ROOSEVELT IS VICTORIOUS

ANNUAL DRIVE FOR MEMBERSHIP

The annual Red Cross Roll Call drive will be launched in this county on Armistice Day, November 11. The drive will again be under the supervision of Mrs. Mamie Lynch Delaney of Manassas. Mrs. Delaney will be assisted by a staff of approximately fifty workers scattered throughout the county.

During the past year, according to Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, chairman of the Prince William County Chapter, the local organization carried on a most extensive program in which an unusually large number of needy families throughout the county were helped. All indications at present point to still greater needs during the coming winter. For this reason the drive for membership this year will be more extensive and, also, more intense than ever before.

This fall the chapter, under the direction of Mrs. G. R. C. Johnson, chairman of the Civilian Home Service Committee, has been concentrating on supplying shoes and clothing to school children over the county who otherwise would be unable to attend school. With the unusual amount of unemployment which has existed in the county now for some time, these needs have been found to be exceedingly heavy.

The chapter recently received one thousand yards of government cotton which is being made into clothing for children under the direction of Mrs. O. D. Waters, chairman, and Mrs. K. S. Hynson, vice-chairman, of the Production Committee of the Red Cross. This cotton is a portion of that which the United States government gave to the Red Cross for distribution to "needy and deserving citizens," and which the Red Cross is bearing the expense of having made up into cloth for distribution.

In addition to these projects, the local chapter is continuously engaged in furnishing other forms of relief. There is the work of the county nurse, Miss Sabina Neal, of which it has charge; the distribution of emergency food orders to families without food enough to keep them alive; the distribution of free garden seed to families who do not have the means of purchasing their own, and many others.

It is interesting to note that in one section of the county during the last year the Red Cross supplied seed for gardens where the people had never had gardens before and these same people obtained from these gardens vegetables valued conservatively at $170. Altogether twenty-five families in the county were encouraged to plant gardens by having this free seed given to them.

The local chapter of the American National Red Cross is soliciting the support of every person in the county in its effort to be prepared this winter to minister to the needy. The best way that you can express your interest in this great cause is to be (Please turn to page 8)

A PROCLAMATION

"This year the economic emergency lends special importance to the annual Roll Call, or membership campaign of the American Red Cross."

"The Red Cross is the recognized relief agency throughout the Nation. It is chartered by Congress, headed by the President of the United States, and is the co-operation of the Federal government. In the unemployment crisis it has borne a great relief responsibility. It has been the authorized medium for distribution of Farm Board wheat and cotton to those in need of flour, livestock feed and clothing. Its volunteers have been unstinting in devotion to the task of collecting and distributing supplies, and in production of finished goods from materials. Hundreds of thousands of gardens have been planted from Red Cross seed. In 2,200 communities Red Cross chapters have participated in unemployment relief work."

"To unemployment have been added 95 disasters calling for Red Cross assistance in the period of one year. Drought in the Northwest, tornadoes in the Southeast, floods in the central South and a variety of other catastrophes have entailed mighty burdens on the organization. Notwithstanding all the manifold special calls, such regular Red Cross service as life saving, first aid, public health nursing and home hygiene, assistance to veterans, and Junior Red Cross have been carried steadily forward."

"Our debt of gratitude is great. Our present and prospective dependence is impressive. Everyone who is able to take out membership, as a good citizen and a patriot should do so."

"As mayor of Manassas, I, therefore, proclaim the Red Cross Roll Call, November 11 to 24 a matter of prime civic duty, and urge our citizenship to lend its heartiest support."

HARRY P. DAVIS,
Mayor.

LOCAL GIRLS ON WASHINGTON AIR

With Miss Janet Trusler in charge, a character sketch entitled "Optimism of Today" was presented over a Washington radio on Sunday evening with the assistance of Misses Frances Brunt, Catherine O'Neill and Janet Coon. All four are college students in Washington.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

Episcopal churches all over the country are completing plans for the annual canvass for funds for the coming year. Press advices state that the budget has again been cut under the modest figures used in 1932, and the fervent hope is expressed that every church will be able to carry its quota.

In this Diocese (Virginia), Rev. W. D. Smith, of Christ church, Richmond, is chairman of the Field Board and will also be in charge of the Every Member Canvass.

LINTON HALL TO FEED KIWANIS

Club Will Visit Boys' School Tomorrow.

Pinch hitting for a wobbly program committee, Dr. Eli Swavely told the club all about the history of money, beginning with the earliest stages of bartering.

When Doc pulled out a roll of modern species, he modestly explained that they were extracted from the vaults of the Peoples Bank via MacKall Ellis. It was hard for Doc to hold his hearer's attention after this gorgeous display.

