interesting. Mrs. J. Ashford gave a description of the painting of the burial of Latany. The picture was framed and presented to the chapter by Mrs. C. A. Sinclair.

Mrs. Middlethorn read a paper on the gallant and efficient General Wade Hampton of South Carolina.

Mrs. Hutchison outlined historical work for ensuing year and urged all members to subscribe to the Confederate Veteran.

Refreshments were served during social period. Thirty-one members and several guests were present including all officers. The meeting adjourned.

"SKYLINE" SAGA
OF STEEL WORKER

With an ethereal love story, an outstanding cast, a noted director and sets of magnitude and beauty, "Skyline," the Fox picture, widely acclaimed as one of the best productions of the year, comes to the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday.

"Skyline" does not depend upon romance alone to furnish entertainment. It embraces thrills, adventures, intrigue and gripping action. It tells the story of a youthful dreamer, brought up on a river barge, who when he discovers the brutal and dissipated captain is not his father, escapes by swimming to shore where he obtains work on a New York City building site.

He is befriended by the wealthy builder, after the latter has discovered the plucky youth is his son. The boy has never known the father against whom he is so bitterly prejudiced and when his benefactor is revealed as his parent, the lad denounces him for his past, branding him with the charge that he deserted the boy's mother.

Eventually, however, the boy comes close to committing the same sin of which he accuses his father, precipitating a startling climax.

An enchanting romance threads its way throughout the plot, furnished by Hardie Albright and Maureen O'Sullivan, while Thomas Meighan enacts the role of the wealthy builder. Myrna Loy and Donald Dillaway are also featured. Sam Taylor directed.

CATHARPIN

Mr. and Mrs. N. Currell Pattie of Falls Church, Mrs. A. L. Webb and Mr. J. W. Polen of Washington were dinner guests of Mrs. Etta Lynn Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Mary P. Briggs and daughter spent last week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Pattie.

The Catharpin Good Housekeeping Club held a most enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. W. S. Brower on Saturday.

Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson and daughters were Washington shoppers on Friday.

The past week has witnessed a great depletion in the visible supply of turkeys in this community; many having been shipped to Washington and elsewhere to supply the piece de resistance of the Thanksgiving dinner. Many yet remain however for the holiday season next month. Prices have been satisfactory for both buyer and seller.

Callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Collins and children, Mr. and Mrs. Max Collins and children and Mr. Eddie Ellison.

Mrs. Jennie McIntosh spent Sunday with Mrs. Lucy Nalls of Antioch.

Mrs. Edgar Sowers and little daughter who have been visiting at the home of Mr. C. E. Ellison left for their home in North Carolina on Sunday, taking Mr. Ellison with them.

Emerson Fetzner, who has been a resident of the Catharpin neighborhood for some time has moved to Greenwich where he has been employed for farm work.

The First Quarterly Conference of the Sudley charge will be held in the Gainesville Church on Saturday, Dec. 5, at 10:30 a.m., when the new presiding Elder, Dr. J. H. Balthis, will preach.

MINNIEVILLE

Mr. William N. Bailey, aged 71 years 11 months, of this place, died very suddenly on Monday, Nov. 23. Funeral on Wednesday by Elder Garland. Burial at the Baptist Church. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Ocie; three brothers, Wallace of Washington, D. C., Frederick and Marshall of Indian Head, Md.; one sister, Mrs. Sarah Carroll of Dahlgren. Besides one granddaughter, Virginia, many nieces and nephews, the family has the sympathy of the neighbors and friends in the community.

Weather has been beautiful. Rain is badly needed. Farmers are busy housing corn. We are glad to report roads have been very much improved by the Coles district workmen. It doesn't look now like the autos will have to be pulled out. Let us hope they will stand when the snow falls.

Don't forget the appointment of Elder A. J. Garland the first Sunday afternoon, Dec. 6, 2:30, at Minnieville, which has previously been announced in our county paper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Boatwright and sons, Sinclair and Garland, of Manassas, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kidwell and son, Singleton, of Aurora Hills were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clarke.

Mr. Charlie Colvin of Catlett was a Minnieville caller recently.

(f) By the acceptance of this franchise the GRANTEE hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless the said Town of Manassas, from all loss, costs, damages and (or) expenses to which said Town may be subjected for any damage or destruction that may be done or suffered by anyone in person or property for which the Town of Manassas may be held liable, on account of any act, or commission by the said purchaser, his, their or its successors or assigns, or the employees of any of them in and about the installing, repairing and maintenance of said gas works, mains and gas lines and all guarding trenches or excavations while the same are being installed, or subsequently at any time extended, or while repairs or alterations are being made thereto at any time in the future and (or) on account or by reason of any work done under this franchise, or in consequence of the operations of the GRANTEE.

