These exhibits will be in place for several days in advance of the main program on September 30. Dairy breed associations have been asked to co-operate.

4-H CLUB GIRLS

VISIT KIWANIS

Nokesville Club Presents a Very Interesting Program.

The Kiwanis Club was given another vocational treat on Friday night when Professor Pullen ushered in Miss Pitts and a group of her Nokesville charges. (Jack, you are building up a reputation for good programs.—Ed. note)

Preliminary to the program, Miss Pitts explained just what 4-H club work meant, stating figures to show the growth and going into considerable detail to illustrate the extent of the system.

Mrs. W. R. Free, the club leader chosen by the Nokesville girls, made a brief talk, and then Miss Allen, one of the club girls, with the assistance of one of the girls as a model, gave a very complete and graphic demonstration of correct postures.

Then the Nokesville girls strolled one by one and gave the Kiwanis a look-over of the pretty dresses which they had made for themselves this spring.

With Mrs. Bob Smith at the piano and Miss Geraldine Shepherd, one of the ranking 4-H members in the state, as leader, the girls sang a number of club songs to the great delight of their audience.

AUTO DRIVERS

TO BE EXAMINED

The State Highway Department has announced examinations for those desiring to operate cars and not already experienced operators. The points designated this month are Centerville, July 18; Manassas, July 28; Independent Hill, July 29, and Dumfries, July 30.

NEW STATE CANNING

ADEN LEAGUE

On Friday night, July 8, at 8, the Aden League will meet for its regular monthly meeting. Mr. Worth Stark, Manassas comedian, and other attractions will make the evening an enjoyable one for everyone.

Come—otherwise you will always regret it.

RELIGIOUS-EDUCATION CONFERENCE

The Virginia Council of Religious Education will conduct a conference at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville from July 11-16. Dr. Forrest L. Knapp, Chicago Director of Leadership Training, will be director of this conference. He will be assisted by Miss Mary Skinner of Nashville, Tenn., director of Children's Work; Dr. L. B. Edworthy of Charleston, W. Va., director of Leadership Training and Young People's Work; Dr. Charles W. Brewbaker of Dayton, Ohio, director of Evangelism, and Dr. Henry McLoughlin, director of Country Church Work.

The various state leaders in religious education are trying to secure the attendance of those who may later be used as teachers in standard training schools and it is thought that this coaching conference will serve as the training ground for a number of people who may later be used in training other leaders in their respective fields and it will also be of very great value for those who may be preparing to teach in week-day schools of religion. It is hoped there will be a large attendance.

STATES MAY SETTLE LIQUOR ISSUE

Pollard Sees Resubmission Only Solution to Prohibition.

"No matter which party is victorious, the prohibition question is to be resubmitted to the States where it will be decided regardless of political affiliations," Governor Pollard said upon his return to his desk in the Capitol, after attending the Chicago convention.

A lifelong dry, the Governor will stump for the Roosevelt-Garner ticket, he announced, adding: "I am glad to be able to say that there is not the slightest doubt in my mind that the highest good of the country calls loudly for the election of Roosevelt and Garner."

Governor Pollard's statement follows:

"There is no good reason why any voter, Republican or Democrat, should desert his party on account of prohibition. The battle should be fought on economic issues. No matter which party is victorious, the prohibition question is going to be resubmitted to the States, where it will be decided, regardless of political affiliations. In no event will the people of Virginia be deprived of the right of making their own laws concerning the regulation or prohibition of the liquor traffic. I confess I am more concerned with the sobriety in my own State than in any other State in the Union, not from any lack of interest in our sister States, but because we should not and cannot control the traffic within other States against the will of their people.

"In the convention I voted against the liquor plank of the Democratic platform. It did not please me, but no Democrat ought to demand or expect to have his way in all matters. Having made his fight within the party, he ought to be satisfied if the candidates and the platform, taken in their entirety, better serve the interest of the country than the platform and candidates of the opposing party. I am glad to be able to say that there is not the slightest doubt in my mind that the highest good of the country calls loudly for the election of Roosevelt and Garner. It is a strong ticket and shall have my hearty support."

