STUART PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL

Anniversary Fittingly Celebrated by Pupils.

The students of Manassas High School, under the direction of Miss Johnson, presented an excellent program Monday afternoon, the occasion being the hundredth anniversary of General J. E. B. Stuart's birth. The co-operation of the high school in giving these programs is greatly appreciated by the local chapter, U. D. C. and are reported to the historian general, Virginia winning first place last year in historical work. This is the second splendid program given by the high school this term, the first being a Bicentennial George Washington program.

Both programs showed real research. All the features of the Stuart program given below were ably presented, and thoroughly enjoyed by the U. D. C. guests. The singing was exceptionally good — especially fine was the group of songs by the boys chorus, including "Jine the Cavalry."

Program as follows:
Dixie, sung by school.

"Portrait of a Cavalry Man" from the "Life of Stuart," written by a Captain of the United States Marines, the grandson of a major in the Confederate Army, read by Lucy Gibson.

Poem, Virginians of the Valley, read by Kenneth Lyons.

Cavalry Campaign just Before the Second Battle of Manassas, read by Mary Fauntleroy Cocks.

Boys and Girls Chorus. Songs, Southern Girl, Maryland, My Maryland.

Description of Cavalry Review at Culpeper Court House, June, 1863, taken from Mary Johnston's "Cease Firing," read by Mary Lynch.

Boys Chorus. Camp Songs, Stonewall Jackson's Way, We're Old Time Confederates, Jine the Cavalry.

The Death of Stuart, read by Jessie Mae Connor.

Song, Carry Me Back to Old Virginia, school.

M. H. S. BOYS BEAT MARSHALL; GIRLS LOSE

The third league games of the season were played in the home gym last Friday night. The first game was the boys' game ending with a score of 27 to 4 in favor of the home team. This game was slow and drawn out. The second team was put in during the third quarter and remained until the end of the game. This game proves that Professor Pullen has built up a strong first team and a dependable second team.

Lineup:
M. H. S. Marshall High
T. Kite F Ball
Leith F Waddell
W. Kite F Duncan
Vetter G Moore
Gilroy G Dunn

Substitutions — Marshall, Lake for Waddell. M. H. S., Smith for W. Kite, W. Kite for Gilroy, Gilroy for T. Kite, Bradshaw for Vetter, Vetter for Leith, Wetherall for W. Kite, Ritter for Wetherall, Lyons for Vetter, Compton for Gilroy, Ritter for Vetter, Bradshaw for Ritter.

The girls' game followed this game. It was slow and the playing on both teams were about equal, although the forwards on the Marshall team had more luck with their shots. This game ended with a score 20-15.

Lineup:
M. H. S. Marshall
Flaherty F Ball
Lynch F Payne
Kincheol C Lewis
White S C Hatcher
Schooley G Triplett

COMMITTEE MEETING

The nursing activities committee of the Red Cross met on Friday, Feb. 3, in Miss Neel's office. Four districts were represented. Plans were discussed for starting work on the pre-school examinations. The next meeting, March 3, at 2 p.m. in Miss Neel's office, will be very important as detailed plans will be worked out. All members of the committee are urged to attend.

RICE ADDRESSES KIWANIS CLUB

Cavil T. Rice, prominent in Guernsey cattle circles of the entire United States, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis Club on Friday.

Proper adherence to the requirements fixed to insure standard accredited herds was the feature of his talk. He emphasized the good record that Prince William cattle were making everywhere, and how it had helped the dairymen of the county. Mr. Rice interspersed his talk with his usual number of humorous recollections and stories.

Secretary Bradford reported that the club had averaged 94 per cent attendance for the month of January.

POLLARD COMMENTS ON ROOSEVELT CALL

"It's an excellent idea," Declares Governor.

"It's an excellent idea and may result in great things for the country," Governor Pollard said yesterday, commenting on President-elect Roosevelt's call for a conference of governors in Washington on March 6.

The Virginia executive announced that he expected to attend the meeting. He had formulated no program to offer the conference, he observed, but was much interested in the matter of overlapping Federal and State taxing systems and in forestation.

"I believe," he said, "that forestation promises more than anything else in the solution of the unemployment problem. Besides, here is a permanent investment of incalculable value."

As chairman of the executive committee of the Governor's Conference, Governor Pollard will meet on the same day with members of this committee to map out a program for the meeting next July in California. Other members of the body are Governors White of Ohio, Winant of New Hampshire, Connor of Mississippi, and Rolph of California.

D. W. AYRES

Daniel Webster Ayres, 79, well-known retired restaurant proprietor, died at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning at his home, 816 South Fifth street. Mr. Ayres was stricken Saturday night with a heart attack and never rallied.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at the Ayres residence. The Rev. C. K. Davis, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will officiate. Burial will take place in Mt. Vernon cemetery. Harouff & Buis are in charge.

Ayres brothers' restaurant was for years an Atchison institution and both Dan Ayres and his brother, James T. Ayres, were known to hundreds of people in Atchison, the surrounding territory and among the traveling public. Dan Ayres was born February 17, 1853, in Loudoun County, Va., and came to Atchison in April, 1879.

He immediately entered the restaurant business here, locating at Third and Main streets and in 1884 erected a building on South Third street to which he moved and went into partnership with his brother. For 24 years this partnership endured until the business was sold to the late Sam Gore in 1908.

Mr. Ayres married Miss Laura Belle Tarrant, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tarrant of Atchison, May 7, 1889. In September of that year they moved into the home at 816 South Fifth street, which Mr. Ayres had built and in which he died. The widow is the only immediate survivor.

In retirement, Dan Ayres was intensely devoted to his wife and home as he had been all of his married life. — (Atchison Daily, Atchison, Kans.)