The matter of the Christmas Club came up and Bob Hutchison tried to persuade the group that they owed the fund $150 but they declared that Bob's suggestions were out of order and the Christmas Tree committee had better get on the job.

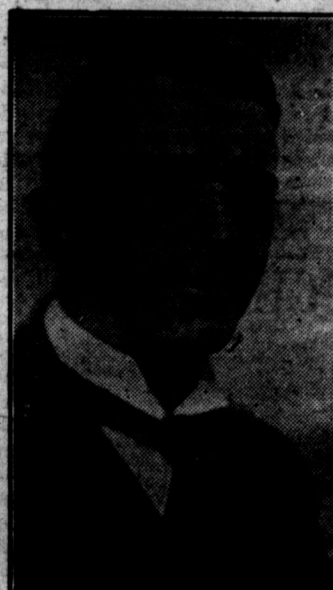

Tomorrow night the club will move on to Linton Hall for a temporary stopover of one evening. Tiffany has guaranteed a good program this time.

LOCAL MAN SPEAKS BEFORE NORTHERN AUDIENCES

Hon. J. C. Meetez will be the leading speaker at the New Jersey State Teachers convention on Saturday night in Atlantic City. On Sunday morning he will be in Endicott, N. Y., where he will address the Men's Oxford Bible Class, of the local Methodist Episcopal church.

GREATEST DEMOCRATIC VICTORY SINCE DAYS OF ANDREW JACKSON

Judge Howard W. Smith this morning issued the following statement:

"I wish to take this means of thanking the many loyal friends whose untiring and enthusiastic efforts and support made possible the inspiring victory in this county, of myself and my Democratic colleagues in Tuesday's election."

"I pledge to you for the next two years my untiring and ceaseless efforts to merit the continued confidence of the people of my district, which I prize more highly than any political preference."

BYRD THANKED BY CHAIRMAN

Farley Says Result of Election Due to His Aid.

Appreciation of the assistance rendered by former Governor Harry F. Byrd, Virginia national committeeman, and other Virginia Democrats in the campaign closing last Tuesday, was voiced yesterday in a telegram to Mr. Byrd by James A. Farley, national chairman. He wired from New York:

"I am grateful to you for the generous assistance given in this great campaign. We won a great victory Tuesday, and the result in no small degree is attributed to the assistance you and other sincere and active Democrats have rendered throughout this entire campaign."

Mr. Byrd is also chairman of the Democratic national finance executive committee, which was in charge of raising campaign funds.

MY SINCERE THANKS

To the County Democratic Committee, the Roosevelt-Garner-Smith Clubs and the Precinct Workers of Prince William County:

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the efficient work and thorough co-operation in the campaign just ended.

Through your splendid effort we have raised $325 for national, state and county expenses and lifted our Democratic majority in the county from 9 votes in 1928 to 1113 in 1932.

You have had a full share in the election of our favorite and popular candidates and placed Prince William again among the leading Democrats of the state.

Very faithfully yours,
D. E. EARTHART,
Chairman Co. Democratic Committee.

MARRIAGE RECORD

Nov. 5—George P. Sterns and May Windsor, both of Woodbridge.

Enormous Democratic Majorities Obtained in Both Senate and House.

ELECTORAL VOTE STANDS 472 TO 59 FOR ROOSEVELT

All Democratic Candidates for Congress in Virginia Elected by Overwhelming Majorities.

REPUBLICANS ONLY CARRY THE STATES OF MAINE, CONN., PENN., DEL., N. H. AND VT.

Popularity of Judge Smith Evidenced in Eighth District Where He Ran Ahead of His Ticket.

From an early hour on Tuesday evening, it became apparent that Roosevelt was making a great race and Prince William heaved one, great, long sigh of joy and relief.

Judge Crow, of Joplin, registered perhaps what was the first return in the entire State—a clean sweep at Joplin, at 5:30, just twenty minutes after the polls closed. The only mishap there was that two overzealous Democrats started in on the bottom of the Democratic ticket to make sure of getting off all the dead wood. Catharpin, Greenwich and Aden followed in closely behind and the fight was on. Everything was in hot motion and taken by 10 o'clock.

With the aid of the Associated Press and the radio, returns were posted as fast as they came. Two crowds collected, one at the Journal office where Elmer Metz had installed a loud speaker and a large blackboard was placed in the window to bulletin returns, and the other in the Manassas Motor garage where Elmer served sandwiches and coffee, the county committee acting as hosts.

At 11 o'clock, John Burke could not stand it any longer and began to fire salutes, in true old-fashioned style. It was "K. O." then, and some folks turned homeward while others just began to arrive in town. Joy reigned supreme at 12:15 a.m. when Mr. Hoover's headquarters acknowledged defeat.