WILL OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Famous Confederate Victory to Be Celebrated.

Hon. R. Walton Moore, former member of Congress from this district, will be the leading speaker at the exercises to be held on Bull Run Battlefield Park, near Stone House.

This being Bi-centennial year, there will be additional features touching on this phase.

All Confederate families, their friends and associates have been extended a cordial invitation to attend by the committee which is composed of Hon. John W. Rust, State Senator, and president of the association, Rufus Pearson, vice-president, and F. R. Fravel, custodian.

Refreshments will be on sale as usual.

This is one of the great anniversaries in Prince William county and never fails to draw immense crowds.

BYRD REPORTS ON CHICAGO CONVENTION

BACK FROM THE BATTLE

Hon. Thos. H. Lion of Manassas, delegate to the Chicago convention, reports an orderly meeting full of quiet determination to put the party over this fall. He says there was great enthusiasm on all sides for Roosevelt and he was picked to win from the start. Mr. Lion says the general attitude from all sides indicates a big Democratic victory. Mrs. Lion accompanied her husband to Chicago.

BYRD ROAD LAW EFFECTIVE JULY 1

State Takes over 40,000 Miles of County Roads.

Last Friday the State of Virginia assumed control of 40,000 miles of county highways and prepared to start maintenance and construction work.

The new law eliminates county road tax levies other than for debts already existing and the state takes the county share of gas tax. A sum of approximately $3,000,000 is appropriated to supplement the gas tax. In towns of over 3500 population an allotment of $1500 a mile for maintenance of state highways is allowed.

Only a few counties, where special conditions exist, are making plans to vote to retain their local road systems. Among these are Henrico, Northampton, Chesterfield, Arlington, Fairfax, Nottoway, Warwick and Roanoke.

Culpeper has just decided to remain in the state system and plans for a special election there have been dropped.

Road affairs in Prince William are expected to be administered from headquarters at Warrenton.

W. C. T. U. INSTITUTE

The W. C. T. U. Institute will be held in Grace M. E. church Wednesday, July 13, beginning at 10 o'clock, with an all-day session. The state president, Mrs. Hoge, will preside over both sessions. Dr. Hoge, a forceful speaker on temperance, is on the program, also other speakers of note. Members of other unions will be present.

The members of the Manassas Union are asked to bring their contribution to the lunch, to the church early on Wednesday morning.

FIRE DEPARTMENT CUP TO MANASSAS

Local Boys Are Honored at Orange Celebration.

In the four-man hose coupling contest at Orange on July 4, the Manassas Fire Department won first honors and was presented with a handsome silver cup.

On the winning team were Wilson Kite, Mason Mayhugh, Floyd Vetter, and Sedric Saunders.

Manassas always makes a good showing wherever it is represented, but the community is particularly proud of this performance because it represents effective action in time of fire danger.

TAX REFUND TO BE BARRED SOON

Judge McCarthy Issues Important Ruling.

Sitting at a special session of the court this week (July 6), Judge McCarthy settled a question which has been before residents of Gainesville district since the bond issue for schools in 1930 was declared void.

Judge McCarthy ruled that refunds for levies made on personal property had already been barred by the statute of limitations and that the same situation would speedily deny refund on real property levies. It is now thought that most of the applications not already filed will be before the court when it convenes in October.

Licenses were granted for soft drinks to the following: Maconaughey and Taylor, Woodbridge; R. S. Hall, Occoquan; Peter Raffel, Quantico, and Henry H. Butler, Gainesville.

J. Jenkyn Davies, attorney-at-law, was introduced to the court by R. A. Hutchison, and admitted to practice.

The cases of the county against Supervisors C. C. Lynn and J. L. Dawson were also settled at this special session. In the case of the former, the plaintiff declared that satisfactory evidence of payment had been made. In the case of the latter, a jury trial was necessary. This jury, of which Worth Stork was foreman, heard the evidence and gave a verdict in Mr. Dawson's behalf.

