

SMITH TO SPEAK AT TOURNAMENT

All Roads Will Lead to Haymarket on Aug. 18.

The annual Bull Run Grange Tournament and Field Day at Haymarket on August 18 promises to be one of the outstanding events of the year in northern Virginia. No effort is being spared toward furnishing an interesting, educational and spectacular program by the committee on arrangements. A well-known band will furnish music throughout the day between the various events, beginning with a concert at 10:00 p.m.

The citizenship feature of the forenoon program at which successful candidates will be awarded Citizenship Diplomas is unique in that as far as known it has never been carried out before in this country. Rigid tests with questions pertaining to governmental administration have been required of those receiving these diplomas by the Rev. W. L. Carpenter, chairman of the citizenship committee.

Following the presentation of the citizenship diplomas at 10:00 a.m., the Hon. Howard W. Smith, Congressman of the Eighth district, will speak.

At 11:00 a.m. a baseball game between Aldie and Hickory Grove is scheduled.

At 2 p.m. the charge to the Knights will be delivered by Hawes T. Davies of Manassas. Immediately following the tournament will be held for amateur riders. The successful riders will name the Queen and her Maids of Honor and coronation ceremonies held for the queen.

The afternoon program will close with a baseball game in which the formidable teams of Greenwich and Catharpin will compete.

Lunch will be on sale on the grounds at noon.

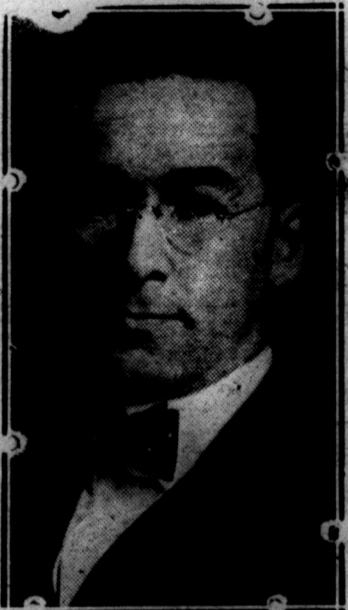

Last but not least will be the Tournament Ball on the night of the eighteenth at the Haymarket Masonic Hall. An excellent dance orchestra will be on hand for the opening of the royal set which will be led by the queen and her maids of honor and the winning knights of the tournament.

FIRE BOYS TO BE KIWANIS GUESTS

Next Friday night (the 19th) the Kiwanis Club will give its annual feed to the local fire department. This is a yearly affair given in recognition of the department and to bring the club into closer contact with those who work gratis to preserve their property from fire.

The club sponsors flashed Charmie Sinclair as their "ace-in-the-hole" for a good program, and Charmie, who has an unusually excellent base voice, sang several excellent numbers which all hands greatly enjoyed.

It was voted to enter a float in the dairy festival in September.

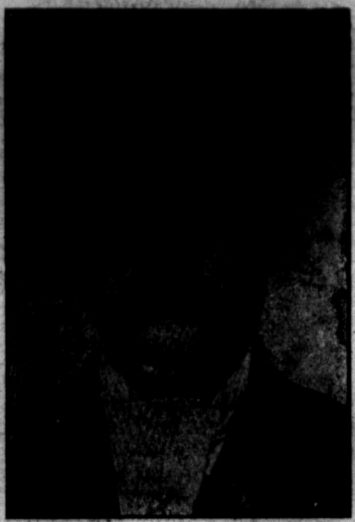

DORSEY W. HYDE, Jr.

Tomorrow night the club will have as its guest Mr. Dorsey W. Hyde, Jr., secretary of the Washington Chamber of Commerce and editor of that organization's official magazine, "Greater Washington." Mr. Hyde will speak on "Washington, Your Neighbor City."

Mr. Hyde is a well-known contributor to various magazines on articles of civic, government and research problems. He is a lecturer on community organization at George Washington University. He is a member of the Washington Rotary Club.

