PROGRAM CENTERS ON NAVAL GRAD

Manassas Lad Kiwanis Guest of Honor.

O. D. Waters, jr., the pride of Manassas, and a newly-fledged naval officer, gave a very brief and very modest talk to the Kiwanis Club last week after he had sat by/and listened to a number of eulogies of his scholastic prowess (Yeh, C. D., sr., stood the strain also, but not as well). Hunton Tiffany introduced the male side of the House of Tiffany at school, and the latter made a very clever HOUSE VOTES little speech which gives promise of future professional effort. Young Tiffany is at William and Mary doing some preparatory work for the Bar

Why do successful advertisers lace their advertisements regularly? They never skip, Would it not save a lot of money to merely advertise occasionally? The answer is contained in a pithy slogan ecently uttered by Bruce Barton, when he said:

"Time to stop whittling. You can't advertise today and quit tomorrow. You are not talking to a mass meeting. You are talking to a parade."

WISTER'S BOOK RE-CALLED

Famous "Virginian" Now Resident of Calgary. Brother of "Doc" Johnson of Manassas.

Who does not thrill at "The Virginian"? With screams of laughter thousands have watched Dustin Farnum in this famous role straightening out the baby situation and quieting the angry mothers. A thousand audiences have breathlessly listened to his pleas with his pal to quit "rustling" before passing final last sentence on poor Steve whom he sheltered as long as he could in honor do so. And when he finally even set love aside to meet the bully in the last fray unvaryingly he brought down the house.

Yesterday a copy of "The Eye Opener," a paper published in Calgary, Canada, brings to light the fact that the original of this famous character is now a resident of Cochrane, Alberta (Canada), and is none other than "Dad" Johnson, otherwise Everett Johnson who has been a resident of Calgary for forty-two years. "Dad" says he first met Wister at the Ranchman's Club of Cheyenne. Telephone users in Purcellville, "Dad" says that in reality Steve got "kick." POLLARD MAKES ECONOMY MOVE

Cuts Ten Per Cent from State Expenditures.

On account of decreasing revenues Governor Pollard has ordered a general slash of ten per cent in state expenditures. The Federal Government goes right on spending, regardless of decreasing revenues, but Virgreeted his friends heartily. With a ginia does not let huge deficits accumulate before noticin that the governmental expenditures are exceeding revenues.

The governor has stated that he expects the cut to be applied all along the line and that any branch of the state government desiring exemption from his order will have to prove that it is entitled to such consideration under the law.

In addition to the branches of the state government operating under the general fund, such agencies as the highway department, game, motor vehicle and insurance divisions, which operate under special revenues segregated to them, will also be included in the cut.

It is believed that the cut will not apply to county officers since they automatically go on a salary basis after July 1. It is also believed that the cut need not be applied to teachers' salaries, since the ten per cent can be taken from building program instead of salaries.

MANASSAS W. C. T. U. STANDS BY LEADER, MRS. ELLA A. BOOLE, NATIONAL PRESIDENT

The Manassas Woman's Christian Temperance Union stands for Prohibition Observance and Enforcement, not Repeal or Resubmission.

The June W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. A. S. Boatwright Wednesday, June 22, at 3 p.m. A full attendance is desired.

Why W.C.T.U. Opposes Resubmission. Referring to a question being asked frequently, we give some of the many reasons why the Woman's Christian Temperance Union is opposed to resubmission in the words of our national president, Mrs. Ella A. Boole:

"The wets propose resubmission to be ratified by state conventions, a new and untried method of dealing with amendments. Under the guise of giving the people a chance to express themselves this opens the way to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment. served his country in the trenches of ginia present at the cut-over to the France, but returned at the close of new system included Lawrence E. Many states would refuse to incur the expense of a state convention called simply for the purpose of refusing to ratify. Ratification would probably be long delayed and though prohibition would still remain in the Constitution, its future would be an unsettled question, its enforcement hampered through uncertainty.
