YOUNG DEMOCRATS MEET AT RICHMOND

W. Hill Brown and Dudley Martin Chosen National Delegates.

Prince William County Well Represented

The first convention of the Young Democratic Club of Virginia was held yesterday, Wednesday, Aug. 16, in Richmond, at the John Marshall Hotel.

Prince William was represented by the following Democrats:

The meeting was called to order in the afternoon by the Hon. John Galleher, of Leesburg, State president of the Young Democratic Club, who made an excellent address. The Constitution and by-laws of the State organization adopted last year were amended to take care of new situations which have arisen. The members were particularly enthusiastic in their praise of Mrs. John Galleher who delivered a splendid address. She was afterwards honored by being selected a Democratic National Committeewoman of Virginia.

In the evening a banquet with several hundred people present was held. Addresses were made by Mr. O'Connell, assistant to Postmaster General Farley; Hon. J. Murray Hooker, member State Corporation Commission; Mr. Tyer Taylor of North Carolina, national president of the Young Democratic Club; Lieutenant Governor James H. Price and Hon. George C. Peery, Governor-elect of Virginia. The honor of introducing Gov. Peery was bestowed upon Mrs. John Galleher by her husband, who acted as chairman of the convention.

BENEFITS TO WHEAT GROWERS

Farmers Asked to Take Action.

Applications for participating in the wheat benefit payments and the wheat reduction plan are being distributed at community meetings in the county this week by F. D. Cox, county agent, and Harry M. Love, vocational agricultural instructor. Forms are being mailed to growers who have not attended these meetings. These will be filled in by the growers with the data available and returned to his community committee at the next series of meetings to be held at the same places in the county. These meetings will be held during the week of August 28 and every grower should be present to assist in selecting the community director to serve on the board of directors of the County Wheat Production Control Association, and to turn in the forms furnished.

At these meetings during the week of August 28, every effort will be made to clarify points that have not been made clear in the material mailed out.

One of the most simple laws of economics is the law that price is affected by supply and demand. If a sufficient number of wheat growers in the United States see fit to enter into the proposed plan it is undoubtedly true that wheat will sell at a satisfactory price next year. Likewise, if the growers do not see fit to come into the plan it is undoubtedly true that the price of wheat next year will be low. The national sign up comes from the state sign up and the state sign up from the county sign up. It therefore behooves all wheat growers in the county to accept their proportion of the responsibility for the national sign up and the success of the plan by joining in with the county wheat production control association. It is now in the hands of the farmer to make conditions better. He now has the opportunity to help himself. The day of avoiding the responsibility has passed. He must choose by either accepting or rejecting the proposed plan.

MARRIAGE RECORD

MAJOR GIBSON EXPECTS TO RUN FOR SENATE

In its radio broadcast last night, The Washington Post announced that Major Edwin H. Gibson, of Richmond and Culpeper, said yesterday that he would "very probably" be a candidate for the United States Senate in 1934.

SPECIAL SESSION OPENS TODAY

Liquor Control After Repeal of Curs and Legalization of Beer.

The special session of the General Assembly of Virginia will convene today in Richmond. Many controversial matters will immediately come up for consideration, the legalization of beer proposal and the matter of enacting some kind of liquor control to become effective after repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, being the outstanding matters.

For several days Governor Pollard has been in seclusion preparing his message to the General Assembly. Delegate Ashton Dovell, House floor leader, has suggested that the legislature adopt a beer bill, fix a date for the referendum on Repeal, set up convention machinery and then, after naming a commission of Assemblymen to study the liquor control question, adjourn until the committee makes its report.

Under the rules applying to emergency legislation a four-fifths vote will be required on any control legislation, it is stated, and this may necessitate carrying over this important measure until the regular session this winter. It is pointed out, however, that should national repeal be accomplished before the regular session, which is quite probable, the State would be wide open, with no suitable regulation.

It is believed that Governor Pollard will make specific suggestions in his message as to how the difficult matter should be handled, but the nature of these suggestions has not been revealed.

MANASSAS TO PLAY QUANTICO INDIANS

This Sunday, August 20, the Swavelly field will be the scene of a baseball game between the Manassas Macks and the Quantico Indians, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Both teams are evenly matched and the game should be one of the best ever played here. In all probability, it will be nobody's game until the last minute of play.

Last Sunday the Occoquan A. C. team showed the baseball fans why they had previously won 21 out of 24. Their game with the Macks was a walkaway for the former, who outclassed the Macks in nearly every department and left no doubt as to which was the better team. In fact, the Macks were decidedly off their usual form, but the Occoquan boys, displaying more offensive power, deserved the victory.

The Occoquan team seemed to have welcomed the offerings of our usually reliable pitcher, Polen, with open arms, getting no less than 15 hits off him, or maybe Polen was so soft-hearted that day he fed the opponents pitches to their contentment.

The game was a nip and tuck affair for the first 4 innings and then the Macks' defense faltered, making several errors resulting in a few runs for Occoquan. With better support, Polen might have fared better. However, as this was the case, Occoquan wasted no time getting themselves 9 runs in 5th, 6th and 7th innings, adding 2 in the last inning. The Macks did not get a run until the 6th when Reid decided to do something about it so he banded a double and scored on an infield out.

