RED CROSS NIGHT AT KIWANIS CLUB

The Kiwanis Club listened to interesting figures and stirring appeals in behalf of the local Red Cross Call which will end shortly.

Dr. Marsteller gave his usual forceful arguments, citing numerous examples of the welfare work, praising Misses Sarah Pitta, home demonstrator, and Sabina Neel, county nurse.

All three gave dramatic pictures of the need of welfare work in the county. Miss Neel stated that around 130 children had received attention in 1932 which total was only exceeded by the year in which the club put on a special drive for such work in the county.

Both of the speakers gave Miss Pitta great credit for aiding in garden production and canning work among the needy.

President Al got after his Xmas relief committee and said committee pledged to "get busy" at once.

COTILLION CLUB TO GIVE DANCE

The Cotillion Club of Manassas takes this opportunity to announce its mid-winter ball to be held on Friday, December 2, at Conner's Hall. Extensive plans have been made for this occasion, assuring everyone attending of a pleasant and enjoyable evening.

Music will be furnished by a competent and well-known eleven-piece band. The dance will be opened by a grand march led by the officers of the club: President, W. Hill Brown, Jr.; vice-president, Robt. W. M. Weir; secretary-treasurer, John H. Burke, Jr.

The patronesses will be: Mrs. H. Thornton Davies, Mrs. Howard L. Jamison, Mrs. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Mrs. E. H. Marsteller, Mrs. Robert H. Smith and Mrs. A. Stuart Gibson.

JOINT MEETING OF THE TWO COMMUNITY LEAGUES

The High School and Bennett Leagues held a joint meeting in the high school auditorium Wednesday night, November 16.

The sixth and seventh grades presented an interesting program of piano and vocal solos, readings and folk dances.

Mr. R. C. Haydon presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers of the evening.

Superintendent Kemp of Arlington and Mr. Vanderslice, principal of Washington-Lee High School, gave talks in which they urged the co-operation of the community with the school.

After these talks everyone enjoyed a social half hour while refreshments were being served.

NATIONAL CHAMPION TO CHOP HERE

Peter McLaren, who claims the wood-chopping championship of America, will stage a log cutting contest and demonstration here on Friday, December 2, at 9:30 a.m.

This contest has been arranged by Manassas Hardware Co. who is to be congratulated for arranging for the visit of this colorful champion, McLaren, whose wizardry with an axe has carried him from a poor farm lad in Australia, to the peak of his profession.

In chopping tours covering a score of years he has chopped before hundreds of thousands, both here and abroad. McLaren who is nearly 50 years old claims that outdoor chopping is a great physical developer. His own condition bears out this claim.

The contest is open to any local man who has not previously competed against McLaren. A prize of fifty dollars will be paid to any contestant if McLaren fails to chop through a log in two-thirds of the time the contestant takes.

The handicap gives all good choppers a sporting chance to win the prize money, as it is just like giving 33 yards in a hundred yard dash.

The only restriction made is that no contestant be permitted to use a Plumb Axe. This is the only axe which McLaren himself ever uses, and he refuses to chop against a Plumb Axe and also allow the handicap.

Every one is cordially invited to attend the demonstration. Choppers wishing to compete should bring their axes with them. It costs nothing to enter the contest.

Ay, call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod;
They left unstained
What there they found,
Freedom to worship God.
—Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers.

OFFICIAL VISITS MASONIC LODGE

District Deputy Grand Master at Manassas.

Last Friday night Hon. Hugh Reid, of Arlington county, district deputy grand master, made his official visit to Manassas Lodge 182. Many other prominent Masons were present and there was a large attendance from the local membership.

Mr. Oden Breeden, of Manassas, received his Master Mason's degree on this occasion and after the Lodge was closed in ancient form, refreshments were served by ladies of the Eastern Star.

NATIONAL ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE CONVENTION

(contributed)

The national convention of the Anti-Saloon League will be held in Washington, D. C., beginning Friday, Dec. 9, and ending on Monday, the 12th, with field day services and a great mass meeting on Sunday, the 11th.

Congress will then be in session, and matters vital to the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act will be among the major questions for discussion. Every man and woman in Virginia who can possibly do so should plan to attend the convention. The probability is that it will be the most largely attended convention for many years, in view of the vital phases through which prohibition is now passing.

ETTA V. BROWN

On November 14, Mrs. Robert Lee Brown entered eternal life. She was the daughter of Charles Cecil and Amanda Eubanks Wash of Albemarle county and the widow of Robert Lee Brown.

Mrs. Brown was a member of the Baptist church and until ill health rendered her inactive for social duties was a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She was loved and respected by all who knew her.

The deceased is survived by five sons, W. L. of Alexandria, Frank Lee, Gordon L., and Woodrow Lee of Washington, and Robert M. of Newport News, and three daughters, Mrs. Raymond Davis of Manassas, Mrs. Al Pierotte of Washington and Mrs. Harry D. Bailey of Capitol Heights, Md. She had seven grandchildren.

Services were conducted by Rev. C. P. Ryland, Rev. J. D. D. Clark of the Baptist church, and Rev. A. S. Gibson of the Episcopal church, at her late residence on Prescott avenue. Interment in Manassas cemetery.

REPORTS SHOW IMPROVEMENT

Home Demonstration Projects Outlined for 1933.

Reports made from Haymarket, Greenwich, Nokesville and Bethel Home Demonstration groups showed a 27 per cent increase in the number of women served during the 1932 project year. The gain in membership and excellent work done by Bethel Home Demonstration Group was shown in the report given by Mrs. M. M. de Nicola.

Mrs. W. L. Lloyd, Greenwich, gave a very interesting report of the national farm and garden meeting which was held at the Willard Hotel in Washington on Nov. 17. Mrs. Lloyd represented the county home demonstration advisory board at that meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Free made a most favorable report on the program of the annual meeting of the State Homemakers Association, which was held at Blacksburg in July. Mrs. Free went as a delegate to the Homemakers meeting from the home demonstration advisory board.

Projects selected for 1933 are: food preparation, major; house furnishings and gardening, minors. The major project and one or more of the minors will be studied by each of the home demonstration groups.

The following county goals were set for 1933:

1. To serve more women, (1) increasing attendance at group meetings, (2) passing on information to those who cannot attend the meetings.
2. Make home demonstration meetings more interesting, (1) including a 15-minute recreational program for each meeting, (2) shortening business meetings.
3. Give more publicity to the work of home demonstration groups.
4. To promote such thrift measures as (1) more home baking of bread, (2) magazine and book exchanges, (3) more home sewing and remodeling.

Work Done for Orphans Placed on Screen.

The Order Fraternal Americans in Prince William county and their friends, to a number of well over 200, gathered in the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening to witness the moving pictures demonstrating the operation of the two national orphans' homes operated by the Order and by the Daughters of America at Tiffin, Ohio, and Lexington, N. C.

Thomas Schaife, who was raised at the Tiffin home, and now connected with the general offices in Philadelphia, showed the three reels and explained them in great detail. It was all quite interesting and the crowd was very attentive, a circumstance which pleased their guest very much.

Mr. Schaife brought out the immediate and great relief felt by all members of the organization in the knowledge that their children would be protected.

It is thought that a movement will be started shortly by District Deputy Baker to organize a Prince William Council of the Daughters of America. A number of ladies already interested in the project witnessed the picture on Tuesday evening.

JONES HEARINGS ARE COMPLETED

Governor Delays Decision on Dismissal of State Forester.

On Monday the hearings before Governor Pollard on the dismissal of State Forester Chapin Jones were completed. Mr. Murray McGuire, attorney for the State Forester, concluded his presentation with an eloquent appeal and left with the Governor a written brief covering in full the arguments and evidence submitted.

A large number of letters from forestry experts throughout the United States were offered in evidence in Mr. Jones' behalf.

The Governor indicated that he had also received evidence in decided conflict with the contentions of Mr. McGuire in defense of his client.

It is not thought that the Governor will announce his decision for several days, and perhaps not before the first of December as there is no pressing need for haste since the dismissal order does not become effective until the end of the year.

FORMER SENATOR SERIOUSLY HURT

Felled by Blow of Relative.

Former State Senator Walter Tansill Oliver sustained a fractured skull Tuesday night when he was knocked down by a blow said to have been delivered by Louis Ritchie of Fairfax, following an argument in front of the latter's home.

Ritchie, son of A. C. Ritchie, former judge of the Juvenile Court, is held under $1,000 bond, furnished by his father, for a preliminary hearing to be held when Oliver's condition is determined.

There were no eyewitnesses to the altercation, which took place between 9 and 9:30 p.m. According to Commonwealth's Attorney Wilson M. Farr, Ritchie told him that he hit Oliver with his fist and that Oliver struck his head on the macadam roadway when he fell, becoming unconscious. Ritchie immediately summoned police, who carried the Senator to his home nearby and called Farr and Dr. F. M. Brooks.

Oliver is 57 years old. He served several terms in the State Legislature as Delegate for Fairfax county and later as Senator from this district, preceding Frank Ball. Young Ritchie is studying law in Washington.

BETHLEHEM G. H. CLUB

Bethlehem G. H. Club met with Mrs. Thos. Broadbuss, assistant hostess, Mrs. McDonald, Nov. 16. Report from Civilian Relief, Mrs. Lloyd. The Red Cross by Mrs. C. R. C. Johnson. She laid before them the five-dollar plan by which the club could be benefited. It was accepted unanimously.

She told them the wonderful work the Red Cross was doing in the county, particularly among the school children.

Mrs. T. J. Broadbuss had charge of the program. Mrs. John Broadbuss, piano solo. Mrs. Logan, two vocal solos. Mrs. Hodge, a Christmas story by Temple Bell.

Visitors, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. John Broadbuss, Mrs. Logan and Miss McDonald.

MAKE YOUR THANKSGIVING OFFER- ING A MEMBERSHIP IN RED CROSS

(contributed)

This winter will without doubt be the hardest winter in the history of our nation. Thousands of our fellow citizens will need a helping hand from those more fortunate than themselves. Let us demonstrate in a material way our claim as upright and Christian citizens of a great Christian nation. Let us be able to say when the winter has passed that each and everyone of us has done his part toward upholding the great name of the American people willing providers for the unfortunate and the needy. Remember that however strained may be your circumstances, there is always someone less fortunate than yourself. No better symbol of your spirit of thanksgiving can be manifested than by giving your contribution and becoming a member of the Prince William County Chapter of the American National Red Cross. GRANGE TO STAGE
SERIO-COMICS

"The Last Leaf," a drama in two acts and a modern sketch in one-act, "That Old Gang of Mine," will be staged by a dramatic club of Washington, at the Haymarket Parish Hall on December 3 at 7:30 p.m.

This play, after a successful run in Washington, is being brought to Haymarket under the auspices of the Bull Run Grange.

Among the players appearing, under the direction of T. Ashby Flynn, are Edna Weight, Charles Mueller, Al Windsor, Jack Collins and many others of outstanding ability. Song hits, both new and old, will lend variety to the evening of entertainment.

ADEN

Mr. and Mrs. John Gentry and family of Marvin, Tenn., recently moved here and will occupy what is known as the "Flickinger Place."

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fitzwater spent Sunday visiting friends here.

The sale sponsored by the Sunbeam class was quite a success, regardless of the unfavorable weather.

Mr. Harvey Snyder and granddaughter, Jean Snyder Renner, of Bergton are spending the week visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Evalyn Kerlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright of Maryland spent Sunday with Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Wright.

Rev. Henry Lawson will have charge of the service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. We are very grateful to Rev. Lawson for the help he is giving us in our church work.

Rev. U. P. Houermale of Martinsburg will preach here Sunday night at 7:30. He will be accompanied by a young minister who will probably be our pastor here the coming year.

Seven million children of school age are members of the Junior Red Cross of this country. They constantly promote goodwill and understanding throughout most of the civilized world. The Red Cross appeals to people of all ages. Why not take out a membership today?

MRS. PETER MARSHALL

Mrs. Peter Marshall, aged 97, died Sunday morning at the Pearson home below Clifton, following the increased infirmities of age.

