ORLANDO MARKER PLANS PROGRESS

Junior Committee Discusses Final Phases of Celebration.

A committee meeting was called by Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton, chairman, at the home of Mrs. E. H. Hibbs. The following were present: Mrs. Guy Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans, Mr. W. H. Ellicott, Miss Beatrice Clark, Mrs. Albert Speiden, Miss Sarah Pitts, Mr. O. D. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Davies, Mr. M. J. Hottle, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, Mr. J. L. Dawson, Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton and Mr. R. C. Haydon.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and reports were called for on the different items of work that had been planned at the previous meeting.

Miss Clark reported that the Prince William County History designed to meet the needs of the fourth and fifth grades of the public school was practically completed and that the first ten chapters had been taught in the schools already. She also reported that the history of Manassas, worked up as a project by the sixth grade, had been completed under the direction of Mrs. Grace L. Hite, teacher.

Mr. H. T. Davies made an interesting report on the celebration held at Woodbridge, September 25, at which time the marker was dedicated commemorating the site of the first Court House in Prince William county. He also commented briefly on the excellent co-operation that the committee had received from all taking part and on the very beautiful pageant worked up in a short time by the schools of the county.

Mrs. Thornton reported that the committee was now working on a similar project to place a permanent marker at the site of the second Court House of Prince William county, known as the Cedar Run House and located on the Berryman place not far from Orlando. She reported that Mr. Berryman had agreed to give a deed to the plot of land on which the marker will be located, that several organizations had already contributed towards the erection of the marker, that the plate had been ordered for the marker, and that Mr. M. J. Hottle had charge of doing the work.

Mr. H. T. Davies was appointed a committee to draw up a suitable deed for the plot of ground in question and to see to having it recorded in the name of the County Board of Supervisors.

At this point Mr. M. J. Hottle made a report as to his progress in reference to the marker. It was decided to hold the dedication celebration as a feature of the closing exercises of the schools adjacent to this territory and the following committee was appointed to make plans for the exercises: Miss Beatrice Clark, chairman, Mrs. E. H. Hibbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans and Mr. Haydon.

Mrs. Albert Speiden representing the United Daughters of the Confederacy was appointed a committee to co-operate with Senator John Rust of the Battlefield Association in planning what would be known as Battlefield Day for July 21 of this year.

Reports were called for from the chairmen of the committees representing the different organizations which had been asked to participate in the Bicentennial celebration and the following reported that their program for the year included features that carried out the George Washington Bicentennial idea, and in some cases, the Prince William County idea as well: Eastern Star, Mrs. R. C. Haydon; United Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. Albert Speiden; Masons, Mr. O. D. Waters; Homemakers' Club, Miss Sarah Pitts; Postal Clerk's Wives Club, Mrs. Guy Allen; School Board, R. C. Haydon; Board of Supervisors, J. L. Dawson.

In addition to the above named activities, the committee decided that it would co-operate in any way possible with the Piedmont Virginia Dairy Festival Association in making the festival, which is to be held on Friday, September 30, 1932, a celebration to be long remembered in this section of the state.

There being no further business, delightful refreshments were served, after which the meeting adjourned.

MUSIC CLUB ENTERTAINS

Solos by Miss Mary Apple Much Appreciated.

On Monday afternoon a delightful program of music was presented at the Parish Hall by the music section of the Woman's Club of Manassas.

The first number of the interesting program was "The Road to You," by the Swavely School Glee Club, followed by "Invictus" by this club.

Miss Mary Apple, the guest soloist, then entertained, with Mrs. William Leachman as accompanist. Her lovely selections were in three groups. In the first were "Still Wie Die Nacht" by Carl Bohm and "Come and Trip It," by Handel. In the second group were "By the Waters of Minnetonka," by T. Lieurance, "Trees," by Oscar Rasbach, and "The Kerry Dance," by James Molloy.