Before being elected secretary of the Washington Chamber of Commerce, November 1926, Mr. Hyde was assistant manager of the Civic De-

WILLIAM HILL BROWN

William Hill Brown, for many years prominent in business, civic and political circles of Prince William county, died suddenly at his home in Manassas at noon on Wednesday, August 10. He had been in failing health for some time but the end came very unexpectedly.

The son of Robert C. Brown and Susan Ruth Coons and the youngest of eight children, he leaves one sister, Mrs. Henry Coons of Culpeper, his widow and four children, Mrs. Stewart McBryde, Mrs. Daisie Brown Williams, William Hill, Jr., and Miss Garnette Travers Brown, and one grandson, Paul Scott Williams, Jr.

Mr. Brown was born at "Oakley" in Culpeper county on November 16, 1856, where he was reared, going to public school until in his middle teens when he stopped to work on his father's farm. When a very young man, he was made tax collector of the county and for several years was deputy treasurer under Russell Smith.

He joined the Masonic Lodge at Brandy where he also affiliated himself with the Baptist church of which he was a faithful and lifelong member.

He was still quite young when he launched into business for himself, taking up saw-milling which he carried on for a number of years in Culpeper county.

On January 31, 1894, he married Miss Daisie Beckham Hooft, of Charles Town, W. Va. Their honeymoon was to Florida. It was on their return home that Mr. Brown stopped off at Manassas, and decided that here was his life's work cut out. Following up this decision, he located here in 1894, opening up under the firm name of Taylor and Brown, with T. O. Taylor as his senior partner. This partnership was superseded in 1897 when A. A. Hooft, his brother-in-law, came into the firm as a junior partner, and the firm became Brown and Hooft.

Mr. Brown was consistently an advocate of progressive town building. At one time, he was vice-president of the League of Virginia Municipalities. At intervals he was a mayor for sixteen years. It was while he was mayor that the town sewer and electric light improvements were inaugurated.

When the grand jubilee was held in 1911, Mr. Brown was mayor and the family has a picture of him taken with the late President William Howard Taft who was the guest of honor on that occasion. The Peace Monument on the courthouse green was unveiled at this time.

The funeral will be held Friday, August 12, at 3:30 p.m., at the Baptist church, Rev. C. P. Ryland officiating, and Rev. A. S. Gibson assisting. Interment will follow in the local cemetery.

William Hill Brown descended from some of Culpeper's oldest and best families and at all times he was consistently a pleasant, affable gentleman of the Old School. He was very sociable, was fond of Southern history and never failed to express his love for his native Culpeper and the people whom he knew and loved in youth.

PICNIC AT LINTON HALL

On Saturday, Aug. 20, an all-day picnic will be held at the Linton Hall Military School for Boys at Bristow, for benefit of All Saints church, Manassas.

There will be refreshments, including chicken dinner, and games, such as bingo and other amusements.

The committee in charge has been making extensive plans and a large attendance is anticipated.

Development Department of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He graduated from Cornell University in 1910 and then took a post graduate course at Sorbonne and College de France, for the 1911-1913 term.

U. D. C. HOME IS PROPOSED

Plans Submitted at Last Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held August 3 at "Birmingham," the home of Mrs. Maude Kincheloe, with Mrs. James Conner and Miss Mamie Conner assistant hostesses.

The meeting convened at 3 p.m. with the president, Mrs. Ashford, in the chair. This was one of the most important and enjoyable meetings of the year.

Mrs. Albert Speiden, chairman of building committee, was enthusiastic over present prospect of building a creditable home for the Daughters and hearty co-operation of entire chapter was solicited. A drawing by Mr. Speiden was shown with which the approximate cost of building would be $4,000.

Mrs. Guthrie gave an interesting account of her trip west and stressed particularly the hearty welcome and entertainment she received from U. D. C. chapters.

Mrs. Hart gave an instructive sketch of the American statesman and member of the Confederate Congress from Alabama, William Lowndes Yancey.

After the historical period delicious refreshments were served.

The chapter cordially accepted the invitation to meet Sept. 7 at the home of Mrs. M. M. Washington with Mrs. J. W. Ellis and Mrs. Nannie Middleton assistant hostesses.