Mr. Ayres is survived by three nieces and two nephews in Virginia and Washington, Mrs. A. A. Maloney, Mrs. R. L. Wheeler, Miss Annie Troth and Mr. G. H. Ayres of Manassas and Mr. J. W. Ayres of Washington, D. C.

GOV. POLLARD ASKS MORTGAGE RELIEF

HON. JOHN GARLAND POLLARD.

Virginia, during the wise administration of its present Governor, has attained an enviable place among States and her financial system and budget plan is being studied throughout the Nation, because our Commonwealth, in a time of great financial distress, is in excellent shape. The "Virginia Plan," if applied to the Federal Government, would have prevented accumulation of the present huge national deficit.

The accident took place on the new cut-off around Fairfax. Mr. Holmes pulled his car aside but the truck careened into them after slightly damaging a car just ahead.

Miss Sutton who was riding with the Holmes was badly cut about the face. She returned to Washington and received first aid treatment.

Judge Brown fined the driver for reckless driving at a hearing held on Monday.

The pall-bearers were the deacons of Manassas Baptist church.

The many friends present and the beautiful floral tributes testify to the love and esteem in which Mrs. Ryland was held.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Ryland is survived by one son, Dr. C. P. Ryland, Jr., of Birmingham, N. Y., and several nieces and nephews, to all of whom we extend our sincere sympathy.

LUCKY ESCAPE

In returning to Nokesville Monday evening, W. B. Kerlin and his daughter, Evelyn, upset on the downgrade from the bridge near the show grounds.

The machine turned upside down so quickly that Mr. Kerlin scarcely knew what had happened. A tree stopped the machine just after it left the road or it might have traveled a great deal further.

The couple escaped with slight scratches and bruises, while two holes were punched in the top of the car.

BEAUTIFICATION OF HOME GROUNDS TO BE STUDIED

Bethel Community Launches Home Grounds Improvement Contest.

Mrs. Mary C. McBride, specialist in landscape gardening for V. P. I. extension division, will be in the county on February 15 and 16 for a series of meetings with home demonstration groups. Mrs. McBride will score grounds of those entering the "Home Grounds Improvement Contest" in Bethel, Woodbridge community and at the meeting of Bethel Home Demonstration group on Thursday, February 16, will make recommendations for improvements which may be made at low cost. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dewey Shaeffer, beginning at 1:30 o'clock, on Thursday, February 16.

The home demonstration group and the Haymarket Woman's Club will hold a joint meeting on Wednesday, February 15, at 2 o'clock, at the Town Hall. M. deNicola, Miss Eddie Davis and Mrs. Ollie Collins.

SIMEON LONG

Mr. Simeon Long, 84, the oldest citizen of the Independent Hill community, passed quietly away Jan. 28 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. L. Herring, with whom he made his home. Mr. Long was the son of the late Samuel Long and Polly Heatwole Long and was a native of Rockingham County. He married Miss Margaret Hollen of near Bridge-water. He came to Prince William and purchased a farm near Nokesville, afterward moving near Independent Hill where he continued farming until his health failed him last spring.

He had been failing quite rapidly for several weeks. His death came as a shock and yet not unexpected. Death was due to heart failure, following his great age.

Mr. Long was a consistent member of the Brethren church and up to the time of his death was always interested in the truths of God's Word and the Master's Kingdom. He was for years very active in Sunday school work, having conducted Mission Sunday schools in different sections of the county.

The funeral was conducted from the Valley View Brethren church, Jan. 31. Services in charge of Elder G. W. Beahm, assisted by Elder J. M. Wells, J. Murray Taylor, W. J. Wine and Geo. W. Crabtree, all of whom spoke of him in highest terms. The large crowd and beautiful floral display were an expression of the high esteem in which Mr. Long was held, both by neighbors and the friends from a distance. There were quite a number from Washington, D. C., Bridge-water, Alexandria and Maryland, to express the great sympathy to the family and their personal loss of a friend.

Governor Requests Holders of Mortgages to Be Considerate.

Governor John Garland Pollard on Tuesday of this week issues a statement to the effect that he had addressed a communication to large holders of mortgages in Virginia asking them to be as lenient as possible in the matter of pushing their claims. He stated that he had no authority under law to lay down rules for a moratorium, but was acting in the interest of the embarrassed debtors in Virginia, who are unable at this time to meet their obligations.

Virginia, the Governor stated, is in much better shape than many other states, but the evidences of distress were increasing daily. One difficulty in the way of a general moratorium, it was stated, was the fact that mortgages in many instances are held by widows, orphans, and others who are dependent upon the incomes from secured loans. In such cases, foreclosure becomes almost a necessity, but in a very large number of cases greater leniency can be extended.

In immediate response to the Governor's request, the Virginia Seed Service extended a general moratorium to its patrons and many other extensions are expected to follow. It is estimated that 50,000 farmers in Virginia and North Carolina will be benefited by the response made on the part of the Virginia Seed Service alone.

ALEXANDRIA H. MANASSAS H. GAME ENDS IN 36-34 IN FAVOR OF ALEXANDRIA

This game was the fastest and most exciting game played in our gym for years. Both teams were in excellent condition and were surprisingly evenly matched. This made the game faster and more interesting. Neither team during the whole game let the other team lead by as many as five points.

Special credit should be given to Vetter, W. Kite and T. Kite and all the boys for the excellent games they played, and to Professor Pullen for the excellent manner in which he has trained these boys.

Line up:
M. H. S. A. H. S.
Vetter G Williams

T. Kite F Rause
Leith F McMenamin
W. Kite C Embry

Substitutions — A. H. S., Nugent for Embry, Chilcott for McMenamin, Clyst for Rause, Moore for Williams. M. H. S., Gilroy for Vetter, Vetter for Bradshaw.

VIRGINIA IS BIG CONTRIBUTOR TO U. S.

Only Exceeded by New York and North Carolina in Payment to U. S.

