COMMISSION MAKES REPORT

Senate Group Proposes Economies in Government.

The Committee of the Virginia Senate, instructed to prepare a report on possible economies in State government, has sent its findings to Governor Pollard for such recommendations as he may desire to make to the General Assembly this winter.

No estimate was ventured by the committee as to the amount of money that could be saved by the various economies proposed, but unofficial estimates have been worked up for consideration by the General Assembly, it is stated.

Among the drastic measures proposed are: Abolition of school boards and assumption of their duties by the Supervisors, compulsory state-wide trial justices, reduction in salaries in the institutions of higher learning, abolition of two of our four teachers colleges, elimination of most of the state-owned automobiles. The commission also suggested reduction in the cost of handling prisoners and condemned the too frequent changes in text books in the schools.

In the past the legislature has paid only a nominal attention to commission recommendations, so that the present proposals may or may not find their way to the floor of the General Assembly, since many of the proposals will meet with very substantial opposition.

LINTON HALL'S NEW CHAPEL Dedicated by the Bishop of Richmond By Inno McGill

The Right Rev. Andrew J. Brennan, Bishop of Richmond, presided on Saturday at the dedication of the beautiful new chapel adjoining Linton Hall Military School for Boys, near Bristow, Va.

The ceremonies included mass at 8 o'clock; blessing of the Stations of the Cross that adorn the interior walls of the chapel, at 10 a.m., and solemn military benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, in the afternoon, at which the military salute was given by the uniformed cadets, and the music furnished by the boy students, the majority of whom are under thirteen years of age.

During the mass the bishop was attended by the Rev. Leo A. Gill, chancellor of the Richmond Diocese; Rev. Dr. Francis J. Byrne, superintendent, Diocesan Schools of Richmond, and Rev. Father John C. Ryan, pastor of All Saints' Church, Manassas.

In the sanctuary were the Rev. Dom Augustine Walsh, O.S.B., and Dom Benedict Brosnahan, O.S.B., of St. Anselm's Priory, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Cornelius Diehl, O.S.B., Rev. Dominic Vollmer, O.S.B., Richmond; Rev. T. C. Healy, Fairfax, and the Rev. Father John Smith, O.S.B., chaplain St. Benedict's Convent, Bristow.

Attending the ceremonies were guests from New York, Washington, D. C., Richmond and other sections of Virginia.

The dedication rites unfold another chapter in the history of the school conducted by the Benedictine Sisters of the Richmond Province. Through its present title, Linton Hall Military School for Boys, it perpetuates the name of Linton who, with a few other noblemen from England and Scotland, came to America, in 1760, with the idea of reproducing in Virginia the court life of Scotland. For this they brought with them not only the bricks to build a mansion but also the furniture with which to furnish it.

Sailing up the Potomac, they made their first settlement on the Virginia shores at the place they called Dumfries, after the ancient town in Scotland.

In this group of settlers was John Augustine Linton who, later, obtained from the Governor of Virginia a grant of land that included the present town of Manassas, Bristow and a large tract of the surrounding country. He married Sarah Tyler and had one son, John Tyler Linton, who married Cecelia Graham.

About a year after his marriage, young Linton died; leaving his estate to his daughter, Sarah Linton, who was entered by her uncle as a pupil at the Visitation Convent in Georgetown, D. C. After her graduation from that seat of learning, she became a Catholic and, later, a Religious of the Visitation Order under the name of Sister Baptista.

In time, various plots of the Linton tract of land were sold, until, in 1893, less than 2,000 acres remained. These Sister Baptista donated to the Benedictines of Richmond, Va., and Belmont, North Carolina. The estate is

PRIZES FOR HOME DEMONSTRATORS

Achievement Program of Home Demonstration Group.

The Home Demonstration Groups of Prince William County observed their annual Achievement Program on Wednesday, November 22. With the roll call of groups reports were made on project and community activities. Bethel Home Demonstration group was awarded the prize for most outstanding work of the year while Dumfries group received the prize for having contributed most to the day's program.

A report made on the Year-Round Garden contest told of excellent garden work of the contestants. The twenty-seven women who reported in the contest canned 5055 quarts of vegetables and pickles, stored 247 bushels of sweet and 627 bushels of Irish potatoes, and 162 1/2 bushels of other vegetables, 2970 heads of cabbage and 396 squashes and pumpkins. These gardens have provided an abundant supply of vegetables during the summer and fall.