(g) The GRANTEE shall within sixteen (16) months after this franchise shall become effective, provide and maintain an adequate and efficient and safe service of gas for light, heat, power and fuel and other practical uses thereof at reasonable rates in the Town of Manassas to said Town and residents thereof, and shall maintain its properties, works and structures located in the said Town in good order throughout the term for which the franchise is granted, except when prevented from so doing by fires, freshets, strikes, or causes beyond its control which may temporarily prevent the maintenance of such service and such conditions of the property, that the GRANTEE shall ready at all times to make service connections for supplying gas for light, heat, power and fuel and other practical uses and purposes at any point within the corporate limits of the said Town, upon the proper applications therefor in accordance with the standard terms and conditions of the company, as approved by the State Corporation Commission and in effect at the time such application was made; provided that the GRANTEE shall not be required to make connections, extensions across private property nor to extend its transmission or distribution mains, pipes or conduits a distance exceeding 100 feet per customer from any such mains, pipes or conduits.

(h) Said GRANTEE shall within sixteen (16) months from January 1, 1932, be prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the Town of Manassas, Virginia, and shall at the time it files its written acceptance of this franchise deposit with the Clerk of the Town Council of the Town of Manassas, Virginia, a satisfactory Bond in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) dollars, payable to the Treasurer of the said Town, which said bond shall be returned to said GRANTEE or its order, provided the said GRANTEE shall within the said sixteen (16) months be prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the said Town; but in the event the said GRANTEE is not prepared and ready to supply, deliver and sell gas hereunder to the citizens, firms and corporations of the said Town, prior to the expiration of the said sixteen (16) months, the said Bond shall be considered and the same has been ascertained to be in fact actual liquidated damages for such failure on the part of the said GRANTEE, and the Town shall collect the same and use the proceeds thereof as its Town Council shall direct.

(i) The adequacy and efficiency and safety of service under this franchise and the reasonableness of the rate of charge to the public therefor and the reasonableness of the rules and regulations effecting such service to the public are to be determined by the State Corporation Commission of Virginia, or by such other legally constituted regulatory body as may have jurisdiction under the laws of the State of Virginia to determine such matters and the GRANTEE in accepting this franchise expressly agrees that the said Commission or other body shall have jurisdiction to the full extent and in the manner now or hereafter during the life of this franchise provided by law to enforce the provisions of this franchise to the full extent provided by law.

(j) This ordinance and the rights and privileges herein granted and conveyed shall not become effective unless and until the GRANTEE shall, in addition to the requirements hereinafter mentioned, within ninety (90) days from the time it receives actual notice that its bid has been accepted for said franchise, file with the Clerk of the Council of the Town of Manassas its written acceptance and shall enter into a bond in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000) dollars, with security satisfactory to the Council of the said Town, conditioned to the effect that the GRANTEE will maintain the works provided for and reasonably necessary for the exercise of the rights and privileges granted by this ordinance and will provide adequate and efficient and safe service at reasonable rates, and will maintain the same in good condition throughout the term of this grant as aforesaid, and will comply in all respects with the terms, conditions and provisions of the ordinance.

(k) At the expiration of the life of this franchise the Town of Manassas shall have the right, at its option, to purchase at a fair valuation, to be determined in the manner hereinafter provided, all the mains, pipes, conduits and other appurtenances of the GRANTEE, its successors and assigns, lying and being within the corporate limits of the said Town. Should the Town desire to avail itself of the privilege herein reserved, then the value of said property of the GRANTEE shall be ascertained and arrived at between the Town and the said GRANTEE, its successors or assigns, by agreement if possible; but in the event that the value thereof cannot be agreed upon, then the Town of Manassas shall select an appraiser, the GRANTEE, its successors or assigns, shall select an appraiser, and the two persons so selected shall select a third appraiser, and the three persons so selected, or a majority of them, shall fix the value of the GRANTEE'S mains, pipes, conduits and other appurtenances lying and being within the corporate limits of the said Town, which shall be accepted by the Town of Manassas and the GRANTEE, its successors or assigns, as the correct value thereof, and if the Town of Manassas then desires to purchase the property aforesaid at said valuation, it shall have the right to acquire the same at the price so fixed, and pay for the same at such time and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, as the Town and the GRANTEE, its successors or assigns, may agree upon.