"A great man has gone down to defeat," said Republican Chairman Sanders. "No nation ever returned a Party to power in the face of such a depression."

Today the Board of Canvassers of Prince William county met and officially placed the Roosevelt-Garner vote at 1499, the Hoover-Curtis vote at 386, the Upshaw-Ragan at 17 and the Thomas-Maurer vote at 5. The Congressional vote is tabulated in another column.

JUDGE SMITH THANKS JOURNAL

The Manassas Journal,
Manassas, Virginia.
Gentlemen:

I wish to thank you and your paper for its splendid cooperation in the campaign. The results achieved could not have been possible without the intensive and effective campaign of education which you carried on, and I am sure all of my Democratic colleagues on the ticket join me in expressing our sincere thanks.

Cordially yours,
HOWARD W. SMITH.

ANNUAL BAZAAR AND TURKEY DINNER

The annual bazaar, turkey and oyster dinner and supper will be held in the assembly room of the Methodist church Thursday, November 17. Fancy articles and candy for sale. Public cordially invited to attend.

Coles district claims the honor of having the oldest convert. A man who is 84 years old voted Tuesday and voted the straight Democratic ticket for the first time in his life. He is the well-known farmer, Mr. Simeon Long.

CATHARPIN

Mrs. W. C. Ellison who has been at the Takoma Park Sanatorium for several weeks returned home on Saturday feeling somewhat better and it is the hope of her friends that she may soon recover.

Miss Audrey McIntosh of Chevy Chase, Md., was calling on friends and relatives on Saturday of last week.

The first quarterly conference of the new year for the Sudley Circuit was held at Gainesville under the presidency of the new presiding elder, the Rev. J. Howard Wells, who as the P. E. of the Washington district also becomes head of that portion of the old Alexandria district which has been allocated to the Washington district as a measure of economy. Dr.
Wells is well known thruout the Baltimore conference as one of its strongest men and the Sudley contin-gent is glad to welcome him particularly since it was he who preached the dedicatory sermon for the New Sudley. The meeting was full of interest and prospects excellent for a good year's work on the circuit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Brower and family spent Sunday afternoon at Larkinton.

As things usually go, when these lines are being read, the great Quadrennial Election shall have passed into history. Just what the result will be no one at the time these lines are penned can tell; one can only guess. The noise of battle shall be stilled and the warriors, for the first time in months, shall have retired to their tents, wearied, saddened or elated, as the case may be. Whoever may be our president elect, our patriotism, of which commodity we all profess an abundant supply, should lead us to say "OUR PRESIDENT"; not MINE nor THINE, but "OUR."
"MY" president. Only by such spirit can any Democracy live. It is one of the most deplorable features of our time that our system of elections shall be conducted along lines of calumny, vituperation, abuse, censure, misrepresentation, disregard for one's character and reputation,—anything to create the impression that the opposing candidate is anything but a gentleman and wholly unfitted for the office he seeks. After the smoked of battle has rolled away and the issue settled, if we were to believe all that the opposing parties have written and said of each other, we would be forced to the conclusion that a moral outcast, a degenerate, a miserable weakling, a rascal, an imbecile, a man totally unworthy of either confidence or respect had been elected president of the United States of America. One wonders sometimes just where this kind of stuff is going to lead us? As a rule candidates represent the principles of the nominating parties; these principles are of course subjects for debate, both by the press and on the stump; debated honestly so that the electorate may have some idea as to the issue. Unless and until this is done, JUSTICE and RIGHT are but mere terms; not facts.

SUBTLETY AND DRAMATIC

ACTION MAKE COLUMBIA

LAWYER FILM GRADE "A"

Two outstanding qualities of "Attorney for the Defense," Columbia picture showing at the Dixie Theatre next Friday, Nov. 18, contribute to the abundance of entertainment value that the film has—fine dramatic action and subtlety. The two reach a nice balance that will make the film attractive to all types of audiences.

The punch of the story's drama hits out in the first sequence—in the court room scene when Lowe is hysterically denounced by an innocent man condemned to the chair. From that point it builds through the scenes where Lowe and Dillaway argue over Evelyn Brent, through the scene in her apartment after the murder, to the final trial scene where Lowe defends himself; mounting steadily in dramatic intensity to the climactic scene when Lowe reveals the murderer.

The numerous subtle touches of direction and acting mark it definitely as a superior film. Suspense is maintained throughout the picture with the audience kept guessing about the murderer until the last scene. Character analysis is admirably handled with the role of Bill Burton, played by Edmund Lowe. From an over-ambitious district attorney who ruthlessly sent men to their death, he became a great defense lawyer. Women and juries were his racket—he did what he wanted with them—they couldn't resist him. He was a great lawyer and a great lover. However, when he sent an innocent man to the chair, he discovered he had a conscience and it was this conscience that affected his transformation. Well-chosen scenes bring out this change.