MR. AND MRS. RATCLIFFE ENTERTAIN AT WIDEWATER

Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe entertained delightfully over the Fourth at their bungalow at Widewater. The house party included Mrs. Eula Holt Merchant and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Murray of Chantilly, Major and Mrs. Fred Patterson of Washington, Misses Jane Walter, Sallie Lewis, Messrs. Charles Walton Lewis of Manassas, Rector Green and James Armstrong of Alexandria.

The host and hostess were assisted in entertaining by their charming young daughter, Miss Rose Ratcliffe.

U. D. C. MEETS WITH MRS. COOK

The Secretary, Mrs. Hibbs, Reports an Unusually Large Attendance.

Despite the inclement weather, a large crowd was in attendance at the July meeting of the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., which was held in the home of Mrs. Mitchell Cook with Mrs. Sam Thornton assistant hostess.

The meeting was opened with prayer led by Mrs. Hodge with the president, Mrs. Ashford, presiding. Reports from standing committees were heard.

Attention was called to the recent illness of Miss Lou Moxley, our senior member. The relief committee was instructed to convey the sympathy of the chapter accompanied by a dainty basket of fruit.

Four photos of soldiers of Prince William county, who took part in the War between the States were to be turned over to Mrs. J. B. T. Thornton, member to committee to secure and frame pictures of Confederate veterans of Prince William.

A most interesting letter was read from Mrs. Laura McDaniels Raymond giving a pen picture of the 42nd Reunion of the Confederate veterans held in Richmond which she had attended.

Mrs. Albert Speiden, delegate from the Memorial Association, followed with a glowing account of her trip. After reading of the letter and the remarks by Mrs. Speiden, the chapter felt they had almost attended the reunion in person, certainly in spirit.

Miss Speiden gave a talk to the chapter on Southern music. She insisted the daughters should learn the words of Dixie and sing it at each meeting. She gave the members of the chapter their first lesson for which she received a rising vote of thanks.

The meeting was turned over to our historian, Mrs. Robert Hutchison. A sketch of Basil Gildersleeve was read. Several members who had been so fortunate as to claim this scholar and gentleman as a friend told of instances of his life.

The Daughters were urged to subscribe to The Veteran.

After the meeting adjourned, the Daughters enjoyed a social period. Delicious refreshments were served and the one regret of the pleasant afternoon was we could not have our assistant hostess in the room during our meeting as she was indisposed. The sympathy of the chapter was extended to her by our president.

The chapter accepted the invitation of Mrs. Maude Kincheloe, with Mrs. James Conner and Miss Minnie Conner assistant hostesses, to meet with them in August.

VIRGINIA HITCH-HIKING LAW WILL BE ENFORCED

C. F. Joyner, jr., assistant director of the division of motor vehicles, has stated State police are expected to do all in their power to render effective in Virginia the new law against hitch-hiking, which became operative June 21.

The division has not been advised of any arrests on charges of violating the new law. Within a few days 50,000 cards bearing the wording of the law will be distributed throughout the state in an effort to inform the public that the law now is in effect and will be rightly enforced.

"KAFFA" WINS FIRST PRIZE

Mr. Carl Kincheloe's beautiful horse, "Kaffa," won first prize at the Culpeper Horse Show, July 5. There were many fine beauties competing with "Kaffa."

Our National Committeeman Discusses Chicago Convention.

Virginia Joined Roosevelt Parade before Final Ballot.

The Democracy of Virginia must not repeat our mistake of 1928 in delaying our organization. We should begin immediately to organize every precinct for the fall campaign. With Roosevelt and Garner we should and will win a sweeping victory in November. We have differences within our party, however, which may not be healed before the election, and we must appeal to every Democratic and independent voter.

