LANDING FIELD DEDICATED

Ceremonies Witnessed by Large Gathering.

On Wednesday of this week the Manassas Landing Field was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies in the presence of a large gathering of citizens. The weather was ideal and Manassas became air-minded without hesitation.

The address of welcome was made by Hon. Harry Davis, mayor of Manassas, who officially declared the airport open. The invocation was delivered by Rev. A. S. Gibson, rector of Trinity church.

Hon. Harry Shirley, chairman of the State Highway Department, made an interesting talk. Mr. Shirley had come from Richmond in about an hour by air. Another interesting speaker was Col. Earl Popp, professor of aeronautics at the College of William and Mary.

Dr. Eli Swavely and Hon. Robert Hutchison also made very entertaining and instructive talks.

Luncheon was served by ladies of the Methodist church, after which the afternoon was devoted to general enjoyment of the facilities of the landing field. The commercial planes present did a big business. A plane from the Hoover Airport quickly sold tickets enough to keep it busy until dark, and the machine from Mt. Vernon Airways, although declining to sell tickets in advance, managed to hold the interest of a long waiting list, on account of the especially graceful flights with Lieutenant Buell at the controls.

Throughout the afternoon it was noted that the ladies took to the idea of aviation much more readily than the men-folks. On one occasion a bevy of girls were clamoring for tickets while the only visible activity among the boys was an attempt of one to sell his ticket.

Throughout the day many expressions were heard, particularly among those experienced in such matters, to the effect that the Manassas Landing Field was one of the best in the country when considered from the standpoint of good topography and facilities for safe landing under variable conditions. Without question this airport will increase in importance as time goes by.

JUNIOR LEAGUE REPORT READ

President Recites Progress at Graduation.

The Junior Leagues in our schools are societies organized by the State Co-operative Educational Association for the purpose of giving the boys and girls opportunities to train for good citizenship. Our league has a membership of the entire student body and all the work of our different clubs are placed to the credit of the Junior League.

I would like to give you now a brief report of our various activities during the year.

The most outstanding assembly programs sponsored during the year have been the Armistice, Thanksgiving, Christmas and two Bi-centennial programs—one, to celebrate George Washington's birthday, and the other, a tree-planting event in which a Japanese cherry tree was presented to the school by the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers Club.

The sophomore class led the school in a magazine campaign from which $24.00 was realized. $15.00 was used to help buy a set of vocational guidance books for the school library and the balance was turned over to the Junior League.

Under the auspices of the senior class our school paper, "The Yellow Jacket," has been successfully edited.

The annual Father and Son Banquet sponsored by the agriculture club was an elaborate and enjoyable occasion, the main speakers of the evening being Mr. Hyslip, state supervisor of vocational guidance, and Mr. Howard, district supervisor.

The Home Economics Club, under the supervision of Miss Vita Draper, gave a series of skits entitled "Faculty Follies," through which $47.00 was raised. This was used in buying books for the home economics library and in helping to equip a much-needed rest room.

The Glee Club, with the aid of the student body, sponsored lunches for one week to obtain money for new song books. $20.00 was raised and 150 song books purchased.

SMITH UNOPPOSED

Hon. Howard Worth Smith, representing the Eighth Congressional District in Congress, is without opposition in the Democratic primary set for August 2. The time set for candidates to file notice of their candidacy expired last Friday and Judge Smith was the only candidate filing notice of his candidacy.

He will be declared the party nominee by the district committee. Judge Smith will come up for election next November. The nomination is equivalent to an election.

Judge Smith was elected a member of Congress November 4, 1930, and was sworn in March 4, 1931. He took the place of Representative R. Walton Moore who resigned at the close of his term.

Judge Smith is a native of Broad Run, Fauquier county, Va. He graduated at Bethel Military Academy in 1901 and at the University of Virginia in 1903. He was admitted to the bar in 1904 and practiced law until 1922 when he accepted appointment as judge of the corporation court of Alexandria. He resigned in 1923 to accept an appointment as judge of the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit of Virginia and resigned the last named appointment in 1930 to run for Congress. He was commonwealth's attorney for Alexandria from 1918 until he resigned to accept appointment on the bench in 1922. During the World War he served as assistant general counsel to the Alien Property Custodian.

In his acceptance of committees when he entered Congress, Smith sought assignments that would be of benefit to his constituents rather than distinction for himself. Few new Congressmen so rapidly gained the friendship of his associates in the House. Opposition for him was not expected, as it was said last winter by those familiar with his determined fight for the integrity of the historic Eighth District that he "was in Congress for life if he chose to stay there."