Virginia jumped from fifth to third place in the payment of taxes into the Federal Treasury during 1932, according to Government figures in an Associated Press dispatch Monday.

The Commonwealth trailed only New York and North Carolina in the total despite a decrease in the total taxes from $107,115,468 in 1931 to $99,106,599 in 1932.

In addition to income taxes, the bulk of Virginia's Federal levies came from the tobacco industry of which Richmond is the manufacturing hub. North Carolina, with $205,721,458 in Federal taxes against $251,819,908, also derived most of its Federal revenue from tobacco.

New York, as usual, led the nation in producing taxes for the Federal Government with a total of $33,097,023.

New York's commanding position was due to huge collections of income tax which brought $145,967,129 from corporations and $105,626,239 from individuals.

He is survived by one son, Eli Long of Richmond, three daughters, Mrs. J. S. Evers of Spring Creek, Mrs. Matty Herring of Independent Hill, Mrs. Ollie Shaffer of Miami, Fla., one brother, William Long of Spring Creek, two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Boerman of Spring Creek, Mrs. Mollie Ritchie of Washington, D. C., and quite a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

CATHARPIN

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter, Elizabeth, were Washing-being the guests of Aunt Gussie and of grandmother, Mrs. Etta P. Lynn, who is also visiting the city for a few weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Briggs and little daughter, Patricia, started Tuesday morning by bus for a ten-day sojourn among friends and relatives at Painted Post, N. Y. Mr.
Briggs is now with the Marines and after the expiration of a month's vacation will probably be stationed in Washington.

Miss Claudia Pattie of Washington spent the week end with her parents at Bell Farm returning to the city Sunday night. Miss Pattie is employed at the Murphy stores which are situated where Dulin & Martin used to be located.

Miss Frances and Anne Robertson of Lawn Vale joined the ranks of the "shut-ins" last week while they were nursing a couple of cases of flu which kept them from school for the time being. They are now about well again and ready to return to their studies.

It is always a pleasure to this column to look over the school reports and find the names of Catharpin and Sudley girls and boys whose names are listed among the honor roll students of the different schools they attend. In last week's report we were pleased to note the following names among the honor rollers of the Manassas high school: Jane Lynn, 3rd year academic; Mary Currall Pattie, 2nd year, and Thelma Ward, 7-A grade. From the Haymarket high school Nancy Lee Swecker, 5th grade; Margaret Ellison, 6th grade, and Belva Ellison and Elizabeth Harrover from the high school. It is always an honor to be on the honor roll and mighty pleasing to both parents and friends.

A few days ago this community was startled and almost shocked beyond recovery when at about 10:31 1/2
a.m., Eastern Standard time, a roar of prodigious proportions was heard whose reverberations resounded from hill-top to hill-top and was heard for miles upon miles around and whose detonating effect caused the earth to quake and buildings to tremble and people to be cast upon the ground helpless and afraid. When the shock had abated and people had regained their equilibrium and once more could stand erect and exercise their respiratory organs they gasped out, "What has happened?" whereupon it was learned that some technocrat, while traveling on top of Bull Run mountains had inadvertently dropped an atom and the thing broke in two thus releasing that awful power and energy we have been reading so much about lately and which is to revolutionize the world. You know our friend, Albert Einstein, and his coterie of noted scientists have been working on that little thing for a long, long time trying to find out its power which is supposed—if not already known—to be very, very great;
just how and in what way, we of the common herd can not hope to advise, but the whole thing leads to a moral—the power of little things.
Aside from our somewhat extravagant phraseology there is something wide and deep; far-reaching about us all which uncontrolled may lead to many unpleasant things. I shall leave the application of "The power of little things" to the interpretation of the reader.

ROGERS' JOB TO MILK COW

In his role as a homeless tramp, who is given temporary shelter at the home of the man who stole his wife and daughter, Will Rogers, in "Too Busy To Work," his most recent Fox production coming to the Dixie Theatre next Monday, is always going to perform some kind of labor to earn his keep, but never quite gets to it. This quirk in his character is said to provoke many ludicrous episodes. One of the funniest is where Rogers learns to drive an automobile.
Another is his attempt to milk a cow.
Still another is the situation that calls on him to pluck a chicken. His one-sided fight with a giant Swede is also fertile ground for laughs.

Marian Nixon portrays the leading feminine role. Dick Powell, formerly of the New York stage, who made a widely acclaimed screen debut in "Blessed Event," shares the romantic interest with her. Other favorites in the cast include Frederick Burton, Constantine Romanoff, Douglas Cosgrove, Louise Beavers and Jack O'Hara.

BRENDEN IN TRAINING AS AN ANIMAL TRAINER

If ever El Brendel decides to leave the screen and engage in some other pursuit, he can become an animal trainer. In nearly every picture in which the popular comedian has appeared he has had "business" with some kind of animal or, at least, bird. In "The Cock Eyed World" it was a monkey; in "The Big Trail" he and a mule were the central figures in several scenes; in "Delicious" he was groom to a number of polo ponies. But in "Handle With Care," the Fox Film, to be seen at the Dixie Theatre next Friday, February 17, an army of cats form the background for some of his best scenes.

Sew Adapted Red Clover Seed.

Experimental results show that there is a great difference in the amount of hay produced from red clover seed from different sources. They show that the yields of hay from red clover seed from foreign countries are not as high as those from some of the seed grown in the United States and in some cases no second growth was produced. On the other hand, some of the seed from foreign countries is apparently better than that produced in some of the States of this country. Such results indicate that the grower must use care in purchasing red clover seed and make sure that it was produced in a section which produces seed that will yield well in Virginia. It seems that the best red clover seed for the Virginia farmer to use is that seed which is produced under conditions similar to those existing in Virginia. Since anthracnose plays such a large part in red clover production in Virginia, so far as possible we should purchase red clover seed that has been produced in the anthracnose-infested areas of the United States. Under such conditions only types resistant to anthracnose can survive and produce seed.

