

COMMITTEE HOLDS FINAL MEETING

The final meeting of the special precinct committees of the Democrats of Prince William was held yesterday at the court house, with D. E. Earhart, chairman, presiding, and with Congressman Howard Smith in attendance.

Talks were made by Hon. Thomas Lion, Commonwealth's Attorney, and Arthur S. Boatwright, of Manassas. Both talks were wholly along instructive lines. Congressman Smith also spoke briefly.

A partial list of those in attendance includes the following:

Mrs. Janie Abel, Mrs. Brower, Mrs. Holmes Robertson, Messrs. Thomas H. Lion, James E. Nelson, A. S. Boatwright, E. H. Hunt, M. G. White, W. H. Keys, William Crow, H. E. Wall, C. C. Cloe, W. F. Keys, J. A. Hooker, Raymond Ellis, C. A. Barbee, L. B. Cornwell, Charles Linton, E. P. Davis, G. C. Russell, F. B. Morgan, E. S. Brockett, Hezekiah Reid, Reading, Kerlin, May, Bowman, Will Kerlin, Hedrick, Free, Washington, W. R. Gosson and G. R. Gosson, and others whose names were not gotten after the crowd dispersed.

A rally at Occoquan was announced for tomorrow night.

BOARD HAS BUSY SESSION

The following members were present at the meeting yesterday: Mrs. Anita Piercy, Mrs. Annie G. Shumate, Messrs. W. L. Lloyd, H. T. Barnes, F. M. Lynn and D. J. Arrington, chairman.

The Board authorized Trustee Lynn to extend Bacon Race bus route 1.3 miles toward Davis Ford Bridge.

The Board appointed Mrs. Annie Shumate and Prof. R. C. Haydon a committee to investigate the question of extending Cherry Hill bus route.

The matter of painting the local gymnasium was tabled indefinitely.

The Board appointed D. J. Arrington and R. C. Haydon to inspect Manassas schools with a view to meeting certain corrections as suggested by local fire department.

Messrs. Arrington and Lloyd were named delegates to the annual educational conference at Richmond during Thanksgiving week.

Due to increased enrollment at Bennett school, a committee composed of Mrs. Frances Lewis and Mrs. Emily Marsteller presented a request to furnish additional furniture. R. C. Haydon, W. L. Lloyd and D. J. Arrington were constituted a committee to go into the matter with power to spend a sum not exceeding $80 to provide such additional equipment.

Haymarket High School League was permitted to install lights if it carried all bills and expenses connected therewith, both in installation and in payment of light bills.

The Board authorized the purchase of three school libraries at Occoquan, the local league having already paid its share of the expense.

The sum of $15 was appropriated for purchase of books in sixth grade at high school.

MANY CHILDREN T. B. TESTED HERE

At the children's clinic for the detection of early cases of tuberculosis held last week at Manassas, forty-three children were tested, and the test resulted in the discovery of twenty children showing tuberculosis in their blood. Of the 43, twenty-two were x-rayed, and the parents of all the positive cases were advised that a report would be sent to their family physician and he would advise them how to prevent the disease from taking deeper hold.

Over 50 cases of tuberculosis out of 100 in adults are contracted during childhood. If the cases are found early, it is easy to fortify the body against the larvae of the disease.

Children showing a positive tuberculin reaction to the test are rarely, if ever, spreaders of the disease, and so in most instances it is not necessary to take the infected child from school, but it is necessary to see that the habits of the child as to eating, sleeping and exercise are properly regulated.

It is reported that more and more private physicians are applying the tuberculin test to the children in families in their practice where tuberculosis is known to exist. When this becomes a universal practice, child tuberculosis will become a rarity and future tuberculosis in grown people will be nipped in the bud.

CHANGE OF POLLING PLACE

The judges of Manassas precinct have changed the place to the courtroom in the courthouse. This has been largely because the length of the ballot will cause slow voting and it is felt that inside comforts of the courthouse will be greater. It is expected that from three to five booths will be furnished.

HILL KIWANIS GOVERNOR NOW

Manassas Club Helps Put Over Candidate.

Edwin F. Hill, Washington, was unanimously elected governor of the Capital Kiwanis District at the fourteenth annual convention in Washington, D. C., Saturday, to succeed Dr. Henry A. Converse, of Harrisonburg, Va., whose term expires December 31. Asa W. Howard of Roanoke, Va., was reelected district secretary-treasurer.