Judge Smith is known all over the Eighth District and is very popular.

CELEBRATION AT MEMORIAL HALL, HICKORY GROVE

The birthday of Jefferson Davis was duly celebrated by the Eighth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C., at the Confederate Memorial Hall near Hickory Grove, though for certain reasons the 4th of June was chosen for our meeting instead of the 3rd, the real birthday.

The chief speaker of the occasion was the Rev. Westwood Hutchison, one of the few remaining Veterans of the Eighth Virginia Regiment, who though young at the time of his service remembers all about it. After a brief tribute to Davis, he spoke on the causes of the War between the States, tracing them from the very beginning of the Republic. It threw some new light on an interesting subject.

The invocation was given by the Rev. W. F. Carpenter, the closing prayer by Mr. Gustavus Huldison.

There was some singing of old Southern songs, and some really fine music, rendered by Mrs. Caldwell. Miss Margaret Shirley read a poem, "The Men in Gray."

Altogether the meeting was most satisfactory, and closed with much enjoyed refreshments.

We much appreciate Mr. Hutchison's help, and that of other friends.

MISS PATTIE COMPLETES COURSE

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hynson and Mrs. Stuart Pattie and Mrs. R. B. Hynson attended the commencement exercises at Stuart Hall, Staunton, Va., the past week. Miss Esther Warren Pattie was among the graduates.

ROSE RATCLIFFE GRADUATES

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ratcliffe and Mr. Jack Ratcliffe motored to Chambersburg, Pa., this week to witness the graduation of Miss Rose Ratcliffe at Penn Hall. They returned last night, bringing with them Miss Helen Lloyd, of Greenwich, also a student at the same institution.

U. D. C. OBSERVES DAVIS' BIRTHDAY

Mrs. W. A. Newman Is Hostess.

On the afternoon of June 1 twenty-nine members and several guests of the Manassas Chapter attended a garden party at the home of Mrs. W. A. Newman on Battle street.

The hostess, Mrs. Newman, and her assistants, Mrs. James Dorrell and Miss Nollie Nelson, received her guests on the lawn.

A short business session of the chapter was held with the president in the chair. Reports were heard from standing committees. Mrs. Albert Speiden, registrar, reported having received papers of Mrs. Warren Coleman and Mrs. V. V. Gillum which are awaiting the certificates. A letter was read from registrar complimenting Mrs. Speiden, on the accuracy and neatness of papers submitted to her. The corresponding secretary reported letters of sympathy had been written to Mrs. Roberta Lamb Gulick, Mrs. R. S. Hynson and Mr. Eppa Hunton and his mother. The chapter felt Mr. Hunton's letter contained so much of interest to them, they voted to insert it in the minutes. Chairman of relief work reported sending a birthday cake, contributed by Mrs. Robt. Hutchison, with fruit, candy and other delicacies to Mr. Schneider, a Confederate veteran, with birthday greetings from the chapter. This chapter with the assistance of Memorial Association had cared for the grave of Mr. G. Nutt, a brave Confederate soldier.

Mrs. Robt. Smith, Mrs. J. Jenkyn Davies, Mrs. Benj. Brown and Mrs. Hibbs were appointed a committee to receive the Confederate veterans if they should visit Manassas Battlefield on their return from the 42 Confederate Reunion which will be held in Richmond this month.

The names of Mrs. Anna Fielding Butler and Mrs. Frances Keys were presented for membership and accepted.

Mrs. E. H. Hibbs was requested to write to Dr. H. J. Eckenrode at once in regard to erecting a marker at Liberia, Beauregard's headquarters during first battle of Manassas. (Please turn to page 4)

NOTES ON CEDAR RUN COURTHOUSE

(Thanks to Mrs. E. H. Hibbs and Hon. Fairfax Harrison).

In 1742, pursuant to an order of the Royal Governor, three gentlemen viewers met at Neabco to decide on a more central and convenient location for a courthouse. These men were Colonels Henry Fitzhugh, William Fairfax and John Colvin. After a public hearing, they decided on a site on the Philomen Waters plantation, thereafter known as the Cedar Run courthouse, and so mentioned by George Washington in his diary.

The building was of brick, with a thatch roof. An uncle of Newton Berryman, the present owner, who was born about 1805 recalled the old brick pile which was all that remained of the courthouse when he was a young man. In the excavation work, (Please turn to page 10)

APPROPRIATE CEREMONIES AT EACH SCHOOL

Manassas Graduation. It was slightly after 8, on Friday evening when Miss Virginia Speiden, music director in the local schools, struck up the tune to which the high school students filed in to take their places. They were followed by the graduates and last by the high school faculty.