The tests show that Tennessee-grown, Ohio-grown, and Michigan-grown red clover seed have given the highest yields of hay. Virginia-grown seed has not been used in the state experiments to secure information as to comparative yields but results secured by the United States Department of Agriculture show that it has yielded exceptionally well. Virginia-grown seed has given splendid results on the farms of the state and seems to be one of the best sources of red clover seed for Virginia. The Maryland seed has shown up well at the Arlington Experimental Farm and has given excellent results. These results show that the best red clover seed for use in Virginia is that grown in Tennessee, Virginia, Maryland, Ohio and Michigan.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God

It is a blessing to have a Bible in your home, and a light to your path.—Proverbs 1:19-20

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize a Bible selection each week, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

TRUST AND WAVER NOT:
Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.—Proverbs 3:5.

ROOSEVELT IS ACTING

Although the Fourth of March is still several weeks away it is increasingly evident that the master hand of the President-elect is already at the helm of our ship of state. The steady influence in matters of foreign relations and international financial matters is quite evident, and the call this week for a conference of all Governors of States on the sixth of March has done more than any recent event to awaken a renewal of confidence in the ability of government to successfully combat the fearful situation existing in the United States.

Under the retiring Republican regime there has been little or no co-operation between federal agencies and state government. Jealous of its great power, the federal government has evidenced resentment toward any move among states to work hand in hand with the central agency. A few months ago, when Governor Roosevelt asked to be present in behalf of the State of New York, while the federal government was considering an agreement with Canada respecting water power problems along the St. Lawrence River, he was quite rudely advised by Mr. Hoover that when the national government had completed its negotiations with Canada, he would be permitted to give any advice he might care to as Governor of the State most concerned.

The Democracy of America takes a different attitude. Within two days after taking office President Roosevelt will do what no Republican President has ever done. He will call all State Governors into immediate conference over the gigantic plans he has in formulation for the restoration of prosperity.

Virginia, through our beloved Governor Pollard, will be ably represented, and all 48 states will likewise sit at the conference. Conflicting taxation between State and Federal Government will be studied. The States will be consulted as to Federal aid for unemployment, so that there will be more complete harmony with State efforts along the same line. The mortgage foreclosure problem will be tackled. The better use of poor lands, reforestation of lands unsuited for profitable agriculture, and the reorganization of local government to decrease the tax costs and other outstanding problems of the day will be studied by President and Governors as never before.

It is an inspiring picture, this prospect of President Franklin Roosevelt, with a staff of forty-eight State Governors, joining hands to relieve America!

CONGRATULATIONS

The Orange Observer has just celebrated its 52nd anniversary. We extend our cordial congratulations and best wishes for many more useful years.

No other newspaper in Virginia is like The Orange Observer, and no other editor and publisher holds the place in the affections of her colleagues as does Miss Bertha Robinson, who for half a century has been saying sweet, helpful things in the charming style of the Old South.

Printed on a Washington hand press, from hand-set type, this old-time newspaper gives its wide circle of friends the latest news of the community, as viewed by a gentle editor who is beloved throughout the State for the way she constantly upholds the finer things of life.

SENATE CORRUPTION

In a burst of indignation the United States Senate has brought Sergeant-at-arms David S. Barry to the bar of justice to answer for his published statement that there were many corrupt men in Congress.

In all probability nothing further than the dismissal of Sergeant Barry will result from the incident. The public knows in a general way that there is plenty of graft going on all the time in the U. S. Senate, and that also there are many men of unquestioned honesty there.

The Senate could hardly permit one of its own employees to discuss its honesty and the dismissal of the indiscreet officer was expected. However, the Senate will not be likely to keep the question of its own honesty before the public.

Sergeant Barry ought to know quite a bit about graft. He is well located to observe, and his own salary of $8,000 would indicate that he himself has had a good bite at the political pie counter.

Facts and Figures on Your Telephone

By EDWIN F. HILL

Evidence that telephone communication is becoming more essential to the business and social affairs of people is confirmed in a recent statement that there are five telephone messages to every three letters mailed in this country. The statement shows that there are now annually about 27,000,000,000 telephone messages as compared with 15,000,000,000 communications sent as first class mail.

The reason for this wide use of the telephone is reflected in a recent survey in a large city, which indicated that two women out of every five prefer to do their shopping by telephone. Still another survey conducted by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies operating in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia developed that more than one-third of the local display advertising in newspapers carries telephone numbers.

Results of the survey also showed that information operators in three of the larger cities served by the companies answered requests for the telephone numbers of stores on an average of 300, 115 and 100 times, respectively each day over a period of time, notwithstanding the fact that the stores in question were all listed in the telephone directories. This means that once every six minutes a potential customer took the trouble to ascertain from the information bureau the telephone number of a particular store.

ECONOMY COMMISSION PLANS BIG SAVINGS

The State Economy Commission, which is headed by Senator Robert O. Norris, plans to meet within the next ten days and complete recommendations for a drastic cut in State expenditures.

A saving of a million dollars is proposed by the following economies:

1. Abolition of the State Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, or, failing that, its merger as a bureau with some other department.

2. A substantial decrease in the number of division superintendents of schools through consolidation of a number of thinly populated counties under one superintendent.

3. A "substantial, permanent" decrease in the salaries of presidents and professors of State-supported schools.

4. Abolition of all county school boards and their clerks, their work to be taken care of by county boards of supervisors and the county clerks.

5. Abolition of the $1,000 yearly expense account allowed the seven justices of the State Supreme Court.

6. An amendment to the Moffett act, which fixed a minimum salary scale for county treasurers and commissioners of the revenue, to enable the State to cut their salaries along as well as those of other officials.