The Capital Kiwanis district comprises forty-eight clubs in Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Objectives of the organization are underprivileged child work; better citizenship; friendly relations between the farmer and the city man; vocational guidance, and boys' and girls' work.

The Board of Trustees will select the city which will entertain the Capital district convention in 1933, at a later date.

In the district attendance contest, Washington, D. C., was awarded first place in the gold division; Newport News, Va., in the silver division; Petersburg, Va., in the blue division, and Victoria, Va., in the white division.

Park W. T. Loy, Hagerstown, Md., was elected lieutenant governor of the first division, succeeding Jesse C. Oakes, Winchester, Va. The clubs in the first division are Alexandria, Arlington county, Fredericksburg, Manassas and Winchester, Va., and Cumberland, Frederick and Hagerstown, Md., and Washington, D. C.

In the second division James T. Catlin, Jr., Danville, Va., will succeed R. S. Weaver, Jr., Victoria, Va., as lieutenant governor. This division is composed of the following clubs: Bassett, Chase City, Danville, Lynchburg, Martinsville, South Boston, and Victoria, Va.

The third division will have E. Broadus Chewing, Roanoke, Va., as lieutenant governor, to succeed F. B. Fitzpatrick, East Radford, Va. This division is composed of clubs at Big Stone Gap, Coeburn, Marion, Norton, Radford, Roanoke and Salem, Va.

The fourth lieutenant governor for the new division is L. J. Roper, Portsmouth, Va., who will succeed D. N. Frasier, Richmond, Va. The clubs in this division are Ashland, Emporia, Hampton, Hopewell, Newport News, Norfolk, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Richmond, South Norfolk and West Point, Va.

E. I. Carruthers, Charlottesville, Va., was elected lieutenant governor of the fifth division, to succeed George H. Vermilya, Clifton Forge, Va. This division is composed of clubs at Charlottesville, Clifton Forge, Covington, Harrisonburg, Lexington and Staunton, Va.

In the sixth division C. Walter Cole, Towson, Md., will succeed Joseph F. MacSweeney, Rehoboth Beach, Del., as lieutenant governor. The clubs in this division are Baltimore, Elkton, Havre de Grace, Towson and Westminster, Md., and Rehoboth Beach, Seaford and Wilmington, Del.

CAPTURE STILL

Last night while going along the Richmond Highway, Sheriff Kerlin and Deputy Herndon observed a fire in the woods.

On investigation, it proved to be a 75-gallon still just getting up enough steam for operation. The owners had fled evidently on approach of the officers. It is stated that this still was believed to be under the operation of a notorious crowd in that section of the county.

POLITICAL SPEAKING AT OCCOQUAN

Hon. Wilbur C. Hall, of Leesburg, and other prominent Democrats will speak at the Occoquan High School on Friday, November 4, at 7:30 p.m. Everybody is cordially invited.

BIG VICTORY RALLY AT BRENTSVILLE

The Forgotten Man

By EDWIN MARKHAM

Dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt, after hearing his lofty and noble appeal for the Forgotten Man.

—Edwin Markham

NOT on our golden fortunes built high—
Not on our boasts that soar into the sky—
Not upon these is resting in this hour
The fate of the future; but upon the power
Of him who is forgotten—yes, on him
Rest all our hopes reaching from rim to rim.
In him we see all of earth's toiling bands,
With crooked backs, scarred faces, shattered hands.

HE seeks no office and he asks no praise
For all the patient labor of his days.
He is the one supporting the huge weight;
He is the one guarding the country's gate.
He bears the burdens on these earthly ways:
We pile the debts, he is the one who pays.
He is the one who holds the solid power
To steady nations in their trembling hour.
Behold him as he silently goes by.
For it is at his word that nations die.

SHATTERED with loss and lack.
He is the man who holds upon his back
The continent and all its mighty loads—
This toiler who makes possible the roads
On which the gilded thousands travel free—
Makes possible our feasts, our roving boards
Our pomps, our easy days, our golden hoards
He gives stability to nations; he Makes possible our nation, sea to sea.
His strength makes possible our college walls—
Makes possible our legislative halls—
Makes possible our churches soaring high
With spires, the fingers pointing to the sky.