She was born Virginia Fairfax, one of that county's old, old families. She lived in her native county all of her life. There are no children, and her husband has been dead for many years. One niece, Alice Fairfax, of Washington, and a nephew, Walter Woodyard, of Clifton, survives her.

Interment was at the old Woodyard burial ground Tuesday. Rev. S. Y. Craig, of Fairfax Court House, officiated.

NOTICE

Saturday night, Nov. 26, at 8 o'clock, a conference of ministers, Sunday school officers and workers will be held at the Methodist church, Manassas. Rev. Minor C. Miller, state secretary, will be present and assist in organizing some special work.

We insist that you make special effort to be present at this meeting.

CATHARPIN

Marble Hill, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins, had as guests this week Miss Annie Talley of South Carolina and Miss Catherine Hogsd of Georgia. Both Mrs. Collins and guests took in the quilting party at Sudley on Tuesday where all as usual enjoyed the good eats provided by the ladies of the society. Depressions may come and go but the "eats" at Sudley go on forever.

Many, no doubt, will remember Franklin Clay Wheeler, brother of J. D. and R. Lee Wheeler of this neighborhood who visited his friends and relatives here during the past summer. Not long after his return home in Louisiana he took sick from which illness he never recovered and word of his demise was received a short time ago. Mr. Wheeler went to Louisiana in early life and married there and remained in the State until his death.

Mrs. Mary Pattie Briggs was visiting relatives in Clarendon last week.

Mrs. Carrie Fetzner Swift has the sympathy of many friends in the Sudley neighborhood on account of the serious illness of her husband, Mr. Joseph Swift, who is at present confined in Walter Reid Hospital suffering from serious ailment. Mr. Swift has been a sufferer for several years but at one time was thought to be getting better. Their many friends hope he may yet be restored to health.

Miss Marguerite Latham of Snow Hill was an overnight school guest of Miss Frances Robertson of Lawn Vale recently.

Those who miss Sudley these days certainly miss something worth while. Last Sunday's text was "And they all with one accord began to make excuses." It was a "warmer" all right; you should have heard it. He said there is a difference between an excuse and a reason; an excuse usually is a lie trumped up for the occasion while a reason may be true and admissible. Ah, boy! (or "girl") you should hear some of these; they might diagnose your case for you.

Thanksgiving is now in order and many a cheap gobble will furnish the piece de resistance for the family gathering as we all proceed to forget to be thankful even while surrounded by a maze of good things to eat. Thanksgiving officially closes the Washington Bi-centennial Jubilee which has been going on since February 22, but which we saw very little of. It was like some other things; it required lots of faith and imagination to realize it, but George was remembered and revered by many a school child who has collected pictures and scrap-book information which will live in their memories for time to come.

If we, of maturer years, will but observe we may find many things to remind us again of just what youth is made of. Looking out of our window on Armistice Day morning we beheld a bunch of children coming down the road afoot. This being unusual we inquired why and learned that the school bus had failed to appear and they were anxious to know the cause. Calling up we found a broken wheel was responsible for the delay, but that Mr. Alvey's truck would soon be along to take them. The truck, of course, was not fitted with longitudinal, plush covered seats but was encompassed about by a high rack, very staunch and secure. Into this they all climbed and standing up shouted and cheered as on they sped. The truck made a "lurch" and over they went like so many tennpins, but little did they care; up they jumped and their shouts and yells could be heard a mile away as onward they went with rollicking good humor having the time of their lives. Well, that was youth in all its glory. They were bothered neither by politics nor the depression; they only saw and enjoyed a "mixup" out of the ordinary and proceeded to enjoy it to the limit. The return trip in the evening, however, was made in the regular bus which had been repaired and was again in service. This little experience called to mind the lines we used to "declaim" in our youthful days; lines with which Whittier, no doubt, consoled his declining years as his reveries carried him back to his youthful days and the barefoot boy, which compelled him to burst forth in rapturous exclamation—

Blessings on thee, little man,
Barefoot boy, with cheek of tan!
With thy turned up pantaloons,
And thy merry whistled tunes.

This was Whittier's notion of the old-fashioned barefoot boy; now may we paraphrase it to suit the new-fashioned girl?

Blessings on thee, little woman,
Bare-legged lass, with cheeks a-bloomin'!

With thy turned down stocking-ette,
Your a natural born coquette.

Last Friday night was supposed to be a big night at Sudley when the Bible class was to entertain the children and young people as well as the other ones at a "weeny" roast but the old Weather Man who so often interposes, sent down copious showers just at the psychological moment when people were donning wraps and cranking up the old "tin Lizzies" so that many could not risk the night with children on slippery roads. The occasion was also to make a speech and tell the pastor and his good wife just how much Sudley thought of them and incidentally to "pound" them thoroughly in order to make them behave as all good pastors and their wives should. Notwithstanding the bad night about 40 nearby residents assembled and ate "weenies" to their heart's content and had a good time generally tho' not to their full satisfaction it was originally contemplated. Many things intended for the pastor and his wife had been delivered at the church, but they not being present, were later much surprised when a bunch of young folks loaded the "pounds" into their cars and visited the parsonage in the night and "showered" them at home. Thus while things did not materialize as intended yet the "good intentions" were fully understood and all are happy.

CAGNEY A KNOCKOUT
"WINNER TAKE ALL"
AT DIXIE THEATRE

The picture starts with Jim, ill in health, striving for a comeback at a desert sanatorium. He meets a girl, falls in love with her. He breaks his rest—and also his pose and ear—by fighting to raise some money she needs. He leaves her with a promise of reunion and marriage to re-enter his career in New York. Once there he forgets her for a society girl who is interested in him only as an oddity. The crude boxer goes high-hat for the society girl's sake. He has his broken nose and cauliflower ear fixed by a plastic surgeon and starts getting culture in a big way. His popularity drops off because he turns "powder puff" boxer in order to save his new nose. This situation provides splendid comedy, drama and human interest. It is only in the middle of the biggest fight of his career that the truth dawns on him. What ensues forms one of the most gripping climaxes that the screen has given us.

Since its founding fifty years ago, the American Red Cross, now conducting its annual Roll Call, has handed more than 1,100 disasters. Its work is possible only through individual membership. Join today!

FILM SHOWS OLD SOUTH AND WEST

The color and romance of the south in pre-rebellion days and the adventure and excitement of the far west in the days when the red man ruled the plains, are blended in Zane Grey's "The Golden West," the Fox picture with George O'Brien in the leading role, coming next Wednesday to the Dixie Theatre.

An old family feud destroys the love of a boy and a girl. The youth goes west where he meets and marries another girl, and a son is born. The father and mother are killed by the Indians and the child is reared to manhood by the savages, finally to become their leader.

O'Brien plays a dual role, the first during his successful career in motion pictures. He is supported by a cast that includes Janet Chandler, Marion Burns, from the New York stage, Bert Hanlon, Arthur Pierson, Edmund Breese and Emmett Corrigan. The production was directed by David Howard, who also directed O'Brien in "Mystery Ranch" and "The Rainbow Trail."

MINNIEVILLE

Mrs. William Posey had as her guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Ellmore and family of Woodbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. CHARLES EDWARD MCKAY

Charles Edward McKay, for many years a prominent farmer and cattle dealer known throughout the Shenandoah Valley, died in his home in Bristow, Prince William county, at 3 o'clock Friday morning.

Mr. McKay was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKay, and was a native of the Cedarville section of Warren county where he lived most of his life.

Seventeen years ago he moved to Culpeper, and later to Bristow, where he lived at the time of his death.

He married Miss Etta Sowers, of Warren county, who survives, with the following children: Clarence and Aubrey McKay, of Front Royal; Leo and Garland McKay, of Washington, D. C.; Hunter McKay, of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Hubert McKay, of Nineveh; Mrs. Ruth Mellon, of Alexandria; Mrs. Walter Shipp and Mrs. H. L. Golden, of Washington, D. C.

One brother, Buck McKay, of Millwood, also survives.

Funeral services were held in his late home in Bristow on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment in the cemetery at Rockland at about 1 p.m., Sunday afternoon.

The pallbearers were Messrs. J. M. George and Lee Sowers, A. J. Bowen, Norman Shepherd and James Grubbs.

Boys Offered Best Stories

Bad times are good times for magazine readers, according to the editor of youth's favorite magazine, THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION. More people are writing than ever before, he states, and finer adventure, more gripping yarns, more downright reading thrills are due the magazine subscriber than ever in history.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION in 1933 will be loaded from cover to cover with great experiences. For adventure, the reader will travel with the Royal Canadian Mounted through forests and mountains, penetrate to the military posts of Borneo; ride with cavalry in India, plunge into the Amazon jungle.

There'll be character-building stories of the professions, of school and college life. There'll be articles on sports, travel and science, that take boys to the Orient, that explain the mysteries of the ocean liners and air transports. There'll be stories that satisfy the boy's wholesome appetite for fun and thrill, and his keen desire to learn.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION costs just $2.00 a year or $3.00 for three years. In other words, when you subscribe for three years, the magazine's savings enable them to give you a subscription for only a dollar a year! It's the ideal gift for that boy you're interested in, be he son, nephew, neighbor, cousin, or son of your business associate. And an attractive gift card bearing your name will go to him if you request it. Send your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION, 550 West Lafayette Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

UTILIZE THE ROUGH-AGE ON THE FARM

(Prepared by Agronomy Department, V. P. L.)

For greatest returns from products of the farm, it is necessary to utilize the roughages to best advantage. This refers especially to the straw and corn fodder. These materials can best be utilized by the steers and beef cows which are being carried through the winter on a maintenance ration. Feeding experiments show that beef cows fed 5 to 10 pounds of legume hay per day and all the straw or corn fodder they will clean up will leave the winter in fine shape.

These materials may also be fed horses profitably. Horses which are practically idle may be fed large quantities of straw or fodder, provided some high protein grain is fed with it. On the other hand, horses at hard work should be fed only small quantities.

Store or stack the fodder and straw near where it is to be used so it will not be damaged by weather. Much roughage is wasted each year because of careless handling. Save and utilize those materials wisely and advantageously.

"Hundreds of times," said President Hoover in referring to the Red Cross, "it has appealed to the American people for funds to meet an immediate situation, and invariably the American people have immediately responded." Respond to the annual Roll Call now.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER
 If parents will have their children receive a Bible education each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE GREATEST VICTORY:
 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his own spirit than he that taketh a city.—Proverbs 16: 32.

A HISTORIC CONFERENCE

Yesterday for the first time in the history of the United States the President and the President-elect conferred at the White House on questions of executive policy. The world will probably never know exactly what transpired, as the conference was confidential, but the impression widely prevails that the President made a last-stand in behalf of a European debt moratorium and failed to enlist the sympathy and help of the incoming President.

If Europe has now a friend in the White House who places her interests before the welfare of America and has engineered international finances so that the people of the United States are really paying the German war reparations, it is certainly time to call a halt.

It is the prevailing opinion among the masses of the people that Europe ought either to pay or default and that if they do not pay it will be because they are spending their money upon armaments with which to fight one another or to use against us.

In the conference yesterday the first fruits of the election may have matured in the definite ending of the European debt moratorium. Governor Roosevelt certainly made it perfectly plain that President Hoover would have to paddle his own canoe and that the Democracy of this country stood shoulder to shoulder against any further concessions to Europe.

THE POLITICAL MASSACRE

The result of the election is no surprise. It was forecast and was inevitable. The Republican party has had control of the national government since 1861 barring the administrations of Cleveland and Wilson, because: First, of the War Between the States and sectionalism growing out of it; second, its protective tariff policy; and third, it had the majority of the people believing Republicanism and prosperity were synonymous.

Now that sectionalism has disappeared, the protection policy been overworked and the worst depression in our history struck us under a Republican administration, what was left for the Republicans to base a claim for continuance in power?

Can the Republican party survive such a crushing defeat and come back, as the Democratic party has done so often? Space will not permit speculation as to that here. If prosperity returns under Roosevelt, either because of or in spite of him, he will be re-elected. It doesn't—well it will, it must, or people four years hence will be in a desperate frame of mind.