(1) This Ordinance shall be in force from its passage.

MAGAZINE IS PAL OF BOYS

Those boyhood years between the ages of ten and twenty are the impressionable years—the formative years when the fundamental character of a boy is molded into the pattern it will maintain throughout the remainder of his life.

That is why so much importance is placed on the factors that govern the lives of adolescent boys—their companions, their environments, their reading, the food they eat, etc. At this age is determined whether the boy will develop into a cheerful or surly man, generous or selfish, intelligent or dull, ambitious or indolent.

School teachers, librarians, Scout leaders and others engaged in boy activities have found that THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION magazine is one of the most favorable influence a boy between ten and twenty can have. Its stories and articles are a force for good—whole-some, alive, inspiring.

The million or so boys who read this magazine every month consider it their closest friend. In it they find the keenest entertainment, adventure, mystery, athletics, aviation, humor, everything that delights a live-wire American boy. Its sports articles by famous coaches and athletes help boys win places on their school teams. Its professional articles and biographical sketches aid them in selecting their life's work. Its keenly analytical editorials guide them in their daily problems.

That boy or young man in whom you are interested would have a world of pleasure reading THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION. Make a subscription to this magazine your gift to him. Subscription prices are only $2.00 for one year or $3.00 for three years. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 W. Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Mich.

Gas in the Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Kerr's Dyspeptone to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas in the stomach, accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of excessive acids in the stomach, creating so-called acid indigestion.

Acid stomachs are dangerous because excessive acid irritates the stomach's delicate lining, often leading to gastritis and serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, forming this distressing gas which distends the stomach, hampering the normal functioning of vital organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect this serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effects on stomach acids. Two teaspoons, full of Kerr's Dyspeptone right after eating will drive the gas and bloat out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize and prevent the formation of excess acid. Dyspeptone is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. It is sold under a money-back guarantee. Write today for a bottle of Kerr's Dyspeptone, enclosing One Dollar with your letter. Kerr Laboratories, Reading, Pa.

The newly-elected officers and committee members of the B. D. S. C. A. met Saturday night, Nov. 28, at the home of Mr. A. Armstrong.

The new president, Mr. M. J. Shepherd, in a short talk, appealed to those present to co-operate and exert themselves that this might be the best year for the association thus far.

Mr. Hummel, organizing expert from Blacksburg, gave us some interesting views on the work of other societies of this kind. He proceeded to "gently rebuke" us wherein we had fallen short in the past and gave us helpful advice on the work for the year. He also suggested that several new committees be organized.

Afterwards the various committees conferred and laid plans for the coming year's work.

The present outlook for the association is very encouraging.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will grow a priceless heritage to them in after years.

FREE FROM WANT:—The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

SUCCESS TO OUR NEW CONGRESSMAN

On Monday next our new Representative takes his seat in Congress. The 8th District, one of the most noted in Virginia, the old "fighting Eighth," has every reason to feel proud.

Like his famous relative, Gov. Wm. Smith of Virginia, Judge Smith, the incoming member of Congress, represents the best traditions and ideals of our State.

Though a young man, he has evidenced thus far the poise and decision that generally characterizes the actions of older and more experienced men. These qualities, that made his judicial career successful, are greatly needed in state affairs.

This Congress will be Democratic. This fact will give Judge Smith considerable prestige in the formation of committees and other constructive work which will be taken up in reorganizing the new Congress.

This, of course, will be of much advantage to the people of his district. Judge Smith is widely known and very popular in Virginia and his constituents feel assured that among his associates in Congress his marked aptitude for making and holding friends will give added weight to his legislative work.

We wish him the success that we feel sure he will achieve.

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON!

The decision made at the Kiwanis Club last Friday evening to continue the work of distributing Christmas goodies to the underprivileged children of Prince William County is indeed laudable.

As Fred Hynson puts it, one usually gets a great deal more out of such work than he puts into it. The Club will give Fred its usual degree of support and many poor children will be made happy at the glorious Yuletide.

UNTRUE REPORT

A report is circulating in the county that our local Red Cross workers are receiving a salary for their work. In justice to the men and women who are giving so unselfishly their time and labor to this important work, we wish to state that the report is not true. Our Red Cross workers serve absolutely without pay, and their services are very much appreciated by all who have the welfare of the county at heart.