Mrs. Earl Squires of Greenwich was awarded the prize for greatest accomplishments in the garden contest; second prize was earned by Mrs. Dewey Schaeffer, Woodbridge; third, Mrs. T. B. Flickinger of Nokesville.

Mrs. Nimrod Lightner, Haymarket, told of the work done in the gardens grown from R.F.C. seeds. The thirty-eight people who have made reports on their gardens tell of adequate vegetables for summer and fall needs and that 235 1/2 bushels have been stored, 19 1/2 bushels dried, and 4868 quarts canned for winter use. A total of 30,967 containers were filled by the women and girls of the county and vegetables grown valued at $3601.35.

In addressing the group through her talk, entitled "A New Day for the Homemaker," Miss Maude E. Wallace urged all women to face the situation squarely and to do the woman's part in putting across the A.A.A.

Exhibits of handwork, baking and cheese added interest to the day's program. Winning exhibitors were: hand-made rugs, 1st, Mrs. A. R. Wilkins; 2nd, Mrs. Mae Dogan; 3rd, Mrs. C. N. At a meeting of the Home Demonstration Advisory Board, held on the morning of November 22, the following projects were selected for 1934: major, clothing; minors, house furnishings, landscape gardening and recreation. A Make Your Own Dress contest was decided on; no dress is to cost more than one dollar and all are to be made from cotton.

MEETING OF SUPERVISORS

The next meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held on Thursday, December 21, at 9 a.m. The change of time has been made in order that the meeting may be held before Christmas.

Now one of the county's beauty spots, adorned by a large guest house and the Benedictine Novitiate, in addition to the Linton Hall buildings.

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America—a proclamation, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, president of the United States of America, do set aside and appoint Thursday, the thirtieth day of November for all our people. May we on that day in our churches and in our homes give humble thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us during the year past by Almighty God. May we recall the courage of those who settled a wilderness, the vision of those who founded the Nation, the steadfastness of those who in every succeeding generation have fought to keep pure the ideal of equality of opportunity and hold clear the goal of mutual help in time of prosperity as in time of adversity.

May we ask guidance in more surely learning the ancient truth that greed and selfishness and striving for undue riches can never bring lasting happiness or good to the individual or to his neighbors.

May we be grateful for the passing of dark days; for the new spirit of dependence one on another; for the closer unity of all parts of our wide land; for the greater friendship between employers and those who toil; for a clearer knowledge by all nations that we seek no conquests and ask only honorable engagements by all peoples to respect the lands and rights of their neighbors; for the brighter day to which we can win through by seeking the help of God in a more unselfish striving for the common bettering of mankind.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

(Signed) FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

DANCES PLEASE KIWANIS CLUB

Local Children Entertained Last Week.

Miss Eloise Compton, assisted by her pupils, entertained the Kiwanis Club delightfully last Friday with a song and dance routine. The Parish twins opened the program and did their part beautifully. Miss Isabel Raney gave an exhibition in acrobatic dancing.

Another attractive number was the one given by Mildred Parrish and Edla Blakemore dressed as "Two Little Girls in Blue." The most effective dance was the "sailor clog" danced by Edla Blakemore, Mildred Parrish and Margaret Blakemore. Dressed in sailor togs, they portrayed the role splendidly.

Miss Compton, who has received intensive training in dramatics, gave two readings in her own inimitable style. The program reflected much credit to her training.

An appeal from Mrs. Hite, principal of the Bennett School, to get assistance in the matter of hot lunches in December, was reported to committee but it is evident that the necessary assistance will be forthcoming.

POLLARD HEADS APPEALS BOARD

President Roosevelt last week announced Gov. Pollard of Virginia would serve as chairman of the Veterans Board of Appeals, which will pass on recommendations of review boards under the economy act.

The President issued the following statement in connection with the appointment of Gov. Pollard:

"It is with deep appreciation that I received Gov. Pollard's acceptance of the chairmanship of the Veterans Board of Appeals. The governor is accepting this call to public service at my earnest solicitation and at a personal sacrifice.

"The importance of the task he and his associates are undertaking can be readily appreciated. Upon this board will devolve the great task of deciding with fairness and justice, using heart as well as head, whether in many cases veterans are entitled to compensation. It will be the duty of this board to see that no one who incurred injuries or disabilities in the actual service of his country shall suffer no injustice.