Thoughtful Democrats are thinking of the tremendous responsibility imposed upon their party and its successful candidates, state and nation, and breathing a fervent prayer that they be endowed and imbued with wisdom and restraint; that they may put patriotism above all else and that the faith the people have imposed in them, and each of them, will be abundantly justified.—Romney Review.

THESE CRUDE SOUTHERNERS

Former Senator Joseph R. Grundy closed the Republican campaign in Allentown, Pa., Saturday night with a speech in which he gave utterance to the following assertions:

"When the Democrats are in control at Washington all key positions go to the south. Southerners hold them by virtue of seniority. And these southerners, from sheer ignorance and unfamiliarity with business, are so crude and know so little that the country goes automatically on the rocks."

"The reason for this is that south of the Mason-Dixon line there is no business. The only business in the south is that of politics. The methods there are unbelievable. They would not be tolerated."

"These southern senators and the others make a business of sitting there and looting the U. S. Treasury. I do not say they are not honest."

"The idea of turning the country over to the men of the south, with a President from the north of the type we know he is, with such odds at issue, is a menace more serious than any other we have faced."

There was a good deal more along the same line, but the foregoing extracts are sufficient to give a good idea of the Grundy speech, which departed from legitimate campaign argument deliberately to wave the banner of sectionalism. It is suggested that Republican workers at the polls today distribute copies of Mr. Grundy's speech to the voters. Southern men and women have one sure way of manifesting their resentment of such aspersions on the south, to-wit, by means of their ballots. The Grundy speech is an illuminating disclosure of the real Republican attitude toward the south.—Roanoke Times.

A SCIENTIFIC PIONEER

With the observation that we are so much accustomed to thinking of the twentieth century as the era of scientific progress in America that we often overlook the scientific achievements of an earlier day, the Baltimore Sun pays the following gracious tribute to the distinguished contributions to Matthew Fontaine Maury to the science of hydrography:

"Maury was the father of the system which now makes it possible for mariners to sail the seven seas in a more or less secure knowledge of the winds and currents likely to be encountered. His devotion to the study of oceanography was the result of a chance misfortune which crippled him early in life. His lameness made it impossible for him to pursue the sort of naval career which he had originally chosen, and he turned to the investigation of winds and ocean currents with a view to the improvement of navigation. He initiated the collection of hydrographic data on a large scale through the co-operation of master mariners and he sponsored the first international conference for the study of these matters—a conference from which important results for meteorology as well as for hydrography are said to have flowed."

The Sun's tribute will be appreciated by all Virginians who honor the name of Maury. Only Tuesday a bust of the great geographer was unveiled in the hall of the House of Delegates, in the State Capitol at Richmond. And in Goshen Pass, through which in accordance with his dying request his body was borne while the laurel was in bloom, a memorial bears witness to Virginia's pride in a great son who deserves to go down in history with other famous Virginians who served mankind in their day and generation.—Roanoke Times.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS

Mr. Willard Cross, Misses Virginia Cross, Pauline Manuel and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Wells motored to Shenandoah and Harrisonburg, Va., on Sunday.

The music and literary section of the Woman's Club will meet in the parish hall on Monday, November 28, at 2:30 p.m.

The Junior Missionary Societies of the Baptist church will give on next Sunday night at 7:30 at the Baptist church a program of music, reading, a little playlet and a pageant, "The Light of the Christmas Star." Societies of other churches in Group 5 are expected to take part. All are cordially invited to be present.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Dec. 6, with Mrs. Jas. Corum.

Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the Presbyterian church, Thanksgiving morning at 10:30. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. Chas. P. Ryland, pastor of the Manassas Baptist church. The offering will be given to the worthy cause of "Civilian Relief." A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to worship God and return thanks to Him.

Mrs. Bruce Hynson received word on Tuesday of the death of her father, Mr. William Francis Wolfe, at his home in Washington, Ga. Mr. Wolfe was 78 years of age and a highly-esteemed citizen of his county. His death was the occasion of much regret.

A dance will be given in Dumfries on Dec. 9 for benefit of the Odd Fellows.

Mr. Robert Bibb left Tuesday for a brief visit to his son at Spencer, N. C.

Miss Anne Ross will spend Thanksgiving with her brother at McLean.

Mr. George Baker had the misfortune to run a nail in his foot this week. He will be forced to use crutches for some time.

SWAVELY NOTES

Crippled by the loss of Mowrey and Kohler, the football team was defeated last Saturday by the Technical High School team of Washington. Score, 20-0.

The final game of the football season will be played here on Thanksgiving afternoon against the Alexandria High School team.

Arrangements for the Thanksgiving dinner and dance are now complete, and a very enjoyable time is expected.

Mrs. Fred Leinbach of Philadelphia will be here over Thanksgiving and the week end.

Numerous out-of-town guests are expected for the dinner and dance. "Dan" Carr and "Bill" Gichner came down for the game last Friday.

A short service of thanksgiving will be held at the school on Thursday morning. School will be resumed as usual on Friday morning.

BUCKLAND

Death has claimed another one of Buckland's residents in the passing of Mr. James Butler whose death occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Walter Dove, in Alexandria on Friday, Nov. 11. Mr. Butler had been in excellent health until about two weeks before his death when he contracted pleurisy and other complications, from which he was unable to rally. He was 66 years of age. Funeral services were conducted from Harrison Memorial church on Sunday at 2:30, and his remains were laid to rest beside his wife in the cemetery here. A large crowd which filled the church was in attendance, and the many and very beautiful floral tributes showed in what high esteem the deceased was held.

Mr. Butler is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Dove and Mrs. Edward Mills of Alexandria; three brothers, two sisters and a host of other relatives and many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Brown have closed their home here for the winter and have gone to be with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Brown at Romney, W. Va.

We are sorry to report that Mr. Robert Hall is quite sick.

Mrs. A. B. Lee and daughter, Marion, and Mrs. Maxey Sims, all of Washington, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Graham.

Extensive repairs which Mr. P. H. Lee is having done to his residence add much to its appearance.

Mrs. Gordon Lunsford was a Washington visitor last week.

Fire thought to be caused by a defective flue completely destroyed a small house in our village on Sunday last, owned by Mr. Jack Breeden of Fairfax county.

Mrs. E. B. Carter is visiting Mrs. O. M. Douglas at Thoroughfare this week. Mr. Robert Payne is quite indisposed at this writing and is unable to be out.

SOCIAL NEWS

Miss Rose Ratcliffe, who has been visiting friends in Easton, Pa., since last Friday, returned to her home yesterday afternoon accompanied by Miss Gladys Uhler, Messrs. Jack Ratcliffe, Charles Ryckhaver, Louis Heath and Miss Virginia Conner. While there, Miss Ratcliffe attended the inter-fraternity ball and the Lehigh-Lafayette game. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ratcliffe will give a dinner party to the young people today.

Mrs. Eula Holt Merchant is home after a visit to relatives in Chattanooga.

Dr. and Mrs. Marsteller and family are spending Thanksgiving with Dr. Douglas Vanderhof in Richmond.

Mrs. Bob Smith is entertaining a family party at dinner today.

Eddie Conner, jr., who is attending William and Mary, spent the week end at his home here.

Miss Sally Lewis and Miss Esther Warren Patten are attending the Thanksgiving dances at V. P. I.

Orville Holler, Rilla Holler, Margaret Hottle, Anna Blough and Chester Harley arrived in town last night for the holidays.

Red Cross service is constantly expanding to meet the ever-growing demands. Memberships are needed in greater numbers than ever before. A membership should be your answer.

THANKSGIVING
 November 24, 1932

A day to be thankful for what we have and what we have accomplished—a day to whisk aside the dark clouds of troubles and appreciate the sunshine that is always there whether we see it or not.

So on Thanksgiving Day let us be truly thankful for the many advantages that are ours and for the possibilities of further accomplishment.

What
 will it be,
 Skipper...

SAIL or STEAM?

AN OLD SEA CAPTAIN once said "Any windjammer can ride out a storm with the hatches battened down and the sails clewed up; but it takes a steamship to ride out a dead calm."

Too many business men today are trying to meet a dead calm with hurricane-mustering tactics. Huddling behind their advertising appropriations with stout ropes of prejudice, battened down the hatches on their better judgment. One of these days they'll come on deck and wonder why they're so far from shore.

The steamship captain doesn't wait for trade winds to blow him into the Port of Profit. He masters those trade winds with the driving power of his steam... piles fuel under his advertising boilers... starts his engine towards Profit and usually reaches port before the old-fashioned skipper has spread their sails for an occasional buying breeze.

Reclaimed on a glassy sea today, business will eventually be favored by that buying breeze. But why wait for it? The powerful engines of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING are ready and waiting to stir up the unwhiffed expense of buyer-indifference. And fuel is cheap... much cheaper than marketing time while some wiser navigator gets to port ahead of you.

VIRGINIA:

IN THE CLERK'S OFFICE OF
 THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
 COUNTY OF PRINCE WILLIAM,
 NOVEMBER 23, 1932.

Sophia A. Meetze

vs.

J. Willis Meetze, Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart.

IN CHANCERY

The object of this suit is to subject certain real estate and buildings at Lake Jackson, Prince William County, Virginia, now standing in the name of Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart to the payment of alimony awarded complainant, Sophia A. Meetze, vs. J. Willis Meetze at the rate of $40.00 a month, beginning June 17, 1928, and $50.00 Counsel fee, subject to credits aggregating $407.15.

And an affidavit having been made according to law and filed in this office that the defendants in the above-styled suit are not residents of the State of Virginia, and that the last known post-office address of J. Willis Meetze is Bartow, Florida; and that the last known post-office address of the said Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart is 208 Farragut N. W., Washington, D. C., Apt. 201. And an application for this order of publication having been made in writing and filed,

It is therefore ordered, that the said defendants do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their respective interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in The Manassas Journal, (a newspaper published and circulated in Prince William County), once a week, for four consecutive weeks; a copy thereof sent by the clerk of this court, by registered mail, to each of the aforesaid defendants at the addresses given in the said affidavit, and a copy posted at the front door of the court house of said county on or before the 28th day of November, 1932, that being the first rule day after this order was entered.

Lawson, his wife, to the undersigned trustee to secure the payment of two certain promissory notes, aggregating the sum of $1050.00, default having been made in the payment of the said notes, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the holders of the said notes, will offer for sale, at public auction, on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1932, at eleven o'clock A. M., of that day, in front of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, in the Town of Manassas, Virginia, all those two certain tracts or parcels of land, lying and being situate at Limstrong, on the Bradley Road leading from Manassas to Brentsville at the intersection of the county road leading from said road to Independent Hill via Blandsford over Ocoquan Run, the first parcel containing 9.20 acres, more or less, and the second parcel containing 15 acres, more or less; less and except, however, 2 acres and 3 rods, more or less, of the said second parcel of land that was conveyed by the said Henry Lawson and wife and others to one Charles E. Lawson by deed dated September 10, 1930, and duly recorded among the land records of said county. Reference is hereby made to said deed of trust and deed for a more particular description of the said land.

The said land is situate near the Town of Manassas on the state road and has on it a large dwelling and all necessary outbuildings, all in a state of good repair and because of its location it is an exceedingly desirable piece of property.

TERMS OF SALE: The said property will be sold for cash.
T. E. DIDLAKE, Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE FARM ON THE LEE HIGHWAY

By virtue of a certain deed of trust, dated January 28, 1932, and recorded among the land records of Prince William County in Deed Book 90, page 77, from William M. Harrison and Ruth Harrison, his wife, to the undersigned trustee, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note in the sum of $7826.05, payable in monthly installments of $80.00, default having been made in the payment of the installment due on said note on November 1, 1932, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the holder of the said note, will offer for sale at public auction on SATURDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1932, at eleven o'clock A. M., of that day, in front of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, in the Town of Manassas, Virginia, all those five certain tracts or parcels of land, lying and being situate on the Lee Highway in Manassas Magisterial District, Prince William County, Virginia, containing in the aggregate approximately 118 acres, more or less, reference being hereby had to said deed of trust for a more particular description of said land. The said land abuts directly on the Lee Highway and is situate on the north side of said highway between Stone House and Gainesville. It has on it a commodious and comfortable dwelling and all necessary outbuildings and because of its location is an exceedingly desirable piece of property.