These selections, which were very much enjoyed by the audience, were followed by a "Prelude in G-Minor," by Rachmaninoff, played by Mrs. Leachman, after which Miss Apple presented her third group of selections: "The Fairy Pipers," by Brewer; "Take Joy Home," by Bassett; "Love's a Merchant," by Molly Carew, and "Annie Laurie," by Liza Lehman.

Following the program tea was served, Mrs. Eli Swavely, chairman, acting as hostess.

SENIOR PLAY AT NOKESVILLE

Funny Farce Will Be Presented May 6.

A play, "A Hen-Pecked Hero," will be given by the senior class of Brentsville District high school in the high school auditorium May 6.

"A Hen-Pecked Hero," a hilariously funny three-act farce, revolves around the misfortunes of a meek little man with a romantic-minded bride and a strong-minded mother-in-law. His studious nature and unathletic physique make him a victim of domestic tyranny, until the bride's longing for a cave-man type of husband causes him to go to a real cave and becomes a real cave-man with nearly fatal results.

Before it is over Dame Misfortune pays call after call upon the unhappy husband in the guise of various veiled persons dressed in widow's weeds, with dire consequences. In all, five "widows" are in evidence and get the poor man, as well as each other, hopelessly mixed up. In fact, it gets so that nobody except the audience knows who is which.

There is rapid action, with a fast developing plot that culminates in a literal explosion. The only object of "A Hen-Pecked Hero" is to produce one outburst of hearty laughter after another, and this it does from start to finish.

NOKESVILLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Brentsville District Standard Community Association, Tuesday, May 3. The home-making committee, under the supervision of Mr. J. F. Hall, is providing a program of unusual interests.

The work chart has arrived and there will be a general check-up on all work. We urge and invite all members as well as visitors to come, especially the committee chairmen.

Miss Christine Heydrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heydrick, and Mr. Lloyd Randolph Cowne, of Catlett, were married in Washington Monday evening at 6 o'clock.

Miss Heydrick is a popular member of the young set around Nokesville, and a graduate of the local high school. The young couple will reside at Catlett after May 1.

M. R. Japhlet, evangelist, is holding a series of meetings at the Brentsville Baptist church. Rev. Frame is assisting him with the services. The meeting will continue throughout next week.

U. D. C. MEETING

The next meeting of the Manassas chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at the home of Mrs. E. B. Giddings, with Mrs. Luther Alpaugh and Mrs. Hebe Jackson, as assistant hostesses.

THE COST OF GOVERNMENT

By Hon. Harry Davis, Mayor of Manassas
(An address delivered before the Woman's Club of Manassas April 13, 1932)

The cost of government is a subject which has only recently been elevated to the category of interesting and important topics of conversation and public discussion.

For a long time the matter has been taboo for the reason that no one felt that anything needed to be done about it, or could be done about it.

Large public expenditures were accepted as a mark and evidence of progress.

I well remember the stir caused by the announcement some years ago, that the Federal Government appropriations had passed the billion dollar mark, when Congress was known as a billion dollar Congress.

This was large sum then and is still a large sum, but the general reaction was that our was a billion-dollar country.

It made us feel chesty, important and proud that we could afford to let our Federal Government spend a billion a year.

The Great World War and its aftermath has changed our thinking on this, as on so many other subjects. To use the slang expression, "We hadn't been nowhere and we hadn't seen nothin'," until this catastrophe engulfed the world, so far as governmental expenditures were concerned.

Instead of patting ourselves on the back, as we give our loose change to the tax collector, we are now groaning and asking, "Where will it stop?" as we hand over to the present-day publicans, sums which the most hardened must admit to "be big money."

The weight of taxation is no longer simply a lecture topic for the professor, it is a matter of vital importance in the business world and in the home.

The chief cause of the appalling increase in taxation is the high cost of government and that in turn has a great deal to do with the present depression in which the people have been caught like rats in a trap.

Many people have the erroneous idea that because they do not contribute directly to the support of the Federal Government and State Governments in the way of income taxes or some other tax, that they are not interested in what the Federal and State Governments do in the way of raising taxes to meet the reckless spending of money.