Riley, left fielder of Occoquan, had a big day at bat getting 4 hits out of 6 and also scoring 4 runs. Their shortstop, Keyes, displayed the best fielding for the day, accepting all chances, some difficult, without an error. Polen, who has the reputation of being also a hitter, was the Macks' leading hitter with 3 out of 4.

The final score was 11 to 5 in favor of Occoquan.

It is understood that the Occoquan boys desire a return game with the Macks—let's hope so.

FIGHTS HIGH BEER TAX

Northern Virginia representatives are fighting for a low beer tax to meet Washington competition.

NOKESVILLE BOY WINS HONORS IN NATIONAL CONTEST

WILLIAM T. (Buddy) ALLEN.

Of Nokesville, who captured honors in the junior division of a national contest of a craftsman guild. Buddy spent three years and put in over 4,000 hours of patient labor on his project.

He is eligible to compete for an international prize which is a university scholarship valued at $5,000.

At the conclusion of the judging William Allen and the other two Virginia winners, Hugh McAllister, of Covington, and Alvin Walker, of Roanoke, will spend four days at the Chicago World's Fair as guests of the Craftsman's Guild. The display of 200 colorful coach models is one of the most popular in the General Motors Exhibit.

IMPORTANT MEETING NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

New Industry Seeks Location Here.

On Monday night, August 21, a meeting will be held at the town hall in Manassas which should be attended by every person interested in greater employment and larger pay-rolls in Manassas.

Mr. George A. Bentley, of New York City, will be present to discuss the location of a factory or similar enterprise at Manassas. His business is the finding of suitable small town locations for manufacturers who want to get out of the big cities and who are looking to Virginia for suitable location. Localities under consideration are not being asked to help finance the transfer and location of such industries, it is stated, and those attending the meeting next Monday will not be importuned for contributions.

MRS. HUTCHISON HOSTESS TO U.D.C.

Manassas Chapter, United Daughters of Confederacy, Holds Interesting Meeting.

The August meeting of the Manassas Chapter, U. D. C., was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hutchison. Although an inclement evening, an excellent attendance of Daughters and visitors responded to the cordial welcome of the hostesses, Mrs. Hutchison and Mrs. Herbert Nash.

Mrs. Mimms of Spartanburg, S. C., who for many years was a member of Manassas Chapter; Mrs. O. D. Waters, Mrs. Emmett Wood, Mrs. Parler and Miss Mary Covington of Manassas were guests.

A moment of silence with bowed heads in memory of our loved and valued registrar, Mrs. Effie Speiden, one of, if not the most loyal daughter and a charter member of the chapter, was observed.

The reports of committees were heard.

Mrs. Byrd stated that she had attended the funeral of a veteran, Mr. A. F. Williams, of Dumfries, who had reached the age of ninety-four years, a gallant soldier of the Confederacy; also that she had carried a Confederate flag.

After some discussion a decision was reached that the chapter would be represented by a float in the Dairy Festival with Mrs. Walter A. Newman chairman.

Business program completed, the historian as usual presented an interesting program. Miss Harley read a paper full of interest, The Surgeons and Chaplains of the Confederacy. Mrs. Hibbs read a very interesting letter from Mrs. Ella Towles Poole, the daughter of Rev. Mr. Towles, a chaplain and also rector of Brentsville Episcopal church of antebellum days. Mrs. Johnson read a sketch from "The Battle of Cedar Mountain." Mrs. Hart related some interesting incidents relative to this battle, stating that it occurred near her old home. A poem, Stonewall Jackson, was read by the secretary. Mrs. Parler delighted the chapter with a musical program including May Night and a Prelude in G Minor. Then came the delicious refreshments enjoyed by all and another interesting session was ended.

IRA F. RUNION, Jr.

Ira Franklin Runion, Jr., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira F. Runion, of Eggbornville, died early Sunday morning after an illness of only a few days. The funeral services were held Monday evening, August 7, from the Dunkard church at Eggbornville, with the Rev. A. W. Long of Bealeton, assisted by Evangelist R. N. Myer, officiating.

The little boy, who was in his fifth year, is survived by his parents, two sisters, Catherine Runion, of Fredericksburg, and Rachel Anna, at home, and seven brothers, Marcus, Elmore, James, Joseph, Lawrence, Earl and Lorren K. His father is pastor of the Eggbornville Church of the Brethren.

The small casket was borne by four young boys, Garfield Bailey, James Bailey, Luther Dodson and Alton Lucas.

Interment was in the church cemetery.

COUNTY CLERKS MEET

The 23rd annual convention of county clerks is in session at Fredericksburg.

FIRE COMPANY WINS SILVER CUP

Manassas Team Makes Fine Showing at Charlottesville.

Will Parade in Washington on Labor Day.

