SHOWER FOR OUR SUPERVISOR

Co-Workers Honor Miss Clark at Alexandria

On Wednesday Miss Beatrix Clark, a popular supervisor from Manassas, who is to be married in June, was given a very lovely shower and luncheon by the Supervisors Club...

The luncheon was served by the home economics department of the George Mason School under the capable direction of Mrs. Allen, the home economics teacher of that school.

The table was attractively decorated in yellow and green dominated by a lovely centerpiece consisting of a bowl of orange blossoms and yellow roses.

The cutting of the wedding cake by the attractive bride-to-be brought the luncheon to a festive ending.

Following the luncheon, Mendelsohn's Wedding March was played at which a large tray of lovely, miscellaneous gifts surmounted by a miniature bride, was presented to Miss Clark, the honor guest...

Those present were Miss Clark of Prince William, Misses Clara Pitts of Alexandria City, Florence Gravath of Arlington County, Annie Starling of Frederick County, Gertrude Smith of Arlington County, Leslie Fox of Warren, Rose McDonald of Clark, Mrs. Windel of Loudoun, Mrs. Elsie A. Davis of Fairfax, and Mrs. Ralph Andrews of Manassas, a guest.

ENJOY TEMPLE SCHOOL RECTAL

Mrs. Ellis' Charges Perform Delightfully

A most delightful program was presented by the pupils of the Temple School on Tuesday evening, May 16, under the direction of Mrs. M. M. Ellis.

The auditorium was artistically lighted and decorated with ferns and flowers making a pleasing picture.

All the numbers received enthusiastic applause, especially those by the rhythm orchestra, and the song cycle, Spring. The children individually and as a group were much complimented by their splendid performance.

A number of out-of-town guests were present, among them a musician who gave a favorable criticism of the work.

Manassas should be proud that it has a school that can produce such gratifying results.

The program was as follows: The Alpine Echo by Scott, Anne Cordani; The Robin, Erb, Anne Pullen; On the Ice at Sweet Briar, Crawford, Lelia Montague Dowell; Wings, Thompson, Marvin Gillum; Echoes of Seville, Grey, Rhythmic Orchestra; Lullabye, Brown, Virginia Pullen; Black Beauty, Crawford, Charles Bauserman; Minnet, Boccherini and The Jester, Coburn, Shirley Hynson; Springtime, Ashford (a song cycle for Children's Voices), Chorus Class; Waltz, Op. 35, No. 15, Schubert, and Mountain Echoes, Fisher, Jocelyn Gillum; Waltz in a Flat, Brahms, and On the Burial of a Hero, Heller, Althea Hooff, and March Militaire, Schubert, Rhythmic Orchestra.