THE THING CAN BE DONE

"We speak praisefully of the beauty and cleanliness, of the attractive loneliness of English, French, German countryside and cities," the Cincinnati Enquirer reminds, "but still go forward with the relentless blemishing of our own." Despite organized effort and, in some instances, legislative action, billboards and other roadside advertising signs multiply.

Already these signs, nearly all of which are unattractive, if not glaringly ugly, are so numerous that one may motor for miles and miles and never escape them. At least, such is the case in Tennessee, where one rarely finds a roadside view that is not obstructed or otherwise marred by these ubiquitous nuisances.

It accomplishes nothing to speak admirably of European countryside and deplore the disfiguring of those in this country. Experience to date has shown that argument and appeals to civic pride have very little effect on those who are disposed to despoil the beauty of the countryside for their own profit. Perhaps the only effective way of dealing with roadside advertisements is that in which Canada is setting the United States an example.

"Every one of the Dominion's nine provinces," reports the Enquirer, "is tearing down, burning or otherwise destroying ugly and disturbing billboards and advertising signs. She will have no more of these eyesores." No advertisements may be painted on buildings, fences, trees or placed in fields within a quarter of a mile of any highway. No advertisement may be painted on any roadside rock except by special permission, and then only by the owner of the property and for the purpose of advertising his own business.

Such a thoroughgoing method of ridding countryside of eyesores would be certain to meet strong opposition in the United States. No doubt it has met opposition in Canada. But Canadians are evidently convinced that it is better for the Dominion to preserve the natural beauty of their countryside and "sell" their landscapes to tourists than to permit a comparatively few individuals and concerns to commercialize a roadside value created with taxpayers' money.—Exchange.

FINE DAIRY RECORD OF HOLSTEIN COWS

Milk Production That Goes Into Five Figures.

When dairymen are being urged to cull cows that fail to pay their own way by giving at least 5,000 pounds of milk in a year, S. J. Brownell of the New York State College of Agriculture tells of sixteen Holstein cows records for the past year.

Eight of these cows each gave more than 20,000 pounds of milk, three had records of more than 300 pounds of butterfat and five exceeded 700 pounds of fat. The sixteen cows averaged 19,821 pounds of milk and 690 pounds of fat to the cow, and some of the records were made by first-calf and second-calf heifers, he adds.

Canary Hope Ormsby Lass, a seven-year-old Holstein owned by the Shaw angunk Valley stock farm at Wallkill, took her place as the forty-first highest producing Holstein in the United States for mature cows milked four times daily. In 365 days she gave 24,902 pounds of milk containing 893 pounds of fat. She is the tenth New York Holstein during the past testing year, and the one hundred and eighty-seventh on the all-time state list, to exceed 800 pounds of butterfat.

Another cow in the same herd, Daisy Teake Sensation, has completed a senior four-year-old record of 24,777 pounds of milk containing 865 pounds of butterfat to rank sixth in the nation and first in New York state for her age and class.

Treatment for Udder Weakness in Good Cows

Cows that leak their milk may be among the best in the herd. There is probably no remedy for this condition that applies to all cases but these suggestions were offered recently in Hoard's Dairyman: "Milking several times daily to relieve pressure on the udder will help if it can be conveniently done. Someone has suggested immersing the teats in a saturated solution of alum or a solution of cupric tannic acid and eight parts glycerine. Dipping the ends of the teats in tincture of iodine and working a little of the tincture into the milk duct is also helpful. Applying flexible collodion to the tip of the teat after each milking is recommended by some." The writer has tried only the three-times-a-day milking instead of the regular twice daily milking and with notably good results. Fortunately this udder weakness is not common and with most cows that have it the loss extends only through the period of flush production.

Money in Curry Comb

Two implements seldom used in many dairy barns are the curry comb and brush. In one stable of 100 cows I could not find a comb. One veterinarian frequently prescribes currying in mild sickness to stimulate circulation and aid excretion through the pores.

Occasionally unhandled heifers are suspicious and it may be a trial to break them to milk. A curry comb gives them confidence in their caretakers.

My neighbor bought a load of range heifers as breeders. They were somewhat wild, but his son took a curry comb and started among them. In a month he could go up to any heifer it was all due to the currying.

The dairy herd carried during winter will shed better, be more healthy and more comfortable than the one with a season's dust and filth. With a curried herd it is easier to produce a good quality of milk. Add to this the pride felt in clean, well kept stock, which in itself is a real asset. —Capper's Farmer.

