FOREST CAMP IN VIRGINIA

Roosevelt Unemployment Measure Becomes Law.

With the final enactment of the Roosevelt Reforestation measure plans are rapidly being pushed to put the project into operation. Forestry officials have been in conference in Washington throughout the week and it is expected that several thousand men will be in camps east of the Mississippi River by March 1.

It is believed that the first work will be done in the George Washington National Forest in Virginia. Formerly known as the Shenandoah Forest, this area has just been put in shape for turning over to the Federal Government as a National Forest and much improvement work can be done in the area. In addition to the clearing of fire lines, construction of look-out towers and establishment of lines of communication, considerable reforestation work can be profitably undertaken in the area, particularly on Rag Mountain, where disastrous fires, twice getting out of control two years ago, did much to mar the beauty of the reservation's most conspicuous mountain.

A union labor leader, Robert Fenchner, of Massachusetts, has been placed in charge of the whole reforestation project and will co-ordinate the activities of the Departments of Agriculture, Labor and Interior. It had at first been stated that in press dispatches that R. Y. Stuart, Chief of the Federal Forest Service, would be placed in charge.

Improvement of federal parks and military memorials, such as the reservations at Fredericksburg and at Petersburg may be undertaken under the new law, and the building of roads such as the $400,000 project in the Shenandoah project may also come under the plan. Senator Byrd, Representative A. Willis Robertson and William E. Carson have conferred with Secretary of the Interior Ickes on this proposal and have stated that they believed the Secretary of Interior to be friendly to the building of this road as a relief measure. At present the fund is impounded by Executive order.

Seventeen of the largest cities of the country will supply the first 25,000 men and these will go into training in concentration camps. After their "toughening up" for hardy outdoor life they will be transferred to the various projects. In the first group only unmarried men with dependents will be taken who are willing to have a portion of their compensation set aside for their dependents. The men will be selected by the various welfare agencies in the big cities. In addition to the George Washington National Forest in Virginia, which lies between Edinburg and Luray, Va., other projects believed to be included as rapidly as the work can be organized are at Marionville, Kane and Seffeld, Pa., the Monongahela National Forest in West Virginia and also at Waynesboro, Buena Vista and Snowden, in the National Bridge area of Virginia.

MARYLAND MAN IS HELD UP

Edwin A. Shock, of 2437 Alhambra avenue, Baltimore, and Miss Agnes L. Boughan, of Washington, are the worst for a harrowing experience which took place in the midnight hours of Sunday.

Police give the name of Paul Woodyard as having held up the couple and stolen their watches and money, and some of their clothing. This was near Woodbridge. Seizing the car, he is said to have driven up to the vicinity of Independent Hill where he stopped and went into some house, presumably to get liquor.

At this point Miss Boughan and her escort took to the woods, where they wandered about until taking harbor with a good Samaritan who brought them to Manassas Monday forenoon.

Sheriff Kerlin trailed his man all day Monday, going into the Brentsville vicinity and around generally. He finally took him from a house not far from Manassas.

HAYDON TALKS ON SCHOOL FIGURES

Professor Richard C. Haydon presented a little home talent of his own and addressed the Kiwanis Club last Friday evening on the matter of school expenditures. His talk gave some very interesting figures and circumstances.

Nothing of moment occurred and the March attendance closed with a very high percentage. Bob Hutchison lost another singing match with the "north" table, largely because Jim Bradford deserted him.

All's quiet this week and nothing special has been advertised for the next meeting.

ELLIS TO DIRECT NEW SPORT CLUB

To Protect and Propagate Fish and Game.

The Prince William Fish and Game Protective Association was formed on Friday evening at a meeting held at the Town Hall in Manassas at which time some thirty local sportsmen attended.

The following were named vice-presidents for their respective districts: Brentsville, E. C. Spidler; Coles, none named; Dumfries, William Crow; Gainesville, J. M. Piercy; Manassas, O. O. Holler; Occoquan, Fred Lynn.

On motion of G. Raymond Ratcliffe, the state laws were adopted as by-laws of the organization.

Tentative dues of twenty-five cents a year were set. Membership cards will be mailed out, with notice of next meeting.

A committee of propagation was named as follows: O. O. Holler, J. M. Hottle, D. I. Payne, C. E. Hixson, R. J. Davis, P. L. Proffitt, and E. C. Spidler.