Roosevelt was nominated with virtual unanimity by the states of the west and south. His speech of acceptance was a manly and constructive utterance, carrying to all who heard him the conviction of his high qualities of statesmanship and his sincerity.

Never before has the Democratic party faced a greater responsibility than confronts it now. In our party lies the main hope for world recovery. The conditions from which we suffer today have been encouraged and in large part created by Republican policies. No indications exist that the Republican party intends to rectify the injustices that have been done a large part of our citizens that a few might profit.

The Virginia delegation at Chicago had mainly at heart the unity and success of the party. At our caucus we declared that a reduction in taxation by curtailing governmental expenses was the paramount issue before the American people. This platform as adopted recognized by declaring in the first plank for a substantial reduction in all governmental expenses.

We voted as a unit against abrogating the two-thirds rule and against the seceding of Long's delegation from Louisiana. This delegation was appointed by a committee in defiance of every principle of decent politics. On the majority and minority report on prohibition the delegation by unanimous consent voted without the unit rule, eleven votes being cast for the majority report and thirteen for the minority report. On the fourth ballot when California announced the vote for Roosevelt the Virginia standard joined the parade of banners before the vote was taken.

I do not attempt at this time to discuss the issues of the campaign but as national committeeman I urge an immediate organization of our party machinery in every precinct in the State. The time to start working is now.

I deeply appreciate the partiality shown me by the Virginia people, and the loyalty of the Virginia delegation. I endeavored to so use the confidence reposed in me as to promote our party success.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

On Friday, July 29, beginning at 10 o'clock, the county Sunday school convention will be held at the Presbyterian church in Manassas. At night a program will be given by the young people from various churches of the county.

By special effort we have been able to secure Dr. Henry Tralle of New York City to be with us during the day, giving a short talk both morning and afternoon and giving an address at night. Dr. Tralle is one of North America's greatest Sunday school workers.

Rev. Minor C. Miller, state secretary, and other able speakers will also give addresses.

We trust that all Sunday school workers throughout the county will greatly appreciate the opportunity of spending a day and night of real spiritual value, also the invitation that has been extended by the good people of the Presbyterian church to hold our convention there. Let us all plan to be present.

CATHARPIN

Mrs. Katie Cushing White of Wythville, Va., is visiting relatives and friends in the Sudley neighborhood this week.

Mr. Frank Williams was a weekend guest at the home of Mrs. Jennie McIntosh last week and attended services at Sudley on Sunday morning.
Mr. Williams was formerly employed in this community but is now manager of a large estate near Shep-herdstown, W. Va.

Miss Katharine Pattie started last week on a motor trip to Des Moines, Iowa, with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hartshorn of Washington and expect to be gone during the month of July.
Rev. and Mrs. K. D. Swecker and daughter, Nancy Lee, left on Monday morning for a visit to their daughter in York, Pa., and expect to remain about a week or ten days.

Miss Bertha Pattie spent Sunday night at Lawn Vale visiting her school friend, Miss Anne Robertson.

A new bridge is soon to be erected under state specifications over Bull Run at the Putnam ford between Loudoun and Prince William. It is understood the two counties join in the project. We never hear anything about a bridge over Lick branch below Catharpin. We wonder why. This is one of the most important crossings in the neighborhood and at times dangerous to say nothing of great inconvenience especially during high water.

Mrs. W. S. Brower and son were Oakwood callers on Monday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Holmes Robertson and daughter, Frances, were Delaplane visitors on Sunday last.

Betty and Frances Brower were guests of their grandmother, Mrs.
Larkin, this week.

Threshing is now the business of the community and the wheat yield very disappointing. Farms that usually produce from fifteen to twenty or more bushels per acre are now producing from six to ten. The wheat fields have at last joined the ranks of the depressionists; last year they refused to do it and gave us a good crop, but the influence of the 18th amendment was too much; they had to yield.