My Favorite Recipes

by Frances
Lee
Barton

"DO give us more good bran recipes. The whole family loved the Bran Griddle Cakes, and they certainly do solve the problem of getting bran into the diet," a woman wrote me after giving Bran Griddle Cakes in my Cooking School of the Air, and I believe she was speaking for a lot of homemakers.

Here are a few suggestions that will make any breakfast or lunch a healthier one and a happier one:

Bran Doughnuts

3 cups sifted flour; 4½ teaspoons combination baking powder; 1½ teaspoons salt; ½ teaspoon nutmeg; 2 tablespoons butter; ½ cup sugar; 2 eggs, well beaten; ¾ cup milk; 1½ cups whole bran. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and nutmeg, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Combine eggs, milk, and whole bran. Add to sugar mixture and mix thoroughly. Add flour, beating after each addition until smooth. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll 1/3 inch thick on slightly floured board and cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat (385° F.), turning frequently, until golden brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Sugar if desired. Makes 3 dozen doughnuts.

Raised Bran Rolls

2 cups milk, scalded; 2 cakes compressed yeast; 2 teaspoons salt; 4 tablespoons sugar; 2 egg yolks; 2½ cups sifted flour; 1/2 cup melted shortening; 2½ cups whole bran. Cool milk to lukewarm. Pour into bowl and add crumbled yeast cakes, salt, sugar and egg yolks. Mix thoroughly. Add flour and beat vigorously with wooden spoon. Add shortening and beat again. Then add whole bran and continue beating 2 minutes. Allow dough to stand 5 minutes to thicken. Turn out on well-floured board. With spatula or spoon, fold edges of dough toward center. Continue until dough is well covered with flour and easy to handle. Knead until smooth. Place in well-greased bowl. Brush surface with melted shortening. Set in bowl of warm water, having water level with dough. Cover and let rise until double in bulk. Fold dough under and let rise again until double in bulk. Then fold dough under and let rise a third time. Shape pieces of dough into rolls, place in baking pan, and brush with melted butter. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 15 to 20 minutes, depending upon size. Makes about 3 dozen rolls.

Bran Griddle Cakes

1½ cups milk; 1 cup whole bran; 1½ cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons combination baking powder; 2 teaspoons sugar; 1 teaspoon salt; 2 eggs, well beaten; 1 tablespoon melted butter. Four milk over whole bran. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, and salt, and sift again. Add eggs to bran mixture. Add flour and blend. Add butter. Bake on hot, well-greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and syrup. Makes 24 cakes.

FIRST TALKIE BRINGS COHAN DOUBLE ROLES

"The Phantom President," a political comedy featuring George M. Cohan, Claudette Colbert and Jimmy Durante, opens at the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday. It is Cohan's first talking picture, though he has been a prominent stage personality for three decades.

The picture deals with a presidential campaign, in which the behind-scenes wire-pullers select a candidate well equipped for the job, but lacking the personality to win votes.

Stumped and about to drop him as a possibility, they suddenly change their minds when they discover a medicine-show barker practically oozing personality, who is an exact double for their man. They press him into service to impersonate the candidate and win votes, and soon it looks like a walkaway, so well does he succeed. Then an amusing dramatic climax alters everything.

Cohan plays the dual role, of the candidate and his double. Miss Colbert is the daughter of an ex-president of whom the two Cohan are enamored, and for whom they battle. Durante is the barker's buddy. Durante is the barker's buddy. His "schnozzle" is prominent throughout the picture.

My Favorite Recipes
by Frances Lee Bastion

It must be the landscape, itself, with its brilliant stirring colors that makes us all turn toward bright hues in the fall, even for food.

Fall tables should be gay. These five dishes make them so, at very little expense and with very little trouble. Cider jelly is as lovely to look at as an amber leaf, and is delicious either as a dessert or relish. Magic Ice is a beautiful green; Jellyed Ginger Pears, yellow and bronze; Monastery Pudding, a royal purple!

Cider Jelly

(Dessert or Relish)
1 package orange or lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 pint boiling sweet cider; 1/8 teaspoon salt.
Dissolve gelatin in boiling cider. Add salt. Pour into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve as dessert or relish. Serves 6.

Jellyed Ginger Pears

8 halves canned pears; drained; 1 pint boiling pear juice and water; 1 tablespoon preserved ginger, chopped; 2 tablespoons ginger syrup; 1/8 teaspoon salt; 1 package lemon-flavored gelatin.
Heat pears, pear juice, ginger, and ginger syrup to boiling. Remove pears; add salt. Dissolve gelatin in 1 pint boiling pear juice and water. Pour into mold and arrange pears in gelatin, having rounded side up. Chill until firm. Serve plain or with whipped cream. If desired, cut a ball-shaped piece from rounded side of each half of pear, and insert a maraschino cherry. Serves 8.

Magic Ice

1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 pint boiling water; 1 cup green Midway grapes, halved and seeded.
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in grapes. Chill until firm. Break with a spoon and pile lightly in sherbet glasses. The irregular mass looks like ice. Serves 6.

Monastery Pudding

2 cups Concord grapes, seeded; 1/2 cup seeded raisins; 1/4 cup sugar; dash of salt; 3/4 cup water; 1 package orange-flavored gelatin; 1/4 cup walnut meats, coarsely broken.
Cook grapes, raisins, sugar, salt, and water together 5 minutes. Add gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in nuts. Turn into individual molds or ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with custard sauce or whipped cream, if desired. Serves 6.