Due to their success in recent competition, the local fire ladders are looked upon to bring back a cup or so from the tournaments they have attended, and the State Fireman's Association held in Harrisonburg, August 10, was no exception.

The four-man hook-up team, consisting of Mason Mayhugh, Sedrick Saunders, Wilson Kite and Floyd Vetter, placed first in their division with the record time of 18 1-5 seconds. Their reward for such speed and dexterity was a handsome loving cup.

In the four-man ladder hook-up, Manassas tied with Charlottesville for first place, both teams being clocked at exactly 10 2-5 seconds. In the "play-off," Charlottesville emerged victorious, and the boys must be content with second place.

Third place in the one-man hook-up was awarded Mason Mayhugh, who seems to be the shining light in competitive drill of late.

It was learned here late last evening that Manassas Volunteer Fire Department has made successful application for a position in the Labor Day parade, to be held in Washington, D. C.

FIREMAN'S CARNIVAL AT CULPEPER SEPT. 15-16

A Public Wedding to Be Unusual Feature.

The Culpeper Fire Department in co-operation with the Culpeper Legion and the Municipal Band, will hold a 2-day carnival at Culpeper, Sept. 15-16.

A queen will be crowned and princesses will be in attendance from Prince William, Fauquier, Madison, Orange and Rappahannock Counties. Hon. George C. Peery, Democratic nominee for Governor, has been invited to crown the queen.

Fire departments from adjoining counties have been invited to participate. Racing will be held at the fair grounds, and the schools of Culpeper County will be closed all day Friday.

HAVE FUN ON PICNIC

Approximately one hundred members of the Junior Order and their families and friends gathered at the Glatly Farm on Tuesday to enjoy the long deferred picnic. The small crowd was due to the postponement and confusion incident thereto.

The run was plenty shallow for the youngsters to splash around and have a thoroughly good time. The swinging bridge was a fine jumping board.

The owners of the place had generously provided accommodations in the grove across the run. It is an ideal place for a picnic.

Deputy State President George Baker presided over the affair which passed off without a single mishap. The charter for the Prince William Council, Daughters of America, was filled with the exception of two or three necessary signatures which will be secured this week and the charter forwarded.

AUGUST W.C.T.U. MEETING

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Miss Maggie Smith on West street, Wednesday, August 23, at 3 p.m.

It is very important that all members be present as this is the last meeting of the W.C.T.U. year and the delegates to the State convention to be held in Richmond Sept. 25-28 will be elected.

This meeting is also the time for the election of officers for the coming year for our local union.

MILTON R. REEVES

Mr. Milton R. Reeves, a lifelong resident of Prince William County, died Aug. 9 at 3 a.m. He had been failing for a couple of years.

He is survived by his brother, Mr. John D. Reeves of 321 Rock Creek Church road, Washington, and by three other brothers and five sisters.

Burial was on the old home place near Brentsville on August 10.

Mr. Reeves had many friends in his community who will regret to learn of his death.

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Brower left on Saturday for a week's vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr.
and Mrs. E. A. Willis of Clarendon who are now sojourning for time on the shores of the Chesapeake in Maryland.

The Rev. and Mrs. K. D. Swecker and daughter, Nancy Lee, were dinner guests at Oakwood on Thursday of last week.

This neighborhood is rejoicing on account of the copious showers "allocated" to this section last week and which were becoming badly needed not only for the crop's sake but on account of the awful dust which our roads seem able to supply upon any dry provocation. Corn is now well advanced and people correspondingly happy.

Mr. John Franklin Pattie of Catharpin and Miss Miller of near Stone House were married in Rockville, Md., recently and for the present are staying at the home of the bride.
Their friends and neighbors wish them well and a safe journey on the "Sea of Matrimony."

The road from Catharpin to Gainesville is now being surfaced with gravel and various other improvements are being made in order to accommodate the large school van which will travel this route to the Haymarket High School during the coming term. It is understood the van will deliver pupils to the Catharpin school as well as convey other pupils from that point to the upper grades at Haymarket. The progress of education and school facilities during the past decade have been wonderful. The children of to-day can scarcely realize the advantages they now enjoy as compared to those afforded their "ancestors" when all grades were "domiciled" in one small room.

This column has been doing its best to get this branch of the Journal Re-portorial Staff coordinate with the NRA so that our time could be limited to a 40-hour week and the said hours so arranged that we could "tee off" on the gold course not later than 2 p.m.; but in spite of all our efforts we made but very little headway so have concluded to continue on "day by day in the same old way" to report what we hear and if we don't hear anything, report it anyway;
that's about the way we have to do things sometimes, so forgive us if we get tedious.