"With Gov. Pollard and the men who will be associated with him on this board, handling these border-line cases, I have every confidence that justice will be done to all, and that the pledges we made when the legislative program was under consideration last spring will be carried out in letter and in spirit."

BARN AND CROPS DESTROYED

Lack of proper water supply rendered the efforts of the fire department largely ineffective at a fire which destroyed a barn and crops on George Brenton's place just outside of town on the Centreville road shortly yesterday afternoon.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Property loss will exceed $2,000, most of which is covered by insurance. The garage was saved by the quick work of the bucket brigade. The first-aid squad also decorated Sed Sedricks to show how well they can work.

AUTO LICENSES

The Division of Motor Vehicles in Richmond has advised their representatives throughout the state that beginning December 1, tags may be secured at one-fourth rate, good for the remainder of the license year, or until April 1. Many who have not been able to finance a full year's license are expected to take advantage of this opportunity to put their cars back on the road. Of course those who have secured their present 1933 tags are not concerned.

UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

On returning from Harrisonburg last Sunday, where Mr. and Mrs. J.
H. Rexrode attended the funeral of his brother, Mr. H. R. Rexrode, his car skidded on the wet, slippery road at Massanutten Heights near Luray, going down over an embankment and cement culvert backwards, overturning and holding the occupants fast in a head-downward position until passers-by came to their rescue and extricated them. Fortunately they suffered no serious bodily injury; and after the car was placed upon the Lee Highway again and reloaded and re-gassed, Mr. Rexrode drove his V-8 to his home in Manassas, a distance of over 70 miles.

A SERMONETTE

By Rev. W. M. Compton

THANKSGIVING

Text: Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Eph. 5:20.

Thanksgiving is peculiarly an American celebration. It originated with the New England colonists. It was quietly observed by Gov. Bradford and his Plymouth Colony in the year 1621. It had a more dramatic origin in the Mass. Bay Colony. Just a little over 300 years ago Gov. Winthrop and his colony of a thousand settlers started life there. Food was scarce. There was much talk about sea food and how to get it. They succeeded in this. But the Governor knew that they would soon tire of corn bread and clam chowder. So he sent Captain Pierce with one of their best ships loaded with such cargo as could be supplied, and ordered him to return as quickly as possible with a ship load of wheat and barley, rye and oats, cheese and butter. They could hope for his return in not less than six months. Time wore on. In a new climate with strange food, there was much sickness and not a few deaths. In the midst of their hardships the court ordered a day of fasting. The Governor had given his last batch of meal to a poor man. About that time the report went out that from Fort Hill the topmasts of Pierce's ship could be seen returning. Imagine how the news spread from hovel to hovel! Imagine the joy when the court reversed its order for a Fast
Day and proclaimed for Mass. Bay Colony her first Day of Thanksgiving!
A feast of roast beef, cheese and butter, and plum-pudding from Old England followed. Thanksgiving day was annually observed in this Colony.

Thanksgiving Day was observed during the American Revolution.
Washington recommended such a Day for the adoption of the Federal Constitution. So did President Lincoln.
Since 1863 a Day for national thanksgiving has been regularly observed fixing by custom the last Thursday in November.

The basic principle of our Thanksgiving Day is religious. An eminent French critic of "Democracy in America" declared with emphasis that "religion gave birth to Anglo-American Society." No student of history need be told that the American Colonists were religious men and women. The great majority of them stood acquitted before the slightest approach of infidelity. They peered into the future and caught glimpses of the glorious progress the gospel was to make amongst their children and their children's children. This comforted them in their sorrows and sustained them under trials. They lived by faith and their hope was not disappointed. The descendants of these colonists could never rid themselves from conviction which had driven their ancestors to the New World. Nor could they ever utterly renounce the faith from which their Colonial Institutions had sprung.
They knew and we know that commonwealths which are not founded in religion rest precariously on shifting sand.

This, in brief, is the historic background that has originated and kept alive our National Thanksgiving Day.
It will require men of a similar faith and spirit to make Thanksgiving Day live in the future in its true historic significance. After 300 years of history, what does the day mean to us?
Thanksgiving Day is self-explanatory.
It is a special day set apart for individual and national thanksgiving.