Rev. A. Stuart Gibson, rector of Trinity, gave the invocation which was followed by the address of welcome from the 1932 president, Miss Charlotte Tiffany.

The glee club then sang two selections.

Miss Lenore Alpaugh then took the stage and explained in detail the newest method of having the school conduct its own program without a speaker. Miss Alpaugh's subject was "What the Schools Are Doing to Help America in Economic Progress?"

Other students who took part in the program along these lines were Miss Reba Crawford, Mr. Francis Compton, Miss Margaret Carter, Miss Hattie Mae Partlow and Miss Ann Bradford. (Miss Bradford's report is printed in another column).

Then the entire school sang "Hail Columbia" and the long-expected stage of the program had arrived. Doctor Johnson officiated in naming the prize winners and those promoted to the high school. Doctor made each modest winner properly announce him or herself to the audience.

And last but not least, Professor Haydon arose to name the graduates each of whom was cordially greeted by applause as the diploma was awarded.

The prizes and the list of graduates is as follows:

Senior honor prize awarded by faculty to the student showing the most outstanding qualities of leadership, loyalty and service to the school $5.00. Also name inscribed on Balfore Tablet—Won by Miss Margaret Carter; a close second, Miss Ann Bradford.

Screen Favorite and His Favorite
Director Reunite to Make New
Fox Romantic Drama

Frank Borzage's first contribution to the long list of talking pictures that will be produced during 1932 opens next Monday at the Dixie Theatre. It is the Fox production, "After Tomorrow," and in its leading role is featured that popular screen favorite who first achieved film fame under Mr. Borzage's direction in the immortal "7th Heaven," Charles Farrell. It is one of those simple, realistic and vividly human stories, at the telling of which Borzage is a master, and is said by those critics who have already viewed it on the screen to rank with those other two masterpieces of Borzage, "7th Heaven" and "Bad Girl."

Based upon the stage success of the same name by John Golden and Hugh Stange, "After Tomorrow" tells of an every-day youth who aspires to marry the girl of his own choice and support her in a home of her own. He is severely handicapped by three opposing forces, chief of which is his own sentimentally selfish mother. Another obstacle is the girl's mother, a spoiled, dissatisfied and unsympathetic person, who, having ruined her own romance, tries to hamper the love affair of her daughter. And in addition, Farrell is further burdened with worry over his own inability to secure a better-paying position which would permit him to cast off parental objections to his matrimonial hopes. As a result of this constant delay in the culmination of their plans the two youngsters work out a plan of supreme optimism and hope. It is "After Tomorrow" the sun will shine; "After Tomorrow" we will be married.

It is this optimistic spirit, this enthusiastic hopefulness of youth, that Borzage has so realistically pictured, as the youngsters build their air castles, see them crumble and then rebuild them, again and again, that makes "After Tomorrow" the delightful romance it is.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of God

The word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119:105

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

GOD FORGIVES AND

HEALS:—Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction.—Psalm 103:2-4.

THE BONUS MARCHERS

It is difficult for a man who is eating three hearty meals a day and who is assured of sufficient income to meet his obligations and desires for reasonable and wholesome pleasure to understand just why the jobless World War veterans are converging upon Washington in their hour of distress. "It is a perfectly silly for them to rush to the Capital," one can say with a shrug and dismiss the subject.

But the Veteran sees things differently. He was called to the colors and offered himself to the horrors of war. He is patriotic to an extent not understood by a civilian. He really believes that the country for which he fought cannot be ungrateful and will not let him die in misery and despair. He knows that the District of Columbia is governed by Congress and he figures that in coming to Washington he is throwing himself upon the mercy of the country he saved in war. In his mind, Washington alone can rescue him. From Washington came the orders which hurled him into the bloody fields of France. From Washington has gone billions of dollars to relieve distress in Europe. He has seen Washington cancel 12 billions of European debts, with mere agreement to pay a nominal interest. He has seen retired and able-bodied officers swaggering around under heavy compensation, and he just cannot believe that Congress will let him starve.

He may be silly, but he faces actual starvation. Certainly he deserves great sympathy—and sympathy, we fear, is about all that he will get. But he should not be allowed to starve to death without dropping a tear in recognition of the fact that he must have fought for something and at least if he does starve he can be buried with military honors at near-by Arlington!

After business session the Daughters were entertained for half hour by reminiscence and an address of our Southern leader.

Mrs. Robt. Smith read the inaugural address of Jefferson Davis. Mrs. Fred Dowell read a poem by Father Ryan. A letter was read from Mrs. Palmer in which she stated the prize for greatest historical activities for a year had been awarded to Greenville Chapter.