TERMS OF SALE: The said property will be sold for cash, subject to a mortgage against the same due the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore, said mortgage being originally in the sum of $1500.00. The balance now due on said mortgage will be announced on the day of the sale.
T. E. DIDLAKE, Trustee.

HENRY REID DIES IN WASHINGTON

Former Resident of Prince William Was Highly Esteemed.

James Henry Reid, a former resident of this county, died at his residence in Washington Friday, Nov. 18.

Mr. Reid was the eldest son of the late Jas. H. and Beulah S. Reid of Alexandria, Va. He was born and educated in the private schools of that city and the Savannah Military Academy of Savannah, Ga.

In early manhood he removed with his parents to "Locust Shade," this county.

Subsequently he attended Georgetown University. He earned the degrees of Bachelor of Law, Master of Law and Master of Patent Law. He specialized in patent law, and was active in that practice, up to four years ago, when ill health forced him to retire.

He was tenderly nurtured throughout his entire illness by his loving wife, the former Miss Edith Rabbit of Washington.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two brothers, Wm. Stabler Reid of Baltimore, Md., and D. Kent Reid of this county, and one sister, Mrs. Norvell Larkin of Manassas.

His funeral services were held at St. Peter's Roman Catholic church, Washington, on Monday morning, Nov. 22. Interment at Mt. Olivet cemetery.

"However we may differ in other matters, in the activities and in support of the activities of the Red Cross we are a united people."—Charles Evans Hughes. Are you helping to make those activities possible? The time to join is now!

HALL ADVOCATES FREE TEXTBOOKS

Loudoun Delegate Is Enthusiastic.

A bill will be presented before the next session of the General Assembly by Delegate Wilbur C. Hall, of Loudoun, which, if passed, will provide free textbooks for every child in the elementary schools of Virginia. Mr. Hall is chairman of the finance committee in the lower legislative branch and a man of wide influence and of much energy. Mr. Hall visited the state capitol this week and called on Governor Pollard. With reference to his proposed bill he said:

"My bill will provide every child in Virginia with free textbooks, even if we have to deduct the money from the appropriation to the department of education. I estimate it costs the state of Virginia approximately $100,000 a day to operate its public schools." He stated his belief that in most sections of the commonwealth it required from five to ten days in which children obtained the books necessary for the opening of classes. He then said:

"You can see that with free textbooks there would be a potential saving of $500,000. This would be more than enough to pay for the books at the start. With free text books, those needed would be found on the child's desk when the first bell rings."

Chairman Hall pointed out that under his proposed plan the state could immediately, and at any time, eliminate a book found to be undesirable without hardship upon the parents. He said he was the patron of a similar bill in the session of 1930, but that it failed of passage because of insufficient funds for a direct appropriation. He believes, however, that the time has now arrived "when provision for free textbooks in Virginia is absolutely necessary and essential."

"The future of the American Red Cross is secure because its resources are in millions of generous American hearts."—Charles Evans Hughes. Are you counted among those millions of Americans?

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores. (Adv.)

BROWN STOMACHACHE

Joe E. Brown, star of "Fireman, Save My Child," the First National picture coming to the Dixie Theatre next Monday, suffered from old-fashioned stomachache as a result of a heterogeneous diet enforced on him during the filming of the picture.

Brown appears in "Fireman, Save My Child" as a small town fire chief and baseball hero who journeys to the big city. While there, he consumes large quantities of bananas because they are cheap and eats weenies and drinks pop at a baseball game. After consuming large quantities of bananas, weenies and pop, Brown protested to Lloyd Bacon, director, who permitted him to drink root beer instead of pop, but insisted on fidelity to detail in regard to the fruit and frankfurters.

GREENWICH

The Junior League of the Greenwich School presented a very well received entertainment at the school on Tuesday night of this week. Practically all the children in the school participated in songs, dances, etc., directed by the teachers, Miss Jacquelyn Lightner and Miss Jojne Lightner. The proceeds derived from the entertainment are intended to be used by the Junior League for activities which are carried on at the school each year.

EXERCISE, SLEEP AND REST

EXERCISE, especially outdoors, is necessary for every one whose work does not involve manual effort. Adults should endeavor to spend one hour and children two or more in the open air daily in active exercise. Part of the adult's exercise may be taken in walking to and from work when this is possible. Such games as tennis, golf, baseball, basket-ball, swimming and skating are advisable.

Dancing is another way of taking exercise and is helpful where outdoor exercise is not practicable. A few minutes spent doing calisthenics in the morning is also of distinct advantage.

The danger of overdoing is always present when exercising, especially for the adult of forty or over. No one should take any form of exercise within an hour or two after meals. No one should begin too strenuously and no exercise should leave one exhausted; nor should one force himself to the golf course or to the tennis court when he is already physically tired.

Many of the sudden deaths of middle-aged men apparently in good health during or immediately following a game of golf show the danger of this. Exercise should be a recreation and a pleasure, not a duty to be performed irrespective of the physical condition of the body at the time.

SLEEP AND REST

Adults need 7 to 8 hours sleep, children considerably more. Too

Facts and Figures on Your Telephone

BY EDWIN F. HILL

Users of Bell system telephone service now make approximately 2,700,000 out-of-town calls daily. Important factors in increased usage of long distance telephone service have been quality and speed. Telephone calls in the United States in nine cases out of ten are now made while the subscriber waits at the telephone. The call is put "right through." Compare this speed of telephone service with thirty years ago, when fifteen minutes delay was considered excellent completion time for long distance telephone calls. In many cases there were even longer delays.

Early in this century many communities now having telephone service could talk only among themselves. Then there were no long distance lines for distances longer than 1,000 miles. Often on a relatively short distance call one had to shout to make himself heard and sometimes could hardly be heard at all. Today the telephone user talking here, there and everywhere speaks in ordinary tones.

Telephone users in San Francisco, Miami, or Portland, Maine, can talk to each other with the greatest ease. Following such a call people often say, "I could hear as clearly as though the other party were in the next room."

Work Weary
"NERVES"

Do they make you Restless, Cranky, Tired, Sleepless, Dyspeptic, Head-achy? Do they spoil your pleasure and interfere with your work?

Tens of thousands have found a way to get relief from over-worked nerves—a way so simple, so pleasant, so low in cost, that we are constantly receiving letters that say, "If I had only found Effervescent Nerve Tablets sooner." Simon Brandt writes:

"I was very nervous from over-work. I couldn't sleep well, appetite was poor, and I felt weak for a long time."

"Used Dr. Miles' Nervine and now feel fifteen years younger and I am working the same as I did before—fourteen to fifteen hours daily."

"Sorry I did not learn about this wonderful medicine sooner as I had tried everything I could hear of, without results, until Dr. Miles' Nervine put me back on my feet."

When you are nervous, try this—put a Dr. Miles' Effervescent Nerve Tablet into a glass of water. Watch it bubble up like sparkling spring water—drink it—enjoy the feeling of calm and relaxation that follows.

MERCHANDISE STOLEN FROM CATLETT P. O. IS RECOVERED

Following an investigation by inspectors from the post office department, it has been found that the packages of merchandise recovered in a woods west of Fairfax, near Legato, in Fairfax county, along the Lee highway, were stolen from the post office at Catlett, Va., some time Saturday night.

The packages with merchandise valued at about $20 was found Sunday by several residents of the Legato community and turned over to Sheriff E. P. Kirby. They were from a mail order house in Philadelphia, Pa., and were addressed to residents in Catlett. An old suit of clothes, shoes and an old overcoat was also found near the articles.

The postal authorities were notified and came to Fairfax Tuesday to conduct an investigation and to take charge of the stolen goods. They stated that the robbery of the Catlett post office was not discovered until Sunday morning. Entrance had been made by breaking a window. No attempt was made to blow the post office safe, only articles of merchandise being taken.

GREENWICH HOME DEMONSTRATION GROUP TO MEET WITH MRS. MIDDLETHON

The Greenwich Home Demonstration Group will meet at the home of Mrs. N. K. Middlethon on Wednesday, November 30, at 2 p.m. The demonstration on "Supper Dishes" will be given by the leaders, Mrs. W. L. Lloyd and Mrs. Henry Spittle. Election of officers for 1933 calls for a full attendance of group members.

What Is a "Cockle"?

A COLD weather breakfast is one that ought to warm not only your stomach but also the cockles of your heart. We've always been in doubt as to just what part of the heart the "cockle" was, so we looked it up in the dictionary. The one we consulted obligingly informed us that cockle means "the fire-chamber or dome of a hot-air furnace, hence the inner chamber of the heart." We had always thought that the mouth was the hot-air chamber of the body, especially in a presidential election year, but we suppose the dictionary must know. At any rate it's a very gratifying feeling to have that particular portion of your anatomy warmed and here's the way to do it with a breakfast containing all the fruit, cereal, meat, coffee and other ingredients the heart could desire.

A Better Breakfast

Orange Sections in Iced Grapefruit Juice
Hot Cereal with Raisins
Broiled Calves' Liver and Bacon
Popovers Coffee Apple Butter
The delicious fruit dish which begins this breakfast is made by cutting the peel from four oranges and removing the sections with a knife, being careful to discard all white fibre. Then pour over them ice cold grapefruit juice from a No. 2 can which has been kept for a long time in the refrigerator, and add a very little sugar if desired. This serves six to eight people, and the whole breakfast is guaranteed to warm that many cockles, whatever they are.

EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

Senator Smith Urges Relief.

Senator Worth Smith, of Louisa county, has sent out a State-wide call for a special session of the General Assembly. All members of the State Senate and House of Delegates, and all important county officials are urged in his telegram to petition the Governor in this matter.

Governor Pollard, it is stated, is not convinced of the necessity of a special session. Opinion among Virginia legislators, so far as have been expressed, appears to be divided. Among those who quoted as favoring Senator Smith's proposal are Delegate Allen C. Adams, of Hopewell, who stated that he believed the necessity for relief at this time justified the call. State Senator John W. Rust, of Fairfax county, who represents Arlington, Fairfax, Prince William and Alexandria City in the Senate, stated this morning that he stood with the Governor on the proposition. Ashton C. Dovell, chairman of the appropriations committee, is opposing Senator Smith's plan, as are Speaker J. Sinclair Brown, former Speaker Thomas W. Oslin and President pro tem of the Senate Saxon W. Holt also quoted as opposing the session unless a definite program of legislation is outlined in advance upon which the necessity for the session can be weighed.

FREE PICTURES OF FOREST LIFE

Independent Hill and Aden School Entertainments.

Under auspices of the State Forest Service, pictures of forests and wild life will be exhibited at Independent Hill Thursday, Dec. 1, at 7:30, in the Hall and at the Aden School on Friday, Dec. 2, at the same hour.

Chief Fire Warden Russell is sponsoring the program and urges all citizens of the community to attend. The moving pictures are especially instructive and they are supplemented by beautifully colored views of beauty spots in Virginia.

J. P. Andrews, assistant forester, is in charge of the program.

ANNIE LILLIAN PEARSON

Annie Lillian Pearson, of Stafford Store, died on November 22 after a lingering illness extending over a period of five years during which she was a very patient sufferer. She was born November 1, 1870.

The funeral took place November 25, the Reverend Westwood Hutchison, pastor of the church at Stafford Store, officiating.

Mrs. Pearson was married to John Thomas Pearson on the 29th of December, 1887.

Surviving her are three daughters, Mrs. Ella Heflin, Mrs. Hattie Maxwell, Mrs. Beulah Randall; nine grandchildren and five great grandchildren. One son, Henry, is dead.

NAMED AS OFFICIAL GUIDES FOR DUCK HUNTERS

Prince William county: J. L. Dawson, Robert Burdette and B. D. Sullivan.

Stafford county: Harry Woodward, William Knoxville, George H. Newton and John Thompson.