AS AMERICAN CITIZENS. In this year 1933 notwithstanding we have assassinated the Eighteenth Amendment while still a youth of only thirteen years yet we have much to be thankful for. The wealth of wooded hills, the hidden treasures of granite mountains, the riches of widespread valleys are ours to command.
We are the granary of the world.
Our great western grainfields enable us to send bread all over the world.

MARIE DRESSLER AND WALLACE BEERY CO-STARRED

With Marie Dressler as Annie, redoubtable feminine skipper of Puget Sound, and Wallace Beery as the irresponsible but irresistible Captain Terry, "Tugboat Annie," much heralded filmization of Norman Reilly Raine's Saturday Evening Post stories, opens next Monday at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas. The picture marks the first co-starring appearance of Miss Dressler and Beery since the memorable "Min and Bill."

Directed by Mervyn LeRoy, who directed "Gold Diggers of 1933," "Little Caesar" and other hits, the new picture tells a vivid story of Northwestern waterfronts with the two central figures cast in inimitable roles. Laughs, thrills, tears and tense drama all have their share in the narrative.

Miss Dressler plays the aggressive feminine tugboat captain whose husband, Beery, is a shiftless drunkard. Throughout various entertaining episodes they are seen in hilarious quarrels and difficulties. Then their son grows up and becomes the captain of a liner. To save him from a wreck the "useless" father comes through with an heroic sacrifice.

Robert Young, last seen in "Hell Below," plays the son, with Maureen O'Sullivan in the juvenile romantic lead. Prominent roles are also played by Willard Robertson, Tammany Young, Frankie Darro, Jack Pennick and Paul Hurst. Much of the picture was filmed with actual tugboat thrills at Seattle Harbor. Hundreds took part in some of the film's spectacular scenes.

Among the story's highlights are the race for the wrecked ship, Beery's comical theft of the tug's hawser and its denouement, the breaking up of the school's commencement program, the hilarious celebration aboard the liner when Miss Dressler samples the punch, the stirring wreck sequence, the run of the tug to the rescue, through churning seas, and Beery's "big moment" when he enters the fire box of a boiler to plug its keeling tubes and thus the endangered ship of his son.

CARD OF THANKS

Through The Journal we wish to express to the many neighbors and friends our deep appreciation for the loving kindness shown our mother, Mrs. Carrie Tubbs, kindness and attention not only given during the last months of her illness but covering the long period she has been a shut-in. Many long hours have been shortened, many dull ones made brighter by visits or other tokens of love.

Personal expression is impossible so to each one who has contributed to her joy or comfort we wish to say "Thank you!"

Her sons,
Fred and Harry C. Tubbs.

BIBLE THOUGHT AND PRAYER

If parents will have their children memorize the daily Bible selections, it will prove a precious heritage to them in after years.

ROAD TO SUCCESS: Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him: and he shall bring it to pass... Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him.—Psalm 37: 5, 7.

LYNCH LAW

The topic of the week, not only in America, but throughout the world, is the often-debated subject of "Lynch Law." Last Sunday an infuriated mob in California brought summary justice to two kidnapers who had murdered their victim in cold blood as a mere matter of convenience in carrying on negotiations for his ransom. The Governor of California openly endorsed the lynching and stated that he would immediately pardon anyone arrested for participation.

On Tuesday, in contrast, the Governor of Maryland sent armed troopers to the eastern shore of his state to arrest men suspected of participation in a recent lynching and whom local authorities had refused to arrest. A struggle of considerable magnitude followed and the officers had great difficulty in preventing rescue of their prisoners.

Many cultured and law-respecting citizens approve mob violence in circumstances where the ordinary processes of law seem inadequate either as a punishment or a deterrent of similar crimes. Mob action may have been a safeguard to society in pioneer days on the outposts of civilization, but it is a sad commentary upon our judicial system, if Lynch Law is a necessary procedure in this highly-organized country today. If kidnapping is actually becoming unmanageable, such a remedy might be defended, but even then, the degrading effect of these ghastly orgies cannot be discounted.

It is said that an Irishman named James Lynch Fitz-Stephens, in 1526, originated the term Lynch Law by unofficially executing his own son, convicted of murder, to prevent his rescue by a mob. If so, he must have lived under a cloud the remainder of his life, as do most of those who have before them the indelible recollection of having helped to take human life.