This chapter has the honor of having the state historian as a member. Our historian, Mrs. Robt. Hutchison, accepted a loan from Culpeper Chapter, a poem and in exchange at their request sent them a sketch of Father Ryan written by Mrs. Hodge, which was appreciated and complimented by the Culpeper Chapter.

After refreshments were served which were enjoyed by all present, the Daughters viewed the flower garden and the meeting adjourned.

Sketch of Robert Toombs, prepared and read by a member of the Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, May 4.

Robert Toombs, an American statesman, was born in Washington, Ga., July 2, 1810.

He studied at the State University at Athens and graduated 1828 at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y. He studied law at the University of Virginia and began practice in Wilkes county, Ga.

After service against the Creeks in 1836 and several years in the Georgia Legislature as a States' Rights Whig, he was elected to Congress in 1844 and held his seat for four terms, until 1853, he was then elected to U. S. Senate and in 1855 re-elected. He opposed the Mexican war and the annexation of territory by force, aided in the adoption of the compromise of 1850.

As an impassioned political speaker he had no equal. He helped lead his state to secession. He was considered for President of the Confederacy. On election of Davis, Toombs was offered office of Secretary of State, accepted for a short time. He resigned to become a Brigadier General in the Confederate Army. He served in the 2nd Battle of Bull Run and at Antietam, later became Brigadier General of the Georgia Militia.

He was noted for his brilliant wit, 15, 1885.

KEEP AWAY FROM TRAPS!

At a time like the present, countless schemes are being concocted for separating unwary investors from their money. Some of the schemes are old and some are new—some are rank speculations and some are outright swindles. All of them appeal to the victim's desire to make easy money, but their real purpose is to make easy money for the promoters.

It's a time for being extremely cautious before letting go of any money. This bank's officers are ready to counsel with you and help you avoid traps sprung by wily "get-rich-quick" salesmen.

Dear Mr. Editor:

As the committee of one appointed by the Bull Run Grange to prepare plans for observing a Citizenship Day in Prince William county, I am asking your co-operation in publishing this letter and also part of the literature already distributed through the high schools of this county. As the explanatory article, printed elsewhere by your kindness, describes the origin and purpose of the plan, I wish now simply to state some additional features of the enterprise.

In order to assist those who intend to write on the examination the following gentlemen residing in Manassas have kindly consented to make their knowledge available to those who ask for it: Mr. H. P. Davis, Mr. T. E. Didlake, Mr. R. A. Hutchison and Mr. R. C. Haydon. No doubt there are citizens residing in other communities who will gladly render the same service and thus give valuable assistance to those who desire to obtain a diploma.

We are hoping for enthusiastic co-operation from those now graduating from our high schools. Others interested may obtain literature from members of the graduating classes, from the above named gentlemen, from the Journal office or from the undersigned.

This year the program including giving of diplomas will be held in the parish hall at Haymarket on Aug. 4 at 10 a.m. Next year we hope to observe the day at some other strategic point in this county.

The generous commendation from those who have heard of this enter-

4-H CLUBS NAME THEIR DELEGATES

Will Attend 14th Annual Short Course at Blacksburg.

Plans are being made to make the 14th annual State 4-H Short Course at Blacksburg, July 18 to 23, the best State 4-H Club meeting ever held in Virginia. The general schedule of activities will be about the same as in the past but a number of new courses will be offered. The All-Star conferences will also be in session the same week.

The real value of the state short course is the influence it has in the homes and communities of those who attend. Each 4-H club is urged to select its delegates carefully and send only those who merit the honor of representing club work of the county. A delegate should be a leading club member, able to take active part in the different activities, and capable of taking the most information and enthusiasm back to his or her community.

Among things that will be of special interest this year are the courses in agriculture and home economics, demonstration and judging contests, athletic events, etc.

Rules and Regulations.

1. Only bona fide club members 14 years old and over, whose work is satisfactory, are eligible to attend.
2. Only active club members are eligible to attend. The management will provide meals and lodging for two leaders from the county.
3. All members will be housed in the V. P. I. Barracks. Members must provide their own blankets, sheets, towels, soap and other toilet articles. A registration fee of $5.00, which will include meals and lodging, will be charged.
4. Arrival and departure: the county delegation will leave Manassas in time to reach Blacksburg Monday evening, July 18, and return on Saturday, July 23.

HOUSE-HEATING WITH NATURAL GAS

In co-operation with the Virginia Gas Distribution Corporation, we are offering a very attractive proposition which will permit the substitution of NATURAL GAS for coal in your heating furnace or boiler.