Fairfax county: Willard Pettitt, Albert Neitzey, Robert Simms, Albert Grimsley, Bennie Pettitt, Elmer Phelps and Leo Brisco.

These guides have their individual rates which can be secured from the State Game Department or from the men themselves.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS TO PRESENT PLAY

The Othniel Bible Class of Burke Union Sunday school will present a "Southern Cinderella" this Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock.

It is stated that the audience will enjoy two hours of "comedy, suspense and thrills."

BARBEE-POSEY

Mr. James M. Barbee and Miss Dorothy M. Posey were quietly married in Rockville, Md., November 29.

Mr. Barbee is the son of Mr. C. A. Barbee, a very prominent citizen of this county.

Their many friends wish them lots of luck and happiness.

CALL TO PRAYER

We are not dismayed by the results of the election nor by the confidence of the wets that the present short session of the Congress will legalize beer.

"More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of," and we hereby call upon churches and temperance organizations to join with the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in definite prayer on Monday, December fifth, that the devices for the restoration of beer may come to naught and that enforcement may be strengthened, not weakened.

Let the local W.C.T.U. call the people together at a stated time and place with an abiding faith that our God hears and answers prayer.

ELLA A. BOOLE

In accordance with the call to prayer by our national president, Mrs. Boole, our local W.C.T.U. will hold a prayer service at Miss Maggie Smith's home Monday, Dec. 5, at 3 p.m. We had expected to have this service in the evening but on account of the standard training class being conducted at the Methodist church each evening this could not be arranged. We hope our ministers and all Christian people will be much in prayer on this day, Monday, Dec. 5.

VIRGINIA LOW IN SCHOOL EFFICIENCY

Survey by University Placed State at 37th in Attendance.

According to a survey published by the University of Virginia the State ranks far down the line in efficiency of its public schools. Many factors were taken into consideration and the showing by the state was none too gratifying, if the figures presented mean anything. The relative place of Virginia schools among the 48 states is placed as follows:

Percentage of urban population,	35
Attendance -----	37
Salaries Paid -----	43
Value of Property -----	41
Literacy -----	42

MEN WILL COOK BANQUET

Tiring of the ladies having to do all the work, the vestry of Trinity church have decided to stage a turkey feast at the parish hall on Thursday evening, December 15. The menu includes many inviting articles of tasty food.

The committees include: kitchen, Joseph Lyon, chairman, Rev. A. S. Gibson, Dr. Eli Swavely and Guy Allen; tables and decorations, Fred R. Hynson, chairman, T. E. Didlake and O. D. Waters; tickets and general arrangements, G. R. Ratcliffe, chairman, A. A. Hooff and Dr. E. H. Marsteller, and waiting corps, John Holt Merchant, chairman.

ODD FELLOWS MEET AT DUMFRIES

R. E. Lee Lodge No. 221 met last Thursday at Dumfries, with an especially gratifying attendance. Following the regular session the Past Grand Association of the 27th District held an interesting session.

The next meeting will be held on December 14 at Independent Hill.

SMITH-BARNARD

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Barnard, of Manassas, announce the marriage of their daughter, Gayle Althea, to W. Stanley Smith, also of Manassas, the ceremony having taken place at Methodist Parsonage in Frederick, Md., on September 7, the Rev. G. Ellis Williams officiating.

The couple will be at home to their friends after December 1 at the home of Mrs. Sprinkle on Centre street.

Mr. Smith is one of the town's enterprising young business men and everyone wishes the couple a long and happy married life.

R. F. C. LOAN FOR RICHMOND

$1,700,000 Allotted for James River Bridges.

Two thousand idle men will be provided with fifteen months' work under provisions of a loan to Richmond from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Actual work will begin this month.

The big loan is the result of intensive efforts of State Senator John J. Wicker, jr. The City of Richmond will not be held liable and the projects are considered self-liquidating. The loan is for ten years at 5 1/2 per cent. One bridge is across the James and the other two are viaducts designed to carry arterial traffic across congested sections of the city.

ELECTRIC POWER RATES QUESTIONED

Delegate Wilbur C. Hall of Loudoun county has requested the State Corporation Commission to investigate the rates charged by electric power companies in Virginia. His action follows a report by the League of Virginia Municipalities to the effect that the rates in Virginia ought not to be over 5 cents for the first 40 kilowatt hours, 3.5 cents for the next 60 kilowatt hours and not over 2 cents for all over 100 kilowatt hours.

HOOVER WILL GIVE CAMP TO VIRGINIA

It has been stated upon reliable authority that President Hoover will deed his Rapidan camp to the public park in which it is located. It is personal property of the President and this graceful act will be greatly appreciated in the Old Dominion, which only departed from its traditional Democracy for President Hoover and finally also politically repudiated him.

The President-elect in all probability will not be interested in such a camp, as he is an ardent devotee of water sports, being an expert navigator and swimmer.

MUSIC ABOVE SCIENCE IN EINSTEIN'S ESTEEM

Einstein, by his own confession, could do without science more easily than music. Hans Kindler, conductor of the National Symphony Orchestra, told the students and faculty of Maryland University yesterday.

Speaking at the invitation of Prof. Charles Richardson of the Committee on Non-resident Lecturers, Kindler said:

"Once when I was playing some scores with Einstein, he remarked that he could much more easily imagine getting along in a world in which there was no science than he could in a world in which there was no music."

OUR CONGRATULATIONS

On Monday, December 5, Hon. Howard Worth Smith begins his second term in Congress. He has the satisfaction of knowing that he has the unqualified and enthusiastic support of his district where the voters placed him above party last November.

CONGRESS MEETS THIS MONDAY

Lame Duck Session Promises to Be Active.

The Congress of the United States will open for its short session on Monday. It is what is popularly known as the "Lame Duck" session because all of the Congressmen and Senators who were defeated in the November election are still in office although repudiated by their constituency.

Most short sessions of Congress have been more or less routine affairs, passing necessary appropriation bills to keep the government machinery in motion, but the tremendous landslide of this election is taken as a mandate to the Democrats to go as far as possible with the policies of the incoming administration.

It is expected that the question of repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment will come up for vote on the first day and that many congressmen will vote as their successors would vote if they were already seated. They are doing this in deference to the vote that threw them out.

JURIES CHOSEN FOR DEC. TERM

The following have been drawn for jury service at the December term of court:

Special grand jury—J. A. Morgan, Wade H. Davis, J. W. Alvey, L. C. Brawner, A. Crummett, M. A. Bell, John H. Burke, T. M. Russell.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. GIBSON

The regular meeting of the garden section met at Mrs. Gibson's house Monday, Nov. 28.

Christmas carols were practiced in preparation for the singing at the Community Christmas Tree. A short account of the Washington celebration of the 200th birthday of Francis Joseph Haydon was read by Mrs. Carpenter.

The program given by Mrs. Guthrie and Mrs. Hooff was about Creole Land. Mrs. Guthrie read a descriptive paper of this land and told of having visited this quaint region not long ago. Mrs. Hooff read a charming short story, "At the Acadian Ball," by Kate Chopin, depicting the life in Creole Land.

Tea and sandwiches were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Gillum and Mrs. Guthrie.

BUCKHALL LEAGUE

The Buckhall Community League will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 9. After the regular program a rummage sale will be held. Everybody is welcome.

The Young Men's Shop is advertising a sale in this issue of The Journal which should be of interest to our readers. The advertisement appears on page 8.

GARDEN CLUB MEETS

The garden section of the Manassas Club will meet Monday, December 5, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. V. V. Gillum, with Mrs. Richard S. Hynson assistant hostess.

BUSINESS SHOWS MARKED UPGRADE

An upward trend was noted in production schedules and employment in several industrial establishments throughout Virginia by the United States employment service of the Department of Labor in its last review.

"This improvement was particularly noticeable in plants producing silk, meat products, commercial veneers, tobacco and cigarettes, and in the tobacco re-drying and stemming factories, nickel, silver products, rayon, cellophane, tin can, bag, paper, wooden and paper box, and flavor-extract establishments," said the report issued Monday.

"Forces were increased in the hosiery and textile mills. Employment in the coal mines continued restricted, although some improvement was reported as compared with September. Forces in the railroad shops remained on a curtailed basis.

"State, municipal and Federal building and construction projects absorbed many additional laborers. A number of Federal-aid highway projects recently awarded assure employment for several hundred men during the fall. The supply of all classes of labor in most communities, including farm help was considerably in excess of requirements. More than 12,000 men were employed on highway construction during October."

In Richmond, the machine shops, foundries, and woodworking concerns were reported as continuing operations on a curtailed basis, while an improvement continued in plants manufacturing rayon, tin cans, bags, tobacco products, paper and wooden boxes, and flavoring extracts. Building included dwellings and garages, with sufficient building-trades men to meet all requirements. Increased activities were reported in several printing plants.

A slight improvement was reported in the Roanoke district in industrial employments. Three high school buildings, gave employment 1,000 men, gave employment to 150 laborers. The city engaged a number of men on the stagger system on street improvement work. There were curtailed schedules in a steel-fabricating plant and in the railroad shops.

The Norfolk district reported a noticeable improvement in the industrial-employment situation, due largely to increased activities in plants and factories manufacturing silk, meat products, jute, peanut products and commercial veneer. Increased production schedules were reported in the nickel and silver plate products establishments. Satisfactory schedules were reported in railroad shops, shipyards and elsewhere.

The Lynchburg district reported a continued improvement in employment. Shoe factories, textile mills, and hosiery mills increased their forces and operated on full time schedules. Building included a Federal structure, a school, additions to a State institution, and a number of dwellings. Part-time schedules obtained in some plants and there was little demand for farm labor.

CONFIRMATION IN MANASSAS

The Most Rev. A. J. Brennan, D. D., Bishop of Richmond, will confirm at All Saints church, Manassas, Sunday, December 4. The class for confirmation will include those from St. Joseph's, Bristow, and Sacred Heart church, Minnieville. Confirmation will be at 3 and will close with benediction.

CLARKE COUNTY CLERK DIES

NOKESVILLE

"Lest we forget," the Brentsville
District Standard Community Association will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night, December 6.

Altho I have not been informed as to the nature of the program the only way of judging the future is by the past, and according to past performances you may be sure of interesting entertainment and a beneficial evening. Come out and co-operate with your school and neighbors for the improvement of your community.

We have just learned that John Hopkins, a local lad, who graduated from Manassas High, and who is now a Junior at Duke University, has just been elected a member of Pi Epsilon
Pi, the National Honorary Mathematics Fraternity. He is already a member of Sigma Pi Sigma, National Honorary Physics Fraternity.

We are glad to see a boy from this "neck of the woods" making good in a big way. The fact that he has merited election to association with the intellectual elite of the country reflects honor upon his community and local "alma mammy."

IN MEMORIAM

A loving tribute to our son and brother, Albert Cornwell, who departed this life December 3, 1927.

Dear Albert was suddenly taken,
Killed by the C. & O. train.
It broke our hearts to lose him.
The parting caused us pain.

He is gone but not forgotten
Though five years ago he went.
Our darling was taken to heaven
By the angels Jesus sent.

We never shall forget him
Though many years pass by
For some day we hope to meet him
In that home beyond the sky.

Christmas Cookies and Candies

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Helix Food Institute

THE most hospitable time of the year is the Christmas holiday. There are more callers—people drop in to see the trees, the gifts, and to renew old friendships. It's a time when all radiate happiness and when people mingle more than at any other season. When callers come, it is popular to serve home-made cakes, cookies and candies with tea or punch. Busy days do not always permit baking cakes months ahead, as in olden times, but attractive cookies are equally appropriate. Cookies mixed and placed in the refrigerator to be baked as needed, little home-made macaroons, or spicy drop cookies are up-to-date varieties for Christmas. Below are recipes for making cookies and candies:

Spice Drop Cookies — Cream $\frac{1}{2}$ cup shortening and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar and add 1 egg, well beaten. Sift together $\frac{1}{4}$ cup flour, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon soda, $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon each of cloves, nutmeg and cinnamon, and add to creamed mixture alternately with 3 tablespoons sour milk. Add $\frac{1}{2}$ cups Rice Flakes (crushed after measuring) $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chopped nuts and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a greased cookie sheet and bake in hot oven at 425-450°F. for 8 to 10 minutes. Makes 2 dozen cookies. Serve with tea or punch.