In the Waterfall letter to The Journal on June 29, this column was invited to "come up and take a look at our boulevard." This friendly little gesture was in response to our
"much bragging" about how Catharpin does things, (which bragging, of course they all understand). But we went; and what we saw put us in about the same frame of mind as was experienced by the Queen of Sheba when she flew into ecstasies over King Solomon, so that we were ready to say with her "that the half had never been told" us about the extent and quality of the road improvements in that neighborhood. We are convinced that, without exception, the people of Waterfall and vicinity now have or soon will have one of the finest road systems to be found anywhere; even the Lee highway has nothing on them when it comes to the smooth, even "feel of the car"

as it glides so easily and comfortably over its bright, shiny surface.
Catharpin is now ready to throw up her hands and cry out "Great is Waterfall." To date, however, Catharpin is still ahead in that her roads can kick up a bigger cloud of dust than yours can, and if you ever forget what mud looks like, just come down below the "Carolinas" after a rain and we shall take pleasure in presenting you with some of it as an "heirloom" of former days when we were all in the same boat.

It might be of interest to know a little more about this new "highway" of which the people of the Waterfall-Antioch neighborhood are so justly proud. Starting at Woolsey on the Carolina road the main route passes thru the villages of Waterfall and Antioch to the Fauquier county line high on the slope of Bull Run Mountain; and from Antioch a branch leads off in almost due course to intercept the John Marshall highway near Haymarket. These roads during the past ages, like so many other roads in the county, could, by comparison, be classed only as improved "trails" from house to house and eventually leading to the village of Thoroughfare by one branch and to Haymarket by another, both joining the more pretentious "Beverly Mill" road leading up thru the Gap to the "Free State" country. This "Mill" road, while being wider and more ambitious may not have had as mud as the others mentioned, but it certainly more than made up for this differential by the rough-and-tumble of its rocky surface; so this part of Upper Prince William has been jogging along across the years as best it could under the circumstances until now, when all is changed, and beauty and convenience reign instead of the discomfort of old. Since the State has taken over the road systems, these lanes and by-ways have all been graded, widened and surfaced so that they are now comparable only to the best.

For a time the great question was where to get suitable material for surfacing? Finally, a Native Son, a graduate in Engineering from the University of Maryland, Mr. R. B.
Gossom, jr., discovered a whole mountain-side of almost perfect shales and mica, right on the roadside and suitable in every way for just what was wanted. This, then, in great measure contributed largely to the present enviable condition in which that section of the county finds itself. In color the material is varie-gated—mostly white and the surfaces
now finished present a very pleasing and agreeable silver sheen due to the mica contained in the rock. So here again is another exemplification of Russell H. Conwell's great lecture "Acres of Diamonds" wherein the "hero" of the story hunted the world over to find coal and failing, came home only to find it while digging a well in his father's backyard. So right here in these pleasant little mountain coves of Waterfall and Antioch is found the very thing to make them forever happy. When these improvements shall have been completed this section may justly consider itself among the "favored few"

of the State of Virginia.

Then again this little narrative would not be complete if we failed to mention the pleasant, newly-painted, neat looking little Baptist church at Antioch whose congregation seems to have been inspired by the new highway past its door and the implied promise that muddy roads shall no longer interfere with attendance upon worship service. Everything looks so well cared for; fences white-washed; cemetery cleared of all superfluous growth, and the lawn under the trees looked so inviting that we could not help the thought that it would be a fine place to enjoy a good dinner. So many country churches to-day seem on the decline and to our mind some of it at least might be due to the careless way they are sometimes treated. May we hope that the good people of Antioch shall never let their interest fade from the picture. We are rejoiced to see how nice everything looked and certainly wish you every blessing in your work.

We are indebted to Mr. R. B. Gossom, our genial assessor, for his kindly chaperone on this little journey among some of our "friends of old."

CANNING SOUP MIXTURES FOR HOME OR SCHOOL LUNCHES

School time is not so far distant and in a number of the communities of the county community canning days are being planned for. Women will meet and can soup mixtures for school lunches. In other communities, the women are canning individually and each contributing to the store of products canned for school lunches. This has proved to be an outstanding piece of community work. It means little spent by any individual, and only very little food to be donated from the garden surplus by each person but the result is many jars of fine soup mixture to be served to school children next winter on cold, damp days. This will more than repay each woman in her time and products.

Soup mixture may be any desired combination of vegetables blended together and well seasoned. A favorite recipe is to have 1-2 of entire volume tomatoes and 1-2 a combination of corn, carrots, lima beans and string beans. Sweet peppers and celery may be added if available.

Heat vegetables together to boiling temperature and pack hot into the jars. (If tomatoes are heated for short length of time before other vegetables are added no water will be needed in the mixture). Add 2 teaspoons salt to each quart, completely seal jars and process in hot water bath (with water 1 inch over top of jars) for 3 hours.

The large amount of tomato juice gives the necessary acid to make hot water bath processing perfectly safe. If a pressure cooker is used the time of processing will be one hour instead of three.

This is an excellent way to use the half gallon jars which are no longer needed for home canning.

HERE'S HOW

TO SPEND LESS
ON MOTORING!

Do as over two out of every five buyers of low-priced cars are doing: SAVE WITH A NEW CHEVROLET! You'll spend less to begin with—because the Chevrolet base price of $445 is so much lower than the price of any other Fisher Body car! You'll make fewer stops for gas and oil, because the Chevrolet six-cylinder engine can go well over two hundred miles on a tankful! You won't have to be worrying about seeing the service man all the time, or paying a lot of repair bills because—well, Chevrolet just isn't that kind of car. It's built right and stays that way. Finally—you can look forward to getting a good price when you trade your Chevrolet in—its resale value is notably high.