EASTER BALL

The Woman's Club of Manassas is working hard to make the Charity Ball a success, both socially and financially. It is expected that a large number of young people who are away at school and college will return for the event. The date is April 17.

HARRY DAVIS ON THE AIR

Broadcasts Address from Richmond.

Hon. Harry P. Davis, mayor of Manassas, who succeeded the mayor of Richmond as president of the Virginia League of Municipalities, broadcast a most interesting address from Richmond Tuesday evening on the problems of the smaller cities and towns. As mayor of a small town, Mr. Davis has had ample material for study, and as head of the association which advances the science of municipal government in Virginia, his observations and suggestions were heard throughout the State with much appreciation.

"As mayor of a Virginia town," Mr. Davis said, "I am glad to talk to you this evening on the problems of nearly two hundred small cities and towns of this Commonwealth." After explaining the place of the small municipality in the civic life of the nation, and calling attention to the fact that 20 millions of citizens were represented in this group, he said:

"The most serious problems of the small cities and towns today grew directly out of the depression. They involve feeling revenue and increased expense for unemployment relief. Tax delinquency, the failure or refusal of property owners to pay their taxes, while it has not reached the alarming extent in Virginia small cities and towns which it has attained in some industrial centers, has already reduced their income, and every year the depression lasts sees a rapidly increasing proportion of unpaid taxes. Property taxes have fallen and assessments have had in many cases to be reduced, with a consequent decline in revenue. At the same time, and from the same causes, unprecedented expenditures have been made necessary for unemployment relief."

"A curious by-product of the depression," Mayor Davis said, "is the greater school enrollment, especially in high schools. Unable to find employment for their sons and daughters, parents find it better to keep them in school than to allow them to be idle. In the care and help they are giving to unemployed young people, the schools are rendering a social service of tremendous importance. Were these young people turned loose to roam the streets, not only would the problem of juvenile delinquency be made more difficult but untold evils would haunt us for a generation."

Mr. Davis urged thoughtfully economy in municipal administration, not inadvised public expenditures merely for relieving unemployment, which in many cases is found to be more expensive than direct relief. He also advised against rash slashing of municipal appropriations which would endanger essential services of government.

"Our citizens need a new conception of what local government means and how its costs are spread. They need to be reminded that public expenditures for the most part merely displace private expenditure. The policeman displaces the private watchman and the fireman saves the citizen many times his cost in insurance premiums alone, to say nothing of the saving of life and property." Calling attention to the fact that all of the most promising sources of revenue have been already preempted by the State and Federal Governments, Mayor Davis advocated a full survey by the Legislature with view of properly apportioning taxation between State, county and city agencies. Something also can be done by the towns, he added, "by making the rates of municipally owned utilities high enough to contribute something to the city over the cost of the service."

Mayor Davis urged all small towns and cities to affiliate with the Virginia League of Municipalities which Louisa Senator Announces Candidacy.

STANDS FOR REPEAL AND FOR 3.2 BEER

Eight Planks Submitted in Opening Announcement.

FAVORS DEBT MORATORIUM

On Tuesday, Hon. W. Worth Smith, State Senator from Louisa County, announced his candidacy for Governor of Virginia, subject to the Democratic primary next August. Senator Smith is a brother of Hon. Howard Worth Smith, Representative for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, and is well known and very popular. His political ideals are summarized in the following announcement:

"I wish to lay at rest any misgiving on the part of the Virginia Electorate as to whether or not I shall be a candidate for the Governorship of Virginia, subject to the Democratic primary. I therefore definitely state that I shall be a candidate."

"I submit herewith Section 1, of my Platform, which I shall discuss in my first campaign speech at Louisa."

"First: The insane, feeble minded, crippled children and the blind shall properly be taken care of, regardless of what Department of Government suffers thereby. I consider the proper care of such unfortunate people a direct charge upon the Government."

"Second: I favor the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment."

"Third: I favor modification of the Layman Act, so as to permit the sale of non-intoxicating 3.2 beer. I will not tolerate saloons, and I shall advocate laws that will punish drunkenness in a severe manner, and I say this in the interest of temperance. I shall treat this subject at some length."

"Fourth: I am definitely opposed to an increase in the tax on gasoline, and I definitely favor a substantial reduction in license tags, and submit to the people that such course may be pursued by economic management of the State's affairs without impairment of the maintenance of highways, and I further submit that our Government should not be seeking a way to increase taxes, but on the other hand, a way to decrease them."