Such an installation converts your heating plant from coal to NATURAL GAS, making same wholly automatic in its operation, and is thoroughly practical in every way.

The necessary heating survey, recommendation, proper installation and guaranteed performance as service, is to be handled by the Gas Company.

We will be very glad to discuss this matter with you in detail.

TO THE WET LADIES AND GENTLEMEN OF VA.

You say: "Repeal the Eighteenth Amendment." What will you give us in exchange? We don't want to "buy a pig in a poke."

You say: "We don't want the saloon back." But do you not want back wine and beer—the things that made the saloon what it was?

You say: "Repeal the Eighteenth Amendment and save the boys and girls from the bootlegger?" What did you do to "save the boys and girls" from the saloon—and booze? Furthermore, could you not do a better work by helping to educate youth against the evils of beverage alcohol, using your time, energy and money for a constructive program?

You complain of lawlessness and of the bootlegger. Have any of you ever bought liquor from a bootlegger? Do any of you keep unlawful liquor in your homes? Are you setting the "boys and girls" an example of personal abstinence and loyalty to the Constitution?

You say: "We will vote for candidates, regardless of party, who are for the repeal of prohibition." Would you blame the dregs for doing likewise?

You say: "Prohibition is responsible for lawlessness, kidnapping, bootlegging, etc." Why not, then, blame murder on the law against murder; the law against stealing for theft; the law against arson for house-burnin, etc? Why not be consistent and blame the VIOLATORS of the prohibition law, and not prohibition, for such violation?

So far as we have been able to learn or observe prayer for the blessing of Almighty God is not offered in your meetings. If this is correct how can you expect the co-operation of many other church people in your program for "light wines and beer" when you yourselves do not, nor apparently dare to petition the Lord to bless such a program?

WM. HAINES MAKES SHORTEST
BROADCAST ON RECORD
IN DIXIE FILM

Imagine being a radio broadcaster, but broadcasting no further than the four walls around you!

That's the position William Haines found himself in during filming of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's radio drama, "Are You Listening?" which will open Friday, June 17, at the Dixie Theatre. He can probably claim the record for the world's shortest broadcast.

A complete radio station, replica of a large national broadcasting plant in New York, was constructed on a sound stage, with professional radio experts aiding studio technicians in operating microphones, sound effects, amplifiers and crystal wave-length controls.

But the walls of the sound stage were so "grounded" that no emanation went outside. The results of the broadcast were recorded by studio microphones and filmed by studio cameras but not a kilocycle escaped. The film company did not want to interfere with regular programs of the Los Angeles radio stations, which, of course, errant ether waves would have done.

"Are You Listening?" is believed to be the first screen drama to deal exclusively with radio entertainers and their lives both in the broadcasting studio and at home. The story centers on a continuity writer who is unhappily married but whose shrewish wife refuses to grant him a divorce so that he may marry the radio singer whom he loves.

The situation brings about a highly dramatic conflict in which the writer is eventually accused of the murder of his wife and is forced to hide from the police. Two minor romances are involved in the threads of the main narrative.

Haines as the continuity writer plays his first serious role in this picture, and the strong cast also includes Madge Evans, who recently scored in "Lovers. Courageous," Anita Page, Karen Morley, Neil Hamilton, Wallace Ford, Jean Hersholt and Joan Marsh.

NOKESVILLE

All committees, with one exception, reported their projects for the month completed when the Brentsville District Standard Community Association met Tuesday night. Most of the committees have made notable accomplishments in the past few months.

A dairy report from Blacksburg furnished the instruction of the evening in a talk on how to increase the butter fat percentage of dairy herds. He gave four specific ways of doing this: by the addition of several high percentage cows, such as Guernsey or Jersey to the Holstein herds; by careful breeding and selection possible only thru the keeping of careful records; the use of a desirable sire, and by standardization of milk. He also advised against cross-breeding.

For entertainment the social committee had provided Happy Sam, erstwhile radio performer, and what an entertainment! This Texas Joy-boy played and sang a number of popular selections on his ole guitar and ended up by knocking all the music out of a tenor banjo.

Everybody had an enjoyable and beneficial evening.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

Summary of talk given by R. G. Connelly, Extension Dairyman, at Brentsville District Community Association meeting Tuesday evening.

Mix the Milk, Not the Breeds.