They lose sight of the fact that they all do contribute indirectly if not directly, to the support of these governments by what is commonly known as "the hidden tax."

The manufacturer and the business houses who do have to make these direct contributions in the form of one kind of tax or other, pass these taxes on to the ultimate consumers of their products or merchandise, and after all, everybody does pay their part in the purchase of goods delivered to them over the counter.

The landlord passes on part of his tax in the bills for rent, the baker wraps them up with the bread he sells, bills of the butcher and the milkman include taxes as surely as if the postman delivered a notice from the tax office.

All the people pay taxes. Everybody who eats, sleeps and wears clothing, is a taxpayer, for everything one buys, rents or uses, is taxed and one pays their part of the tax.

There is no such thing as a "non-taxpayer" and when more people get that into their heads it will not be such easy sailing for the powers that be.

So that taxes collected by the Federal and State Governments are hidden in everything the consumer buys or uses and this being the case, why should not everyone care what the Federal and State Governments do in the way of raising taxes and spending them, just as much so as our local governments?

A gentleman, visiting Washington hired an old darkey to drive him around the city to see the public places of interest. The old darkey grew enthusiastic and waving his arms at the Botanical Gardens, the museums, the parks and monuments, said to the gentleman, "Jist think, it's all free, it don't cost nobody nothin', the Govmint pays for it," and this is about the way that many people look upon the governments, as some mysterious organization which exists through some miracle.

You have perhaps read of the great new Government office building in Washington with five thousand windows, or you read of joining in the celebration of the opening of a new million dollar postoffice building somewhere. Is it supposed that these come about by miracles?

Philadelphia needs a new and larger postoffice building, but Congress vote the construction of that building solely on the basis of the needs of Philadelphia? No indeed. Votes for a postoffice building in Philadelphia are only obtained by the Pennsylvania representatives agreeing to vote for an unnecessary postoffice building in Idaho where some other representative has an axe to grind and jobs to provide for voters.

A $17,500,000 office building for the Department of Commerce has just recently been opened for occupancy in Washington, although this building was completed more than a year ago. Why was it not occupied a year ago? At 6 percent interest, the carrying charge amounted to $1,150,000 for that one year it was unoccupied and in addition, the Commerce Department was obliged to spend something like $250,000 for rent for quarters while the new building was sitting idle, making a total waste of $1,400,000.

FAIRY PLAY WELL STAGED

Spring Operetta Brings Out Much Juvenile Talent.

The children's operetta at the Manassas high last week was well attended and received.

The story as forecast in last week's issue was a colorful exposition of a child's story and an object lesson of responsibility told in play.

The youngsters really did mighty well, thanks to Miss Speiden's careful training and patient coaching, ably assisted by the faculty of Bennett school. The setting and scenery was quite tasteful.

The clown of the play pretty nearly ran away with the show. Not every boy has such a chance as did little Preston Enfield, who scored constantly with his antics. The bag of peanuts was a forte for his tricks.

The leading players, Miss Nancy Warren Cockrell, the Doll-Child, and William Knox, the Brownie King, and Esther Mae Muddiman, the Fairy Queen, went through their more difficult paces with ease and grace.

There were several little sidelights that caused laughter besides the Monkey. At their age of life, it is natural that the enbonpoint statues that the parts of the Brownies called for was so far removed from their general idea of things that the Brownies were constantly trying to keep their "tummies" straight, which caused no little quiet amusement.

SENIOR PLAY AT HAYMARKET

The senior class of the Haymarket high school will present a comedy drama, "The Thread of Destiny" on May 11, at 8 p.m. Those in the cast are Mildred Carroll, Fowler Ashby, Ruth Griffith, Mae Gosson, Josephine Adams, John Piercy, Virginia Shumate, Howard Melton, Meredith Amphet, Carl Smith, Marie Clark, Deane Sinclair, Virginia McQuin, Edna Bodine, Robert Smith, Elizabeth Harrover, Polly Peters, Frances Smith, Smith Garrison, Ray McQuin, Dorothy Bodine, Hamilton Latham, Louise Beach and Della Beach.