EASTERN STAR PICNIC

Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held a delightful picnic on Tuesday, August 8, at Libeau's Beach near Manassas.

No formal program was attempted, the day being given over to recreation and a general good time. Swimming, rowing and various games such as croquet, horse-shoe and other sports. A water-melon feast in the evening concluded the enjoyable day.

BASEBALL EPIC AT QUANTICO

We often hear of "The Battle of the Century," but Manager J. Hunt Moncreux prefers to refer to the game between his Quantico Indians and Triangle Sunday, August 7, as "The Battle of the Centenarians," referring entirely to the gentlemen occupying the center of the diamond. Having already taken three decisive beatings dealt them by Quantico, Triangle following kept insisting for other games and asking that for this game Kelley be used in the box, and when Moncreux agreed with the understanding that Triangle use their star, Mr. Persons, and that each be allowed to remain on the slab for the entire game, Triangle following agreed, with evident visions of the ancient Kelley fading from the baseball picture under a bombardment of base hits within the shadows of the hills of Old Dumfries. But they, as the Yankee of past history of Old Dumfries, failed to reckon Rebel Strategy and Fighting Spirit. After the first inning the aging bones and achin joints of Rebel Kelley now thoroughly wet with sweat, not perspiration, recalled to the minds of the older fans the Kelley of by-gone days, while Triangle's Star weakened in the sixth and in the lucky inning Quantico put over seven runs for a lead of five adding four in the final inning making final score, Quantico Indians 15, Triangle 6. To those who witnessed the contest Kelley is believed due to remain in baseball's limelight while his opponent once thought worthy of opposing this veteran of many battles appears doomed to the fate provided in Triangle's mind for Kelley.

96 Out of 100 Counties Accept State Control.

FOUR COUNTIES VOTE TO RETAIN COUNTY PLAN

On Tuesday the last chapter of the adoption of State control for secondary roads was written when fourteen of the hundred counties of Virginia voted on the question of state or county administration of the local roads. Of these only four decided to retain local control. These are Arlington, Henrico, Warwick and Nottoway.

In Arlington county the vote was 2356 to 1512 in favor of local control. The Fairfax county vote gave exactly 600 majority in favor of state control. Here the fight was led in favor of the state by Hon. R. Walton Moore, State Senator John W. Rust and former State Senator Walter T. Oliver. The county forces were represented in the speaking platforms by Commonwealth's Attorney Wilson M. Farr and former United States Senator from Kansas, Hon. Jos. L. Bristow.

HON. H. G. SHIRLEY, Chairman of the State Highway Department and MR. A. A. HOOFF, of Manassas, discussing road problems at the Manassas Airport.

In Prince William county no vote was taken, the county having grouped itself with the eighty-six which felt that the state plan would be most acceptable. The other counties voting to remain in the state system were Stafford, Orange, Chesterfield, James City, Nelson, New Kent, Lunenburg, Mecklenburg, Northampton and York.

With the exception of the counties voting on Tuesday the state plans are already perfected and now that the issue has been settled, mapping of the secondary system will be immediately pushed in the eleven counties which have decided to cast their lot with the state.

At the time the bill passed the General Assembly, Governor Byrd is said to have stated that not more than five out of the hundred counties would elect to stay out of the state system. When advised of the outcome yesterday, while attending a meeting of the National Democratic Committee in New York, he stated that the fact that ninety-six out of a hundred counties approved the plan indicates a popular sentiment in favor of reduction of taxes on land and property.

The important question of allotting the $3,000,000 to the various counties now will be taken up. This equalization fund will be apportioned according to the judgment of the State Highway Commission and will be in addition to the gas tax amount which will equal at least what the counties which have stepped out of the state system will receive no part of the huge $3,000,000 equalization fee, and for this reason, it is predicted in Richmond that in due time they will be seeking their way back into the state system, when their taxpayers become restive over their continued taxation for local roads.