Under the present surplus, low price dairy market conditions, there is a strong demand for milk of higher butterfat content. In most markets both the sale value, and the market preference for milk is determined on the basis of butterfat content. Premiums are usually paid for milk testing more than 4 per cent in butterfat while substantial reductions are made on the price of low testing milk. A 4 percent butterfat in milk seems to be the general demand and some markets will take low testing milk only at a low price.

Surpluses of milk and low prices create conditions under which both dealers and consumers may and do exercise selective powers in buying. In fact low testing milk has been discriminated against to such an extent that producers generally must make adjustments in their herds in order to raise the butterfat test to meet the dealer and consumer demand. In many instances this is an added expense that the dairyman must meet if he hopes to cope successfully with competition in the market.

To meet this situation, some dairymen in Prince William county have considered crossing breeds to improve the butterfat tests of their herds. They are of the opinion that by mating Jersey or Guernsey bulls with Holstein or lower testing cows they will be able to build ideal herds to meet market conditions. The assumption is, that a Jersey-Holstein or Guernsey-Holstein cross bred cow will yield the milk quantity of the Holstein and the butterfat test of the Jersey or Guernsey. This idea is fine in theory but the laws of genetics and breeding do not support this belief.

Milk quantity and butterfat quality are two separate inheritable entities in dairy cattle and it is not known how many different heritable factors may affect both the milk and butterfat productiveness of dairy cattle. It is recognized that a cross of one dairy breed upon another has yielded phenomenal results in rare instances. For the practical dairyman who must get almost immediate results in his herd, such a method of herd improvement is too uncertain and too slow. Too often the higher testing breeds cross bred with Holsteins produce offspring that produce the milk quantity of the higher testing breeds with the butterfat test of the Holsteins.

The crossing of dairy breeds to attempt to meet fickle milk market conditions is not advisable for the losses likely to accrue will rest heavily upon the dairyman. The salvation of the dairyman with a low testing herd is to stick to his breed, using a bull, preferably a proved sire, that comes from an ancestry rich in the qualities sought, and saving calves from the cows producing the highest testing milk. It is by breeding and selection of cattle on the basis of production records that a dairyman can gradually build up a high testing dairy herd. This method is practical but will require several years of studious effort on the part of the dairyman.

Where immediate results are wanted, the dairyman might consider the addition of a few Guernseys or Jerseys to his herd. One Jersey or Guernsey producing 25 pounds of milk daily testing 5 per cent or more for each three Holsteins in the herd should be enough to raise the test to the 4 percent butterfat level. In this way a dairyman can gradually cull out his lowest testing Holsteins and by diligent attention to his breeding program, develop a herd of Holsteins that will yield milk approaching the 4 percent requirement. As the higher test standard is reached the use of Jerseys or Guernseys can be gradually discontinued. In any event, the dairyman will have a greater chance of success if he mixes the milk from two breeds than if he attempts to mix the blood of those breeds. A high testing purebred herd is of inestimable value for its profit lies not only in its milk production but also in its ability to transmit that production to its posterity.

CATHARPIN

The Catharpin Good Housekeeping Club met last week with Mrs. C. F. Brower and all enjoying a program centering around the Bi-centennial history of Washington as well as the "eats" which always serve as a postlude to these monthly gatherings.

Mr. B. Lynn Robertson and son, Bolling, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., were recent visitors at Lawn Vale.

Mrs. W. S. Brower and little son, Billy, of Lone Oak, who have been indisposed, are now much improved and will soon be about again.

Mrs. Larkin of Larkinton has been a guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Brower, during the past week.

Mrs. L. J. Pattie is suffering from a severe case of poisoning probably received from poison ivy which grows profusely in this community.

The corn and potato crops in this community are in various degrees of perfection; some so poor they are not worth the effort and some very good. This applies to both corn and potatoes. Some corn is now knee high and some still battling for its life with the cut worm and other pests. Garden vegetables generally speaking are doing fairly well. Farmers are beginning to harvest hay crops and find it fair to middling. Wheat in most instances looking good and reported well filled. On the whole the farmer expects to raise enough to feed himself and his stock but does not yet know from whence his taxes are to come. Last year his fowls in many instances proved his "Farm Relief" and he is looking to them again this year to help him in his emergency.

Mr. F. H. Sanders has been suffering with an affected eye for some time but is now improving.

Great activity is observed along our public roads which are rapidly being put in fine condition to be turned over to the state on July 1. Our supervisor, Mr. Roland, is certainly doing a good job of it. A carload of steel culvert pipe has been received at Gainesville and is being rapidly distributed to all open water crossings where they are soon to be installed. Some of these pipes are 6 feet in diameter. When these are in place our roads will be in the best condition we have ever known them. The grading, surfacing and widening is now almost complete and needs only the culverting to complete the job. The cross-road from Catharpin to Patton Ford is now open and complete and taking things by and large we do not have much to complain of insofar as our roads are concerned.