Refrigerator Cookies — Beat 2 eggs well. Add 2 cups brown sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ tablespoon vanilla and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup butter (measured first then melted) then add $3\frac{1}{2}$ cups flour, sifted with 1 teaspoon soda and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Add 1 cup Rice Flakes and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup nuts. Pack into a pan lined with waxed paper, chill, slice thinly and bake for about 5 minutes in a hot oven (425°F.). This cookie batter may be made and kept in the ice box almost indefinitely, baking it just as cookies are needed. Bakes 50 very thin cookies 2" x 4".

Fruit Macaroons — Crush 1 cup Rice Flakes finely and mix with $\frac{1}{4}$ b. pitted chopped dates and $\frac{1}{4}$ cup almonds or pecans. Whip 4 egg whites stiffly, fold in $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sugar gradually, 1 teaspoon almond or vanilla extract, or $\frac{1}{2}$ of each, and mixture of Rice Flakes, dates, and nuts. Drop by tablespoonfuls on well greased baking sheet and bake for about 20 minutes in a slow oven (300°F.). Serve with salads, ice cream, or punch. Makes $2\frac{1}{2}$ dozen macaroons.

Divinity Fudge — Mix together 2 cups granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup dark corn syrup, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup cold water and 1 teaspoon Pure Vinegar. Cook slowly, without stirring, until the mixture forms a very firm almost brittle ball in cold water. Pour gradually over 2 egg whites, stiffly beaten, and beat until creamy. Add 1 cup nut meats and 1 teaspoon vanilla (a little almond extract may also be added if desired). Pour into a buttered pan and mark into squares. Canned cherries may also be added and are especially nice at Christmas time.

Peanut Butter Fudge — Mix 2 cups granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk, 2 tablespoons corn syrup and 1 tablespoon Pure Vinegar. Boil to 235°F. or until a soft ball is formed in cold water. Remove from fire, cool to 110°F. and add $\frac{1}{4}$ cup Peanut Butter. Beat until creamy, after adding $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon vanilla. Pour into buttered pan and cut in squares.

WESLEY HILBURN ROLLINS

Wesley Hilburn Rollins passed away at the home of his brother, Edgar Rollins, at Pender, Va., Sunday, at 4 p.m., after an illness of one week.

He has lived in the neighborhood of Stone House in Prince William all his life. He was buried at Sudley Tuesday afternoon.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Michael Botts of Wellington and Mrs. E. T. Mock of Fairfax Station, and two brothers, Edgar T. Rollins of Pender and Frederick W. Rollins of Manassas.

The high esteem in which Mr. Rollins was held was manifested by the large attendance and many floral tributes at the funeral.

BIGGER THEY ARE THE HARDER THEY FALL AND JUNGLE'S NO EXCEPTION

The bigger they are the harder they fall is just as true in the case of wild animals as it is with humans, according to Martin Johnson, who, with Mrs. Johnson, spent the last two years among the gorillas and pygmies in darkest Africa, photographing the thrilling scenes which go to make up their latest picture, the Fox production, "Congorilla," the first sound picture ever to be made in the jungle, which opens its local engagement next Monday at the Dixie Theatre.

While much has been said about the large elephant guns used by African hunters in tracking down these beasts, the fact remains that the biggest pachyderm can be killed by a single shot from a 30-30, the same small rifle used in hunting deer in this country. The important thing, of course, is to hit the elephant in the vulnerable spot, a spot about the size of a silver half-dollar, located exactly between the two sleepy eyes of the beast. This is the only soft spot in the elephant's skull, and a bullet hitting there, penetrates the brain with instant deadly effect.

The popularity of the big elephant gun is due to its power to bring down the biggest beast, regardless of where he is hit, and having two barrels, it permits a second shot instantly if the first has not been fatal. It is a very handy weapon, especially when a bull is charging, or when one comes upon a surprised herd.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children maintain a Bible devotion each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

THE LORD IS GOOD: O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.—Psalm 34. 8.

THE JONES HEARINGS

Hearings before the Governor in the matter of the dismissal of State Forester Chapin Jones have been concluded and the evidence referred to the Commission on Conservation and Development for consideration.

Much good has resulted from the publicity attending this circumstance and without doubt it will be possible for the forestry work in Virginia to be re-organized along lines that will give a much more adequate return for the taxpayers' money which is expended in this important work.

For many months, the record shows, Hon. W. E. Carson, chairman of the Virginia Commission on Conservation and Development, and the other members as well have been convinced that Chapin Jones did not possess the requisite executive ability required for the proper discharge of his duties. They finally asked for his resignation, to take effect next March. No publicity was given the matter in order that he might not be hampered in securing a new position. Instead of appreciating the kindly attitude of the Commission, he refused to resign, demanded that he be dismissed and that the Governor review the action of the Commission. In accordance with his request the Commission discharged him, effective December 31.

The propaganda so widely spread about the case brought to the attention of our people for the first time in eighteen years that Virginia has become alive to the fact that they have such an official as a State Forester and that he draws a salary of $5,000 a year. They have also discovered that he has a coterie of assistants, each drawing around $3500.

Not long ago, after only half of the counties of Virginia had been organized for forest fire protection, the General Assembly doubled the appropriation for forestry. The recent hearings disclosed the astounding fact that no effort has been made to use the increased funds to organize the remainder of the State. Some other surprising facts were disclosed. For example, the evidence shows that these State employees regard themselves as Federal agents and that they report regularly to their advisors in Washington, without reference to their official superiors, the Virginia Commission.

Not only has the hearing failed to prove the existence of executive ability which the Commission says is lacking in the State Forester, but it has disclosed a thoroughly disloyal group, directed from Washington and intent upon advancing their own personal interests at expense of the taxpayers of Virginia. The evidence indicates that the Virginia Forestry Service has been largely used as a training school for Federal employees, sent down here to become qualified as foresters, so that they could be placed in lucrative positions elsewhere.

In breaking up this little group that has been feeding fat on Virginia resources, Hon. W. E. Carson, as chairman of the Commission, has incurred the displeasure of the forestry profession centered in the Federal forestry service and in consequence a nation-wide propaganda has apparently been released. Endorsements of State Forester Jones poured in upon Governor Pollard in great volume. Presented as a spontaneous outburst of indignation, they are actually the result of organized propaganda and such credentials have no bearing upon the executive ability of the man.

Our Conservation Commission has been vested by law with the authority to "hire and fire" foresters. These Commissioners are all successful business men and are fully capable of judging administrative ability. Having reached the conclusion that the State Forester did not possess the executive ability necessary for proper performance of his duties, they took the only action possible for honorable servants of the State.

In particular, Hon. W. E. Carson, chairman of the Commission, who has had to bear the brunt of this controversy, is highly esteemed. The splendid results he has obtained in making the historic and scenic treasures of Virginia available to the world, has won for him an enviable place in the affections of all patriotic Virginians. The gigantic private business which he administers furnishes ample proof of his ability to judge administrative capacity and no one who examines the evidence will believe that he has not acted for the best interest of the Commonwealth.

AN EXAMPLE FOR PARENTS

Franklin D. Roosevelt is going to meet a lot of interesting people, after he gets into the White House; but it hardly seems likely that he will meet any one any more interesting than the family of Gus Sumnick, of Waterloo, Neb., promises to be.

Probably you remember about the Sumnicks. The President-elect had an old-fashioned chicken dinner with them while he was campaigning, and he promised to entertain them at the White House next summer in return. But the interesting thing about them is a remark that the father of the family made after the election.

There are a good many children in the family, some of them pretty well grown by now. But none of them are married yet; and Mr. Sumnick explained to an interviewer, "they have too much fun at home to think of leaving us."

That, perhaps, is not so very extraordinary. But in an age that spends a lot of its time worrying about the "decay of the home," and fretting over the younger generation's refusal to follow in its parents' footsteps, it is a singularly refreshing little statement.

It represents, of course, nothing more than the ideal which every family ought to come fairly close to realizing. But how many families do? Isn't it, tragically, more often true that youngsters will snatch at almost any kind of marriage in order to escape from a home circle which seems to them to be dull, boring and restrictive?

Nor is that always the fault of the young people. We parents have a way of taking the gratitude and affection of our children for granted, as something that is, in the nature of things, our just due. We seldom stop to think that we have to earn it.

We make little effort to understand our children. We hand down rules of conduct to them, as from on high, and let it go at that. It does not often occur to us that every home really ought to be a place where the children honestly have more fun, more joy in life, than they can find anywhere else.

This Sumnick family, evidently, has discovered a secret that a whole lot of parents would give their eye teeth to get in on.—Portsmouth Star.

THE RICH MAN'S WILL

The following is an excerpt from the will of a Wall Street man, probated in New York State.

(1) To my son I leave the pleasure of earning a living. For thirty-five years he has thought that the pleasure was all mine. He was mistaken.

(2) To my daughter I leave $100,000. She will need it. The only good piece of business her husband ever did was to marry her.

(3) To my valet I leave the clothes which he has been stealing from me regularly for the last ten years. Also my fur coat, which he wore last winter when I was in Palm Beach.

(4) To my chauffeur I leave my cars. He almost ruined them and I want him to have the satisfaction of finishing the job.

(5) To my partner I leave the suggestion that he take some other clever man in with him at once if he expects to do any business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reid of Quantico, Va., were in Manassas on Monday of this week on business.

The regular meeting of the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., will be held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Compton next Wednesday, Dec. 7, at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Alvin B. Compton will be assistant hostess.

Miss Janet Trusler of Marjorie Webster School returned last week from Carlisle, Pa., where she attended the home-coming festivities of Dickinson College, and spent Thanksgiving holiday at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Newman and Mr. and Mrs. John Walker of Marshall motored to Gaithersburg, Md., last Sunday to visit Mrs. Newman's cousin, Miss Martha Chinn, who is ill. The Ladies Aid of the Canon Branch church will have their annual Xmas sale at Manassas Motor Co., Saturday, Dec. 3, commencing at 10 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid Society of Grace M. E. church south will meet with Mrs. E. K. Evans Thursday, Dec. 8, at 3 o'clock.

SWAVELY NOTES

The Thanksgiving dinner and dance were an unqualified success. The "Pied Pipers" orchestra, greatly improved since its last visit, was very satisfactory, and expressions of pleasure and appreciation were numerous.

Among the older guests were Capt. and Mrs. Crenshaw of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Mowrey of Royersford, Pa., Mr. Zerbe of Washington, Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. H. Davis.

There were numerous out-of-town guests of the younger set.

A bit of "old times" was the sight of Mr. Caino at the dance.

The football game with Alexandria High School ended in a scoreless tie. "Bill" Gichner came down from Washington for the dance, and spent the week end at the school.

Mr. Reuss of Washington was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Swavely.

Mrs. Fred Leinbach, who came down from Philadelphia for Thanksgiving, returned home on Sunday.

Mr. Carpenter went hunting last week, and secured a good "bag" of quail.

BURKE

Lee District Improvement Association met on Saturday, Nov. 26, in the Pohick school house, with Mr. M. D. Hall, the president, presiding. The minutes of October meeting were read and approved.

Remarks about distribution of mileage of secondary roads to be improved in the county under state road system provoked some discussion because of the small portion allotted to Lee district. Mr. Hall stated that Mr. Micou, the resident engineer, appeared glad to discuss road matters with the people of the county. The committee on roads, Mr. J. W. Brookfield, chairman, was requested to call on the engineer to learn if there is a possibility of getting present allocations in the county adjusted or changed. Mr. Micou will be invited to attend and speak at next meeting.

Mr. M. M. Barnard, superintendent of the District of Columbia Work

House and Reformatory, was present to answer the criticisms made at a former meeting that it was almost impossible for men of Lee district to secure employment in his institution. Mr. Barnard stated that of the 252 employees, 218 were from Virginia and most of them from Fairfax and Prince William counties. He said that the payroll of these employees amounted to about $500,000 a year, much of which he supposed was spent locally. He said further he would be glad to assist in the improvement of roads adjacent to the District of Columbia property or in the building of a high school at Lorton.