"Fifth: I favor a moratorium on certain debts, and am now prepared to submit a Constitutional Bill to the Legislature to accomplish this purpose."

"Sixth: I specifically propose to submit to the Legislature a plan whereby real estate may be relieved of the burden of the school tax, thus relieving real estate of approximately one-half of its present taxation."

"Seventh: I propose to submit to the Legislature a plan which will prevent the frequent, unnecessary and expensive change of text books used in our public schools."

"Eighth: I conclude this section with the emphatic statement that the consumers of electricity in all of its forms are aware, and have been for a long time, that the rate charged by public service companies is unreasonable, unjust and a detriment to the advancement of business, and that such rate should be reduced regardless of what lawful means may have to be taken in order to accomplish this purpose."

"W. WORTH SMITH, Jr."

WADE BALL IS CONVICTED

Sentenced to Two and One-Half Years.

Wade Ball, former treasurer of Arlington County, was convicted last Saturday of failing to account for $515,959.00 of county funds. The trial lasted eleven days. On a charge of misusing State funds he had been acquitted. On the charges just tried, the jury fixed the sentence at two and one-half years in the penitentiary. A hearing will be held by Judge McCarthy on April 17 on arguments to set aside the verdict. Ball at no cost beyond the nominal dues has been fixed at $5000.

provides an expert staff for dealing with the difficult technical questions of municipal government.

From beginning to end the address was full of valuable suggestions and will aid greatly in bringing about a better understanding of municipal problems and a more sympathetic co-operation on the part of the taxpayer.

CATHARPIN

Sunday was bright and beautiful and many enjoyed the first service of the year at Old Sudley. Sunday school started off with vim and interest with every teacher and officer in his place. Sermon excellent as usual and spirit fine. All classes reorganized and everything is now ready for a good season's work. Don't fail us.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn, Mrs. W.
K. Caldwell and Mrs. Chas. R. Mc-Donald were business shoppers in Washington last week and while leaving a few things on the shelves of the big department stores they made a sad wreck of the "five & tens."

Mr. J. E. Kidwell is just now experiencing the inconvenience of a flu attack which has kept him indoors for the past few days.

Mrs. C. F. and Mrs. W. S. Brower and son, Billy, were Oakwood callers on Monday.

Spring is always a beautiful time of year; buds bursting and blossoms filling the air with fragrance and all nature waking from her winter's sleep causes everyone to feel fresh and new; but nature has no monopoly on all the "newness" one sees on a bright Sunday morning at church when he is surrounded by a gorgeous display of millinery creations that causes one to stop, look and wonder how they could all get that way.
As usual they are of many shapes, sizes, color, contour, elevation, expense, contraction, straw, velvet, cloth—everything except depression;
all of which to describe fully would require the use of many adjectives;
yet, multitudinous as they may seem,
they all look pretty and of course the wearer is pleased, enhanced, delighted and beautified by reason of them, so spring has much for us all to enjoy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lynn and daughter spent Sunday in Manassas visiting with Mrs. Lynn's mother, Mrs. Metz and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Willis of Clarendon were Lone Oak visitors last week.

Master Frederick Hampton Alvey
had an attack of croup on Saturday which with a bad cold and hoarseness kept him indoors for a time.

The many friends of little Frances Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.
S. Brower, will be glad to know that the X-ray revealed no indication of harm resulting from swallowing a safety pin some days ago.

Mrs. Lelia Akers of Rock Hill spent Thursday of last week with her sister, Mrs. Etta P. Lynn, of Catharpin.

Sometimes this column is almost tempted to try to write something about the "Country Church" but in thinking it over we have almost come to the conclusion that it is a pretty big undertaking. That cry has gone up all over the land that the Country Church is failing; that its attendance is poor and interest lagging yet the population is still here and the farms all occupied as usual; grain grows and cattle graze the fields; gardens produce and trees bloom; cows give milk and pigs squeal and everything seems normal every day in every way except the Country Church. It seems that the church is the very first thing to feel the effects of whatever comes along be it depression, epidemic, heat, cold, dry, wet, or just what have you. Well we shall not tarry long just now upon this subject other than to say that we all know that no business can be successful without the wholehearted co-operation of all its partners. If people want the church and feel it is necessary as a community adjunct they can have it in all its fullness and glory by a wholehearted co-operation. Now "lets have it." We can scarcely believe that anyone today will deny that the church is an important factor in the lives of people; that its influence and principles of life are necessary to the well being of humanity and that our very civilization itself is primarily dependent upon its influence and teachings. Our children must have the influence of the Sunday school just now probably more than ever before. Don't fail them in their youth; and above all things do not train them in the use of "alibis." One of our nationally-known preachers recently said that "the use of the 'alibi' was the greatest drawback to our Christian civilization." Don't "send" them; "Bring" them. Communion next Sunday.