Address of welcome to our new
members, Louise Beach.

Co-operation, the keynote of a successful Junior League, Helen Osborne.

School spirit and how it may be reflected in our athletics, Elizabeth Harrover.

What the privilege of playing on the soccer team means to a boy, Howard Melton.

Some of the benefits of appearing on the literary programs of our Junior League, Francis Smith.

A few words from the freshman class, Marshall Garth.

The sophomore—our goal, Mary Partlow.

Some Junior ideals, Della Beach.

The members of this organization seem thoroughly interested in the work this year and it is hoped that a great deal of real progress will be made before school closes in June.

JUBILEE MEETING OF W.C.T.U.

The first of six public meetings required of the W.C.T.U. in this 50th year of the organized work in the state of Virginia was held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, Nov. 3.

Scripture reading by Rev. W. A.
Hall, and prayer by Rev. Mr. Miller.
The audience was delighted to have the Kline brothers, who sang some of their catchy songs. "Sowing the Tares" was especially fine.

Mrs. Saunders read a paper covering the outstanding work of the organization and paying high tribute to our pioneer women.

The story of the hardships of a boy making his way through school, handicapped by a father who drank,
was read by Mrs. Blough. Mrs. Harrell sang "The line shall not break where I stand."

Rev. Mr. Blough gave an excellent and informing talk on the benefits of Prohibition. Mrs. Bywaters read
"Election Day."

Mr. Hall pronounced the benediction.

HAYMARKET JUNIOR LEAGUE

The first meeting of the Haymarket High School Junior League was held on Oct. 12, at which time it was decided that the Junior League should take care of the athletic association.
Arrangements were discussed for Hallowe'en entertainment to be given on Oct. 31, at the parish hall.

The second meeting of the league was held on Oct. 26 when the following program consisting of 5-minute talks was well rendered:

Address of welcome to our new
members, Louise Beach.

Co-operation, the keynote of a successful Junior League, Helen Osborne.

School spirit and how it may be
reflected in our athletics, Elizabeth

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Wright celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Oct. 23. The children were all present, but Mrs. Mary Davis of Enfield, N. H. There were 85 present and around 75 for lunch.

Those from distant were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wine and daughter, Mr. Glen Wine and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Zimmerman and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thomas, Mrs. Neely Wright and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Wright and son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright, all of Bridgewater, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Brown and three children, Mr. Harve Evers, Mrs. Alice Evers, Mr. Staley, all of Richmond, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Dea Cup and four children of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Foster and daughter of Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Baron Armstrong and son of Fairfax, Va., Mr. Harry True-healer of New York, Mrs. Vertie Curtis of Enfield, N. H.

They served the lunch in picnic style on the lawn. They all had a fine time. They also received many beautiful and useful presents.

HOLT VAMPED FROM

ALL ANGLES IN NEW COLUMBIA PICTURE

Jack Holt has his hands full warding off the hot-cha attentions of two of Hollywood's most attractive vamps with Nora Lane in the cast of "This Sporting Age," Holt's latest Columbia picture, coming next Monday to the Dixie Theatre.

Miss Lane, whose brunette beauty will be remembered from "Dance Team," "Disorderly Conduct," "Rain or Shine," and some thirty other prominent pictures in the last two years, matches her wits with Ruth Weston in seeking Holt's favor. Miss Weston has been under contract to RKO for three years.

Neither one of these undeniably attractive young women stands a chance with Holt, though, because he is much too interested in Evalyn Knapp, who plays the part of his daughter and pal, and much too wrapped up in his polo playing to succumb to the sleek allure of mere women. Hardie Albright, Walter Bryon, J. Farrell MacDonald and Shirley Palmer comprise an excellent supporting cast.

AIDS DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR HOMELESS CHILDREN

Lieutenant-Governor James E. Price, who has accepted the Vice-Chairmanship of the State-wide Finance Council of The Children's Home Society of Virginia.

Campaigns under the leadership of local chairmen are now being conducted in many counties and cities of the state to secure funds to provide for more than a thousand homeless children now in the care of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, and to meet the rapidly increasing demands on the Society to relieve distress among hundreds of other dependent children.

The Society faces a serious situation because contributions have failed by far to come up to the amount anticipated. Salaries of workers have been drastically cut, as have all other expenses of the Society. Contributions and pledges for the year are approximately $15,000 short of the amount necessary to carry on, even with the minimum expense budget now in effect. Any further reductions made in expenses will necessitate an actual curtailment of the services of the Society to its dependent wards.