Cardinal Pear Mold

1 package cherry-flavored gelatin; 1 1/2 cups boiling water; 1/4 cup juice from canned or cooked pears; 1/4 teaspoon vinegar; 1/8 teaspoon ginger; 1/8 teaspoon salt.
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add pear juice, vinegar, ginger, and salt. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with sections of pears. Serves 6.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

To break up a cold overnight and relieve the congestion that makes you cough, thousands of physicians are now recommending Calotabs, the nausealess calomel compound tablets that give you the effects of calomel and salts without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in 10c and 35c packages at drug stores. (Adv.)

Cold Weather Dinner Menus

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

COLD, crisp days call for generous, substantial meals. Appetites are keen and dinners that include savory, nourishing, main dishes appeal at this season as they do at no other. Later on meals must be "dressed-up" a bit to appeal to appetites, but now good substantial combinations are desired. The wise menu planner will take advantage of this and make the preparation of meals easy by serving practical, simple dishes. Dinner menus suggested below provide hearty, simple foods that everyone enjoys. They are meals that require little effort in preparation. Serve attractively and watch the family enjoy them. You will enjoy the hours of leisure that they make possible!

Casserole of Pork Chops and Noodles*	Buttered Spinach with Egg
Genuine Dill Pickles	Pure Apple Butter
Hot Rolls	Chocolate Bread Pudding
Quick Stew*	Beef Balls
Cold Slaw	Grape Jelly
Chilled Baked Custard	Cookies
Spanish Spaghetti*	Buttered Green Beans
Mixed Fruit Salad	Apple Cobbler

(* Indicates recipes given below.)

Casserole of Pork Chops and Noodles—Cook 2 cups egg noodles in salted water for eight minutes. Drain. Fry 4 pork chops until nearly done and salt slightly. Mince 1 small onion, combine with noodles, 1/4 cup water, and 1/4 cup Tomato Ketchup. Put chops in casserole, cover with noodle mixture and sprinkle top with buttered bread crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) for 30 to 40 minutes.

Quick Stew—Mix 1 can of Oven Baked Beans, 1 can of tomatoes, 1/2 can of corn, 1 large potato, finely diced, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, and cook slowly until potatoes are tender, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking. Serve hot.

Spanish Spaghetti—In 3 tablespoons butter cook 1 small finely chopped onion, and 1 small finely chopped green pepper until tender. Add 3/4 cup (2 1/2 oz.) finely shredded dried beef, and brown slightly. Pour in one 15-oz. can Cooked Spaghetti with Tomato Sauce and continue cooking just until Spaghetti is heated through. Add a dash of pepper and serve very hot. This can be placed in a casserole, covered with crumbs, and browned, if desired.

Bob Steele's Spectacular Stunts Thrill Western Fans In "Son of Oklahoma" Film

"Son of Oklahoma" is the intriguing title of the new World Wide picture starring Bob Steele at the Dixie Theatre next Saturday and the star more than lives up to the title.

After a short but fast-moving introductory prologue, Steele is presented as the foster-son of a Spaniard who had picked him up as a lost child on the desert. From then on things move . . . fast. Steele outwits a desperado who tries to rob him of a mining claim, discovers that his mother is now known as "Shotgun Mary," locates his lost father as the new marshal and brings to justice the man who had caused all the trouble.

To do all this Bob Steele rides down precipitous cliffs, makes flying leaps on and off horses, bull-dogs the horses of a runaway stage coach, does some trick shooting that would make Deadeye Dick turn green with envy, indulges in a fight or two that would wreck any professional pugilist and to top it off, gaily carols love songs to his inamorata.

Robert N. Bradbury is credited both as author and director of the picture and he deserves praise in both cases for providing real fast-moving picture entertainment.

A more than capable cast of such familiar names as Josie Sedgwick, Carmen Leroux, Earl Dwire, Julian Rivero, Robert Homans, Henry Roquemore and others lend the star excellent support in making "Son of Oklahoma" a thrilling adventure of the great West.

MRS. LIZZIE HORNBAKER

Mrs. Lizzie Hornbaker, 72, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Brennan, Thursday, after months of patient suffering. Death came to her gently at the last, just as she had lived, a quiet, gentle life, trying ever to do unto others as she would have them do unto her.

Brief funeral services will be held at the Presbyterian church, the body will be taken to Steubenville, Ohio, accompanied by Mrs. Brennan and her daughter, Mrs. Farrell Hollar. This was the last request of Mrs. Hornbaker, that her daughter and granddaughter accompany her body to its last resting place. The Pilot joins with the many friends of the deceased and her daughters in sympathy to the bereaved.

Elizabeth J. Hornbaker was born near Steubenville, Ohio, on the 19th of September, 1860. In 1878 a move was made to Manassas, Va. Here she was united in marriage to Edwin L. Hornbaker, August 17, 1881. Her husband preceded her in death, having passed away the 24th of December, 1917. Eight children were born to this union. Two have gone to their reward. The six living are: Mrs. J. T. Brennan, Whitefish; Mrs. W. Holcomb, Wean, Wash.; Ernest and Harry, Pueblo, Colo.; Walter, Elizabeth, N. J.; Mrs. Eugene Davis, Manassas, Va., and 12 grandchildren.

There remains to mourn her loss, 4 brothers and 1 sister, William and Sherman Robertson, St. John, Kans.; E. L. Robertson in Greenburg, Kans.; John in Protection, Kans.; Mrs. Maud Leonard in Pepperwood, Calif.

She was a kindly and affectionate mother, a devoted worshiper at the shrine of Faith. She was a sincere Christian and a member of the Presbyterian church of Whitefish. She loved her children, she loved her Bible and Devotional books, her church and her God. Her sweet smiling face will be missed by all who know her, but she is at rest with Him who was her joy, her guide on earth. "Blessed," said John, "are the dead that die in the Lord."—The Pilot, Whitefish, Mont.).

(The Journal joins The Pilot in expressing regret at the passing of an old Prince William citizen).

ADEN

On Tuesday night, thirty-eight young people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Whetzel for the monthly meeting of the Sunbeam Class.