Proper Care of Cream

The dairy division of the department of agriculture, University of Minnesota, has launched a project on the care of cream on the farm. The plan is to make a special study of cream as delivered to the state experimental creamery at Albert Lea. A complete survey of the conditions under which cream is produced by patrons delivering cream to the state creamery will be made. Then a similar survey will be made in a section where a lower grade of cream is produced. These two surveys will permit a comparison of conditions in territories where high grade and low grade cream are the rule. Co-operation of several large creamery enterprisers has been secured.

The outcome will be recommendations to farmers as to better methods in the care of their dairy products.

DAIRY NOTES

At no time has the poor dairy cow been such a luxury as she is today.

Five states, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York, Illinois, and Texas, have more than 1,000,000 dairy cows.

To get a uniform test of cream, it is important to turn the cream separator at the speed recommended by the manufacturer.

"TRANSATLANTIC" SMART AND ORIGINAL

One of the most interesting pictures of the season will be on display at the Dixie Theatre, December 10 and 11.

It is "Transatlantic," a Fox production, which has a long list of screen favorites, headed by Edmund Lowe, in its cast.

"Transatlantic," briefly, has to do with the tangled lives of a dozen or so men and women who set out from an American port for Europe aboard a de luxe liner. Unknown to each other before the vessel slips its moorings, they speedily become involved in a tangle which takes the entire voyage across the Atlantic to unravel.

Aboard is Edmund Lowe, a high-class gambler of the Robin Hood type. We also find Lois Moran, daughter of an old German lens grinder, played by Jean Hersholt. Then, too, there is John Halliday, a wealthy banker; his wife—Myrna Loy; a Swedish dancer—Greta Nissen and other fascinating figures.

Lowe befriends Miss Moran, and she immediately falls in love with the handsome, debonaire gambler. Miss Loy enlists his aid in saving her husband from Greta Nissen, and Lowe has plans of his own for taking over some of Halliday's surplus cash, with which he is fleeing from his tottering bank.

Lowe is convincing as the light-hearted and light-fingered gentleman who lives by his wits.

Miss Moran is sweet and lovely as the young German-American girl, concerned over the fate of her father who almost loses his mind at the news of the bank disaster. Hersholt, of course, gives an excellent account of himself in the character role of the old German.

William K. Howard, whom we consider one of Hollywood's greatest, has directed this picture with a real feeling for values. He has never let the story get out of hand, and it always is plausible and absorbing.

"Transatlantic" is a picture you will not want to miss.

Please pay your subscription if it is due.

IN MEMORIAM

In sweet memory of my dear brother, Brown Ennis, who left us four years ago, Dec. 3, 1927.

I sit alone in the twilight as the shadows begin to fall thinking about my precious brother who had to leave us all.

Can I help but feel so lonely
When his voice I do not hear
For no words were ever sweeter
Than the words he spoke so dear
His cheery ways his smiling
Face are a pleasure to recall
He had a friendly word for Each and died beloved by all.

I think of you in silence
Few eyes that see me weep
But many a silent tear I Shed when others are asleep.

Torn from the heart that loved him
Gone in the best of his days
Loved by all who knew him
To rest in a silent grave.

I will meet you some bright morning
'Tis a happy thought in store
To have a glorious home in heaven
When the toil of life is over.

A devoted sister,
Virgie Cornwell.

I have only your memory, dear
Uncle Bud, to remember my whole life through but the sweetness shall linger forever. I treasure the image of you.

By his little pet,
Nephew Franklin.

MEMORIAM

A tribute of love and devotion to the memory of our beloved boys, Brown Ennis and Albert Cornwell, who departed life four years ago, December 3, 1927.

Four long years have passed, dear boys,
Since God took you both away
To his home, so dear in Heaven
Where we'll all meet some day.

They have crossed the shadowed valley
Where the living water flows.
Love has heard their last fond pleading
And they sleep in sweet repose.

'Neath a grassy mound they're resting
Where the golden sunset glows.
Love has answered all their pleading
And they sleep beneath the rose.

and family.

CAMELS are KEPT Fresh!

You probably know that heat is used in the treatment of all cigarette tobaccos.

But you know too that excessive heat can destroy freshness and fragrance.

That's why there could be no truly fresh cigarette except for scientifically developed methods of applying heat.

Reynolds is proud of having discovered and perfected methods for getting the benefits of heat treatments and still avoiding ever parching or toasting.