The Children's Home Society is the only state-wide agency caring for dependent children. It has been doing this work for over thirty-one years. Its workers cover practically every county of the state, and among the more than a thousand children now in its care, practically every county in the state is represented. The headquarters of the Society are in Richmond, where also is located the Receiving Home. Offices are maintained in the Southeastern District at Roanoke, and for the Northeastern District at Charlottesville.

Former Governor R. Lee Trinkle is chairman of the State-wide Finance Council. In addition to Lieutenant-Governor Price, who has just accepted the vice-chairmanship of the council, other Vice-Chairmen are Mr. Alexander W. Weddell and E. Randolph Williams, both of Richmond.

SWAVELY SMASHES

NOTED D. C. ELEVEN

Gonzaga, the fifth school to succumb to an unbeaten Swaveley squad, came out on the small end of a scrappy 26-6 game last Friday. Fighting one of the toughest battles of the season, both teams outdid themselves in fast, cagey football.

John Sweeney, Gonzaga back, leading his team in a series of trick line-backs, end runs, and short gains, gained the laurel crown for outstanding work. The strong nucleus of the Gonzagan eleven, he was almost entirely responsible for his school's only scoring and for the holding of Swaveley to four touchdowns.

On the other hand, Mowrey, playing his usual spirited game for the Blue and the White, not only made three out of the four touchdowns but threw the pass that was nabbed by Smith and run for another scoring. Again and again the former crashed through for dangerous gains and an equal number of times stopped ominous looking enemy formations that might have wrecked havoc had they been completed.

Kohler, full back, though handicapped by a bad ankle during a great part of the game, came through with his usual number of long kickoffs and high-powered punts.

On the outcome of the coming Staunton game hinges Swaveley's state championship hopes. Both teams seem to be favored equally although Swaveley has the more impressive record of the two at the present date.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.
The Lord hath visited and redeemed His people.

OUR DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSMEN

We heartily congratulate the State of Virginia on a full democratic quota in Congress. Especially are the loyal Democrats in the Eighth district enthusiastic over the vote given our Congressman, Howard Worth Smith. Although one of the younger men in the House and just beginning his second term, he has already made a record of which his friends are justly proud.

THE DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

Not since the days of Andrew Jackson has the Party of the People won such an overwhelming victory as was evident last Tuesday when the enormity of the Democratic majority became apparent. Scarcely in the history of the world has there been voiced such an avalanche of protest against a governmental regime.

Millions upon millions of our citizens failed to be impressed by the warnings issued that defeat of President Hoover would cause "grass to grow in the streets of a hundred cities." Millions of voters saw no occasion to "thank God that they had an administration in Washington that knew how to handle mobs."

And when the radio announcer pictured the Chief Executive in his palatial home in Palo Alto, surrounded by every luxury that a great fortune could provide, so staggered by the enormity of his defeat that he shook hands three times with the same guest without seeming to realize what he was doing, somehow a vision must have arisen throughout the land of a day in Washington when, by executive order, hungry and ragged World War veterans were driven by fire, gas and the sword from their pitiful hovels in Anacostia.

And so it seems that a fearful retribution has fallen upon a National Party and its Leader because of a lack of human sympathy and a stubborn indifference to the awful gravity of the present economic depression.

The election of 1932 will go down in history not only as a clear-cut battle between Democracy and Republicanism in their true attitudes toward the welfare of the masses, but also as a choice in types of leadership. Those who have closely followed the campaign addresses of Franklin Roosevelt have been astounded and charmed with his marvelous mental equipment, deep human understanding and his comprehensive grasp of public affairs.

Millions could not but contrast the closing messages of the two candidates. The sweetness and human appeal of Roosevelt's final words and the bitterness of the final address of the Nation's Chief Executive must have lingered in the minds of the masses of humanity as they marked their ballots throughout the day. The words of the man facing inevitable defeat will be generously forgotten, but those of the successful candidate will be remembered as long as those who heard them are able to cast a vote. The beautiful message could only come from a big heart and as they were heard throughout the land a mighty yearning for this kind of a chieftain found expression in the greatest vote of confidence ever voiced by a people in the history of the world.

"To be the means," the successful candidate said, "through which the ideals and hopes of the American people may find a greater realization calls for the best in any man. I seek to be only the humble emblem of this restoration. If that be your verdict, my friends of America and my next door neighbors of Dutchess county, and that be the confident purpose behind your verdict, I shall in the humility that suits such a great confidence seek to meet this great expectation of yours. With your help and your patience and your generous good will we can mend the torn fabric of our national life. On this very eve of the exercise of the greatest right of the American electorate I bid you good night. And I add to that God bless you all."

THE REAL UNITED STATES

In the closing hours of the campaign this statement emanated from Republican sources: "If the Democrats win the South will be in control, and you know what that means."

Early Wednesday morning, Governor Roosevelt stated in part: "The vote of confidence is more than that of party significance. It transcended party limits and became a national expression of liberal thought."