We missed last week. You know there are times when one would like to say something but has nothing to say. You will remember that old adage, "When you have nothing to say, say nothing." Well, that's just what we did. It seemed people were so busy attending to their own affairs, feeding the young turkeys and chickens, plowing corn and you know what all, that they hadn't time for much else. That makes it hard for correspondents to find something to write about. Of course when accidents happen that's news; but we don't want that kind of news if you can help it. If a man falls from a cherry tree and breaks his back, why that is tragedy and we hurry up and tell all about it and moralize on the dependent wife and children and write up his obituary, but we don't want that kind of things to write about, so don't do things like that just to give us a chance to say something. Now if some of our folks should happen to be seen at church some Sunday morning, why that would be NEWS. You know "news" is a queer thing; it works funny sometimes. If we were to say that "Mr. and Mrs. John Jones attended church on Sunday" that would NOT be news at all because they are always there; but if you should say "Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smith attended church on Sunday" that would be news because to all intents and purposes Mr. and Mrs. Smith had forgotten that there ever was such a thing as church. My! how we should like to write up a few items like that from the Sudley-Catharpin neighborhood. Now a family dinner makes a nice subject to write about, when absent ones get home and all gather around the festive board and above all get back to mother's cooking and the old home ways of personal liberty where one may take his chicken in his fingers and if he happens to make a little noise like Jiggs and his soup spoon, no one will call him down for it. We remember just such a dinner as this in the Sudley neighborhood not long ago where gathered the sons, daughters and grandchildren for this happy occasion and the thing that appealed to us was that nearly all of them attended church that morning. You know it is heart-breaking for the balance of us to go to Sunday school on Sunday morning and see a lot of vacant seats and upon inquiry find that some family is having a big dinner and for that reason all the connection remain at home, both missing and being missed from their regular places. Now here's where "news" might figure again; the first mentioned being "newsier" than the second. You remember that other old adage about "robbing Peter to pay Paul"? If we owe Peter and Paul each a dollar and we rob Peter to pay Paul we commit two sins: we cheat Peter and steal to pay Paul. We should avoid such mistakes. It were better to pay both what we owe them.

"TONIGHT OR NEVER." BELASCO
PLAY, IS GLORIA SWAN-
SON'S NEW PRODUCTION

Gloria Swanson in "Tonight or Never," based on the fiery and tempestuous Belasco stage success, comes to the Dixie Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday. Produced and presented by Samuel Goldwyn, it brings that producer's opulent and lavish hand to a play fashioned by the greatest stage genius of this generation, the late David Belasco, as the last and final effort to his distinguished career.

"Tonight or Never" is a Gloria Swanson returned to the emotional tempo of her first talking picture, "The Trespasser," or the earlier silent "Sadie Thompson." It gives her a warm, fervent role, rich and strong in mature womanly feeling.

Mervyn LeRoy, that enterprisingly youthful director who won world-wide acclaim for "Five Star Final" and "Little Caesar," directed "Tonight or Never." The settings, depicting gay, romantic Budapest and carnival Venice, were designed by Willy Pogany, distinguished painter.

Miss Swanson sings no songs in "Tonight or Never," largely, it is said, because Producer Samuel Goldwyn insisted on the right of way for the rapid action of the story. But there are improvised snatches of song from Miss Swanson, mostly operatic airs, and there is quite a little of Budapest's native melody from string and gypsy orchestras. No picture of the Danube capital would be complete without song.

Chanel—Mlle. Gabrielle Chanel, distinguished Paris designer and fashion authority, whom Samuel Goldwyn brought to Hollywood last spring to become the style arbiter of his picture, introduces her first screen fashions for motion pictures in the elaborate wardrobe of Miss Swanson. Evening gowns and wraps, afternoon frocks, street and sport suits, pajamas and costume jewelry are included among the original Chanel creations for "Tonight or Never."

The story concerns an impetuous opera star of Budapest and her search for success and happiness. Critics praise her voice, but deny that it has genius. They accuse her of having no soul. To the irritation of that, there is added the attention of an unknown young man who follows her everywhere like a shadow. Nella is told that her ardent pursuer is the kept protegee of a doddering old Marchesa,—"a gigolo." Taunted by her critics for her singing and disturbed by the attentions of her admirer, sheer restlessness drives her to his apartment one night. The story then takes up his demand, "Tonight or Never," her answer and the strange phenomenon that made a great artist out of a great singer,—and a happy woman out of an unhappy girl.