With every assurance we tell you, Camels are truly fresh. They're made fresh—not parched or toasted—and then they're kept fresh in the Camel Humidor Pack.

If you wish to know why the swing to Camels is nationwide and steadily growing—switch to them for just one day—then leave them, if you can.

ANOTHER 'WE'

Buck Jones and his famous horse, Silver, who appear in the new Columbia feature, "The Avenger," which comes to the Dixie Theatre on Dec. 12, are said to be as much a unit as the famous "we" of Lindbergh fame. Silver is now microphone conscious as well as camera trained. He follows Buck's wishes implicitly. Although just how or when Buck gives him directions no one seems to know—and Buck refuses to tell. In "The Avenger" Buck has the role of a bandit who is in love with a pretty school teacher, a part portrayed by Dorothy Revier.

DAIRY
FACTSBANK DAIRY BARN
BEHIND THE TIMESNot Up to Rigid Standards
of Today.

The familiar type of bank dairy barn, such as is found in parts of the Middle Atlantic and North Central states, does not conform to present-day standards of cleanliness and convenience. This is the conclusion reached by the department, based on a survey made in southeastern Pennsylvania and published in Circular 106-C, entitled "Suggestions for the Improvement of Old Bank Dairy Barns."

The most serious objection to these old barns from the structural standpoint, is the lack of light, ventilation and cleanliness which are necessary to the health of the cows.

The circular points out, however,
that in many cases alterations can be made at moderate cost which will correct the most serious faults in the old structures. The primary object to be sought in remodeling is improvement in lighting, ventilation, stall floors, and equipment. These features are discussed and illustrated.

This circular also contains suggestions regarding stalls and equipment,
water bowls, litter carriers, and hay-mow framing. It describes a typical bank dairy barn and outlines the steps in remodeling it. Some suggestions for building a new dairy barn are also included.

This circular may be obtained, while the supply for free distribution lasts,
upon application to the office of Information, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington.

Cow Needs Dry Period
to Store Up Minerals

It is true that a cow that is continuously milked up until the time she freshens will not milk well during the succeeding lactation, says a correspondent of the Idaho Farmer.
The production of a liberal amount of milk is a severe tax upon a cow
and experience has shown that a cow will produce much more milk if she is allowed to have a dry period of from six weeks to two months than if she is milked continuously.

Recent investigations in nutrition show that special value of the dry period is to allow the animal to store up minerals in her body which may be drawn upon during the heavy milking period. A cow that is not given a rest before calving will begin her milk production at a much lower level
and with a result that the milk production will continue on a lower level
throughout the entire milking period.
There is not much that can be done
to increase the production of your cow
during this milking period.

Pays to Test Herd

The last annual report of dairy herd improvement associations in Iowa is worth reading by every dairy farmer who has courage and ambition enough to want to improve the productive efficiency of his herd. It covers the work from September, 1930, to September, 1931. It marks the close of the twenty-second year of such work in that state. More herds and more cows were tested during this last year than during any previous year. The average butterfat produced per cow was 14 pounds higher than it has ever been in a previous year. The average feed cost per pound fat was about 23 per cent lower than last year.

The above report tells us in convincing figures that it pays to test every year. The 450 dairy farmers whose herds have been tested five years or more had cows that averaged 330 pounds butterfat returning $75.87 above feed cost. The 588 herds that had been tested only one year averaged only 292 pounds fat and returned only $56.40 above feed cost. This is a difference of $19.17 a cow—quite enough to pay the tester's wages and board with considerable tax money left over.—Hoard's Dairyman.

Cause of Bitter Milk

Bitter milk is usually sweet when milked but turns bitter in 12 hours or so. This is caused by a lipase and the remedy is to heat the milk to boiling or to 145 degrees F. for 30 minutes and then cool it.

When a cow has garget the small particles of curdy milk will appear on the milk strainer. This should receive immediate attention as garget may prove to be a plague in the herd and it is apt to be contagious, so that it is like playing with fire to let it go unnoticed. The best thing to do is to either get rid of the cow or get in touch with a veterinarian.—Dakota Farmer.

Treatment for Bloat

The bloated animal needs immediate attention. Mild cases are helped by walking the animal for 15 minutes.
Some animals are helped by putting a stick in their mouth as a bit, causing a flow of saliva which causes swallowing. Severe cases should be tapped with a trocar, which should be done by a veterinarian if possible. The trocar is inserted into the left side in the triangle formed by the last rib, hipbone,
and transverse processes of the backbone.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Albert W.
E. Cornwell, who departed this life
four years ago, December 3, 1927.