Motion picture devotees who are demanding the return of screen musicals will find enough music and dancing in the Fox comedy, "Hot Pepper," to meet their desires. It is the attraction at the Dixie Theatre next Monday and Tuesday. This picture depicts the latest adventures of the immortal Quirt and Flagg, the fighting and loving Marines portrayed by Edmund Lowe and Victor Mc-Laglen.

Though they are no longer in uniform, they are still the devil dogs created by Laurence Stallings and Maxwell Anderson. The 1933 Flagg and Quirt are night club owners, and they dress in regal style.

The night clubs are the playgrounds of beautiful women and tailor-made men, and entertainment in one of them is furnished by the flaming meteor, Lupe Velez, and a chorus of singing and dancing beauties.

Miss Velez sings a new song,
"Aint Going to Ring No More," and appears in a dance that is said to be sensational. The music for "Hot Pepper" was written by Val Burton and Will Jason, well-known composers.

TREASURED LOVE STORY
BRILLIANT IN FILM SETTING

The piquant beauty of "Madame Butterfly," Paramount's latest production with Sylvia Sydney, Cary Grant and Charlie Ruggles in the leading roles, come to the screen of the Dixie Theatre next Wednesday.

This inspired love tale from John Luther Long's famous story, of a real geisha girl who actually lived, is universal in its appeal. The production has been deftly handled with a keen appreciation for all the beauty in the original story.

Miss Sydney plays the role of Cho-Cho-San, daughter of a Samurai who had "died with honor when he could no longer live with honor." Taken to a geisha house by her mother and grandfather to await the coming of a rich suitor, she meets Cary Grant, in the role of an American naval officer on shore leave with his pal, Charlie Ruggles. Grant, despite the fact that he has a sweetheart in the States, falls in love with Cho-Cho-San and marries her... forgetting to tell her that his stay in Japan will soon be over... and that he must then return to the States... forgetting to tell her of his bride-to-be at home.

Shore leave is soon over... and he returns to the State promising to return "when the cherry blossoms bloom and the robins nest again"... but years pass before he does return. In the meantime a son has been born to Cho-Cho-San... a son she calls "Trouble" until his father returns when his name shall be changed to "Joy."

MRS. M. C. BOTTS

On Thursday, March 30, Alice Botts, beloved wife of M. C. Botts, of Gainesville, died at her home after a brief illness. Mrs. Botts was 64 years of age and had been a lifelong resident of the Gainesville community. Before her marriage she was Miss Alice Rollins, daughter of John W. Rollins. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Michael C. Botts and by three children, Thomas C. and Mrs. V. R. Ritenour, of Gainesville, and John W., of Patuxent, Md.

Funeral services were held at the home on Saturday, April 1, at 2 p.m. Rev. K. D. Swecker, pastor of the Gainesville M. E. church, officiated with the assistance of Rev. V. H. Council. Interment was in the family lot at the home.

The high esteem and love in which Mrs. Botts was held was manifested by the large attendance and lovely floral tributes. Her presence in the community will be greatly missed.

Back in the States, the naval officer, knowing that desertion of a Japanese wife is a legal divorce, marries his American sweetheart, and then is ordered back to Japan. His meeting with Cho-Cho-San is the climax of the picture.

The wizardry of the camera and the beauty of the settings lend a note to the picture that is rarely seen on the American screen. Here is the superb artistry of a great cast in a great play.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Salads Enliven Easter Menus

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

IF YOU are to entertain during the Easter season, you no doubt will want to include in the menu an egg dish, in the form of a hot dish or salad and you probably will wish to serve a salad or two as a sandwich suggestive of the season. Easter salads may be quite unusual and most attractive. Below are suggestions for menus for several types of occasions. If you are to have a luncheon as well as bridge, you will find this an excellent menu. The other menu, for afternoon or evening party, also is delightful.