SHALL then this man go hungry, here in lands
Blest by his honor, builded by his hands?
Do something for him: let him never be Forgotten: let him have his daily bread:
He who has fed us, let him now be fed.
Let us remember all his tragic lot—
Remember, or else be ourselves forgot!

ALL honor to the one that in this hour
Cries to the world as from a lighted tower—
Cries for the Man Forgotten. Honor the one
Who asks for him a glad place in the sun.
He is a voice for the voiceless. Now, indeed,
We have a tongue that cries the mortal need

HALLOWEEN PARTY

A jolly Halloween party was given Sunday evening by Miss Thelma Barnard of Washington, D. C., at the parental M. E. Barnard home.

The guests were Misses Verna Hainer, May Fonte and Marie Reier, Messrs. R. M. Ham, James Broadus, Frank Brent and Francis Goetzinger, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ruff and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Aten, all of Washington, also Stanley Holmes of Manassas.

The decorations of autumn leaves, corn stalks, pumpkins, jack-o-lanterns, and candles made a very pretty and appropriate setting for the occasion.

This was the first gathering held in the new home and those present enthusiastically expressed the desire to be included in future parties.

Refreshments were served and the guests departed at a late hour.

ELECTION RETURNS

The Manassas Journal has arranged with the Associated Press to receive and give out reports on the evening of the election. As rapidly as anything comes in over the wire, it will be announced. In return we have been asked to assemble our local returns early in the evening. Those precincts which can not call in by phone are urged to send up someone with the exact vote listed. This may be done by merely writing the totals in on a sample ballot after the count is over.

Some of the enthusiastic Democrats in town have already ordered red fire and noise makers.

The Journal office will be open after about 8:30 and will remain open until some definite information concerning the national vote has been received. It is of the greatest importance that our phone be not kept busy by interested parties calling in to get returns. We shall give this information locally only by bulletin.

REPUBLICAN RALLY

The Republicans of Prince William county are planning their main rally at Nokesville on Saturday evening of this week. The speaker for the occasion is Leslie C. McNemar, of Clarendon, one of the best orators the party has in the Eighth district.

Posters have been distributed announcing the meeting and it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand. The meeting will be held in the high school auditorium. W. E. Trusler, Eighth district chairman, will introduce Mr. McNemar.

FREE PROGRAM FOR FARMERS

Bull Run Grange Sponsors Progressive Move.

The people of Gainesville district and the county are cordially invited to attend a free program which will consist of agricultural educational motion pictures and musical entertainment at the parish hall in Haymarket on Friday, November 11, at 8 p.m.

The swine film, "How to Grow Hogs," will show points to be considered in the selection of hogs for breeding purposes, the care of the sow before and after farrowing, and the feeding and handling pigs up to market time. The scenes were taken at the experiment farm of the Bureau of Animal Industry at Beltsville, Md.

The poultry film, "Producing Quality Chicks," shows up-to-date hatchery safeguards in the careful choice of breeding stock and attention to sanitation.

"Turkey Business," a one-reel picture, shows turkeys being raised for market and modern methods of feeding and management.

"How Seeds Germinate" shows the actual germination of seeds over periods of from three days to an entire week. These unusual slow-motion screen studies of plant growth were made by the Department of Agriculture time-lapse machines set to take a picture or frame at from 3 to 7 minute intervals.

A varied program of musical entertainment is promised by the Bull Run Grange of Haymarket, which is sponsoring the program to be given at the parish hall there on November 11.

NOKESVILLE HOME DEMONSTRATION TO ELECT OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR

The regular meeting of the Nokesville Home Demonstration Group will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 1:30 o'clock in the club room. The election of officers and decision on projects for the new year necessitate a full attendance at this meeting. The demonstration on "Table Decoration and Service" will be given by the Home Demonstration agent.

Typical Virginia Rally Presided Over by Our Popular Congressman.

A tremendous crowd assembled at the old courthouse at Brentsville on Friday last to hear the principles of Democracy enlarged upon, and incidentally to absorb a culinary feast prepared on the open spits, such as few in the assembly had ever witnessed before.

Prior to the banquet, a section of the Boys' Band from Linton Hall, under the direction of Army Sergeant Carl Shaver, furnished some excellent music.

Representative Howard Smith introduced the several speakers. While so doing, he referred humorously to the color of the informative ballots now in circulation as indicating the psychic state of the respective parties.