After the business session, presided over by Geneva Kerlin, president, a program was given under the direction of Evalyn Kerlin. The theme was "Essentials of Christian Life." After responsive reading and sentence prayers, Rev. Kesner gave a talk on "Communion with God." A story, "Reuben Howe Learns a Lesson," was told by Louise May. Anna Smith recited "The House by the Side of the Road." Active Service for the Kingdom of God was explained; In the Nation by Sara Hively; In the World by Hazel Bowman.

After each of the above, a selected choir consisting of Misses Geneva Kerlin, Sara Hively and Gayle Bowman and Messrs. John Hively and George Smith, sang an appropriate hymn. Mrs. Bowman closed with prayer.

The recreational period was supervised by Hazel Bowman.

In the course of events, Randall Foster was awarded the medal for having the best knowledge of cars, especially the Model T. Louise May and Mr. Kesner tied for being the most capable in selecting groceries, with Evalyn Kerlin, Annie Marshall, and Wiley Garman close seconds.

Louise May was considered the biggest bug in the game called "Bug."

The refreshments came last but indeed not "least best."

Mrs. Paul Garber, Miss Annie Marshall, Messrs. Wiley Garman, Clifford Dove and Randall Foster were welcomed as guests of the class.

The Aden Civic League will meet Friday night. A minstrel will be the main fete of the evening.

The bake sale, held at Manassas on Saturday, was a success. We wish to thank the good people of Manassas for their patronage and many kind remarks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Whetzel, Mrs. Fred Whetzel and Mrs. Amos Long spent last Friday, shopping in Washington.

Mrs. Evelyn Swank returned to her home in Washington after spending two weeks visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. May.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, who have been confined to their home the past week, are now able to be out.

FARES REDUCED BY SOUTHERN

Big Cut in Passenger Rates on Harrisonburg Division.

Inviting travelers to leave their automobiles in the garage and take advantage of probably the lowest regular railroad coach fares in the state, Southern Railway officials announced Saturday that the System would put in effect Friday, February 10, a 1 1/2 cent-per-mile fare basis between Harrisonburg and Washington.

Agents of the railroad believe this action will appeal to the public during the present difficult period and that their response will be an immediate increase in passenger travel. They stressed the fact that fare money, in a large part, is returned to the passengers through indirect channels of trade in the territory which the road serves.

Many fares between nearby points will be as low as five and six cents.

Under the new schedule which goes into effect tomorrow the fare to Washington will be 50 cents, and for the round trip, $1.00.

PLENTY OF TIME FOR A CAMPAIGN

Governor Pollard Discusses Gubernatorial Situation.

Governor Pollard yesterday expressed the opinion that three months is ample time for an active State political campaign.

"I believe three months is ample time to give the people opportunity to acquaint themselves with the candidates and the issues," the Chief Executive said in a conference with newspaper men.

He added that "as one who has gone through the mill three times," he does not believe in lengthy political campaigns.

Only one candidate has announced formally for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. The candidate announced is George C. Peery. The primary is in August.

"Should the campaign begin now public interest would lag before the time comes for a decision at the polls," he said, adding that he frequently in 1929 had delayed his announcement until after March 3.

C. and P. Telephone Cos. Issue 970,000 Directories

Listings in the Washington telephone directory show how cosmopolitan has become the nation's capital. Under the heading of "Embassies and Legations," in the classified section will be found the listings of sixty nations ranging down the alphabetical scale from "A" to "Y." Not all of these countries can be reached by telephone, according to officials of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies, but in this directory appear the listings of thirty-two representative cities in other lands with specified rates for each. Also listed are steamers plying between the old world and the new, from which passengers can talk with friends and associates on shore while the ships are in progress.

Telephone directories are a very useful part of the world's great person-to-person communication service. They contain a vast amount of useful information on telephone service. Included are instructions on how to make out-of-town calls, either person-to-person or station-to-station, and a partial list of rates for cities and towns called most often in certain localities.

Issuance of the telephone directories of the associated companies of the Bell System comes close to breaking all printing records for volume, speed of production, and accuracy. There are now distributed among subscribers of the Bell System more than 1,900 different directories with a total issue of about 36,000,000 copies.

In the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, territory served by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies, 73 books are issued totaling about 970,000 copies. Approximately 220,000 copies are delivered in Washington and the suburban areas.

CENTREVILLE

The sixth and seventh grades enjoyed a sight-seeing trip to Washington on last Saturday. The group visited the Washington Monument, Capitol, Congressional Library, Museum, and Masonic Temple. Professor Bauserman was in charge, assisted by Mrs. G. F. Compton.

Mrs. A. J. Robey was hostess Saturday night to a few friends, who were entertained at a bridge party. The guests included Mrs. John T. DeBell, Mrs. Katie Grove, Mrs. George Turberville, Miss Mary Thornton DeBell, Miss Lucy LeGallais and Mr. John DeBell, Jr.

On Monday Dr. Carson visited the Centreville School to give the Schick test. Next week he will return to give the toxin and anti-toxin treatment where necessary.

Mrs. George Compton spent last week end in Washington as the guest of Mrs. Ralph Utterback.

A tacky party is being planned by the membership committee of the School League to take place February 13.

Considerable progress is being made on the improvement of the road between Centreville and Chantilly.

The many friends of Miss Mary Millan will be sorry to learn that she is not improving.

The boys' Sunday school class of the Centreville Methodist church has financed the construction of basketball goals which will be placed on the school grounds.

ONE asks a lot of a favorite recipe, especially a favorite dessert recipe. It has to please our eyes as well as our taste; it has to be worth the time and materials that go into its making, and I believe, these days, a dessert should make a real contribution toward nourishment, too.