BRIDGE CONTRACTS TO BE LET

In another column is a notice of a joint meeting of the Boards of Prince William and Loudoun counties at the time of regular meeting of the local board on August 23.

The purpose is to receive bids for the bridge abutments at Putnam's Ford on Bull Run.

CANCELLED THEIR CUSTOMERS' BILLS

While Nation's talk of moratoriums, the proprietors of a general store in Sloan, Iowa, wiped from their books $75,000 in unpaid bills, because it was "better for all concerned." Every dollar their customers owed them was cancelled. The story of this country storekeeper and his wife, how they made their unusual decision, and how it was carried out to their advantage is told in the Sunday Magazine of The Washington Star next Sunday, August 14.

LOWE RATES HI' AS STEVEDORE

If worst comes to worst, Edmund Lowe can qualify as first-rate stevedore.

He demonstrated his weight-carrying ability by moving close to a ton of human baggage within a few hours while working in "The Misleading Lady," in which he is co-starred with Claudette Colbert and which will be the Paramount attraction at the Dixie Theatre next Monday and Tuesday.

It is the story of a girl who makes a man propose to her to win a wager, refuses him, and is later kidnapped to become the scorned male's compulsory bride.

One scene of the film calls for Lowe to carry Miss Colbert out of a second story room down a flight of stairs to his car.

In order to give the cameramen a chance to focus and set up their cameras for the shot, the famous Sergeant Quirt of the screen had to lug Claudette's "stand-in," or double, four times down the steps. The girl in question weighs 128 pounds, which gave Lowe a carrying total of 512 pounds before a shot was taken.

The star repeated the process with Claudette eleven times before Director Stuart Walker was satisfied that every little detail in the action was perfect. Claudette weighs 108 pounds, which, multiplied by 11, makes 1188 pounds. Add 1188 pounds to 512 pounds and you have a total of 1700 pounds.

A CORRECTION

Last week in referring to a notice published by the Southern Railway we stated that trains 14 and 21 were to be discontinued between Washington and Strasburg and Harrisonburg.
We should have stated that the proposed discontinuance of these trains is only between Washington and Manassas, and between Strasburg and Harrisonburg. The trains between Manassas and Strasburg will continue to be operated as stated in the notice, given by the railroad. The exact schedule of the proposed change is published on page 6 of this issue of The Journal.

FORMER RESIDENT OF MANASSAS DIES IN RICHMOND

James Edward Dunnington, a former resident of Manassas, died in Richmond Monday and will be buried at Manassas at 3 p.m. today. Services at the Trinity Episcopal church.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Mrs. Samatha Robinson, who departed this life two years ago today, August 11, 1930.

Two years have passed, dear mother, Since you were called away. How well do I remember That sad and weary day!

You suffered hours, yes, hours of pain, Till God alone knew what was best. He called you home to give you rest.

Forget you—no—I never shall. I loved you then, I love you still. Your memory is as fresh today As in the hour you passed away.

God alone knows how I miss you. Never shall your memory fade. Loving thoughts shall always wander To the spot where you were laid.

What is home without a mother. All gifts this world may send But when I lost my dear mother, I lost my dearest friend.

—by her devoted daughter,
Mrs. Ed Robertson.

TRIPS ON LOCATION

MAKE CAMERAMAN'S

JOB A COVETED ONE

One of the most coveted jobs around the Trem Carr Studios is that of cameraman with the Bob Steele western unit.

Long trips to distant locations of varied types; camping in true "roughing-it" manner; meals served from the "chuck wagon"; horses to ride and long evenings around the camp-fire under the western stars—adventures that make the job of cameraman with a western outfit a prized one for the camera staff.

On the Bob Steele western, "Near the Trail's End," which will be at the Dixie this Saturday, the production troupe worked in Placerita Canyon, some fifty miles from Hollywood, and in the range of mountains around the Mojave desert. A western village, erected by the movie-makers, includes a few "practical" houses, and in these were quartered those who did not care to take the long drive into Hollywood following their day's work.