How different these two viewpoints! One depending on the narrowness that has pervaded the National Republican campaigns in former years, and a fair sample of the smallness of Party thought. It was Hughes who in 1916 waved the "bloody shirt" all over the middle West.

A study of American history will show that the highest ideals of governmental policy were expressed when Southern statesmen dominated this country.

It was not one thing or a few things but many things that persuaded the real United States of America to choose Franklin Roosevelt for its next President. It is to be sincerely hoped that Republican leaders will forever bury the bitter sectionalism on which the party originally came into power. If they win again it must be on merit and not on prejudice.

THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS

With the passing of Menalcus Lankford, the Solid South will again erect its Great Wall of Democracy against which Republicanism will batter itself for many years to come.

There is just a tinge of pity in this circumstance. The Anglo-Saxons believe in giving a man a sporting chance for his life. Due to the activities from without his own party Lankford was made a certain sacrifice to the egotism of disgruntled Democrats. Three years ago, when John Garland Pollard swept the decks clean for his party, Lankford alone stood the gale. In his district, he was so well liked that they returned him when the Democracy of the nation was fighting for every seat it could win.

Lankford, who is a native of Culpeper county, represents the decent element of the Republican party who deserves the cooperation of the Democrats in eliminating the malcontents. The time was when any sore-head could threaten the results of the primary by running as "Independent" in the General Election.

Requiescat in pace, Menalcus! May your demise be the clarifying effect long desired in our state politics!

APPEARANCES DECEIVING

In the state accountant's report of officers' fees for 1931 as printed in a recent issue of The Journal, some folks thought that our sheriff received $2500. This was due to the form of the notice. Actually, the county pays Mr. Kerlin less than half of this sum.

GRADY'S INDICTMENT OF LIQUOR

(Reprint by request)

It is interesting to note that the men who have stood out as really great among the leaders of men have been keen to sense and strong to denounce the forces that work against human welfare and the building of character, such as the liquor traffic. Among such outstanding men was Henry Grady. The Evangelical Messenger says:

The name of Henry Grady will live long in American history as one of her most gifted sons. He was a most distinguished journalist and a leader of southern thought. In a prominent place of Atlanta, Ga., where he lived and labored, a fine monument stands as a tribute to his greatness, erected by the people who knew him best and by the city with which his name will be forever linked.

Not only was Grady a powerful writer, but a great orator as well, adding to his fame and value to the nation by his leadership in the South in that critical period of our national life following the Civil War. His appeals carried with them tremendous influence and power; and his voice was one of the forces which helped to quiet the turmoil of the South.

In 1888 he delivered an address which has become famous on the liquor traffic. His audience was electrified and when he had concluded a great ovation was given him. In his peroration he thus described that damnable business which forces are now seeking to again make lawful in American life. Read this, and then vote for the repeal of the prohibition law of the land—if you can with self-respect:

"Tonight it enters a humble home to strike the roses from a woman's cheek and tomorrow it challenges this republic in the halls of Congress. Today it strikes a crust from the lips of a starving child and tomorrow levies tribute from the government itself.

"There is no cottage humble enough to escape it, no place strong enough to shut it out. It defies the law when it cannot coerce suffrage. It is flexible to cajole, but merciless in victory.

"It is the mortal enemy of peace and order, the despoiler of men and terror of women, the cloud that shadows the faces of children, the demon that has dug more graves and sent more souls unshriven to judgment than all the pestilences that have wasted life since God sent the plagues of Egypt and all the wars since Joshua stood beyond Jericho.

"It comes to ruin, and it shall profit mainly by the ruin of your sons and mine. It comes to mislead human souls and crush human hearts under its rumbling wheels.

"It comes to bring gray-haired mothers down in shame and sorrow to their graves. It comes to change the wife's love into despair and her pride into shame. It comes to still the laughter on the lips of little children. It comes to stifle all the music of the home and fill it with silence and desolation.

"It comes to ruin your body and mind, to wreck your home, and knows it must measure its prosperity by the swiftness and certainty with which it wrecks this world."

ARDS MADE AT ANNUAL MEET

Achievement Program Staged Here Saturday.

The annual achievement program, which this year was a joint affair for home demonstration groups and 4-H clubs, was held in the high school auditorium on Saturday, November 5. The day's program began with invocation by Rev. Stuart Gibson, followed by the singing of Our Prince William, led by Miss Beatrix Clark. After the address of welcome by Mrs. Raymond Ellis, Greenwich, who is chairman of the advisory board, roll call of clubs was responded to by reports of the activities of the year.