Hon. Wilbur C. Hall, delegate from Loudoun in the Virginia Assembly, and elector-at-large, attacked the tariff and finance of the present administration, stating that all previous panics in the history of the country were but as "summer zephyrs" when compared to the present typhoon of despair.

Recalling the bombastic pledges of Hoover in 1928, he called attention to the eleven million out of work, and quoted Senator Glass as saying that "so far from a chicken in every pot, we do not even have the pot." He further epitomized the present condition of the United States as a "country crucified on a cross of failure."

He charged the Hawley-Smoot tariff act as prohibitive and not protective, stating that it had come out of clear sky, no intimation of such a policy having been given in the 1928 campaign.

Striking at the policy of Henry Ford regarding his instructions to voting employees, he urged that the time was now here to remember the "forgotten man" both in the factory and in the field. "Agriculture can expect nothing from the Republican party," he added.

Referring to the economy plank of the platform, he brought hearty applause when he maintained that "if there is one road back to prosperity it is in the reduction of the cost of government, both national and local."

After extensively reviewing "the many accomplishments of the party under Wilson," he concluded by referring to the death of Jackson at Chancellorsville, who when approached by one of his leaders after he had been shot, was admonished "to tell Caesar if you should meet him this night that the South still makes war," by paraphrasing the remark to state that whatever the outcome "Democracy still makes war."

Representative Allard Gasque of South Carolina was then introduced by Judge Smith as a farm boy and later a teacher.

Mr. Gasque explained that it was his great pleasure to address a Virginia audience for the first time.

"When I think of Virginia as the birthplace of Democracy," he said, "I can not understand how any real Virginian could vote anything but the Democratic ticket."

Mr. Gasque received the closest attention when he showed the special privilege influence exercised by Messrs. Mellon and Mills, of the U. S. Treasury Department, giving figures to substantiate his charge that they mulcted the treasury in rebates on income taxes after the last election, returning a thousand per cent for every dollar contributed to the campaign fund. He charged Mellon with being the "greatest menace ever born in the country."

Touching on Hoover's recent speeches, he accused the President of "wiffully and maliciously murdering the truth." In concluding, he asserted that this election was not altogether a party contest but "a fight for the very lives of the peoples themselves."

Hon. O'Connor Goolrick, of Fredericksburg, former State Senator, who had been invited to speak by Hon. G. W. Herring, Prince William delegate, closed the ceremonies with a dramatic attack on both the President and the party platform. He compared this with the Democratic platform which he declared was one of "courage and hope," and that the party if elected would "govern in the interest of the working man."

Going back over the last decade, he reviewed the conduct of the government. (Continued on page 5)

The souvenir glasses which Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt sent to be sold for the benefit of our church building fund were auctioned off last Friday and brought $17. A noted Sunday school worker, R. B. Gossom, of Haymarket and Congressman Howard Smith were the highest bidders. We are sorry some of our friends are misinterpreting the use of these gifts.

The Halloween party sponsored by the School League was quite a success. Numerous prizes were awarded to the various winners of the games played. Everyone present reports an enjoyable evening.

The Sunbeam Class will hold its monthly meeting at the hall on Friday night. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year. Evalyn Kerlin is in charge of the recreational period. A program is being prepared including a play, "Helping Susan."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stultz and son, Guy, and Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Bergton are visiting friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Collins of Woodbridge spent the past week visiting the former's sister, Mrs. F. S. Whetzel.

BESSIE A. LONGWELL

Mrs. Bessie Alexander Longwell died on Tuesday, Oct. 25, at Montgomery, W. Va., and was buried in the Manassas cemetery on the following Thursday.

She was born at Brentsville, sixty-three years ago and was the daughter of the late James Mordecai Sinclair and Louisiana Latimer Sinclair and a sister of the late Arthur Sinclair.

In 1887, she was married to William Marshall Longwell, a former hardware merchant of Manassas, who died nine years ago.

They made their home here until twenty-five years ago when they moved to Gassaway, W. Va.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. O. D. Waters of Manassas, Mrs. O. P. Frame and Mrs. Mary Carr of Gossaway, W. Va., and Mrs. Carl Lehms of Pratt, W. Va., and two sons, Wm. H. Longwell, and Arthur Latimer Longwell, both of West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas and family of Ft. Myer Heights visited at "Oakshade" for the week end.