THE WORD OF GOD
 BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.
IN PLEASANT PLACES.
 The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places: yea, I have a goodly heritage.—Psalm 16:5, 6.

The Journal regrets to announce the death of one of our prominent citizens and pioneer business men, Mr. William Hill Brown. We join a large number of his friends in extending to the bereaved widow and children our heartfelt sympathy in their severe loss.

THE BYRD ROAD PLAN

On Tuesday the final chapter was written in the great change of policy which has been adopted in Virginia relative to the construction and maintenance of the secondary road system. Hereafter, with the exception of four counties, the state will administer the secondary road system, and there will be no further tax levies for local road construction except to liquidate outstanding road bonds.

Adoption of the Byrd road plan as a part of a great fight which has been waged for benefit of the over-burdened taxpayer. The first big battle came over the question of issuing bonds or paying as you go in constructing the primary road system of the state. Under leadership of Mr. Byrd this hard fight resulted in adoption of the pay-as-you-go plan, to the very great advantage of the taxpayer, who now enjoys his highways and has no huge bonded indebtedness to stagger under in the years to come. Those who recall details of this fight will bear witness to its bitterness. Those who stood in the firing line and fought against bond issues were the recipients of plenty of invective, but the taxpayer's viewpoint prevailed.

Then came to battle over removal of the state land tax. Harry Byrd was in the thick of this fight and as usual won out. The state land tax went off, but unfortunately for the taxpayer there was one obstacle that the General Assembly could not surmount. The county boards of supervisors, in most of the counties of the state, did not catch the vision, nor appreciate the approaching imperative need of tax relief and in most counties they slapped the tax right back on for other local purposes, so that the relief which was intended did not materialize.

Local government, encouraged by the successful absorption of the state land tax relief, now felt that it would be a good time to follow up with a demand for diversion of the gasoline tax for local purposes other than roads. The failing revenue from the usual sources had become a great menace to their program of public improvements, particularly in school matters, and just previous to and during the last session of the General Assembly there was waged one of the most extensively organized efforts that have ever been made in Virginia to shape legislation. Those who handled publicity and who dealt with legislation will not fail to recognize the enormous strength of the recent movement to divert gas tax money for schools.

Out of this battle-royal, which was chiefly waged in the committee rooms at Richmond and the editorial offices of newspapers, emerged a unique proposal by Harry Flood Byrd that the state take over the secondary road system, relieving the taxpayer of all levies for local road construction. A few years ago the idea would have seemed incredible, but under present conditions the arguments in favor of the plan proved so unanswerable that the measure was adopted by the General Assembly without substantial opposition. Being a firm believer in local self-government, Mr. Byrd favored local vote on the proposition wherever it was not acceptable on sight. Fifteen counties chose to put the matter to a vote. Eighty-five accepted the plan outright. Only four counties have voted to retain their local road administration. This, in sum, is the story of the removal of the state land tax and elimination of local taxation for secondary roads. These are great achievements in tax reform, designed to benefit the over-burdened taxpayer. Their accomplishment has been at to follow, other outstanding retained by strenuous effort and without question, in the months forms will be made to promote efficiency and economy in government.

ARLEN MIXES LOVE WITH ADVENTURE

Stephen Roberts, recently signed Paramount director who worked as an advisory director with Norman Taurag on "Sooky," just recently completed his first full directorial assignment in the production of "Sky Bride," which comes to the Dixie theatre next Wednesday.

"Sky Bride" is a modern story of aviation motivated by a gripping theme of love and adventure, in which Richard Arlen, Virginia Bruce, Jack Oakie, Charles Starrett and Robert Coogan play the leading roles.

The story of "Sky Bride" has a rich melodramatic flavor. Arlen, as a stunt flyer for an air circus, goes stale after a crack-up that killed his partner. He is taunted by another flyer as being "yellow." This stings him into a desperate effort in which he saves the life of Robert Coogan and also wins the admiration and love of his sweetheart, Virginia Bruce.

Director Roberts is a former Army aviator and did stunt and air circus flying after the war. Since 1922 he has been a scenario writer and director of short subjects.