Can you say all these same things about any other low-priced car? Evidently America thinks not—from the way that America prefers to SAVE with a Chevrolet.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a priceless heritage to them in after years.

CHRIST'S BENEDICTION:

Peace I leave with you, my peace unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.—John 14:27.

THE SPECIAL SESSION

Today the General Assembly of Virginia meets in special session. Much emergency legislation may be considered, but the outstanding matter before the legislators is the question of legalizing beer and preparing for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, which will occur within a few months.

Without question Virginia will legalize the sale of beer. There is also very little doubt that thoughtful citizens everywhere are insisting upon a sensible State control to become effective as soon as the national experiment goes into oblivion. Virginia had a State law before national prohibition went into effect and unquestionably Virginia will enact suitable control measures to replace the national authority.

HELP US BOOST MANASSAS

The historic town of Manassas is a community. No individual, however patriotic and cooperative, alone can place the town where it ought to be. We must all work together, ever keeping alert for opportunities to advance the welfare of our friends and neighbors, who, with ourselves, comprise the community.

Without question the local newspaper has a definite responsibility in such matters. It possesses the facility of communicating immediately with several thousand people. It has the welfare of its circulation area deeply at heart and never knowingly neglects an opportunity of boosting Manassas and Prince William County.

Now here is where our readers can help. Many things happen which, if more widely known, would aid in building up a greater appreciation of our town and county. Sometimes we accidentally find out about them; sometimes, to our regret, nobody thinks to notify The Journal.

We ask our friends everywhere to help us in keeping posted on what is happening.

BUILD ON THRIFT

Erect that home of your dreams on a strong foundation of systematic saving! Then you can be sure that a substantial structure—permanent shelter for yourself and loved ones—will gradually rise to reality on the cornerstone of thrift! Open a savings account here today as the first step.

The Peoples National Bank of Manassas

We may already know, but we ask that you make certain by telling us about it, and we will greatly appreciate such facts as you may have been able to obtain.

Let us all unite in making Manassas and Prince William County better and more prosperous.

OUR FIRE DEPARTMENT

The Manassas Fire Department returned from the State convention at Charlottesville bearing a handsome silver cup, won in competition with companies from much larger cities, and but for an unusual error on the part of judges, would have been awarded a second trophy.

It is a matter of pride to every citizen of Manassas and of Prince William County, that our local fire department can meet and conquer the best in the State. We join their many friends in extending hearty congratulations to the officers and men who distinguished themselves and brought honor to the community which they serve so faithfully.

THE NATIONAL RECOVERY ADMINISTRATION

The public as a whole has not yet grasped the significance of President Roosevelt's noble experiment in the field of unemployment and hard times. The average worker can only see that it holds the prospect of higher wages and the average buyer can only see that it presents a higher price scale on all commodities.

Assuredly this must be to a certain extent. But the provisions of the act clearly define the extent of price inflation at this time. As for wage increase, this is more problematical. The primary design was not to increase wages but to provide additional employment by shortening hours.

It is from the large centers of the industry and population that the essential change must come. The small community, composed mostly of owner-operators, will not be greatly affected. Unemployment has not been a scarehead in these localities and does not exist to any extent at the present time. The great good to come from his move, if it is successful, is the elimination of sweatshop methods by which the small producer is deprived of a fair return on his efforts and large producers have been reaping a harvest by using greatly underpaid labor to compensate for cheap prices.

Competition had ceased to be a fair basis in American home trade. It had degenerated into a free-for-all mud fight where quality succumbed to cheapness and business was torn from its natural trends into channels where it was never intended to flow.

The cry raised by some to buy luxuries in order to furnish work for the producers of luxuries should be heeded only by that wealthy class which has fattened upon the helplessness of American public for the past decade or more. The average buyer can do his bit by improving his home or farm, taking any surplus which he may be so fortunate as to have and devoting a portion of it to some promotion work in his own business.

The American public which has been "beside itself" to use the language of the prodigal son parable, may now be taking the step that will bring it back home. Out of the fires of adversity may come the crystallized effort that will once again bring peace and prosperity, not through the preaching of the provincial politician but through applied thinking and real co-operation.

Let us hope so.

—Stafford Ranger.

POLLARD WARNS ASSEMBLY

In his message to the General Assembly today, Governor Pollard issued a warning not to proceed with liquor regulation in advance of the referendum which is to be held shortly. He asked immediate legalization of beer and suggested October 7 as a suitable date for the state election on the question of Repeal.

The Governor also is asking the Assembly to repeal the law requiring him to cut his budget to actual receipts. He argues that a part of the present deficit can be absorbed next year.