TARZAN HAS NEW TRICKS FOR FILM

A number of new tricks will be performed by "Tarzan," Ken Maynard's wonderful trained horse, in the new Tiffany Productions' western, "The Pocahontas Kid," on the bill at the Dixie Theatre next Saturday, July 9.

Between pictures, Maynard devotes a large part of his time teaching his intelligent mount new tricks which may come handy in a picture. The horse is already master of a repertoire of tricks which makes him the most valuable piece of horse-flesh in southern California.

"Tarzan" appears in every picture with his master and is thoroughly camera-wise. He needs very little direction of any nature.

HAYMARKET

Mr. Charles E. Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Moore Jordan motored to the University on Saturday, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
E. T. Caunters for the week end and Monday.

The St. Paul's branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of which Miss Anne W.
Williamson is president met with Miss Lora Glascock on Thursday afternoon of last week. After the business of the meeting was disposed of, refreshments were served by the hostess, and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Courtney Meade and Miss

"YOUNG AMERICA," DRAMA OF MODERN YOUTH, HERE NEXT WEEK

The drama of boys at the threshold of manhood, facing the several paths leading to honor, to crime, to respectability, and undecided which to take, forms the background that Director Frank Borzage chose for his romance of youth, "Young America," coming to the screen of the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday.

Borzage has woven this setting into the story and the result is a film that is said to be one of the most arresting productions of 1932. Spencer Tracy, Doris Kenyon, Beryl Mercer and Ralph Bellamy have the principal "grown-up" roles, with Tommy Conlon, Raymond Borzage and Dawn O'Day as the leading youngsters of the picture.

The story opens in the juvenile court of a middle-western city, with a sympathetic judge trying to solve the difficulties besetting the boys coming before him. One of these lads has the undeserved reputation of being "the worst boy in town," but his good qualities impress the wife of the town's leading druggist, and when the boy later gets into trouble through a desperate attempt to help his chum's grandmother, she intervenes—much to her husband's amazement.

As a result, the boy is taken into the druggist's home on a promise of good behavior. But circumstances compel him to break his trust and the druggist, enraged, gives his wife the choice between them. Accordingly the youngster makes the choice himself and departs, only to be sought in vain when the truth comes to light. The dramatic situation that brings about the exciting climax is said to give the picture its final "punch" in a highly satisfactory manner.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST

The Word of GodBIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.GOD WILL GUIDE THEE:

Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle. I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go.—Psalm 32:9, 8.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Who is this man who captured the Democratic convention almost by acclamation? What has he done to justify his selection as Presidential nominee of the Democratic party? What will he do, if elected to the high office of Chief Executive? These are questions which are running through the public mind at this time. Some of them can be answered now, others will be answered in due time.

Roosevelt went to Chicago with the support of thirty-nine out of forty-eight states, an achievement in pre-convention campaigning almost without precedent. His candidacy proved acceptable to all outstanding groups of the party, with the exception of Tammany Hall.

Quoting from the Christian Science Monitor, "Not only to geographical sections but to diverse strata of the personnel of his party Mr. Roosevelt proved extraordinary acceptable. Conservatives and radicals, southern aristocrats, northern farmers, western drys and eastern wets, all merged in the Roosevelt ranks. Only the machines of the big cities stood out in opposition. No doubt part of this unusual display of Democratic unanimity was due to a keen desire to avoid a disastrous deadlock and in part to the Roosevelt organization built by an amazingly voluminous correspondence with party leaders all over the country. But most of all, probably, it resulted from the remarkable appeal the Governor of New York makes to the rank and file.