Four years have passed since that sad day,
When my dear son was called away.
God called him home, it was his will
But in my heart I love him still.

What would I give to hold your hands,
Your smiling face to see,
And hear your welcome voice again
That meant so much to me.

What happy days we once enjoyed
When we were all together
But oh, how changed it all is now
Since you have gone forever.

It's hard to pass the time away
And know you can't come in
But I know you are in Jesus' care
And he's our dearest friend.

So keep him, Jesus, in thy keeping
Until my weary life is past.
Then, oh, Master, let me meet him
And know as when I saw him last.

Devoted mother,
Laura Cornwell.

We have only your memory, dear
brother,

To keep your whole life thorough
And you are one we never can forget.

For we are always thinking of you.
Sisters Katherine, Anne,
Brothers Luther, Kiley,
James, Russell.

THE MACHINE AGE
SPOILS A PROPHECY

By H. L. RUSSELL

Advisory Council, Agricultural Commission, American Bankers Association.A NOTED British scientist forecast thirty years ago that by 1931 all available wheat land in the world would be under cultivation, and if the yields per acre could not be increased beyond

that which then prevailed there
would be a world
shortage. The average yield then
was 12.7 bushels per acre. During the past seven years, the world
over, it has been 14.1. On the 320-

000,000 acres in cultivation this increase would amount to almost a half billion bushels more production than the world standards of thirty years ago. In place of dire distress due to shortage, we have had dire distress
due to surplus.

Wheat farmers have shown no great inclination to curtail materially their output; perhaps a 10% decline compared with 70% reduction in steel.
This unwillingness, or perhaps inability, to adjust production to current needs makes the problem all the harder to solve.

Not only are we now growing more wheat per unit of land, but acreage has been very greatly extended. In twenty years Canada has increased acreage 250%, Australia almost a much. Another significant fact is the materially lessened use of wheat. A much more diversified diet has developed. More vegetables and fruits are used than formerly. The reduction of 1.2 bushels consumed per person per annum since the last generation necessitates nearly 150,000,000 bushels less wheat than was formerly required.

Machines Increase Supply

The factor that has exerted the most potent influence in this rising world food of grain has been the rapid development of the machine. The old days of the cradle required from thirty to forty hours of hand labor to harvest an acre of grain. Then came the binder, which reduced the process to four or five hours per acre. Now the combine does the work in forty-five minutes per acre.

Where it used to cost ten cents a bushel merely to thresh the grain, the modern combine cuts and threshes at a cost ranging from 3 to 5 cents a bushel. With this reduced cost of production, the possibility of acreage expansion is tremendous. Lands heretofore regarded as worthless except for grazing have recently come into competition with the older wheat belts.

The Russian Effort

Within the past two or three years
another disturbing element has come into the picture. Soviet Russia is attempting a comeback fraught with possibility that cannot yet be fully evaluated. Russia is eagerly utilizing the very latest of scientific knowledge to enlarge her agricultural possibilities. With feverish anxiety she is literally pouring millions into the expansion of her university research institutes, experimental stations and breeding farms. Her scientists are combining the earth for new crops and new methods. No country in Europe is manifesting more interest and activity in laying hold of the best science,
wherever it may be found.

It is of more than passing interest that the wheat yields reported on the huge trust farm known as the "Giant" ran last year as much as 18 bushels to the acre. On this single farm the crop harvested is reported to have been 3,365,000 bushels. A single farm of 427,000 acres under government control and mechanized as fast as human energy can be applied is a new factor in the world's picture.

There can be but little doubt that the Russian situation may yet assume quite a different attitude from what obtained even in pre-war days.

Bankers Hold Farm Conference

A "feeders' conference" was held in a state bank at Presho, South Dakota, attended by fifty farmers. The conference stressed the feeding of low price wheat and barley, and marketing
it through livestock. Later, booklets on the feeding of wheat were distributed among the farmers, and a feeders column was carried in the local paper
each week.

"We have had more success with the conference and with the feeders column in the local paper, than with any other undertaking we have tried,"
the bankers said. "As a result there is about three times as much livestock being fed out in our territory than ever before. We plan to hold other similar conferences the coming year."

The benefits of civilization exist because of the capital accumulated by those who have gone before. Through accumulation of capital our great railroads have been constructed, our public utilities have been built and our mills, office buildings and homes have arisen.