An Easter Luncheon Menu

Tomato Juice Cocktail Crackers Spread with Roquefort Cheese
Eggs with Mushroom Sauce on Biscuit Straws*
Buttered Corn or Peas
Hot Biscuit Currant Jelly
Easter Fruit Salad*
Sunshine Cake with Fresh Strawberries and Whipped Cream
Coffee

Afternoon or Evening Bridge Party Menu

Frozen Fruit Salad* Sandwiches (Shaped using a bunny cutter)
Fluffy Coconut Layer Cake
Coffee Candies

(* Indicates recipes given below.)

Eggs with Mushroom Sauce on Biscuit Straws—Melt 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan, blend with 3 tablespoons flour, and add 1 medium can Cream of Mushroom Soup (Ready-to-Serve). Stir until thickened, season with salt and pepper and add whites of 6 hard cooked eggs, chopped, and half of the yolks. Serve on hot biscuit straws and sprinkle with remaining egg yolks forced through a sieve. Garnish with watercress or slices of Stuffed Spanish Olives. Biscuit straws: Roll biscuit dough ¼ inch thick and cut in strips ½ inch wide and 4 inches long. Bake in a hot oven (475°F.) for five to six minutes. Serve hot.

Easter Fruit Salad—Chill 6 halves of canned pear and scoop out a small part of the center, leaving what is to be a basket for the salad. Next divide 2 small packages of soft white cream cheese into four parts, and, using a small amount of vegetable coloring, tint each part of cheese a different color, leaving one part white. Chill the colored cheeses and form into small egg shaped balls, using one egg of each color in each Easter basket. Do not color the cheeses deeply. After placing one tinted egg of each color

in a pear basket, place it in a deep cup of crisp chilled lettuce, and garnish at one side with fruit salad dressing, made by folding into Mayonnaise Salad Dressing an equal part of whipped cream.

Frozen Fruit Salad—To ¾ cup cooked Fruit Salad Dressing, fold

in ½ cup whipped cream, and add

2 bananas, diced, 4 large slices

pineapple, diced, 6 Maraschino cherries, diced. Place in deep tray of refrigerator and freeze until hard enough to slice. Cut into one-half inch slices and serve in nests of lettuce. (This is an extraordinarily good Fruit Salad.)

Cooked Fruit Salad Dressing—

Mix ¼ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt,

1½ tablespoons flour, 1 egg, ½ cup

pineapple juice, ¼ cup orange juice,

¼ cup Pure Vinegar, and cook, stirring constantly until thick. Add

1 tablespoon butter and cool.

CHRIST FOR ALL—ALL FOR CHRIST
The Word of God
The word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.—Psalm 119:105
BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

THE ONLY CREATOR: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.—John 1:1, 3.

VETERANS' PAY SLASH

By order of the President a cut of $400,000,000 will be made in veterans' compensation. Nearly a half a million men will lose their compensation entirely, and many more will suffer substantial reduction. In issuing the necessary order President Roosevelt said, "I do not want any veteran to feel that he and his comrades are being singled out to make sacrifices. On the contrary, I want them to know that the regulations issued are but an integral part of our economy program embracing every department and agency of the Government and that they also bear in mind that every citizen in every walk of life is being called upon directly or otherwise to share in this."

While other elements of our population, particularly the representatives of big business were being accorded all kind of subsidies and emoluments from the United States Treasury, it was fair and square for our veterans to get their full share while the "getting was good." It seemed to be the order of the day to pump billions out of a rapidly failing Federal credit. We believe the veterans deserve all that can be done for them. Abuses of the Government's generosity, of course, should be eliminated. But now that a halt has been called, we certainly admire the patriotic spirit in which the American Legion and other veteran organizations are accepting the sacrifices made necessary to balance the national budget.

BUDGET AFFAIRS IN FAIRFAX COUNTY

If the budget as put before the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors yesterday is adopted without change, that county, with perhaps two or three others in the State, will present the strange spectacle of apparently increasing certain of its expenses when the whole world appears to be striving to reduce budgets.

This is not said as a criticism of the Board of that county as it rarely adopts budgets "in toto" as presented. The fact remains, however, that the public utilities alone in Fairfax County have an assessed valuation of $3,100,000 or nearly one-half of the total assessed valuation of all Prince William County.

We do not have before us the facts and figures upon which this budget was prepared but it does seem that with such a good running start on the public utilities that the county levy could be held down.

The sentiment at that meeting was vastly different than that at the local courthouse last week. While the majority sentiment of the meeting was distinctly "pro-budget" there was a strong undercurrent of opposition. In Prince William the feeling was that the budget committee had done the best it could to reduce all expenditures.