A RESOLUTION BY
ST. PAUL'S VESTRY

Whereas on Aug. 4, 1933, Dr. T. G. Brown departed this life, and has been for many years a member of this church, and a member of this vestry, and

WHEREAS our association with him in these capacities and also personally had so endeared him to us, and our sense of loss occasioned by his death is so keenly felt that we feel impelled, and desire to express our respect for his memory, and sympathy for his family in their bereavement in the loss of a loving husband, and father; therefore be it

RESOLVED that in the death of Dr. T. G. Brown each member of this vestry has sustained the loss of a true friend and this vestry and church have been deprived of the services of a most faithful and efficient associate, and be it further

RESOLVED that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, and a copy be spread on the minutes of this vestry, and a copy be published in The Manassas Journal.

By order of St. Paul's Vestry.

The young couple will make their home in Alexandria, Va., where Mr. Lamb is employed with the Virginia Public Service Company.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

CHEVROLET SALES

REACH HIGH MARK

Not since 1929 have July sales of new Chevrolet cars and trucks equalled the figure attained in the month just ended, when dealers reported delivering to consumers 67,820 new units, H. J. Klingler, vice-president and general sales manager, announced this week.

This compares with reported sales of 26,547 last July and represents a 155 percent increase over the same month last year, Mr. Klingler said.

Only three times in the 21-year history of Chevrolet have July sales gone ahead of this year and it is significant that the company leads the low-priced field by a greater margin than ever.

Despite a mid-summer let-down, and vacation interruptions in the normal flow of business, July rang up the second highest monthly sales mark set by Chevrolet dealers so far this year. Only June exceeded it, and probabilities are, according to Mr. Klingler, that June and July will stand out as peak months of the Chevrolet year, whereas in the decade following the post-War depression April and May have consistently occupied that position.

Dealers ended July on a sharply rising sales curve, Mr. Klingler said, the reports for the last third of the month nearly doubling those of the first ten days.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear loved one, Harvey D. Cornwell, who left us two years ago; Aug. 15, 1931.

Gone but not forgotten.

Two long years, 'twas not a dream but oh a sad reality.

Since you went away and could not come back

To your dear little boy and me.

Your leaving us, dear son and daddy, Has filled our hearts with deepest pain

But some sweet day we will meet together

Never to be parted again.

God alone know how I miss you

He alone my tears can dry

Never again will I be happy

Till we meet beyond the sky.

Mother and little Son.

AN APPRECIATION OF TWO DEAR FRIENDS

Lorna Nicol Leachman

Here was a life "apart from the madding crowd." Like some beautiful flower blooming under the shadow of the trees, in sunshine and rain, the petals of her life opened and shed the perfume of a sweet and Christ-like influence, felt by all who knew her.

A loving and faithful wife, sister and friend, she never failed in her loyalty to each one, welcomed to her home with true hospitality all who came at any time. We who linger a little longer must catch some inspiration from these dear lives to "carry on" with more love and earnestness the work which God has given us to do.

Effie Speiden

A loving and faithful wife, a valued sister and friend, was our dear Mrs. Speiden. She is "just away," not far from us, and we who loved her must rejoice as we think of the happy meeting time.

The mountain stream comes tumbling down over the rocks and pebbles and sometimes is almost lost to sight among the trees, but still singing happily on its way till it becomes a placid pool. There it looks up to the blue of the Heavens and reflects on its bosom the beauty of the scene.

So as the years pass by, with many experiences, some bright and some with the shadows of sorrows, it is given to God's faithful children to reflect in their lives the beauty of the Christ-life and the joy of His example.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP

by Geo. Dent

OCOQUAN AND WOODBRIDGE

In 1930 this writer remembers writing an article dealing with the economic tide that was published in several papers throughout Virginia. In this article there was set forth economic facts, how to gain a foothold on the slippery banks of depression. Some of you readers probably remember that a strong warning was given against the laying off of labor and the cutting of wages.

Our captains of industries had stepped up mass production. Our marts were filled to overflowing of goods. Wages had not kept pace with the great machine age. The World's War surplus had been dumped in our laps. The World's war cost as a premium was an added handicap. Nearly a billion dollars paid out per year for those who had borne the brunt of battle that the world might be made safe for democracy.

In the midst of plenty, with gold enough stored in our strong vaults to pave the streets of our National Capital we found ourselves slipping down grade. Those who controlled the almighty dollar simply tied, tied an extra knot in the old purse strings and whistled for the end of the rainbow around the corner. Politicians promised—and the depression ditch grew wider. When this scribe suggested that capital bear an equal burden with labor, such a suggestion was not new, nor was it revolutionary. A ten percent raise in wages and the holding on of labor, instead of a general cut in wages and the wholesale discharge of labor would have worked out our salvation in a short time.

Mass production plus mass buying power equals prosperity.

Mass production minus mass buying power equals depression.

If a bundle of sticks is stronger than one or even a few sticks then, it stands to reason, the more people at work, the higher wages paid, the more buying power, consequently the old ship of state can be kept afloat and headed into the waves of prosperity. If mass production is to continue—mass employment must be a full-blood brother; consanguinity and not remote affinity must be the relationship.