SHARING ONE'S BREAD

Hans Fallada has given us a novel of the depression which drives home the point that the present economic upheaval is a trial of the spirit quite as much as a trial of the flesh.

The plot of "Little Man, What Now?" is laid in Berlin. There Pinneberg and his young wife, Bunny, try to worry it through. Pinneberg is a clerk and on his slender earnings, they are able for a period to maintain their little converted flat over a furniture store.

But Pinneberg loses his job. With his wife and baby, he is forced to take refuge in a leaky hut in outlying fields. The cold is bitter, but Pinneberg, a precisely honest chap, is able to resist the temptation to steal wood.

He goes into the city for his dole. He is shabby, down at the heel. A policeman mistakes him for a Communist and pushes him into the gutter. His spirit broken, he returns to his hut and the comforting arms of a wife who knows but for her he will become a permanent wreck.

There are Pinnebergs in Richmond right now. There are Pinnebergs who are striving desperately to retain their self-respect. Once lost, that is hard to regain.

You can help those Pinnebergs, or with your pocketbook at least comfortably filled, you can merely murmur: "Isn't it too bad?"

The Community Fund is intended to tide over just such persons at the Pinnebergs. The few dollars you give may mean the difference between the salvage of an individual and his permanent loss to society.

Don't argue that your expenses are up, that your income is cut. At least you are able to meet your expenses; at least you are able to bank some income. There are others who have debts which for years may be carried on ledgers and finally scratched off as worthless; there are others who haven't a cent except what they get from you.

Mr. Seibel today pictorially portrays how differently you would act were you in a lifeboat with a few other shivering human beings and you had the only loaf of bread. This is just as grave an adventure today, and it is being experienced by the entire country. What is to be your role? Are you going to share generously with your companions or are you going to hide that loaf of bread for yourself?

Supposing that lifeboat is picked up and you are saved. It is to keep yourself alive until the moment of rescue that you are keeping that bread. Are you ever again going to be able to hold your head up, if you alone survive when sacrifice on your part might have kept all alive?—Times-Dispatch.

MRS. W. H. LIPSCOMB

Mrs. W. H. Lipscomb, wife of W. H. Lipscomb, M. F. H., of the Loudoun Hunt, died suddenly Tuesday in her home in Washington. Funeral services were held in that city today, with a large number of Leesburg and Loudoun residents attending the rites.

News of the passing of Mrs. Lipscomb stunned a wide circle of friends in Leesburg, among whom she was greatly beloved. Ill for several months and recently having undergone serious operations, word from her home as late as Sunday was that she was rapidly regaining her strength and, apparently, was well on the way to recovery.

Mrs. Lipscomb was expected at Raspberry Plain, her Loudoun home, near Leesburg, for Thanksgiving, to spend the holiday there with her family. She had been for an automobile ride only a short time before her death and was believed to be recuperating rapidly. Tidings of her death, wholly unexpected, shocked the community. Out of respect for her memory all hunting activities of the Loudoun Hunt for the week-end have been abandoned.

The daughter of the late Samuel Ross, Washington industrialist and turfman, Mrs. Lipscomb was widely known in Virginia and the East. Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb established their residence at Raspberry Plain about two years ago, the home being the scene of numerous smart social functions.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Lipscomb is survived by two children, Helen and Ross.—Loudoun Times.

Mr. W. H. Lipscomb is the son of the late W. N. Lipscomb and grandson of the late Judge William E. Lipscomb, former judge of Prince William County.

COLORED BAPTISTS
HOLD A DEBATE

Interesting Arguments on Usefulness of Fire and Water.

On Monday night the First Baptist Church, of Manassas, was the scene of an interesting forensic battle between the Rev. A. H. Johnson, pastor of the local church, and Rev. J. W. Henderson, of Washington, on the question of the relative importance of civilization of fire and water. Rev. Johnson defended the greater importance of water and was given a unanimous decision. In a previous debate in Manassas on another subject, the same judges had rendered a decision in favor of Rev. Henderson.

Judges for the occasion were Mr. G. Raymond Ratcliffe, cashier of the Peoples National Bank; Prof. Frank G. Sigman, formerly of Swavely College; Rev. John DeChant, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Manassas, and Mr. William H. Lamb, editor of The Manassas Journal, who acted as spokesman.

Previous to the debate special music was rendered by pupils of the Manassas Industrial School. Other features of entertainment included instrumental selections by Miss Cannady, a reading by Miss Carroll and a solo by Marshall Haley.