Mr. R. R. Gillingham addressed the meeting on the subject of insurance as a social necessity.

The meeting adjourned to meet January 7 at Burke.

JUG, 203 YEARS OLD, FOUND IN RIVER

While oystering in the Rappahannock last week, Daniel C. Jenkins and Harry Lee Gould of Kilmarnock tonged up an old jug having embossed on its side the initials T. F. and below it the date 1729. The clay jug, of about a quart capacity, weighs approximately five pounds and is of a lustrous bronze color.

Do You Attend Your Church?

"THE LING 'TWIXT HEAVEN AND EARTH"

Oh, what joy there was in heaven, On that far-off Christmas morn, When the Angels told the Shepherds Of the Saviour newly born. Glory! Glory! Sang the Angels. Unto God they sang His praise In a very burst of rapture, On that wondrous day of days.

For the little new-born baby Was a link 'twixt heaven and earth. God to men His love revealing Through His Son, one Saviour's birth And this song to God of glory Echoed back from hill to hill, As the Angels sang their message, "Peace on earth, to men good will."

May we all who know the story Give a welcome to our Lord, As the Shepherds in their gladness Sought Him out with one accord. Let us sing a song of glory Unto Christ, the Light, the Way, Who has linked our earth with heaven Through His birth on Christmas day. —F. B. Stone, Centreville, Va., Dec. 19, 1929.

MRS. OWEN TO GIVE POINTERS TO NEW CONGRESSWOMAN

LOCAL FIRE PLANS ARE ENDORSED

State Report Similar to That of Local Fire Department.

The county school board met today with all members present.

The meeting was largely given over to discussion of matters upon which the board reached no immediate decisions.

Messrs. Arrington and Lloyd who represented the Board at the educational conference last week gave a most interesting report and brought back some worthwhile suggestions.

Messrs. Arrington, Lloyd and Haydon were appointed a special committee to study in detail the recent report made by a representative of the Department of Insurance. It concerned safety devices and fire prevention methods in the county and closely paralleled the report and recommendations recently made for the local schools by Manassas Fire Department.

Here Are Two Menus for Xmas: Many Prepared Foods Save Time

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Home Food Institute

WHILE turkey or goose is traditional for Christmas, it is not essential for a joyful dinner. This year many people plan less elaborate menus. The first Christmas celebration was not luxurious, and there is no reason why elaborate feasts are necessary to have all the spirit and happiness of the season. Christmas dinners are less difficult of preparation today. Whether the traditional dinner or a very simple menu is served, work of preparing it will be reduced because of the number of prepared foods available. For instance, delicious soups can be purchased, ready to heat and serve, and relishes, salad dressings, and Mince Meat or Plum or Fig Puddings also are ready, and save time and labor in the busy days before Christmas.

Traditional Xmas Dinner

Chilled Tomato Juice*
Christmas Canape
Cream of Oyster Soup* Crackers
Celery Spanish Queen Olives*
Roast Turkey or Goose with Bread Dressing Giblet Gravy
Mashed Potatoes Buttered Brussels Sprouts or Cauliflower
Cranberry Jelly
Grapefruit Salad French Dressing
Mince Meat Pie* or
Plum Pudding* with Hard Sauce
Coffee Nuts

Economical Xmas Dinner

Chilled Tomato Juice*
Cream of Pea Soup* Crackers
Celery Fresh Cucumber Pickles*
Baked Fresh Ham Candied Sweet Potatoes
Creamed Onions Cranberry Jelly or Pure Apple Butter*
Carrot and Pineapple Salad
Mince Meat Pie*

Baked Apple Stuffed with Mince Meat
Coffee Homemade Candy

Christmas Canape — Cut bread loaf of slightly stale bread. Season with salt and pepper to suit the taste. Add ½ cup melted butter, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, (if desired) 1 tablespoon Worcestershire Sauce and 1 tablespoon onion juice. Mix thoroughly and press firmly into the fowl.

Michigan Food at the Fair

THE "Fair" means, of course, the Century of Progress International Exposition which opens next June at Chicago, and where food products will be shown in the great Agricultural Building which is now rapidly approaching completion on North Island in Lake Michigan.

The State of Michigan is deeply interested in showing its food products there because of the fact that its fruits and vegetables form a large contribution to the nation's supply of canned foods. Its cherry industry is especially outstanding, and negotiations are under way for the building of "cherry huts" at the Fair where cherry products alone may be sold.

Fruits and Vegetables

The Michigan Canners' Association expects to join with the State of Michigan in this exhibit. It is proposed to show pictures of orchards of cherries and canning factories in miniature models, with the story of their accomplishments conveyed by means of continuous moving illuminated type or in some similar manner.

Michigan supplies her canning factories with all small vegetables produced in great quantities exclusively for this purpose, and its celery is said to be the best in quality and the largest in quantity of any State in the Union. Grapes and peaches, too, are produced and preserved in very large quantities.

All these foods and many more will be included in Michigan's interesting exhibit in the Agricultural Building. It is significant of the country's faith in the future and the restoration of normal times that Michigan and so many other States are planning such comprehensive exhibits at Chicago next year.

DAIRY FACTS

YOUNG COW MAKES SPLENDID RECORD

Yield Equals That of Five Ordinary Animals.

(By S. J. BROWNELL, New York State College of Agriculture.)

With cows like Lauderdale Lilly Posch, the old-fashioned family cow would become a neighborhood cow, for this four-year-old Holstein gave as much milk as five typical dairy cows, or enough for 65 people for a year when she recently made the record of 24,000 pounds of milk and 822.9 pounds of fat.

Lilly was bred by H. V. Bump of Cambridge but is now owned by Harry Yates of Orchard Park. Her mother is the daughter of North Star General Champion, who has fourteen daughters in the advanced registry of the breed, and made a record of 23,424 pounds of milk and 840 pounds of fat as a five-year-old.

Lilly Posch gave from 91 pounds of milk on her best day to 41 pounds on the last day of the test. She was fed an average of 16 pounds of grain a day composed of: 300 pounds of oats, 200 hominy, 300 distiller's grains, 200 bran, 100 gluten, 100 cotton seed meal, 100 oil meal, 20 minerals, 25 charcoal, and 10 salt. Her roughage was 20 pounds silage, 10 alfalfa hay, and 10 beet pulp daily. She was fed about forty pounds of red beets a day for about four months and during this period the best pulp was cut to five pounds daily.

Growing Sentiment for Fewer and Better Cows

Three per cent of all dairymen in Illinois are members of dairy herd improvement associations and more of them will join the movement as fast as they realize that it often is possible to make more money from fewer and better cows, state dairy authorities claim. Also fewer and better cows not only will make more money but they will put less milk and butterfat on the market.

For instance, 10 cows like those that averaged between 450 and 500 pounds of butterfat in 1931 made as much return above cost of feed as 27 cows that averaged 200 to 250 pounds each. Returns above feed cost do not tell the whole story. In one case there are 10 cows to house and care for and in the other case 27 cows. Labor and equipment are important items of expense in producing milk and butterfat. Furthermore, the 10 cows made as much above cost of feed as the 27 cows and they produced 50,958 pounds less milk and 1,456 pounds less butterfat for market consumption.

Check the Separator

In a study of 1,027 separators in use by members of cow testing associations it was found that 12 per cent of all separators in use for less than one year did not skim clean. Of the separators that had been in use for five years, 35 per cent left .08 of one per cent of fat in the skim milk and of those that had been in use for 15 years 50 per cent did not do a good job of skimming.

This does not mean that there was anything radically wrong with these separators. It just meant that they were somewhat out of adjustment. The figures presented are given merely as reminders that it pays to check up on the cream separator once in a while to see whether it is doing as good work as it is capable of doing. When a separator leaves .05 of one per cent more of fat in the skim milk than it should, the loss in a herd of ten cows may run from four to six pounds of fat a month.—Wisconsin Agriculturist.

Looking to Herd's Future

When selecting a herd sire the following points should be considered: Only pure-bred bull should be used; the production of the ancestors of the bull, especially that of the dam and the dam of the sire should be high; the individuality of the bull and his ancestors should be good; the production of the daughters of the bull, or of related cows, should be high; a proven bull is a more dependable sire than a young untried bull; where two or more farmers purchase a bull in partnership they can well afford to get a better bull than where each buys one; the dam of the bull should have a better record than the best cow in the herd.

Bran as Hay Substitute

Hay was a good crop in most sections last year and the quality was good, also. Nevertheless, there may be some of our readers who were short of good hay this winter. If such is the case, it might be well to know that bran at the present low prices is a fairly good substitute.

If possible, some hay should be fed, of course, but if there is plenty of good silage, and when bran is cheap as it is at present, the amount of hay may be cut down or almost eliminated without damage to the cow.—American Agriculturist.

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE
COUNTY OF PRINCE WILLIAM,
NOVEMBER 23, 1932.

Sephia A. Meetze

vs.

J. Willis Meetze, Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart.

IN CHANCERY

The object of this suit is to subject certain real estate and buildings at Lake Jackson, Prince William County, Virginia, now standing in the name of Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart to the payment of alimony awarded complainant, Sephia A. Meetze, vs. J. Willis Meetze at the rate of $40.00 a month, beginning June 17, 1928, and $50.00 Counsel fee, subject to credits aggregating $407.15.

And an affidavit having been made according to law and filed in this office that the defendants in the above-styled suit are not residents of the State of Virginia, and that the last known post-office address of J. Willis Meetze is Bartow, Florida; and that the last known post-office address of the said Chandler D. Stewart and Caroline R. Stewart is 208 Farragut N. W., Washington, D. C., Apt. 201. And an application for this order of publication having been made in writing and filed,

It is therefore ordered, that the said defendants do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect their respective interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in The Manassas Journal, (a newspaper published and circulated in Prince William County), once a week, for four consecutive weeks; a copy thereof sent by the clerk of this court, by registered mail, to each of the aforesaid defendants at the address given in the said affidavit, and a copy posted at the front door of the court house of said county on or before the 28th day of November, 1932, that being the first rule day after this order was entered.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust, dated February 4, 1928, and recorded among the land records of Prince William County in Deed Book 84, page 236, from Henry Lawson and Mary E. Lawson, his wife, to the undersigned trustee to secure the payment of two certain promissory notes, aggregating the sum of $1050.00, default having been made in the payment of the said notes, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the holders of the said notes, will offer for sale, at public auction, on

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1932

at eleven o'clock A. M.,

of that day, in front of the Peoples National Bank of Manassas, in the Town of Manassas, Virginia, all those two certain tracts or parcels of land, lying and being situated at Limstrong, on the Bradley Road leading from Manassas to Brentsville at the intersection of the county road leading from said road to Independent Hill via Blandford over Occoquan Run, the first parcel containing 9.20 acres, more or less, and the second parcel containing 15 acres, more or less; less and except, however, 2 acres and 3 rods, more or less, of the said second parcel of land that was conveyed by the said Henry Lawson and wife and others to one Charles E. Lawson by deed dated September 10, 1930, and duly recorded among the land records of said county. Reference is hereby made to said deed of trust and deed for a more particular description of the said land.

The said land is situated near the Town of Manassas on the state road and has on it a large dwelling and all necessary outbuildings, all in a state of good repair and because of its location it is an exceedingly desirable piece of property.

TERMS OF SALE: The said property will be sold for cash.

NOVEMBER W.C.T.U. MEETING

The November meeting of the W.C.T.U. was held at the home of Mrs. Embrey, with a number of interested members present. On the program were several excellent papers, read by Miss Kincheole, and Mesdames Halpenny, Spies and Saunders. The one, "The New Slogan," from the pen of the national president, Mrs. Ella Boole, and "Our Undeatable Program" by the national vice-president, Mrs. Ida Wise Smith, were especially fine. The new slogan is "Advance, not retreat."