MODERN YOUTH HAS ITS
FLING IN NEW TALKIE

"New Morals for Old," filmization of the John Van Druten London and New York stage success, "After All," will show at the Dixie Theatre next Friday, Aug. 19.

Robert Young, who recently scored an outstanding hit in "The Wet Parade," has the leading male role with Margaret Perry, star of the Broadway production, playing opposite him in her original stage role. The film marks the first appearance on the screen of Miss Perry, who first received critical acclaim for her portrayal of the Southern girl in the original stage version of "Strictly Dishonorable."

Lewis Stone, the distinguished stage star, Laura Hope Crewes, and Myrna Loy also play prominent parts in "New Morals for Old" with the large supporting cast, including David Newell, Jean Hersholt, Ruth Selwyn, Kathryn Crawford, Louise Closser Hale, Mitchell Lewis, Elizabeth Patterson and Lillian Harmer.

The story of "New Morals for Old" deals with the age-old struggle between old-fashioned parents and modern children. Hampered by constant restrictions and supervision at home, a brother and sister resolve to lead their own lives, defying conventions and the wishes of parents who refuse to understand.

The son longs for a career as a painter and thumbs his nose at his father's wallpaper business. The daughter falls in love with a married man and scorns puritan inhibitions. The result is both leave home, one for a vivid life in the Bohemian quarter of Paris, the other for her clandestine romance. Both experiences result in dramatic climaxes of a spectacular nature.

"SIX CYLINDERS

THE HAPPY MEDIUM BETWEEN TWO EXTREMES"

With more you sacrifice economy—

With less you sacrifice smoothness

It certainly does make a whole lot of difference—how many cylinders you have in that low-priced car of yours! With too many, you're bound to spend too much for gas, oil and upkeep. With too few cylinders, you're bound to get inherent engine-vibration.

But with SIX cylinders—no more, no less—you strike the happy medium between "too many" and "too few". Everything's in your favor—with a new six-cylinder Chevrolet!

Economy? Take the word of leading American business firms—the six-cylinder Chevrolet costs less for gas, oil and upkeep than any other car.

Smoothness? Take the word of motor car engineers: SIX is the fewest number of cylinders you can have in a car, and still get built-in smoothness. And built-in smoothness is vital to your satisfaction.

Durability? Take the word of millions of owners: the new Chevrolet Six stands up! Stays dependable and trouble-free season after season. Its high gas and oil mileage stays high. Its low maintenance cost stays low! Especially after ten thousand miles, you'll be glad you bought a Chevrolet Six.

Evidently, from the way sales are going this year, America knows the facts about cylinders. Because the records show that since January 1st, more six-cylinder Chevrolets have been bought than any other make of automobile!

In addition to a fast, spirited, six-cylinder engine, the Chevrolet Six has Free Wheeling, Syncro-Mesh gear-shifting, a new, stabilized, front-end construction, four parallel-mounted springs, four shock absorbers—plus the modern styling and fine car luxury of beautiful, new Bodies by Fisher.

CATHARPIN

Mr. Frank Williams and a Mr. Shackelford of Shepherdstown, W. Va., visited the neighborhood last week and after attending the O. F. A. picnic spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Jennie McIntosh.

Mr. E. S. Clary and Mrs. A. S. Rollins of Lawrenceville, Va., were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alvey, returning home on Monday accompanied by Mrs. Clary who had preceded them a week or ten days before.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lynn and son, Craig, and Mrs. E. May Dogan called on Mr. F. H. Sanders last Sunday afternoon.

Many of our good citizens attended the O. F. A. picnic at Widewater last Friday and report an excellent time. These picnics are always occasions for good friendship and good spirit and above everything else are noted for the good things to eat which the good ladies always provide. The O. F. A. has a good membership in the Catharpin neighborhood.

Miss Francis Robertson of Lawn Vale has returned home after a very pleasant sojourn of a week or so among friends and relatives at Berryville, Va.