Mr. M. J. Hottle unearthed a stone which he declares was a step of the old building and the committee directed him to place it on top of the monument. In the masonry, there is also a brick which was one of those used in the original building.

As was the custom of the day, the county board of justices elected its own executive. The first of those who is said to have presided at Cedar Run was Thomas Harrison. Others who came later were James Scott, Howson Hooe, Richard Blackburn and Bernard Ewell.

The land passed from the Fitzhughs to the Ashmores by marriage and later to the Howsons. Mr. Allen Howson (great-grandfather to Master MacDuff Green who appears in the pictures herewith) willed the land to Allen Green who sold it to the Bertrams.

The Junior committee, of which Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton is chairman, had placed in the marker a history of the work, a list of the present county officers, a copy of The Journal giving the celebration program, and other small items of interest, all secured in a metal box which will remain there for the times to come.

JUNIOR LEAGUE REPORT READ

An excellent minstrel show, directed by Miss Virginia Speiden, instructor of music in the school, was given and $75.00 realized. This was added to the music fund.

The athletic association has taken in $150.31 this year, part of this being used to equip the gymnasium. We were very fortunate in winning the county championship in basketball for which we received both the boys' and girls' banners.

One of the outstanding achievements of the Junior League has been the securing of the moving picture, "The Life and Times of Washington." This beautiful and artistic production was made by the Eastman Film Company of Rochester, N. Y., at the request of the Bi-centennial Commission.

A very important piece of work has been a clean-up campaign with Miss Elizabeth Beavers as our faithful chairman. Each week certain classes have been held responsible by a student committee for keeping the rooms and grounds in order.

The county finals of the national oratorical contest were held here and although our entrant, Miss Hattie Mae Partlow, did not win, she had a very excellent paper.

A four-act play, "Out of Court," was presented by the senior class under the direction of Miss Lulu Metz, instructor of Senior English. $50.00 was realized and with this the class planned to lay a walk from the street to the school. By a request of the senior class and the Senior League, the School Board added the amount necessary to complete the pavement.

We are also very grateful to the firm of Brown and Hooff who furnished a great part of the materials at cost-price. Most of you had the pleasure of coming over our fine new walk tonight and I hope you are as greatly pleased as we that this construction has been completed.

The Junior League has raised approximately $366.00 this year through the play, the athletic association and its other departments.

Respectfully submitted June 3, 1932.
ANN BRADFORD, President.

"Aim Is Only 10% of Billiards"

"True aim is only the starting point of a billiard champion," says the wizard of 18.2 ballline. "Eye—to guide that aim; nerves—to keep it steady under stress; touch and timing—to control it; endurance—to combat fatigue; and above all, a chess brain—to see ahead and plan accordingly; all these are equally essential. To get your name in the record-book, you've got to have everything!"

Jake Schaefer

TAKE a cue from Jake Schaefer, Jr. Real gasoline must have everything, too. To be gum free is not enough. To be free from sulphur is not enough. To be low priced is not enough.

If it causes excessive carbon deposits you are likely to pay for it twice. Once at the pump and again for needless carbon jobs in the repair shop.

1932 gasoline must have everything. "Standard" 1932 gasoline has everything.

It gives quick starting for traffic jams. Smooth and silent power when you need it. Added miles of low-cost, trouble-free transportation. Keeps your car out of repair shop. Saves you money.

Read the list below. Check it. It spells savings. A sweet engine. Next time you buy gasoline buy "Standard."

It has everything a real gasoline should have.

"STANDARD" HAS EVERYTHING! Check it!

- ✓ CARBON-LESS—Spark plugs, pistons, cylinders and valves stay clean. Saves repair bills.
- ✓ GUM-LESS—No clogged manifolds—no sticky valves. Cuts repair bills.
- ✓ SULPHUR-LESS—No corrosion. Saves repair bills.
- ✓ ANTI-KNOCK—Extra power, less noise, less upkeep cost through reduced hammering of pistons and bearings. Cuts repair bills.
- ✓ QUICK STARTING—Minimum use of choke—quick power and pick-up—less contamination of crankcase oil.
- ✓ "BUBBLE-FREE"—No stalling and bucking from vapor bubbles in gas line and carburetor—even, steady flow of power in the hottest motor.
- ✓ ODOR-LESS—Refined "sweet"—no disagreeable smells.
- ✓ CRYSTAL CLEAR—Made clear—stays clear—a guarantee of perfect cleanliness. Saves money.
- ✓ UNIFORM—Same quality and results always, everywhere. Always more miles for your money.