In Arlington, the final budget meeting was held on Friday night with a cut running into many thousands of dollars, even extending into the school budget. This was due to a centered move on the part of the Clarendon Bar Association which strenuously and successfully waged war on the projected expenses of the Arlington county system.

Two members of the Fairfax Board have been members for many years and all the others are men experienced in business life. We believe that the Board of that county will be both wise and efficient in its methods of balancing needs of the county system and the farmers' purse.

(Since the above was written word has been received that the Fairfax Board met last night and adopted a budget which made cuts in some departments so that a uniform decrease over last year's levy of from five to ten cents was allowed in every magisterial district.)

THE AKRON DISASTER

A few months ago early risers in Manassas were rewarded by the magnificent sight of the world's greatest airship sailing gracefully across the morning sky. Majestically it headed in the approximate direction of the point where it plunged into the Atlantic Ocean early Tuesday morning with the loss of 73 lives. The nation will mourn the untimely death of the heroes who went to their death. They join the countless number of patriots who have made the supreme sacrifice for the national welfare.

This fearful tragedy may retard, but it will not stop man's conquest of the air and it will not prevent continued determination on the part of the United States to match the air achievements of other nations. Our national safety depends upon our ability to maintain supremacy in the air and the sacrifices attending this achievement, sad as they are, will but spur the nation onward. No stone should be left unturned in investigating all facts touching this disaster, however, and we should not fail, as a nation, to heed the warnings that may be gleaned from the fearful loss.

CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION ON THE AMERICAN FLAG

Sponsored by the Local Post of the American Legion.

When was our state first represented by a star in the union of the national flag? Name the original states represented by the stripes in the flag. Was the flag of the United States flown over front line troops during the World War? These are but three of the questions on Flag Education in the coming contest to be held in the county high schools.

The American Legion Post of this town, in conjunction with this newspaper and the county high schools, has arranged a campaign of education on the American Flag, its history and how and when it should be displayed.

Each week, commencing with the next issue, this newspaper will print a set of interesting questions, on the first page, and will print in the same edition the answers on the back page, until fifty subjects have been published. There will be three sets of these questions and answers, one set to be printed each week.

At the close of the campaign a set of questions taken from those already published will be placed before the students of the four county high schools, and they will be requested to make written answers.

Contest Rules

Any boy or girl enrolled in the high schools at Manassas, Nokesville, Occoquan and Haymarket may compete in this contest.

The answers as printed in the paper will be considered as the scoring basis.

The examinations will be held in each of the four high schools mentioned above on May 5.

The usual rules governing school examinations will be observed.

Papers will score on accuracy, neatness and legibility.

The winning paper as selected by the principal of each high school or his assistant will be sent to R. C. Haydon, division superintendent, at Manassas.

Prince William Post No. 158 will place the winning papers in the hands of a committee of competent judges whose selection shall be final.

A prize of an American flag will be presented by the Prince William Post of the American Legion to the winning high school, and a medal to the winning boy or girl representing the school.

Each of the fifty subjects is in the nature of a question, and some of the subjects have two or three questions. Each question touches on some point of American history that would furnish many hours of interesting reading, not only for students of history, but also for every American citizen.

The Legion's interest is that of patriotism, and each of the more than 10,000 Legion posts in the country will hold a similar campaign under the direction of the National Americanism Commission of the Legion.

CHAPLAIN MACKE IN MANASSAS

Recalls Accident 12 Years Ago.

Chaplain R. W. Macke, of Phoenix, Va., a noted globe trotter and distinguished World War veteran, was in Manassas Monday and renewed many acquaintances.

Many residents of the town recalled an incident which nearly became a tragedy in the year 1920, when a horse was electrocuted at the corner of Center and Battle streets in Manassas when an electric power line had fallen and electrocuted a horse. Rev. Macke, who was standing near, reached out his hand, apparently to touch or assist the horse in some way, when he was prevented by the quick shout of Clarke, Southern Railway Station agent. Had he touched the horse, he would unquestionably have been also electrocuted and he credits Mr. Clarke with having saved his life.

Chaplain Macke is a representative of the Church Army, a religious institution similar to the Salvation Army, and which originated in England, but is not actively working in this country. Rev. Macke, lost an arm in the World War. He speaks ten languages; is a native of Ireland, and has many friends in Virginia. He has made a special study of Virginia church history and carried interesting testimonials, one authenticating the fact that the oldest continuous parish record in the United States, St. John's Parish, 1610, was at Hampton, Va.