The popularity of these interesting debates is growing, as manifested by

MEMORIAL

In loving remembrance of Mrs. Carrie Tubbs who departed this life Nov. 23 in her 87th year. Mrs. Tubbs was born in New York State on June 16, 1847. She came to Virginia while yet a young woman with her husband, the late John Tubbs. They made their home near Bellhaven, Va., lived there many years and reared their four sons in that community. Most of the last 20 years has been spent in Dumfries among many friends.

Mrs. Tubbs was a member of the M. E. Church, South, also of the Woman's Missionary Society.

Her body was laid to rest in old Bellhaven Churchyard beside her husband and two sons, Ernest and Herbert who had "gone before." The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. H. Shumate, and her lifetime friend, Rev. Murray Taylor, in Bellhaven Church where she worshipped and worked for many years.

Mrs. Tubbs leaves to mourn an only brother, Lewis Foot of Dumfries; two sons, Fred and Harry of Washington; 4 daughters-in-law; five grandsons, five granddaughters, four great grandchildren beside a host of friends wherever she had lived.

Mrs. Tubbs had been a sufferer for many months. She bore her lot with patience and died in the blessed assurance "There is a home not built with hands, A resting place with God."

We shall sleep, but not for ever. There will be a glorious dawn. We shall sleep, but not for ever. There will be a resurrection morn. —A Friend.

TWIN CITY GOSSIP

A Thanksgiving Thought . . . Above all the great teachers of morality and virtue, it reverts the character of the Great Master Who, submissive to the will of His and our Father, died upon the cross . . . All must admit, that if the world were filled with beings like Him, the great ills of society would be at once relieved . . . For all coercion, injury, selfishness and revenge, and all the wrongs and the greatest sufferings of life, would disappear at once . . . Eternal ages would roll on in brightness and beauty . . .

If every man were a perfect imitator of that Great, Wise, Good Teacher, clothed with all His faith and all His virtues, how the circle of Life's ills and trials would be narrowed . . . ! The sensual passions would assail the heart in vain . . . Want would no longer tempt men to act wrongly, nor curiosity do rashly. Ambition, spreading before men its Kingdoms and its Thrones, and offices and honors, would cause none to swerve from their great allegiance . . . We believe that there is a God of the universe to marshal the nations in the way of wisdom, justice and love . . . We do not believe the fortuitous concurrence of events, or nature that of atoms . . . We cannot believe that there is no pain nor purpose in nature, to guide our going and coming . . .

Deep down in our hearts we give thanks to the Great All wise Father upon this Festive occasion . . . We have many things to be thankful for . . . God of our Fathers be with us lest we forget . . . Lord we most humbly thank Thee . . .

"WHEN LADIES MEET" TELLS MATRIMONIAL STORY FROM DECIDEDLY NOVEL ANGLE

An exceptionally strong cast was assembled by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer-Cosmopolitan for its film version of the Rachel Crothers stage success, "When Ladies Meet," which starts at the Dixie Theatre in Manassas next Wednesday, Dec. 6. Ann Harding and Robert Montgomery are co-starred and the other principal roles are filled by Myrna Loy, Alice Brady and Frank Morgan.

The distinguished Miss Harding, whose hits range from "Holiday" to the recent "Animal Kingdom," enacts the publisher's wife in Miss Crothers' biting drama of four people whose lives are brought to climactic point at a seemingly peaceful country week-end party. Montgomery, last seen in "Hell Below," is the shrewd young newspaperman who creates a fictitious liaison between himself and the publisher's wife in order to attract the interest of the women he really loves.

It is Miss Loy, a rising young novelist, whom Montgomery loves, but Miss Loy believes herself to be enamored of the publisher, played by Frank Morgan. It is this cross-complication of affections which forms the unusual dramatic structure of "When Ladies Meet," the plot of which finds its outlet when all four persons concerned are brought together at the country home of Alice Brady, and are forced to thresh out their respective emotional complexes.

The action of the picture starts with a party on a millionaire's houseboat, shifts to Miss Loy's smart Greenwich Village garden apartment and ends at Miss Brady's old country homestead, portrayed as an old farmhouse which has been artfully rebuilt to include the more luxurious appointments of its wealthy tenants. The settings were designed by Cedric Gibbons with interiors by Edwin Willis, the well-known decorator, and they are reported to be the most stunning yet devised for film use.