For all of these reasons I count among my favorites these four delicious and very economical desserts made of apricots and tapioca. Dainty and alluring as they are, these desserts are filled with body-building food elements. Apricots help to make good, red blood—they are one of the most valuable of fruits. Quick-cooking tapioca supplies energy, and in two of the desserts there is the added value of milk and egg.

Apricot Tapioca Cream

1/2 cup quick-cooking tapioca; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 4 cups milk, scalded; 1/2 cup sugar; 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 egg white, stiffly beaten; 1 cup stewed dried apricots, cut; 1/4 cup apricot juice.

Add quick-cooking tapioca and salt to milk, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar. Pour small amount of tapioca mixture over egg yolk, stirring vigorously. Return to double boiler and cook until thickened. Remove from fire and add flavoring. Fold a small amount into egg white. Add to remaining tapioca mixture and blend. Add apricots and juice. Chill. Serve with whipped cream, if desired. Serves 8.

Apricot Tapioca

1/2 pound dried apricots; 3 cups water; 3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 1/8 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup sugar.

Wash apricots. Soak in 3 cups water 1 hour and cook until tender. Drain. To juice, add enough water to make 2 cups liquid. Add quick-cooking tapioca and salt, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar. Cool. Force apricots through sieve. Fold pulp (about 1 cup) into tapioca mixture. Chill and serve with whipped cream. Serves 6.

Fruitarian Tapioca

3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 1/8 teaspoon salt; 2 cups milk, scalded; 2 tablespoons sugar; 1 egg, slightly beaten; 1/4 teaspoon almond extract; 1/4 cup cream, whipped; 1 cup apricot juice, canned or stewed; 2 macaroons, crushed.

Add quick-cooking tapioca and salt to milk, and cook in double boiler 15 minutes, or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add sugar. Pour a small amount of tapioca mixture over egg, stirring vigorously. Return to double boiler and cook until thickened. Cool. Add flavoring and cream. Chill. Pour apricot juice over macaroons and let stand several hours. Place tapioca mixture in individual serving dishes and top each with 2 tablespoons of apricot mixture. Serves 6.

Children's Parties in February

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

CHILDREN enjoy parties even more than grownups. Most of us can remember parties that we attended as children and the good times that we had still stand out in our minds. So when the youngsters beg to have a "party" plan one for them if it is at all possible. Such parties need not be elaborate, the games that children enjoy are not difficult and the refreshments may be, and should be, extremely simple. Ice Cream is usually the keynote of such menus for it is always most welcome and is healthful as well for little folks.

The special days of this month are excellent occasions for parties and the suggestions given below will help you to plan what to serve.

Heart Jumbles—Cream together 1/2 cup butter and 1 cup sugar. When light and creamy add whites of 2 eggs unbeaten, and continue creaming. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla and red vegetable coloring to make the cookie dough pink. Add 3 to 4 tablespoons cream and 2 1/2 cups flour sifted with 2 teaspoons baking powder to make a dough that will roll. Roll to about 1/8 inch thickness. Shape using a heart cutter and in the center of each cookie place a spoonful of Current Jelly. In another heart-shaped cookie cut two or more small circles using a thimble which has been thoroughly washed. Place the cut cookie over the one with the jelly and press the edges firmly together. Sprinkle with granulated sugar and bake in a moderate oven (375°F.).

Pink Fruit Punch—To 1 glass Currant Jelly add 1 cup granulated sugar, add 1 quart boiling water and stir until dissolved. Cool, add juice of 6 lemons and 2 oranges. Add 2 quarts more water. At serving time add ice to chill. This recipe will serve 20.

Washington Mounds—Beat 2 egg whites and 1/2 teaspoon salt until very stiff. Add 1/2 cup sugar gradually, beating it in with the beater. Fold in 2 cups Rice Flakes, mixed with 1/2 cup chopped nuts, 1/2 to 3/4 cup candied cherries, chopped, and 1/2 cup shredded coconut. Add 1/2 teaspoon almond or vanilla extract. Drop by tablespoons on a well-greased tin and bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) for 10 minutes or until firm.

OLDSMOBILE • CHEVROLET DEALER

announces

the First Public Showing of the NEW OLDSMOBILE 6 and 8

STYLE LEADERS FOR 1933

THE NEW SIX

THE NEW EIGHT

We take great pleasure in announcing our appointment as dealer for the Oldsmobile 6 and 8 in this community.

These two new style leaders for 1933—a roomier, more powerful Oldsmobile Six at $745, and a larger, more luxurious Eight at $845—are now on display at our salesrooms, where we cordially invite you to see them and have a demonstration.

They are entirely different from anything you ever saw. New Fisher bodies—radiators—lamps—hoods. New fenders and wheels. New rear contours. Everywhere, a striking new smartness that would win acclaim at double the price.

And with all this style appeal, the 1933 Oldsmobiles are brilliant, dependable performers, greatly advanced in engineering. Both the 80 h.p. Six engine and the 90 h.p. Straight Eight engine are cradled in rubber with a three-point mounting of new scientific design, making these inherently smooth power plants still quieter and smoother throughout the entire speed range. Fisher No Draft Ventilation, Individually Controlled, beyond question the greatest contribution to comfort, health and safety since the introduction of the closed body, is built into all 1933 Oldsmobile closed cars.

In addition to our display of the new Oldsmobiles, we invite you to inspect our facilities for servicing Oldsmobile cars. Our service department is already stocked with genuine Oldsmobile parts and equipped with factory-approved machines and tools, in charge of expert mechanics, assuring a high standard of prompt, efficient service. We will also continue to provide Chevrolet owners with the same complete service they have enjoyed in the past.

See the new Oldsmobiles at your earliest convenience, and arrange a trial ride for a demonstration of the balanced excellence now available in these cars, at the lowest prices in ten years—$745 and up, f. o. b. Lansing—bumpers and spare tire extra.