DUMFRIES STILL LEADING IN GARDEN CAMPAIGN

Although Dumfries community is still ahead in the number of entrants in the garden and canning campaign, Bethel and Nokesville communities lead in past week's enrollments. Mrs. M. deNicola of Bethel Home Demonstration group has the distinction of having secured the most enrollments for the campaign. Mrs. deNicola has been leader in Bethel home demonstration group for the past two years and continues to hold that office.

The past week's enrollments are listed by communities: Bethel, Mrs. E. W. Thompson, Mrs. Althea Cheas, Mrs. M. M. deNicola, Mrs. C. N. Snapp, Mrs. Eva Fairbanks. Nokesville, Mrs. E. E. Hale, Mrs. John Harpine, Mrs. E. R. Flicker, Mrs. R. S. Britton, Mrs. T. B. Flickenger.

The enrollment period for the "More Living from your Garden and Pantry Shelves" campaign closes April 30. For further information about the contest, get in touch with any one of the following women: Mrs. Otis Latham, Haymarket; Miss Katie Boley, Greenwich; Mrs. J. O. Biddle, Nokesville; Mrs. L. Powell Davis, Bethel; or Mrs. Eastman Keys, Dumfries.

SCOUT EXECUTIVE KIWANIS GUEST

Aids in Revival of Local Troop.

Last Friday evening was Boy Scout night (so to speak) at the Kiwanis Club. Robert Bibb, Spanish War veteran, who was scoutmaster of the old troop from 1915 to 1920, and one of his former charges, Allison Hooff, jr., were guests of the club.

William Leith, in charge of Scout work in the District of Columbia, addressed the club on the phases of Scout work, and stated that a close survey of the county revealed the fact that ultimately seven troops could be established, with a scout council for the county. He congratulated the youth of the vicinity in having an old hand at the game offer his services again in the interest of training the boys of Manassas to enjoy the out-of-doors and to learn service and self-sacrifice.

President Al announced the appointment of Wilson Merchant on the underprivileged child committee.

RONALD COLMAN FOR TRAYS NEW ROLE AS RECKLESS ADVENTURER

Recklessly adventurous rather than romantic, Ronald Colman comes to the Dixie theatre on Friday in "The Unholy Garden," as Samuel Goldwyn's first screen presentation of the year.

For the first time in two years, Colman is no longer the suave polished English gentleman. Instead, he is an outcast and a renegade, hiding out with a dozen other refugees from the law in a strange outpost at the edge of the Sahara. Dishveled and unshaven, hair tousled and clothes mussed, he is a sharp contrast to the immaculately groomed hero of "The Devil to Pay," "Raffles" and "Bulldog Drummond," his earlier pictures for Mr. Goldwyn.

Estelle Taylor and Fay Wray have the principal feminine roles. As the wanton voluptuary of the story, Miss Taylor has the biggest part since her memorable appearance in "Cimarron." Miss Wray is the protected daughter of the embittered recluse, hiding at the Inn.

It is the first picture of this kind, or of such a background, that Ronald Colman has appeared in since he did "Dean Geste" four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Welton Graham and son, Junior, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gardner of Hickory Grove, for a short while on Sunday.

TWO FINE ARTISTS REPEAT
BIDS FOR STELLAR HONORS

Paramount presents an exceptional vehicle for intense dramatic action in "Ladies of the Big House," which will be the feature at the Dixie Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

Sylvia Sidney, who plays the leading woman's part, already has a strong fan following, because of her outstanding work in "City Streets" with Gary Cooper, in "An American Tragedy" with Phillips Holmes, in "Street Scene" with William Collier and in her Broadway stage success,
"Bad Girl."

She has as her leading man Gene Raymond, who sprang into prominence in the Broadway stage production, "Young Sinners," which brought him a screen contract. Recently he was featured in "Personat Maid" as Nancy Carroll's leading man.