Joe Lewis, one of our worthy colored citizens, died in a Washington hospital on Friday last. The funeral service was held at Olive Branch church Sunday at 2:30 and interment at the family burying ground on the "Mack" Lewis place.

ALLEGES LIQUOR CAR WAS STOLEN

Following a collision between a car said to be owned by C. A. Bryant and one owned by Mr. Herring of Woodbridge on Tuesday afternoon, a warrant was issued yesterday by Justice Thomas Sheppard against Mr. Bryant charging him with being a hit-and-run driver and for transporting ardent spirits.

On a hearing, Judge Sheppard held Mr. Bryant and Messrs. Lloyd and Mountjoy for the grand jury. The three have already secured bond.

It is understood that Mr. Bryant claims that his car was stolen while he was on a fishing trip but it is also reported that young Herring claims that Bryant was the man who hit him, seriously damaging both cars. The liquor car was piloted about a half mile up the Richmond road and abandoned.

The Word of God

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

A CURE FOR WORRY: Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Philippians 4: 6, 7.

THE BRENTSVILLE RALLY

Last Friday at Brentsville the scene brought back the days of the old South. Hundreds gathered to rally around the good old Party's standard as their forebears did in days gone by. Personal discord, if there were any, was put aside with typical Southern sentiment, as with one accord the gathered Democrats greeted the popular leader of the Eighth district, Hon. Howard W. Smith, and his guests.

The fiery democracy of Wilbur Hall, the clearly-cut, straight-pointed shafts of Congressman Gasque, the scintillating brilliancy of O'Connor Goolrick, all had one aim—the love and unity of the party that has always stood for the welfare of the working man and the finest ideals of the liberty-loving South.

HOOVER CARTS

Everybody that went to Brentsville on Friday is wondering how Mr. Lunsford piloted those two antique Henry Ford's to the courthouse green.

As Hoover carts, they certainly qualified. They had no insides, their tattered coverings were furrowed with time and age. No engineer on earth would have used them for anything else than as a fill for hollow washes or at the bottom of some reclamation project to be sponsored by a government finance corporation.

CERTAIN DEFEAT

On November 8 the people of the United States without any question will repudiate the administration of Herbert Hoover and will place Franklin D. Roosevelt in the Presidency. No other logical conclusion is possible in the light of the existing situation.

At the eleventh hour and far too late in the campaign President Hoover is making a desperate effort to check the tremendous wave of enthusiasm which has been aroused by the Democratic nominee in the brilliant campaign which he has waged in behalf of the masses of the people and for representative government.

Not in many decades has the basic difference between Democracy and Republicanism been so clearly defined, and never has the greedy heart of the Party now in power been more distinctly exposed to view.

The difference between Democracy and Republicanism is the same as that dividing a Democracy from a Republic. In a true Democracy the people rule.

At Last! Two Cars in a Garage!

—By Talbot

In a Republic representatives of the people rule. The Democratic party has always had the welfare of the masses at heart. The Republican party caters to the interests of their official representatives. Under Republicanism about five thousand people who control this country are prospering. After March 4, under Franklin Roosevelt, one hundred and twenty million people will have a fair chance to eat and work and live. In other elections the Republicans have been able to cloud the real issues while the resources of the people were constantly plundered. In this campaign the masses have been awakened and in their hour of necessity and suffering are determined that autocracy in government shall be crushed.

—The Commonwealth-Monitor.

BACK TO THE HORSE AND BUGGY

The Augusta county farm demonstration and boys' club work agent reports that he has seen more horses and buggies along the county roads in the last few months than he has seen in the past ten years. He is inclined to attribute it to the depression, which has caused the farmers to turn back to the horse-and-buggy mode of transportation, which requires no money for gasoline, tires, license plates, etc. The horse and buggy is slower than the automobile but more economical.

When times improve the farmers will return to the use of the automobile, undoubtedly, for it has manifold advantages over the old-time method of getting around. But while "hard times" continue they will get around the best way they can at a minimum of expense. And that's just what the rest of us must do, too—not necessarily return to the days of Dobbin, but resolve to cut wherever we can and to be content with a less pretentious and more economical scheme of living.

By and by times will be normal again, but for the present it will be well to take to heart the lesson of the Augusta county farmers as they drive leisurely along the pleasant country roads behind their steeds. They must not be traveling as fast as has been their wont but in due time they will get to their destination, and that is something. In fact, it is a good deal.—Roanoke Times.