"The strange bond which seems to exist instinctively between this man of wealthy, cultured and aristocratic background and the poverty-stricken, uncouth and plebeian 'forgotten man' is not really explained by the career of this Democratic Roosevelt. First noticed as a crusading but eminently respectable editor of The Crimson at Harvard, then as a young lawyer jumping into the New York State Senate through a surprising victory in a staunch Republican district, young Roosevelt continued to attract attention by a successful revolt against Tammany which blocked the election of 'Blue-Eyed Billy' Sheehan to the United States Senate. Then he worked vigorously and effectively for Woodrow Wilson and won for himself the Assistant Secretaryship of the Navy, naval affairs having been a hobby from boyhood. In that post he was energetic and popular, and in 1920 he was nominated for Vice-President. Roosevelt's temperate, clean family life, his intense feeling for the working masses and his long heritage of Americanism all appeal to the public very strongly.

The dominant strain in his speech of acceptance was for business reconditioning and fair play for the working man. This was not a spectacular move for the grandstand. All of his public service has been filled with kind consideration for those who labor for their daily bread.

Deliberate, conscientious, honorable, experienced—it would seem that we need him just now.

EVERY DAY
(From My Old Scrap-book)

I goes to church on Sunday an' I listens to de text.
It sho'ly helps my feelin's when my mind is gettin' vexed.
De Sabbath religion puts a calmness in de heart—
But everyday religion needs a chance to do its part.

Dar's de Monday religion when you's got to go to work,
An' de Tuesday religion when you musn' stop to shirk.
Wednesday, Thursday, Friday an' Saturday as well
Needs everyday religion 'thout no ringin' of de bell.

One day a learnin' 'bout de goodness an' de light;
De other six a-showin' dat you got de lesson right.

Sunday brings us comfort wif de beauty an' de rest,
But de everyday religion is what puts you to de test.

SCIENCE IN INDUSTRY

American manufacturers now excel the Germans in appropriations for scientific research in industry. Through microscopic examination chemists are reducing waste, improving present products and creating new markets for them. The story of how science is going into industry in a big way, revealing things that always were but which were never used because they were not known, thus solving many perplexing business problems, is told in an interesting article appearing in the Sunday Magazine of The Washington Star next Sunday, July 10.

When TEETHING makes HIM FUSSY

One of the most important things you can do to make a teething baby comfortable is to see that little bowels do their work of carrying off waste matter promptly and regularly. For this nothing is better than Castoria, a pure vegetable preparation specially made for babies and children. Castoria acts so gently you can give it to young infants to relieve colic. Yet it is always effective, for older children, too. Remember, Castoria contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics—is absolutely harmless. When your baby is fretful with teething or a food upset, give a cleansing dose of Castoria. Be sure you get genuine Castoria with the name: Chas. H. Fletcher

POULTRY FACTS

MILK'S HIGH PLACE IN FLOCK'S RATION

Efficient Egg-Making Food at Present Prices.

Milk, at present prices a relatively cheap food, deserves a place in the poultry ration, declares P. B. Zumbro, extension specialist in poultry, husbandry for the Ohio State university.

If liquid milk is available on the farm, this form is the cheapest to use. For every gallon of liquid milk fed daily to each one hundred hens, the protein concentrate in the mash may be reduced 5 per cent, he says.

If liquid milk is not available, dried milk may be used in the mash.

When liquid milk is not available for the poultry ration, the following grain-mash ration is recommended by the poultry specialist. For the mash: ground yellow corn, 40 pounds; ground wheat, 20 pounds; ground oats, 20 pounds; dried milk, 5 pounds; meat scraps, 15 pounds; salt, 1 pound. For the grain: cracked corn, 50 pounds; wheat, 40 pounds; and oats or barley, 10 pounds.

A moist mash fed in the summer will stimulate the poultry appetite and result in increased production, says Zumbro. The regular laying mash may be used in making the moist mash. For each 100 hens, 2 pounds of the mash moistened with milk or buttermilk until it is in a crumbly condition, is sufficient for a daily feeding. It is not necessary to have special feeders for this special moist mash: It may be fed on top of the dry mash in the dry mash hoppers.

Alfalfa Urged as Best Crop for Poultry Yard

In making a choice of all forage crops for poultry yards, select alfalfa, advises a writer in the Prairie Farmer. Alfalfa is a permanent crop that will grow throughout the entire season without cultivation and can withstand more hot, dry weather than almost any other crop. Bluegrass is good pasture.