The well being of society made it necessary. The word of God pronounced woe on the person who drank, the person who sold and the nation which permitted it to be done.

"Let those who have failed to take courage

Though the enemy seems to have won.

Though his ranks be strong,

If in the wrong,

The battle is not yet done.

For sure as the morning follows

The darkest hour of night.

No question is ever settled,

Until it is settled right."

"The W.C.T.U. deplores violations of the law, but charges responsibility to the violators and not to the law."

"To legalize beer, to repeal the Eighteenth Amendment, or to submit an alternative amendment authorizing each state to decide its own method of control with certain congressional restrictions." Mrs. Boole says her deliberate judgment is that the adoption of any one of these measures would increase the problems of enforcement, result in a flood of liquor distributed through wide-spread advertisement and open the way for the ultimate return of the liquor traffic in all its hideousness. "We will continue to advance, we refuse to retreat."

Mrs. Ida Smith says, "The Eighteenth Amendment and prohibition laws were not the objective toward which the W.C.T.U. set its face in 1874. That objective was the abolition of the liquor traffic. The welfare of the home and childhood demanded it.

A $1.50 Dinner for 6

TWENTY-FIVE cents per person and a filling feast. That is what the following dinner promises at prevailing prices most everywhere.

Beef Steak with Corn Dimples 56¢
Buttered Cauliflower 27¢
Lettuce, Remoine and Chickory Salad 22¢
Bread and Butter 10¢
Fruit Jelly with Whipped Cream 30¢
Dessert 6¢

Beef Steak with Corn Dimples: Cut one and one-half pounds of flank steak in cubes, and brown well in a little fat in a heavy skillet. Add the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes, two cups water, six small onions and salt and pepper to taste. Bring to boiling, cover and simmer until meat is done. Meanwhile sift together one cup flour, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder and two-thirds teaspoon salt, and add one-third cup milk. Add one-third cup canned corn, and when stew is done, drop by spoonfuls on top of stew, cover tightly and steam twelve minutes. Remove dumplings and meat, and thicken the liquid left in pan with a little flour. Pour over meat and dumplings.

Fruit Jelly with Whipped Cream: Drain the syrups from an 8-ounce can of green gage plums and an 8-ounce can of apricots, and add sufficient water to make one and a half cups. Soften one tablespoon gelatin in four tablespoons cold water, and dissolve in boiling fruit juices. Add four tablespoons sugar, and stir until gelatin and sugar are dissolved. Cool. When it begins to stiffen, add the cut up fruits and pour into molds. Serve with whipped cream.

UNUSUAL NIGHT CLUB SET FOR "HAT CHECK GIRL"

One of the most unusual sets ever constructed, the night club interior designed by Gordon Wiles for the principal locale in "Hat Check Girl," is certain to interest theatre-goers during the current showings of the picture at the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday.

Built in the shape of a huge cylinder with a circular dance floor sunk in the center and with tiers of "boxes" around the walls, the club forms the background of much of the action in this story of night life along the Great White Way.

Sally Eilers has the title role in the production; her swift romance with a young millionaire and its surprising outcome are said to give her an opportunity to display the dramatic talents that have made her a nationwide favorite. Ben Lyon enacts the part of the Park Avenue bachelor; and Ginger Rogers, Monroe Owsley, Arthur Pierson, Noel Madison, Purnell Pratt and Dewey Robinson have prominent roles. Sidney Lanfield directed this Fox Films production, an adaptation of the novel by Rian James.

What Are You Doing to Boost MANASSAS?

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the marvelous calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores.

SENATOR OLIVER DIED LAST WEEK

Funeral Exercises on Friday.

Hon. Walter Tansill Oliver, former member of the House of Delegates and State Senator, died at his home on Wednesday evening from effects of a fractured skull, sustained in a fall Tuesday. He did not regain consciousness and Dr. F. M. Brooks, the attending physician, held no hopes for his recovery from the outset. So precarious was his condition that removal to a hospital was considered inadvisable.

Senator Oliver was born at Kenmore, in Fairfax county, and was the son of Louis E. Oliver and Lou Tansill, of Prince William county. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Kate Brumback, of Luray, and four children, Louis B. B., Walter Tansill, jr., Robert W., and Katherine G., who is now Mrs. Wyan, of Washington. He is also survived by a brother, John E., of Kenmore, and a sister, Mrs. Sue Demory of Kenmore.

Senator Oliver was a graduate of the University of Virginia Law School and was one of the prominent attorneys of the State. He was also an outstanding Mason in Virginia. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday and burial in the Oliver family lot at Kenmore.

CATHARPIN

Thanksgiving Day was observed as usual thruout this neighborhood on the last Thursday of November which happened on the 24th. We presume other neighborhoods used the same date for theirs since it seems to be a sort of national custom to use the same date that Catharpin uses for this particular "Season of Refreshing." At least we note that the President of the United States adopted our date and advertised it generally throughout the 48 states and Alaska and from the number of people who spent the day in our midst we are led to believe that the advertisement was widely read. At this particular season of the year our people not only kill turkeys but also slay the porkers which by this time are rolling in fatness and the backbones, spare ribs, chicken meat and sausage certainly are welcome additions to a scanty larder when we were getting along as best we could on bread and butter until the great festal day should appear. It is now here and from the amount of turkeys and pork consumed it would not be surprising if by spring we should begin to grow feathers and bristles; however the many neighborhood guests seem quite willing to risk it as they go home laden with the fat of the land not mentioning birds and rabbits. Taking it all in all the community had a good time with plenty to eat and some to divide among the parting guests.

Mr. B. Lynn Robertson of Mr. Vernon, N. Y., with his two children, Bolling, jr., and Caroline, are spending the week at Lawn Vale with his brother, W. Holmes Robertson, and doing quite a bit of hunting as well as doing his share toward diminishing the supply of turkeys which at the present time seem to be a drug on the market.

The butchering season is now at its height and many porkers are contributing their all to keep the wolf from the door. Butcherings as a rule are from 50 to 100 per cent above normal; the market being so low the people are salting their meat down rather than sell at the present prices.

Mrs. Arthur Brashear of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Mrs. H. F. Lynn of Berryville were guests at Lawn Vale during the past week.

Mr. Frank W. Brower, wife and family, together with Mr. Harry Jewell, all of Price, Md., are spending the week with Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower and incidentally renewing acquaintance with the hunting fields which used to know him so well in the past.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Shelton of West Virginia are spending the season at Marble Hill, the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Akers and Mrs. A. L. Webb were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Etta P. Lynn.

For the first time in several years game is quite plentiful in the neighborhood and many hunters are in evidence. Washingtonians, many of whom were former residents, take advantage of the Thanksgiving vacation to visit relatives and friends and bringing with them both dog and gun for a day's outing and incidentally or premeditatedly take turkey dinner with old-time associates. They all know where to come when they want a good old-time turkey dinner with all its "fixins and sich."

SENSATIONAL SAFARI SCREENED HERE SOON

"Congorilla," the Fox picture, depicting the thrilling adventures of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson on their latest safari in Central Africa, the land of the gorillas and pygmies, opens next Monday at the Dixie Theatre. The first sound picture ever to be made in the wilds of Central Africa, it brings the native noises of the jungle, such as the screeching of the gorilla, the bellowing of the hippo and the barking of the zebra to you in their natural and unadulterated form. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson spent two years in the making of this picture, shooting over 131,000 feet of film.

MRS. CHAS. SPINKS

Mrs. Chas. Spinks passed away Nov. 26 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Teel, Haymarket, Va., after a lingering illness, age 79 years. She is survived by her husband, two sons and three daughters.

MINNIEVILLE

Minnieville still remains altho there is not much going on right now. Now and then we see a few hunters roving around but game is scarce and so they go hunting elsewhere.

There were services at the Baptist church here Saturday and Sunday, Elder Miller, pastor. There will be services again on the third Sunday and Saturday before in December. Bear this in mind.

Rev. J. Murray Taylor will preach at the Greenwood Presbyterian church on the first Sunday night in December, 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Fannie Shackelford is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Ashby of Independent Hill, who is sick.

Elder Miller and Mrs. John Lunsford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clarke on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Janie Dane has returned to her home after spending a week with her nephew, Mr. Noel Pettit of Indian Head and other friends.

Mr. Willie Windsor of Alexandria and two of his friends were callers at his aunt's and uncle's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Clarke and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clarke and daughter, Marguerite and Jean of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Kidwell and little son, B. S., jr., of Aurora Hills and Mr. W. Y. Ellicott of Orlando were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clarke Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Curtis were in Fredericksburg recently on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pearson of Pennsylvania have been spending some time with Mr. Pearson's parents here and were accompanied home by his brother, Mr. William Pearson.

Mr. Pearl Pettit of Washington, Mrs. Ella Reid and Mr. Collin Payne of Hoadly were guests of Mrs. Janie Dane and family on Sunday.

ADEN

Mrs. Frank Hummer entertained the ladies of the Kensington Club in her usual hospitable manner on Nov. 17. An oyster supper was planned for Nov. 26. Through the courtesy of some good friends the splendid room at King's Cross Roads was used for the supper, which was a success both socially and financially.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lawson on the last Thursday in December. The program committee wishes for hearty response, it being the usual Christmas program.

The Rev. Olin Kessler preached a very interesting sermon at the U. B. church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Coborn of Baltimore Heights is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jones from Atlanta, Ga., are visiting Mrs. Jones' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Her-ring.

Mrs. Cecil Smith entertained quite a number of guests on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wine Kerlin from Washington spent Thanksgiving Day with their friends and relatives.

A DAY IN NOVEMBER

Talk not sad of November, when a day
Of warm, glad sunshine fills the sky of noon,
And a wind, borrowed from some morn of June,
Stirs the brown grasses and the leaf-lets spray.

On the unfrosted pool the pillared pines
Lay their long shafts of shadow; the small rill,
Singing a pleasant song of summer still,
A line of silver down the hillslope shines.

Hushed the bird voices and the hum of bees;
In the thin grass the crickets pine no more;
But still the squirrel hoards his winter store,
And drops his nut shells from the shag-bark trees.

Softly the dark green pine tops whisper; high
Above the spires of yellowing maples show
Where the woodpecker and home-loving crow
And jay and unwatch winter's threat defy.

O gracious beauty, ever new and old!
O sights and sounds; of nature, doubly dear
When the low sunshine warns the closing year
Of snow-blown fields and waves of Arctic cold!

Close to my heart I fold each lovely thing
The sweet day yields! and, not disconsolate,
With the calm patience of the woods I wait
For leaf and blossom when God gives us spring!

—John Greenleaf White.

This Woman Lost 64 Pounds of Fat

Mrs. H. Price of Woodside, L. I. writes: "A year ago I weighed 190 lbs. I started to take Kruschen and now I weigh 126 and never felt better in my life and what's more, I look more like 20 yrs. old than the mother of 2 children, one of 19 and the other 18. My friends say it's marvelous the way I reduced."

To lose fat SAFELY and HARM-LESSLY, take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—don't miss a morning—a bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle—but don't take chances—be sure it's Kruschen. If not joyfully satisfied after the first bottle—money back.

What
will it be,
Skipper...

SAIL or STEAM?

AN OLD SEA CAPTAIN once said "Any windjammer can ride out a storm with the hatches battened down and the sails closed up; but it takes a skipper to ride out a dead calm."

The many business men today are trying to meet a dead calm with hurricane-warning tactics. Huddling below decks, they've closed up their advertising appropriations with stout ropes of prejudice, battened down the hatches on their better judgment. One of these days they'll come on deck and wonder why they're so far from shore.

The skipper captain doesn't wait for trade winds to blow him into the Port of Profit. He masters those trade winds with the driving power of the steam ... piles fuel under his advertising boilers ... starts his craft towards Profit and usually reaches port before the old-fashioned skippers have spread their sails for an occasional buying breeze.

Beclamed on a glassy sea today, business will eventually be favored by that buying breeze. But why wait for it? The powerful engines of NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING are ready and waiting to stir up the unruffled expanse of buyer-indifference. And fuel is cheap ... much cheaper than marking time while some wiser navigator gets to port ahead of you.