Mrs. Egbert Thompson, who reported on "The More Living From Your Garden and Pantry Shelves Campaign," gave special mention to Nokesville community for having most contestants. To Bethel community goes credit for having provided most adequately for living from pantry shelves 26 quarts of fruits and 34 quarts of vegetables having been provided for each member of the ten families reporting. First prize in the campaign went to Mrs. W. M. Johnson, Manassas; second to Mrs. T. B. Flickinger, Nokesville; third to Mrs. M. M. deNicola, Bethel. Each was presented with an attractive piece of pottery. Honorable mention was given Mrs. George Hedges, Bethel, and Mrs. J. J. Payne, Manassas.

Reports on women's work told of loyal and consistent work of project leaders, practically all food demonstrations having been given by leaders. A total of quarts of fruits, quarts of vegetables, quarts of meats and quarts of other foods were reported by women of Nokesville, Greenwich, Haymarket and Bethel communities.

Miss Maude E. Wallace, state home demonstration agent, used as the theme for a most interesting talk "Club Work." Each letter was given a definite and real meaning in building a definition of club work with its varied developmental approaches.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Elmer Metz, a radio hook-up provided an opportunity to listen in for national and state 4-H club achievement program.

Dramatizations of Mother Goose rhymes, the presentation of Old Man Depression and other original stunts provide a period of keen amusement.

The display of articles made from cotton-bags formed a background for the demonstration on removal of prints and dyeing of cotton bags, given by Elizabeth Allen of Nokesville and Wilda Bourne, Occoquan.

Awarding of the 4-H club banner and presentation of prizes provided an interesting feature of the day's program. Occoquan 4-H Club was presented with the club banner for most outstanding work of the year. Hayfield came second and Woodlawn third in community and project work for the year.

Bethel Home Demonstration Group was named as having done most distinctive piece of woman's work.

Prizes were awarded club members for most outstanding project work of the year. These Copen, Hayfield, earned the homemakers prize of $2 for best clothing project for girl over 14; Hazel Nelson, Woodlawn, $2 for best clothing project for girl under 14. Isaac, Nathan and Irene Posey, Woodbine Club, earned the Bethlehem Good Housekeepers prize of $2.50 for best garden project. Margaret Ellison, Catharpin, and Raymond Spittle, Greenwich, tied for first place in poultry project. Each was presented with a small prize in money.

Recognition was given Billy Hale of the Nokesville Club as being the outstanding dairy club member in the county and a lacto-meter for keeping a record of production awarded as a prize.

The winner of the feed identification and classification contest, Eddie Russell of the Occoquan Club, was introduced. An engraved silver pitcher was the award to the winner in this contest.

A gold medal was presented to Maury Wells of the Wellington Club who has the distinction of being the county winner in the national meat animal livestock contest.

Recognition was given the members of the county dairy judging team which represented the county at the state fair in October. These were Joyce Garman, Eddie Russell, Wiley Garman and Billy Hale of the Nokesville and Occoquan clubs. Egbert Thompson, Jr., was the highest scoring individual at the contest held at the county contest day.

AMERICAN LEGION PROGRAM Manassas High School November 11, 1932

Opening ceremonies by Commander Herbert S. Carpenter, Jr.
Invocation by the Reverend Mr. Gibson.

Recognition of Gold Star Mothers. Musical program under the direction of Mrs. Pattie, assisted by Mrs. Leachman, Miss Compton and Mrs. John Hynson.

Address by Commander Carpenter. Music.
Address by Mr. Wheatley Johnson. Song: Star-Spangled Banner.

In Commander Carpenter's address he briefly outlined the development of the American Legion, explaining that the purpose of the Legion is to serve the community, state and nation. Part of his talk was used to explain the National Americanism Commission which is that department of the Legion used in the education of our younger citizens. He showed that the commission, through its program, exerts influence in the promotion of the Citizens' Military Training Camp and the R. O. T. C. Units in colleges, knowing that the young men participating in this training will gain a better understanding of their obligations to their country.

Mr. Johnson in his address showed how the American Legion aided the boys and girls in training them to be better citizens in their community.

MR. GAURD SPEAKS OF JUNIOR RED CROSS WORK AT WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING

The regular meeting of the Manassas Woman's Club was held Wednesday, November 9, at the high school. Owing to the rainy weather, only a small attendance was present.

The program was Child Welfare Work under the direction of Miss Neel, our county nurse. Miss Neel gave a very enlightening report of the work that is being done here in this county; after which she introduced Mr. Gaurd, director of the National Junior Red Cross. Mr. Gaurd explained in detail the difference between the Junior Red Cross and the Red Cross work. The outstanding differences which should be of interest to club women are: the Junior Red Cross is an educational organization that motivates thinking, acting and doing in a definite way to actually make the youth of America into a more efficient, social minded and international minded younger group with its primary factors leading to character building and better citizenship.