EDWIN MARKHAM

Edwin Markham, author of "The Man With the Hoe," "Lincoln, the Man of the People," and other famous poems, has written a poem to "The Forgotten Man," dedicated to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"I have written this poem," writes Mr. Markham, "after hearing Franklin D. Roosevelt, candidate for the Presidency, make a lofty and noble appeal for the Forgotten Man."

A CHERISHED MEMORY

To the number of cherished faces pictured on memory's wall another has been added in the death of my dear friend and sister in the Lord, Mrs. Edith Lipscomb. I only recently learned of her departure and cannot refrain from giving expression to my sense of personal bereavement. It was my good fortune to be her pastor for a number of years while she resided in Manassas, and during those years had ample opportunity to observe her sterling worth. Her reverent spirit, motherly devotion and womanly deportment were unobtrusively felt in the social and domestic life of the town. The merry heart that "doeth good like a medicine" was her gift of grace to the jaded and discouraged soul.

I vividly recall my first meeting with Mrs. Lipscomb on my arrival in Manassas to take charge of the local Baptist church and as she gave me cordial greeting I was surprised and delighted to recognize the accent of my native Scotland in the kind words she spoke. Nothing further was needed to make me feel at home and wonderful to record, it later came to light that Mrs. Lipscomb with her parents sailed from Greenock, the seaport of Glasgow, Scotland, in the year of 1871, on the steamship India of the Anchor Line, commanded by Captain Munroe, and in due time reached the United States, while in the same year the same steamship, the same captain, brought me to New York. Such personalities as Mrs. Lipscomb give added emphasis to the reality and hope of immortality. Cherished memories refuse to admit the extinction of the gracious presence that so often soothed the sting of adverse experiences and proved the reality of friendship's devotions. I am comforted in the conviction that this good woman has joined the innumerable company that bide the coming of our heart's desire when mortality shall be "swallowed up of life" when death itself shall die and the grave be buried in its own corruption.

Dear friend of the vanished years, your cherished memory points from earth to heaven.

DOUGLAS CLARK.

SALLIE ELGIN DYER

On Friday morning Mrs. Sallie Elgin Dyer of Burke, Va., died at her home after a brief illness.

The funeral services were held at her home Sunday, October 23, at 2 o'clock, Rev. E. S. McClellan of Old Falls Church officiating.

Mrs. Dyer was the daughter of the late John W. Elgin and Mary F. Fairfax, and was born near Clifton, Va., April 12, 1856.

The deceased was an exemplary mother, sister and neighbor and only the bereaved family know how great the loss of one so universally esteemed is.

The large funeral concourse on Sunday and the many beautiful floral tributes bore evidence of the impression her life had made on all who knew her.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Malcolm B. Merchant of Burke, Va., Miss Beulah J. Dyer of Atlanta, Ga., and three sons, Elgin F. Dyer of Washington, D. C., Ross A. Dyer and Chas. F. Dyer of Burke; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Mrs. Dyer was a charter member of the Confederate States Chapter, U. D. C., and was a devoted church woman and interested in the church activities in the community.

Interment in the cemetery at Fairfax, Va.

SWAVELY HITS STRONG VALLEY TEAM FOR 4th VICTORY

Staging her fourth consecutive victory, Swaveley romped over Shenandoah Valley Military Academy to the tune of 20-0. Play by play, the game was by no means brilliant, but in the second quarter, Stedman duplicated Mowrey's feat by crashing the line for an eighty-five yard touchdown. Smith, right end, also made an outstanding play when he chalked up the first scoring of the game by completing a long pass over enemy territory.

S. V. A., playing a strong offensive game, had most of her power in her line. But in spite of the fact that due to this strength she broke up a few of Swaveley's plays, she lost two touchdowns through her weak backfield, a vital spot that Swaveley recognized and used to an advantage.

The next game that Swaveley plays in this State will decide the Virginia State championship and, needless to say, the team is going into extensive practice for that battle.

BORDER RESORT GIVES BRENON SETS FOR FILM

With a merry, musical whirl, the roulette wheel turns and hundreds of dollars change hands... not far away a faro dealer speaks casually and without infection... dice tables are crowded and commission girls saunter sinuously through the welter of humanity.

Herbert Brenon has caught this picturesque atmosphere of the Latin gambling dives in RKO-Radio Pictures' "Girl of the Rio," at the Dixie Theatre, next Friday, Nov. 11, with Dolores Del Rio starred.