If we could not exist as a nation, half free and half bond; how is it possible for us to exist with half of our wage earners crying for a loaf of bread? When our great industrial captains squeeze from the brow of labor billions in dividends, and return to labor the crumbs that fall from a richly-laden table—can prosperity continue? The day has passed when money can be massed to milk labor and the government.

Abraham Lincoln said: "Inasmuch as all good things are produced by labor, it follows that all such things of right belong to those whose labor has produced it."

Theodore Roosevelt said: "It is indispensably necessary, in order to preserve to the largest degree our system of individualism, that there should be effective and organized collective action. The wage earner has been the most potent force in the past in promoting progress and universal prosperity."

Wm. H. Taft said: "The wage earner should have a chance to deal on an equality with their employer."

Franklin Delano Roosevelt says: "To the men and women whose lives have been darkened by the fact or the fear of unemployment, I am justified in saying a word of encouragement, because the codes and agreements already approved, or about to be passed upon, proves that the plan does raise wages, that it does put people back to work. The workers of this country have rights under this law that cannot be taken from them, and nobody will be permitted to whittle them away." These words were spoken by the President of the United States directly to the nation in an appeal to spur united action to assure the success of the administration's recovery program.

Frances Perkins, our "New Deal" Secretary of Labor, says: "We have taken the first step in this great adventure. By good will and co-operation we shall strive to shorten hours and build up a higher system of pay, that purchasing power may be increased to the benefit of all of us—industry, labor, the merchant, the banker and the public."

Gen. Hugh S. Johnson says: "We have got to hack our way out of this trouble by our own efforts. The whole thing simmers down to the job of keeping the purchasing power of workers in step with the price and quantity of the things they make. Wages, prices and productions—these are the three causes of good and bad times. If we could keep all in line, we wouldn't have so much trouble. If all the employers would put men back to work at living wages tomorrow that would be the end of depression."

We are fighting a mighty enemy—that enemy is selfishness incased in a thick armor of greed, and its allies are fear and the lack of confidence. Round No. 1 has been lost to the enemy. We are still in the squared circle with our backs to the ropes. We are trying to lay aside fear, we are trying to deal "lack of confidence" a knockout blow; we are praying for faith that we may make one more mighty attack and land a solar plexus blow for a KO on Old Man Depression. Give the NRA a chance . . . The wage earner, the producer, the consumer must work for its success and by a hard pull all together prosperity will crown our efforts. If we fail—if we fail—the cloud is dark indeed . . .

Will Fill Unexpired Term of the Late Edmund Allen.

By a decisive vote of nearly five to one, Hon. John C. Mackall, of McLean, was elected Tuesday to fill the unexpired term of the late Edmund H. Allen, of Newington.

With no public doubt as the outcome of the election the vote was an especially light one. With the exception of the Vienna precinct, which was carried by Herbert Williams, nearly every precinct in the county returned an overwhelming decision in favor of Mr. Mackall.

COLORED MINISTERS DEBATE AT MANASSAS

Scholarship and Humor Are Features of Lively Discussion.

Rev. A. H. S. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church of Manassas, ably defended the proposition that "The Scenes of Nature are more attractive to the eye of man than art." His opponent was Rev. J. Henderson, secretary of the Baptist Ministers Conference of Washington and also missionary for the Mt. Bethel Baptist Association.

The vast field of emotional and intellectual material bearing upon this broad question was deeply explored last night at the First Baptist church in Manassas.

Judges of the debate were Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, of the Peoples National Bank; Prof. Frank G. Sigmund, of the Swavely School, and W. H. Lamb, editor of The Manassas Journal, who acted as spokesman for the judges.

The debate was one of the most entertaining and scholarly that has ever been held at this church and was greatly enjoyed both by judges and congregation. During the period of intermission there were musical numbers.

Decision of the judges was two to one in favor of Rev. J. H. Henderson who carried off the honors by a very narrow margin.

Following the program refreshments were served for benefit of the church.

The 4-H Club group will leave from the postoffice, Manassas, at 8:00 o'clock Monday, August 21, for Jamestown 4-H Camp.

• $100,000,000 Worth of Dogs

DID you realize that it is estimated that, in spite of the depression, Americans today have a $100,000,000 investment in dogs? It is estimated that there are now in the United States more than eight million dogs, or one to every four families. And did you realize that there is one firm that can enough dog food to feed a half a million dogs a day?

These facts lend special interest to the exhibit of this firm which is now being shown at the Century of Progress International Exposition in Chicago. The exhibit is on display in the Hall of Science building, and its central theme is the meat horse — its origin, nature and uses — for it has been discovered within the last decade that the flesh of horses furnishes the best possible food for dogs.

From 50,000,000 Years Ago to Today

A spectacular feature of the exhibit is an authentic reconstruction of horse and dog history from pre-historic times to the present day. Graphically presenting facts well known to geologists, it shows that the horse was a meat animal exclusively from about 50,000,000 years ago down to 6000 years ago, when man began to adapt it to other uses. It was a prey of dogs as early as 38,000,000 years ago, and of an earlier ancestor of the dog from a period as early as the evolution of the horse itself.