Watch Cooling System and Save
Repairs, Advice to Motorists

The cooling system is the most vulnerable part of an automobile in winter. In the drawing above, the arrows indicate the flow of water from radiator through engine block and back to the radiator for cooling. (Left) Cannon Ball Baker, holder of more records than he can remember, getting ready for Old Man Winter by putting in anti-freeze.

Simplification in the winter care of the cooling system of his automobile has reduced the problem of the motorist to only two phases: cleansing and tightening of all parts and the selection of an efficient anti-freeze solution. If a rust preventive has been used in the radiator the cleansing operation is made easier, although engineers agree that the use of high pressure flushing and the services of a garage mechanic are advisable. On the average car, no more than thirty minutes are required for the removal of all the sediment and rust which have collected in the system and for the tightening of all parts to prevent leaks and loss of the valuable anti-freeze. It has been demonstrated that no anti-freeze can be satisfactory unless all parts are kept thoroughly tight. These simple jobs require so little time and are done at such negligible cost that the average motorist will find the garageman's services desirable.

In the selection of the proper anti-freeze, no difficulties should now be encountered for the motorist has the benefit of the scientific findings of the United States Bureau of Standards, of which George K. Burgess is Director.
After exhaustive research and tests, the Bureau of Standards finds that the perfect anti-freeze should meet nine distinct requirements, which are: (1) must give complete protection, (2) should not boil away (3) must do no damage to the cooling system, (4)
should not heat up the motor, (5) should not affect the paint or varnish of the car, (6) should be odorless, (7) must be non-inflammable, (8) should not be viscous
at low temperatures nor decompose at high temperatures, (9)
should not deteriorate.

ROBERT RIDDICK PRENTISS

On Wednesday of this week a truly great Virginian passed on to that reward which awaits a life well spent in the service of his fellow men. Chief Justice Prentiss has served the Commonwealth in many capacities and always in positions of dignity and importance. His crowning achievement, perhaps, was his Chairmanship of the Commission on Revision and Amendment of the Virginia Constitution, created in 1927 at the instigation of Governor Harry F. Byrd.

Holding the highest judicial position in the gift of Virginia, Robert Prentiss acted with the highest sense of justice and honesty and capably discharged the heavy duties of his office to the day of his fatal illness. His passing will be the cause of much sorrow throughout the state.

—The Stafford Ranger.

WOULD ABOLISH GRAND JURIES

Hon. Daniel Coleman, member of the House of Delegates from Norfolk, is in favor of adoption of a constitutional amendment abolishing grand juries in Virginia. The system, he says, is both inefficient and unnecessary and adds little to the administration of justice. "I have found," he adds, "that they use white wash more often than they use the scrubbing brush and good strong soap. The change would not only aid the administration of justice but at the same time would be a great saving of expense to the State."

Many others are of the same opinion. At Virginia Beach, for example, where State Aid has been finally summoned to break up open gambling, a grand jury could find no evidences of law violation. In many instances, moreover, the grand jury system provides a means of "passing the buck" in the matter of prosecutions. In returning "not a true bill" many an instance of injustice has been meted out. The purpose of the grand jury is to determine whether the accused should be brought to trial, and has no bearing upon his guilt or innocence. Most of their deliberations, except where wielding the "white wash brush," referred to by Daniel Coleman, are mere routine. The idea advanced by Mr. Coleman is certainly worthy of careful consideration by the legislature.

Better Breakfasts

IN making your plans for the winter it is just as important to lay in a goodly supply of sustaining breakfast menus as it is to see that the furnace or steam-heating apparatus is in order, or that there is plenty of coal and wood on hand. One type of fuel heats the house and the other the body—which would you say was the more important?

Just about November the family develops a man-sized winter appetite—everybody wants a good breakfast, and needs one. It doesn't make any difference whether the order of the day is business, school or stay-at-home, when the sparkling November sunlight shines in on the breakfast table, when a fire in the house feels good and the home becomes a cozy refuge in a brilliant wintry world, then is the moment to be prepared with "better breakfasts." Here is one which answers that description:

Grape Fruit Halves
Corned Beef Hash
with Poached Eggs
Toast Coffee Apple Butter

Corned Beef Hash with Poached Eggs: Mix one twelve-ounce can corned beef, two cups finely chopped boiled potatoes and quarter cup milk; season to taste. Flatten out in a skillet with a little hot fat, and brown well on one side, turn over and brown on the other. Slide out onto a hot platter and lay six hot poached eggs on top. Serves six.