Raymond's light blond complexion is a pleasing contrast to Miss Sid-ney's dark tresses in the "Ladies of the Big House," which is a gripping romantic love drama of the lives of two young people who on the eve of their wedding day are cruelly separated by the law.

The picture has the strong punch of authenticity in its prison scenes.
It is a dramatic pen-picture by the convict-author, Ernest Booth, with screen adaptation and dialogue by Louis Weitzenkorn.

COMPARE

Quality-

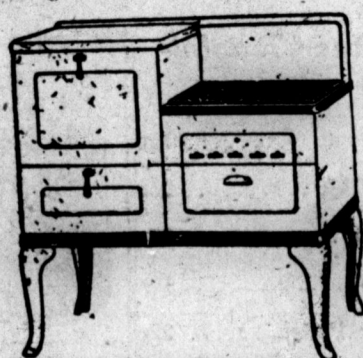

Quality comes before price. Detroit Jewel ranges have always been known for quality, and these fine, modern gas ranges, made better than ever before, are sustaining that enviable record.

Price-

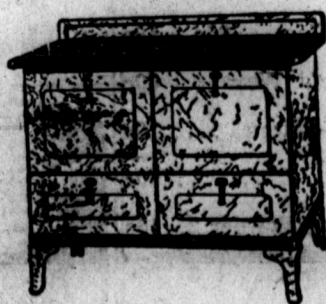

A tremendous volume from the largest stove and furnace plant in the world, makes possible the new 1932 Detroit Jewel at the lowest prices in Detroit Jewel history. This coupled with the lower trend in prices and the unusually high quality of new 1932 Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges, make them the greatest values we have ever offered.

Results-

Every woman is interested in quality and appearance of the gas range she buys, and the price must be right—But primarily it is Results she wants. It must be convenient, it must bake well, it must be economical in gas consumption. The Detroit Jewels do all these. Equipped with the Robertshaw oven heat control you can cook an entire meal without the slightest attention on your part. Every known convenience and economy feature is embodied in the new 1932 Detroit Jewels. See them today.

The Master Detroit Jewel, priced extremely low. Large porcelain lined oven and broiler, utility drawer, finished in Green and Ivory porcelain.

The Table Top is the choice of thousands, because of its compactness, yet roomy oven and cooking top, and the handy table top. Very low priced.

REUNION OF WOODWARD FAMILY

Editor, Manassas Journal.
Plans are being made to hold a reunion of the descendants of the Woodward family who resided in Tidewater Virginia during the 17th and 18th centuries. It will be during the early part of the summer at Wharton's Grove in Lancaster county.

The destruction by Federal forces during the War Between the States of the public records of Kent and James City counties has added greatly to the difficulty of identifying and establishing relationships.

The general committee in charge of arrangements is the following: John Garland Pollard, jr., Dr. B. B. Bagby and the undersigned, who will be glad to hear from any reader of The Journal who might be interested.

Yours very truly,
OVERTON S. WOODWARD,
Morris Plan Bank,
Richmond, Virginia.

April 18, 1932.

BADLY HURT

Miss Eloise Compton, who was badly injured in an auto wreck near Centreville Sunday morning, is reported improved at a Washington hospital. Miss Carolyn Cole, who was with her at the time, died later in the day from a fractured skull.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If you will have their children come to the Bible school, it will prove a blessing to them in later years.

PRAISE GOD:—Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.—Psalm 47: 6.

DEAD ON THE FIELD OF DISHONOR

In the midst of their rejoicing over an impending split in the Democratic party over the vexing question of Prohibition, the Republicans are badly upset over the returns from Illinois, a rock-ribbed State, which went for Harding, Coolidge and Hoover.

In the primary last week, the two biggest political grafters that ever clouded the prospects of their party in Illinois, were selected. They are former Governor Len Small, who was once indicted for misappropriating a million dollars, and "Big Bill" Thompson, who has been the cause of much of Chicago's present plight.