The regular business of the club was reported on in order. It was voted that the club sponsor the Christmas assembly dance as usual; that the garden section take care of the preparations for the Community Christmas tree.

Do you know Virginia has the special privilege and honor to be the hostess state for the meeting of the council of General Federation of Woman's Clubs at Richmond, next May. Each club is asked to send an amount of money to help entertain at this Federation meeting, and as the Manassas Club wishes to do its active part, it was voted that each member be taxed fifty cents to raise this fund.

Coffee and cake were served by the hostesses after the meeting was formally adjourned.

JUNIOR LEAGUE HOLDS "TACKY" PARTY

On Monday night, Oct. 31, the Haymarket High School Junior League gave a very attractive and enjoyable "tacky" Halloween party. The parish hall was appropriately decorated with autumn leaves, pumpkins and various booths, while old-fashioned games and dances were entered into, wholeheartedly by young and old alike. The faculty of the school rendered an interesting and humorous number on the program, evoking much applause from the assembled crowd.

One feature of the party was the giving of a prize to the couple dressed in the tackiest costumes. This was won by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rust of Haymarket. Refreshments were sold, the proceeds of which, in addition to the small admission charge, netted quite a neat sum to be used for the expenses of the league.

AND THEY PAID THEM!

There are so many personalities in "Night World" at the Dixie Theatre, that you have to look quick to see them. We will give you a tip. Arletta Duncan is the little cigarette girl; the trick waiter is Frankie Farr; Gene Morgan is the master of ceremonies; Anna Ingraham and Alice Adair, beauty prize winners, are on either side of Mae Clarke in the ensemble. Pat Somerset is one of the two hundred guests who were paid to be entertained at the most illustrious night club that was ever erected in Los Angeles. Lucky extras, the night club lasted six weeks and has just been torn down.

OKLAHOMA COWBOYS OF RADIO FAME TO APPEAR IN PERSON AT DIXIE THEATRE

Ever see a group of real cowboy entertainers, sometimes termed as a cowboys' band? You have probably heard the Oklahoma Cowboys many times from various radio stations throughout the United States, as they have broadcasted from over sixty-five of the leading and larger radio stations for the past few years.

You will have a chance to hear and see them in person at the Dixie Theatre where they will appear tomorrow night.

These are the original Cowboys who were featured on the National Farm and Home Hour over the coast to coast network of the National Broadcasting Company, the ones that create a sensation in every radio station with their fast and diversified radio programs.

Each and every member of the Oklahoma Cowboys is an accomplished cowboy musician, playing and using a total of twenty-two string instruments. Of course, they dress in what might be termed their native costumes, large ten-gallon hats, cowboy boots, chaps, loud shirts, etc. Yes, sir, honest to goodness cowboys with their quaint and queer entertainment which they have learned around ranch bunkhouses. As they say, they do plenty of "playin'," "singin'," "dancin'" and "ropin'" and many novelties new to the show going public.

Watch for their special built and decorated car in which they travel. You can't help but see and notice it as it will be close to the Dixie Theatre while they are appearing there tomorrow night.

COMEDIANS IN DRAMA

Two comedians will be seen in support of Ken Maynard in his new Tiffany Productions western drama, "Brimmed Men," which will be at the Dixie Theatre next Saturday.

The two laugh promoters are Billy Bletcher and Irving Bacon, who are cast as partners of the popular western star. Together they supply a number of laugh-filled situations in the exciting western action picture.

The past week marked the "coming of age" of the world's largest automobile company.

For, just 21 years ago—on Nov. 3, 1911—the Chevrolet Motor Company was incorporated in Michigan for the manufacture and sale of automotive vehicles.

The first car ever to carry the name "Chevrolet" came out of an upstairs flat converted into a workshop in Detroit, and now, a generation later, the name has decorated more than 8,000,000 radiators of cars and trucks throughout the world.

Today the Chevrolet Motor Company has a past record of leading the industry in sales in three years out of the past five. For the 1932 year-to-date Chevrolet registrations outnumber the second highest make by approximately 100,000 units, indicating another year of Chevrolet leadership and an increase in "firsts" to four out of the past six.

Curiously enough, the first Chevrolet bore a basic resemblance to the modern product of the company in that Louis Chevrolet, famous race driver of another era, who did some experimental work on the first car and whose name it perpetuates, employed a six cylinder engine. The company's greatest comparative success came with this type of motor, built exclusively during the past three years, and now being copied by other entrants into the low priced market.

In another sense the early years of the company bear a strange parallel to modern days in that as early as 1915 Chevrolet was launched in the volume car field, where it was later to achieve leadership, with the introduction of the Model "490." This car, named for its price, was a sensation in its day, and production of it was continued for several years.