If you cannot have alfalfa you may want to sow a temporary crop and we suggest oats for the early part of the year and sudan grass for the rest of the season. Sow the oats during the later part of May or early in June and seed the sudan grass.

Farmers are getting away from the idea of a permanent poultry yard for their fowls. They are moving their houses each year to new ground. Many of them use their meadows or pastures for range, thus giving the birds ground that has had no chickens on it for one to two years.

Grass for Chicks

The barer the ground, the smaller the chance to raise good chicks. So a good many years of experience and experimentation have proved. Early chicks are always more desirable, because they grow better, have less mortality, the cockerels are ready for market earlier and hence bring more money, and the pullets are ready to lay earlier in the fall and winter when eggs are high.

As to why bare ground doesn't help raise good chicks, authorities point out that a good growth of alfalfa, clover, or bluegrass insures a liberal supply of green feed, is much more sanitary than bare ground, and is an insurance against disease.

Laying Hens Need Lime

The importance of keeping hens well supplied with limestone, oyster shell or some other form of calcium carbonate is emphasized by results obtained in investigations.

Where no limestone or oyster shell was fed, but the ration was otherwise the same, the investigators observed that:

The hatchability of fertilized eggs was diminished, finally becoming zero. The percentage of infertile eggs increased.

Fewer eggs were laid. The eggs became smaller. The eggs became lighter. The chicks hatched weighed less.

CHEVALIER'S SONGS FIT INTO STORY OF HIS LATEST PICTURE

Making songs and musical score rise out of the action and belong to the story being told is the basis of the new technique of screen music inaugurated by "The Smiling Lieutenant" and being followed in Maurice Chevalier's new picture.

This is the explanation given by Oscar Straus, composer of "The Chocolate Soldier." Straus wrote the music for Maurice Chevalier's "The Smiling Lieutenant" and is the composer of the musical score for that star's new Paramount production, "One Hour With You."

"There is little secret in the method employed so successfully in 'The Smiling Lieutenant,'" Straus says. "It is merely a matter of judicious placing and construction of these songs."

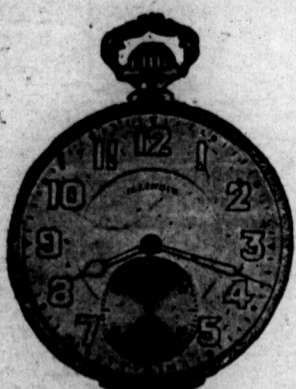

"The easy, lazy way would be to place musical numbers at certain intervals. Then, one merely would have to think of a tune and song and force it in. This would merely interrupt the story, thus hurting the plot and annoying the audience."

"So, our method is to make the songs natural and an integral part of our story. Audiences come to see a play. Music should help the audience to enjoy the play. Music and action must flow together. Music should fit the situation and conversation."

"This is always true of successful operas or operettas. If audiences merely want to hear music, they go to concerts. The best 'hit' songs ever written in operas were to accentuate action. One of my most successful songs, 'My Hero' in 'The Chocolate Soldier,' was written to express a young girl's feelings. We had no idea it was a hit. But, because it expressed the feeling the audience had with the heroine, it became a 'hit' song."

The songs Maurice Chevalier sings in his recent pictures all fit into the structure of the play, just as a cut-out section fits into a picture puzzle. His song "Louise" in "Innocents of Paris" aptly illustrates the point in question, as does also the one so effectively sung by Claudette Colbert and Miriam Hopkins in "The Smiling Lieutenant," "Pep Up Your Lingerie."

This structural synchronization of songs with the story of the play has been carefully observed in Chevalier's new picture, "One Hour With You," which comes to the Dixie theatre next Monday. In this picture Jeanette MacDonald again plays the leading feminine role, as she did in "The Love Parade."