Miss Catharine Pattie returned last week from an extended auto trip with Washington friends to Iowa and many places of interest en route.

A number of boys and girls from Sudley neighborhood are attending the 4-H meeting at Jamestown, Va., this week. Those from Catharpin are Bertha, Pattie and Margaret Ellison. They are traveling by bus and will be away most of this week. A great trip this for the children.

Mrs. W. S. McCarty of Delaplane was a Lawn Vale visitor one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald were dinner guests at Six Acres on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baden of Baden, Md., and some friends passed through Catharpin last Sunday morning on their way to the Luray Caverns. The reason for the detour from the highway was that Mrs. Baden, nee Miss Agnes Metcalf, might visit Oakwood for a few moments and view again the scenes of her childhood. Her parents moved to Maryland some 21 years ago and she had not visited the old home in that time. The Metcalfs had many friends in the Catharpin neighborhood who are always ready to welcome them upon these return visits.

Since the ladies of the Sudley Missionary Society have gone into the quilting business the "quilt fad" has broken loose in all its glorious fancies and the household that does not have one under construction is talking it and ere long will join the ranks of the stitchers. Many beautiful patterns are in evidence and many old-time quilts are being resurrected or should we say rescued from their moth-ball beds in some old trunk or box and put on the display counter as an object lesson for the modern novice who thinks she does well to follow a starlight line. It certainly would be an interesting exhibit if some of these old-time masterpieces could be shown so that the younger generation might behold the wonderful art in needle-craft as practiced by their ancestors. We wonder how many would like to see such an exhibition? We would.

The baseball spirit at Catharpin is still running on high and the differential seems to have enabled the team to win most of the games thus far scheduled this season. They are a pretty good bunch of fellows and enjoy all games but especially did they enjoy the one played on the Greenwich field last Saturday. They had met the "Rebels" upon three former occasions and were lucky enough to win them all; but the fourth game scheduled for last Saturday was different. The good, sporting spirit of the "Rebels" made them determined to win and their Nokesville reporter was so sanguine as to the outcome that he wagered his shirt on the result. After the smoke of battle had cleared away and the scorekeeper could find his pencil, it was learned that Catharpin had won both the game and the shirt. Now the question is: When are they going to get the shirt? The season is not yet over and it is among the possibilities that a special game may be called at its close when the opening feature would be the presentation of the shirt by some notable baseball personality like Walter Johnson or Jimmy Foxx and thus liquidate the ante. These are hard times and shirts are rather hard to get; so unless someone has a good supply of them on hand he should not be too reckless about wagering them against Catharpin, for like all other boys, the Catharpinites need shirts and will work hard to get them. But all jokes aside: The Greenwich and Nokesville boys have been crossing bats with Catharpin for a number of seasons and they have always been gentlemen and good sports and their visits to our neighborhood are always welcomed. Baseball is a clean and popular sport and is enjoyed by more people than any other game extant. Keep it clean, abide by the rules and always play to win and the "fans" will enjoy the game no matter to which team the score card may point.

GOOD PROGRAM FOR COLORED HORSE SHOW

The management of the Manassas Horse Show and Fair Association, Incorporated, has announced an interesting program for the coming holiday season—beginning Saturday, September 3, and ending on Labor Day, September 5. Saturday's program will consist of a society horse show, including horses of all types, augmented by free-act features, carnival, midway, rides, dancing pavilion and refreshments—which will be operated day and night, by virtue of a newly-installed lighting plant.

The grounds will be open to visitors on the afternoon of Sunday, free of admission, for social converse, during which time refreshments will be sold and no fair activities will be in progress. This occasion will be climaxed by speaking and band concert from 6 to 7 o'clock.

Monday—Labor Day—will abound in limitless entertainments: with carnival, show ring, dancing pavilion, and refreshment stands in full operation for the accommodation of all, climaxed by big races in the afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock and ending with a carnival on the grounds and a fine big ball in a town hall.

A big field is furnished for your amusement—take your choice. Don't fail to be present at the 31st uninterrupted annual meet of this social mecca.