ROMANCE VIES WITH COMEDY IN LAUGH RIOT

Madame Racketeer returns to the screen in a new racket of giggle-water and laughing-gas in "A Lady's Profession," Paramount picture, that opens at the Dixie Theatre next Friday, April 14, with Alison Skipworth, Roland Young and Sari Maritza.

Brittle humor, infectious laughter wriggle through the story as Miss Skipworth, in the role of a British lady, leaves the safety of her ancestral castle to solve the problems of an impoverished nobleman who persists in leaping from scrape to scrape. Roland Young is excellent as the nit-wit Englishman. Sari Maritza and Kent Taylor, the new Paramount find, play the romantic leads, while the irrepressible comics, Roscoe Karns and Warren Hymer, complete the laugh sextette.

It's one of those delightful comedies that Paramount does so well, full of quips and sallies that prance side by side from start to finish. Joyously entertaining, you'll like the cast of screen experts and the manner in which they interpret the humor.

NEGRO HEALTH

by Commodore N. Bennett
Manassas Industrial School

Booker T. Washington, founder and principal of Tuskegee Institute, once said, "The future of the negro race depends on the conservation of its health." It was he who later suggested a week to be observed in April of each year to be "Health Improvement Week." This movement has now developed into the National Negro Health Week.

Health has always been a factor of supreme importance in the development of races and nations. The facts on negro health should be of greatest importance and of interest to all, since the race constitutes a little over one-tenth of the total population of the country. It is a clear cut racial group with every definite health problems that call for solution. Health is basic to the general welfare of the negro as it is to no other race.

Certain killing diseases add to the depletion of numbers and racial vitality of the negro, not primarily, however, because of hereditary racial characteristics but largely because of environmental physiological considerations that seem to penalize every race subjected to our man made civilization. Mortality and morbidity rates since the first census in 1790 have been higher among negroes than among the white race. Tuberculosis and the venereal diseases take heavy toll of the negro as through the nations and the centuries they have taken toll until exposure and susceptibility were reduced by the protective influences of the environment and the immunizing processes of the biological system. Other diseases that affect the race are pneumonia, malaria and cancer. These diseases constitute a health problem of great magnitude. They challenge our new social order with its modern science and public health practices.

An improvement in negro health to the point where it would compare favorably with that of the white race would at one stroke wipe out many of the disabilities from which the race suffers, improve its economic status and stimulate its native abilities as would no other single improvement. It would do more than this, it would result in a decrease or decline in the mortality and morbidity rates of the white race as well as increase its expectation of life. As long as the health situation of the negro race remains as it is, it will be an uncontrollable menace to the very nation itself. It is gratifying to note the recent years have brought an improvement in the health situation largely through the co-operation efforts of the national negro health movement, state, city and county health departments and all co-operating agencies throughout the land. The conditions have improved in the urban and rural sections both in the north and the south. Virginia is keeping pace with all and is outstripping many of the states in dealing with the health problem of her negro population. H. G. Carter in "Inherited Immunity in Tuberculosis" has a summary of the results of treatment of white and colored patients at Virginia State Institutions where both white and colored receive similar care and have the same environment. The writer's mind turns to the District Home here in Prince William County where both white and colored patients receive the same care with the same environment. The institution with all of the modern comforts, efficient management and ideal location, is more than a credit to Northern Virginia. It tells the world that this part of the state has realized that better conditions for negroes only mean better conditions for all, that the general health status of the nation will improve in proportion as the improvement of its minority population is affected. Our community should feel proud of such an institution. It is such agencies with more interracial co-operation and good will that will eventually ameliorate conditions, which will result in a profound change in our social, economic and political life. The National Negro Observance is endeavoring to stimulate more interest and study of the health of the race, not only of its members, but of all people. The observance is being celebrated in every city and hamlet in the country this week. The program for this week consists of Mobilization Day; Home Health Day; Community Sanitation Day for the destruction of breeding places of flies and mosquitoes; Adults Health Day; Campaign Day, General Clean-up Day; and report on Follow-up Day. Special programs and demonstrations are being scheduled at the Industrial School each day and on Sunday, April 9, Rev. A. H. S. Johnson will preach a special Health Week sermon.