To make this unusual scene authentic and true to the very last detail, the director did an unusual thing; he hired all the apparatus of a border gambling resort, closed for some infraction of law, and transported it to Hollywood.

Not content with this realism, he obtained the services of twelve professional gamblers.

A picture of the laughs, tears, heart-throbs of people we know and understand! Good-time parents go their way—but what happens when a child sees his mother in a stranger's arms?

ment in that period, referring chiefly to the rank dishonesty in the Harding administration, the frantic speculation under Coolidge and the weak, indecisiveness of Hoover, the great "superman" of American politics, calling the latter the "greatest false prophet that the country has ever produced."

Speaking of Hoover's engineering abilities, he said "Hoover might drive those helpers, Chinese coolies into the mines in the morning and out again but he can not drive Americans that way."

"The Republican party has been weighed in the balance," added Mr. Goodrick, "and it has been found wanting."

The interest shown by questions asked the speakers indicated that the crowd was thinking. Both Mr. Gasque and Mr. Goodrick were recalled to add explanations to their remarks.

After the speaking the great crowd dispersed, and the big barbecue went down into local history as one of the most successful gatherings ever scheduled. At night a dance was held

DESERT SCENE IS MOVED TO STUDIO

Building an archaeologist's camp in the Mojave Desert; reproducing a rushing river and its banks on an inland lake; moving a river shack from its locale to a studio and setting it up there for "close-ups"—these were some of the things that had to be done to enable Jackie Cooper to thrill audiences in "Divorce in the Family," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which comes next Wednesday to the Dixie Theatre.

Jackie was as much interested in the technical operations as he was in his role. He got the "kick" of his life out of learning how to operate the strange instruments in the reproduction of a surgeon's office, set up for Conrad Nagel, who plays his physician stepfather. Incidentally Conrad had to take lessons from a real physician so he could handle the apparatus with a professional touch.

The new picture is a vivid drama of divorce and its effect on children of disrupted families. Jackie plays a little boy who, through his mother's divorce and remarriage, is in the care of a stepfather he cannot understand and who does not understand him. There are many pathetic moments, some tense dramatic ones, and comedy galore through Jackie's blunders in reorganizing his life.

CATHARPIN

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, were visiting friends and relatives in Manassas on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCarty of Delaplane were Lawn Vale callers last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schaefer a son, Homer Jackson, on Saturday, October 22. All doing well.

Mrs. J. T. Patton, formerly a resident of the Catharpin neighborhood, visited the village one day last week. Mrs. Patton is now a resident of Maryland where they have lived since leaving Prince William.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. R. McDonald were visiting friends in Clarendon on Monday.

Another heavy down-pour visited our neighborhood on Monday night and Tuesday and as a consequence the farmers are again busy mending water gaps, righting fences and straightening things around once more preparatory for winter.

The annual bazaar and supper held on the 27th at Sudley was as usual very successful both socially and financially. The dining rooms and general building plan are peculiarly suited to such occasions; people can come together, get a good supper and have plenty of room to sit around, visit with friends, renew acquaintances and talk things over in the good old-fashioned way. In passing around one could hear discussions on every subject almost from the best way to make cold slaws to Hoover's inability and Roosevelt's superabundant qualifications for the presidency; or as in some cases, the other way around. A very gratifying feature was the increasing attendance from Washington which city has always been well represented but upon this occasion 32 people partook of the supper and otherwise engaged in the festivities of the occasion. But "Strange as it may seem" neither President Hoover nor Franklin D. were there and neither one sent regrets; but the near proximity of the election might have had something to do with it so we shall not hold it against them. However, the affair was very successful and all concerned mightily pleased with results.

The road builders have come and gone and have left behind them a number of things to talk about. Prominent among these are the new signs which one sees at every "turn" and "curve" in the roadway and one is often amused to hear the remarks incident to some of them. An old colored man came along and saw the sign "S" curve; straightening himself up said: "Don't you know I live here all my life and I never knowed we had dem kind of crooks 'round here? dem city fellers do have funny names fer things, but what beats me most is when dey calls one crooked place in de road a 'turn' and another crooked place a 'curve'; I know how to turn 'round but I don't know how to curve 'round; how bout dat? Den up Catharpin I always said school house, but dem fellers calls it school zone; How come dat, Mr.? does zone mean school house?" and so it goes, but we'll recover once we find out what all these signs and co-signs mean. We are now in the first grade in regard to improved roads but we'll graduate in about 4 years more and then we shall be as smart as the rest of you who have been more fortunate.