CATHARPIN

Payton Shipp and Carlos Wells, former residents of Sudley neighborhood but now of Pennsylvania, were calling on friends in the community last week.

The Thanksgiving sermon by the pastor at Sudley last Sunday morning was full and complete with enough "food for thought" scattered along the way to last a long time. "People are prone to become discouraged when things do not go just as they would have them" said the pastor, "but we must remember that things do not always come to us right side up." We had not thought of it just that way, but many will say "tis true; so we have the ever present duty of doing our bit to keep things upright chief of which is to encourage our own dispositions to appreciate the blessings of life as we have them every day. Now just to go straight a little bit, suppose you stop right here and, as the bookkeeper would say, take a "trial balance" of things; count your blessings and set them over against your adversities and see if you have anything to be thankful for. Just try it once and be surprised.

Considerable sickness of various kinds is reported in the Catharpin neighborhood principally among children but some "grown-ups" are not feeling just as well as they would like to; colds, chicken pox, tonsillitis, etc., are having their "inning" just now with their consequent discomfort.

Mrs. R. A. Collins of Marble Hill left on Saturday for a few days so-journ among friends and relatives at Hampton, Va.

About a dozen of the "faithful" gathered around the quilting frames at Oakwood last week and for two days needles and conversation ran a race, but it was hard to tell which won since both went hand-in-hand so pleasantly that one seemed a counterpart of the other. You may just talk as you please but if a dozen women can have a better and jollier time any place else than at a quilting party they would like to know of it. Then again along with their good time they get something worthwhile accomplished. Each one brings a contribution to the "festive board" where jollity reigns supreme and the NRA is totally ignored. We don't know just what General Johnson would say about this but we venture the guess that if present, he would likewise "do his part" along the rest of them.

A "Pounding Party" chaperoned by the Sudley Missionary Society visited the parsonage at Gainesville last week and left many evidences of good will in the way of substantial designed for pot, pan and pantry all of which were much appreciated by the new pastor and wife.

MANY BEGINNERS EXAMINED IN PRESCHOOL CLINICS

Local Physicians and Woman's League Active in Health Work.

Of the 210 children who entered school for the first time this fall in Prince William County, 104 had been examined in preschool clinics. Much credit is due the Woman's League for the active part which this organization took in organizing the clinics. School and health officials are also indebted to the local physicians of the county for their services.

It is particularly important that parents realize how essential is the physical fitness of infant and preschool children in order that their progress may be unhampered by defects of teeth, eyes, ears, or other physical hindrances. It has been proved that high health standards make for improved scholastic achievement, and to have every child enter school as a Five Pointer is one of the main objectives of the State Departments of Health and Education.

FORD V-8 TRUCK MAKES RECORD

Runs Across Continent in Quick Time.

Smashing all previous speed records for motor trucks on a transcontinental trip, a Ford V-8 truck, carrying a full two-ton load of merchandise sped into Los Angeles at 8:13 o'clock on Nov. 21, after crossing the continent in 71 hours, 12 minutes, thirty seconds elapsed time. The run was made under the official observation of Glenn Wade for the Keystone Automobile Club, who accompanied the truck.

The truck out-distances by four hours the fastest regular passenger train service between Atlantic City and Los Angeles. On Nov. 22, Mayor Shaw of Los Angeles, together with city and state officials and representatives of the Automobile Associations received the crew of four drivers who made the run in a typical California ceremony. The drivers presented letters of greeting from Mayor Harry Bacharach of Atlantic City and Mayor J. Hampton Moore, of Philadelphia.

The transcontinental freighter was welcomed at the Los Angeles City limits, with all the spectacular enthusiasm of a Hollywood opening night. Nearly 3000 people were on hand to greet the transcontinental drivers to California in a blaze of floodlights.

Following the termination of the run the truck was checked officially by the Southern California Automobile Club on a thirteen-mile check run and the speedometer found accurate to two-tenths of a mile for the 13 miles.

In making the 2945 mile run the Ford freighter averaged 41.3 miles per hour, which record according to Ford officials was made by safe driving under police escort and not by dangerous bursts of speed.

The transcontinental run required 322 gallons of gasoline and five quarts of oil, the final quart not being used. Only one pint of water was added to the radiator during the entire trip.