"YOUNG BLOOD" TELLS OF THRILLING ADVENTURES IN COW COUNTRY

Back again in the second of his successful Monogram westerns, Bob Steele, western star, scores another of his notable triumphs in "Young Blood," intriguing tale of frontier days, which comes to the Dixie Theatre next Saturday.

Steele, who numbers among his successes such pictures as "Hidden Valley," "The Man From Hell's Edges," "Son of Oklahoma," "Law of the West," "Riders of the Desert" and many others, is fast assuming a place as one of the most popular of western stars.

In his new production he plays the difficult role of the leader of a Pony Express hold-up gang who decides to reform, but is circumvented at every turn by his former henchmen.

The supporting cast includes such gifted players as pretty Helen Foster who will be remembered for her roles in "Gold Diggers of Broadway," "So Long Letty" and "Sweet Sixteen," Neoma Judge, Minnesota society girl who recently made her screen debut in "The Man From Arizona," and Charles King, Harry Semels, Hank Bell, Art Mix, Henry Roquemore, Lafe McKee and Perry Murdock.

Directing "Young Blood" was Phil Rosen, who recently scored such a notable success with his deft handling of "Klondike," a Monogram melodrama with Lyle Talbot, Thelma Todd and H. B. Walthal. The story is from the pen of Wellyn Totman, well-known western writer and scenarist.

HOADLY MAN
HURT AT PARTY

On Monday morning, Billy Howard was indicted for striking Ira Richey with an auto pump after a quarrel at a dance near Hoadly on Saturday night.

Dr. Stewart McBryde took the injured man to a Washington hospital where he was found to have a badly fractured skull, with chances of recovery slim.

Judge Reid sent the man to the grand jury promptly and a bond of $1000 was set and accepted from the defendant's father. The trial for felonious assault will be heard on April 21 unless Richey dies in which case Howard will immediately be taken into custody and a new indictment drawn.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

Garden seed have been or will soon be purchased. The best of garden seed, however, will not produce good vegetables by itself. Certain other conditions must be met.

After good seed, the first thing to consider is the preparation of the land. The best time to plow is in the fall. If your garden has not been plowed, plow at once. Just previous to planting, the land should be harrowed or worked down with hand implements into a firm seed bed. The better the preparation of the soil—the hame of the growing vegetable—the better will be your garden.

The next essential of successful gardening is to give the vegetables something to grow on. One of the best ways of doing this is through the application of stable manure. If available, make a heavy application—from ten to twenty tons per acre—before plowing. In addition to adding plant food to the soil, the manure will help the land hold the moisture for use by the vegetables. This is an important consideration since vegetables average over 75 per cent water.

Commercial fertilizer may also be used to advantage. A 5-8-5 at the rate of 1000 pounds per acre will give excellent results on good land. Two-thirds of this fertilizer should be used on the spring and summer garden and the balance on the fall garden. This fertilizer may be broadcast or put in the row. In either case it should be thoroughly mixed with the soil to avoid injuring the plants. If you cannot secure fertilizer, however, do not be discouraged as excellent vegetables may be grown where plenty of manure has been applied.

The next essential of successful gardening is thorough care after the vegetables are planted. Good weeds and good vegetables cannot be produced in the same garden. You must make your choice. Practice thorough, frequent, shallow cultivation to keep the garden free from weeds. Weeds rob your vegetables of the plant food and moisture which rightfully belong to the vegetable crops. Get rid of them before they have caused much injury.

Insects pests will undoubtedly attack your garden crops. Early plowing, a general clean-up and hand picking will help to control these.

CELEBRATION
SET FOR MAY 6

County Pupils Will Present Exhibits.

May 6 was set by the County School Board yesterday as the annual date on which the individual exhibits of the pupils will be shown at the Manassas gymnasium. There will be appropriate exercises throughout the day.

The Board elected teachers in service. This list will be published at a later date.

Commencement dates are as follows: Nokesville and Haymarket, Thursday, May 25; Occoquan and Manassas, Friday, May 26.

Certain insurance policies were ordered placed for a period of one year. Final approval of the State Literary loan for improving the Woodbine School was received.

The sale of the Fayman School to D. H. Herndon was confirmed by the Board.

In view of the curtailment of State funds by 25 per cent and county appropriations to the extent of $5,000, it was decided to reduce teachers' salaries by 10 per cent and the same amount in other expenses wherever possible. In this way the school system should be able to function a full nine months next term.

The Board adjourned to meet again on May 3. All members were present.