This display shows how man, in a comparatively few centuries of breeding, has gradually changed the horse from the meat animal that was in nature, and how these purveyors of canned dog foods, applying scientifically worked-out breeding principles, have stripped away civilized veneers to produce a horse of the natural and genuine meat type for the benefit of our friend, the dog.

Given the Reasons Why

Another part of the exhibit, announcing facts only recently discovered, tells the story of why dogs have always eaten horse-meat, and why carnivorous animals in their natural state always prefer meat of the equine type today. It is because horse-meat, in canine nutrition, has a higher nutritive value than beef, being a better body builder and having more energy value.

The amino-acid structure of horse-meat is more closely adapted to the dog's system and its food content is more effectively utilized in the digestive process. The biological tests which revealed this superiority, and which are graphically portrayed, were made by Laurens Harris, Chief of the Research Staff of Mariner & Hoskins, Inc., of Chicago, and by his associate, Dr. E. R. Darling. They resulted, after more than a year of research and feeding experiments. In the conclusion that in canine nutrition, horse-meat has a higher nutritive value than the best quality of meat commonly used.

Horse the Healthiest Animal

The therapeutic value of horse-meat is recognized in the hospitals of Europe. The horse is the healthiest of all domestic animals and is practically free from tuberculosis. Over 94% of the sera used to combat the diseases of humans come from the horse. This firm breeds and raises its own western meat-horses, and its plant at Rockford, Illinois, is under the supervision of government meat inspectors to assure the purity, freshness and wholesomeness of their products.

Horse-meat is not used for human consumption in this country, and horse-lovers, sometimes shrink from the idea of feeding it to dogs. It would be more logical for us to refrain from eating the meat of the cow, the foster mother of the human race, that has saved the lives of millions of babies.

Thousands of horses are handled each year by the Rockford plant which covers twenty-three acres and employs about five hundred men. For the most part, the animals slaughtered are draft-bred, open range horses which are allowed to run wild on the fifteen ranches totalling 1,600,000 acres maintained by this firm in Montana, South Dakota and Wyoming. These meat-horses are produced by mating stallions of the Belgian and Percheron and Shire breeds with high-grade range mares.

A Dog Foundation

Two years ago F. M. Chappel of Chappel Brothers, Inc., the firm presenting this exhibit, made public his plan for creating the Chappel Kennel Foundation, the object of which is to advance the welfare of "man's best friend" by means of better breeding, better feeding and more humane care of dogs.

This Foundation is not only seeking to encourage dog ownership and teach the proper care of the dog, but it is also striving to raise the level of dog standards. Research in canine genetics and nutrition is being carried on in cooperation with established agencies, and work is being done with veterinarians, dog organizations and humane societies to improve dog conditions generally. The facts developed by these means are passed on to dog-owners through the country.

Steady Work, Fair Wages, Time for Recreation

Your community shares in the 80 million dollar annual payroll of Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and Associated Companies.

Employees of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and associated companies have been working on the 5-day week for more than a year.

As a result of this labor policy, thousands have been kept at work and large numbers drawn from the ranks of the unemployed to steady jobs and regular pay.

Wages have been kept at least at the level paid in the community for similar work.

Employees of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and associated companies get good pay — more than $80,000,000 finds its way into their pockets annually.

During the period this policy has been extended, these companies also spent millions developing Essolube, the only hydro-fined motor oil, and Essolene, a motor fuel so superior to gasoline that its composition is protected by U. S. Patent Pending.

Try Essolene and give the Esso station man your patronage.

A 5-day week means steady work and regular pay days. Good, steady pay means more money in your community. This money is earned producing and selling Esso, Essolene, Essolube, Atlas Tires, etc.

The World Moves On!

DRUGS—Bess Brewer, Oklahoma City, left a widow 19 years ago, took over her husband's drug store and made a name for herself as a druggist. Soon she will make a tour of Europe as a winner in a contest conducted by the Red Cross Products Division of Johnson & Johnson.

GASTRONOMICS—Princess Alexis Obolinsky, former member of the Russian Czar's court, and now a New York society leader, enjoying one of the new World's Fair Sandwiches (bacon and mayonnaise on toasted bread) at a recent Lexington Hotel luncheon.

ARCHITECTURE—Skyscraper office designed by Eleanor A. McMillan, leading New York interior architect. Walls are of oak stained a dark brown, with trim of white holly banded in aluminum. Shutters with vertical stripes of aluminum may be drawn across the window. Furniture is of quilted maple. The floor is maple, walnut and teakwood.

FISH—Epicures may now have fresh fish on Monday or Wednesday, as well as Friday. Photo shows new method of shipping frozen fish packed in dry ice. According to the Michigan Alkali Co., largest maker of dry ice in this country, the use of this new triumph of science for the preservation of foodstuffs is increasing rapidly in the United States.

BEER—Girls of the Radio City Music Hall chorus at final weighing after an eighteen day ration of three bottles of beer daily added to their regular diet. No gain in weight but great improvement in blood condition and vigor resulted. The test was supervised by a distinguished physician.