BRENTSVILLE DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

A very interesting Hallowe'en program was given in B. D. H. S. auditorium on Monday night. A large crowd assembled to enjoy the presidential campaign given by the high school and alumni. Also, various numerous were rendered by the grades.

Mr. Roosevelt, represented by Herman Swank, and Mr. Hoover, represented by Charles Beahm, were the main speakers of the evening. Amos Winslow, as Norris and Francis Wells, as Coolidge, gave campaign speeches for their respective politicians. A demonstration of some ignorant and rough mountaineers at the polls furnished much humor.

Refreshments were served after the program.

On Saturday, October 29, the annual school fair was held on the local school grounds. The exhibits were very good. The interests of the afternoon were centered upon the girls' basketball game and the boys' soccer game. Haymarket furnished the opposing teams. Our girls, having resolved to keep up the old standard, victoriously finished the game with a score of 20-13. The home boys, not to be outdone by the girls, fought valiantly for the victorious score of 4-1.

The home soccer team tied the score 1-1 as the result of a game with Manassas on the home field, Friday, October 14. They brought home the bacon from Occoquan on Tuesday, October 25, with a score of 2-0.

These results speak very well for the B. D. H. S. boys and we are proud of them. They expect to play several games yet this season which closes at Thanksgiving.

"SKYSCRAPER SOULS" ONE OF YEAR'S GREAT FILMS

For gripping drama and tension, few pictures to come out of Hollywood can equal "Skyscraper Souls," the latest product of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which unfolds next Monday on the screen of the Dixie Theatre.

The world's tallest building—a 102-story New York skyscraper—is the locale of this novel and absorbing drama. Through the eye of the camera are shown incidents and problems, the loves, the joys, the struggles, and despairs of the occupants of this building. As a result, one of the most engrossing pictures of the year has been produced.

Sparkling performances and able direction by Edgar Selwyn add to the effectiveness and realism of the production. Warren William as the giant of finance whose treachery brings all in the building to disaster, and Maureen O'Sullivan, as the leading romantic figure, shine forth with renewed brilliance. There are also remarkable performances by Verree Teasdale, New York stage actress appearing in her first film, and Jean Hersholt. Just as in "Grand Hotel," Hersholt makes one of the lesser roles of the play stand out in bold relief.

And then there is the skyscraper itself. Always it looms forth as an important figure in the drama. Fortunes are fought for, love is won and lost, lives are sacrificed, hopes gleam and fade and are kindled again, human beings laugh and cry. And over the lives of all, this building spreads its shadow. In their mad pursuit of love and lucre the thousands of workers in the skyscraper are so many prisoners in the steel cells they call their offices.

Will be open on Election Night until definite election news comes in.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS

By decision of the Supreme Court of the State Oct. 11, the nine Members of Congress from Virginia must be elected At Large on November 8. This means that each candidate will be voted on all over the State as well as in his Congressional district, and each voter will be entitled to vote for nine candidates for Congress. There will be about thirty candidates for Congress on the ballot. In order to vote the Democratic ticket for Congress, it will be necessary for the voter to strike out the names of all except the nine Democratic nominees, who are as follows:

S. Otis Bland
Thomas G. Burch
John W. Flannagan, Jr.
Colgate W. Darden, Jr.
P. H. Drewry
Andrew J. Montague
A. Willis Robertson
Howard W. Smith
Clifton A. Woodrum

All of these gentlemen are the Democratic nominees for Congress from their respective districts, and all except two are at present members of Congress, these two being the regular Democratic nominees from their districts.

In order to insure the election of nine Democratic Members of Congress from this State, it is necessary for the voters in each district to vote not only for their own Democratic Member for Congress, but also for the other eight Democratic nominees. All Democratic voters are, therefore, urged to be careful to strike out the names of all candidates for Congress on the ballot except the nine above mentioned. Any ballot that has on it more than nine names, not scratched, will be thrown out. Any voter who votes for less than nine Members thereby jeopardizes the chances of the election of a full Democratic slate. To vote the straight Democratic ticket, leave the nine names above mentioned and strike out the names of all other candidates for Congress.