Both of these gentlemen have brought Illinois and the Nation into disrepute, and yet they will be on the ticket with Herbert Hoover. There is little question now that Illinois, with her 28 electoral votes, will go Democratic. Commenting upon the situation The Chicago Daily News, a great independent publication, used the headline, "Dead on the Field of Dishonor," continuing with the epitaph, "Here lies Dodo, ironically called the Republican party of Illinois. It died from lack of brains and honesty."

180 AIRPLANES TAKE PART IN "HELL DIVERS"

One hundred and eighty naval airplanes, in perfect formation, diving and looping in sensational evolutions, is one of many thrills in the latest film drama of the air, "Hell Divers," co-starring Wallace Beery and Clark Gable, and opening Monday at the Dixie Theatre.

This thrill was filmed at a special air review, at North Island, for Admiral H. E. Yowell, commander of the naval West Coast carrier division.

CATHARPIN

Sunday was a bright day and a large congregation greeted the presiding elder at Sudley and forty of the sixty-one members of the Sudley Bible class were in attendance. This class has been an organized body for the past ten years or more and hopes this spring to enlarge its membership to at least 100; there being a possibility in the Sudley neighborhood of not less than 140. Since spring has opened up the prospects are for good weather and good roads, and with the good preaching we are having by our pastor, Sudley should give a splendid account of herself this summer. The pastor and Worker's Council will re-organize the Sunday school next week and all children in the neighborhood are requested to be present next Sunday for registration. The Bible class will soon re-organize for the summer's work so that Sudley, after the past few months' "rest," should live up to her reputation and put on a delightful summer's campaign for all her various departments.

Among the "out of town" members and friends attending services at Sudley last Sunday were Mrs. Lattie Buck, Mrs. Roberta Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Kemper Stanley and Miss Katharine Harrover of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Lynn of Manassas and Mr. L. K. Lynn, Jr., of Takoma Park, Md. Sudley is always glad to welcome her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Willis and young son of Clarendon were visitors at the parental home, Lone Oak, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter were Manassas visitors last week calling upon grandmother Metz and others.

Mrs. Powhatan Buckley with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Carey, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Lawler of Bel Alton, Md. The Lawlers have just gone to housekeeping and naturally the "home folks" wanted to help them along. Both of Mrs. Buckley's daughters have just recently launched their boats upon the sea of matrimony and their many friends wish them bon voyage, a safe trip and a happy landing.

Mrs. Bertie Caton has moved back to her old home near Catharpin after spending some time in Washington among friends and relatives. Mrs. Caton will find a warm welcome awaiting her among her old friends who are glad to have her with them again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins of Marble Hill spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Gilbert Merchant, of Ivakota V.a., rounding out the day by visiting the cherry blossoms in Washington.

Miss Audrey McIntosh spent last week visiting friends in Poolesville, Md.

Master W. S. Brower, Jr., was quite ill for a few days last week with very high temperature accompanied but is now much better and convalescing.

The Catharpin baseball season will open in all its glory on Saturday, April 30, at 3 p.m., on the ball grounds of the home team, which grounds are now being smoothed and leveled for the opening game with the Triangle club of Quantico as their opponents on the paths. President Hoover will not be present to throw out the ball, neither will Secretary Mills be here to hoist the flag; but the ball will be tossed and the flag flown to the breeze just the same. The baseball spirit has never waned since the old Catharpin club of some years ago used to win from all comers including the Washington team which they trounced to a finish. This was in the days of the Sanders boys and when Dr. Brower was a young physician in the neighborhood. One can hear the prowess of that team to the present day, the club having sent a number of players up to the big leagues. The present team will have on its "roster" a number of young hopefuls who are mighty lively with the bat and on their feet and will remind you of all the celebrities of the game; they have some Babe Ruths, a Pepper Martin or two, and a sure-enough Walter Johnson. Hamilton Swart, the manager, is the Ty Cobb of the team; he catches "me and hits 'em at all times. Give the boys your encouragement and who knows but that Clark Griffith and Connie Mack may have their scouts out here picking up available ere the summer sun goes down.
